BRUSH CONTROL PAYS GOOD DIVIDENDS

College Station — About $10 million annually could be returned to landowners in Texas if they would use brush control recommendations and proper land management, G. O. Hoffman, Extension range brush and weed control specialist with Texas A&M University, says.

At present, landowners are controlling brush on about 1.2 million acres of infested land each year — only about 10 per cent of what should be controlled, notes Hoffman. Brush control will increase the income per acre about $1 each year, and with 10 million acres of brush-infested land yet to be treated, many property owners are overlooking extra income.

To help bridge this gap, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has initiated a more intensive brush and weed control educational program.

Since 1960, the range brush demonstrations have been switched from small plots to larger acreages to gain more information concerning the economics of controlling common brush. The demonstrations are also concerned with research on species resistant to 2, 4, 5-T. These large-scale demonstrations are located throughout the state, primarily in mesquite areas.

Intensive field tests have been conducted to find control methods for plants on which there was previously limited research information. Recommendations for herbicidal and mechanical control methods for huisache, granjeno, cacti, catclaw, whitebrush and others have come from these demonstrations and research field tests. Extension demonstrations over several years have been conducted on Texas persimmon, creosotebush, tarbush and lotebush, and it has been found that no common or inexpensive method for control is available at this time.

To increase forage production, the rancher must carry out all good management practices along with brush control to increase his net profit.

Any control used on brush will need to have regrowth treated within five to ten years to keep woody plants under control and maintain forage production at a high level. The research conducted on brush problems now can help producers get more from their land in the future, Hoffman says.

Texas for several years. The area now produces almost all of the castor grown in the United States. More than 85,000 acres of castors are being grown in the High Plains in 1968. Farmers who are adding castor production to their farm plans, and those who have been producers, are interested in learning more about this crop and this should add to their interest in the display.

The Castor Commodity Committee of the Board of Trustees assisted by others interested in castors, will conduct the display in the seed production laboratory. Hosts will explain the uses and production methods from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m., September 12. Three different hosts will be on duty each hour.

Don Marble, South Plains, Chairman of the Castor Committee, has called a meeting of the committee for 3:00 p.m., September 3. The committee will review the current castor research program, plan their recommendations for the 1968 research program and make final plans for their exhibit.

Members of the Committee are: John Anderson, Plainview; Earl Gene Beach, Cotton Center; Roy Davis, Lubbock; Dr. Wayne Domingo, Lamesa, California; Bob Francy, Happy; Homer Garrison, Plainview; Don Marble, South Plains; Wayne Martin, Plainview; Martin Schur, Plainview; and Jim Wedel, Muleshoe. The committee will have the assistance of the Castor display of Delbert Langford, Don Sanders and Dr. D. L. Van Horn, all of Plainview.

Observing the traditional West Texas hospitality has been a part of Field Day programs for many years. A group of representatives of Civic Clubs, and Chambers of Commerce from cities in the area greet Field Day visitors as they arrive. They welcome each guest, give them information on the tours or displays they desire to see first, then send them to the registration tent to enter their names for the attendance drawings and receive the printed program from members of the Young Homemakers Chapters.

Charlie Young, executive Vice-President of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce, has been chairman of the greeters committee for several years. The Vice Chairman for 1968 is Elton Wilson, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the Chamber. Each Chamber of Commerce and Civic Club is invited to send five men to perform this service.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWELVE ON THE BALLOT (SJR14)

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 14 proposing an amendment to Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding a new Section 52a to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 52a to read as follows:

"Section 52a. The Legislature shall have the power to authorize counties, cities, and towns to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes, or in aid thereof; provided, that property acquired from proceeds of the bonds shall be subject to ad valorem taxes. Legislation passed in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment shall not be invalid solely because of its anticipatory nature. The tax revenue, the utility revenue, and the revenue from services of any county, city or town may not be used to pay any bonds issued pursuant to this authority nor the interest thereon."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes."

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment to give the Legislature the power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER SEVEN ON THE BALLOT (SJR32)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 1-e to read as follows:

"Section 1-e. "1. From and after December 31, 1978, no State ad valorem taxes shall be levied upon any property within this State for State purposes except the tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, for certain institutions of higher learning.

"2. The State ad valorem tax authorized by Article VII, Section 3, of this Constitution shall be imposed at the following rates on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the years 1968 through 1974: On January 1, 1968, Thirty-five Cents (35¢); on January 1, 1969, Thirty Cents (30¢); on January 1, 1970, Twenty-five Cents (25¢); on January 1, 1971, Twenty Cents (20¢); on January 1, 1972, Fifteen Cents (15¢); on January 1, 1973, Ten Cents (10¢); on January 1, 1974, Five Cents (5¢); and thereafter no such tax for school purposes shall be levied and collected. An amount sufficient to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State shall be set aside from any revenues deposited in the Available School Fund, provided, however, that should such funds be insufficient, the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the State.

"3. The State ad valorem tax of Two Cents (2¢) on the One Hundred Dollars valuation levied by Article VII, Section 17, of this Constitution shall not be levied after December 31, 1976. At any time prior to December 31, 1976, the Legislature may establish a trust fund solely for the benefit of the widows of Confederate veterans and such Texas Rangers and their widows as are eligible for retirement or disability pensions under the provisions of Article XVI, Section 66, of this Constitution, and after such fund is established the ad valorem tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, shall not thereafter be levied.

"4. Unless otherwise provided by the Legislature, after December 31, 1976 all delinquent State ad valorem taxes together with penalties and interest thereon, less lawful costs of collection, shall be used to secure bonds issued for permanent improvements at institutions of higher learning, as authorized by Article VII, Section 17, of this Constitution.

"5. The fees paid by the State for both assessing and collecting State ad valorem taxes shall not exceed two per cent (2%) of the State taxes collected. This subsection shall be self-executing."

Sec. 2. That Article III, Section 51, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as hereafter to read as follows:

"Section 51. The Legislature shall have no power to make any grant or authorize the making of any grant of public money to any individual, association of individuals, municipal or other corporations whatsoever; provided, however, the Legislature may grant aid to indigent and disabled Confederate soldiers and sailors under such regulations and limitations as may be deemed by the Legislature as expedient, and to their widows in indigent circumstances under such regulations and limitations as may be deemed by the Legislature as expedient; provided that the provisions of this Section shall not be construed so as to prevent the grant of aid in cases of public calamity."

Sec. 3. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment continuously reducing State ad valorem property taxes and abolishing all State ad valorem property taxes after December 31, 1978, except the tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, for certain institutions of higher learning.

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment continuously reducing State ad valorem property taxes and abolishing all State ad valorem property taxes after December 31, 1978, except the tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, for certain institutions of higher learning.

1968 PANHANDLE-SOUTH PLAINS FAIR TO FEATURE APPALOOSA HORSE SHOW

Lubbock — An Appaloosa horse show has been carded as a special event of the 51st annual Panhandle South Plains Fair here Sept. 23 - 28.

The new attraction is expected to draw more than 100 entries from throughout the Southwest. Premiums totaling $390, including $275 added money for performance classes, will be offered during the one-day show, slated Sept. 27.

Similar shows will be held in Levelland and Seagraves on successive dates.

Hud Rhea of Roswell, N. M. will serve as Judge.

The show has been sanctioned by the Appaloosa Horse Club Inc. of Moscow, Idaho, Texas Appaloosa Horse Club and the Golden Spread Horse Club.

All exhibitors will be required to present registration papers or photostatic proof or registration before entries will be accepted. Advance entries may be mailed to the fair office, PO Box 208, Lubbock, 79408.

Show officials include Clyde Fort of Lubbock, superintendent; Bill Phinizy of Guthrie and Ken Cook of Silverton, assistant superintendents; Cleave Littlepage of Tahoka, ring steward; and Tommy Buckner of Levelland, secretary.

Cash awards of $15, $12.50, $10, $7.50, $5, and $5 will be awarded for the first six places in each class. Trophies also will be awarded class winners and all other premium winners will receive rosettes.

Halter classes include 1968 stallions, 1966 stallions, 1965 stallions foaled 1964 and before, grand champion stallion and reserve champion stallion; 1968 mares, 1967 mares, 1966 mares, 1965 mares, mares foaled 1964 and before, grand champion mare, reserve champion mare; 1966 and 1967 geldings, 1964 and 1965 gelding, geldings foaled 1963 and before, grand champion gelding and reserve champion gelding. Youth classes include showmanship at halter, western pleasure, and barrel racing. Performance classes include western pleasure, junior reining, senior reining, pole bending and barrel racing.

The Appaloosa show is the first of two horse shows slated for the 1968 exposition. The fair's second annual Quarter Horse show is scheduled Sept. 28.

In addition, Pat Boone, motion picture, television and recording star, will headline a star-studded Fair Park Coliseum show. Also appearing on stage will be humorist Don Rice, the Baja Marimba band, Lee Castle and the Jimmy Dorsey orchestra and twirler - juggler Diane Shelton.

Tickets are priced at $2, $2.50, $3, and $3.50. Children 12 years and under will be admitted for one-half price at 3 p.m. matinees on Monday, Friday and Saturday.

Daily shows are slated at 7:30 p.m. All tickets purchased prior to Sept. 23 will be accompanied by free gate admission passes.

More than a quarter million persons are expected to attend the fair again this year. Many new features have been scheduled.

THE BUM WHO BECAME A MAN

This letter was published in the Briscoe County News recently. The war has been brought home to us in Quitaque and Briscoe County with the loss of one of our own. We know Lupe Leal was a fine, upstanding young man all his life, but we would like to dedicate this letter to his memory to make each one of us who read it remember EACH DAY the things he gave his life for that we may have freedom. Let us remember our boys with our prayers and resolve to do better when we go to the polls to vote for the leaders of our country.

(The following letter was written to the editor of the weekly Mountain News, Lake Arrowhead, California, by a young airborne soldier, Sgt. Craig McDaniel. Soon after writing this moving appraisal, Sgt. McDaniel — married and father of a young son — was killed in action and posthumously awarded the Silver Star for heroism.)

Dear Editor: I used to be a Lake Arrowhead bum, with a weekly life of beer parties and young punk actions which usually led to a great relationship between me and the sheriff's department. I didn't have a care in the world except my long hair and enough money to chip in for a case of beer.

But it seems as though in the last three years my attitude toward these subjects has changed. I must be very lucky to have witnessed the things I have, to curb to solid belief I had about the responsibilities of my life. My mom and dad always preached to me about manners and appearance, etc. Well, I didn't listen because I knew everything there was to know.

The first time I came home on leave after entering the army, my parents found out they had raised a son instead of a vegetable, who grows in size instead of mind and maturity.

The true meaning of communism and its effects have been opened before me. Right now it is about 103 degrees and it's only 10 a.m. About every 10 minutes I have to pull blood sucking leeches off my body. Last week we engaged about eight Viet Cong, killing five. It was most horrifying scene, to witness human bodies torn apart. Right now F-100 jets are dropping bomb about 1,000 meters away.

We are fighting communists indoctrinated troops who have infiltrated from the north. They fight effectively and are equipped with weapons equal to ours. At present we make a stand in the war in their backyard, not ours. Many say, "pull out of Vietnam." Well, the way these VC fight today, I'd hate to see them 10 years from now landing on some other free country like Japan or Australia. Communism is like cancer. If you don't stop it early, its cells attack healthy ones and overtake them.

Boy, the GIs get so mad hearing about all the riots and love-ins. It's too bad all these trouble-makers can't come over here and witness this stinking war. Then they'd realize the freedoms they have and would not disrupt them. I hope all the people of the United States can join hands and support this war and its cause. Not only for South Vietnam but for ourselves.

The only thing that makes me furious is that GIs are going through pure hell and physical hardship while worthless bums are not doing a darn thing except "freak - out."

I had really taken everyday life for granted, not remembering all those who died in previous wars earning it for us. Well I guess you could say that we are re-earning it. You'd be surprised at the things I miss most... the little things like real milk, a chance to brush my teeth and take a shower (every two weeks if possible,) and even to smell fresh air without the odor of decaying flesh.

When I get back, I'll look forward to the privilege of taking my family to church all dressed up and clean, and to sleep on sheets and to get a haircut and to sleep calm without the worry of getting mortared or attacked at 3:00 a.m.

I bet I've read more of the Bible over here than I have in my whole life at home — and, in so doing, found out a lot of things I didn't know.

Maybe what I'm doing today will better the world situation for my son when he is my age. I am not about to fall back and not face this mess, leaving it for my kids to take care of.

My brother is in the army now and he will probably be arriving here as I leave. I've noticed a big change in him.

I've lost a lot of buddies over here, including my cousin. It just gives me another reason to fight back at communism.

There is no difference of black and white over here. Both have red blood. I remember the first dead soldier we saw. One of the Negroes in our platoon cried. It's really something to see a Negro starting riots back home, and to see white fellows ashamed of their hippie buddies causing disturbances in the hometown park. I just hope somehow we can all see this mess through.

Hell, I've preached long enough and I know that all the younger local yokels are saying this isn't it, but believe me the time will come when these things will be witnessed by them.

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ELEVEN ON THE BALLOT (HJR60)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to add Section 64 to read as follows:

"Section 64. (a) The Legislature may by statute provide for consolidation of governmental offices and functions of government of any one or more political subdivisions comprising or located within El Paso or Tarrant Counties. Any such statute shall require an election to be held within the political subdivisions affected thereby with approval by a majority of the voters in each of these subdivisions, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may require.

"(b) The county government, or any political subdivision(s) comprising or located therein, may contract one with another for the performance of governmental functions required or authorized by this Constitution or the Laws of this State, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may prescribe. No person acting under a contract made pursuant to this Subsection (b) shall be deemed to hold more than one office of honor, trust or profit or more than one civil office of emolument.

The term 'governmental functions,' as it relates to counties, includes all duties, activities and operations of statewide importance in which the county acts for the State, as well as of local importance, whether required or authorized by this Constitution or the Laws of this State."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for consolidating governmental offices and functions and allowing political subdivisions to contract for performance of governmental functions in El Paso and Tarrant counties."

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for consolidating governmental offices and functions and allowing political subdivisions to contract for performance of governmental function in El Paso and Tarrant counties."

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT (HJR61)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 24, Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 24. Members of the Legislature shall receive from the Public Treasury an annual salary of not exceeding Eight Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400) per year and a per diem of not exceeding Twelve Dollars ($12) per day of each Regular Session and each Special Session of the Legislature. No Regular Session shall be of longer duration than one hundred and forty (140) days.

"In addition to the per diem the Members of each House shall be entitled to mileage in going to and returning from the seat of government not to exceed one round trip per month during such time as the Legislature is in session, which mileage shall not exceed Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) for every twenty-five (25) miles, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel, from a table of distances prepared by the Comptroller, to each county seat now or hereafter to be established; no Member to be entitled to mileage for any extra Session that may be called within one (1) day after the adjournment of the Regular or Called Session."

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment providing the members of the Legislature shall receive as salary an amount not exceeding Eight Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400) per year."

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment providing the members of the Legislature shall receive as salary an amount not exceeding Eight Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400) per year."

SAVE YOURSELF

The great apostle Paul wrote to Timothy the following words: "Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee." I Tim. 4:16.

An Alpine traveler, after facing a blinding snowstorm and the freezing blasts of night, feeling that fatal drowsiness coming over him, almost ready to perish in despair, struck a heap in his pathway, and found it to be a human body half buried in the snow; the next moment our half-frozen traveler had taken a brother in his arms and was rubbing his hands, arms, chest, brow, and limbs, now breathing upon the cold lips his own warm breath, and now pressing the silent heart to the beating pulse of his own generous bosom. What a God-send to the stiff body of the one, and the freezing limbs of the other—WHEN HE SAVED HIS BROTHER, HE SAVED HIMSELF.

Have we grown cold? Is our Spiritual life benumbed by inaction, chilled by the frost-particles of unbelief, or lulled by the bight of indifference? If we must answer, Yes, to these questions, may our heavenly Father, through some wise providence send us stumbling somewhere along the path of life to some fellow-mortal, and by a little Spiritual exercise revive our torpid soul, and that of a brother as well. It is only by saving others that we ourselves can be saved.

CARD OF THANKS

Howdy! I (Pablo Leal, Jr. would like to take this brief momentum to express the appreciation for the many kind friends which helped me on my tree treat and have kept me in mind. I would like to extend so much to say a great big "Thank You" to each and everyone. I find no words to express my deep appreciation. I would like to acknowledge the love you have shown me by your words of comfort, the cards and money during my stay at the hospital. I am deeply grateful to you all. God Bless you for your thoughtfulness in a very special way. No one else could find a better thoughtful Community.

Your Friend Always,
Pablo Leal, Jr.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

We Wish to extend our sincere thanks to our friends for the many acts of kindness, words of condolence, phone calls, cards, flowers and visits in our home and the food brought during the passing of our sister, Mrs. Ruby Reeder. May God bless you.

The Reeder Children and the Bolton brothers and sister

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank everyone for their cards, letters, prayers and visit during my stay in the hospital and since my return home. Everything is deeply appreciated.

Mrs. U. F. Coker, Sr.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank everyone for every concern shown me during my illness. For the many cards, flowers and visits. — Thanks again.

WHEAT VARIETIES DISCUSSED FOR FALL SEEDING

Wheat producers will soon be selecting varieties to plant this fall and the choice can be very important in obtaining a satisfactory yield.

The choice of variety should depend on the producer's needs, explains Ken Cook, county agricultural agent. Factors influencing this choice include whether the crop is to be seeded on dryland or irrigated or in low or high fertility conditions and whether the crop is to be used for grazing or grain production or a combination of the two.

Disease and insect reaction, lodging and shattering are also important considerations in selecting a variety. Finally, quality of the grain is of utmost importance. Texas has built up an enviable reputation for good quality wheat in recent years. For the High and Rolling Plains, the varieties Tascosa, Caddo, Scout, Warrior and Sturdy are first choice because of their yielding ability, high quality and good storm resistance. Kaw is a good quality variety but has weak straw, so it is recommended only for dryland production.

Second choice because of weaker gluten are the Triumph strains, Crockett, Concho and Wichita. Under dryland production, they often have good milling and baking quality but are weaker than desired under irrigation. Agronomically, they are less desirable because of weak straw or tendency to shatter.

Sturdy is the new short stature wheat especially recommended for growing under irrigation on highly fertile soils where lodging is a problem. It is not recommended for dryland wheat production as it may be too short to cut satisfactorily. Under dryland conditions, Sturdy sometimes yields less and has a lower test weight than Tascosa, Caddo and Scout.

These varieties are all satisfactory for winter grazing under most High Plains conditions. However, grazing of the early varieties should be discontinued earlier in the spring than later varieties. This practice avoids yield reduction caused by damage to heads which are beginning to form.

CATFISH AND HUSHPUPPIES ARE A REAL AMERICAN TREAT

Austin — Catfish and hushpuppies are as American as Mom's apple pie and the Fourth of July, and Bill Schwartz, head of Seafood Marketing for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, says he wouldn't change that for anything.

But Schwartz says there are other ways to prepare catfish, equally patriotic and just as delicious, and the Department is offering a booklet called "Fancy Catfish" to prove it. Persons interested in the booklet may write "Fancy Catfish," Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Office Building, Austin, Texas 78701.

Compiled by the U. S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, the recipes in the full color booklet were gleaned from "Mississippi river boats, palatial plantations, and Cajun cottages."

To be sure, catfish and hushpuppies weren't left out. In fact there are recipes for this great American combination for up to 100 portions. But there are also recipes for Plantation Catfish with orange-riced stuffings, New Orleans Catfish, Cajun Catfish, and Bayou Catfish.

There are 18 recipes in all, including one for Catfish Gumbo which ought to get the taste buds to stand up and take notice.

Schwartz says "Fancy Catfish" is being distributed to help the relatively new catfish farming industry as well as the fresh water commercial fishermen in Texas. Statistics compiled by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department show that there are now 1356.5 acres of water in Texas being used for catfish cultivation. These waters will produce an estimated 3694 tons of fish in 1968.

Persons who know their fish think catfish is the best tasting freshwater fish," says Schwartz, "and persons who know their catfish think pond raised catfish are about the best."

PRE-REGISTRATION DATES SET AT CLARENDON COLLEGE

Pre - registration for freshman students and veterans will be held at Clarendon College August 26 - September 7. Office hours will be from 9:00 - 5:00, Monday through Friday and from 9:00 - 12:00 on Saturday.

The purpose of pre - registration is to allow freshmen students ample time for consultation and for the completion of their schedules prior to regular registration.

Such an arrangement is an advantage, one, particularly for the student who often feels bewildered and frustrated with his first experience of enrolling in college, and who might find classes already unfilled and closed should he wait until later to register. Tuition and fees are not due until regular freshman registration on September 18th.

The Veterans Administration is urging all veterans to pre - register in order to avoid delay in the processing of applications and payment. Payment will be authorized in advance for all pre - enrolled veterans.

The Registrar's Office advises all freshmen students and veterans to take advantage of this convenience offered by Clarendon College.

PAYING DELINQUENT TAXES

For various reasons thousands of taxpayers end up receiving a bill from Internal Revenue Service for taxes and interest they owe but have not paid. It is good business to pay your return or before you receive a bill from Internal Revenue. Unless the tax statement is erroneous, most taxpayers will gain by arranging for the money to pay their account. If, due to an error, Internal Revenue sends you a statement for taxes that you do not owe, you should take immediate action to get the error corrected. In any case, don't try to play the "let - them - wait - a - little - longer game."

The trained professionals follow a system — the end of this system is usually a levy on your bank account, a levy on your wages or seizure of your property for your delinquent tax account. The Revenue Officer is trained to be completely fair, but the tax law requires him to be very firm.
