Local Voters Say 'No' To Proposed New Constitution

Voters in Turkey and Quitaque pretty well followed the statewide trend Tuesday when they voted on the proposed state constitution.

In Turkey 126 voters cast their opinions on the issue. On the first revision 19 voted for and 119 said "no." There were no more than two or three votes different on the remaining proposals.

In Quitaque there were 120 votes cast with 24 saying they favored the new proposals, and 93 indicated that they were not in favor of a new constitution.

Halloween Carnival Held Saturday Night

The annual Halloween Carnival sponsored by the Bob Wills Foundation was held Saturday night in Turkey at the Bob Wills Community Center with a large crowd in attendance.

Spooky booths and games with amusement for the entire family was enjoyed by all, from the cake walk, to Bingo, and etc.

This is an annual fund raising activity for the Bob Wills Foundation where the prizes have been donated by the local business people and others of the community to make this affair the huge success it has been each year.

Pigg Brothers Follow In Father's Footsteps

(The Tribune planned to get a picture of the PIGG TWINS last week and their first bale of cotton, but due to circumstances, was unable to do this. We think the following story is of interest and want to publish it anyway.)

JACK PIGG HITS JACKPOT WITH COTTON AND NEW ARRIVALS

Jack Pigg, who farms in the northeast part of Floyd County, hit the "Jackpot" so to speak this past week. First, he brought in Floyd County's first 1958 bale of cotton and won the bonus prize of $100,000 on Monday of the following week his wife gave birth to twin sons in the Lockney General Hospital.

The proud parents named their sons, Clayton Dean, who weighed five pounds and twelve ounces, and Clinton Jean, who weighed six pounds and five ounces. The mother and new babies are reported to be doing nicely. The Pigg family have three other children, two girls and a boy. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pigg of Quitaque.

At the time of present story, the Piggs have another girl and another boy. Seventeen years later, the twins brought in the first bale of cotton. Quite a coincidence, right?

Thanks, Somebody

Every now and then the Owensses arrive home and find goodies of one kind or another, like vegetables for instance, but sometimes we never know who left them. The other night we arrived home to find a big bag of new peanuts. Now we dearly love goobers and, as well as all the other good things we have found on our door step, and we are grateful to the Good Samaritan or Samaritans who left them. Wish you would let us know who you are so that we might say "thanks" in person!

SUNDAY IS DEDICATION DAY FOR QUITAQUE BAPTISTS

Years of dreaming plus a couple of years of actual work and planning will be culminated Sunday when the congregation of the First Baptist Church of Quitaque moves into its beautiful new building for the first worship service, "dinner on the grounds" and then a dedication program to begin at 2:00 o'clock.

The membership of the First Baptist Church, plus the local townspeople, are proud of the new facility, which consists of a brand new auditorium plus a complete renovation of what was formerly the Quitaque Elementary School building into an educational building for the church.

Quitaque Lions Launch Drive For Donations

The Quitaque Lions Club has launched a campaign for donations to help Charles Wallace and his family during the time of Charles' recuperation. Charles accidentally injected Jaquer into his finger while working on the Community Center. Since he was donating his time to work on the Center, the Lions Club members felt an added responsibility to help Charles and his family during this time.

SERITHA J. HELMS

Seritha Helms has been notified by Paul C. Krouse, publisher of Who's Who Among American High School Students, of the approval of her biography for inclusion in the 1974-75 edition of the ninth annual publication.

Mr. Krouse wrote, "Your leadership qualities, execution of responsibility and show of enthusiasm are promises of a rewarding future and a fine contribution to every organization you become involved with. Since fewer than 4% of all upperclassmen from our nation's 24,000 public, private and parochial high schools are featured in Who's Who each year, you are to be heartily commended."

"Please accept my most sincere personal congratulations on your fine performance and best wishes for continued success in all your future endeavors."
