

Mustangs Play Bi-District Game Tuesday

Boyd Pearce Serves as Interim Pastor

The First Baptist Church reports that Rev. Boyd Pearce has begun duties as the Interim Pastor for the church and will be preaching at both Sunday services and Wednesday nights.

Pearce served as a missionary to Kenya, Africa, for fifteen years and his office at the Lubbock Baptist Association Center displays many treasures and keepsakes which he brought back when he returned to the states. Prior to going to Kenya to do missionary work, he pastored a church in Brownfield.

The Pearce's reside at 2004 69th Street in Lubbock and are the parents of three children, one attends Baylor University and two attend Lubbock Public Schools.

Bro. Pearce will be available for anyone wishing his services and may be reached through the local church office or by calling 792-2363, the Lubbock Baptist Association Center.

To the Shallowater Business Men

Members of the Mustang Basketball team and their coach, Mike Williamson, wish to express their sincere appreciation for the support given them last week by local merchants in sponsoring the special page of congratulations on winning district. We are deeply grateful to have merchants in our fine city and school system who are behind us all the way.

We hope we can return the honor by going ALL THE WAY TO STATE.

School officials from Shallowater met with school officials from Balmorhea last Thursday to make arrangements for their bi-district basketball game. The Shallowater Mustangs will play the Balmorhea Bears at Andrews on Tuesday night, Feb. 25th at 8:00 p.m.

The Athletic Booster Club is making plans to charter a Greyhound bus for those who would like to go the Shallowater-Balmorhea bi-district game in Andrews next Tuesday night, Feb. 25th. Tickets will cost $6.00 per person. Anyone interested in riding this bus may contact James Reeves at Jim's Standard Service Station, or phone 832-4794 after 6 p.m., or they may contact Harley McCasland, the high school principal.

The game starts at 8 p.m. and the bus will leave Shallowater at 5 p.m. and return immediately following the game with no stops going or returning.

If you plan to ride the bus, notify these persons immediately, as the bus will need to be filled with riders, before it can be chartered, due to the cost.

Mrs. Sinclair's Students in Recital

The recital of first place winners of Sonata, Concerto, and Voice Contest, were presented in recital Sunday, February 16 at the Lubbock Garden and Arts Center.

First place winners from Shallowater were Lana Massey and Robin McMenamy. Sonja Gilmore won second place and Cheri Massey placed third. Others entering were Seena Conner, Dianne Dupler, Melanie Forester, Vickie Pettiet, Melissa Epperson, Debra Crowther, and Amy Taylor. All are students of Mrs. Burt Sinclair.

The contests were held Friday and Saturday with 55 area teachers entering 425 students.

Local Residents Attend Dallas Meeting

Several couples from Shallowater were in Dallas, February 9 through 11, where they attended the 23rd joint annual meeting of the Texas Federation of Cooperatives, and Houston Bank for Cooperatives and the Texas Ginners Association, held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas.

Those attending the meet from here were Messrs. and Mesdames Carey Gooch, Jack DuLaney, Doyce Middlebrook, Howard Preston, Bill Burgett, M.J. Williams and the Earl Teagues of Lubbock.

Gooch, who is manager of the Shallowater Coop Gin and served as president last year of the Texas Ginners Association, was named to the executive board. Gene McKee of New Home was elected president and George Babcock of Lubbock was elected secretary of the federation.

John F. Herzer, general manager of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill was named "Cooperator of the Year", and W.E. "Doc" Miller of Springlake received the groups "Distinguished Service Award".

Surprise Birthday Party Honors Mr. Sam Thomas on 84th Year Saturday

Everyone enjoys a birthday party, but to have your very first one and be 84 years old at the same time, is quite an exciting event and "what a surprise it was" to Sam Thomas Saturday morning when he found himself the honoree at Vardeman's Cafe, as everyone who entered the cafe that morning was asked to join Sam in celebrating his birthday with refreshments of cake and coffee at his table.

The lovely birthday cake, iced in white, bearing the inscription "Happy Birthday Sam" was presented to him by Mrs. R.W. Woodruff and was baked and decorated by Mrs. A.M. Covington, Sr. The cake featured a three wheel bicycle, which depicts Sam's present pastime, as he is an avid cyclist and is seen peddling away on his three wheeler, going to the post office, or to the cafe to get a cup of coffee, and always

Former Resident Wins Trip

A former Shallowater resident, Max Reed, and his wife Debbie, recently spent a lovely five days in Jamaica, compliments of the Horizon Seed Company, along with several more persons who flew to Jamaica from Amarillo.

Reed is the son of former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Reed and the grandson of the E.B. Reeds of this city.

The Reeds have resided in Vega for the past several years, where they are engaged in farming and ranching. Prior to moving to Vega they were residents of Shallowater and Max attended school here.

He and his wife reported a very enjoyable trip, the weather was humid, but windy, which made them feel very much at home, since they reside in the windy part of Texas.

Gerigs Attend Dallas Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gerig and sons were in Dallas, February 8 through 11 where Gerig attended a three day convention presented by the American Institute of Banking at the Sheraton Hotel.

Seminars were presented during the three day event on bank security. Gerig has been associated with the Shallowater First State Bank for 1 1/2 years and is the Credit and Security officer.

stopping off at the Pot-Luck Barber Shop most every day to chat with Dalton Potter and catch up on what's happening around Shallowater. And as Dalton puts it, "Sam always makes my day by stopping by to visit and set in his favorite barber chair, smoke his pipe and talk."

The sparkle in Sam's eyes Saturday will be remembered for a long, long time by those that were present when all the group gathered around to sing "Happy Birthday Sam".

Sam was born on February 16, 1891 in McMenn County, Tenn., the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Thomas and has resided in the Shallowater area since 1915. He has one brother and two sisters still living. Ray of Shallowater, Mrs. Mary Vinson of Lubbock and Mrs. Mandy McCall of Dublin. He and his wife Tommie were married in June, 1947 and have resided at 909 12th St. since 1960.

In talking with Sam concerning riding his bicycle, he said he found it was better exercise for older people than walking and advised everyone to take up bicycling as its one of the best ways to keep active. And the way Sam gets around on his bicycle at 84 years old, is living proof. And in talking about his three wheel bike, he said he had been riding one for about six years, has worn out one and started on his second one.

Sam also remarked that Shallowater was one of the best places to live and had some of the finest people a fellow could find anywhere in the whole world.

Bill Hart Completes Course

Bill Hart, local Pioneer Natural Gas Company employee was among the 36 area servicemen who have received certificates of achievement for completing a course in basic applied electricity.

The awards were presented Tuesday at Pioneer's Service Center on Quirt Avenue. The course was co-sponsored by the company and Lubbock Regional Occupation Center, a division of South Plains College.

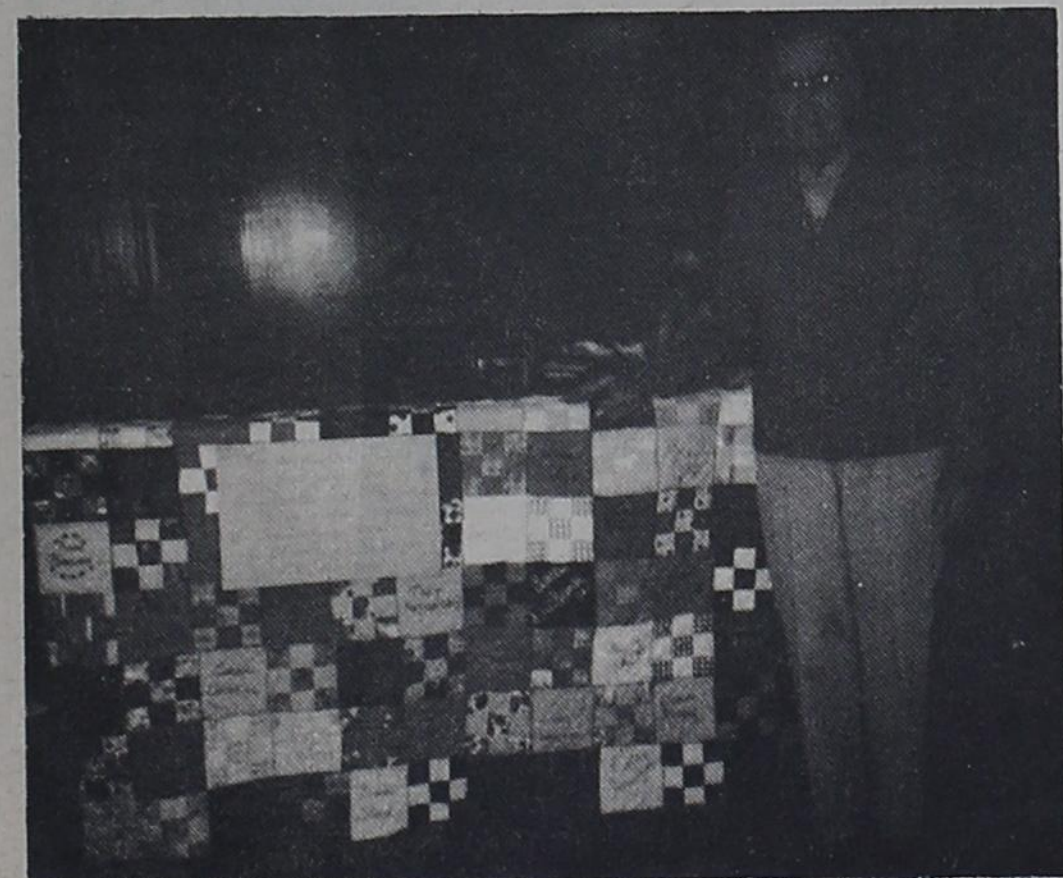

The sixteen week course was instructed by Homer McClain of the college. Awards were presented by Joe Price, division manager, Phil Mast, service coordinator for the company, Dean B.P. Robinson of the school and McClain.

Shallowater FHA News

The Shallowater F.H.A. chapter sold daisies for Valentine. Originally the project was viewed cautiously. However, by 10 a.m. Friday on Valentines Day the sale was an overwhelming success. Additional orders were made and more daisies had to be ordered. Mothers, girlfriends, sweethearts, wives, and friends received these. We hope to make this a yearly event.

During the junior class play, Margie Barron, president and Grace Lupton, Impact and Enoucter chairman, presented the hand made quilt to Mr. A.E. Todd. Members of the F.H.A. and home making classes pieced, embroidered, and quilted the friendship quilt. It is on display at the Shallowater Bank and we would like for everyone to see it.

The F.H.A. Sweetheart Banquet is set for February 22 at the Hayloft Theater. The girls are busy making place cards, programs and centerpieces. At present approximately one hundred people are expected.

A.E. Todd is shown with the quilt presented to him by the local FHA girls at the Junior Class play. The quilt is on display at the First State Bank for those who would like to see it.

The winner of that game will advance to the regionals in Lubbock February 28, along with the winner of the Shallowater-Balmorhea bi-district game which will be played in Andrews February 25th.

Kay McMenemy, student at McMurry College in Abilene, visited Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McMenemy and other relatives.

Mrs. John M. Young left Saturday morning for Chilicothe to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burnett. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Young took her and returned back home that afternoon. Mrs. Young remained for an extended visit to be at the bedside of her father, who is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. M.J. Williams attended the Texas Federation of Cooperatives meeting in Dallas last week and also visited with Mrs. Williams' aunt, Mrs. Lillie Willis, who is a patient at Baylor Hospital in Dallas. Enroute home they also visited with their daughter and husband, the Kent Gentry's in Colorado City.

Visiting over the weekend with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Giles was Mrs. Gladys Tarter of Midland.

Old Methodist Parsonage Moved

Members of the United Methodist Church purchased the E.A. Preston home at 1208 8th St. last year as their parsonage to house the pastor of their church, and put the old parsonage next to the church, up for sale.

Built in 1954 by H.L. and Mr. and Mrs. Jack DuLaney was among those from Shallowater attending the Texas Federation of Cooperatives meeting in Dallas, Feb. 9-11; and also visited Mrs. Grover Gillett, formerly from here, who resides at the Fairmont Hotel in Dallas.

Mrs. Ivan Fowler underwent major surgery in Methodist Hospital Monday morning.

Hubert Gentry, the structure was purchased by a former member of the church, Mrs. Glen Gabehart of Olton, formerly Mrs. Glenn (Louise) Leggett of this community.

The parsonage holds many fond memories by members of the church and its pastors, which included six other pastors and its present pastor, the Max Browning family. Seventeen children have enjoyed living in the home while their fathers were pastoring the church, including the Browning children, all girls, Sheri, Sheryl and Sharla.

Other pastors and their families who have lived in the house were Cecil E. Tune, 1953-1957; L.W. Tucker, 1957-58; Allen Adams, 1958-62; Walter Hadley, 1962-65; Howard Quiett, 1965-68; Homer Salley, 1968-70; and the present Browning family.

ACHIEVEMENT

It comes in all degrees and all forms. It's difficult to say just how it happens . . . It's different things to different people. It doesn't necessarily come to the biggest, or the fastest, or the smartest. It does come to the one who wants it the most . . . the one who is willing to work, to make it happen. Achievement comes after sometimes coming face to face with failure, feeling and knowing the agony and hurt of temporary failure. It's knowing embarrassment and even humiliation at times and having the character to keep coming back. It's keeping faith and continuing to grow through more work and more dedication. It's the visualizing of a goal and seeing it come true. It's the deep down, hard to communicate, warm all over feeling of winning. Achievement is not an ending . . . It's confidence for a new beginning.

SPORTS

by Joe Kelly

The first half of the Southwest Conference race quickly decided one thing—it's a threeteam battle. After eight games Texas A&M, Tech and Arkansas are all alone. Indeed, the two teams tied for second have a three-game bulge over the next teams.

So, the final games have a bearing on whether the Aggies can keep their lead. All things being equal, Arkansas has a slight edge in that it only plays two remaining games on the road.

Arkansas, however, must play Tech and Texas away from the Hills, not an easy assignment. Tech and A&M each have three games away. Tech met SMU Tuesday and has games with A&M and Baylor. A&M met Baylor and has games with TCU and SMU.

More and more it appears that the Tech-Aggie game in College Station next Tuesday might be THE deciding game. It looks that way, although the other games are not to be ignored.

The Raiders, after showing the killer instinct against Rice in Houston, failed to follow up against SMU when they had the Ponies on the ropes. They blew a 21-point lead and had to rally to win, when they should have won going away.

Against Rice Saturday night they had to battle to stay alive. The disappointing thing was that Tech couldn't cover the Owls man for man. They had to go to the zone to win. It was fortunate that Rice couldn't cope with the zone.

Will the race go down to the wire? Will A&M be tripped by someone when least expected? Will Tech and Arkansas continue to win on the road, setting up their head to head match this Saturday?

The incentive is with Arkansas. The Porkers have never defeated Tech in Lubbock, never. If the Raiders win that meeting, it could be the stage for a mammoth battle in College Station. Don't go away folks, this could be anyone's season.

*****

Lee Frasier disallowed a Rick Bullock goal last Saturday night when the Rice game still was in doubt. The crowd immediately reacted, vociferously—but not one cup of ice was flung! Whee! Common sense, decency and courtesy returned.

Large, enthusiastic crowds make basketball the emotional game that it is. You can pick out dozens of things during the course of any game to be unhappy with, but showing displeasure by throwing things has no place in the game.

The SMU-Tech game triggered action by the conference to see that such things didn't happen again. Still, J.T. King said that Cliff Speegle, conference official, wasn't the one who made any violent protest.

Instead, Tech officials decided that things had gone too far, that such reaction was hurting the university's image. And the argument that "everybody does it" didn't hold any weight. It had to be stopped before someone was hurt.

Cup and ice throwing isn't unique to Lubbock and Texas Tech. This has been going on for years, here and elsewhere. There is, of course, no excuse for it.

Objects have been thrown for years—pennies, tomatoes, ice cups, paper clips, programs—you name it, it has been thrown, at Lubbock, College Station, SMU, Baylor, anywhere.

It wasn't many years ago that Polk Robison and the Tech squad were subjected to a paperclip barrage at A&M, along with football players seated behind the Tech squad to jeer, hell and harrass the Raiders.

Polk said nothing, but when Bobby Rogers brought the Aggies out here, football players were seated behind the Aggies. They made so much racket that Rogers could hardly hear. After the game, Bobby commented to Polk that he didn't much appreciate it.

"Now you know how others feel when they go to College Station," Polk replied.

That ended it at A&M.

Crowds at SMU were relatively well behaved when it came to throwing things a few years back, but a portion of those crowds were so obscene in their remarks at Polk, Gene Gibson and players that it was unbelievable.

Indeed, one time in the old Baylor gym I heard a young "lady" divest herself of such language that she would have earned a top place for herself in my overseas outfit.

Texas has been known to cause mop up operations during a game, while TCU also has joined the "Hey! Mom, look at the arm I got!" brigade.

All of which doesn't make any of it right. There is no place for any object being thrown at any time. All it does is threaten the safety of innocent people.

McCoy McLemore, Rice assistant, probably saved me one night recently. He remarked that something had hit him in the back of the head, but "because of this Afro, I hardly felt it!" He fortunately was sitting right behind me.

Anyway, let's hope the long distance throwing contests are over, for this year and all time—but don't bet on it!

Brother of J.U. Cone Dies

Gordon M. Cone of Lovington, N.M., 72 year old brother of J.U. Cone, died at 4:45 a.m. Friday in a Hobbs Hospital following a brief illness.

Burial was in Lovington Cemetery under the direction of Smith-Rogers Funeral Home.

Cone, a prominent businessman, was owner of Lovington Abstract Co. and president of Southwestern Well Service in Lovington, and owner of Deco Data Processing Co. in Midland. Cone was born in Cameron and had resided in Lovington since 1927.

Other survivors include his wife, Kathleen, of the home; four sons, Douglas L. of Galveston, Clifford and Tom, both of Lovington, and Kenneth of Austin; one daughter, Mrs. Cathie Auvenshine of Austin; three other brothers, Arthur, Raymond and Hubert, all of Lubbock; four sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Pevehouse of Lubbock, Mrs. Lois Tekell of Corsicana, Mrs. Lula Pierce of Santa Rosa Beach, Fla., and Mrs.

Local Boxers to Travel to Fort Worth

The local Martin family is filled with quite a bit of talent. Three of them are sensational boxers.

Joe, Mark, and Joe Frank were among the competitors that met at the Lubbock Regional Tournament for the Golden Glove Boxers. The tournament took place on February 13, 14, and 15.

All three of the Martin fellows brought home trophies. Joe Frank won the runner-up trophy in the High School Division of his weight class. Joe and Mark won their trophies, but most important, they won the right to participate. Eunice Gibson of El Paso; and two grandchildren.

in the State Competition at Fort Worth, that will be held on March 6 thru 10th.

These boys deserve a lot of recognition for their great talent and for their determination. We wish them the best of luck and hope that they each bring home a nice trophy.

Our Apologies

In the story on the 8th grade girls basketball game last week, the names of Melissa Epperson and Kim Hickox, and Dawn Hutchings were omitted. We are sorry girls, please accept our apologies.

Birthday Club Holds Party

The ladies who reside on 8th Street had their regular monthly Birthday Club party Thursday morning in the party room at the First State Bank with Mrs. L.H. Redwine and Mrs. J.D. Rackler as hostesses.

The honored birthday guest for February was Mrs. Penny Stegall and a very special guest was Mrs. E.A. "Grandma" Preston of Lubbock, who formerly resided on 8th Street.

The Valentine motif was carried out in decorations with the tables covered with red cloths, centered with a beautiful arrangement of red and white carnations, enhanced with tiny red hearts and flanked by white ceramic doves.

The fifteen ladies who were present enjoyed refreshments of coffee, juice and individual heart shaped cakes, iced in red and trimmed in white.

Hostesses for the Birthday Club party in March will be Mrs. A.R. Shipp and Mrs. Penny Stegall.

Rays of Hope

by Pat Stanton
Why Was Job Sick?

Throughout the years, we've heard many comments and jokes regarding the life of Job.

When people have sickness or poverty, they make comments such as this: "Well, I'll suffer and bear this like Job. He was a good man and God did this to him, so I'll just suffer and bear my pain." Most people don't realize that Job's plight only lasted for nine months, that he did receive healing, and was given twice as much as before. After his problems, he lived 140 more years, had 10 more children, and when he died, the scripture says "so Job died, being old and full of days". (Job 42:17).

Many sincere Christians believe that God caused the tornado that killed Job's children and caused Job to be covered from head to foot with sores. If you will closely examine the scripture, you will find that Satan did all of this after his visit with God concerning Job.

Up to a certain point in Job's life, God had a wall of protection around Job and everything that he owned. Satan called this a hedge in chapter 1 verse 10. There are certain things of the spiritual world that we need to understand. We are always promised divine protection as long as we are staying in God's divine will. All through the writings of the Psalms, we are assured of God's love and protection if we abide in him. (1 Peter 3:10-12, Psalm 91:9-11, Psalm 37).

The Lord said that Job was a perfect man. This did not mean that he was sinless, or walked in perfection as Jesus did. Job was a sincere man walking upright before the Lord. He walked in all the light that God had given him. Job also had a great reverence for God and he hated all evil.

Job began a certain practice that created a hole in the holy hedge surrounding him. Job began to fear that his sons and daughters might be sinning in all their merrymaking. Job began to make sacrifices for his children because he began to fear that they were sinning. Verse five in chapter one says that he did this continually. (Many parents today are guilty of this same practice. Rather than trust God to keep their children, many continually plead to God with fear in their hearts). Only faith is pleasing to God (Heb. 11:6) Fear is from Satan (2 Tim. 1:7). We must remember this: FAITH activates God, and FEAR activates Satan.

For many years, the devil has sought to deceive Christians. He tries to make the Christian believe that God is causing all the misery that is coming into their lives. Therefore, they quit trusting God as a father and begin to look at God as a "Big Boss". They develop a fear syndrome rather than a faith life.

The Bible gives in Job 2:7 a true picture of Satan's work. "So Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown." You will also notice that sickness is referred to as a captivity. Satan takes the bodies of people captive in the same way as their souls. (Job 42:10).

I believe that many people blame God for their suckness and problems because of a guilt complex. They know they have sinned, and they think that this is their punishment. They don't realize that when they get out of God's will and protection, they are automatically open to everything of Satan's power.

Job himself gives another clue as to why he was so sick. He says, "The thing which I greatly feared has come upon me and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

We must realize that God permits many things to come into our lives that he does not approve of. There are many questions we can never answer, but this one thing we know: God is so good! James 1:17, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of Lights, with whom is no

The Surrender

by Cathie Parsley

The day Lee surrendered was a clear, soft day. The sun shone brilliantly through the trees, and the birds warbled especially beautiful songs. It was as if they knew what was about to happen.

I surveyed the scene before me. The men were clustered in small groups, cleaning rifles and packing their few belongings into worn knapsacks. If I hadn't known who won the war, I could never have guessed that this was the victorious camp. The men were talking quietly among themselves. Their tired faces showed relief that it would all soon be over.

The war had changed all of these men. They were tough, hard men, accustomed now to the deprivations and tribulations of war.

I had come to know these men well. I looked at Charlie Trimble. He was a good man and a good soldier. He had come from the cornfields of Illinois. He had grown up with hard work, and he always volunteered for the jobs that nobody else wanted. Charlie was going back home to a wife and five children. He was proud of his family, and he wanted the best for them. He wanted his children to have plenty of food, and a good education. He wanted his wife to have a new house, built with real wood, not just a log cabin. I was going to miss Charlie Trimble.

I looked at Peter March. Peter was from an aristocratic Philadelphia family. When he came with this unit, he was a haughty young man, never letting anyone forget who he was. The war had had an effect on Peter, however. He lost

Senior Spotlight

by Anita Alvarado

Amanda Hobgood is this week's senior spotlight. Amanda is a member of DECA and is employed at Hobgood Grocery and Game Room.

Amanda was born on February 10, 1957, and is a twelve year veteran. Amanda plans to work, before going to TSTI where she will major in Interior Design.

Her plans for the future do not include marriage. She plans to go boy watching for a while.

Amanda's comments are "I've enjoyed the 12 years at SHS."

his arrogance and insolence, he became one of the guys. He was a good soldier, too.

Then there was Nick. No one knew his last name; he was just Nick. He was brash and hot-headed, but he was kind hearted. His jokes and humorous stories lifted many a low spirit over a period of four years.

My thoughts were ended abruptly by a call that General Grant wanted to see me. I went to his tent, where he asked me to accompany him to the signing of the surrender. I agreed.

An orderly announced that General Lee was approaching. Together with Grant, I and several others left the tent to greet the opposing leader and his entourage. The two generals met, and it was evident that both men were uncomfortable. Their conversation was strained.

We went inside the Appamatox Courthouse where the ceremony was to take place. Several small conferences were held before the final terms were drawn up. General Lee requested that his troops be permitted to keep their horses so that they would have something with which to begin rebuilding homes and planting crops. Grant agreed, and the surrender was signed. It was over. At long last, it was over.

I know. I was there.

Hillbilly Wedding A Success

by Charles Krebs

Last Friday and Saturday night, the junior class presented their play in the high school auditorium. There was a packed house Friday night for the first performance, which was very funny, and very entertaining. All the kids in the play were very funny and convincing.

The play had three acts. It was about an old Hillbilly, Pa, who was looking for husbands for his daughters.

The cast of characters was: Kim McMenamy, Pa; Debbie Grims, Ma; Jeanye Hunter, Juney Lou; Carol Shropshire, Bonnie Mae; the dude Ronald played by Chris Hutchings; Darrel Morris, Obeey; Tom Sinclair, Chiz. The dirty Ceelie was portrayed by Kim Young. Ronald's aunt was portrayed by Geniese Grawunder. The cousins were played by Jackie Randolph, David Levens, and Terry Bristoe. The other sisters were Gwen Avery, Six; Laura Thompson, Four; and Susan Heinen, Five.

The juniors would like to thank all the people who came to the play for their support.

A Dear Lady

by Janie Serna

The Shallowater Independent School District has been very fortunate in having a lady that knows her job well. She has been here for a period of over ten years.

Mrs. Walker, one of the secretaries that has her office situated in the peaceful junior high building, has two children. One is Wes, who is a sophomore at our high school. He is her baby. Kathie, the oldest, is married to Mark Miles and they have a darling little girl. The little girl is April Dawn and she is "the apple of Grandma's eyes."

Reminding Mr. Hohertz, our superintendent, what to do is among the many responsibilities that Mrs. Walker has.

We are all quite certain that she has enjoyed all the years that she has spent here. We all respect her and we all like her quite a bit.

Mrs. Walker is a very dear lady.

Judy Waller

Judy Waller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Waller, and Steve Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Wilson.

These students were selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service and character.

The NHS induction ceremony will take place on February 24 in the high school auditorium and a reception for the NHS members will follow after the induction in the high school library.

Mustang 1974-75 Season

The A-J had picked Slaton to win earlier in the season. And, now it read, "Shallowater is the team to beat in District 5-A." I guess Seagraves decided to do just that. They downed us 46-45. This was the loss that really helped us the most for the year. It showed us that we couldn't take any team for granted. It showed us not to ever be let down or give up. From then, our practices were lots more serious. We wanted the district very badly but now we would have to fight from the bottom up. We bounded back with sheer determination. We blistered O'Donnell 79-44. The second unit saw lots of action that night. Jerry Harrison had eight points with Kim McMenamy behind with 6 points. Our next game was the one that we were so proud of. We edged past the Stanton Buffaloes 58-57. We really had a balanced attack that night. Jon had 44, Bobby 14, Don L. 10, and Rusty had one of his best games with 16, Alex 14 points. Rusty seemed to be in the right place at the right time.

We were taking the games one at a time now. Plains was next on our black list. We scratched them off with 58-44. This was the end of the first half of our round robin play. Seagraves had been beat by O'Donnell. So now we were tied with Seagraves for the first half. We now could play one more game without pressure, this was Tahoka, a one district team that had beat us twice. Well, they did it again, this time with a score of 88-73.

The second half of district play now would reopen with us hosting Seagraves. The stomachs of all the players and fans that night were tied in knots. We took complete control of the game. The Seagraves boys knew they were dead the minute they stepped on our court. We won 53-41. A delay game with 4 minutes to go made Seagraves go crazy. They fouled us too many times. We turned the ball over one time in four minutes, pretty good, yea.
