Sesquicentennial Banquet Planned In Quitaque April 12

A banquet commemorating Texas' 150 years is being planned for April 12. This is the second in a series of celebrations planned for Quitaque, Silverton and Briscoe County.

March 2, there were two commemorative tree plantings in Quitaque and Silverton and a balloon release with cards bearing names of Quitaque school children. Of these balloons, four have been found and the cards returned. One from Ron Brittain was found at Plainview, Jay Gray's was found in Tullia, then in the opposite direction in Frankston, Texas which is located 100 miles southeast of Dallas, and the fourth was found in Overton, Texas with Clay Merrell's name on it.

At the April 12 Sesquicentennial Banquet at the Quitaque Community Center, an essay and poster contest is being sponsored with the winners being announced that night. All of the posters will be on display at the community center and the essay winner will read his essay. First National Bank will award $25 Savings Bonds to the winner in Grade School, Junior High and High School divisions.

The program will be on Texas, with Mrs. Rex Arnold of Lubbock coming to speak on the Alamo. Mrs. Ross Herrington will play a selection of Texas music on the organ and a singing group will present a musical number on Texas Heritage.

Tickets for the banquet are now on sale, and you may make your reservation by contacting Mary Stark or Janice Henson. Adult tickets are $4.50 and tickets for children under 10 are $3.50. This is a family affair and you are encouraged to come and bring your entire family. James Brunson is preparing a delicious meal of smoked turkey with all the trimmings.

Make this a special birthday celebration as we remember the ones who fought and sacrificed to make this great state.

Duck Family Has Easter Picnic

The Duck family met on the creek on the Barrett farm for their annual Easter picnic. A fun time was had picnicking, hunting Easter eggs, throwing washers and visiting. Danny entertained some of the crowd by shooting off his model rockets.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Farley, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ramsey, Mrs. Glynn Barrett, Danny and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wellman, Jamie, Richard, Ryan and Jessica, of Quitaque; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ramsey, Bryan, Amy, Kayla and Dara of Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Chadwick, Shane and Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Farley, April and Cory, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Jameson, Kevin and Michelle and Dorothy Jameson, Claytonville. Afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Chestnut, Mac and Nathan, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Farley, Melody and Vance, Quitaque; Mr. and Mrs. Vance Childress, Linda Auston, Marcy, Mark and Mindy, Karen Rice and Brandi, Silverton.

New Menace Discovered in Briscoe County's Wheat Crop

In recent days many wheat producers have contacted Briscoe County Extension Agent Dirk Aaron concerning their crop. All are familiar with problems with greenbugs and the like, and recent infestations have been discovered. But many producers have been noticing varied amounts of purpling, curling and streaking in the wheat.

This problem was also being noticed in Bailey, Parmer, Gaines, Scurry and many other counties on the South Plains. Close analysis of samples retrieved at several locations revealed an unknown aphid. Identification of this aphid by Extension entomologists at Lubbock proved it to be the Russian Wheat Aphid. This is very unusual because the Russian Wheat Aphid has never before been found in the United States. This insect damages the wheat plant by injecting a toxin that bleaches out the chlorophyll in the top leaf as it bites. The leaf turns purple with streaks of white, curls and eventually dies.

Unfortunately, at this time, little is known about the aphid, the economic result of its infestation, and what are the best chemicals to use, Aaron said.

The aphid has been found both in fields on the Plains and in the portion of the county below the caprock.

"I talked to Dr. Pat Morrison, Extension entomologist, this past weekend. He feels that if you spray before the wheat crop reaches growth stage six or seven (just before the flag leaf emerges), you can avoid a reduction in yield. If left unchecked, the aphid could reduce your yield substantially. Dr. Morrison says if you are going to spray, you should use parathion or a combination of parathion with Disyston® or Cygon®," Aaron said. "These should help you obtain some residual effect."

"I urge each of you to evaluate your wheat crop as soon as possible. I suggest that you weigh your potential yield, fertility level, moisture situation and the cost of spraying before you react too rapidly," Aaron added.

"If I can help any of you in evaluating your particular situation, please feel free to call me at 823-2343 or 847-2251," Aaron concluded.

Easter visitors in the James May home were their children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson of Flomot, Loretta Johnson of Vernon and Kayla Johnson of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith of Quitaque also were guests for lunch.

Leeks planted in the waxing moon, it once was believed, would grow large and savory.

Donations Needed For Turkey Quilt Fund

Two quilts are in the process of being completed in Turkey to raise money for the cemetery fund. One quilt is the Texas Sesquicentennial quilt and the other quilt is the Turkey, Texas one, with blocks pertaining only to Turkey.

These quilts will be given away to the lucky winners who have bought chances, when the names are drawn. Further notice will be given about when, where and how much the chances will be.

If you haven't participated in making the quilts and would like to make a donation to the quilt fund to help defray expenses, see Sybil Young at City Hall.

Many thanks from your Quilt Committee.

TO THE VOTERS OF BRISCOE, DICKENS, FLOYD AND MOTLEY COUNTIES

[110th Judicial District of Texas]

George Miller, the present District Judge, has in his paid political advertisements represented himself to the voters as being fair, qualified, capable and experienced. We ask that you consider the representations made by George Miller in such advertisements with the injustices inflicted on the people by his erroneous rulings and by his other conduct. In each and every case listed below the higher courts of this state have ruled that these decisions were errors made by District Judge Miller, and that the errors were so bad as to require a reversal of the rulings.

In the case State of Texas vs. Fortenberry, 579 S.W. 2d. 482, a murder case tried in Hale County, Texas, on a change of venue from Motley County, the defendant was tried for the cold blooded murder of Jalmar Wilson, the Sheriff of Motley County, Texas. The Jury found the defendant guilty and assessed the death penalty, but the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed and sent the case back for another trial. This trial cost Motley County approximately $124,000.00, of which the County was required to get a grant from the State of approximately $52,000.00. The County did not have the money to try the defendant again, resulting in a plea bargain agreement in which the defendant received a lesser sentence than the sentence given by the jury at the trial. The reason given by the Court of Criminal Appeals for sending the case back for a new trial was that "Judge Miller did not properly instruct the jury."

The case of Moore Ag Credit vs. Lovell, (Cause No. 2313, District Court, Briscoe County, Texas), concerned a loan company (Moore Ag Credit) unlawfully foreclosing on a landowner's land in Briscoe County. The case was tried before a Briscoe County jury in March, 1984, and the jury found that the substitute trustee who sold the property for the loan company was not timely appointed and also found that the loan company did not act fairly with the landowner. Despite the jury's findings, George Miller erroneously awarded title and possession of the land to the foreclosing loan company. The Court of Appeals reversed Judge Miller's ruling and sent the case back for another trial. The reason given for the reversal of Judge Miller's judgement was that the Trustee for the loan company was not appointed (as found by Briscoe County Jury) the required 21 days before the foreclosure sale, the loan company did not act with fairness and impartiality in the conduct of the sale, as found by the Briscoe County Jury, and the Trustee's Deed and the foreclosure proceedings were void as the matter of law. This unlawful foreclosure was conducted in July, 1982, and the Supreme Court in January, 1986, affirmed the Court of Civil Appeals finding that Judge Miller's judgment was incorrect, thus reversing and remanding the case back for a new trial. As a result of George Miller's incorrect ruling on a matter of law, the landowner has been unlawfully deprived of the title to and the use of his property for almost four years, the Jury's time was wasted, the Court expenses were wasted, and an estimated $100,000.00 in attorney fees of the litigants was wasted because Judge Miller did not study and understand the laws of this case.

In the case Northcutt vs. Jarrett, 585 S.W. 2d. 874, the Plaintiff attempted to set aside an agreed property settlement in a divorce case presided over by the late Honorable L. D. Ratliff in 1971. Judge George Miller, after failing to properly instruct the jury, made an erroneous redistribution of the property which had the effect of setting aside the judgment made by Judge Ratliff. The Texas Supreme Court reversed Judge Miller's judgement and allowed Judge Ratliff's judgment to stand. The Supreme Court said, in effect, that Judge Miller did not submit the proper issues to the jury and that the jury's finding: therefore did not support the judgment entered by Judge Miller. As a result of this error, the jury's time, the money of the parties, and the expenses of operating the court were totally wasted, with nothing having been accomplished.

In the case Harrison vs. Parker, 620 S.W. 2d. 102, the Plaintiff, represented by David Cave, sought to recover her share of her Mother's estate. Judge Miller incorrectly ruled the woman could not assert her claim because it was barred by the statute of limitations. The woman's small share of the estate amounted only to about $1,200.00, and she was not able to pay a large fee to appeal the case and correct the injustice inflicted upon her by Judge Miller. However, her attorney, DAVID CAVE, was determined to correct this injustice and carried the case to the Court of Appeals, which reversed Judge Miller's decision, saying in part, "the implied findings that the Plaintiff's claim was barred by the statute of limitations was unsupported." The Texas Supreme Court upheld the Court of Appeals, and the case was remanded back to the trial court so the woman could assert her claim, which was thereafter settled and finally paid to her.

The cases described above are matters of public record in the custody of the District Clerk in the counties in which the cases were tried. These are public records which anyone may inspect if they desire to do so.

In each of the cases cited above the reversals of Judge Miller's rulings were the result of his failure to properly read, study and interpret the laws of this State and the cases relative to the cases before him, in order that he might understand the true state of the Texas law and to understand how to properly instruct a jury.

The people of Texas in the State Constitution and through laws passed by the legislature provided for the establishment of a set of rules to govern the conduct of Judges. These rules are found in what is known as Code of Judicial Conduct which Judges are expected to obey.

Canon 3 A. (3) states "A Judge should be patient, dignified and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers and others with whom he deals in his official capacity."

We ask that you compare this rule with the manner in which Judge Miller dealt with a witness in Cause No. 1974 in Motley County, Texas, on November 12, 1985.

This was an uncontested divorce case. The husband was being questioned by a lawyer, Mr.

Arnett, concerning a box spring and mattress which had been destroyed in a tornado. The following is a partial transcript prepared by the Court reporter:

Question: So the box--

Answer: But the one--

Question: --Spring and mattress was completely ruined.

Answer: Yeah.

Question: Are you using that at this time?

Answer: Using what? The box springs and mattress?

Question: And the bed.

Answer: I've got--I went and bought me another--

Judge Miller: Mr. Wilson,--

Answer: --Box--

Judge Miller: --You keep your mouth shut and your voice down, you understand? This is a Court of Law. Now, you try to answer the questions without arguing.

The witness, who was told by Judge Miller to "keep your mouth shut," is a government teacher in the Matador School system. What can he tell his government students about the patience and courtesy of District Judge Miller of the 110th. Judicial District?

On February 5, 1981, Judge George W. Miller appeared in the County Court and applied for probate of the handwritten will of W. A. Massie, Deceased.

This handwritten will was patterned after a draft of a proposed will which Judge Miller, in his own handwriting, has prepared for Mr. Massie in 1971. George W. Miller wrote himself into this proposed will as Independent Executor without bond.

Prior to the time of the application for probate by Judge Miller, Mrs. W. A. Massie had applied for and received letters of administration on the grounds that Mr. Massie left no will. She was represented at that time by attorney, Kenneth Bain.

After Judge Miller came up with the handwritten will, he employed attorney, Kenneth Bain, to represent him. Mrs. Massie had to employ other lawyers.

Mr. W. A. Massie (as the probate record of heirship shows) was not related to George Miller either by blood or by marriage and even if he were a member of his family Judge Miller would be subject to the following restriction in the code of Judicial Conduct:

Canon 5 D. of the Code of Judicial Conduct provides that a judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or other fiduciary except for the estate, trust or person of a member of his family and Section 5 D. (1) provides a Judge should not serve as executor if it is likely that as a fiduciary (executor) he will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or if the estate becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the Court in which he serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

The will of W. A. Massie provides: "I hereby constitute and appoint George W. Miller of Floydada, Texas, Independent Executor with bond of this my last will, and direct no action be had in County Court other than probating, appraisal and list of claims." Several of Mr. Massie's relatives filed suit for a construction (interpretation) of the will and for part of the estate.

In spite of this clear direction in the will, Judge Miller did not remove the lawsuit from County Court to District Court which he could have done and was obligated to do. The County Judge could have also sent the case to District Court in order that the will could be construed (interpreted) by a Judge who was a lawyer, familiar with the complicated rules of will construction.

If the suit had been removed to District Court (in accordance with the provisions of the will) then Judge Miller would have been disqualified, a District Judge would have to be called in from another District with the result that another District Judge would have discovered that Judge Miller was serving as executor of an estate and would have taken whatever action he considered appropriate under the circumstances.

Judge Miller paid out of the Estate directly to the lawyer for one group of relatives the sum of $110,000.00 for division among the lawyers and plaintiffs in a compromise and settlement agreement and it was agreed that the County Judge would construe the will in accordance with Judge Miller's theory. This action was taken in the County Court regardless of the fact that the will of W. A. Massie provided: "And direct that no further action be had in the County Court other than probating, appraisal and list of claims."

The County Court records show that Judge Miller served as executor from February 16, 1981 to December 9, 1985, which amounts to approximately one-half of the time that he has occupied the office of District Judge. He has paid himself as executor a commission of thousands upon thousands of dollars out of the Massie Estate. During the period of administration he has played the roles of witness, litigant in an adversary proceeding, district judge, proponent of a will, lawyer and employer of the County Attorney who had previously represented Mrs. W. A. Massie in the same case.

We ask that you consider the conduct of a judge who apparently being dissatisfied with his salary of some $60,000.00 plus the large retirement benefits, chose to enrich himself with extra judicial activities.

On May 3, 1986, you will have the opportunity for the first time in your life to vote against George W. Miller by voting for

As usual, extracurricular activities during the month of April dominate the school calendar at Valley School. One would assume that school activities and holidays would begin to wind down during the spring months, but it seems they only change complexion. A look at the scheduled events for the next few weeks will keep students busy, especially on weekends. Valley students will be involved in track meets, tennis tournaments, literary contests, music events, agricultural judging contests, and holidays.

This weekend of April 4-5, students will be participating in a number of events. There is a

Larry Tyler Improving At Home of Parents

Larry Tyler is slowly improving from the accident he was on March 11. He had just stopped work on the railroad near Childress at 4:00 o'clock afternoon and a platform he and another man were standing on turned under their feet, throwing them down a 40-foot embankment. Larry was falling in front of the other man and as they fell both gained speed immensely. Just before they hit bottom, they were thrown down another seven foot embankment that had been cut sharply by road machinery and when Larry landed, the other man landed on him.

Larry suffered a dislocated right shoulder, his left hand was broken on the back, two fingers were broken and his wrist was broken. Cartilage was sprung on his left leg and he suffered two broken ribs. His right arm was set and a pin placed in it at Hig Plains Hospital in Amarillo. His right arm was immobilized for the shoulder to heal. He has been up and driving to town some this week.

He goes back to the hospital Tuesday of next week and hoping that the pin can be removed from his right shoulder. The cast on his left hand will be removed and if it is healed, he will undergo a few weeks of therapy on his right shoulder and his left hand. Also, his left leg will have to undergo some therapy. He says it could have been much worse.

Essay, Poster Contest Underway

The Sesquicentennial Committee is sponsoring an essay and poster contest for all Quitaque school children, and entries are to be turned in by April 10. Sixth grade and under are asked to make posters depicting Texas History. Seventh grade may either write an essay or make a poster. Eighth grade through High School are asked to write an essay on the "History of Texas" or "What Texas Means to Me."

First National Bank is awarding $25.00 Savings Bonds to the winners of Grade School, Junior High and High School divisions. The winners will be announced at the Sesquicentennial Banquet on April 12. All entries must be turned in by April 10 so they may be judged. All posters will be on display at the banquet and the essay winner will read his composition at the banquet.

There is much enthusiasm for this event and it will be an excellent way for the school children to have a part in this special celebration.

A GOOD NEIGHBOR

There has been "Woman of the Year" listed in Quitaque and the honors bestowed upon her, but there is one man in Quitaque who deserves that honor as much as anyone that has been listed. That man is J. J. McCay. He is working all the time for those who need help and most of the time he won't take pay. This is what is known as a good neighbor.

One day this week, he mowed a "half section" of land, seemingly, starting at 7:00 o'clock and working until 4:00. He has already worn out one riding lawnmower since coming to Quitaque, and they don't come cheap. He went out as soon as the mower quit and bought another one and is fast using it up. He repairs a leaky faucet, paints and caulks windows on neighbors' houses, in general, he can do, and does, anything his neighbors ask him to do. He does all this with a smile and "everybody" is his friend.

All the neighbors in the southwest part of Quitaque want to give J. J. a "standing" vote of thanks, including Mr. and Mrs. Odis Reagan, Cora Gragson, Lieb Stockton, Gladys Stroup, Lottie Owens, and many, many more.

Interest in model railroading as a hobby began after the Chicago World's Fair of 1933-34. Model railroad exhibits at the fair spurred this interest.

CARDS OF THANKS

I would like to say "thank you" to everyone for the lovely cards, visits and flowers during my recent surgery and the visits, gifts, phone calls and prayers since my return home. We are truly blessed to have such good friends. God bless you.
Therma Farley and family

Thanks to everyone who has remembered me in any way since my accident and thanks for the cards, telephone calls, visits and everything that has been done for me while I was in the hospital and since I have been home. The people of Quitaque are the greatest in time of need.

Understanding Sciences

The Search For Solutions
Youngsters around the country are learning science—not in a lab, but from a movie, not from scientists alone, but from people of all walks of life. Exploring the ways scientists pursue their mysteries in terms young people can understand is the goal of an acclaimed film series underwritten by Phillips Petroleum Company.

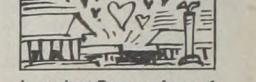

Could a career in science be right for you? A film series, free to schools, may help you tell.

"Search For Solutions" is a unique and entertaining film series about the process of science. The nine-part film series illustrates how scientists and social scientists, artists and athletes solve problems, which is the fun of science.

To date, the films in the "Search" series have been shown 3.3 million times to a classroom audience of 92 million and has aired twice on PBS. The films are distributed by Phillips on a free-loan basis to schools, along with a teacher's study guide.

In one segment, students see how scientists test and retest, verify and interpret the evidence they use to solve problems. In another, they see how scientists are able to predict future trends by searching for laws on which to base their forecasts. All the films may be videotaped free by schools.

In ancient Rome, a form of Valentines day was celebrated on February 15, in honor of the goddess Juno.

The pads on a fly's feet secrete a sticky substance that enable it to cling to almost any surface—even run upside down along a ceiling.

Rabbits are rarely found deep in forests. They prefer places where bushes or clumps of tall grass are available for hiding.
