

A LIFE IS AT STAKE

Second Urgent Appeal Issued in Behalf of Miss Stone.

THE RANSOM MUST BE PAID

Search by Ottoman Troops Has Been Abandoned Through Fear That Brigands Will Kill Their Prisoner.

By Associated Press. Boston, Oct. 11.—In compliance with a request from Washington the search by Ottoman troops for the abductors of Miss Stone, the American missionary now held captive by brigands in the Balkan mountains for a ransom of $10,000. Nearly one half that sum is yet to be raised.

By Associated Press. Boston, Oct. 11.—The misunderstanding existing in various parts of the country, indicated especially in private advices received here as to the progress of the fund for ransom Miss Stone, the missionary, is considered to be sufficient for the issuance of another appeal for funds by the clergyman who signed the first one. The idea is to impress upon the people of America the danger that still threatens Miss Stone. The second appeal is as follows: "To the People of America: The prompting of our hearts compels us to issue a second urgent appeal to the people of America to come to the rescue of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary now held captive by brigands in the Balkan mountains for a ransom of $10,000. Nearly one half that sum is yet to be raised. Private advices received yesterday were to the effect that it was absolutely necessary to raise the full amount at once. The story of a 30 days respite is absolutely discredited in the best informed circles. Today's information from Washington is that the outlook is far from being reassuring as was hoped yesterday. The public should not be deceived by the idea that the American Board, as such, will pay any of the ransom. It has officially declared that it could not, although its members have unanimously expressed sympathy with the movement. Will not pastors, tender-hearted women, patriotic men and representatives of commercial and financial activity everywhere; will not every one aid by service or by gift until the entire fund is in hand? A life is at stake, the life of a Christian, a missionary, a patriot, and a noble American. All contributions should be sent direct to Kidder, Peabody & Co., 115 Deane street, Boston; or Baring, Magoun & Co., 15 Wall street, New York. All money contributed will be returned to the donor in case its use is not necessary or in the event of its being heretofore secured by or through the United States government. John L. Withrow, Park Street Congregational church. George C. Lorimer, Tremont Temple Baptist church. John Galbraith, Bromfield Street M. E. church."

By Associated Press. Simla, Oct. 11.—Habib Ullah Khan, the new ameer of Afghanistan, has officially informed Lord Curzon, viceroy of India, that he will follow in his father's footsteps, hoping that the friendship existing between the Afghan and British governments will continue to increase. "Habib Ullah, indignant at their flight, has taken measures to defend the country against the new ameer, and to prevent their return, or to endeavor to capture them as rebels. He has further resolved to ask assistance of Emperor Nicholas and the ameer of Bokhara. CHADWICK WAS CHIEF WITNESS

Captain of Admiral Sampson's Flagship as Witness.

DETAILS OF THE TESTIMONY

It Dealt Largely With Questions Relating to Dispatches Which Were Sent by Admiral Sampson. Washington, Oct. 11.—Captain F. E. Chadwick, who was in command of Admiral Sampson's flagship, the New York, and also was chief of the Admiral's staff during the war with Spain, testified before the Schley naval court for a short time this afternoon. He was the last witness called and when court adjourned was still under examination by Mr. Rayner, who stated that he had only a few more questions to ask him. There was considerable interest in Captain Chadwick's appearance because of his close relationship to the commander-in-chief of the North Atlantic squadron. Captain Chadwick's testimony related very largely to dispatches sent by Admiral Sampson to Commodore Schley in May, 1898, and to the code of signals agreed upon between Captain McCalla of the Marblehead and the Cuban forces operating near Cienfuegos. He said that Commodore Schley by dispatch to Commodore McCalla had expected to join the commodore immediately and communicate the code to him. He also related the interview between Admiral Sampson and Commodore Schley, in which the latter had expressed his intention to be loyal to the commander-in-chief. He related in detail the change of opinion concerning the whereabouts of Cervera's fleet by Admiral Sampson on May 21 between the sending of the two dispatches to Commodore Schley, one of which was dated at Key West, and the other at Havana. Captain Chadwick said he had not approved Admiral Sampson's dispatch to Commodore Schley on that date. Five other witnesses were heard during the day, two of them being officers of the New York, and were Admiral Sampson, Commodore Schley, Lieutenant C. Marsh, the flag secretary of Admiral Sampson, who testified concerning dispatches to Commodore Schley and the other was the ship's flag lieutenant, Lieutenant Theodore G. Dewey, a nephew of Admiral Dewey, who served on the Massachusetts, Lieutenant Althouse, also of the Massachusetts and Lieutenant Francis Bouquet, who served on the Marblehead, were the other new witnesses of the day. The last witness of the day was Captain French E. Chadwick, at present in command of the Newport naval station. He went on the stand at 2:30 and had not concluded his testimony when the court adjourned. He was questioned by Mr. Hanna concerning the code signals arrangement by Captain McCalla of the Marblehead with the insurgent Cubans near Cienfuegos. He replied: "I do not remember any conversation with Commodore Schley on that date. The signals were not communicated to Commodore Schley because Captain McCalla said he was going back the next day and would care to have any conversation with Commodore Schley himself." "Was Commodore Schley then in Key West?" "He had left on the morning of the 19th for Cienfuegos." "Some hours before McCalla arrived with this system of signals?" "About three hours before." "Do you remember communicating this system yourself to Captain Evans?" "I have no recollection of it." "Do you remember whether Commodore Schley did not care to have any conversation with Commodore Schley on that date?" "I had been informed that Captain McCalla was on board a part of his squadron. I do not remember whether Commodore Schley was on board the New York on the afternoon of the 18th until 4 o'clock and as he was going on a good one at the time I supposed he would be given the information." "You have referred to a visit by Commodore Schley at Key West. Can you state anything that occurred there in Commodore Schley's presence bearing upon the subject of this inquiry?" "My only distinct recollection in regard to a conversation was Commodore Schley's statement to the admiral that he desired to be perfectly loyal. He said that he was pleased to be under his command and that he could be assured that he should be entirely loyal in all circumstances." "At what time did you fall in with the flying squadron?" "We anchored at Key West a little before 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the 18th of May and found Commodore Schley's squadron there." "Did Commodore Schley go on board the flagship?" "He came on board." "Were you present at an interview?" "I was present there the whole time he was on board. In the cabin the only persons who were present permanently, so to speak, were Admiral Sampson, Commodore Schley and myself. There were some different persons coming and going." "Did Commodore Schley go on board Admiral Sampson's flagship on June 1 of Santiago when the latter reached there?" "Yes, sir; he came aboard in the 'Vixen'." "Were you present at the interview which occurred during that interview, was there anything said with regard to the feasibility of conducting a blockade off Santiago?" "Yes, I remember Commodore Schley spoke in my presence, and I think to myself, as he was leaving the ship, saying, 'You cannot blockade those ships in there if they want to come out.' I remember that." "The judge advocate—Did you have any information whatever from any source that Cervera's fleet was going to make a sortie from the harbor of Santiago on July 3?" "None whatever, within my recollection." "Taking the witness for cross-examination. Mr. Rayner asked: 'Do you recollect the dispatch which was sent to Commodore Schley by Admiral Sampson dated May 29, which congratulates Commodore Schley upon his success?' I will read the dispatch. The following telegram was sent to Commodore Schley to both Port Antonio, Jamaica, and Mole St. Nicholas: 'I congratulate you on success. Maintain close blockade at all hazards, especially at night. Very anxious to hear from you by boat destroyers. Call in open sea whenever conditions permit. Send a ship to examine Guantanamo with a view to occupying it as a base, coaling heavy ships one day at a time. Appraise captured coal, use it if desired, and afterward send ship in as prize.' 'I remember that very well because I protested against conversations with Admiral Dewey. I do not think that was anything to do with it. You know what we want. We want all the facts relating to these specifications and we do not want anything about conversations with Admiral Watson, commodore or anybody else on other subjects.' 'Mr. Rayner—You say that after the arrival of Captain Morilla information was received of the arrival of the Spanish squadron at Santiago. Will you kindly give us the information and from whom it came?' 'The first information we had was by a telegram from the navy department mentioning that the information may well be correct.' Next day Lieutenant Commander Stanton, in Key West and saw Captain Allen, who said that the evening before he had received communication from Havana that the Spanish squadron had gone into Santiago and he was only waiting until the morning of the 29th to have it corroborated, as the operator who sent the information put himself in communication with our office in Key West over a wire. Captain Stanton came with that information and then went up in the evening to wait a second telegram, which corroborated the first and which caused Admiral Sampson to believe that the Spanish fleet was in Santiago and also caused him to write the second dispatch directing the movement toward Santiago. 'Mr. Rayner—Is this the telegram you refer to: 'The report of the Spanish fleet being at Santiago de Cuba might very well be correct, so that the department strongly advises that you send word immediately by the morning of the 29th to proceed off Santiago de Cuba with his whole command.' etc?'" "That is the telegram I refer to." "Did I understand you to say that that caused the belief that the Spanish fleet was in Santiago?" "No, sir. What caused the belief was the information received from Captain Allen of the telegraph office in Key West. He informed Lieutenant Stanton, who was in Key West at noon on the 29th, that his information had come over night from Havana." "Could I interrupt you just a minute? Was No. 7 the dispatch referred to in the Dear Schley (dispatch) being sent in answer to this message?" "Yes, that was sent after receiving this dispatch." "The admiral then telegraphed the department a practically a paraphrase of this letter No. 7?" "This dispatch and telegram to the department paraphrasing it were prepared on the 29th of the 19th and were sent that night, I think. At noon of the 29th, Lieutenant Stanton saw Captain Allen in Key West and Stanton was again sent to Key West and came back with the assurance from Captain Stanton that the Spanish fleet was there. Then the doubt in Admiral Sampson's mind was removed and he then wrote a dispatch to be sent to the Marblehead, which was expected to get off hourly. She, however, was delayed and the flagship got under way at 4 o'clock in the morning of the 21st and went over to Havana. From there, there was a possibility of greater delay in the Marblehead's departure, than was expected, he sent the Eagle and the Hawk with a copy of this dispatch and a supplementary dispatch to Commodore Schley, also with verbal instructions to the commanding officer of the Hawk to move at once toward Santiago." "On this dispatch you refer to, No. 7?" "On the 21st the following instructions were written at Key West for Commodore Schley and sent at 3 a. m. to the Marblehead to be delivered with all dispatch: 'Spanish squadron coming to Santiago; four ships and three torpedo boat destroyers. If you are satisfied they are not at Cienfuegos, proceed with all dispatch, but do not go to Santiago de Cuba, etc. Is there any assistance, may I ask you, whether the Spanish fleet was at Santiago or whether it had gone into Santiago?' "At Santiago?" "Does it state anything about having gone in and come out?" "No; that they were there." "At this point in Captain Chadwick's testimony the court adjourned for the day.

MONTANA'S ARID LAND

To Be Made Productive by Irrigation Under State Control.

OPENING OF A GREAT CANAL

An Important Event Celebrated With Due Ceremony--System on Co-operative Basis.

By Associated Press. Helena, Mont., Oct. 11.—What seems to be a good beginning of the solution of the great arid land problem has been made by the state of Montana. The great canal system in district No. 4, created by the legislature with power to reclaim lands donated to the state by the general government under the Carey act celebrated the opening of the great canal system in district No. 4. There were present besides members of the commission and other state officials, members of the press and many representative engineers and business men. The canal, intended to irrigate 33,000 acres of the Carey land, was opened and water sent on its mission of making homes for the stock farmers. District No. 4 comprises 33,000 acres of splendid land in the Dearborn valley, Lewis and Clark county. The state proposes to sell this land in tracts of 100 acres to actual settlers, at only the cost of placing water upon the land, giving ten years for payment in ten equal payments at 8 per cent. interest. Eleven thousand acres are now ready for settlement. The land lies in small valleys surrounded by low lying hills that supply rich grass for stock. The state is building the canal system and will own and operate it in perpetuity for the sole benefit of the occupants of the land and without profit to any one, making the enterprise entirely co-operative in nature. This is the first irrigating canal on the American continent to be built and operated by a state government and it marks an epoch in the great irrigation plan.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SURGEON GENERAL

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 11.—Surgeon General Sternberg has made his annual report to the secretary of war. He says the health of the army has been unusually good during the calendar year 1900. The admission rate to hospitals for all causes in the army, volunteers and regulars, with a mean strength of 100,389 in 1900, was 2,311.81, as compared with 2,178.06 in the previous year; but during the year 1899 only 39,280 men out of a total of 105,546 were serving in the Philippines while during the past year, 66,882 of a total of 100,389 were still serving. In the Philippine Islands, with a mean strength of 66,882, the admission rate was 2,621.96 as compared with 2,395.52 in the previous year, this increase being due to disease among the whites; the ratio for whom raised from 1,466.21 to 2,761.99. The regulars, on the other hand, showed a marked decrease in the ratio of admission for disease, which fell from 2,454.10 to 2,197.73. Two thirds of the admissions for disease were caused by malarial fevers and diarrhoeal diseases. The deaths from all causes amounted to 28.75 per thousand of strength as compared with 30.58 in the previous years. Disease occasioned 20.26 deaths, the principal cause of the fatalities being dysentery, which with other intestinal diseases, gave a rate of 9.08. The rate from injury amounted to 8.49. The death rate in China was large, 47.76 per thousand of strength, 23.82 from disease and 24.14 from injury. From the close of the calendar year 1900 to the latest reports, the health of the troops in the Philippines has been steadily improving. The health of the troops in Cuba during the year was excellent. As a result of American occupation nearly every city and town has had its sanitary condition improved. Speaking of special diseases General Sternberg says: "The steady decrease of late years in the admissions for alcoholism among the men of the regular army is a matter for congratulation. Military officers may be said to be unanimous in their opinion that this is mainly the result of the establishment of the post exchange or canteen at military posts. There is less drunkenness among the soldiers in active service than in a command doing garrison duty in the times of peace. Reporting upon the study of yellow fever by a board in Cuba, General Sternberg says: "The results obtained were especially valuable showing that the bacillus (eterodorus) (sannarelli) bears no causative relation to yellow fever and that the mosquito serves as an intermediate host for the parasite of the disease. Further experiments of a most interesting character demonstrated that yellow fever is transmitted to non-immunes by the bite of a mosquito that has previously fed on the blood of those sick with the disease; that yellow fever can also be produced by the subcutaneous injection of blood taken from the general circulation during the first and second days of the disease; that an attack of yellow fever produced by the bite of the mosquito confers immunity against the subsequent injection of infected blood; that yellow fever is not conveyed by clothing, bedding or merchandise soiled by contact with those sick with the disease; that a house may be said to be infected with yellow fever only when the mosquito is present in it, mosquitoes capable of conveying the parasite of the disease and that the spread of yellow fever can be most effectively controlled by measures directed to the destruction of the mosquitoes and the protection of the sick against the bites of the insects."

EPISCOPALIANS DISCUSSED MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

By Associated Press. San Francisco, Oct. 11.—The canon of marriage and divorce was before both houses of the triennial convention of the Episcopal church of America today. The bishops adopted a substitute for the proposed canon 37, providing for the dissolution of persons married in the church who were divorced. The principal change made by the substitute is the provision that such person may receive the sacrament on the written consent of a bishop. The house of deputies began the eagerly awaited debate on section four of proposed canon 36 which virtually prohibits the re-marriage in the church of divorced persons. The announcement that the discussion would be public attracted a large crowd. Nearly all of the spectators in the galleries were women who evinced great interest in the proceedings. As soon as the section was announced as the business before the house which was sitting in committee of the whole, it was read by the chairman, Judge Packard, of Maryland.

SETON-THOMPSON GUILTY OF VIOLATING LAW

By Associated Press. Denver, Oct. 11.—Ernest Seton-Thompson, the noted writer on wild animals and John Goff, the guide, who were arrested by Game Warden Bush in Rio Blanco county, charged with violating the game laws, were acquitted on trial of the case at Meeker. Seton-Thompson and Goff were tried before a jury in Justice Morris' court. The evidence showed that the defendants baited a bear trap with a young dog that had been killed by a snowslide. Game Warden Bush watched the trap for three days and arrested Seton-Thompson and Goff when they appeared. The jury, after hearing the testimony, promptly returned a verdict of "not guilty" of violating the game laws.

HAIR SOFT AS SILK. New Scientific Treatment Kills Dandruff Germs and Makes Hair Soft. It is an accepted fact, a proven fact, that dandruff is a germ disease; and it is also a demonstrated fact that Newb's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ.

ATHLETE'S FAILURE.

Was Not a Success Until He Was Put On the Right Food. Cecelias X. Hale, of 1717 Barclay St., Baltimore, Md., was quite a famous runner, has had some interesting experience in regard to proper feeding.

Up to about 18 months ago I had been in many athletic contests, without much success. It was time to stop, but a physical director of the Y. M. C. A. of this city, advised me to use Grape-Nuts food and Postum Cereal Coffee as principal factors in my diet.

I accepted the advice and today am in possession of perfect health, and a great many medals won in different athletic events. I can now run a race and finish in the condition, whereas before I started on the right diet, I would find myself in a faint at the end of a race.

Formerly I had more or less nervous trouble and severe headaches. I was glad to say since using Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee I have forgotten what a headache feels like. My heart is in perfect condition, whereas while I was using ordinary coffee it would not stand the heavy strain. This statement is absolutely true, and I do not object to your publishing it, for it may bring back health and strength to some poor being suffering from ill health, caused by the use of improper food.

There is a reason for this; in the first place, ordinary leading coffee is full of acids somewhere in the nervous system—frequently in weakening of the heart or in stomach troubles, which prevents one from obtaining the strength and value of food. It is, therefore, necessary to quit the use of this drug, and in its place use Postum Cereal Food Coffee and Grape-Nuts Food.

No Argument Needed.

Every Sufferer From Catarrh Knows That Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Douches Do Not Cure.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and chest, and it is only by the system by secreting large quantities of mucus the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of the stomach or serious throat and lung trouble.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the ever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these has been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opium or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered so much as I from catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief, and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I promptly bought a 50-cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, is greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment, and for convenience, safety and promptness they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

FALCON MAN IS ACCUSED OF ASSAULT

On complaint of Herbert Johnson, a warrant was issued yesterday by Justice of the Peace Wing for the arrest of G. L. Walker of Falcon. Mr. Johnson accuses the defendant of assault and battery.

The alleged assault grew out of a case in which Walker was interested, and which was tried recently in the district court. Mr. Johnson alleges that Walker was angry because he refused to give testimony for Walker in the suit. The two men met Thursday in this city and it was then that the alleged assault occurred. Mr. Johnson says that Walker struck him.

The warrant was sworn out yesterday and placed in the hands of the sheriff to be served. It is said that Mr. Walker will come to Colorado Springs today and enter bail before Justice Wing for his appearance at a preliminary hearing.

WAS A POLICEMAN FOR TWENTY MINUTES

John Barleycorn impresses different people in different ways. James Ross struck up an acquaintanceship with John on Thursday afternoon, and to the conclusion of the chat was impressed with the idea that he was a second Sherlock Holmes, Nick Carter or "Old Sleuth."

Ross went down to a corral on South Nevada avenue and found some men there guessing on various propositions. He took it into his head that they were violating the law in some respect and he picked on a man by the name of Howe. He told Howe he was under arrest. Howe asked Ross to show his star but Ross was not in the show business. He told Howe he did not need a star. He took Howe to a restaurant and ordered him to return to the restaurant at 6 o'clock to be again placed under arrest. In the meantime the police chief and his men were hunting for him. He was taken to police headquarters and locked up for safe keeping. Yesterday morning he appeared in police court to answer to a double charge, drunkenness and impersonating an officer. He was found guilty of both offenses and when asked if he had anything to say for himself stated that he guessed he did not make much of a success as a detective. The judge told him he guessed the same way and thought Ross would make a better success at pounding rock. The court then fined him $50 for impersonating an officer and $40 for being drunk. These fines, with the costs, totaled up $93.05 and Ross is assured of steady employment on the rock pile for some time to come.

STOCK COMPANY TO GIVE LOCAL ENTERTAINMENT

J. B. Hickman is organizing a stock company to give theatrical performances at the Waycott opera house during the winter. Colorado City is not on the show circuit and the residents of this city have to go to Colorado Springs when they want to see a show.

The stock company which Mr. Hickman is organizing will be largely composed of local people. He has a number of good actors already selected and is trying to complete his company in Colorado Springs. He will probably engage one or two actors of Denver.

Mr. Hickman is planning to have his company open the new Waycott opera house and as soon as he can get his troupe together he will commence rehearsals. The nature of the first play is not yet decided on. It will be given as soon as the company can be properly drilled, possibly by the end of this month. If the company proves the success it is expected to prove, Mr. Hickman will probably take it on a tour of some of the cities of Colorado.

Good Choice

Choose your book, stationery and art dealer as you would your doctor, your lawyer and your dentist.

You are careful when you call a physician, that he shall be an efficient and a capable man—he must know his business, and in addition he must be one in whom you may place implicit confidence. In fact you are willing even, to pay higher fees for better service.

Likewise your dentist and your lawyer.

Why not exercise as much care in a business way?

Do not imagine all stores are alike. There is as much difference between a good store and a poor store as a bad one.

COLLEGE PLAYS WEST DENVER H. S. TODAY

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the whistle will blow to start the second football game of the season and for two halves of 25 minutes each one of the prettiest gridiron battles ever seen in this city will be waged on Washburn field.

Colorado college, with a team not yet in college form, will face the strong West Denver High school team, which has already vanquished our college team and held another down to a score of 2. Unless the reports of the West Denver team have been highly exaggerated, the college men will have difficulty in preventing the scholastics from crossing their goal line.

The outcome of the game is awaited with some trepidation by the college students and friends of the college team. If the Tigers pull through this game without being scored on the prospects for the black and gold will be much brighter. West Denver is considered the strongest high school team in the northern part of the state and she is anxious to make a fine showing this year against the colleges.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Admission 25 cents. Tickets are on sale at Briscoe's book store, Strang's and Coburn library. The field has been roped off and the crowd will be kept back of the side lines so that all may see the play.

Following will be the line-up of the teams:

Position	West Denver
Center	Brusse
Guard	Lawrence
Quarter	Warner-Brown
Half	Need
Tackle	Reynolds
End	Cowell
Fullback	McGivray
Linebacker	Mather
Quarter	Goodheart
Half	E. Mather
Fullback	Hill
Linebacker	Cassidy

Brown has a bad ankle and may not play today. Denver will bring down five substitutes and the whole college squad will be out in suits as college subs.

WILL SHOOT TODAY FOR GOODSPPEED TROPHY

The first of the bi-monthly shoots for the Goodspeed diamond trophy will be held at the Colorado Springs Gun club's range this afternoon.

This is a valuable trophy and the contest for it will be lively. The club members have been given handicaps according to their past records and there are only five scratch men. Instead of giving so many dead birds as a handicap the committee has decided to give extra shots. The scratch men have 100 shots and the others have from that up to 150 shots. The largest number of birds broken will win the trophy. The shot who wins the trophy three times retains it permanently.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB FILES INCORPORATION

Three local business men filed articles of incorporation in the office of the county clerk yesterday for a Business Men's Club association. According to the papers the objects of the organization are to establish club rooms for the use of members, and to promote social intercourse among business men.

The incorporators are W. B. McNeal, J. H. Long and David M. Goshen. They are also the directors for the first year. The capital stock is $5,000, divided into 5,000 shares of $1 each.

KENYON TAKES HUNT PARTY OUT TOMORROW

Joe Kenyon, the well-known sportsman, will conduct a coyote hunt tomorrow morning. The party will leave Kenyon's stables in the rear of Dr. Solly's residence, at 6 o'clock sharp.

The run will be to the Garden ranch. Arrangements have been made for the party to breakfast at Arey's place at 8:30. This will be the first of a series of hunts to be conducted by Kenyon this winter. It is expected that several coyotes will be stirred up and good sport looked for.

Mr. Kenyon took a small party out on the plains yesterday to give Corbett and Lady Bug some exercise preliminary to the party to breakfast at Arey's place in Kansas soon. No rabbits were sighted but a coyote was started up and after a magnificent chase a kill resulted. Miss Kirk of New York, who was a member of the party, was awarded the brush.

AMUSMENTS

"A RUNAWAY GIRL."

Mr. Arthur Dunn, the well known and clever comedian, is at the head of a company of some fifty artists that will present the musical comedy "The Runaway Girl" at the Opera house Monday evening. The success of this production for the past two seasons is entirely due to its own intrinsic merit in the first place and to the lavish style in which it was produced in the second place.

The late Augustin Daly was extremely liberal as well as artistic in all his theatrical productions. "A Runaway Girl" received the benefit of his personal direction and nothing was left undone that would in any way enhance its value or tend toward its success. The result is evidenced by the continued prosperity and popularity of the play wherever presented. The comedy remained at Daly's theater for 300 nights without intermission, and every city in the east has accorded the production unqualified approval and endorsement. The songs and music incident to the play are said to be catchy and inspiring, its lyrics bright and witty and its comedy humorous and infectious. The play is also said to be handsomely staged and costumed, and as the location of the plot is supposed to be in Venice and Corsica, an opportunity is afforded to display some very rich and picturesque costumes and scenery.

"McFADDEN'S FLATS" TONIGHT.

"McFadden's Row of Flats," the most successful of all farce comedies will be seen at the Opera house this evening.

"The Flats" are always sure of immense attendance, owing to the popularity of the piece. It has been seen time and time again, but each season it is so thoroughly brightened and polished up that it seems as if it was a new show, yet many of its original features are retained and always create roars of laughter and the most intense enthusiasm. The Yellow Kids, no matter how long they last, will always be the subject of amusing comment. Every household nearly knows of "George" and "Alex," and the little ones especially must see them each year. The old billy goat that eats to-mato cans, pig iron and other indigestible food is still wandering with the

COLORADO AND THE NEXT WORLD'S FAIR.

THE commissioners from some of the states have already been at St. Louis and selected the sites for their state buildings in the Louisiana Purchase exposition. It is unfortunate that Colorado cannot be in early and get a desirable location, because no state in the group has more to exhibit or more that will be of general interest. The late legislature appropriated $50,000 for the use of the state commission, but it is in a fund that is probably not available. As soon as it is determined that the money can be had, the commission will go actively to work, but if the appropriation is not to be had the citizens of the state will undoubtedly be asked to take the matter up by private subscription.

Colorado is too important a factor in the west to permit herself to be excluded from a western exhibition of this size and character. The St. Louis fair management has more money to spend in making a great exposition than has ever before been used in such an enterprise. Thus far there has been no reason to criticize the appointments of persons who are to conduct the various departments, so that this seems likely to be the greatest of expositions.

Colorado was unable to make an exhibit at Paris last year for the reason that the fund was not available, and the little we have at Buffalo this year, while creditable enough as a private exhibit is not worthy of this state. Perhaps it is just as well that we have conserved our energies for the big exhibition in which we are most interested.

We must consolidate our forces for an achievement that will open the eyes of the world to the greatness of Colorado. It should be strong in mineral exhibits, but we can also show the world something in other lines. Great industries like the beet sugar factories and the alfalfa honey have sprung up since we made the last big exhibition in Chicago eight years ago.

GOVERNOR HUNT ON PUERTO RICO.

ON THE 16th day of last September Hon. Wm. Hunt, who had previously been secretary of Puerto Rico, was inaugurated governor of that island. Because of national sorrow at that time in the death of the president, the ceremonies of inauguration consisted of merely administering the oath of office. Governor Hunt has recently sent out his address, which was prepared for delivery. It is an interesting summing up of the material and moral improvement that has taken place in the colony since it came under our national care. Governor Hunt also addresses the Puerto Ricans on conduct that will best insure civil government among them. Speaking of the island itself he says in one place:

Puerto Rico holds a significant national position. Lying in the oceans between North and South America, half way between New York and Para, on the way from the Atlantic seaboard to the Isthmian canal, forming the gateway for the passing of ships from Europe to Central America, Puerto Rico demands the attention of those who foresee that in the struggle for commerce our main country must speedily extend its trade with the forty millions of people dwelling south of us. Transportation lines will multiply, as relations grow more intimate, and the harbors of Puerto Rico should contribute to this commercial expansion. This island should be the emporium of the West Indies.

Seth Low resigned the office of president of Columbia college last Monday. It is an honorable position so far above the political office of mayor of New York, and with such possibilities for good, that one can only wonder Mr. Low lays it aside. He believes, however, that he sees a more useful opening for his services now that he has settled some of the difficult problems for Columbia, and with characteristic energy throws himself in the breach. Referring to this he said in his farewell address last Monday, "Columbia university has no more important duty than to teach patriotism, and, therefore, Columbia's president should illustrate it."

Those voters who have not registered, particularly the ladies, should telephone Mr. Lamson at phone 162. A carriage will be sent for you and take you to the court house, where you may be placed right on the clerk's books. If you have never voted, if you were away or for any reason did not vote last spring, or if you have moved your residence in the city since last spring's election, then you are not prepared to vote this fall, because you are not registered. Do not keep putting this off until the last moment.

FORESTRY EXPERIMENTS.

AS WE have so often had occasion to state of late it is generally conceded that the water question and forest preservation seem to be inseparable. They stand as among the most important internal questions in this country.

Recently a suggestive paper has appeared by Mr. Frederick H. Newell, chief hydrographer of the United States Geological survey, which clearly sets forth the reasons for the beneficial effects which forests have on the flow of rivers. It explains the forests' function as great natural reservoirs, and calls attention to the absorbent effect of the forest floor in storing the rainfall, which might otherwise swell the streams in freshets and its beneficial action by checking the rapid run-off in keeping the brooks filled during times of drought. The paper accompanies and has special reference to a recent publication of the United States bureau of forestry, which describes a working plan for the scientific forestry of township No. 40, in Hamilton county, N. Y. Township No. 40 lies in the heart of the Adirondacks forest reserve, and is of particular importance to New York state interests from the standpoint of water supply, as in it lie the head waters of the Raquette and several other important streams.

If the working plan for the township is adopted and carried out, an excellent opportunity will be given for a careful study of the various phases of forest influence on rivers. These results can then be used for an instructive comparison with similar observations on tracts of like nature which have been denuded of their forests. "There is great need of such records," says Mr. Newell, "in order to discuss intelligently the effects of forest upon river flow, for while it is generally recognized that forest preservation has a beneficial influence, the effect of this influence has never been accurately determined, and there is wide diversity of opinion as to how far-reaching it is. On hardly any phase of forestry has there been more discussion than on this, and on hardly any is there so slight a basis of known fact on which to rest the argument. It is very necessary that a definite understanding be reached on this point, for on the available supply of water, depend many of the greatest industries of the country."

EDUCATIONAL TEST FOR IMMIGRANTS.

THE New York Mail and Express prints some very interesting facts regarding immigration that are of interest at this time. It shows that the undesirable immigration is increasing and desirable immigration decreasing. It says:

The inflow from Southern Italy was prodigious during the last fiscal year—111,325 all told. The difference between northern Italians and southern Italians is well indicated by the fact that the former brought $23.52 apiece with them, while the latter brought $8.87. The immigration from eastern and southern Europe and Asia is increasing in enormous proportion; we received double the number of Ruthenians, Armenians and Syrians that we received the previous year, and 30 per cent. more Croats and Dalmatians. This means that the proportion of illiteracy in our immigration is heavily increasing. A law prohibiting the immigration of people who cannot read and write their own language would have shut out, according to the commissioner, at least one-quarter of the steerage immigration. Meantime the deportation of undesirable immigrants, though it is increasing, represents only about 1 per cent. of the whole, which is a drop in the bucket. These figures strengthen the conclusion that the time is fully ripe for further restrictive legislation.

In 1905 the city of Portland, Oregon, is to have an exposition commemorative of the Lewis and Clark explorations. It is a fitting occasion and will be a suitable time for such an exposition, following the international affair at St. Louis. We are becoming a nation of travelers, but it is only a small part of the people who have seen, or even half understand, the vastness of the great empire that has bulged in the northwest during the past fifty years, with Portland as its metropolis. The Morning Oregonian, one of the great papers of the west, has just issued a handbook on Portland and its tributary country that should have a wide circulation. It is unique in make-up, beautifully illustrated and contains a fund of information that is valuable. The book is mailed to any part of the United States or Canada for 7 cents. For anyone desiring information regarding the northwest region it will be found of great value.

There is an ethical question involved in the matter of the redemption of Miss Stone from the bandits in Bulgaria, and it is the most difficult that the Christian people have had to face in many years. The ransom asked is that of a king, but in the face of the danger sympathy wipes away all cold reasoning. The price may be paid but the bandits are storing up for themselves troubles in the future. No American who subscribes will ask for the return of his money from the Turkish or Bulgarian governments if the perpetrators of the outrage are captured and made an example of that will protect American missionaries hereafter. However, as an exchange says, we cannot ensure any other government because it does not capture and punish an abductor so long as Pat Crowe of Omaha is at liberty.

To scour or not to scour is the question with Englishmen just now. "Harris" tweed is the real thing in cloth over there. It is made in small huts in the Highlands and in the making absorbs the "peat reek," so that one can instantly recognize the wearer of a Harris. To scour a piece of the cloth has always been reckoned equivalent to knocking the cobwebs from an old bottle of wine. Now it is claimed that the Harris spreads abroad unsanitary conditions prevalent in the huts where it is made, but the suggestion to scour it has been met with protest.

Registration is essential to voting and the first step towards carrying the election for a splendid Republican ticket this fall is to register. Republicans should secure the registration of every man and woman who can be persuaded to vote the ticket. They can be assured that the other side is doing everything it can to get its vote placed on the books. The safe way is to improve the present time and get safely on the registration books. One might be ill, absent from the city or for other cause be unable to register later.

They talk about abandoning the Silver Serpent carnival in Denver, but they might take a lesson from St. Louis. Last Tuesday evening the Veiled Prophet made his twenty-fourth annual pilgrimage on Chestnut street and was still an object of interest. No one knows his identity, but if the same fellow has served right through why do they use a false white beard.

Sir Thomas Lipton will get all the races he wants if he leaves his boat here for next season—but not for the America's cup.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Oct. 11.—The mining stock market today was still spotty, and there were some instances of weakness. There was, however, some manifestation of strength, particularly in the mines list, and the general tone of the trading was better than it was yesterday.

EASTERN MARKETS

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 11.—Great speculative activity continued in the stock market today but it was centered to a large extent in the transcontinental stocks, led by St. Paul which rose 3/8 points over last night in the late dealings and closed 1 point below the best.

DAINTY box, an exquisite wrapper, a delicate color, and a clinging fragrance—yet all these will not cleanse the skin! Has it ever occurred to you that you pay big prices for these things? Do you care to buy five articles or do you require only one—a strictly pure soap. Remember you pay for perfume whenever you buy it mixed with soap. Don't you think it is wiser to make your own selection of perfume and buy it separately? It is certainly the method adopted by most persons of cultivated taste, those who bathe with pure Ivory Soap. IVORY SOAP—99 3/4 PER CENT. PURE.

THE NEXT POPE.

How a Curious Prophecy Is Being Fulfilled. St. Malachy, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland, who lived in the twelfth century, left an imperishable monument to his memory in a series of long prophecies concerning all future occupants of St. Peter's throne. In the Pall Mall Magazine is an examination of these prophecies and an attempt to forecast the successor to Leo XIII.

The advent of Leo XIII was foretold in the 103rd prophecy under the motto of 'Lumen in caelo'—a strangely appropriate device for one in whose coat-of-arms shine a comet and a star.

After that, according to the very letter of the revelations of the Irish saint, will come the end of the Christian world. In a large number of instances the prophecies have been fulfilled, so that the list of the ten remaining popes is full of interest. Here are the original prophecies: Ignis ardens—Burning fire. Religio depopulata—Religion depopulated. Fides interpres—Interpret faith. Pastor angelicus—The angelic pastor. Pastor et nauta—Pastor and seaman. Flos forum—Flower of flowers. De medietate lunae—From the half of the moon. De labore solis—From the labor of the sun. Gloria olivae—Glory of olive. Petrus Romanus—Peter of Rome.

These candidates appear in answer to Ignis Ardens—Cardinal Svaupia, Archbishop of Bologna, because of the 'Solis' or in his coat-of-arms; Cardinal Vannutelli, because of his youth name, Serafino, and Cardinal Ferrari, Archbishop of Milan, because his youth was 'ardent,' whatever that may mean.

Two more candidates have entered the lists lately—Cardinal Angelo di Pietrangeli and Cardinal Girolamo Maria Goti. The latter has in his coat-of-arms a blazing torch. 'Ignis ardens' again!

In view of this curious document the candidature of Cardinal Goti will be watched with interest.

'White House' It Shall Be From Now On. President Roosevelt has taken a new departure which will startle the old-timers in Washington, but which, at the same time will do away with the pedantic name which has always graced on the cars. The 'executive mansion' has been doctored and the 'White house' has officially taken its place. For years all the presidential stationery was dated from the 'Executive Mansion.' Invitations were to the 'Executive Mansion.' Congress appropriated for the 'Executive Mansion.'

President Roosevelt's first social step has been to change the name. The official stationery is headed 'The White House,' and invitations to dine are dated from 'The White House,' and not the 'Executive Mansion.' The president's reasons for the step are both characteristic and natural. There are under ordinary circumstances some forty-five 'executive mansions' in this country, in each state, but only one 'White house.' It is the desire to perpetuate the name officially, which is historically and conventionally correct, that has induced Mr. Roosevelt to make this change.—(From a Washington Letter.)

Requiem. The birch trees whisper and bend, The tall trees flutter and stir; There's gossip abroad in the forest ways And all the leaves confer.

'Dead?' question the listening trees: 'Aye, dead,' says the wind to them; And softly the steadfast pines have begun.

FOUR MEN KILLED ON ELECTRIC LINE

By Associated Press. Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 11.—In a head-on collision between a locomotive and a street car on the Colgrove branch of the Santa Monica Electric road today, four men were instantly killed and seven injured, five seriously. The accident occurred on a steep grade half a mile east of Sherman. The heavy locomotive, west-bound, was on the down grade and laterally ran over the lighter motor attached to the work train, crushing in the top upon the workmen who were riding inside. The locomotive was going at a fair rate of speed. The rails were wet from a fog and a curve in the road shut off the sight of the work train until it was only a few yards distant.

BURLINGTON'S EXTENSION TO SALT LAKE CITY

By Associated Press. Chicago, Oct. 11.—The Post today says: Positive and authoritative confirmation has been given of reports that the Burlington will extend its lines from Guernsey, Wyo., to Salt Lake City, Utah, to connect with the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake roads. The line will be built by an independent company but members of it will be directly allied with the Burlington. For all practical purposes, the new line will be part of the Burlington system and there is no doubt that it will be incorporated in what the parent company ultimately. It is also likely, though a more distant prospect that Senator Clark's road will come into the Burlington family.

Famous Character Dead.

Daniel Kinnis, a noted character, more familiarly known as 'Broken-Nosed Scotty,' was found dead in bed at Battle, Carbon county, Thursday morning.

Ellis came to Battle from Colorado last summer. He was well known in Leadville, Cripple Creek and Victor. He discovered the celebrated Iowa Chief and accumulated a fortune of $300,000, all of which he paupered away from him, and he died at Battle by the town of Battle, in the Battle Lake cemetery. His burial records the second adult to be buried in this cemetery, the first being Joel A. Griffith, an old-time prospector from Leadville and Aspen. Griffith, with about a dozen others, were the original founders of the town of Battle. His body was found one day during the winter of 1890 frozen stiff on the ice in Battle lake, where he had been fishing.

The bodies of two children mark the only other graves in the Battle Lake cemetery.—(Wyoming Tribune.)
