Farmers Union Leader Asks USDA To Reconsider Drought

Texas Farmers Union President Mike Moeller has urged Secretary of Agriculture John Block to reconsider his decision for emergency disaster aid to 27 drought stricken West Texas counties.

"We are watching this area slowly but surely turning into a new Dust Bowl. If Secretary Block will not make a trip to the area, I suggest he send some of his own Illinois hogs down to pasture here. Maybe after grazing his hogs on prickly pear for a few weeks, he would grasp the seriousness of the situation," Moeller said.

"The western counties in Texas average only about 12 inches of rainfall in normal years. This year, some counties have not yet received one inch of precipitation. The Dust Bowl has returned to West Texas. The area resembles the Chihuahu Desert more than the grass and range lands native to the area," Moeller stated.

The TFU President pointed out that agricultural production in the area totals $500 million annually. As a result of the 18 month drought, farmers and ranchers are cutting their herds and losing their crops.

Moeller said the USDA should activate the Emergency Feed Grain Program to assist farmers and ranchers in cutting costs to feed the remainder of their herds. Moeller also said that emergency loans should be made available to farmers who have held land out of production.

"It's already too late to save most of the crops this year, but we can still save some of the family farmers and ranchers from going out of business entirely by granting the emergency aid," Moeller said.

"These programs exist for emergencies such as this," Moeller added. "Secretary Block's failure to implement them for West Texas in this crisis amounts to dereliction of duty."

Carol King Gains High Sales Goal

James and Martha Naul, owners/brokers of Century 21 Town South Realtors, Inc. have announced that Carol King, a consistent Century 21 Club winner each month, has also obtained membership in the Century 21 "Million Dollar" Club. Year to date, Carol has sold approximately 1.6 million dollars of real estate in Lubbock and has held the title of "top producer" for the past seven months. She is well on her way to securing membership in the Century 21 National Multi-Million dollar club with formal recognition being given in December of this year.

Mrs. King has been in the real estate business for one year. Her husband, Mike, is a Purchasing Branch Manager for Texas Instruments. The Kings have one child, Kimberly, age five.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Purcell of Quitaque and is the daughter-in-law of Mrs. Ora Lee King of Turkey.

Recent visitor in the home of Mrs. Ora Lee King of Turkey was her granddaughter, Kimberly King of Lubbock. Kimberly's parents, Mike and Carol King, were vacationing in Las Vegas for a few days.

This was Kimberly's second extended visit to Mrs. King's this year. Her first visit was in February when her parents vacationed in Hawaii.

Kimberly's dad is a Purchasing Branch Manager for Texas Instruments. His job requires frequent trips to the Orient. In February his business required a month-long trip to Tokyo, Japan, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Korea. Kimberly's mom flew to Hawaii to meet her husband and the Kings enjoyed a week's vacation before returning to Turkey and their home in Lubbock.

Mrs. Stark To Serve As Chairman Of Bike-A-Thon

The Southwest Regional Office of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital has announced that Mrs. O. R. Stark has agreed to the chairmanship of the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Bike-A-Thon to be held in Quitaque.

SJCRH, founded by entertainer Danny Thomas, is the world's leading institute for the study of childhood cancer and severe maladies striking the young. It is the first research center dedicated exclusively to the conquest of catastrophic diseases of children, such as cancer and other life-threatening diseases.

When SJCRH accepted its first patient in 1962, the survival rate of children with acute Lymphocytic Leukemia and Hodgkins Disease was less than five percent. Today the disease free survival figure for these diseases are fifty percent and eighty percent respectively. Treatment procedures developed at SJCRH have been adopted worldwide, giving hope to suffering children and worried families everywhere.

Thanks to research at SJCRH, children now have a much better chance to be cured and live a normal life. Thomas clearly stated the purpose of SJCRH: to wipe catastrophic diseases of children from the face of the earth.

The Bike-A-Thon in Quitaque is scheduled for September 10, 1983, with a rain date of September 17, 1983. Details of the Bike-A-Thon will be announced by Mrs. Stark.

USDA ANNOUNCES 1984 WHEAT PROGRAM

Deputy Secretary of Agriculture Richard Lyng has announced provisions of the 1984 wheat program and set the sign-up period from January 16 though February 24.

Lyng said because Congress took no legislative action on a proposed freeze in the wheat target price before its summer adjournment, he is now putting into effect provisional measures previously announced on July 29. The U. S. Department of Agriculture is required by law to announce the wheat program for the following year no later than August 15.

The 1984 wheat program includes:

- A $4.45 per bushel target price. -A $3.30 per bushel national average loan rate. -An acreage reduction requirement of 30 percent. -No advance deficiency payments.

-To be eligible for program benefits, producers must limit 1984 wheat planted acreage to no more than 70 percent of the farm's wheat base and devote to conservation use an acreage of eligible cropland equal to 42.86 percent of the 1984 planted and payment-in-kind (PIK) acreage.

-The 1984 acreage base will be the average of the acreage planted and considered planted to wheat in 1982 and 1983.

-Farmers participating in the acreage reduction program may divert an additional 10 to 20 percent of their wheat base and receive payment-in-kind equal to 75 percent of the established yield times the acres diverted.

-PIK program participants will not receive wheat from Commodity Credit Corporation stocks. Producers signing up in the PIK program will agree first to use their outstanding reserve or regular CCC price support loans. Producers with no outstanding loans agree to harvest for PIK. Those producers with no outstanding loans and who are unable to harvest for PIK will not receive a PIK payment.

-Land designated for conservation use must have been devoted to row crops or small grains in two of the last three years except for a summer fallow farm. Under summer fallow rules the land must be acreage that would have been planted to small grains or row crops in 1984 in the absence of the 1984 wheat program.

-Haying will not be permitted on the conservation use acreage. However, the acreage may be grazed except during the six principal growing months.

-Offsetting and cross compliance will not apply to the 1984 program.

-There will be no immediate entry into the farmer owned reserve for the 1984 crop of wheat. Further, USDA intends to review the size of the reserve before regular price support loans for the 1984 crop reach maturity. A ceiling may be placed on the size of the wheat reserve at that time which will effectively preclude entry of the 1984 crop into the reserve.

-Contracts signed by program participants for either the acreage reduction or PIK program will be considered as binding and will provide for liquidated damages for failure to comply with program requirements.

J. J. McCay and Ethylene Boyles were married August 29, 1933 in Silverton by Judge O. R. Tipps. They were the last couple Judge Tipps married and it was his last day in office in Silverton.

The McCays lived in Turkey the first seven years of their married life, then moved to Oregon and lived there twenty years. They moved back to Texas in 1960.

The nieces of the couple are Mrs. Kathy Austin of Arizona, Mrs. Bobbi Mayfield, Las Vegas, Nevada, Mrs. Jerry W. Smith, Silverton, Miss Brenda Mayfield, Houston, Sue Ferguson, Lubbock, Mrs. Steve Jackson, Abernathy, and Miss Jana Boyles, Quitaque.

On Thursday, July 14, Mrs. Jack McFall of Silverton took her mother-in-law, Delila (Ma) McFall, to Amarillo where she emplaned for Seattle, Washington to visit her son, Bud McFall, and his family. While there, she helped them move into a beautiful new home in a good neighborhood, Delila reports. After a couple of weeks there, Bud and family took his mother to San Marten, California to visit her daughter, Alpha McFall. She attended the Garlic Festival and flea markets while there, among other items of interest. They were joined by a grandson, Gary McFall of Pampa, and he was given a grand tour. They visited the Bing Crosby Golf Course which was of interest to him.

Mrs. McFall flew back to Amarillo Friday and Mrs. Ann Jones and Mrs. Myra Brown met her and brought her home. Delila reports she left Denver, Colorado, which was very cool, nearly cold, when she emplaned, and as the plane landed in Amarillo, the report was 97 degrees. She says she started to turn around and go back.

Haney-Morris Vows Exchanged In Double-Ring Ceremony

Double-ring wedding vows were exchanged by Patricia Haney and Tommy Morris Saturday, July 16, at 6:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist in Matador.

Billy Whitaker, minister of the Church of Christ, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haney of Afton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Morris of Flomot.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of yellow silk roses and baby's breath tied with white lace and yellow ribbon. She presented both her mother and mother-in-law with a white rose each during the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a magnificent gown styled in white silk organza lavishly trimmed with Chantilly lace. The Queen Anne neckline featured a stand-up ruffle of soft organza. The bodice was styled with an empire waistline and appliques of the Chantilly lace, embroidered with seed pearls, circled the waistline. The back of the bodice featured a soft circled yoke and this was outlined with lace. The full sleeves were of Chantilly lace falling to fitted cuffs with a narrow ruffle of organza. The cuffs were embroidered with seed pearls.

The full skirt featured two rows of Chantilly lace and ruffled organza which swept into a full chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a cap covered with Chantilly lace to match her veil, and it was covered with seed pearls, designed in clusters and a silk flower with pearl loops was at one side of the cap. The veil had two tiers, each outlined with lace to match her dress.

The bride's dress was something new. She wore a blue garter, and something borrowed was a string of pearls from Anna Pasquet, cousin of the bride. For something old, she wore her grandmother's wedding band and placed a penny in her shoe.

Nuptial vows were exchanged before an altar setting featuring a white 15-branched candelabra decorated with yellow gladioli, roses, carnations, white daisies and baby's breath, flanked on each side by two seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers accented with greenery.

MR. AND MRS. TOMMY MORRIS

At the close of the ceremony, the bride and groom lighted a white unity candle which was surrounded with greenery and baby's breath, and tied with a yellow and white satin bow with streamers tied in love knots. The pews were decorated with alternating yellow and white satin bows. The bows marking the pews for the parents were accented with greenery, yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Candlelighters were Zane Knipe of Weatherford, Texas, and DeAnn Phillips of Matador.

Mrs. Pam Morris of Afton was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Melissa Haney, sister of the bride, and Carlene Luckett of Matador.

Flower girls were Dodie Morris of Afton and Krysha Lane of Plainview, nieces of the groom.

Ring bearer was Jason Haney, nephew of the bride.

Serving as best man was Billy

Morris of Afton. Groomsmen were Ronald Haney, brother of the bride, and Tim Lane, brother-in-law of the groom. They wore silver tuxedos with yellow silk rose boutonnieres.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with a yellow silk rose boutonniere.

Mrs. Dorothy Johnson of Quitaque, pianist, presented traditional wedding music, accompanying DeAnn Parker of Afton as she sang, "Surround Me With Love" and "The Rose." June Johnson of Quitaque sang "You Light Up My Life." Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Johnson sang "Up Where We Belong."

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church immediately following the ceremony. A Summertime Tragedy

Summer means swimming and scuba-diving. Too often, it also involves accidental drownings.

According to the American Lung Association of Texas, drowning is the second most common cause of accidental deaths among children under 15. Last year, 121 children in Texas were victims of drowning. Only motor vehicle accidents took a higher toll with 314. The leading causes of drowning in this age group include infants unattended in bathtubs as well as children who fall into ponds, plunge through the ice, swim beyond their depth or endurance, and misuse of scuba or snorkel equipment.

While submerged in water, a natural protective response of the body takes over to keep the person alive longer. During submersion there is no breathing and therefore no oxygen entering the lungs or the blood. However, a major redistribution of blood may occur, flowing to the brain and heart, organs that are very sensitive to a lack of oxygen. Blood may flow away from the skin, muscles and stomach, where it is not so critical for instant survival.

For complicated chemical reasons, oxygen concentrations are more sharply reduced as a result of submersion in sea water than in fresh water.

Removing fluid and debris and getting oxygen into the lungs of the victim is essential; usually 100 percent oxygen is administered as soon as possible. If the victim survives the first 24 hours after the accident, chances are good that he or she will recover.

The best course is always prevention, says the Lung Association. And they caution everyone—at all ages—to be aware of water safety, especially this summer. To find out how to protect your lungs for all seasons, contact the American Lung Association of Texas, 7701 North Lamar, Suite 104, Austin, Texas 78752, or call 1-800-252-LUNG. It's a matter of life and breath.

Bonnie and Steven Davidson of Amarillo spent last week visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Estelle Davidson, and other relatives in Quitaque.

Two Classes To Be Honored At Homecoming

Homecoming 1983 at West Texas State University will honor members of two graduating classes and members of the classes are being sought by the WTSU Alumni Association.

Members of the Class of 1933 and 1953 will celebrate 30 and 50 years during Homecoming on Saturday, October 8.

Addresses of several members of the graduating class of 1953 have not been located, said Dwaine Mires, director of the WTSU Alumni Association. Persons with addresses for class members may contact the WTSU Alumni Association or Chester Dowell of Sunray. Dowell is a member of the Alumni Association Board of Directors and the Class of 1953.

Members of the Class of 1953 will meet at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 8, at the WTSU Activities Center, following the annual meeting of the Alumni Association.

Other Homecoming activities will be a carnival, Pigskin Review performance, bonfire, parade, barbecue and 6:00 p.m. football game featuring the WTSU Buffaloes and Illinois State University Redbirds. The football game will be the first meeting of the universities and the first 6:00 p.m. game for Homecoming.

Theme of Homecoming for 1983 is "You're a Credit—WTSU."

At That Price, There's No Room To Complain

(This article, from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, was sent to Arlowene Williams by her brother, O. H. Majors of Lubbock)

Certainly there are more elegant hotels than the two-story red brick hotel in Turkey, Texas. And, certainly there are more expensive hotels. But, probably there are no cleaner hotels nor are there more economical hotels.

"We get $12 for a single and $20 for a double," said Mrs. Marjorie Bain. "Of course, we don't have any private telephones or television, but we do have private bathrooms."

And at that price, a person probably will hear a little history of the territory from Mrs. Bain's husband, Gordon. They inherited the hotel from her parents who acquired the hotel in 1936 when the first railroad came through the city.

"Full? Well, we stay fairly so. Of course, this is the only hotel within 100 miles of here. There are none in Clarendon, Tulia, Silverton or Matador. Now I am talking about hotels and not motels," Bain said.

He and his wife were sitting inside their room, which is on the first floor. There are watercolor and oil paintings of covered wagons and indians hanging on the wall. There is a smell of age in the room that has lots of crystal and porcelain figures on shelves.

Bain talked about Turkey, which many people have never heard of. It's near Memphis, Texas, off Highway 287 that goes to Amarillo.

"At one time this town had 1,500 people. There were seven doctors, three barbershops and four grocery stores," Bain said. "And it was only 30 miles from what was the largest cattle shipping center in the United States. That's Estelline and it is practically a ghost town now."

That was a few years ago. And, as a person turns back some of the pages, he comes to those years when Bob Wills, the man who led the Texas Playboys and himself to the top of the musical charts for many years, lived in Turkey. There's a monument for Wills on Main Street. And, every year they have a Bob Wills Day. Bain said it was the town's salvation.

"When I came here 30 years ago, this was just a town of old people sitting around waiting on dying," he said. "Then we got the Bob Wills Day going and bought the old school buildings and put in the museum, and well, it has turned this town around. And, did you know that we have made improvements in the town and on our park and we have done it all, including paying for the memorial, all on our own. No government money or grants," Bain said.

He's a solidly built man. He was wearing a red vest and glasses. He has a raspy voice. He said Wills Day also helps the Bains.

"Yes, we hang out the 'no vacancy' sign then," he said. "We are booked months in advance."

The Bains talked about themselves. He's from Clarendon. He worked for the Federal Aviation Administration in Fort Worth for 20 years. She taught school. Then she began helping her parents with the hotel. Her voice sounds refined like the tuning of fine crystal.

Bain tells some early history of the area. He mentioned a place about 20 miles west called Los Lingos. The Comancheros traded there. They would separate white women captives from their children and you could hear them crying late into the night. And, some people say you can still hear their spirits crying at night today, he said.

"I can remember when this country was open, you could ride from here to Memphis, which is 35 miles away, and you did not have to get out and open a gate," he said.

He told about the last buffalo hunt. Col. Goodnight, the pioneer cattleman, staged it. He had one buffalo and decided to let an indian shoot it.

At first, the indian was going to shoot the buffalo from an airplane. But, the buffalo ran the wrong way.

"So they stopped the plane and the indian got on a horse, chased the buffalo down and shot him, and these indian women came out and butchered it just like they used to. My dad took me to see. That's why I know so much about it," Bain said.

Mrs. Bain added an interesting note about their hotel experience.

"Do you know, that we have never had anybody not pay," she said. "Sometimes we have to go to the doctor in another town and spend the night there. We write out a note which tells which rooms are available and the price. The people leave the money."

She laughed. "One time, some people went downtown to leave their money with the hardware store," she said.

Well, maybe that says something about human nature: It is hard to be dishonest when you get 50 cents worth of something for a dime.

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Patterson and small grandson, Eric Elder, visited in Lubbock Sunday afternoon with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Otha Castle, Elmo Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Morgan, Rachel and Jim.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Degan over the weekend were his cousin, Opal Moore of Loveland, Colorado, and their granddaughter, Lisa Prather of Amarillo, who made a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Justice and children of Mustang, Oklahoma and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dudley and children of Arlington met at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon McKay and spent the night that night last week. Both couples were returning from a trip to Colorado.

Lisa and Eric Dudley remained for a longer visit with their grandparents, the McKays and Mrs. Euel Dudley. Their parents came for them over the weekend and took them and their cousins, Coy and Holly McKay, home with them for a visit. The McKay children's father, Trent McKay, plans to go to Arlington this weekend to bring them home.

Mrs. James McBee and son, Christopher of Kress, Laura Cobb of Amarillo spent Monday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Cobb in Quitaque.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brunson of Edmonson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kimbell, in Quitaque over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Woods and grandson, Trevor, drove to Plainview and met their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Woods, and daughter, Ashley, of Lubbock. Trevor returned home with his parents and sister after having spent the week visiting his grandparents.

Mrs. Lola East of Dalton, Georgia visited her sister, Mrs. Della Tant, in Quitaque from Saturday, August 6, to the following Wednesday. She was accompanied to Quitaque on the bus trip by her daughter, Linda Hayes of Columbus, Georgia. They also visited Mrs. Mildred Hulsey, a niece and cousin of the ladies.

Mrs. Hulsey said this was the first time Mrs. East had been more than 500 miles from her home. She was disappointed that she saw nothing but the highway on the bus trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cannon of Blanchard, Oklahoma spent from Tuesday until Thursday visiting her sister, Mrs. Velma Jones, in Quitaque.

Mrs. Jones took her visitors to see Lake Mackenzie, to Palo Duro Park, and to Caprock Canyons State Park. They enjoyed the trip immensely, Mrs. Jones reports.

They stopped in Happy enroute home and had lunch.

Lottie Owens had lunch Sunday in Silverton with her son and family, the Dwain Hendersons. Quite a treat! Zane Henderson, a grandson, came home from Sunday School with a fever and his mother had to take him to emergency in Tulia later in the day. He runs high fever. He hadn't even complained to his parents previously, but it was determined he had an infected throat.

Mrs. Henderson had surgery on her foot Thursday to remove a hair from the ball of her foot. She is a beauty operator and cuts hair, and this is not the first time a hair has had to be removed from her foot. It is usually done with a tweezer and magnifying glass, but this time the Hendersons had probed to get it and it became infected. She has a sore foot!

Amarillo Monday. Rachel and Paul had been staying with their grandparents while their mother, Mrs. John Couchman, had surgery and was recuperating. Mrs. Turner remained in Amarillo to help her daughter and Mr. Turner returned to Turkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Squint House were informed that their furniture and other belongings at their cabin on the Llano River had been stolen. They made a trip down there and were able to recover everything. They were glad to get their property back but were very much concerned about the very young teenager who was involved.

Mrs. Red (Christene) Williams is in a Dallas hospital receiving treatment. Her husband is at her bedside.

New Laws Pertaining To Motor Vehicle Registration, Fees

H.B. 306 by Criss—This bill creates and provides funding for a motorcycle operator training course. The motorcycle registration fee will now be $6.05 (including 30¢ reflectorization fee) with 75¢ of the fee being deposited by the Department for use by DPS for this training course. The effective date of the Act is September 1, 1983.

H.B. 455 by Barrientos—This legislation provides a 5-day grace period for the continued operation of a motor vehicle in Texas after the expiration of the vehicle's registration. The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1983.

H.B. 470 by Blanton—Amends the current antique vehicle statute by reducing the vehicle age criteria from 35 years to 25 years for eligibility to register under the statute. Allows the display of an old set of Texas license plates issued in the same year as the year model of the antique vehicle subject to approval by the Department. A special validation sticker will be issued for display on these old license plates. The replacement fee for the antique registration will now be $5.30 instead of the prorated antique registration fee. The effective date of the Act is September 1, 1983.

H.B. 825 by Hackney—This bill provides for the registration of mopeds (motor-assisted bicycles are reclassified as mopeds) which have been certified by the DPS. A distinctive license plate with the word "Moped" appearing thereon will be issued for mopeds. In addition, this bill provides for the issuance of certificates of title for mopeds. Manufacturers' Statements of Origin will be required on all new mopeds sold in Texas on and after September 1, 1983. With respect to used mopeds, an individual may not register, sell, trade, or otherwise transfer a moped within this State unless a certificate of title is applied for and issued in the name of the owner as of September 1, 1983. A dealer may transfer a used moped in stock as of September 1, 1983, on the Department's prescribed Affidavit of Ownership for a Moped, and a Dealer's Reassignment of Title, Form 41.

H.B. 872 by Moreno of Hidalgo—This legislation provides that an application for Texas registration and title covering a motor vehicle which has been imported into the United States by someone other than a distributor or dealer for the manufacturer must be supported by a form issued by the United States Customs Service stating that the vehicle was declared to a customs officer in accordance with the Tariff Act of 1930. The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1983.

H.B. 897 by Criss—This bill exempts manufactured housing from the Registration Law. No registration of any type, including One Trip Permits, Intransit License Plates, or Dealer License Plates/Cardboard Tags, is required for the movement of manufactured housing on the highways. This bill also increases the oversize permit fee from $5.00 to $10.00. The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1983.

H.B. 965 by Jackson—This bill allows the counties the option of collecting $5.00 in addition to the regular registration fee for each vehicle registered in the county. The county commissioners court must issue an order and notify the Department by September 1, 1984, if this fee will be collected. Such collections may begin on January 1, 1985. The counties will retain 97% of the optional fee with the remaining 3% being remitted to the Department. Additionally, this legislation specifies that joint registration and title transactions may be filed in the owner's county of residence, the county where the sale occurs, or the county in which the lienholder is located. The effective date of this Act is August 29, 1983.

H.B. 1421 by Jones—This legislation will allow 34-day deferred remittance of registration and title fees by the counties if such fees are placed in interest bearing accounts or certificates in the County Depository (current law states that these fees must be placed in daily interest savings accounts). The effective date of this Act is August 29, 1983.

H.B. 1601 by Hall of Tarrant—This bill eliminates the 65-foot limitation for truck tractor, trailer and semitrailer combinations. In lieu of the combination length, this bill establishes maximum lengths for trailers operated in such combinations as follows:

1. Semitrailer—57 feet
 2. Two trailers—28½ feet each
- No more than three vehicles may be operated in combination. There is still a 65-foot limitation on vehicles other than truck tractor combinations. The effective date of this Act was immediately upon passage. (June 19, 1983)

H.B. 1602 by Hall of Tarrant—This legislation increased the maximum width requirements for vehicles from 96 inches to 102 inches for operation on designated Texas highways. The effective date of this Act was immediately upon passage. (June 19, 1983)

H.B. 1778 by Luna—This legislation amends the current dealer license law by requiring that every dealer other than franchised dealers licensed by the Texas Motor Vehicle Commission shall be required to maintain a $25,000 bond filed with the Department. The purpose of the bond is to protect dealers from invalid bank drafts from other dealers and retail purchasers for failure of a dealer to furnish title. A levy against the bond will require an order from a court of competent jurisdiction. In addition, new entry dealer fees will increase from $100.00 to $250.00 making dealer license fees (including tax): (1) new entry $270.30; (2) renewal $120.30; and (3) supplemental $30.30. The effective date of this Act is January 1, 1984.

H.B. 2157 by Turner—This legislation amends current law by eliminating the necessity for an applicant for Soil Conservation License Plates to obtain certification from the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee and allows such applicant to certify his own application. The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1983.

H.B. 2183 by Barrientos—This legislation amends the Certificate of Title Act by requiring that odometer readings for motor vehicles be placed on the face of the certificate of title as well as on all applications for title and assignments of title, including assignments between dealers. The effective date of this Act is January 1, 1984.

S.B. 139 by Blake—This bill provides for the issuance of "Texas Guard" License Plates by the Department directly to an applicant. The plates may be issued for passenger cars and light trucks owned by active members of the Texas Army National Guard, Texas Air National Guard, and Texas State Guard. The fee for the license plates is the regular registration fee for the vehicle with the entire amount being deposited in the State Highway Fund. All applications accompanied by the appropriate fee should be submitted to the Department. The effective date of this Act was immediately upon passage. (April 26, 1983)

S.B. 222 by Caperton—This Act increases the 72-Hour Permit fee from $10.00 to $25.00 and provides for the issuance of a 144-Hour Permit for a fee of $50.00. The effective date of this Act is August 29, 1983.

S.B. 261 by Sharp—This bill amends Section 41 of the Certificate of Title Act by specifying that a security interest in a motor vehicle held as inventory by a person who is in the business of selling motor vehicles may be perfected only by complying with Chapter 9 of the Business and Commerce Code: The effective date of the Act is August 29, 1983.

S.B. 284 by Santiesteban—This bill provides for a new permanent identification card for disabled persons to be displayed in the windshield of a vehicle transporting such disabled person. A disabled person now has the privilege of obtaining the permanent identification card, a disabled person license plate validation sticker or both. The effective date of this Act is August 29, 1983.

S.B. 288 by Leedom—This bill changes various fees prescribed under the motor vehicle title and registration laws. These changes are as follows:

1. Eliminates $10.00 Parade License Plate registration fee. These plates will now be issued free of charge.
2. Duplicate license receipt fee increased from $1.00 to $2.00.
3. Certified Copy Original or Duplicate Original title fee increased from 25¢ to $2.00.
4. Assigned number fee increased from $1.00 to $2.00.
5. Title application fee increased from $3.00 to $10.00.
6. Transfer registration receipt increased from 50¢ to $2.50.
7. Delinquent transfer penalty increased from $5.00 to $10.00.

The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1983.

S.B. 547 by Whitmire—This bill provides that a County Tax Assessor-Collector or an employee of the County Tax Assessor-Collector may administer oaths and take acknowledgments relating to any document required or authorized to be filed with the county tax office, including assignments of title. The effective date of this Act is August 29, 1983.

S.B. 802 by Brown—This bill requires the certificate of title or certificate of origin for a vehicle rendered a total loss due to flood damage to be surrendered to the Department for cancellation. It further requires the Department to place an "appropriate designation" on any title subsequently issued for a vehicle to which the original evidence of ownership has been surrendered to the Department for cancellation due to flood damage or other causes. The effective date of this Act was immediately upon passage. (June 19, 1983)

HORMONE HERBICIDE CAN CAUSE INJURY TO COTTON CROPS

Travis Harney
Briscoe County Extension Agent

Hormone-type herbicides are very effective in the control of many annual and perennial species of broadleaf weeds in pastures, non-crop areas and fields planted to crops tolerant to these chemicals. Unfortunately, broadleaf crops such as cotton and soybeans are susceptible to these chemicals and may be damaged by spray drift when these herbicides are not applied properly.

SYMPTOMS

The hormone-type herbicides can cause several types of injury symptoms in the cotton plant. The most common symptoms are "strapping" and "cupping" of the leaves which impart somewhat of an okra leaf appearance to the plant. Injury during the squaring stage frequently causes the square bracts to be malformed and abnormally long.

Drift injury during the flowering and early boll development stage often results in flowers with fused petals and deformed or aborted reproductive structures. The bolls may be elongated or otherwise malformed and flat-sided due to poor pollination. It's not uncommon for heavily affected plants to exhibit enlarged, thickened or gnarled tissue in the root-stem zone and from the taproots to be swollen and cracked.

EXTENT OF INJURY

The extent of plant injury to cotton is closely associated with the type of herbicide involved, rate of herbicide deposited on the plants, and stage of growth at the time of exposure to the chemical.

In studying the response of cotton to several hormone-type herbicides, Drs. D. T. Smith and A. F. Wiese, weed scientists with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, showed that 2,4-D causes more injury to cotton than 2,4,5-T, MCPA, silvex or banvel (dicamba). Foliar symptoms were readily apparent when cotton plants were treated with as little as 0.01 pounds per acre of the hormone-type herbicides. Injury during the early-square stage resulted in the greatest yield reductions. Less herbicide damage (both symptoms and yield loss) was reported when exposure occurred after cotton bloomed and bolls were already developing.

EARLY EVALUATIONS DIFFICULT

The effects of hormone-type herbicide injury on crop maturity, lint yield and fiber and seed quality are difficult to determine with any degree of accuracy. Presently, there is no reliable method for establishing the potential yield or quality loss immediately after symptoms appear. However, certain observations may help allay some of the fears associated with initial finding of deformed plants in the field.

If the damage symptoms appear on scattered plants in all or some portion of a field, the drift dosage was probably quite low and damage will be minimal. Also, if damage symptoms are evident on one or two fully expanded leaves, but the new leaves in the terminal are normal, crop damage is apt to be quite small.

On the other hand, when all plants in a given field or area show foliar symptom on both older leaves and new growth, the potential for delayed maturity and reduced yields exists. Again, accurate damage assessments at this time are difficult because the herbicide effects can be modified (enhanced or reduced) by subsequent growing conditions.

ESTIMATING YIELD LOSS

The yield loss from exposure to hormone-type herbicide may range from 0 to 100 percent. Yield losses due to chemical drift generally range from 0 to 30 percent. Losses greater than 30 percent usually occur only when a contaminated sprayer is used in cotton.

A reliable method for determining actual losses is to compare yields from portions of the field with and without plant symptoms. Immediately after symptoms are observed, the same number of rows should be marked permanently and staked in both the affected and unaffected portions of the field. The number of rows marked for harvesting depends on land slope and field uniformity.

The selected rows may then be harvested by either hand or machine and the yield per acre and fiber quality determined. If only a portion of the rows are to be hand harvested, several (3 to 5) samples should be obtained from both the affected and unaffected areas. The samples should be weighed separately to establish the extent of normal field variability.

The average yield difference between the affected and unaffected areas should provide a fair estimate for making any necessary monetary adjustment.

Studies indicate a strong correlation between effective note-taking and information recall. Taking notes properly can have a marked effect on a person's business or academic success.

Experts suggest that effective notes should be neat, organized readable and brief. Key words and phrases are more essential than whole sentences.

Studies show people who take good notes recall about 50 percent more than people with no notes, poorly organized or inaccurate notes.

Use abbreviations. You'll need to write quickly during lectures or meetings. Highlight unfamiliar material or important facts. Summarize critical information. Be accurate. Notes won't do you much good if they provide the wrong information or inconsequential details.

Use a notebook or notebook sections. Underline material in your notes or books with bright opaque markers. Write in the margins of textbooks or highlight key areas. Use a note pad such as 3M's Post-it adhesive-backed yellow pad to make notes in books or on lecture notes. Such notes can be easily removed with a gentle pull and repositioned repeatedly. They come in three sizes: 1.5-by-2 inches, 3-by-3 and 3-by-5.

When you must copy pages from the library or other reference sources, make certain you have change for the copy machines. Take along paper clips and notepaper or Post-it Notes to mark spots you want to copy. But first, find all the information and write key information on notes to copy all at once for efficiency.
