Saturday Is Bob Wills Day

THREE ARE GONE. Three members of the Texas Playboys band, shown in the photo that was taken here at the first Bob Wills Day celebration, are gone. Bob, himself, was the first to go, passing away in 1975. Then at last year's celebration at the conclusion of the afternoon program as the band was preparing to leave the stage, Smoky Johnson, who played fiddle and banjo, suffered an apparent heart attack and was dead on arrival at Hall County Hospital. He is on the right in the photo playing last year. Jesse Ashlock, left in the photo playing the fiddle, passed away at his home in Hurst.

Valley Tracksters To Attend Meet At Levelland

Two Valley High boys have qualified in track events for the regional meet to be held at Levelland Friday and Saturday and another will play in the tennis meet.

Darrell Dowd will run the 220 yard dash, Larry Curry will compete in the high jump and Ron Eudy won the district singles title last week.

Eudy will be one of the favorites to win a trip to the state meet next week. If he is successful in his try, it will be his third trip to the state meet in Austin, although the two prior trips were as half of a doubles team. Last year and the year before Ron and Scotty Settiff competed as a doubles team and although they made it to the finals at Austin, the championship eluded them.

Settiff graduated from high school last spring and Eudy decided to try his luck as a single, and he has been very successful this season, losing only two matches and both of them to Class AAA players. He recently competed and won the title in the Amarillo Invitational.

Ron won the district championship last week, defeating Kelly Clark of Lakeview in the finals, 6-2, 5-7, 6-3.

The Tribune extends best wishes to the Valley athletes.

Valley's girls competed in the regional track meet last weekend and performed well but none qualified to advance to state, although there are several very fine prospects in the girls squad and they will be back again for another try next season.

Sherice Price, who has been looking real good this season in the 880 yard event, posted a 2:29 in the preliminary event to qualify for the finals. In the final race she was running strong and in third place about ten yards from the finish line when she somehow tripped and fell, and of course that caused her to lose at least a third place or possibly higher.

Coach Dill stated that the mile relay team ran a very strong race but managed only a fifth place finish.

KIM FLETCHER
Kim Fletcher Is New Bob Wills Day Queen

Miss Kim Fletcher, a 16 year old Flomot girl who is a junior in Motley County High School, was crowned Bob Wills Day Queen at the conclusion of the contest held in the Bob Wills Center in Turkey last Saturday night. Miss Fletcher was one of 16 young girls from all over the immediate area. She succeeds Miss Connie Ferguson of Turkey who was the reigning Queen.

First runner-up in the contest was Miss Lee Ann McMurtry of Silverton, a 17 year old senior at Silverton High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McMurtry.

Second runner-up was Miss Denise Johnson of Lockney. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Johnson. She is a senior in Lockney High.

The other girls who were selected in the five finalists were Diane Murphy of Plainview. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Farris. Miss Rondalyn Crump of Turkey was the other member of the top five finalists. She is the daughter of Mrs. Jacqueline Crump. Rondalyn is a junior at Valley High.

Voted as Miss Congeniality was Miss Leslie Pigg of Quitaque, 15, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pigg. She is a sophomore at Valley.

JUNIOR HIGH BOYS AND GIRLS WIN THE DISTRICT TITLES

The Valley Junior High boys and girls track teams, showing a lot of depth in all events, won the district overall titles at the meet held last week at Silverton.

The boys division was a hotly contested affair and literally "went down to the wire" before a winner was determined.

Valley rolled up 136 points; Happy was next with 135; and Silverton tallied 134½ points. Nazareth managed to tally only 47 points.

The Valley girls won handily. The winners took six first places, but in several events also won second and in a couple of events took first, second and third.

The Valley boys took four first place and scored in almost every event.

The Tribune will carry a complete rundown in next week's issue.

Need A Valley School Annual?

The Valley Annual Staff will be selling annuals now through Wednesday of next week. If you want an annual, they are priced $8.00, and you can contact any of the annual staff or Mrs. Keith Green or Mrs. Betty Nan Tiffin.

Judges were Mrs. Tom Hamilton of Plainview, Doug Fraiser of Floydada, and Mrs. Genie Moore of Childress.

Serving as masters of ceremonies were Rick Gibson and Chip Polk from Radio KKYN at Plainview.

Entertainment was furnished by Tamie Joyce of Wichita Falls, who did a tap dance to San Antonio Rose and also performed a jazz dance.

Theme for the evening was "San Antonio Rose" and the stage was decorated with eight white lattice-work trellises covered with fresh greenery and red roses, four trellises on each side of the stage and the contestants entered through an archway which was also covered with fresh greenery and red roses. It all made for a very attractive setting.

Mrs. Celia (Neil) Guest was in charge of the contest arrangements again this year.

Fitting Tributes To A Lovable Musician

The following article was taken from the Houston Post and written by Bob Claypool.

An entertainer can inspire many different positive responses from his audience - respect, admiration, lust, adle-headed fan-worship and others. But only a few inspire love.

Not the kind of "love" that, say, a teen-age groupie might feel for Robert Plant, but the kind of love (there's really no other word for it) that is an unbreakable bond - a deeply-rooted sense of sharing - between performer and audience.

It is the rarest, most unobtainable response of all, and you can count the number of artists who've received it on the fingers of one hand.

Bob Wills was one of those chosen few. Throughout his life he inspired awe and affection in thousands of "his people." Their love for him eventually transcended any musical considerations, and it wasn't based on anyone's public-relations blitz - it was just there, and how it grew still remains a mystery to some of Wills' closest friends.

One thing was for certain - Bob Wills' "people" recognized, something of themselves in him, something they could identify with and in turn, constantly revealed his feelings for them - in his music, and in his behavior both offstage and on.

To say that Wills was "unique" is to understate the case by a mile - he was an American original, a man whose life was every bit as complicated and fascinating as his music.

Now, finally, after his death, Wills is getting some of the serious biographical attention he deserved all along. Two recent books examine, in their own respective ways, the man and the phenomenon.

The first, "My Years With Bob Wills," by Al Stricklin with Jon McConal, (Naylor, 153 pp. ill. $8.95) is a sentimental first-hand account of the early days of Wills and the Texas Playboys band, written by Bob's "original" piano player.

The second, and most important, is the long-awaited full scale biography, "San Antonio Rose: The Life and Music of Bob Wills," (University of Illinois Press, 395p. ill., $12.50) by the foremost Wills scholar, Dr. Charles R. Townsend.

Both books have their virtues - Stricklin, the "old piano-pounder" himself, is bound to inspire plenty of nostalgia and warm feelings with his small simply-written remembrance. For the most part, his recollections seem fairly accurate when stacked up against Townsend's research, even though several of his points are suspect - he claims, for example, that "San Antonio Rose" is the largest selling record of all time after "White Christmas," (which is a new one on me).

And there are other minor irritations, such as spelling Ernest Tubb as "Tubbs" and calling fiddlers Keith Coleman and Johnny Gimble "original Playboys," when both were members of Wills' post-war band. Stricklin's collaborator, Jon McConal, should have caught these errors - unless he figured it was better to preserve Al's original words, mistakes and all.

There are no such weaknesses in Dr. Townsend's book, which is a masterpiece of research as a scholar, Townsend never lets his writing grow dull and musty-like the subject itself, the book is full of life and humor.

Townsend uncovers virtually every facet of Bob Wills' life, from his musical influences (which wou-

6th Annual Bob Wills Day Celebration Gets Underway Saturday

The 6th Annual Bob Wills Day Celebration gets underway Saturday, April 30, 1977 with the Grand Parade beginning at 10:00 a.m. followed at 11:30 with the Bar-B-Que Dinner.

The afternoon will begin with the Texas Fiddlers Contest at 1:30 p.m. followed with the Western Swing Outdoor Concert featuring: Leon McAuliff & the Original Texas Playboys.

The Western Dance will begin at 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. with the Country Impressions and will conclude with Leon McAuliff & The Texas Playboys featured from 9:30 until 1:00 a.m.

All during the day other activities available at the Bob Wills Center will be the Bob Wills Museum; Arts and Crafts Show; Bob Wills Coins; Bob Wills Biography, autographed by the author, Charles R. Townsend; Bob Wills Records-Trade and Swap.

Bob Wills Foundation To Be On Television

The Bob Wills Foundation will be broadcasting on television on Channel 10 on Thursday, April 28, from 12:00 to 12:30 p.m.; Channel 7, April 29, from 6:30 to 7:00 Channel 4, April 29, at noon.

ld later play a big part in the development of Western Swing) ten misunderstood parts of his to the most controversial (and of personal life, such as his flurry of short, doomed marriages in the late '30s, and his lifelong problems with alcohol (the author sets this record straight, for the first time anywhere).

In addition, he makes some interesting points about Wills' contributions, and attempts to define the band-leader's place in American popular music.

The only weak point in Townsend's book is tendency toward uneven writing, which ranges from cold and analytical to gushy and somewhat sentimental. Fortunately, the changes aren't too abrupt, and are perfectly understandable in their contexts.

I had some high expectations for "San Antonio Rose," but the book has fulfilled all of them. Any Bob Wills fan will enjoy both books, but if you only want to buy one, make sure it's the Townsend work.

It's doubtful that anyone will ever write a better book on Bob Wills, and it's equally doubtful that there will be a better, or more important country music book released in 1976. I can't recommend it highly enough.

Jayne Eudy Wins Fifth Place at Bee

In the 29th Regional Spelling Bee held in Amarillo Saturday, April 23, Matthew Reed, seventh grader of Vernon, Wilbarger County, correctly spelled "jaded" after it was missed by his opponent, Stratford eight-grader Lee Riffiee who was the runner-up; with the second runner-up being 11-year-old Monica Valdez of San Jon, New Mexico. Miss Valdez received the stereo system; while the next contestant 12-year-old Harold Trudway of Amarillo received American Heritage Dictionary of the English language; 14-year-old Jayne Eudy of Turkey received a Webster's Collegiate Dictionary; 13-year-old Paul Walton of Shattuck, Oklahoma received a Thesaurus; and 14-year-old Danny Boone of Curry, New Mexico received a World Almanac.

The World Book was given to places 8-11, and places 12-15 received cash.

All 46 contestants received bee trophies, along with 32 county Junior Champions who did not compete in the Regional Bee. Six students were winners of both junior and senior county titles.

Quitaque "Yard of the Month"

Think Beautiful! It has been evident lately that Quitaque residents are indeed "Thinking Beautiful" for yards are beginning to take shape and add beauty to our town.

To help promote the emphasis on beautification "We the Women" will award a "Yard of the Month" sign to be displayed in a yard chosen each month by a team of three judges. The attractive sign was made by Frank Roberson and Teresa Turner. The area to be judged will be a mile on each side of the Quitaque city limits. This includes the area south to the Glenn Ramsey home on Fm1065, west of the railroad track one mile, north from the highway past the Pierce White place and around the James Cathey home and east to the cemetery road.

Only individual yards will be judged and the judging will be based on neatness, most improved, creativeness, and overall appearance of the yard. Size or elaborate landscaping will not be a factor. The award will be presented each month at the meeting of "We the Women" from May through September.

One of the judges remarked "judges are like bank examiners. They can judge at any time." So remember to "Think Beautiful" and make Quitaque a beautiful "Queen City of the Valley".

SEND LAZARUS

That rich man of Luke 16 never thought much about Lazarus, except maybe to wish he'd quit hanging around the front door. Just think of all those germs! He really lowered the class of the place.
 He never saw the value of Lazarus until he realized what Lazarus could do. When the situation changed, relationships cleared. "Oh - Lazarus - he can help me." He pled, "Send Lazarus," the same one who had been ignored and rebuffed for so long.
 A past favorite tune says, "I'm looking over a four-leaf clover that I overlooked before." Lazarus was that rich man's four-leaf clover.
 Maybe, it's our children. What's the most important thing in your life? Without getting too morbid, take yourself (if you are a parent) to your last few moments on earth. What do you want there in the room with you? All your life savings in one dollar bills stacked along one wall? Your boat? The deeds to your farm land and equipment? The T.V.? Not really! And yet, we put these things before our children every day. Don't neglect daily family devotionals of Bible reading, teaching, prayer and Christian fellowships. Let's not be like the rich man and leave our children to the crumbs and the dogs.

 The Bible teaches: "Behold children are the gift of the Lord. How blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them." Psalm 127:3-5

Ambulance Service Has Busy Week

Our City Ambulance Service was busy last week. Early in the week, Monte Stephens was taken to Central Plains Hospital in Plainview where he was treated for burns following an electrical shock.
 Dale Smith was taken to Central Plains Hospital Friday when he was burned in an accident while filling a welder with gasoline. Both patients are reported to be improving well.

We are still bragging on the efficiency of our Emergency Medical Trainees. The Tribune received a letter from Senator Bentsen this week stating that Texas has 200 of the more than 2300 "medically underserved" areas in the United States. Some he listed are much closer than we at Quitaque. He is co-sponsoring legislation that will help alleviate the situation somewhat. He says Medicare can reimburse health clinics for services provided by physician assistants or nurses. It might be possible that we can contact him and get some provisions for what the young men and women in our city are doing to help to alleviate some of the expenses they encounter. It is a thought to each of us to write our senator.

Mrs. Gladys (Granny) Wiley was taken back to Hall County Hospital in Memphis Tuesday night, seriously ill, according to reports.

Mrs. Walter Kelley drove to Amarillo Monday night to spend the night with her daughter, Mrs. Ruby Dean Hale, and to be there with her aunt, Mrs. Bill Guest, who was scheduled for surgery in High Plains Hospital there. Mr. Guest is in Hall County Hospital very ill.

Quitaque Baptist Women Meet

The Baptist Women of Quitaque met at 2:00 p.m. in the church Monday, April 25. After a short business discussion, Mrs. Lillian White brought the Call to Prayer.
 Mrs. S. C. Brown lead the Round Table discussion, entitled "What Everyone Should Know About Transcendental Meditation".
 Mrs. R. J. Harmon brought articles she had brought back from her trip to the Holy Land.
 There were seven ladies present.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Adams, Jr. of 5321 33rd Street of Lubbock, Texas are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Amanda Bernice. The young lady was born at 7:04 a.m. Friday, April 22, 1977. She weighed 7 lbs 9 ozs.

Her mother is the former Rhonda Lou Rogers, who was born in Matador Hospital, and grew up in Quitaque, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rogers, Jr. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James T. Adams, Sr. of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rogers, Jr. of Plainview. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Thetis Rogers and the late John T. Rogers, Sr. of Quitaque; Mr. and Mrs. John Boyles, Plainview, and Mrs. Linnie Griff of Lubbock.
 Mrs. John Rogers telephoned her granddaughter, Rhonda, who was already home from the hospital Monday with her new baby. Rhonda assured her they were doing fine and that the baby didn't just sit around and cry all the time, that she is a good baby and sleeps well.

Rhonda has enjoyed teaching in Junior High School in Ralls the last five years, while commuting from her home in Lubbock. She is a Quitaque graduate, and received her BA degree from Wayland Baptist College in Plainview and her MA degree in Guidance and Counseling from Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Housewarming For Patterson Family

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Patterson and children, Tonya, Tella, Teresa and Tony were honored in their home Sunday April 24 with a housewarming between the hours of 3 until 5 p.m.

Many friends called with gifts and money for the money tree. Mrs. Mayme Blume and Mrs. Aubrey Turner assisted the honorees in greeting the guests.

Refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee were served by Mrs. James Willborn.
 Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. John Adamson, Mrs. Gordon Bain, Mrs. Emmett Baisden, Mrs. Mayme Blume, Mrs. Mable Christian, Mrs. U.F. Coker Sr., Mrs. G. O. Coker, Miss Amy Davis, Mrs. Bert Degan, Mrs. Billie Fuston, Mrs. Vera Fuston, Mrs. R. C. Green, Mrs. Reddell Irby, Mrs. Aubrey Turner, Mrs. Gilbert Wedge, and Mrs. James Willborn.

Guests in the home of Misses Ina and Euna Bradshaw and Mrs. W. E. Morrison were Eulan Bradshaw and son, Tommy of Claude, who visited the ladies Monday of this week.

Mrs. Lawrence Bedwell, and Mrs. Bert Lane, of Plainview brought their mother, Mrs. W. E. Morrison home Thursday of last week after she had spent a few days there visiting.

The Tribune received a renewal subscription from Mrs. J. R. Boatman this week and she sends her regards to her friends here. Mrs. Boatman is a former resident. She lived in Oklahoma for a time, but due to serious illness, she is back in Lubbock. She reports she is feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. Corky Morris of Dimmitt spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Morris. They drove to Silverton Sunday morning to have lunch with her parents.

The Gaston Owens were in Amarillo all day Monday to see the foot doctor and the eye doctor. Gaston got a good report from his recent eye surgery and will go to Floydada for new lenses Friday. Mrs. Cora Gragson kept the Tribune open and got most of the "news" this week. We are grateful to Mrs. Gragson for her help.

Minnie Roberson and Yolanda Roberson spent the weekend visiting Mrs. Ruth Knox and Mr. and Mrs. Debbs Knox in Hereford.

John Butler is home again from Central Plains following back surgery, and is reported to be improving.

Violet Cooper Of Lockney Named Outstanding Citizen

Violet Cooper, 30 year resident of Lockney, was named outstanding citizen of the year at the Lockney Chamber of Commerce banquet Thursday night April 14. Mrs. Cooper is a native of Quitaque, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Purcell of Albuquerque, New Mexico and former residents of Quitaque. Mrs. Cooper grew up in Quitaque, graduating from Quitaque High School. Mrs. Cooper's husband, Glen is a farmer. They have four children, Teddy Bob of Houston, Glenda, a third grade teacher in Lockney, Terry of Colorado, and Timmy, a student in Lockney High School.

She is an active member of the First Baptist Church, where she has taught different age groups most of her adult life. She is active in the church choir and works in Vacation Bible School. She is past Worthy Matron of Eastern Star, a member of Lockney Business and Professional Women's Club.

She was introduced by last year's recipient who stated, "This woman's main achievement through all these activities, is that she has touched the lives of our young people in Lockney in her special way-through her love, devotion and extreme patience."

Mrs. Cooper has operated the Longhorn Inn near the Junior High and High School for the past 12 years. She also operates the swimming pool in the summer months. In her work she is involved with the youth throughout the year. They know and love her for her many acts of kindness. It takes devotion to young people to constantly be part of their lives day in and out. Her love for kids has come through. She is truly an inspiration to many for her Christian love and always that special sense of humor that she has. She is "Living Proof" of a Christian Citizen."

What greater compliment could anyone receive than that? We want to add our congratulations to Violet. We feel she deserves it.

S. T. Bogan, Jr. of Richardson spent the weekend with his father, Sid Bogan. Sid accompanied him home Sunday for a visit there and then to Nacogdoches, and northern Louisiana for a visit with the Barney Bogans and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Baisden visited in Grapevine over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baisden and Dempsey. Their daughter-in-law returned home with them for a week to visit in Turkey.

Lloyd Bentsen
United States Senator
For almost 40 hours recently our nation's capital was under siege by a small band of terrorists.

Hall, the Islamic Center and B'nai B'rith Headquarters.

I am grateful that the hostages were released, but I am outraged that the leader of the murderous band of terrorists responsible for all this was freed immediately without having to post any bond.

Hamaas Abdul Khaalis, the mastermind of this tragic endeavor, was released on his own recognition, at liberty with family and friends, even before his hostages were home, even before the funeral of Maurice Williams, the young reporter shot to death during the incident.

What kind of precedent does this set for those who would contemplate future acts of violence? What kind of example does the release of Khaalis set for the rest of the world?

I find no fault when authorities make promises to gun-wielding outlaws in an effort to free innocent victims. But a promise made at the point of a gun has no moral force whatsoever. You cannot negotiate in good faith at gunpoint.

The growing incidence of crimes of terrorism in this country is adomitable. The destruction of innocent lives in the pursuit of political objectives is reprehensible and alien to the traditions of a free and civilized society. There is no excuse, no justification, no reasoning that suffices to make these acts anything else.

It ill becomes a great nation like our own to lecture to others about evils of terrorism and acceding to terrorist demands, if we ourselves do not practice what we preach.

We cannot continue to sanction the loss of innocent lives and the wanton destruction of property because of the mental aberrations of a limited few who choose violence as an outlet for frustration.

Terrorism cannot and must not be accepted as a viable alternative to the logical pursuit of individual goals. Human lives cannot and must not become the medium of exchange for terrorists in search of media coverage.

Our government must make it perfectly clear that we will not tolerate violence instead of votes, bullets instead of ballots. Murder is murder; violence is violence; and no political cause or higher belief can justify either.

In order to better define terrorist acts of violence and to clarify the penalties that such acts will evoke, I have introduced two anti-terrorism bills. One of them would suspend all forms of American assistance to countries that harbor terrorists. The other would make terrorism in this country a federal crime with stiff mandatory prison sentences.

I hope that the Senate will act soon on the legislation that I have proposed, and send a message to those who would entertain thoughts of terrorist acts, that we will impose the severest penalties on those who choose terrorism to further their personal and political aims.

Mrs. Jack Fields and daughter Nancy and Mrs. Henry Fields were guests over the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eudy.

Davis Fined In Briscoe County

A. T. Davis, 68, of Childress was stopped about 2:30 a.m. Sunday, April 17, at a road block near Quitaque where law enforcement officers from the surrounding area were attempting to locate a suspect in an incident where shots were fired at Deputy Sheriff Ronnie Mull.

J. W. Lyon, Jr., Briscoe County Attorney, said Davis was charged with illegal transportation of liquor.

"He had a bunch of whiskey and vodka," Lyon said.

"We started to confiscate his (Davis') Cadillac and found he owned a bunch on it."

Davis pleaded guilty to the charge before Briscoe County Judge M. G. Moreland who imposed a fine of $500 and 30 days in jail. Lyon said Davis then hired Richard Bird, Childress attorney, and posted a $1,000 appeals bond.

"I put him (Davis) on the witness stand and he voluntarily said his latest conviction (of this type) was in November 1976 in Childress County," Lyon explained. Davis also told the court that he had only two such convictions—both in Childress County.

Records in Childress show that Davis pleaded guilty to the charge of transportation of alcohol for sale in a dry area during the first week of March 1977, stemming from the 1976 incident. County Judge Harper Knight fined him $150, plus court costs and no jail time.

Davis was also one of three persons charged in a raid there in early March. The charge alleged possession of alcohol for sale in a dry area.

Announcement Of Training Activities

Hall County producers will have an opportunity to complete a training program leading to certification as private applicators at two different programs scheduled for May 3, Tuesday, at 7:00 p.m. at in Memphis, Texas; and May 5, Thursday, at 7:00 p.m. at the Bob Wills Community Center in Turkey, Texas according to Buddy C. Logsdon, Hall County Extension Agent.

The Private Applicator Certification Training Program, one of the optional means of qualifying for certification as a private applicator of restricted-use pesticides, includes a discussion of laws, labels and labeling, pesticide safety, mixing and calibration and pests and pest damage identification. The program prepared by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service includes a review of certain questions relating to the information presented. The program will require approximately 3 hours. Those attending and seeking certification as private applicators will have an opportunity to complete a Request for Private Applicator Certification which will be forwarded to the Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) for issuance of certification.

As an alternative to participation in a training program, an individual may qualify for certification as a private applicator by submitting a completed questionnaire to the Texas Department of Agriculture following a review of self-study materials. The self-study materials may be obtained at the County Extension Office.

Legislation To Modify Peanut Program

Texas Farmers Union President Jay Naman of Waco has endorsed and urged support for legislation which was introduced on April 19 by Oklahoma Senator Henry Bellmon that would modify the peanut program. The bill, S.1290 would, according to Naman, "reduce the cost to government of the peanut program and preserve the basic value of the program to producers."

Naman said that a 10% acreage cut in 1978 with provision for additional cuts as needed in 1979, 1980, and 1981 is consistent with the recommendations of the National Farmers Union Peanut Producers Council. These reductions would, according to Naman, "bring the level of production in line with domestic, edible and related uses of peanuts."

Naman has urged that 75% of parity be the minimum price support, and that level be substituted for the 70% of parity price support included in the bill.

"It is vital to Texas peanut producers that the price support loan continued to be tied to a formula to reflect a change in the index of prices paid by farmers for production items, interest, taxes, wages, and so forth. Senator Bellmon's bill, in providing this protection, will continue to protect the parity price concept, which has historically and traditionally prevailed in the administration of the peanut price support program."

In a mailgram to the members of the Senate Agriculture Committee Naman urged support for S. 1290, saying that "the simple amendments in this bill are much preferred over the unwise and drastic revisions in the present law proposed by the administration in its recent peanut program recom-

This football star was the one and only Bob Lilly. He phoned Ronnie Eudy to come down to the cafe to have coffee with him and his friend.

Steve Farley of Turkey is enrolled in a mechanic and machinist course at Clarendon Junior College.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jennings and baby of Tulsa visited with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Lane and Amy of Plainview spent Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lane in Turkey.

Naman said that he was joining National Farmers Union Vice President George Stone of Oklahoma in endorsing the Bellmon bill, which "represents the viewpoint of the overwhelming majority of southwest peanut producers."
