

District Governor Speaks to Shallowater Lions

Balloonists Treat Residents To Rare Sight Saturday

by Caran Conner

Saturday morning a strange object was seen flying over the city of Shallowater. As I looked up I didn't know if I was in 1974 or living in a fairy tale, because it was a huge orange and white striped balloon, with a carrier hooked to the bottom for passengers.

Nick Owens was flying the balloon, which is made of parachute material and filled with helium. Nick is a member of a balloon club in Lubbock that has eleven members, but really needs twenty members. Mr. Owens was giving Allen Damron, who is playing at the Brookshire Inn in Lubbock, a ride, because Allen liked balloons but had never ridden in one.

They landed in a muddy field west of town. Originally they had planned to change riders but with the high winds, when they touched down, the balloon came down and was dragged across the field. The head of the "driving chase vehicle", Ron Bush, with some others, then attempted to put the balloon up again. After about 15 minutes they got it in the pickup and left.

The Shallowater Lions Club had their regular meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. at Vardeman's Cafe. It was Ladies' Night, and there were thirty-nine Lions and Lionesses served a buffet style dinner.

The 2-T-2 District Governor and Lt. Governor, along with their wives were honored guests, along with Princess Patti Middlebrook, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Middlebrook. Patti is "Miss Texas Dainty Dixie Doll."

The entertainment for the affair, was presented by Tim and Tad Sinclair. The Sinclair 2T's, as their father calls them, played six selections with Tim on banjo and Tad on the mandolin. They started off with "Amazing Grace", then Tim played "Grandfather's Clock" alone, "Foggy Mountain Breakdown", "Nashville Blues", "Cripple Creek", and "Dueling Banjos" with Tad again joining him. The Sinclairs are currently engaged in a family project, building a banjo.

The President of the Lions Club (Wayne Wages) presented the governor's wife, Mrs. Norma Lester; and the lieutenant governor's wife, Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, with red roses. The deputy district governor, Billy Fisher from Lubbock was introduced. Mr. Fisher introduced Mr. Allen, chairman of Eyes; Milton Elliot from Shallowater, chairman of Hearing; Mr. Shoneberg, zone chairman; and Mr. Martin, the crippled children's camp chairman.

Mr. Martin presented the Lions with a 1974-75 certificate for 100 percent participation in the camp. Lt. Gov. Jim Johnson, spoke about the possibility of a Youth Club in this district. Mr. Johnson then introduced the speaker for the evening, Gov. Hank Lester. Governor Lester's speech was entitled, "What Is Lionism?" Officers were reminded of the cabinet meeting on September 29th in Lamesa, and a short directors meeting was called to be held afterwards.

Guests present were Dewayne and Melba Wages, Ben and Margaret Altman, James Harris, and Truit and Tixie Brown.

the church served a very nice covered dish lunch in the Frenship High School Cafeteria.

Back Pay Windfall in Store for Military, Reserve and National Guard Forces

Back Pay Windfall in Store for Military, Reserve and National Guard Forces

A back-pay windfall is in store for everyone who was in the active military, reserve forces, or the National Guard during late 1972.

The payments, totaling several hundred million dollars are owed to the military according to a court decision.

The one-shot back pay due stems from a ruling by the U.S. Court of Appeals that former President Nixon illegally delayed the government pay raise scheduled by law for October, 1972.

The Second Supplemental Appropriations Act, signed June 8, 1974 provided the military services with funding authority for retroactive payments to military personnel, including those who have since separated or retired.

The decision came in a law suit brought by the National Treasury Employees Union after Nixon delayed until January, 1973 the automatic raise required under the Federal Pay Comparability Acts. The active duty basic pay increase was 6.7 percent.

PTA To Hold Garage Sale

The Shallowater PTA is again planning a community garage sale in October.

A good start was made on the air conditioning fund last year, so we need to get together and work this year.

Beginning September 1st, the PTA will begin collecting donations of all your treasures and junk. For pick ups call Mrs. Bill Kerchner at 832-4086 or Mrs. Joe Cox at 832-4010.

First Baptist Group To Attend Rodeo

A group of families and youth of First Baptist Church will leave Monday morning at 8:00 a.m. to attend Cal Farley's Boys Ranch annual rodeo near Vega.

The rodeo proves to be an exciting event each year. The group will leave the church parking lot and eat lunch at the ranch, returning by early evening.

For more information contact the church.

DPS Estimates 34 Lives to Be Lost in Texas Labor Day

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that traffic accidents in Texas over the Labor Day Weekend will claim 34 lives.

Speir noted that traffic deaths in Texas, which earlier were running up to 30% under the 1973 toll, have been rising throughout the summer months. He said the upward trend is related to heavier traffic and an alarming disregard for the 55 mile speed limit.

The DPS director said every effort would be made to prevent accidents and deaths by placing all available DPS troopers on duty during the holiday period which extends from 6 p.m. Friday, August 30, through midnight Monday, September 2.

Speir noted that many local law enforcement agencies will be cooperating in the all out effort to

Services Held in Roby for Father of Local Resident

J.C. "Charlie" Smallwood, 80, of Roby, died Sunday morning at Fisher County Hospital in Rotan, after a lengthy illness.

Services were held in the First Baptist Church in Roby. Burial was in Roby Cemetery under direction of Weatherbee Funeral Home there.

Smallwood was born in Dougsville, Ga., and moved to Roby in 1916 from Mount Vernon, and was married June 12, 1917 to Clara Schindler of Roby.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Jack of Rotan and Harold of Dallas; his daughter, Mrs. Noble Watson of Shallowater; three brothers and three sisters; three grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Cooper School News

The Cooper football scrimmage will be Friday night at 5:30 p.m. The freshmen will play first and the other games will follow. Games will be played at the football field west of the gym. We invite everyone to come and see how great the football teams for this year are going to be.

The Cooper news reporters for this year will be Martha Sport,

Mrs. Christine Robison is the 7th and 8th grade math teacher. She is married and has two children, Tommy age 21 and Shireen age 19. She has never taught Jr. High math before, but thinks Cooper is a great school. She lives in Lubbock at 1920 44th Street.

Darlann Haley, second grade teacher, went to Texas Tech and began her teaching at Cooper in January of last year. She was a substitute in junior high and elementary before being hired.

Debby Haren is a new teacher at Cooper. She grew up in Lubbock and went to North Texas State University in Denton where she taught last year. She is 22 years old and was married this summer. She really enjoys Cooper and thinks the faculty is very friendly and the students have a nice attitude.

Mr. Kenneth McCabe is the 7th and 8th grade science teacher. This is his first year to teach, and thinks Cooper is a very good school. He is a graduate of Texas Tech, is married, and has no children.

Mrs. McCamey is the special education teacher. She loves to work with children, and the children love her very much. She plans to teach at Cooper all her life. She was impressed by the way we are. She is not married. She finds people very friendly at Cooper, and is impressed with the program.

Karen Woodmon is from Huntsville, Texas. This is her second year to teach. She taught the 2nd grade in Houston. She is married and has 2 little girls, Karrie age 5 and Shelly age 6.

Kathy Talley is a graduate of Cooper High School (1967). She and her husband Terry have two children, Blake age 5 and Wynde age 3. She graduated from Tech last May with a degree in Elem. Education and PE specialization. This is her first teaching assignment.

Jim Carlin Heads All American Scout Roundup

Texas Tech University's Head Football Coach will head up the All American Roundup for the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America, reports Jack Baker, Council President.

Approximately 4500 boys will join the All American Team during the last four months of 1974 in the 22 counties of the South Plains Council.

Boys 8 years of age or in the 3rd grade can join the Cub program. Boys 11 years of age to their 18th birthday may join the Scout program. Young men and young ladies 15 to 20 may join the exciting Explorer program today.

School rallies, camporees as well as many other opportunities for boys to join Scouting will be offered this fall, stated Mr. Baker.

Football is in the air and so is the All American Roundup for Scouting. Join today! Visit a Scout group! If you are not aware of a unit in your neighborhood contact your school principal or call the Council Service Center, 747-2631.

Sewing With Today's Thread

For today's homesewers, "sewing a fine seam" with polyester and cotton covered polyester threads sometimes creates problems.

Beverly Rhoades, clothing specialist, Texas Ag Extension Service, has some suggestions to make sewing with them easier.

Since fabric texture, weight and finish affects the stitch appearance, always make a test seam when using the sewing machine.

Each time a different fabric is used, the machine setting will probably have to be changed.

To make a test seam, she advises stitching two eight-inch strips of fabric together. The stitching should look the same on both sides

Healthy Personality
The Adolescent

Healthy personality for an adolescent means he is beginning to recognize reality and cope with the practical problems of life. To nurture a healthy personality in adolescents, adults must understand several basic aspects of man.

Groundbreaking Set For Boys Ranch

After months of planning, committee meetings, and fund raising events, Mr. David Anderson, President of Texas Boys Ranch of Lubbock announced today that construction would commence on the first cottage in early September.

Groundbreaking ceremonies are scheduled for September 14, 1974, at 10:00 a.m. at the ranch site.

make the streets and highways safe.

In addition, he said the DPS would be working with the news media in a special public education program called "Operation Motorcade." A concerted effort will be made to focus public attention on where and why fatal accidents are occurring during the holiday.

Di-Gel QUICKLY RELIEVES 'Gasid Indigestion'

...it's those times you suffer acid indigestion and painful gas, too.

DI-GEL® gives more complete relief because it does what plain antacids can't. It reduces excess acid; also contains Simethicone that gets rid of gas, too. Heartburn, painful gas go fast. Get DI-GEL.

—Attitude toward self

An adolescent with a healthy personality can recognize more and more how experiences in his past influence his present behavior and reactions.

—Using potentialities

As he matures, a teenager can take himself more and more for granted, and devote his energies to areas and problems beyond his own security and interests. He can go beyond himself to create warm and deep relationships with others.

—Wholeness of personality

His personality takes on a wholeness as the adolescent successfully, but gradually, develops a unifying philosophy of life, to serve as a meaningful, responsible frame for the main activities of his life.

This development is more likely to succeed when others are patient and provide understanding sounding boards for the many problems of values and behavior that adolescents struggle to sort out.

—Achieving responsibility

People with healthy personalities develop a will and ability to choose their own behavior in responsibilities, rather than feeling so compelled to please others that they become slaves to others' desires.

—Perceiving reality

A healthy personality sees reality accurately, distinguishing between phony and real, honest and dishonest. He accepts himself without feeling ashamed of what he is or being shocked at his own shortcomings.

—Mastering environment

Adolescents developing healthy personalities begin taking charge of surroundings by acquiring knowledge, skills, attitudes and abilities to cope with the practical problems of life.

Adults can help fortify healthy personalities in adolescents by setting an example.

Without being phony or hypocritical, be a VIP in a adolescent's life.

The picture an adult gives of his struggle toward a healthy personality is worth much more than anything he says.

and be free from puckers.

Reduce thread tension if the fabric puckers. Today's fabrics require rather loose tension, she said.

If the stitch locks or lays on top, reduce the top tension. If it locks on the bottom, increase the top tension to make a balanced stitch.

If the machine and needle are clean and free from defects, the thread is less likely to fray or break.

For easy threading, cut the thread at an angle, never bite or break it. Also, the needle eye should be large enough to accommodate the thread easily.

For a balanced stitch, use the same thread in the top and bottom of the machine, except silk twist which may be used in the needly only.

Homemaker of The Week

The Homemaker for this week is Mrs. Jack (Peggy) Cowart. Both Jack and Peggy were born and raised in Paducah, Texas, and moved to Lubbock in 1953. They moved to Shallowater on May 30, 1968, to 1308 7th St.

The Cowarts have a son, Ron, living in Lubbock, who is married to the former Susan Korchenko of Shallowater. Cindy, 17, is a senior at SHS, and Greg is a second grader.

Jack is a salesman for Ben E. Keith Co., and has been for the past twenty-two years. He also is a substitute school bus driver.

Peggy works where the action is. She is Bookkeeper-Receptionist at the school. The Cowarts are members of the First Baptist Church and Youth Committee. Peggy also serves as Director of Youth II in Sunday School. Peggy and Jack were chosen as senior class sponsors.

Peggy enjoys bowling and reading and when time permits, sewing for the family. She is looking forward to the Shallowater Mustang football season and the Mustang and Fillies basketball season. She enjoys being around young people and thinks we have one of the finest schools in the state. "Shallowater can certainly be proud of our elementary, Jr. High and High School principals for their high moral standards and their dedication to the students. I also believe the students should be commended for their behavior at school and social functions", states Peggy.

Peggy comments, "I enjoy living in Shallowater and appreciate all the benefits of a small town. It's a great feeling to go to the grocery store, bank, coffee shop, or post office and always meet friends who have time to visit a few minutes or at least say a friendly 'hello' and offer a smile."

Peggy uses this illustration about what kind of cook she is: I didn't have potatoes So I substituted rice,

I didn't have paprika So I used another spice. I didn't have tomato sauce So I used tomato paste, A whole can, not half a can, I don't believe in waste. A friend gave me the recipe, She said you couldn't beat it. There must be something wrong with her. I couldn't even eat it.

Peggy would like to share some of her favorite recipes with you.

Toasted Cinnamon Sticks

Cut thick sliced bread into strips, dip in undiluted evaporated milk, then in melted butter. Roll sticks in a mixture of sugar and cinnamon and bake in a hot 425 degree oven for about 20 minutes. For the sugar mixture, use a half cup of sugar and a tablespoon of cinnamon. Bread cuts easier if frozen. Great for after school snacks.

Milky-Way Ice Cream Makes 5 quarts

Cut 5 Milky-Way candy bars into small pieces and add 10 oz. miniature marshmallows in a heavy saucepan. Melt together a cool. Add 3/4 cup sugar and 1 can Eagle Brand milk. Mix with candy mixture and pour into ice cream freezer. Fill can to "fill line" with homogenized milk.

FOOD MARKETING ALERT

USDA
 Agricultural Marketing Service

As of mid-August, the food supply situation in September is expected to look like this . . .

RED MEATS —

Beef supplies will be moderately above September 1973. But all of the gain will come from grass-fed cattle, which will move to market in larger volume. Supplies of grain-fed beef will approximate the low level of September 1973.

Pork production should exceed year-earlier rates, but run below the 1970-72 average. Hog slaughter rates should be starting the seasonal increase.

POULTRY & EGGS —

Egg output should be slightly below September 1973 and about 4% under the 1971-73 average.

Broiler-fryers should be down 2% to 4% from last September and 4% to 6% below the 1971-73 average.

Turkey new-crop marketings should be about 2% below September 1973 and about 9% under the 1971-73 average. Cold storage holdings remain at record levels — one-third more than the most recent 3-year average.

MILK & DAIRY PRODUCTS —

Fluid milk, butter, cheese, and nonfat dry milk supplies should be adequate. Although milk production continues to decline seasonally, commercial stocks of the three manufactured items remain above levels of a year ago and the 1971-73 average.

FRUITS, VEGETABLES, NUTS

Bartlett pear supplies will be ample, with output from California, Oregon, and Washington nearly equal to the 1971-73 average but 6% under 1973.

Prune and plum production in Michigan, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon should be about 10% less than last year and 5% below the 1971-73 average.

California grape supplies will be ample. Production is slightly less than a year ago, but 17% more than the 1971-73 average.

Apples will be ample as the late summer-fall harvest gets underway. The 1974 crop will be slightly under last year's, but about equal to the 1971-73 average.

Canned non-citrus fruits will continue tight, but citrus juices will be plentiful. At the end of July, Florida concentrated orange juice stocks were 20% larger than 1973's abundant supply.

Dried prunes remain ample. This year's production is expected to run 24% less than last year, but be greater than the latest 3-year average.

Raisin supplies will be moderate, due mainly to 1973-crop inventories. That crop was 32% above the 1970-72 average.

Fresh vegetables will be ample and canned vegetables generally adequate. Stocks of most processed tomato products may be heavy.

Frozen vegetables will be in good supply. July 1 stocks were 34% above 1973 and 22% ahead of the 1971-73 average.

Potato supplies are increasing seasonally. The 1974 summer crop is 11% above 1973, and more fall-crop acreage — 7% over 1973 — should boost fall production. July 1 frozen potato stocks were 5% above 1973, but 14% below the 1971-73 average.

Walnuts will be abundant. Production in 1974 should be about 19% less than the large 1973 crop but about equal to the 1971-73 average.

Almond supplies will be more than adequate, since 1974 production is expected to be much larger than both the 1973 and the 1971-73 averages.

Peanuts remain ample. Production in 1974 is expected to be slightly under last year's record crop but larger than the 1971-73 average.

GRAINS & LEGUMES —

Dry bean supplies should be ample, with expected record output 24% above last year and the 1971-73 average. Dry peas and lentils should be ample, with dry peas nearly doubling last year's crop and totaling 28% more than the most recent 3-year average. A larger than average lentil crop is expected.

Rice supplies are expected to be fully adequate. A record crop is forecast — 15% above a year ago and 22% above the latest 3-year average.

Wheat will be tight but adequate for U.S. needs. The new crop, mostly harvested, is pegged at a record — 8% above 1973 and 13% over the 1971-73 average.

Corn for food should be adequate even though the corn crop is forecast at 12% below a year ago and the 1971-73 average.

SPORTS

by Joe Kelly

Friends, it may be that I'm belaboring a dead cat with an equally dead worm, but any resemblance to pro football by the new WFL is in the imagination of the announcers.

I'm sorry. Maybe it's because age is beginning to take its toll on these tired old orbs, or perhaps it's because I've seen too much football. At any rate, I've seen two games a week for going on a month now and it doesn't seem to get that much better.

Unfortunately for the new league, the veterans of the NFL decided to report back to camp. In little more than a week, they were ready for combat. And it soon became apparent that these gentlemen knew what the game was all about.

In fact, after watching the Miami-Minnesota clash, it was painfully evident that either team would have beaten the best in the WFL a la Bobby Riggs, that is, one hand tied, anchored by a 50-pound cement block and blindfolded to boot.

I would hate to be considered a snob, especially after carefully culturing the other aspect for so many years as a sports writer. And it smacks of snobbery to play down the WFL.

The new league is manfully trying, and the loop gets an A for effort and an A plus for enthusiasm. Unfortunately, experience and execution is lacking. Until the more capable, experienced NFL stars get to the WFL, it will remain a far step behind the NFL.

I didn't get out to see Texas Tech Saturday, finding that rain and sun left too much work to do, but the reports received did indicate that the Red Raiders are alive, well and enthusiastic.

For the coaches, the first three days were painful. They had to work the squad in shorts and helmets, sans pads. Aside from the condition of players and obviously natural talents, it's a teeth-biting period before the players scrimmage.

Unfortunately, it appears to be wasted effort this year, for Denne Freeman, the extremely capable successor to Harold V. Ratliff as AP sports editor, has awarded the title to Texas.

I don't know that a blood transfusion would dilute the Orange in Denne's veins. I'm not sure that I'd want the operation. After all, difference of opinion is what makes horse races. And the Southwest Conference title goes to the team with the most horses.

It's logical that Denne would pick the Horns. I might do the same, were I in his shoes. Still, I question the line of logic he uses. And he had quite a line in Sunday mornings editions.

For instance, A&M can't beat Texas in Austin, except for the time that Bear Bryant did it. And Arkansas is a perennial second because James Street and Company apparently put a jinx on the Razorbacks that has lasted.

As for Tech, the Raiders can't do it because they must play Texas in September and, last year, didn't get over the shock of playing the Longhorns until the second half.

My, my, the Longhorns were so "confident" of winning that they dug out a formation they hadn't used in 10 years. And it wasn't until Rosy Leaks personally took charge late in the game that the Orange felt even a vestige of confidence.

Okay, Denne, have your fun. I'm glad you're going to be in Lubbock Sept. 28. I think that you're going to see just how much of a psychological factor the Horns have going.

I hope Leaks plays in that game, that he starts and goes all the way. I'd hate to have to write that "of course, Texas was without Leaks in the lineup."

Let's not kid ourselves, folks. Tech must play both Iowa State and New Mexico, but these are preliminaries to THE game.

According to the TV news Sunday night, the NCAA was going to slap a two-year probation on SMU in football and one in basketball for violations. The violations, of course, are old knowledge.

SMU admitted, late last year, it's guilty in paying players for tackles, etc. It hoped, naturally, to get off lightly and the ruse succeeded within the conference, which slapped wrists and nothing more than that. The NCAA didn't take as charitable a view, apparently. You hate to see penalties to good friends, but you hate to see the cause for them, too.

When I came home from a week in Sweetwater and points southeast, I found the Texas Tech "media guide" for football. It's an outstanding publication and Ralph Carpenter deserves tremendous credit for another magnificent job.

From cover to cover, the book is attractive, informative and interesting. The Tech football fan ought to buy a book if he wants to be really informed. I'm glad the brochure came to our house.

In an earlier mail was another magazine, the L.L. Bean Fall Catalog. Like spring, when the fall issue arrives, you know that the season is here.

Although the prices stop me on some items, it's a thing of beauty and the articles described are great. Admittedly, much of the material is for folks living in much colder areas, but there's a lot that folks in the Southwest can use. And the company stands behind its products, which means a lot, especially in these days.

Had a letter from old buddy Jim Whitelaw of Saranac Lake, N.Y., this week and the first thing that tumbled out of his letter was a picture of a 2 lb. 4 oz., 12 1/2 inch Rainbow trout.

No, he didn't catch it, but it was taken from a nearby lake and Jim says that he hopes the weather holds so that he can do some fall fishing. Some of the best fishing of the year in that area comes after the tourists have left, as well as before.

Jim writes that "I had my sister out fishing on Miller Pond a few weeks ago and she hooked into two very large pike, both of which snapped her 10-pound test mono as if it were two pounds.

"We never saw either of them but they took off with the power and speed of a drag racer. I'll never forget the expressions on her face! I'm sure that both of these were in the 12-15 pound class and wished that I had been able to get one on myself."

Okay, you good-looking bum, tantalize me! You know I can't do a thing about it until next year—and besides, my wife probably will be like your sister and all I'll get is sunburned, sweaty and bug bitten. But, boy, even to read about it makes you excited.

Well, I've got you in one place. I can watch Texas Tech football and that's pretty doggone enjoyable. And I'll write you about the fun at the Cotton Bowl! Go ahead and write about your fish!

this verse, we must understand the meaning of the word soul.
Gen. 2:7 tells us that man is a spirit and has a soul.

1 Cor. 15:45 states that Adam was made a living soul.
Heb. 4:12 tells us that the spirit can be separated from the soul.

1 Thess. 5:23 says that our whole spirit, soul, and body should be sanctified and kept blameless until the Lord Jesus comes again.

I believe that our soul contains the mind, will, and emotions. With this in view, in order for our souls to bless the Lord, our soul must experience a spiritual renewal. We have to let the Spirit of God deal with our mind, our wills, and our emotions. So many believers do not realize that the area of the soul gives them more trouble than any other area. And until this area is brought under the control of the Holy Spirit, man will continue walking in despair and confusion.

Is your mind free from fear, worry, and confusion? If not, then you can not totally bless the Lord. Have you given your will to God? Have you allowed your emotions to be touched and healed by God's love?

God is concerned about the whole of man. He wants us to be concerned about our spirit, soul, and body.

We need to join with David, the anointed of God, and tell our souls to bless the Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henry of Wolfforth have been visited by their son, Frank A. Henry III. He has been stationed at Fort Hood and is now going to be stationed in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Simons had a visit this weekend from his brother and wife. They are Mr. and Mrs. O.D. Simons from Houston.

Mrs. W.A. Martin had her son and his wife, Donald and Peggy Martin, from Shallowater here Sunday. They also came for the dedication of the First United Methodist Church building.

Mrs. E.R. Haskins was visited Sunday by two of her children. They are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haskins and their son, and Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Williams. Both families are from Midland. They were here for the Methodist Church dedication.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Foy and

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Charles and their daughter, spent the weekend in Anson with Mrs. Foy's mother, Mrs. E.P. Parker. While there they visited Mrs. Foy's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Crumpler and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy DeBusk and their daughter Emily were also there. The DeBusk family took the Foy's and the Charles' on a tour to Abilene, to a nearby lake, and to old Fort Phantom Hill. That is where the Indians had war in 1851 during the Civil War when the frontier was patrolled by rangers. Some units of the Frontier Battalion of the Confederacy, led by Col. J.B. Buck Barry, used Fort Phantom Hill as a base for field operations. The buildings are built entirely of stone. The old magazine and some chimneys still remain in tact in the complex.

After that historical visit, the Foy's and Charles' visited Mr. Foy's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson.

MIGHTY MUSTANG SHALLOWATER SCHOOLS

Mighty Mustang Staff Named

by Caran Conner

The "Mighty Mustang" is the name of the school paper this year. It has a new sponsor, Mrs. Barker. The staff consists of three seniors, Janie Serna as Editor, Alex Grice and Charles Krebbs; two juniors, Anita Alvarado and Caran Conner. The staff will collect all the news from the school and write it up for the paper. All class reporters, office reporters, and teachers are urged to turn in all news by Monday morning.

First Meeting of Shallowater High School Student Body Held Wednesday

by Anita Alvarado

On Wednesday, the 21st of August, the student body gathered in the high school auditorium for our first assembly of the new school year. The juniors were called out first, then the sophomores, succeeded by the freshmen. The last ones to go in were the seniors. As they walked in, the student body rose.

The assembly was started by saying the Pledge of Allegiance and a short prayer.

Don L. Grimes, president of the student council, welcomed the new teachers as well as all the students. The student council members, twirlers, cheerleaders, football boys, NHS members, FHA members, FTA president, editor of the annual staff, editor of the newspaper staff, and the band members were recognized.

The student handbook was discussed. Dress codes, rules and open campus were among the

by Charles Krebbs

This school year started out with some drastic changes from last year. To begin with, we have a new principal and superintendent. Mr. McCasland took over as principal and Mr. Hohertz assumed the superintendent's job.

Mr. McCasland brought with him a new class schedule. This year there are six periods in a day instead of five, and a home room period was added after lunch.

Also this year we have an open campus for grades 9 thru 12. Six new teachers were added to the faculty, and they will be featured at a later date.

Homecoming Is On Its Way

by Janie Serna

"We'll have all the good luck and they'll have all the bad luck," is what we are all hoping.

It so happens that our homecoming game will fall on Friday, September 13th. The game, in which the Shallowater Mustangs come neck to neck with the Hart Longhorns, will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Todd Field. During half-time, the Homecoming Queen will be crowned. Discussions of having an "ex-s" queen have been heard, but no decision has been made.

Ex-students will meet in the cafeteria on Sept. 13th from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. for registration. The meal will be served by the Band Boosters at this time.

Mums will be sold. If you are interested in purchasing one or two (maybe more), please contact Mrs. Barker at the high school. You must pay when you place your order.

Everyone is urged to attend this football game, which means so much to the team, the student body, the faculty, and everyone. It is time once again to cheer our team on. So come on, let's all go to the game.

subjects discussed. At the end, the student body arose as the seniors left the auditorium. The remaining students were dismissed and returned to their classes.

DECA Finds Home In Shallowater

by Mike Wolfenden

The 1974-75 school year offered a new challenge to its students. It is the first time in the history of Shallowater that Distributive Education is offered to the students.

Many of the students joined D.E. in both Pre Employment Laboratory (PreLab) and Co-op Education.

Shallowater Mustang Band

by Alex Grice

The Shallowater band is really stepping high this year. Mr. Rusty Sherman is back to head the band. He has already started reshaping the band, with his mind set on three "firsts".

There are eighty members this year. Mr. Sherman plans to march about sixty-eight people. To aid Mr. Sherman, Jackie Buck will be drum major. The twirlers this year are Geneise Grawunder, Kim Myers, Sherry Stence, and Christi Evans. Good Luck Mustangs.

Junior Class Meeting Held

by Debbie Grimes

The Junior class of the 1974-75 school year has elected their new officers. They are: President, Christ Hutchings; Vice President, Tom Sinclair; Treasurer, Geneise Grawunder; Assistant Treas., Kim Young; Reporter, Debbie Grimes; Student Council Representatives, Terri Martin and George Stanton.

The juniors have a lot of work to do this year and we would appreciate your backing.

Season Starts Off With Scrimmage

Shallowater and Meadow fought the attack of weather and each other, to end up in a 1-1 tie, in a scrimmage last Friday night at Meadow.

Shallowater scored on a 70 yard run by Jon Gates, who ran through the blocking of Don L. Grimes and Luther Vaughn.

On the last play of the scrimmage, Meadow's quarter-back for the upcoming year. The election of officers is planned for the week after the Labor Day Holiday.

We believe that, with the cooperation of the students and the employers, D.E. should have a very successful year.

back threw a 30 yard pass to the right end which gave them their score.

Shallowater had fine effort from the entire team on offense and defense.

On defense, the Mustangs of Shallowater held the Meadow Broncos to only crossing the 50 yard line twice and one of those was when Meadow scored.

Shallowater had a fine turnout of fans despite the weather.

We would like to encourage all of Shallowater to come and back the Mustangs against Wilson Friday night at 6:30 p.m. at Todd Field here in Shallowater.

PTA to Hold First Meeting Thursday

The Shallowater PTA is having their first meeting on Thursday, September 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Auditorium.

Parents are urged to attend this get acquainted meeting, to meet your children's teachers.

Refreshments will be served.
