HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE PAST TO THE PRESENT

Highlights from the Past to the Present visits in Old Hansford this week as the J.H. Buchanan family is brought into the spotlight. This family came to Hansford County with three young sons to take over the Hansford Headlight, the County Newspaper.

Joseph Hamilton Buchanan was born August 27, 1882 in Macon, Missouri to the couple of John and Judith Buchanan. Mr. Buchanan's parents came from Canada and Ireland to where they settled in Missouri. At the age of seventeen, J.H. Buchanan and his family moved to south Texas where Mr. John Buchanan had a big rice plantation. A bad storm hit before the time of harvest and the family lost their crop forcing them to move to Greer county Oklahoma.

Mary Jane Thompson was born to Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Thompson near the town of Melburn, Arkansas. In later years the family moved to the Indian Territory. She was one of eleven children. The family then moved on to Oklahoma where they settled in Greer County also.

It was in this county where Mr. J.H. Buchanan and Miss Mary Jane Thompson met and married. The couple lived on a claim in Oklahoma where they farmed. Three boys were born to the couple, who were J.B., Wilson and Monroe while they made their home in Oklahoma.

The couple built a half dugout home which measured about 10' by 14' with short windows along the sides. Mrs. Buchanan recalls several exciting incidents of the time. A prairie fire was one of her memories for she was home by herself, and expecting a baby at the time, when the fierce fire came rolling toward their home. Mr. Buchanan scurried around to make preparations for the coming fire, filling tubs with water and soaking gunny sacks in water. As the fire neared the yard, Mrs. Buchanan could see her husband nearing the yard with his buggy and horses to rescue her.

Another incident also recalled by Mrs. Buchanan was the time when a rattlesnake had made its way through the door of the half-dugout. While working in the kitchen she pulled back the curtain to take a dish from the cupboard and found a rattlesnake curled on top of the dishes. Giving her a big scare, she grabbed the double barrel shot gun and shot the snake in the cupboard, breaking all the dishes but accomplishing her mission by killing the snake. After killing it she was still quite nervous and went outside to sit on the dugout steps and await the coming of her husband.

The couple and their three children moved to Texhoma by train where Mr. Buchanan became associated with the Texhoma Times and in only a short time, Mr. Buchanan heard that the Hansford Headlight was for sale. He came to see about the newspaper and bought it. Then he made preparations to move the belongings to their new home. Mr. Lackey went to Texhoma for Mrs. Buchanan and the children and brought them to their new home in an open surry in the year of 1911.

The children recall the happy memories of their youthful days and especially recall their mother and father doing a great deal of singing. Mrs. Buchanan would pass the day along with her daily chores around the house and would always sing as she worked. Then Mr. Buchanan would sing on the porch with the smallest child in his lap, in the rocking chair. The family would gather around him as he sang Irish songs as well as Southern songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan were both active workers in the Methodist church. Mrs. Buchanan recalls the first church they attended in Old Hansford was one big room. The sidings and floors were made of 12 inch boards, and had shrunk so there were large cracks in the structure. An old iron stove heated the building and the seats were made up of one straight board. Mrs. Buchanan recalls remembers that Mrs. Cass Ward would teach the children's Sunday School Class and that each Sunday morning it would be a hard chore to keep the children from dropping their coins for collection down on the floor and through the cracks on the floor.

Entertainment included singings as well as basket dinners. Literaries were held in the church and school. The programs would consist of a variety of things such as speeches and singings. Recalled as one program was a violinist of local talent. Another program was given by Henry Ralston and was a memorized speech. Also remembered were programs by Fred Brandt, John Collard and the community doctor and preacher.

Six other children, Louise and Lucille, twins, Helen Edna, Paul and Virginia were born to the couple in Hansford County. Loucille and Louise were one of the earliest sets of twins born and people for miles around would come to see this set of twins.

Mr. Buchanan worked hard with the Hansford Headlight and Mrs. Buchanan also helped as much as possible to keep the business rolling. All the type had to be set by hand and their press was known as a George Washington Press which was quite modern. They also did job work and Mrs. Buchanan surprised her husband once by turning a job of handbills out while Mr. Buchanan was out of town.

Mr. Buchanan sold the Newspaper to Oren Kelly, and in time the family took a vacation which turned into a short move. They went to California and then to Oregon where Mr. Buchanan worked at odd jobs. Ruth was born while the couple were in Oregon.

Spending only two years away the family moved back to Hansford County where they continued to make their home. Mr. Buchanan continued to be a loyal civic worker in the county and continued his interest in seeing the county progress. He worked in the sales business, representing insurance companies. Mr. Buchanan served as Democratic chairman for Hansford County for several years. He worked actively at jobs he was quite capable of holding which were promoting schools, good roads and other progressive programs of the area.

During World War II, times were hard and all the men were away to war. With Mrs. Buchanan's former experience in the newspaper field she carried on the Spearman Reporter for Dave Warren. She would gather all the news as well as make up the ads sold by Mr. Warren. Mr. Warren would take the paper to Panhandle to be printed and the bus would bring it back for Mrs. Buchanan to see that they were put in the mail. Making a point to keep up with the hometown boys away in the service. Mrs. Buchanan would see that all the boy's stationed homes were published.

Mr. Buchanan passed away in his home on November 29, 1951 at the age of sixty-nine years. His wife continued to make her home in the family home and also continued with her civic work.

Mrs. Buchanan has been a quite active member of the Eastern Star where she has received her 50 year pin and is now a life time member. She is also a Charter member of the Twentieth Century Club where she has served as program chairman, and has been remembered as being instrumental in preparing quite outstanding programs.

The W.S.C.S. of Spearman presented Mrs. Buchanan with a life membership. If ever missing a church service, the members of the church feel that Mrs. Buchanan is sick, for she is always in attendance. Mrs. Buchanan also holds a life membership in the P.T.A. and she has served as County Treasure of Hansford County.

Mrs. Buchanan has been a quite outstanding pioneer citizen of the county and was selected as Woman of the Year in 1961. Continuing to make her home in Spearman, Mrs. Buchanan is still quite active and holds the interest of others which has made her such a remarkable person. She has 16 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

The ten children of the family are still living. J.B. is married and has one child. He farms to the south of Spearman.

Weldon is married and has two children. He makes his home in Dumas where he is Manager of the North Plains Water District and has served as State Representative.

Loucille married John Allen and the couple have four children and they make their home in Spearman where they have nearby farm interests. Louise married Clarence Vaught and they have two children and make their home in Amarillo where he is with the Greyhound Bus Company.

Helen Fisher married Zack Fisher and they had one son. Mr. Fisher died while the son was small. Helen works in Gruver for the Cluck Cattle Company.

Edna married J.D. Bassel who in the real estate business in Brenham, Texas and the couple had one daughter who died at infancy. Paul married Ollie Wallin of Gruver and the couple have three children. Paul is a chemist for the Dorchester Plant near White Deer.

Ruth married Don Tipton who is retired from the army and is presently with a Bonding Company in Amarillo. Virginia married Pete Cates who is with the Hansford County Farm Bureau and owns the Spearman Dairy Creme. This couple have two children.

Monroe is a chemical engineer in the state of Maryland and has never married.

This is another history of an outstanding pioneer family of Hansford County who have been quite instrumental figures in the prosperity and progress of the county of Hansford. Such outstanding people as the Buchanans will be remembered throughout time as builders of the great empire of Hansford County.

GIRLS TAKE OPENER, BUT LOSE IN FINALS

All good things must come to an end and Gruver's girls basketball team found this out Friday night at Lubbock.

The end came just after 9:00 p.m. when a frantic effort to catch Wylie of Abilene fell short. The final score was 40-33.

Gruver had reached the finals with a 42-40 come-from-behind overtime victory over Sudan. Wylie hadn't looked too impressive with a one-sided victory over Cantillo.

But, Friday night Wylie played a slow, poised game, the type Gruver used often in District play to beat Stratford and other opponents. The Abilene school took a quick lead when Gruver couldn't hit and never trailed after the early seconds of the game.

It was one of the coldest shooting games Gruver has experienced all season. The entire team seemed cold and sluggish—possibly because of the tough battle that morning with a ball-hawking Sudan team.

Wylie placed two guards on Anita States and a third one sagged in when she received the ball. Left without a guard, Lanetta Blankenship proceeded to fire set shots but couldn't connect as the ball repeatedly came close but bounced out of the basket. Wylie's tall guards consistently came down with the rebound.

Gruver's guards stuck tight to the Wylie forwards and permitted few shots. Still, Wylie made progress with a slow offense that gained a 9-4 lead.

Just before the quarter ended, Blankenship connected with Gruver's first field goal and cut the margin to 9-6. Early in the second quarter States came through with her first field goal and Gruver trailed only 9-8. Wylie scored again, but two goals by Blankenship put Gruver ahead 12-11 and the team seemed to be settling down to another victory and a trip to the state tourney in Austin.

Wylie, however, coolly came back for two more baskets and a 15-12 lead. Blankenship hit again and cut the margin to one point.

Two quick baskets gave Wylie a 19-14 lead. Lanetta scored for Gruver, giving her eight points for the quarter but Wylie came back to lead 21-16 at the half.

The Abilene school got two more points early in the third quarter but Darlene hit a set shot to cut the margin to five again. Two quick baskets put Wylie ahead by nine and all but killed Gruver's chances.

Gruver's guards then started having trouble getting the ball back across the half. Blankenship put the difference to seven points but Wylie scored two more for a 29-20 lead going into the final quarter. They made it 19 points ahead with a free shot early in the final period. Wylie had started slowing the game down late in the third quarter.

Blankenship, who scored 18 points to lead Gruver, came up with five more points in the first four minutes of the final quarter.

Three Stratford girls, Charlotte Eller, Elaine Cummings, and Linda Reesing were named to the list as well as Barbara Hagar and Sheryl Keahy of Panhandle, Judy Mathews, Christine Keith and Mary Thomas of Sunray and Patsy McKinny of Sanford Fritch.

Named to the Boys All-District List were: Duane Pittman, Dennis Plunk, and

DURHAM TO SPEAK TONIGHT

Dr. Durham is a most interesting speaker so please be present at the meeting.

but Wylie had matched the total for a 35-25 lead with time running out.

States came up with a three point play that cut the margin to seven points and a free shot by Blankenship and a field goal by Judy Bayless brought the Gruver fans to a screaming pitch as the team trailed by only four, 35-31.

Wylie hit a free throw to increase the margin to five as the game went into its final minute of play.

Again Gruver came back as States scored to cut the difference to 36-33. Then Wylie fouled and Blankenship went to the free throw line with a one-and-one situation.

She missed the first shot and Wylie got the rebound to kill Gruver's hopes. The winners free-shot their way to four more points in the final seconds.

Gruver's chances of making it to the state tourney had looked extremely good Friday morning when the team rallied in unbelievable fashion to whip Sudan.

Gruver trailed Sudan 38-35 with less than 30 seconds left to play. States calmly sank a basket with 19 seconds left and drew a foul in the process. She sank the free throw to tie the game and became the star of the moment.

Then Wanda Hardesty, Kae Gammill and DeAnn Crawford took the spotlight as they kept the Sudan forwards from getting a shot until the last second when a frantic attempt at the basket was missed.

In the first minute of the overtime, sub. Judy Bayless became the star. The sophomore forward leaped across the out-of-bounds marker and batted a loose ball back to Blankenship as Gruver retained possession.

Then she took a pass from States and sank a goal that put Gruver ahead and the pressure on Sudan.

With less than a minute to play, Blankenship moved in for her share of the glory as she calmly sank two free shots to give Gruver a four-point lead. It was much needed as Sudan sank a basket just before time ran Gruver moved ahead 29-25 early in the final stanza but Sudan scored five straight before the ball got back across the half and led 38-35 setting the stage for States to send the game into overtime.

Gruver's girls finished the season with 29 wins and only three losses. Spearman and Sunray were the only other teams that beat Gruver.

The loss was only the sixth for the Gruver girls since early in the 1963-1962 season. In that span they have racked up more than 50 victories and become one of the best girls basketball teams in this part of the country.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

Prevention, not cure, is the answer to gun shyness, one of the greatest tragedies that can befall a potentially good hunting dog. Regularity in feeding time can be turned easily into a valuable training asset in many ways, says Henry P. Davis, Sporting Dogs Editor of Sports Afield Magazine.

Particularly is this true when introducing the young dog to the gun. The system is simply this: approach the kennel with the dog's food at the same time each morning and night. The youngster will come to anticipate these visits, and his own built-in alarm clock will alert him to your expected arrival.

Let plenty of noise accompany your feeding trip. This can be done by pounding on a board, banging on tin pans and the like. The puppy will come to associate these unusual noises with his regular meals and will soon overcome any fear he might have had of them at first. After he has become accustomed to these noises, the trainer should substitute the blast from a cap pistol or even from a .22-caliber pistol or rifle for the usual noise. At first the gun should be fired some 40 to 50 yards away from the kennel; then the distance should be gradually reduced.

When the puppy has become accustomed to such gunfire, a blast from a .410-gauge shotgun should be used as a signal, again the first firing being quite some distance from the kennel.

Finally, graduate to a 20-gauge shotgun and, if the puppy shows no fear of this—and he shouldn't—you may feel fairly confident that he will not show signs of gun shyness when his education in the field begins. But care should still be exercised, until the young dog comes to associate the gun with the killing of game birds. One should not, under any circumstances, fire a 12-gauge gun over a puppy's first point. To any experienced sportsman, such a thing is unthinkable; but it happens many, many times every season and results in the ruination of many a promising prospect. There are other careless tactics which can cause a dog to become gun shy, and the system outlined above is no guarantee against them. But it is a pretty good insurance policy.

Canasta Club Met Recently

Mrs. Jamie Wilmeth was hostess to the Grandmother's Canasta Club held recently.

Three tables of Canasta was enjoyed throughout the evening. Cleo McClure and Verna Finley won the high score honors.

Guests present were Ollie Spivey of Aztec, New Mexico, Mrs. F.A. Shapley Sr., Cleo McClure, Verna Finley and Alice Hawkins.

Members present were Mesdames I.W. Ayres Sr., Margie Barkley, Isla Cline, Devona McClellan, Thelma Davis, Alice Walker and the hostess.

Refreshments served to the ladies were salad, fruit cocktail, cake and snacks.

You are living "for keeps." You aren't merely all out for "first place", or breaking the record, you are running to obtain the prize of salvation. It is offered to you in Baptism, in faith in Christ. But in a sense it is conditional--depending upon how you continue in the life of faith in Christ.

It is not running a race to gain favor from God. We find favor with God only in Jesus Christ. But once we have salvation in Him, we continue to be sure it is a permanent part of our possession. We don't want to stumble half way through the race of life and lose this possession of eternity with God.

We ask for a second wind from God so that we can keep running steadily, doggedly stubbornly on the right road, with a spring in our step. To keep in training are you continuing to read God's word? To hear it preached? Remember, you are to run to receive the prize. You can't like the rabbit lay down at the side of the road when half way along in the race of life. "Be faithful unto death and I will give you the crown of life." (Revelation 2:10) Don't permit the devil to eliminate you from the race.

'64 Chevy II Super Sport with V8 power

...and just the place to enjoy it

Chevy II Nova Super Sport with Bucket Seats

Find out for yourself what this Chevy II can really do. If there are hills nearby, let it give them a good going-over. Then see it give slow-moving trucks the run-around. With its new extra-cost V8 you need but give the accelerator an inch, and this Super Sport will take a mile. And this great highway performer looks the part it plays so well. A glance at its all-vinyl interior and door-to-door carpeting will tell you that. There's your choice of either the floor-mounted Powerglide or Four-Speed Synchro-Mesh transmission. Both are optional at extra cost, along with a Positraction rear axle, AM-FM radio, and many other accessories. And for all its new power, Chevy II rides so softly it seems to glide along the highway. That's because it has high-mounted independent coil springs in the front and Mono-Plate single-leaf springs in the rear. With everything Chevy II Super Sport has going for it, it's no surprise your Chevrolet dealer is anxious to show you its price tag. Because that's the only thing about it that isn't super.

THE LAST DAY

by Dean Lee
I walked up the stairs of the old high school building. There were twelve steps on the first flight. I had twelve more steps to climb, and these were to represent the next twelve years of my life and the goals that I might obtain.

I was now on the second floor of the two story building. To my right was the typing room. I could almost hear the typewriters rattling as students strived in anticipation to obtain the required speed necessary to pass the course.

The next door led to the principal's office in which all students could discuss their problems and desires.

Four steps later, I was in the history room. I glanced out the window through which I saw the flags flying and the treetops stirring against a deep blue, peaceful sky.

I walked past rows of maps, past the teacher's desk and files; I look out on the world below.

The sun flashed on my ruby-colored Senior ring and illuminated four golden words which were inscribed on its borders. The first word was wisdom, an emblem of education that every person must secure before he is entitled to wear the ring. The second was honor, a remembrance of the goals that each senior had obtained. The third was loyalty, the proof of the patriotism and spirit in each of us. At last came the word truth. Ted Oslo described truth in this manner: "But a lie, whatever the guise it wears, is a lie as it was of you, and a truth that has lasted a million years is good for a million more."

I turned and walked out of the room. My shoes made a loud clicking noise as I walked down the worn tile hall of the deserted building. I passed the study hall and library where students had often pondered over problems or had just dropped in for an after noon chat.

At the end of the hall were the English and home-making rooms. The English rooms were stacked with dictionaries, workbooks, and library books; on the blackboards were constructed sentences of various forms and fashions.

I made a left turn and went to the end of the hall. On my right was the math room. A selection of instruments hung on the walls, and below them in white chalk were designs to test the comprehension of each student.

My tour of the building was now complete; therefore, I retraced my steps and left the building through a set of double glass doors.

As I passed the flag pole, a custodian was lowering the flag. I felt a small tinge of sentiment. You see, this was my "Last Day" as a member of Gruver High School.

FATHERS BEEN TO MAR

by Jim Cooksey

Last year our class presented a Junior Play that was very different and appealing to the people of Gruver. This year, we decided to select the same type of play, a farce in three acts, because we believe this play will be one of the top entertainments of the year. Timely as telecasts, the play is written by two network T.V. writers, it is a riotous production about a television star, his space show and his family.

After three and a half years of blasting through outer space on his T.V. show, Larry Gibson (Ray Kelly) finds it difficult to make the change each evening from space hero Captain Galaxy to husband and father. Then begins many incidents which lead up to a most hilarious climax. The play also brings about many wonderful and exciting surprises.

The colorful cast of this year's senior play includes the following: Carlita Knight, as Mrs. Gibson, the mother; LaNetta Blankenship as Eartha, the new maid; Day Williams as Corky, the younger daughter; Glenda
