New Office Hours

The City of Turkey will have new office hours from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The new time will take effect October 1, 1998.

Turkey Volunteer Fire Department News

Due to the fact that Hall County will not help financially with the Turkey Volunteer Fire Department, the City Council of Turkey is forced to charge land owners with the expense of fighting fires out of the city limits of Turkey.

These expenses include gas, tires, food and drinks. D. M. Cogdell will be exempt from any charges incurred as he has been a great benefactor to the Turkey Volunteer Fire Department.

Quitauque Volunteer Fire Department News

During the month of August, the Quitauque Volunteer Fire Department was able to get some much needed rest. The group hosted the Caprock Jamboree in Silverton on the first Saturday in August. On the 15th a car fire was reported to which they responded. The rest of the month was quiet.

The fire department would like to inform the community that due to your generous support, they are now on the way to being better equipped. Individual fire gear has been ordered to outfit the volunteers. The Texas Forest Service has provided another 5-ton truck, as well, which has been equipped with a pump and is fully operational.

Without all of you standing behind the Quitauque Volunteer Fire Department, these things would not be possible.

The Quitauque Volunteer Fire Department gratefully acknowledge all of your support.

Valley Booster Club To Serve Hamburgers

The Valley Booster Club will be having a hamburger supper in the Valley School Cafeteria before the Homecoming Football Game with Crowell.

All parents of Valley students are encouraged to donate brownies for the hamburger supper.

Orders are also being taken for jackets with the Patriot logo. All proceeds will go toward the Awards Banquet in the spring.

Support your Valley Patriots!

Present were Suzie Johnson, Mayor; Louis Randall, Barry Long, Vicki Lindsey and Rick Mullin, Council Members; City Manager, Jerry Landry; City Secretary, Theresa Clinton; Gary Johnson, Chairman of the Planning Commission; Russell Yates and Jim Weeks, representing the fire department and Deputy Steve Farley.

THEN NOW!

Happiness! What a wonderful word! It even makes you smile when you say it! What brings happiness to our lives? Do we have to earn it or does it just happen or do we have to work very hard to get a bit of happiness in our lives? One person has said that happiness is to be content with what we do not have as well as what we do have. Benjamin Franklin also said that happiness is produced not so much by great pieces of good fortune that seldom happen, as by little advantages that occur every day.

One way to bring more happiness your way is to begin smiling more. The act of smiling according to psychologist actually flexes two key facial muscles that trigger the same changes in the brain activity that occur when you're feeling naturally happy. So when you "fake a smile" you can actually be making yourself happier! Now how is that for a happy thought?

Our happiness does not depend on age, sex, money family, job or location. Most happy people seem to have a sense of self-esteem, are optimistic, have a sense of purpose and accomplishment. Sitting around watching TV does not give one a sense of accomplishment, it just passes the time and this is time not spent productively. But when a person is absorbed in what they are participating in whether it be a job, painting, or caring for their family or home, they tend to be happier.

Many things can help to make us happier. Such as enjoying the moment—just for the moment not the end result. We are much happier when we feel that we are in control of our minutes and hours of time and that they are not just fast passing us by. A happy person usually has an enriching and fulfilling relationship with another person. Happy people take the time to care for their relationships with those important to them. To be happy we need to have plenty of rest so that we will be full of vigor for the many tasks we are required to perform each day. Happy people are usually very active people also. The more active you are the more you want to be active! Bored people are not happy people! So we need to get busy and sharpen all those skills that are now lying dormant in us and as a result we will once again be on the road to happiness.

An old English prayer says it quite well—Take time to be friendly, it is the road to happiness. Take time to dream—it is hitching your wagon to a star. Take time to love and to be loved—it is the privilege of the gods. Take time to look around, it is too short a day to be selfish. Take time to laugh—it is the music of the soul.

Identifying The Backyard Butterfly

by Linda Purcell
On September 8, 1998, The Women gathered for a luncheon, catered by "Unique Temptations," followed by an excellent slide program on "Butterflies - Jewels of Nature".

There are about 17,000 species of butterflies in the world. Approximately 700 species are found in the United States.

As one of the very few butterfly collectors in Texas, Dr. Lombardini, a professor of Pharmacology at Texas Tech University Health and Science Center, shared information about his hobby—lepidoptry—concentrating on the surrounding areas from Post, Texas, Quitaque and Caprock Canyons State Park then north to Palo Duro.

Some of the most easily identified common butterfly families discussed were the swallowtail, whites and sulphurs, gossamer wings, satyrs and skippers, hackberry, snout butterflies and the milkweed butterfly. Dr. Lombardini talked about the various nectar plants that attract butterflies, the shy and aggressive behavior patterns and the life stages of a butterfly.

Throughout the slide presentation, Dr. Lombardini shared many historical facts about the panhandle area. Questions were answered at the end of the program.

Across the United States, there are places that have large conservatories filled with butterflies and plants. Being in one is a very special and exciting experience.

Tejano After Dark Stars "Dr. Fred" Galvan

"Dr. Fred" Galvan, DJ, started the Tejano After Dark Program Sunday, September 13 at 11:35 p.m. the KFDA News Channel 10 in Amarillo. "Dr. Fred" of Tejano FM started a video show entitled "Tejano After Dark." The show will be aired every Sunday and will contain exclusive artist interviews, the best Tejano videos, the latest Tejano hits plus your chance to win great prizes.

Dr. Fred Galvan, a Tejano FM DJ, has been in the Tejano Music for two years. He has been studying for two years at Amarillo College Radio, and TV production. Also, he has been involved as a DJ for country music and a wide variety of music as well.

The idea of introducing "Tejano After Dark" came as a result of lack of this material in this area. Tejano music is enjoyed among people of all ages. So, Fred and his wife Shalina worked for months to bring you this concept widely accepted in other parts of Texas. "Dr. Fred" graduated from Valley High School two years ago.

Safe Pest Management in Schools

provided by Pammy Millican
CEA-Ag

In the past, a custodian or teacher may have used bug spray to fog a roach-infested locker. Now, they must consider more environmentally-friendly solutions.

Extension entomologist Dr. Mike Merchant says pest control is something parents, students and teachers don't think much about but are quick to complain about.

Now by state law, schools must use integrated pest management, I-P-M, to reduce the chemical use. The I-P-M approach encompasses four areas. Sanitation is considered first. Thorough cleaning can make a big difference. Physical controls such as light traps and adding caulk to windows and doors are used.

Beneficial insects represent the biological component. Pesticides are the last resort. In many cases, changing the environment can help. For instance, cockroaches need food, water and a place to hide. By properly storing food, fixing leaky pipes and removing boxes, chances of infestation can be reduced.

A series of videos to help school staffers deal with insect problems without compromising student health is now available through the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Ag Distribution and Supply, P. O. Box 1209, Bryan, Texas 77806, (409) 845-06571.

Turkey Happenings

by j. guest

Veta and Buddy Colvin had special guests over the Labor Day Weekend: their son Tom and Cathy Barr of Sulphur Springs, daughter Linda and two granddaughters, Destiny and Ryan of Round Rock, aunt, Mae Ross of Lubbock. Then on Thursday night, Clarine Geissler and Barbara June Wynn of Carlsbad, New Mexico visited with the Colvins.

Lawana Cruse has been showered with plenty of good news, the discovery of the advertisement curtain that hung in the Gem theater, the $10,000.00 grant, and even greater than that, the birth of twin great-grandsons, Everett and Edward. Wynter is the mother of the 5 and 6 pounds twins.

Oleta and Louis Randell are being tested - almost beyond endurance. It hasn't been long since their washing machine flooded. Now, a huge truck meandered over into their yard at about 10:30 at night, scraped a fence and air conditioner, backed up, and then continued on their way. According to Oleta other things are still cropping up to test their endurance. They'll manage!

It makes a person feel good to see couples wandering throughout the town, checking in to all the points of interest, then going to the Senior Citizens center for family visiting. The Proctors had a three-day reunion this week. More will be written later.

Talked to Mary Beth Adamson who moved to Lubbock not too long ago. She is doing great and has, as you might expect, become very involved in her church and in the neighborhood. Lubbock's gain was our loss, but we are happy for you, Mary Beth.

Rod and Robin Mullin of Burleson, Texas made a surprise visit to help his mother, Jean Mullin celebrate her birthday. Dean and Jean carried Rick, Rod and Robin, Lillian and Hoss and Joyce to the Line Shack in Memphis for a time of laughter, discussions and a super Gafford birthday dinner.

Several Turkey people were seen at the Cactus Theater in Lubbock for the Buddy Holly Musical Play: Bryan and Shadi Buchanan, Doyle Dean and Jay Proctor, Gelene Proctor, the Pat Carsons, Delores Price,

Lisa Campbell, Ms. Bill Carson, Lawana Cruse, Debra and Tara Smith, and Marie Cruse. Betty Stewart of Lovington, New Mexico met Marie and Lawana for the play and then came on to Turkey to spend the night with Marie. They reported a super presentation of Buddy Holly and his Rock and Roll music. A little nostalgia was created by the trip back to those Rock and Roll years. Lawana also reported that it was interesting to see what they had done with their little theater.

Juanita Meacham has been here for a visit with her daughter, Paulette and other friends. Richy, Sandy Fuston and their daughters were also here visiting with their parents, Paulette and Rick and Sandy Fuston.

Lawana's daughter, Melody, husband and children of Floydada were here this last weekend for a visit. They probably also visited the new twins.

Arly Williams has been busy lately. On Labor Day, she and Terry Doc and Charlotte of Abilene; C. J. Lee, Cole and Caitlyn of Marble Falls; Greg and Devon Williams of San Antonio; Harvey and Betty Williams of Clarendon; Bridget and Richie Johnson of Idalou; Kelly Cash and Brittany Kelly of Anson, all went to the cabin at Llano, Texas. They spent time visiting, guys fishing, and several cleaning up and repairing and working on the cabin.

Arly also stated that Monty Bray of Houston and his two sons Darren and Doug spent some time at the camp at the ranch this last week. Terry Doc, Harvey and Doyle Dean Proctor went out for visiting and steaks on Saturday.

Bob (Robert Earl) Tucker of Lubbock visited with Louis and Oleta Randell Saturday morning. Bob is formerly from Turkey. His father was the Assembly of God Church preacher here.

Mrs. Ruth McKay had a wonderful surprise this past week when her daughter from Dallas came and brought with her Mrs. Debra K. Smith, a granddaughter which Mrs. McKay had not seen in 12 years. Debra is the daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Sewell, deceased, from Sacramento, California.

Also visiting with Mrs. McKay from Dallas were Shara and Matthew Conady, Tracey, Josh, Jasmine and Jay Canady and Mrs. Wilma McFarlin and Natalie. Joining them from Memphis were Mr. David McKay, Lonita Brewer and Sharon Par Hearn.

Mrs. McKay enjoyed the children and grandchildren for a week. She said now that everyone has departed it was lonesome for awhile but she was very happy over the visit.

Most children need to eat more than three square meals a day to get all the nutrition necessary for their growing and changing bodies. But, what kids eat for snacks and when they eat them can make or break your healthy intentions.

Notice of Public Hearing on Tax Increase

The City of Quitaque will hold a public hearing on a proposal to increase total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll by 2.59% percent. Your individual taxes may increase or decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in taxable value of all other property and the tax rate that is adopted.

The public hearing will be held on September 28 at City Hall at 5:00 p.m.

- FOR the proposal:
AGAINST the proposal:
PRESENT and not voting:
ABSENT:

The following table compares taxes on an average home in this taxing unit last year to taxes proposed on the average home this year. Again, your individual taxes may be higher or lower, depending on the taxable value of your property.

	Last Year	This Year
Average residence homestead value	$ 20,000.	$ 20,000.
General exemptions available (amount available on the average homestead, not including senior citizen's or disabled person's exemptions)	$ -0-	$ -0-
Average taxable value	$ 20,000	$ 20,000
Tax rate	.5050	.5050
Tax	$ 101.00	$ 101.00

Under this proposal, taxes on the average homestead would neither increase/decrease by -0- or 0% percent compared with last year's taxes. Comparing tax rates without adjusting for changes in property value the tax rate would neither increase/decrease by -$0- per $100 of taxable value or 0% percent compared to last year's tax rate. These tax rate figures are not adjusted for changes in the taxable value of property.

Hello to everyone again from all the residents and staff of Lockney Health and Rehabilitation Center. Our Floyd County Fair Days have passed us by once again. We sold Spunkmeyer cookies to help our activities fund. We did very well. We will be buying something to use for the residents here at our facility. At this time we are still brainstorming on what to buy.

We would like to thank everyone who supported us. I, personally, would like to thank a few people who have always supported me.

I would like to Thank: Sherry Coker, our Administrator, Anna Vorkavich, our D.O.N.; Willetta Isom our B.O.M.; Julie Zentell our F.R.D. and Speech/Language Pathologist, Pat Gisonno, our Social Service Director, Janie Bursiaga our Housekeeping & Laundry Dept Head, and Delia Sierra, who has been helping me with activities. I really appreciate everything you guys have helped me accomplish. I couldn't have done it without you. Thank You!

We will be sponsoring Republican Tom Haywood on October the 5th. We will have more information on this later.

We have lost one of our residents, Pat Stansell. He passed away Sept. 15th. Let us keep him and his loved ones in our prayers.

This is all for now... until next time.

Patriots Drop One To Nazareth

By Chris Burch

The Valley Patriots traveled to Nazareth Friday to meet a tough team. The game was close but Valley came up short in the end losing 13-0.

The Swifts took the opening kickoff and the first 6 minutes of the game to lead 7-0. The score remained that way throughout the first half with Valley having a chance to score but coming away empty handed.

The second half saw both teams able to move the ball, but they were unable to score until late in the fourth quarter. Nazareth then struck again from 28 yards out on a bootleg pass.

Overall the Patriots played a good game and other than a few big plays, played well defensively. Offensively Valley rushed 34 times for 190 yards, led by Cory Chandler who rushed 13 times for 92 yards, and Nathan Wheeler who rushed 10 times for 63 yards. B.J. Price led receivers with 2 receptions for 35 yards.

Defensively the Patriots were led by Nathan Wheeler who had 13 tackles and 1 sack, Ben Pigg who had 11 tackles, Morgan Payne who had 9 tackles a batted pass and 1 sack, Cory Chandler who had 9 tackles and a knocked down pass and Roman Hernandez who had 13 tackles.

Valley will take on the Crowell Wildcats for Homecoming Friday night. Come support the Patriots.

Finding College Scholarship Money Gets Easier

If you are seeking scholarship money to help pay for rising college costs, there is excellent help now available. Currently there are nearly 400,000 scholarship and grant sources to help pay for college costs, including tuition, room & board, text books, lab fees, and other expenses. Over 80% of these scholarships do not depend on financial need or high grades but are awarded based on factors such as a student's interests, activities, field of study, age, ethnic background or parent's work or military service.

Yet, according to the U. S. Department of Education and financial aid experts, many students are missing out on financial aid opportunities available to them simply because they are not aware of the scholarship process and do not know how to locate scholarships that can help them. According to financial aid experts, "Students who take the initiative to find out what sources they qualify for are usually successful in finding either part or all of their education."

Ideally, students should begin the process of identifying scholarship sources starting in the spring semester of their junior year in high school. However, as long as there are college bills to pay, even for later years in college or graduate school, it is never too late to find out what money is available to help. Each

Valley Jr High vs. Nazareth

By Coach Ramsey

The Valley Junior High Football team opened the season Thursday, September 10th against the Nazareth Swifts. The Patriots came up on the short end of an 8-0 score.

The game was a hard fought defensive battle until about halfway through the fourth period, when Nazareth connected on a long pass for the only touchdown of the game.

J.V. Results

By Coach Saul

The J.V. played the Lockney Freshmen last Thursday night and excited the home crowd with a very spirited performance.

In the 1st quarter, Lockney jumped out to a quick 8-0 lead. Valley's defense stiffened after that, however, and kept the Patriots in the game until the offense finally got untracked in the 4th quarter.

With about 2 minutes left in the game, Ryan Wellman scored on a 2 yard T.D. run. Ryan then scored on a 3 yard run for the two point conversion. The final score was 8-8.

Members of the Valley J.V. Team are Archie Ortega, Reuben Martinez, Donny Cagle, Hector Mendoza, Jessie Hernandez, Richard Wellman, Ryan Wellman, Damian Regalado, Vance Farley, Cory Varnell, Cole Calvert, Jessie McClellan, and Wes Henson.

The J.V. plays next on Thursday the 17th at Crowell following the Jr. High game.

The Jr. High will play at 4:00 instead of 5:00 since this is the same night as the Homecoming bonfire.

There's nothing like an old friend, someone who knew you back when your wings were not yet dry. There are no substitutes for shared memories and experiences.

Mrs. Turner and daughter, Mrs. Heather Blount of Lubbock attended the wedding ceremony of Kalico Karr, Saturday night held at the Methodist Church in Spur. Fiber Helps Keep Weight In Line

Foods high in fiber tend to be low in fat and usually low in calories. Fiber's bulk also provides a sense of fullness which can keep hunger at bay. High fiber foods usually take time to chew and therefore can help slow down how fast you eat. Together, these qualities make fiber a serious asset for any waist watcher.

Drought Help Is Available

Many farmers and ranchers may be looking at carryover debts as a result of this year's drought.

This appears to be one of the worst years in recent history where that not only the production is going to be low, the prices also are abnormally low. With this, many decisions are now being made by the farmer and the banker as to what to do next year.

The Farm Service Agency (FSA) has several loan programs that may help in the upcoming year. Ross James, Farm Loan Manager of the local FSA office gave this information. Due to the drought all counties in Texas have been designated for emergency loan assistance. The designation lets the local FSA office make emergency loans. The loans are available to eligible applicants with the requirement being:

- Are established family farm operator.
- Are a citizen or permanent resident of the U. S.
- Have the ability, training or experience necessary to repay the loan.

- Have suffered a qualifying physical loss or a production loss of at least 30% in any essential farm or ranch enterprise.
- Cannot obtain commercial credit.

- Can provide collateral to secure the EM loan.
- Have repayment ability.

James said, "The loan limit is up to 80% of the actual loss, with a maximum indebtedness under the program of $500,000.00."

The terms of the loan are based on the collateral given, Non Real Estate Loans are from 1 to 7 years with Real Estate up to 40 years. The current interest rate on these loans are 3.75%.

James also said there are regular operating loans with an interest rate presently at 6%, or farmers may just need an injection of collateral or security to get their financing under the FSA guaranteed program. FSA could give a lender up to 90% guaranteed loan.

These and other programs that FSA offers will hopefully provide some assistance during these unusual hard times, so that we can survive until times are better, James said. Farm Safety/ Health Week In Texas September 20-26

The week of September 20 - 26 has been declared Farm Safety and Health Week in Texas, according to an announcement by Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry. This year's theme - "Precision Farming Includes Safety and Health" - reminds producers that safety and health are important management tools in all agricultural operations.

"It is important for everyone involved in our agricultural industry to promote safety awareness and follow safe work practices," Perry said. "The health and safety of all our agricultural workers is vital to Texas."

Farming is considered among the most dangerous occupations in the United States. In 1997, more than 700 people were killed and more than 150,000 people severely injured in farm-related activities across the United States.

Although Cottle County has had no deaths or serious injuries attributed to farming this year, there have been numerous cases in the county in past years.

The Texas Department of Agriculture stresses safety year round through its Farm and Ranch Safety program. This program provides friendly tips and reminders for producers and their families:

- Have a safety first attitude - follow safe work practices.
- Equip tractors with an approved rollover protective structure and wear seat belts.
- Do not carry passengers or other riders on tractors or equipment.
- Inspect your farm or ranch and equipment for any hazards, and correct them.
- When operating equipment, follow safe work procedures described in the operator's manual.
- Attend farm safety, first aid, and defensive driving courses.

HAY HOTLINE number, to get a list of suppliers who have hay : 1-877-429-1998.

Texas farmers and others hit by drought have had to tap into hay reserves, leaving them short for winter. Low prices on livestock make it a bad time to take animals to market, so farmers are caught in a real bind.

Hay Net, begun last month, and expected to last six months, involves 2,800 Farm Service Agency offices nationwide. To participate, farmers who need hay and those with extra hay call their local FSA offices. Workers there place farmers' names on computer lists which are accessible at other state offices. Once farmers are linked, they negotiate a price, and a way to transport the hay provided by Pammy Millican, CEA-Ag.

The beef industry is on the verge of major genetic advancements that should insure consumers get more tender beef. It is predicted that within the next five years, genetic advancements will dramatically change the way cattle are bred. It will be a giant leap forward in improving the quality of beef.

Researchers at Texas A&M and elsewhere are very close to identifying the genes that make meat tender. Experiment Station geneticist Dr. Bill Turner says once that technology is commercialized, cattle producers will be able to select their herds based on maps that mark the desired genes. It's referred to as marker-assisted selection.

Turner says once the technology is placed in the hands of purbred cattle producers, we will see replication of those genes distributed to commercial herds. For many years, Texas A&M researchers have compared the genetic makeup of Angus and Brahman cattle. Now they're embarking on a much larger study. They'll genotype six-thousand head of cattle. Geneticist Dr. Jerry Taylor says they'll look for genes that cause differences in tenderness and marbling among 15 breeds. If a bull can be determined to have a desirable gene, producers will not have to wait and assess its offspring.

Therefore using genetics can greatly speed up progress in beef production. Still, Turner warns that genetic selection is not a magic bullet. Herds must still be managed well because of the effect environment can have on beef quality.

Traffic Laws For Farmers and Ranchers

provided by Pammy Millican, CEA-Ag.

Most of us seldom need more than a regular driver's license, but to run their business, farmers and ranchers often do. Because of their unusual license usage, there are a few things which many farmers and ranchers may not realize when it comes to Texas highway laws.

One is that they are not required to get a commercial driver's license if they are carrying their own product from harvest to processing or storage, so long as they are doing it for themselves. DPS Trooper Eddie Carmon says if they do the hauling for someone else, however, they do have to have a commercial license.

The classification depends on the weight of the vehicle. Carmon says they must get a class A license if the combination of vehicles weighs more than 26 thousand pounds. A class B commercial license is required if a single vehicle exceeds 26 thousand pounds and is towing a trailer weighing more than 10 thousand pounds.

Carmon also says hauling anything wider than 12 feet requires a permit, and if a vehicle travels under 35 miles per hour, it must have one of those orange triangular slow moving vehicle signs. And it must be placed on the rear most vehicle. But you have to take it off if you get above 35 miles an hour. Carmon uses the example of cotton trailers going slowly to the gin, but coming back empty and running faster returning from the gin. If they get above 35 and they still have the slow moving vehicle sign attached, the driver can be ticketed.

Carmon also points out that if a tractor is designed with headlights, taillights and flashing lights, the law says those lights must be used when the tractor is operated at night.

Governor George Bush has suspended the requirement that anyone hauling hay beyond 150 miles to obtain a commercial license. The waiver expires in November.

Keeping Rangeland Healthy

provided by Pammy Millican, CEA-Ag.

Experts with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service say it appears drought may become a way of life and their advice is to plan for it each and every year. To help with that, the Extension Service recommends taking pictures of your land.

Extension range specialist Dr. Larry White says one of the biggest mistakes a rancher makes is stocking more cattle after a rain perks up pastures. The rangeland isn't given enough time to recover because not enough leaves are left for photosynthesis. The plant doesn't grow well and develops a shallow root system, which makes it more susceptible to droughts.

Investing in a camera and some film can help solve the problem. Extension associate for water conservation Brandon Leister (LY-stehr) recommends taking a snapshot of your land every month and the comparing year to year. That comparison will make it easier for you to tell how quickly conditions are improving or deteriorating. White says if rangeland is healthy going into a drought and you don't overstock during the drought, it will recover in a short period of time.

White says droughts are more frequent than above average rainfall and ranchers need to be prepared for it at all times.

How Low Should Blood Pressure Go?

(NAPS)—Lowering diastolic blood pressure to an even lower level than doctors now recommend can reduce a person's risk for cardiovascular disease, according to a recent study.

Diastolic blood pressure is the lower number in a reading, which indicates artery pressure between heartbeats.

One of the greatest challenges physicians have in the treatment of hypertension is knowing precisely how low blood pressure should go to reduce cardiovascular problems.

The study, called the Hypertension Optimal Treatment study or HOT, is the largest hypertension outcomes trial ever conducted.

Researchers—who unveiled HOT study results recently at the annual meeting of the International Society of Hypertension—used a baseline therapy of the calcium channel blocker felodipine (Plendil, Astra Merck) to study 18,790 hypertension patients in 26 countries. They found clear benefits to lowering blood pressure to 80, instead of the traditional target of 90.

"What we've learned is that lowering blood pressure just to the point where it isn't 'high' isn't enough," said Claude Lenfant, MD, director of the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute, which is part of the federal government's National Institutes of Health. "If physicians lower blood pressure beyond traditional levels of 90mmHg, there's reason to believe that cardiovascular morbidity and mortality can be diminished."

Simple, Super Snack Ideas

- Dried fruits (such as apricots, cranberries, bananas)
- Ready-to-eat cereals with or without milk
- Peanuts in shells
- Popcorn—flavored with chili powder
- Tortillas filled with cheese and salsa, hummus, or low-fat flavored cream cheese
- Bread sticks topped with shredded parmesan cheese—dip in pizza sauce
- Fruit juice popsicles
- Large-sized pretzels with cheese dip
- Fresh apple slices, melon chunks or grapes—dip in vanilla/cinnamon yogurt
- Graham crackers topped with low-fat cottage cheese sprinkled with cinnamon
- Tortilla chips or pita bread spread with low-fat bean dip

What You Can Do About High Blood Pressure

- Give up smoking
- Limit your alcohol intake
- Cut down your salt
- Lose weight
- Exercise regularly
- Take your medicine

In addition to Plendil, the majority of patients in the study used additional therapy to reach the lower target. Plendil was chosen as the baseline therapy in the HOT study because it has few contraindications, is efficacious, has few drug interactions, has once-daily dosing and is generally well tolerated.

The HOT study also confirmed that the addition of low-dose aspirin to antihypertensive therapy is beneficial in reducing the risk of cardiovascular morbidity and mortality in patients with well-controlled hypertension.

High blood pressure—or hypertension—is the most common cardiovascular disorder and a leading cause of death in the United States. Approximately 250,000 deaths per year in persons aged 65 to 84 years are due to cardiovascular disease.

An elevation of blood pressure increases the workload on the heart (the heart has to pump against a higher resistance).

For more information about hypertension, talk with your doctor.

State Senators Race Closest In History

Lyndon B. Johnson tonight was certified by the state Democratic convention as nominee for U. S. Senator.

Johnson led Coke R. Stevenson by 87 votes in the official party tabulation of the vote in the Aug. 28 runoff primary. It was the closest and one of the bitterest campaigns in Texas history.

Friends of Stevenson offered the convention's resolutions committee a resolution asking the department of justice "to make a thorough investigation of all charges of fraud committed in connection with voting, counting votes and other unlawful acts done in connection with said election."

To come before the convention, the resolution first would have to be approved by the committee.

The executive committee last night by a vote of 29 to 28 certified Johnson's name as the party candidate.##

Mrs. John Couch was taken to the Stanley Hospital in Matador Sunday by the Stewart Ambulance where she is recovering from pneumonia.##

Mrs. Winfred Bush was taken to the hospital in Quanah last week. The cause of her illness was not immediately determined.##

Mrs. Claude Weeks and Mrs. Joe Husband visited Tuesday with Mrs. John Couch who is in a Matador hospital.##

Miss Earnestine Callaway and Miss Pearl Brittain of Red Bay, Alabama spent a part of last week visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Weeks and other relatives in Turkey.##

To her many viewers, Judge Judy's tough-talking, no-nonsense demeanor is well-known. The following quips are excerpted from her Emmy-nominated TV show.

Judge Judy on who's the boss:
• "This is my shop. Don't repeat yourself. Don't speak out of turn. If I tell you to sit down, you sit down."

• "You say no, I say yes, I win because I'm the Judge."

• "When it looks as if you're going to win, you're supposed to keep your mouth shut."

• "I'm not your mother, I'm not gonna fix all your problems—and stop chewing gum in my courtroom!"

• "I'm the boss, applesauce."

Judge Judy on honesty:

• "You want to throw the bull, go someplace else."

• "You told me already three lies and we've only been together for 15 minutes."

• "This lady wouldn't know the truth if you came up and slapped her on the face."

• "Baloney, baloney, baloney!"

Judge Judy on intelligence:

• "Beauty fades; dumb is forever."

• "Look at me, sir!" [pointing to her forehead] "Does it say 'stupid' here?"

• "If you're acting like an idiot, if you're acting like a schlemiel, I'm gonna tell you."

• "This doesn't keep me around

You heard it here: In her TV courtroom, Judge Judy dishes out her own brand of no-nonsense justice.

because I'm gorgeous—they keep me around 'cause I'm smart."

Judge Judy on family:

• "You're supposed to be a parent first and a friend second."

• "A child is not a piece of meat."

Judge Judy on relationships:

• "I have a feeling you two people deserve each other because both of you are irritating me."

• "You're behaving like vindictive babies."

• "Do you know when a gift becomes a loan? When the relationship is over. Did you ever hear that?...Good, because I just made it up."
