New Wrinkle in Terracing

The use of parallel terraces is spreading rapidly in Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District. They are specially designed to fit high speed, power farming methods.

Besides preventing soil erosion and making farming easier, parallel terraces have other advantages. For example, they keep silt out of streams and lakes. A terraced hillside is more profitable than an ugly erosion scarred field. Farmers who installed parallel terraces during 1971 were George Streit, Albert Brockriede and sons and Lee Roy Palmer, all in Pankin Center area. Donald and Richard Hill replaced their standard system of terraces with the new parallel type on their farm north of Iowa Park.

Other county farmers who have installed parallel terrace systems in previous years are Wilburn Glass, M. R. Hanks and Elmer Ser and Dewey Dovel of Electra, Klinkerman of Clara; Jack Wallace Robertson and Mrs. Essie Haley of Burkburnett; Clarence Mahler of Iowa Park; R. E. Pace and L. D. Smith of Wichita Falls. Anyone needing help in planning a parallel terrace system on his farm should contact the SCS office in Iowa Park. Government cost-share help is available.

Contracts Made for Construction of Water Lines and Storage

Consulting engineers, city council members and four Water District board members met at City Hall, Monday evening to consider bids on the Water System improvements and make choices as to the lowest and best.

The proposal of Opey Inc. was accepted for the 16-inch line from Wichita Falls to Iowa Park and for improving and updating the distribution lines inside the city limits — at a cost of $662,526.

H. and S. Utility Construction Co. was awarded the contract to build a ground storage tank with capacity of 500,000 gallons, and the pumping facilities at cost of $177,880.00.

Universal Tank Co. was successful bidder on the 500,000-gallon elevated tank west of town, to cost $113,670.00.

The engineers will write up the contracts and send to bidders at this time. A company has already started putting together the pipe. They plan to start delivering pipe to the places of installation sometime between March 10 and 20.

Activity on building tanks and distribution lines should be evident soon. Total of all contracts is $854,076.00.

The contractors have 200 calendar days to complete the job after they begin, which should be the latter part of June.

Engineers present were W. J. Wischmeyer and Pete Freeman. Others were Mayor E. F. Soell, Secretary George Trammell, Aldermen Rip Smith, L. W. Teel Jr., Billy Gilmore, Herman Mahler, Carl Davis; Water Board Members Gaines Maness, Delbert Todd, Carl Sullivan, Miles Hines.

McClendon Has T-E Liquid Feed

Taylor-Evans Seed Co., an Amarillo-based subsidiary of Diamond Shamrock Corp., has announced the opening of a new plant in Clovis, N.M., to manufacture liquid feed supplement for cattle and sheep. The company will manufacture both feed yard and range supplements under the T-E brand.

Within recent years the use of liquid feed supplement has become an important element in cattle and sheep feeding programs. Its growing use by livestock producers has coincided with the growing dependence on such feed additives as urea and phosphorus acid.

T-E Liquid Feed supplement uses molasses as a carrier for these additives as well as vitamins and trace minerals.

Taylor-Evans began business in Amarillo in 1951 and established its Agri-Supply division the following year and Amarillo, the company has since expanded its branches in Amarillo in Tulia and Iowa Park and in Oklahoma City. McClendon Feed & Seed always keeps a good stock of T-E Liquid Feed Supplement and the feeders which disperse the feed in an efficient and economical way.

They invite all stockmen in the surrounding area to contact them for the feeders and the feed.

Sen. Hightower Seeks Re-election

Now in the mail are formal requests for a place on the ballots for the Democratic primary by Jack Hightower as a candidate for re-election to the State Senate from the 30th Senatorial District.

Senator Hightower has been an announced candidate for some time, but formal filing with the county Democratic committees was delayed due to the litigation involving senatorial district boundaries and the question of filing fee. Some of the legal questions having been resolved it is now known which counties are included in the new 30th Senatorial District.

Jack Hightower is in his eighth year of service in the Senate. He also served one term in the Texas House of Representatives and was District Attorney of the 46th Judicial District seven years prior to his election to the Senate.

23 Study Club

Guest Day luncheon of the 23 Study club on Feb. 17 will also feature guests on the program. The theme will be "Quest for a Stronger Religious Faith," and Mrs. Walter Robbins of Wichita Falls will be speaker. Iowa Park high school under direction of Mr. Darrell Dick, with Teri Singer as accompanist, will sing.

Eleanor M. Robbins, artist and author, of Wichita Falls, will give an easel talk, presenting a portfolio of chalk drawings, copies of selected episodes from Charles Schulz's cartoon strip "Peanuts." Mrs. Robbins' humorous remarks are adapted in part from two best-selling books: "The Gospel According to Peanuts" and "Parables of Peanuts." Robert Short, theologian, is author of these delightful commentaries on Charles Brown and his friends.

Widely known for her lectures and paintings of Bible plants, especially a series of 12 patterned water-colors (which, in totality, show every identifiable plant mentioned in scripture) called "Two Magic Trees and Other Herbs," the artist is also author of "Eye Gate," an illustrated exposition of Christian symbolism with explicit reference to the semi-Gothic edifice of First United Methodist church in Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Robbins is director emerita of the Criterion club and a guest lecturer in the Planetarium of the Museum and Art Center in that city.

A camellia hobbyist for many years, she maintains a small "forest" of 25 six-to-twelve-foot boxed camellia trees under glass, and has contributed several humorous articles based on her experience — Camellia-people-wise — to the publications of the American Camellia Society, of which she is a member.

The program will be at United Methodist church here at noon. It is not open to the public, but by invitation of club members.

Mrs. D. O. James of Iowa Park and Mrs. Joe Eubanks of Wichita Falls went to Danville, Ark., last Friday to visit relatives.

AEO of BSP

Valentine was the theme for the Tuesday meeting of Alpha Epsilon Omicron chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in the home of Mrs. George Bludnick.

"Drama in Life" was the program presented by Mrs. Louis Sawyer. Each member gave examples of a dramatic experience in life. Examples ranged from trip to the moon, Kennedy's assassination, to personal experiences and near-tragedy.

"I Hear It Now . . . The Sixties" narrated by Walter Cronkite was presented, giving the music, the riots, civil disorders, and the war and assassinations which occurred in the decade.

Mrs. Bludnick directed business and announced the St. Valentine dance this Saturday night at Notre Dame high school.

Mrs. Robert Pearson presented the book to the Library.

Feb. 15 meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Bobby Bradford.

Other members present were Mmes. James Owens, James Grove, Jack Jackson, and Travis Bradford.

Also present were Messrs. and Mmes. Raymond Good, L. P. Lambert, Ed Hayes, M. L. Hines; Messdames J. J. Dwyer, Ruth Caldwell, Gladys Thompson, Amma Chesher, Lydia J. Hudson, Mae Roby, O. M. Jones; Messrs. Hill Spruiell, F. A. Mann, T. M. Clark, Herman Evans, J. A. Berg.

The Lakey and Yarbro families have had a Doctor Clark as family physician since 1915. They shared our joy and sorrow and have also been friends. We submit with love the following lines:

Dr. & Mrs. Clark

Sometimes in this troubled world of ours
 Comes one with knowledge of healing powers,
 Such a one was Doctor Clark
 Who came to Iowa Park.
 A busier person you'll never see
 As he delivered babies adding to the family trees.
 As Club party nights came for games and fun
 Often he would say, "Sorry I'm just too tired to come,
 Today I handed Mr. So and So a daughter, a son.
 Always through the years interested in Town Affairs
 He was the Family Doctor who came and cared.
 Anytime of night he drove anywhere
 Families appreciated and loved him just being there.
 Oscar, too, talented in many ways
 Worked side by side those days.
 Talking over Civic Affairs
 And Texas-Oklahoma Fair.
 Also, many boys at Sheppard Field
 And girl Sheppardettes remember still
 The modern dance or the Virginia Reel.
 These nights were planned for games and fun
 Before Uncle Sam asked them to face the enemy guns.
 She's still active in remembering those in service
 at Christmas time
 And has received many notes of "thank you" lines.
 Now retirement time has come, we say to both,
 "You've earned it with things well done;
 "We are glad you will still be in our community
 "And hope you will enjoy years of Active Inactivity."
 — Roy and Mary Yarbro Lakey

Several friends of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon G. Clark have asked that their names be added to last week's list of those who loved the charming couple and wished a happy retirement. We could not refuse.

Brott Honored for Scouting

Methodist Men's club used as theme for their January meeting "Scout Recognition." Miles V. Thompson, church Scout co-ordinator, was introduced and received a standing ovation as taken of appreciation of his efforts through the years.

Thompson outlined the history of Troop 38. He thanked the members of the church for their support. The only Scout troop in town prior to the chartering of 38 was overflowing, and consequently had most of the leaders already working who were interested in Scouting.

The new troop finally got on its feet, and in Thompson's opinion is one of the most active troops in Iowa Park and in the Scout district.

Miles closed his historical review with giving most credit for their success to Scoutmaster Fay Brott.

Mr. Brott has been in Scouting program since 1963, when his son joined the Cub Scouts. He began by serving as committee member for Pack 236. Later he became cubmaster for the pack. During this time Pack 236 had approximately 90 boys. There were nine dens and Pack 236 was said to be the largest group in the Council at that time.

In 1966, Fay Brott joined Boy Scout Troop 38 as a committee member. In 1967 he became assistant scoutmaster. In 1968 he became scoutmaster of Troop 38.

During his scouting years, the troop received such honors as being the first troop to canoe 57 miles down the Wichita River; buy their own canoes; buy a bus for troop transportation with money earned from fund raising projects; bought other camping equipment; won the Winter Olympics at Midwestern university two years in a row; and many other outstanding awards.

Since Mr. Brott has had Troop 38, he has awarded the Eagle rank (highest rank in Scouting) to four members of Troop 38.

The past two years, 1970 and 1971, he has taken scouts to the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico. He is also a member of the Order of the Arrow organization.

Even though he is retiring from the position of Scoutmaster, Fay still plans to be active in the Scouting program. He now is conducting a pilot program "Operation Reach" with Troop 38 for the Council. There are approximately 50 boys registered in Troop 38.

Brott has often said, "While I may have done a lot for Scouts, Scouting has done an awful lot for me."

The program was closed with Thompson presenting on behalf of the Methodist Men a plaque in appreciation of Mr. Brott's years as scoutmaster. He announced that Gideon Swedberg is taking over as scoutmaster.

Other visitors recognized were John Adams, Dickie Ashton, Billy Jay Farmer and Mr. Dick Ashton. Regular members present were Herman Mahler, Otis Gay, Bob McClelland, Gene Owens, George Smith, Floyd Adams, Jay Farmer and special members Maggie Mahler and Thelma Gay.

Stewarts Return

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Stewart moved back to Iowa Park from Illinois in December. He is a minister for the Church of God and is doing evangelistic work in this area.

Mrs. Lonnie Stewart attends the Midwestern university school of nursing. A sophomore, she plans to become a registered nurse.

Both are trained gospel singers and have been on programs in many Midwestern areas. They are known as the Maranthe Singers and have Mrs. Judy Skinner to complete the trio.

Lonnie and Ronnie Stewart are twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Stewart of Iowa Park. Both are evangelists for the Church of God and have returned to make temporary homes here. Both men have recently suffered similar health problems and are working only part time.

Birthday Party

C. R. Hale's 61st birthday was a happy surprise for him. He talked by telephone with daughters during the day and they did not mention a word about its being a special time for him.

After leaving the store where he works, Tuesday evening, Hale drove by the homes of each and no one was at home. He returned to his home about 7:30 with no sign of activity anywhere . . . no lights on, no cars to be seen.

When he opened the door, lights flashed on everywhere and such a bedlam of "Happy Birthdays" you have never heard. And there was a big birthday cake, and punch, and gifts galore.

Eight of all C. B.'s daughters and families of Wichita Falls—Mr. and Mrs. Don Dwyer and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dwyer and three grandchildren: Charla Dawn, Yanci DeShawn, and Don jr.

During the evening his nephew and family Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dehton, Debbie and Burrie joined the happy group. They had brought all the "party makings" from the various homes.

C. B. was so overjoyed he had to shed a tear or two.

Mrs. Mae Roby and Mrs. Omega visited relatives in Garland last weekend. Mrs. Roby, with a sister in law and family and a niece. Omega was guest of her brother Buzz Mayo. The previous week the two were in Oklahoma City as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Jenkins. The special occasion was the 8th birthday of Jamie, granddaughter of Mrs. Harris.

Homemakers

Next Tuesday evening at 7:30 the Young Homemakers of America will study flower arrangements as a feature of the program. Meetings are conducted in the IPHS homemaking department.

Mrs. Howard Schenck has resigned as president because she and Howard and their son are moving away. Mrs. Jerry Hodges has been elected to take the office.

Any women in the community interested in the many phases of homemaking are invited to become members and enjoy the fellowship of the group and participate in the timely and interesting program.

Party for Janie

Honor night for Janie Cogdell was observed Tuesday evening with Julie Woods as hostess in the Ron Woods home. Janie is the immediate past worthy adviser of the Rainbow Assembly for Girls. Julie is the current worthy adviser.

Mrs. Cogdell was presented the small gold necklace, a gift of recognition made to each worthy adviser as she concludes her term.

Mrs. Susan Defer, mother adviser, was present. Refreshments were served during the social time.

Friend Writes

Dear Ona Lou,
 How I wish all of you were here to view this icy beauty this morning! I'm snug and warm as I looked at the calm gray lake with ice covered hillside beyond. These oak trees are lovely even though bare of leaves, as their icy boughs interlace into a fabulous network.

I have a real panoramic view of Nature and am absorbing it before campers and boats move in to summer to spoil it.

Only the gulls and bluejays are out, but the neighbors will soon be moving about—nothing daunts them. They put on their chains and take off. They have been so good to ask if I need anything, and they are very friendly.

The preacher said his father once worked near Wichita Falls in the oilfield. They have a luncheon at the church once a month, I suppose because the place is so sparsely settled that they enjoy getting together.

The C.W.F. also has a luncheon once a month with the study following. Most of the members are retired people, and I've been surprised with the amount of talent there (I don't know if any can bake biscuits!)

This is still just a fishing and boating resort, but it is rapidly building for the lakeside property is nearly all sold. I hope the townspeople will appreciate their blessings enough to clean up some of the places. I suppose where there are roadside eating places and drive-ins, there will be trash scattered about. (Enough of trying to clean up the whole world!)

This is wonderful climate for gardening, but I don't have the space, so shall enjoy my brothers' gardens.

Love to all,
 Edith

Soil Conservation District News

Soil Conservation Service has begun a new study of the Wichita Valley-Pond Creek Watershed, according to Gary A. Batte of Iowa Park, SCS district conservationist.

The study was requested by local residents and the Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District following flood damage of almost $1,000,000 last August.

Purpose of the study will be to see if it is possible to develop a watershed plan to prevent future flooding.

L. J. Lann, SCS assistant state conservation (watersheds) from Temple, will be in charge of the team of experts work in this area on this study.

At your service:

It's people power that makes Reddy Kilowatt run.

You take dependable electric service pretty much for granted, of course. And for good reason. Your electric service has become so commonplace, so much a part of your everyday life, that you have no occasion to give it a second thought. But did you ever wonder what makes Reddy Kilowatt run, so that you take him for granted? Reddy runs because of the people and things behind your electric switch. Technically-trained, experienced and dedicated people who work in power plants and substations, in offices and outdoors, with complex equipment such as computers and microwave communications systems. Their job is to assure that when you flip a switch in your home or where you work, electric service is produced at that instant — at the moment of use. Electricity, unlike other things you use, cannot be stored. You decide when you want it, and Texas Electric provides it — right there and right then.

It's all part of a Texas Electric style of service we call "People Power." It helps all of us do a better job of serving you, our customers. On the other side of your electric service switch, there's a whole world of people committed to helping you live better, Texas Electrically. It's what we mean when we say we're "at your service."

Soccer

Iowa Park is fortunate in having two able coaches for soccer. Jerry Hutchins has had four years experience playing the game in Europe and 1 1/2 years in Canada. Jim Grove played seven years in Europe.

A number of boys have indicated interest in fielding at least one team here, but the hope is to get two Iowa Park teams to play in the Boys Club league in Wichita Falls. A minimum of 16 players in one age group is needed to field a team.

Do you have a son 7 to 11 years of age or 11 to 13? If you do, give him a chance to learn a sport which is as mental as it is physical. Anyone interested may call 592-5385 or 592-5901.

Regular practice times have been set at 4:30 p.m. Mondays through Fridays at Will Burnett Field.

Hutchins and Grove state their main aims are not winning games, but teaching young boys of Iowa Park a new sport, and most of all good sportsmanship. Soccer, they say, is a sport that puts mind and body together, a sport where size does not determine the expertness of the player.

In fact, if you check world soccer champions, you will find they come from England, Spain, Italy and South America, and all are generally of small stature.

How about encouraging that 7 to 13 year old boy to be at Will Burnett Field this afternoon after school to find out what a challenging game soccer can be!

Telephone Books

Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. delivered this week the 1972 Iowa Park telephone directory along with the Wichita Falls directory.

The black and white book features a drawing of Iowa Park's new high school. The modern building has 23 classrooms, an 860 capacity auditorium and a lunch room. Special features are the gymnasium and a large library.

Alphabetical listings in the book number 2,339, and 28 pages of classified listings help "fingers do the walking."

"We hope to have all the directories delivered by the end of this week," commented Jim Hall, manager for Southwestern Bell.

"We have ordered extra books to replace directories at public phones and to fill out-of-town requests. The company has 3,150 phones in Iowa Park and 64,241 in Wichita Falls.

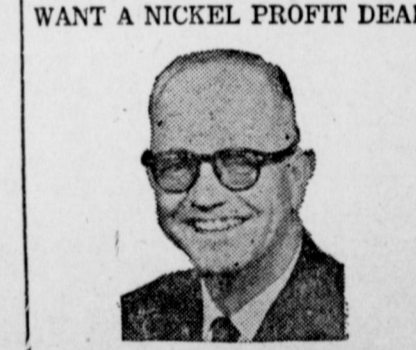

"This updated directory will allow customers to look up numbers quickly and avoid making time-consuming calls to directory assistance."

In the front of the book are sheriff and ambulance services, emergency listings for fire, police, and a complete call guide for placing local and long distance calls. The Yellow Pages have an alphabetical index.

WSGS

Mrs. Travis Smith directed the second in the series of studies on Africa when the WSGS met in United Methodist church fellowship hall Tuesday morning. The birdseye view of ancient kingdoms revealed that civilization in Africa was as advanced as that of Rome in centuries past. Only in recent years has that fact become known.

Three maps on display added interest to the subject of development from ancient times to the present. At the beginning of World War II, only two countries of Africa were independent. Since that time 41 countries have become independent and they have been and are suffering growing pains that are shaking the foundations of the world.

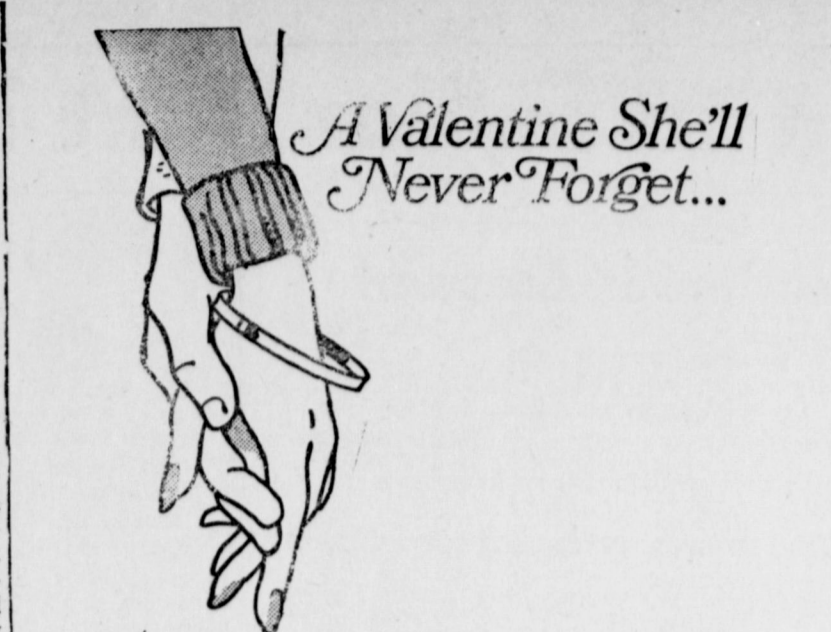

One of the most heart-breaking situations on the continent, that of Britain and Rhodesia, was described by Mrs. M. L. Hines, who used as a major source of information letters and reports from Larry and Mickey George, who live in Mrewa, Rhodesia, and whose bishop, A. T. Muzorewa, is leading in the African National Council movement.

This movement is an attempt to unite black people in the effort to get some voice in the form of government and education being worked out for Rhodesia. The minority, mostly white people, are in the saddle and dictate to the five million blacks how they shall be governed, and in so doing making it almost impossible for them to speak with authority.

Mrs. David Thomas had on display coins from Africa, a part of her husband's collection. Some of them dated back to days before Christ, typifying an advanced culture.

Mrs. S. B. Keeter presided for a short business period. Mrs. Miles Thompson reported on the Call to Prayer offering. Plans for circle meetings and two concluding programs were announced.

Mrs. Mahler served coffee and cake to those mentioned and Miss Ethyle Kidwell; Mmes. Otis Gay, Floyd Boyd, George Trammell, Gordon Clark, George Smith, E. H. Pearce, James Todd, Paul Zink, Gene Lowrey, Elgin Denny, Donald Cook, O. H. Davenport, J. W. Farmer, W. C. Albright, Fred Widmoyer, Henry Johnson, W. M. Owens, Julia Lindesmith, Judy Baker, M. O. Cheves.

VALENTINE'S DAY MAKES THE HEART BEAT FASTER

In a Valentine's Day party game, popular in the last century, each blindfolded lass, fished in a Valentine box for the name of the lad who would be her sweetheart until the next February 14.

Although things may not have always worked out that way for her, the game itself should have been exciting!

Though the origin of St. Valentine's Day is shrouded in mystery, it is generally associated with the two saints named Valentine whose celebration day happens to fall on February 14.

However, according to one belief, Valentine's Day is the modern equivalent of the Roman Lupercalian celebration, a gay holiday once celebrated on February 15. According to another legend observance of the day is linked to the old European belief that February 14 was the day of the year when birds mated.

In the late 1700s, sweethearts began penning and decorating elaborate St. Valentine's Day cards for one another. Some of these still survive as precious museum treasures, but the floral arrangements that accompanied the cards, being as fragile and delicate as love itself, regrettably have not.

Through the years flowers have often expressed the inexpressible even more eloquently than the written word. Today, saying "Happy Valentine's" with flowers is as easy to do as sending a greeting card. For example, through local FTD florists, anyone can send a special "LoveBundle" bouquet anywhere in the U.S. or Canada throughout the week preceding Valentine's Day.

The LoveBundle, designed in an exclusive Haeger container, is a radiant arrangement of fresh tulips, carnations, pompons and greenery, which also features a red chenille heart and two white, ceramic angels.

Yes, the modern lass does have it easier today. But, while she may decide to take full advantage of this Leap Year, she might still pity the 13th century Miss who kept her eyes shut tight on February 14th—out of a superstitious fear that she would fall hopelessly in love with the first man she chanced to see on Valentine's Day!—M.M.
