TB Director To Be In Quitaque August 28

The Top of Texas Tuberculosis Association's Executive Director, Charles McIntosh, will be in Quitaque on August 28 to discuss a case-finding project with Superintendent of Schools, Herman Moseley. Meeting with the two men will two members of the Association's Board of Directors, Mrs. Roy Younger and Mrs. Dorothy Mann.

Reason for the meeting is a recent case of active tuberculosis, which hospitalized a Quitaque high school student.

The Tuberculosis Association will provide the tuberculin testing equipment and personnel to administer the tests, Mr. McIntosh said. He emphasized that no student will be given the test without the parent's signed permission. "We will be happy to offer the test to anyone who wants it," he added, "whether they are connected with the school or not."

Mr. McIntosh cautioned parents to realize that, in the event their child has a positive skin test, the positive test indicates only that the child has picked up T B germs, and does not mean that there is an active case of tuberculosis present. Plans will be made to transport positive reactors to Amarillo for chest x-rays. The x-ray will reveal whether the germs are causing disease, and whether the individual should be placed under medical treatment.

Gasoline Reunion Well Attended

The Gasoline Community in their Homecoming, which is held two years, Sunday, August 4, at the community building. There were three cotton trailers pulled under a shade built by the men of the community and covered with burlap sack. The trailers were covered with table cloths and spread with bountiful food brought by all the ladies of the community. There was a galvanized tank with fifteen cases of iced sod pop beside the gallons of iced tea and hot coffee to go with the food.

After the meal was finished, the group retired to the community building where the master ceremonies, Joe Bedwell, called the meeting to order. A number of gospel hymns were sung, led by Gaston Owens with Mrs. Cora Gragson at the piano. Ray Morrison of Dallas was asked to lead in prayer and remember the one who has passed in death since their last Homecoming.

Each person was asked to stand and give his name and where they lived. The oldest was recognized and given a gift. Mr. J. G. Gowdy received this gift with the age of 91. Mr. Otis Wilson was next oldest at age 89, and Mrs. W. J. Carte received the third gift at age 85.

The person traveling the farthest distance to the Homecoming was recognized. This was Mrs. Elva Brogdon of Project City, Calif., who came 1700 miles, and Mrs. Belle Smith of Lemore, Calif. traveled the next greatest distance which was more than 1600 miles.

All officers were re-elected for another term. They were Maynard Wilson, pres., Mrs. Bill Helms Sec., and Mrs. John King, Treas.

There were approximately 200 in attendance, and several expressed themselves saying it was the best Homecoming they had attended. There were more of the former residents of the Gasoline community present at one time than there had ever been previously. There were five or six present who had started to school in the first school at Gasoline in 1909.

After singing, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the group were dismissed by prayer, lead by Ralph Carter.

We want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Owens and Mrs. Cora Gragson for making our Homecoming a success.

(Editors note: We feel we were repaid with the bountiful food we enjoyed.)

CLARENDON COLLEGE: "THE ATHENS OF THE PANHANDLE" A SAGA OF ITS BIRTH AND GROWTH

Back in the days of the late 1800's, institutions of higher learning were relatively few and far between the still - young West. A number of colleges had sprung up in Texas, but most of them are in the southern and central part of the state.

The Panhandle — vast and rich expanse comprising more area than the entire state of Mississippi — was attracting settlers by the thousands. As the population increased at a rapid pace, the need for a college in the area increased just as steadily.

The citizens of Clarendon, a small town in the southeastern part of the Panhandle, saw the need for such an institution. They decided something should be done. The perseverance and determination of the early - day citizens of the city resulted in the founding of the first college in the Panhandle.

A committee of townfolk started a subscription campaign in the summer of 1897 to build the college. This list was presented by a special committee in the District Conference of the Methodist Church, South, which met in Memphis, Texas, in November of that year. The group offered to erect a two - story brick building on a four - acre campus which would be in turn be deeded to the church.

The Conference received a similar offer for a college at Goodnight, a small town located 20 miles to the west of Clarendon. Rev. W. B. McKown, a member of the Conference Board of Education, was assigned to investigate the proposals.

Rev. McKown recommended that the Clarendon project be placed on the list of Methodist schools. Rev. J. W. Adkisson was elected its first president and classes scheduled for the fall of 1898.

The promised building was not complete when Fall arrived, but classes opened as scheduled on September 5 in the Methodist Church. Harwood Beville was credited with being the "first student" at Clarendon College and University Training School when he allegedly won a foot race for the honor. All 75 students who enrolled the first year were grade school pupils. Each was eligible to enter public school, but their parents preferred to send them to Clarendon College because "there can't be a college without students." They had contributed to the construction of the college and were making sure it would be a success.

It was the same Rev. McKown who recommended that the college be built in Clarendon who succeeded Rev. Adkisson as president. It was also the safe Rev. McKown who inspired the following editorial in the Clarendon Press:

"His bishop assigned him to the Panhandle territory where rattlesnakes and sinners outnumbered Christians 15 to 1. But the story of his ministry was one of the sagas of the Old West. McKown supplemented his Bible with a pair of six - shooters and tackled the West on its own terms and won the respect of its citizens. He preached in barrooms, railroad stations or in the open — wherever there was an audience to listen."

It was this indomitable spirit which prompted the continued growth of the college. The enrollment increased steadily and today the Panhandle boast many who proudly proclaim Clarendon College as their alma mater.

Clarendon College was 27 years old when its first real trouble began to brew. It had become a four - year senior college in 1925, but after two years in this status, it soon became apparent that something must change.

The school's indebtedness had been paid, but the material improvements requested by the Methodist Conference had not been completed. Only part of the endowment for the college had been promised and not enough funds were available to complete the gymnasium for which the corner stone had been laid. There had been rumors from the beginning of the school term that the college might be moved from Clarendon.

It was at this juncture that Dr. R. E. L. Morgan, president, requested the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church to name a committee to settle the question once and for all. Despite the pledges of the citizens of Clarendon to endow the college with the needed funds if it would remain in Clarendon, the Committee announced on March 1, 1927.

The proposal hit a snag, however, when suitable finances could not be arranged in Amarillo and the Conference voted to give the original endowment for Clarendon College to McMurry College in Abilene.

Thus came the end of one era — and the beginning of another.

The citizens of Clarendon, sticking by their determination for a college of their own, proposed and carried by a margin of 353 to 2 a bond issue for $42,000.00 to purchase the physical assets of defunct Clarendon College. The Clarendon Independent School District now owned a college and Clarendon Municipal Junior College opened its doors in September, 1928. It took up where its predecessor left off and has fulfilled the educational needs of the area for thirty - four years.

Athletics have played a large part in the life of Clarendon College and its junior college successor. The original college was credited with bringing the first inter-collegiate football game to the Panhandle in 1903 when it fielded a "team" (which had never played a game) against a team from Goodnight College. The Clarendon squad pulled an upset and won the skirfish to the tune of 16 to 10. The grid sport has long since made its demise, but other activities such as basketball, tennis, track and volleyball have gained eminence among the college's athletes. The Clarendon College Bulldogs are rated as one of the better small school teams in the area and placed second in conference competition in 1967.

It has been a long and uphill climb for the college which was founded in a virgin territory for higher education. But, based on the promise that education can best be offered in the familiar and home - like atmosphere of a small institution where "the individual is a name — not a number," the college has continued to grow and prosper. Today, Clarendon College a fully - accredited class A institution, is keeping pace with the times by offering a complete, up - to - date curriculum. Enrollment has grown steadily from 190 students in the fall of 1964 to 244 in the fall of 1967. The predicted enrollment for the fall of 1968 ranges from 350 to 400 students.

In 1965, Clarendon College was the recipient of an endowment from the estate of Etta and Ida Harned in the amount of $336,341.55. The Harned Sisters, pioneer residents of Clarendon, were always strong supporters of the furtherance of music education.

As a result of the Harned Sisters Endowment, the college was able to purchase some thirty acres of land for the site of a new campus. Construction of a $1,480,000.00 plant is currently underway and will be ready for occupancy in the fall of 1968. The new campus will boast completely modern facilities, including a housing complex with dormitories, a student union building, bookstore and cafeteria. The new academic plant will include class rooms and laboratories, administration offices, library, auditorium, and gymnasium.

Clarendon is proud of its college and thousands of alumni scattered throughout the land are quick to proclaim the merits of the small school. The complete story can not Clarendon, ably recorded many of the glorious memories of the oldest college in the Panhandle in a book, be told in a few pages. But Ethel Harvey a former resident of "THE ATHENS OF THE PAN-HANDLE." Those memories, as Miss Harvey's book can well be dedicated to those doctry pioneers of education "whose lives were devoted to guiding youth in the search of knowledge."

NEWS from the High Plains Research Foundation

A cotton products display by the Hale County Cotton Promotion Association will be a new feature at the 12th Annual Field Day of the High Plains Research Foundation. All kinds of Materials manufactured from cotton will be shown in the library located in the Moody Administration building from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m., September 12.

Mrs. Claudine Skipper, Abernathy, Vice - President of the association, has been appointed chairman for the exhibit by Mrs. L. E. McDowell, McDoo, President of the 13 County Womens Cotton Promotion Association. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Skipper will be Hale County members. Each will serve for one hour so they may also view the other displays. They are Mrs. Doris Weil, Jacquett Boyd, Louise Harper, Jenevia Higgins, Essie B. Scarborough, AnnieR Phillips, Nelda Laney and Betty Mooney.

Another display of cotton products used both on the farm and in industry will be located in and around the Laboratory Gin. This 20' saw gin has been an attraction each Field Day. Cotton quality grades will be shown by members of the Cotton Commodity Committee. An experienced ginner will also be there to tell how the gin operates to produce research cotton samples for grading and classification.

Members of the cotton commodity committee of the Board of Trustees are Don Johnson, Lubbock, Chairman; Donald Anderson, Crosbyton, Co - Chairman; Aubrey Lockett, Vernon; Woodrow Fleming, Friona; Jack Little, Muleshoe; W. L. Edelman, Friona; Earl Eeds, Plainview; J. D. Smith, Littlefield; Roy Davis, Lubbock; John McQuien, Plainview; Ray Joe Riley, Hart; and Ben Dopson, Lamesa. Three members of the committee will be hosts at the display for one hour each. The Gingers who have been invited to explain the gin operation are Henry Heck and A. L. Higgins, Plainview, Bob Lopspeich, Hale Center, and Bob Pinkerton, Halfway.

Dr. Douglas Owen, Agronomist at the High Plains Research Foundation will have an opportunity to hear internationally known research personnel discuss the sunflower as a cash crop at the 3rd International Sunflower Conference at the University of Minnesota in Crookston, Minnesota. The Conference will be held August 13, 14 and 15, 1968, and will have as its main topic the breeding, production and utilization of the sunflower.

Speakers from Russia, which is currently the leading country in sunflower production, along with top - flight researchers from the U. S. A., Canada, France, and Israel, will highlight the three day meeting.

Approval of endosulfan and tentative approval of methyl parathion as insecticides for controlling the crop's primary nemesis on the South, commonly known as the sunflower headmoth, has created new interest in what is essentially an old crop.

There are currently an estimated 2,000 acres of sunflowers in the High Plains and 15,000 to 18,000 acres planted in Texas. Dr. Owen is especially interested in this crop because he is in charge of oilseed development at Halfway. The Research Foundation has been involved in breeding work on sunflowers since 1959.

Expected yields in the High Plains should average between 1,500 and 2,500 pounds per acre in 1968. Some yields of over 3,000 pounds have been reported. The current market price on sunflower seed is 3.5c per pound. The sunflower has a growing season of 90 to 120 days, and normally will not require more than two summer irrigations for full maturity. Planting dates vary from early April to early July with equal yields from early to late planting.

At Halfway, there are 18 varieties entered in the USDA Regional Variety test. Dr. Owen has 51 introductory strains from 15 foreign countries in his breeding and observation nursery. Also included in the research work are 13 strains from Canada and 3 from Russia.

Some of the leading varieties that seem to be well adapted to this area are the Peredovik, the Armaveric, and the Smena, all from Russia, which in some cases have yielded an oil content as high as 48 per cent. A Texas Hybrid, developed by Dr. M. L. Kinman of the USDA, and several Canadian lines from Morden, Manitoba, Canada, are included in the testing program.

The public is cordially invited to observe all of the work being done by the Research Foundation at the Annual Field Day on September 12, 1968.

THE PURPOSE OF LIFE

What is the purpose of life? This is a question to which many of us are longing to find the answer. How often, we find ourselves driven and pulled in different directions by our inner urges, longings, and desires which we do not seem able to satisfy. We look with envy at others and imagine that their lives are so much fuller and so much more satisfying than ours.

We think that if we could gain this prize or enjoy that pleasure, we would be truly satisfied; but when at last we do achieve those prizes or pleasures we find that we are no happier than we were before. And the older we grow, the more frustrated we feel. We find ourselves asking, "What is the purpose of life? How can I find it? How can I be sure it is the right one?" These are questions which many professing Christians need to find an answer to, as well as the man who has no knowledge of God.

However when we turn to the Bible, we find a clear and very simple answer to this most important question. The Bible plainly states that there is but one purpose for mankind. That purpose is the same regardless of our age, sex, nationality or status in society.

"What doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him." (Deuteronomy 10: 12)

"He hath showed thee, O man, what is good, and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to — humble thyself to walk with thy God." (Micah 12: 30)

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength" (Mark 12: 30)

It appears, therefore, that the Bible answer to the question, "What is the purpose of life?" is to know, and to love, and to walk with God.

TAYLOR-POINTER VOWS SPOKEN SUNDAY, AUGUST 4

Miss Shirley Ann Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Taylor of Turkey, became the bride of Jimmie Wayne Pointer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Pointer of Quitaque in a ceremony in the home of the bride's parents Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, August 4, 1968.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length gown of white lace, fashioned with bell sleeves and a high neck line. Her veil of illusion fell from a beaded lace coiffure.

Mrs. Carol Underwood of Turkey, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of pink crepe with matching accessories.

Johnny Pointer served his brother as best man.

Mrs. Taylor chose a blue frock for her daughter's wedding and her corage was white carnations.

Mrs. Pointer wore a pink dress and her flowers were also white carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The two-tiered wedding cake decorated in pink roses and swans and topped with a miniature bride and groom was served with punch by the sisters of the bride. Mrs. Underwood had charge of the guest book.

After the reception, the bride chose a green dress with white accessories for her wedding trip. The couple is at home in Wichita Falls where Jimmie is employed.

The bride attended Turkey High School where she is a Junior.

The groom finished Quitaque High School with the class of 1968. He plans to attend Electronics School at Oklahoma City this fall.

FARMERS HOME ADMINISTRATION HELPS ALMOST 1000 PEOPLE IN SWISHER & BRISCOE COUNTIES
Credit programs of the U. S. Farmers Home Administration helped more than 965 people in Swisher and Briscoe Counties improve their homes, family farms and communities during fiscal year 1968. Supervisor Don Cruce of the agency's office in Tulia said today.

Farmers Home Administration loans and grants in the county totaled $1,652,520.00 in 1968. Gains were, Soil and Water, Operation, Emergency and Economic Opportunity loans.

Cruce reported that the Farmers Home Administration, which supplements all other credit available to rural people, has added $3,288,870.00 to the counties resources with loans and grants the past two years through a range of programs.

With the turnover of funds invested by borrower families associations and communities, the agency's work is estimated to have had a $23,022,090.00 impact on the county's economy during 1967 and 1968.

Mr. Cruce said that $192,460.00 of the 1968 fiscal year lending total through his office was accounted for by Farmers Home Administration insurance of loans funded by private lenders.

An estimated 60 people benefited from loans for construction or improvement of 14 family homes in the two counties during the year. Housing credit has grown from the level of $40,240.00 in 1960 to $616,196.00 in 1968.

Family farmers who lacked other sources of credit turned to Farmers Home Administration for $53,270.00 in loans to secure farm ownership and improve their farms and $539,100.00 in loans for operating purposes during 1968.

Many of the 94 farm families served by FHA might have been forced off the land except for this last - resort source of financing, Mr. Cruce said.

The agency also loaned $806,160.00 to 91 farmers in the county to overcome losses suffered in natural disasters.

Loans totaling $48,170.00 enabled low - income families to equip themselves for income producing small enterprises — either farming, or non - farm production or services they can perform in their rural communities. These loans were made to 15 families last year, and $23,100.00 to 1 co - operative group in the county.
