National organizations.

A very delicious meal was served by the Methodist Women and the decorations were outstanding—this being the Texas Sesquicentennial Birthday, the theme was "A Texas Christmas Party."

All food prepared was grown or native to this part of the country, from the roast beef and wild turkey to the whipped cream on the dessert—it was a feast enjoyed by all attending. The decorations were also native to the community, from the cotton bolls to the cowboy rigging. The native Christmas tree was trimmed with homemade trimmings, and made each one present realize and be thankful for this community and state.

Area Youth To Have Bake Sale Saturday

The Quitauque youth will have a bake sale Saturday, December 20, and will be located at Merrell Food. This will help those of you who need help in getting everything done for Christmas. They will take orders and the telephone number to call is 455-1336.

The youth are planning another ski trip and they need your help in paying the way. If you can bake a cake or pie, call Mrs. Price, or take it to her. The ski trip has been very beneficial for all the youth from Flomot, Turkey and Quitauque.

Quitauque Lions Club's Annual Children's Santa Program will be held Saturday night, December 20, 1986 from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m.

Long-Time Turkey Business To Close Doors

A Turkey business that has been an institution here for more than fifty years will be closing its doors the first of the year, and an auction sale is scheduled Saturday, December 20.

Three Bros., better known as Mullin Bros., begun by Bill Mullin and Leo Mullin in 1933. They were joined by Horace Elmer Mullin, jr. in 1934, and the business was named Three Bros. at that time. Leo Mullin left the business early, and Bill and Horace Elmer have remained all these many years. Horace Elmer has been called his full name all these many years because his father was known as Horace Mullin.

The Mullin brothers are natives of Turkey, having all been born and reared here by the late Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Mullin, sr. This business is closing its doors due to Bill and Horace Elmer having reached retirement age, especially since Bill has been in and out of the hospital this past year.

Bill Mullin married Grace Pierce December 24, 1922. The Bill Mullin family consists of three sons and one daughter. Leo Bert is the eldest, Ottis Lee is the second son, Willie Grace Majors is the third child. Norbit, the youngest son, lost his life in an accident in 1955.

Horace Elmer Mullin, jr. married Lillian Law March 10, 1929. They have three children, Dean, Joyce and Harvey. Dean and his wife, Jean, and their three sons live in Houston. Joyce Guest and her two daughters live in the Arlington area. The youngest son, Harvey, lives in Nashville, Tennessee.

Every year through the years there have been business changes in Turkey at the first of the year. Years ago it was businesses changing owners, but in this day and time they are just having to close out their businesses.

Charles Hamner was moved from Methodist Hospital in Lubbock to the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo this past Friday by Reese Air Force Ambulance. He will be treated at the rehabilitation center at the V.A. Hospital.

Apology

The editor offers her sincerest apologies for comments made in last week's Tribune.

In today's slumping economy, it is becoming increasingly difficult to keep most small-town businesses afloat. And, your hometown newspaper is certainly no different.

Many small towns across the nation have already lost their weekly papers, and even in the cities, the trend is toward corporate ownership of the daily papers because individual ownership is simply no longer feasible economically.

Our Valley has long been recognized as an area that bucks the trend, and we want that to continue. But, like most small operations in small towns, it takes a concerted effort from everyone involved to keep things going.

We deeply appreciate your support and patronage for these past 26 years, and with your continued help, we pledge ourselves to help make the Quitauque-Turkey valley the best place in the world to live and to provide you with the best possible weekly newspaper for as long as it is economically possible.

March Of Dimes Poster Child Is Selected

Volunteers are preparing for a 1987 March of Dimes campaign in Dumas, the first drive for the organization in several years.

A "poster child" also has been chosen to help call attention to the services provided by the March of Dimes in research and treatment of birth defects.

Tiffany Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Woods of Dumas and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Shannon and Mr. and Mrs. Duke Woods, all of Quitaque, has been selected as the 1987 Dumas poster child.

A new program that has been started in Moore County is the Golden Spread "satellite" program, which was started to help identify any mental, language, motor or sensory delays in children due to low birth weights.

Director of the program is Maury Martinez, a master's level nurse with a specialty in maternal and child care. She presently sees between 15 and 20 children in Dumas.

The March of Dimes is sponsoring a Christmas party for these children and children from Dalhart Wednesday at noon at the Bible Baptist Church in Dumas.

Parents and children will enjoy refreshments and Santa will be present to listen to Christmas wishes.

Poster child Tiffany Woods also will be present at the gathering.

Planned for January is a Mothers' March, coordinated by Melissa Herber and Theresa

Faris. Volunteers will canvass a 40-block area in a door-to-door drive for the March of Dimes.

FAMILY COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Leaders are made, not born. Some people think there are "born leaders," but leadership ability, like other skills, can be developed.

Developing leadership skills in our citizens was identified as a need in Briscoe County by the Extension Community Development Task Force last April. We now have an opportunity to begin this process through the Family Community Leadership project.

This project is designed to increase the leadership capabilities and involvement of women (and others) in the public policy decision-making process. The teaching materials were developed through a grant from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation by six western state Cooperative Extension Services and Extension Homemakers Associations.

I recently sent information about this project to each women's club and organization in the county asking that the club have at least one applicant.

Two county women (one Extension Homemaker and one other leader) will be chosen from the written applications to attend six days of training (March 17-18, May 5-6 and October 13-14) at Ceta Canyon along with me and representatives from participating counties in a 40-county area where this project is being piloted for Texas.

Applicants chosen must make a commitment to attend ALL three training sessions and devote 96 hours (one day per month) between March 1987 and March 1988 to teach others in the county—as part of a team—what they have learned.

I realize we may have few who would be able to make this commitment because of the time involved, but I feel that it will be a rich experience personally as well as one to benefit the communities.

Let's take advantage of this opportunity to help ourselves and others. Even if you cannot represent the county as a leader at the training sessions, please participate in the training conducted in the county during 1987, by those who do attend the training. I am looking forward to my chance to receive the training, and I hope you will, too.

WTU Plans Another Refund To Retail Customers

West Texas Utilities Company plans another refund to its retail customers early next year.

The company was to file a request last week with the Public Utility Commission of Texas requesting permission to refund a total of $4.9 million in retail revenues collected in excess of actual fuel costs during October and November. The total includes $4.7 million actual fuel cost savings, plus $2 million in interest.

Wayne Loury, WTU local manager, said recently negotiated contract revisions reflecting the continued soft price of natural gas makes the refund necessary. "As our cost for boiler fuel went down, we simply over-collected under the fuel rate approved by the PUC," Loury said.

This will be the fifth refund made to WTU retail customers since the summer of 1985. With each refund, the fuel rates charged to customers have been adjusted, but the price of natural gas, WTU's main power plant boiler fuel, has continued to decline.

WTU's base rates have not changed since December 1984; however, company officials have said that a base rate increase will be necessary after the new coal-fired Oklahoma Power Station near Vernon is completed and placed in service. The assured supply of coal under a long-term contract is expected to stabilize WTU's power plant fuel costs and to partially offset the necessary base rate increase.

The refund will be made through one-time credits to retail customers in January or February depending on when the PUC approves it. The typical residential customer will receive about $9.00.

Children can easily learn to think of sharing with others rather than always thinking of getting for themselves. Help them plan what gift they will get for whom. Small children get distracted when they go shopping with the masses of things from which to choose. Looking through store flyers ahead of shopping helps children to pick out something they might like to get for Daddy or a brother or sister without a multitude of distractions.

Christmas Card Dread

If you dread the very thought of making out all those Christmas cards, why not cut down your list? Take out the names of those you see often. Leave off relatives and close friends to whom you are going to be giving a present anyway. Send cards to those people you don't hear from often with whom you don't want to lose contact. Send postcards—you don't have to stuff and seal them, and postage is less, plus there isn't much space to have to fill with writing!

The wherewithal for succeeding in growing fruits and vegetables will be discussed at a workshop for commercial fruit and vegetable growers at the National Guard Armory in Marlin January 20. Registration is from 8:30 to 9:00 a.m.

Called "New Horizons in Texas Produce," the workshop will feature discussions on new crops, marketing options, soil fertility, disease and insect control, and basic production practices for such crops as tomatoes, melons and peaches.

Adult raccoons can detect approaching cold fronts up to 48 hours in advance and at 24 degrees F., or below, they go into semi-hibernation.

Cotton Conferences To Focus On "Competitive Edge"

Cotton farmers need a competitive edge, and they will be exposed to information to gain that edge at the 1987 Beltwide Cotton Conferences January 5-8 at the Loews Anatole Hotel in Dallas.

Sessions will deal with such topics as cotton quality, short-season cotton production, plant growth regulators, farm legislation, irrigation, diseases, pest control, wind damage, financing, fertilization, harvesting, ginning, neps, seed quality, marketing, economics, crop simulation, regulatory matters, and new cotton varieties, chemicals and equipment. A host of experts will present the latest state-of-the-art technology, production practices, economic forecasts and a wealth of other information, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

VOLATILE COTTON MARKET

The current cotton market is volatile, and that makes it all the more important for producers to stay up with what is happening, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Cotton consumption is rising at an accelerated rate, pushing world cotton trade to a higher level while reducing stocks. U. S. prospects look good for regaining the past market share of about 30 percent of the projected 23 million bales of cotton traded internationally. Higher market prices will likely increase plantings in 1987.

STOCKER CONFERENCE TO DEAL WITH "BEEF DIET"

"Beef Up America's Diet" is the theme of the 1987 Texas Stocker Calf Conference at the National Guard Armory in Marlin January 8.

The conference runs from 12 noon to 7 p.m. and features 13 mini seminars on various phases of stocker cattle and beef production and marketing, including new beef products and future trends in the cattle industry.

Birds, proportionate to their size and weight, are 75 percent stronger than people.

Cub Scout News

The Turkey Cub Scouts were to be busy. Things have been so busy we have failed to write news articles in the newspaper. In August, we had two meetings and for the first time, we got our fishing trip to the river into the paper.

On September 13, we presented for this fishing trip. Those making the trip were Tommy Pinkerton, Jo D. son, Danny House, Ky. Freddy Galvan and Lane. The boys had a ceremony and joined the Scout Promise. The catches were a few small ones which the boys roasted over coals. And as usual, no snow was planned—but the day was pretty they all had to take. Everyone reported a good time.

The Turkey Cub Scouts on Tuesdays and they are saving aluminum cans for money-making projects.

The Webelos completed their Citizenship activity and worked on their Scholar award.

A Crafts activity in woodworking was planned and had to be rescheduled because of illness in the Davidson home.

This activity was rescheduled and completed with Jonathan, who met with Jonathan and Kyle in the afternoon. He covered shop safety with the boys and then assisted in making a boot jack, which were all very proud of their work. Jonathan certainly appreciated Jonathan the time to do this activity with them.

Another interesting project we have done is a project on TV safety. A film out by Honda was shown with three and four wheel motorcycles. Rick Diles, the Executive Director of the Haynes Scout Council, visited our Scouting office in October. Danny and I showed the Scout room to our rock display was one of the main features. Each boy did some of the activities done and the ones who enjoyed most.

Rick told us of a program...

Cub Scout
News

The Turkey Cub Scouts continue to be busy. Things have been so busy we have failed to get the news articles in the newspaper. In August, we had two meetings and for the first time, we didn't get our fishing trip to the lake into the paper.

On September 13, we were all present for this fishing trip. Those making the trip were Tommy Pinkerton, Jo Dee Robinson, Danny House, Kyle Mars, Freddy Galvan and Michael Lane. The boys had a flag ceremony and joined hands for the Scout Promise. The only catches were a few small perch which the boys roasted over the coals. And as usual, no swimming was planned—but the day was so pretty they all had to take a dip. Everyone reported a good time.

The Turkey Cub Scouts meet on Tuesdays and they are still saving aluminum cans for their money-making projects.

The Webelos completed their Citizenship activity and continue to work on their Scholar activity.

A Crafts activity in woodworking was planned and had to be rescheduled because of illness in the Davidson home.

This activity was rescheduled and completed with Jon Davidson, who met with Joe Dell, Danny and Kyle in the Ag. Dept. He covered shop safety with the boys and then assisted them in making a boot jack, which they were all very proud of. We certainly appreciated Jon taking the time to do this activity with them.

Another interesting activity that we have done is a safety project on TV safety. A film put out by Honda was shown. This was an excellent film on safety with three and four wheelers.

Rick Diles, the Executive Director of the Haynes District, visited our Scouting unit in October. Danny and Freddy showed the Scout room to Rick. Our rock display was one of our main features. Each boy told of some of the activities we have done and the ones which were enjoyed most.

Rick told us of a program set up where boys may continue in Boy Scouts on what is called the Lane Scouter.

Each boy must have a male adult leader who is over the age of 18. The leader and the boy continue in the Scout manual and the boy can go on to earn his Eagle Award.

A Scout Roundup was held at the Valley School in November and approximately 20 boys signed up for Cub Scouts. This was especially exciting for me, for not only did we have boys sign up, but we had seven dads to sign up for leadership. The majority of the boys are from the Quitaque area. Two boys from the Turkey area joined but they are planning to meet with the Quitaque boys. David Brunson is the new Cub Scoutmaster, and Manuel Cruz and Lyn Payne are the other Den leaders. The fathers who signed up are committee members and assistant leaders.

We plan a Valley Cub Scout Unit Pack with a Turkey Den and a Quitaque Den. Both units will meet together for Pack Meetings. Scouting is a wonderful program for young boys.

Danny House has completed a hole-punch picture of pheasants during a meeting which he was the only member present.

Kyle Mars and Danny House are now working on wood projects of stick horse and a key hanger.

Freddy and Michael have finished their Collection activity and last week their tulips and several varieties of bulbs in my flower garden and took bulbs home to plant. Kyle and I assisted them in this project while Billy assisted Danny with his stick horse.

Another meeting that Danny completed on his own was held at the home of Jess and Dona Browning. This was a Nature activity in which he gathered leaves from trees, identified them and labeled them on cardboard. Dona served refreshments of peanut butter cookies and Coke. Danny gathered leaves from locust, silver maple, pecan, peach, apricot, fruitless mulberry, and a variety of other plants and trees in the Browning yard.

The activities we are doing now are for Christmas. During the holidays, the Webelos Den will have their march for the West Texas Rehab. So, we hope everyone will put the West Texas Rehabilitation Center on their Christmas list and the Turkey boys will be going house to house on December 29. We hope to appear on the Telethon again this year.

Pack Meeting Held At Methodist Church

Pack 264 met at the Methodist Church in Quitaque for a Pack Meeting. Those present were Shaun Stephens, George Pigg, Sharrod Pigg, Donnie Calvert, Jason Payne, Josh Scoggins, Mac Chestnut, Carlos Rodriguez, P. Jay Merrell, Danny House, Kyle Mars, Freddy Galvan and Michael Lane.

Leaders present were David Brunson, Manuel Cruz, Walter W. Taylor and Margie Pinkerton. The Turkey Den presented the flag ceremony. Danny House led the pledge, and Kyle Mars led the Cub Scout Promise. Margie Pinkerton led the Law of the Pack, and each of the Turkey boys told of some of the things done on the Bob Cat Trail. The Turkey boys brought some of the crafts they had made and derby cars, and told about their activities.

David Brunson helped the boys in some games—Hawk Dive, Rooster Roost and Simon Says.

WEED CONTROL NEEDED ON CRP LAND

Last summer's wet weather has produced a bumper crop of weeds this fall. Also, the wet ground conditions kept many farmers out of the field preventing control of weeds when they were small. Also, county herbicide laws restricted control of weeds by spraying.

Kochia and Russian Thistle are the two that have reached almost "Christmas tree" height this fall. These weeds will begin to turn loose and blow into your neighbors fields this winter unless you shred them down as soon as possible.

Farmers who have land in the Conservation Reserve Program, or plan to put land in the program, need to be sure their weeds are controlled and do not cause problems for neighboring farms. The CRP contract specifies that weeds will be controlled. Shredding, disking may be needed and could be done immediately on fields that have a weed problem.

Now is the time to plan weed control for next summer. A winter or spring application of "Glean" herbicide will help control weeds on wheat ground that will be planted back to wheat, or grass, next year. Propazine or Atrazine, properly applied, will help control weeds on sorghums next summer.

We recommend that you consider control of weeds instead of waiting until weeds get out of control. Once they get started, it's expensive to control weeds by shredding, and plowing dries out the soil leaving a dry seedbed for native grasses and spring-planted crops. By planning weed control in advance, and properly applying approved herbicides, you could save money, soil moisture, and time.

Extension Highlights

Dirk Aaron
Briscoe County
Extension Agent

Cotton harvest is approximately half complete this week. This is somewhat later than we all hoped it would be. This year's turnout is extremely low and barky grades are prevalent. As I have stated in my previous columns, plans are still underway to conduct a stripper modification test on Don Brown's farm. The weather has been a major factor in preventing us from conducting this test already. Stay posted to this column and I will make every effort to inform you when we will be conducting the test and where.

The 4-H members have been purchasing livestock since September up to November 15 here in the county. A total of 75 pigs, 35 lambs, 12 Holstein heifers and five Shorthorn heifers are presently on feed. These 4-H members plan to exhibit their livestock at the County-wide Junior Livestock Show on January 24, 1987 in Silverton. Members are also planning to exhibit at El Paso, San Antonio, Houston and San Angelo shows this spring.

Many people in the community have supported the Junior Livestock Show Program through the years as volunteer leaders and by providing money for premium awards. A great expense of time, money and effort goes into each of these animals by the members. Unfortunately, most exhibitors come out on the short end in terms of projects. Thus the ultimate question arises, "Junior Livestock Shows—Are They Worth It?" My goal as a County Extension Agent and an advocate of the 4-H Club work is to provide a well-rounded experience and one that provides a teaching experience more than a money-making experience. Again, "What does the Livestock Project teach?"

1. It teaches youngsters to get along with people. Showing animals, winning, getting beat, and so forth, helps youngsters to get along with others.

2. Livestock feeding teaches responsibility. It is the feeder's responsibility to hear the alarm clock and obey it. If they learn nothing more than that, feeding is worthwhile.

3. Junior projects teach youngsters to attend to details. In feeding, and especially through life, it is often the little things that count. The person who goes the extra mile gets the job done.

4. Decision-making is the most painful task that a teenager has. The good animals shown this year didn't just happen to be here. Somebody planned it that way.

5. Feeding teaches youngsters to plan. Without a good planning job, we are sunk.

6. Somewhere along the line, we hope our young feeders will learn a little about livestock production.

We don't expect every youngster who feeds a calf, lamb or hog to become a beef cattleman, sheepman or hogman; neither do we expect all little league baseball players to play for the major leagues.

Feeding is a family project. I don't mean the whole family does the work. I mean the whole family must enjoy it. Half the value of the project is lost if the parents don't attend the show.

I think sometimes we are prone to look at investments through the wrong end of a telescope. For example, we don't buy a car, we buy transportation; we don't buy a TV set, we buy entertainment; we don't miss a day at school, we lose a day of education. By the same token, we don't invest toward a premium list or buy some youngster's calf or pig in a premium sale. Rather than that, we invest in the future of some boy or girl who in turn will help to keep America the greatest country on earth.

Please remember, 4-H does not, throughout the Junior Livestock Projects, sell each as a money-making project. It is a teaching project, and should be sold as such.

I wish to stress to everyone, through my insight, why all phases of 4-H and FFA work is so vital to the growth of each membership. Please remember these youngsters when the County Livestock Show Board of Directors begin soliciting your support for the 1987 Briscoe County Junior Livestock Show.

STILL OUR BEST CHOICE!

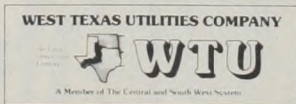

WTU's new power station will soon be on line! The Oklaunion Power Station near Vernon, Texas, will be WTU's first coal-powered plant.

A coal-powered plant was our best option back in the 70's when WTU first began planning for a new power station. At that time a new federal law known as the Fuel Use Act prohibited the use of oil or gas as boiler fuel for new utility plants.

Coal is still our best choice, especially over the long haul. The unlimited supply of clean-burning coal means more stable fuel prices and a continued reliable supply of electric energy for WTU customers.

omewhere along the line, pe our young feeders will a little about livestock ction.

don't expect every young- ho feeds a calf, lamb or hog come a beef cattleman, an or hogman; neither do xpect all little league ll players to play for the leagues.

ing is a family project. I ean the whole family does ork. I mean the whole must enjoy it. Half the of the project is lost if the s don't attend the show.

hink sometimes we are to look at investments h the wrong end of a ope. For example, we don't ar, we buy transportation; n't buy a TV set, we buy ainment; we don't miss a t school, we lose a day of tion. By the same token, we invest toward a premium r buy some youngster's calf in a premium sale. Rather hat, we invest in the future me boy or girl who in turn help to keep America the est country on earth.

ase remember, 4-H does throughout the Junior Live- throughout the Junior Live- Projects, sell each as a y-making project. It is a ing project, and should be as such.

ish to stress to everyone, h my insight, why all es of 4-H and FFA work is so to the growth of each ership. Please remember e youngsters when the Coun- Livestock Show Board of ctors begin soliciting your ort for the 1987 Briseoe nty Junior Livestock Show.
