CHILD PHOTOGRAPHER TO BE IN TURKEY AND QUITAKE, FRIDAY
It is an undisputed fact that responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publisher of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures they must all be of uniform size and quality.

An expert children's photographer with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work will be here Friday, November 21.

Pictures will be taken at the Valley Tribune office at Turkey Friday from 9 a. m. until 1:30 p. m., and at the Valley Tribune office in Quitaque from 2:30 until 6 p. m.

NO CHARGE TO PARENTS

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonfide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper, to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want to buy prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to you.

The More Pictures The Better

This paper simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more the better. So the mothers and fathers of the community in which this paper circulates should remember the date November 21, that is Friday of this week, and bring their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad afterward if you did and very sorry if you did not. The kids will have fun as well as the mother and dad, and the youngsters too, will be very proud to see their pictures in print later.

USDA Announces Details Of 1969 Cotton Program

The U. S. Department of Agriculture on October 31, 1969, announced 1970-crop upland cotton price-support loan and payment rates.

The national average price-support loan rate for Middling 1-inch cotton at average location has been set at 20.25 cents per pound for the 1970 crop. Price-support loans available to program operators for different individual qualities will be based on the Middling 1-inch rate. This is the same rate as that applicable to the 1969 crop.

The price-support payment rate to program operators has been established at 16.80 cents per pound. This payment is in addition to the price-support loan. It is the amount necessary in addition to the loan to provide producers at least 65 percent of parity on cotton produced within the acreage permitted under the program. The payment is made to cooperators on acreage planted within the domestic allotment which is 65 percent of the total farm allotment. The 1970 rate compares to a 1969 program price-support rate of 14.73 cents per pound.

This announcement, along with previous determinations, gives cotton producers basic information on next year's program prior to a mail referendum December 15, on 1970-crop cotton marketing quotas. In the referendum, at least two-thirds of the upland cotton growers voting must approve marketing quotas before the essential features of the program can go into effect. If more than one-third of the growers vote "no" the only cotton program will be price support at 50 percent of parity for growers who do not exceed their acreage allotment.

Payments under the program would be subject to any limitation that might be required by Congress in the Department of Agriculture appropriations.

Quitaque Teams Won Two, Lost Two

The Quitaque High basketball teams drove to Adrian last Friday night where a couple of upsets took place during the course of the evening.

The Pantherettes, who won over Adrian here a couple of weeks ago, were playing without Glenna Ramsey who was ill, lost 38-48. Jackie Cheatham, who had been averaging more than 30 points per game, managed "only" 23 points in that one. Vanessa Robison tossed in 10 points and Wanda Ramsey added 5.

The Panthers, who were beaten by Adrian here, sort of upset the dope bucket and the Matadors 54-47.

The Panthers started slow and trailed 9-14 at the end of the first quarter and 21-28 at half-time. The Panthers came on fast in the third period and tied the count at 36-36, which seemed to shake the Matadors a bit and the Panthers went on to win.

Stanley Price and Gary Chandler shared scoring honors with 17 points each, with Perry close behind with 15. Jerry Merrell added 5 to the total.

Tuesday night of this week the QHS teams hosted Silvertown High and barely managed to break even, the Pantherettes losing their third game in a row, 59-64 while the boys managed to outlast the Owls 47-41.

The Owlettes have come up with a pretty good team this year and they earned the win.

The visitors jumped into a 25-16 point first period lead and Quitaque fans hopes of a victory were dimmed when Jackie Cheatham picked up four personal fouls in the opening period. She sat out the entire second quarter. Glenna Ramsey, Wanda Ramsey and Vanessa Robison, however, played the visitors on even terms during the second quarter as Quitaque was still trailing by nine points, 30-39 at half-time.

The Owlettes extended their lead a point to 55-45 during the third quarter but the Pantherettes finished strong to narrow the margin of victory to five points, the first time Silvertown has been able to win a basketball game from Quitaque in several years.

Both teams was hurt by the whistle tooters who, according to this reporters unofficial book-keeping called 29 fouls on each team. Quitaque lost three starters due to fouls and Silvertown two.

Jackie Cheatham won scoring honors despite having to sit out one quarter, burning the nets for 38 points. Wood was high for the Owlettes with 28.

The Panthers never could get going in their game with the Owls, who were playing their first game of the season.

Stanley Price scored 14 points for high honors for Quitaque. Jerry Merrell hit for 11 points, Perry Brunson scored 9, Chandler 5, Ronnie Hutcherson 4, Danny Jones 2 and Scotty Stark 1 point.

Quitaque goes to Springlake Friday night and next Tuesday night the Pantherettes will go to Canyon for a return match with the Owlettes. The Panthers do not have a game Tuesday.

Bob Seiff and Rod Adamson went last weekend in Canyon with Allan Seiff.

Mrs. H. F. Coker Jr. and child visited in Duran with her father, C. C. Coker over the weekend.

A Time To Pause And Say "Thank You"

Our Pilgrim Forefathers conceived Thanksgiving as a day to stop and take stock of the good things of life. They had, as we do today, a constant threat of upheaval. They too were beset with problems — economic, political — big and small . . . but they found time, once each year, to thank God and thank each other for all the good things they enjoyed!

We are thankful for the opportunity we have of being part of a thriving community and for you our friends and customers, whom we are privileged to serve. We pledge our continued efforts to be worthy of your patronage.

QUITAQUE WITNESSES RESUME REGULAR MEETINGS

Members of the Quitaque Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses resumed their regular schedule of meetings here this week after having spent three days in Plainview where they attended a Circuit assembly in the Plainview High School Auditorium.

According to Von Tiffin, presiding minister for the local congregation, were on hand to hear the main public lecture on the subject, "True Worship Versus False" which was given by the principal speaker, L. M. Dugan, district minister from New York.

"Many centuries ago a religious confrontation took place which is of great and vital interest to us today," Dugan told the audience. "The issue was not apparent at the time; but as the Bible shows, it was one of God-ship—which God to worship, the true God or the false. The confrontation was between Elijah, a prophet of the true God and worshippers of a false God called Baal. The followers of Baal were destroyed because of their failure to worship the true God."

Updating his subject, Dugan went on to indicate that on the modern scene of today, we observe a similar spirit, a liberal religious spirit—believe what you want, worship as you like or not at all.

"People today believe it is narrow-mindedness to believe yours is the only true religion. Yet the Bible proves, as in Elijah's example there is only one right religion—only one, true, Almighty true God." Dugan added, "This same issue, 'Which God will I worship,' is the dominating question each one of us must face today in 1969. 'What must I do to prove I worship the true God? Will I be weak and passive about my worship, or will I be strong and vigorous?'"

According to Dugan, "Since the late 1800's Jehovah's Witnesses have repeatedly announced that Jehovah's day is near. Each human must get on His side or be destroyed."

Local Witnesses are intensifying their efforts to contact people in this area with an invitation to study the Bible.

If you are planning to send cookies as Christmas gifts, now is the time to do so to insure that they will arrive on time. Here are some tips on preparing cookies for mailing and two of my favorite cookie recipes.

Cookies travel best when packed well; mailable kinds include soft drop cookies, filled cookies and chewy bar cookies.

Use a strong cardboard box or metal container for mailing cookies. Line the container with aluminum foil and put a cushion of crumpled paper towels or waxed paper on the bottom.

Cookies with honey and fruit improve in flavor with age. Applesauce, molasses, oatmeal and mince-ment cookies are good packers.

Bake bar cookies in foil pie pans and mail them in the pans, suggests Frances Reasonover, Extension foods and nutrition specialist.

Wrap cookies in pairs, back to back, with foil or plastic wrapping to seal in flavor. Pack snugly in rows with heavy cookies at the bottom. Cover each layer with a cushion of paper towels and top with a cushion of paper towels.

Wrap the filled box in foil and heavy brown paper and tie securely.

Rose*

Look closely at a so-called perfect rose! Scan the petals; you will find they are far from perfect. But uneven shapes, blemishes or misshapen stems will not spoil the delicate color, rich fragrance and sheer beauty of the total flower.

How clearly a rose illustrates that nothing in life is truly perfect! But, rather than discourage us, this should give us fresh confidence and strength.

God did not make the rose perfect—nor did He make us perfect. Yet He thinks none the less of us for our faults and blemishes. In His eyes we always have another chance. But it is up to us to take it.

Start by going to the church of your choice next Sunday.

BROADCAST COTTON GETS CLOSE LOOK

A revolutionary change in cotton production is now undergoing close examination by farmers, agricultural researchers and county agricultural agents on the Texas High Plains.

This change involves planting cotton in narrow rows, usually with a wheat drill. Since the narrow rows preclude inter-row tillage, this type of production is often referred to as "broadcast" cotton.

Fifteen cotton farmers from throughout the area are presently growing 5 to 20-acre blocks of broadcast cotton in cooperation with the Texas A & M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock, points out County Agricultural Agent Ken Cook.

The Center has been testing this method of production for several years and has developed production techniques and equipment. It has three broadcast, finger-type strippers which will be used in harvesting these trial plots.

Personnel at the Center admit that this method of production has many unanswered questions. Yet, achievements over the years have been encouraging, say Dr. Levon Ray, cotton breeder, and Dr. Bob Metzger, Extension agronomist.

"Yields, for instance, have generally exceeded those of 40-inch rows and by as much as 25 percent," they point out. "Further encouragement stems from the fact that cotton planted broadcast fashion in mid-May had 90 percent open bolls by October 1. "A reduction in field operations is another benefit. This year one particular farmer grew a plot of broadcast cotton with eight less field operations."

But now let's look on the other side of the coin. Although these achievements are exciting and provide almost unlimited possibilities, this type of production, unfortunately, provides no magic formula for eliminating problems such as disease, insects, hail and poor management that plague cotton farmers.

"In fact, producing broadcast cotton demands more precise managerial skills in variety selection, weed control, and irrigation. There is indeed much to learn about producing broadcast cotton. A desirable variety for high plant populations is several years away. The best irrigation time and rate must still be worked out. Fertility practices must be tested. Answers to some questions will be available after this year's harvest of the 15 pilot test plots.

"At this time broadcast cotton production cannot be generally recommended. Certainly, a producer doing an inadequate job on 40-inch row production cannot expect miracles from the narrow-row method and should not attempt it until his present production deficiencies are corrected."

We suggest that any producer interested in narrow-row production should seek out all available information to date from his local county agricultural agent or the A&M Center at Lubbock. No farmer should venture into this type of production unless he has a broadcast-type harvester available.

With the availability of broadcast-type harvesters, cotton producers might profitably shift to planting patterns other than the very narrow rows. Two rows per bed and 20-inch rows have given yield increases of about 10 percent over normal 40-inch rows. For sorghums and soybeans, 27-inch rows are used by some growers. With these similar row spacings, the crop could still be cultivated for weed control and presently available varieties would be better adapted to them than to the very narrow row spacings.

Dr. Ray and Metzger feel that despite the obstacles ahead, the potential benefits from this production method demand a total effort in making this concept a reality. Why such a positive attitude?

"One reason is that this method of producing cotton strikes at the very heart of the major production problem on the High Plains—that of producing immature, low micronaire cotton. With a very early-maturing variety, this production method could knock a full month off production time and move the fiber development period back into the warmer part of the season.

"This reduction of production time alone could be the salvation of the cotton industry, especially in the northern part of the area," contend Ray and Metzger. "The early freeze this fall points up the immense value of a system that allows production of a more mature, higher quality cotton at a lower cost."
