Randy Hunter was found dead at the scene of a car accident on the Floydada Caprock Tuesday afternoon. Time of death was set at approximately 12:30 or 1:00 p.m.

Hunter had recently opened up a chiropractic clinic in Quitaque. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday he drove to Floydada to work at the Martin Chiropractic Clinic.

Services are pending at this time with Myers—Long Funeral Directors.

Hunter attended school at Flomot and graduated from Motley County School. He was the son of Wayne and Jimmie Hunter of Flomot and the grandson of Horace Hunter of Quitaque.

Prizes Awarded In Quitaque Christmas Lighting Contest

During the Christmas Season, the residents and businesses of Quitaque had many scenes portrayed by Christmas lights to help everyone get into the Christmas spirit. Many homes and businesses, too numerous to mention were beautifully arrayed in their best finery and lights to help celebrate the season.

Caprock Jamboree Scheduled For January 7, 1995

January 7, 1995 beginning at 7 p.m. The Caprock Jamboree will "set the tempo" for the upcoming year. Another great show has been scheduled for Saturday's show with a variety of music, from country and western to gospel.

Mesquite-grilled hamburgers, with all the trimmings, will be served beginning at 6 p.m. Preparing and serving the meal, as a fund raiser for the 4-H and FFA participants of the Briscoe County Stock Show, will be the "Buyer's Club."

If you haven't been to the Caprock Jamboree in Silverton, Texas lately, here are a few of the highlights that happen every month: free admission; door prizes given away every 30 minutes; "great" music; a $50 prize given to the "Band of the Month" winners and last but certainly not least, a very nice crowd of approximately 400 people from all over the Panhandle.

Make your plans to attend the Caprock Jamboree, held every first Saturday of the month in the County Showbarn in Silverton, Texas.

If you have a lawn chair be sure to bring it, if not, a chair will be provided.

Change Of Time For We The Women

Next Thursday evening at 6 p.m. is the new time set aside for "We The Women" in order to co-operate with other scheduled activities.

We should all place on our calendar the new time of second Thursday of each month through May for We The Women meetings.

1995 will start off with a good schedule of programs. Thursday, January 12, there will be a very interesting and informative program given by the Art Curator of the Panhandle Plains Museum.

There are many things that we, as women, can contribute to our community by working together and pooling our talents and energy.

THEN and NOW!

by Eunice McFall

Well the last bell has been rung for the welcome that we gave to the brave New Year. It is time to settle down after all of the festivities of the holidays and go to work to make the New Year the very best that we can make it. It takes our best effort to make it into a good year for everyone. But it is also well worth all the thought, preparation, skill, time and energy that we invest to make it come out right.

My first thought for the paper for the coming year was to thank all of our readers, advertisers, subscribers and critics for all the help that they have given to us over the past year. We hope to be able to continue to give you a paper that you enjoy reading, that is informative about our local happenings, and gives everyone help on what is available in our area so that we will be more able to use our dollars to shop at home to help keep our businesses open in this area. They are each and everyone needed and much appreciated, even tho they do not hear praise very often.

I have received some complaints also. One from Turkey that felt that we did not have enough news from Turkey in the paper. The person did not sign the complaint so I can only take this means of replying to their complaint. I try very hard to put all the news of all of our area in the paper when I receive it. If I do not know of something that has happened, I can not print it. The news that we get to print in the paper is also related to the amount of advertising that we receive that week. If the advertising is slim, we will not have as much room for the local news as we would like. Printing and postage is getting to be quite expensive for newspapers.

The same week that the letter came from the party at Turkey, we received a renewal from Quitaque, requesting that we put more news in the paper from Quitaque. The same reasons apply for this party too, if we do not know about it we cannot print it. Since we are a weekly and there is only me in the office only three and one-half days a week, you can see that it is impossible for me to make all the social functions, all civic meetings, and call everyone about their news. We have to rely heavily on you our reader to render your news to us. Yes, the readers who live away are interested in where you go and who comes to visit you and if you are ill. This may be their only means of keeping up with old friends.

As to our critics, you can never please everyone all of the time but that does not mean that we should not keep trying to do our very best to get the news to each of you every week.

Once again I want to say Thank You to all of you who have so graciously supported the Valley Tribune and I would ask that you continue to let us know about the happenings in your lives.

Out With The Old

by Ronda Alexander
 January is the time to rid ourselves of our unhealthy lifestyle choices and start anew. Whether or not your "bad habits" include eating too many foods high in fat, sugar or sodium, or you just need to exercise more, the lifestyle choices series is for you.
 The Lifestyles Choices program was developed by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and will be presented in Briscoe County beginning in January. The series will focus on helping adults who are interested in improving their health through healthy weight management. The series will consist of 6 lessons on healthy weight management and 12 follow-up support sessions to encourage weight management.

Lifestyles Choices teaches the basic principles of nutrition, food selection, exercise and fitness, ways to modify recipes, menu-planning at home and tips for eating "on-the-go." To sign-up for the Lifestyle Choices series or to learn more, please call the Briscoe County Extension Office at 823-2131, ext. 12.

Sports World Has Its Own Twelve Days of Christmas

by Walt Henson
 This year in sports has been, to say the least, unique. To get in the yuletide spirit, here's a recap of some of the most famous (and infamous) events, set to one of my favorite holiday songs, "The Twelve Days of Christmas."

On the first day of Christmas, Tonya Harding gave to me a big bruise on my knee.

On the second day of Christmas Dennis Rodman decided to show his hair colors from the rainbow.

On the third day of Christmas, major league baseball showed to me that someone's just a little greedy.

On the fourth day of Christmas, hockey did the same—but nobody takes the blame.

On the fifth day of Christmas, in the SWC (Southwest Conference) five teams got rings.

On the sixth day of Christmas, instead of only fans, NBA players saw Madonna in the stands.

On the seventh day of Christmas, Dallas Mavericks gave me a reason to believe they could have a winning season.

On the eighth day of Christmas, the Cowboys hate to see another Troy Aikman injury.

On the ninth day of Christmas, Dennis Rodman's back with any hair color but black.

On the 10th day of Christmas, George Foreman fought to win—now he's wearing the championship again.

On the 11th day of Christmas, the Cowboys (and I) hope to see a third straight Super Bowl ring.

On the 12th day of Christmas, America waits to see if O. J. is innocent or guilty.

Merry Christmas Yers

by Ann Coker
Christmas visitors in the home of Keith and Bettie Green were James, Debbie and Zach Green of Wichita Falls; Criss, Kaylene, Meagan and Crista Morison and Anita Ocsner of Lubbock; Jana Johnson of Canyon; Les, Sue and Emily Hall and Kathleen Green of Turkey.

Keith and Bettie spent a few days after Christmas in Maumell, Arkansas visiting Jerry, Kathy, Justen and Jaymie Green.

Spending Christmas in Memphis with Dickie, Kim and Justin Cloyd were Bob and Janice Russell.

Our son, Kim Coker, called us Monday evening on his car phone on his and Lisa's way from the Cotton Bowl to their home in Brenham. He said they didn't see much of a game but did see several ex-Tech students they knew. They also saw Ronnie Eudy, of Austin, and enjoyed visiting with him.

Returning home a week ago last Monday was Nadine Baisden after an extended visit with her children. She spent some time in Ogden, Utah with her daughter and family, Marsee Patterson. Then she went to Grapevine and visited in the home of her son, Jim. Jim returned his mother home and spent several days in Turkey.

Enjoyed visiting with Lonny Richmond the other day in the bank. He and his wife were spending last week with his mother, Maudine Richmond. Lonny lives in Houston.

Harold Thrasher, Debbie Cagle, Kayla Doran and Patty Kimbell attended the annual Christmas Party at Turner's Nursing Home with Betty Thrasher.

Guests in the home of Lonnie and Debbie Cagle for the Christmas holidays were Wade and Dustin Cagle, Kim Wall and Kayla Doran, Joe Glen Cagle of Roaring Springs and Harold Thrasher. After Christmas dinner everyone had a long visit on the telephone with Rob, Robbie and Jennifer Holtz of Huron, Ohio.

Louis and Oleta Randell spent the Christmas holidays visiting their kids. Friday night they had Christmas with their daughter and family, Ronnie and Jo Ann Blythe in Amarillo. Saturday, they drove to Ft. Worth to the home of their son, Steve and Phyllis, Jacob and Bryon. Their son, David of Dallas and their daughter, Romona and Mike Smith, Derek, Tracie and Alicia of Houston all met them at Ft. Worth. They returned home Tuesday, bringing Jacob and Bryan home with them. They boys stayed until Thursday.

Bill and Cleo Green of Slaton and their daughter and husband, Bill and Carol Wade and Eric spent the New Years weekend at Oak Creek. Cleo and Carol visited Lewis and Mozelle Eudy Saturday.

In Turkey last week to visit and to attend to business were Beverly (Lisenby) and Butch Morris of Hamshire. They visited with Billy and Janice Wheeler and Velma Lacy. They were also here to help plan Beverly's class reunion this summer. She met Gloria (Hedrick) and Bobby Banks of Amarillo to make some plans for their class reunion.

I have just heard that one of the cheerleaders at Florida State University is the son of David House. David is the son of Loretta House of Lubbock and the late Buddy House.

Christmas visitors in the home of Cleo and Judy Jordan were their daughter, Janna, and Larry Rogers and their three children, Neal, Julia and Sam. The Rogers live in Plano. Judy reported that they all thoroughly enjoy visiting in Turkey and reading the Valley Tribune. Mrs. Jordan has given them a subscription to the Valley Tribune.

Spending Christmas in Amarillo was Virginia Degan. She visited with her daughter, Betty and grandchildren, Lisa and Mark McKnight and family and Mike Prather.

We received a long-distance call last week from Ina Lee and Beryl Blackshear. The Blackshears live in Forrestville, California as do Lee's two sisters, Lydia Castleberry and Iva Dean Martin. Lee reported she had 23 at her home for Christmas, including their son, Butch and family and daughter, Jennifer and her family.

Sherice and Kevin Bench and Kilby were in Turkey for the Christmas holidays. They visited Sherice's parents, Hubert and Delores Price and other friends and relatives.

Jay and Barbara Eudy were in town for a short time last week. They were here on business. I visited with them for a short time. They had spent Christmas in Leveland with their daughter and family, Jill and Stan Roberts and girls. They are both retired and are thoroughly enjoying their retirement.

Spending Christmas in Clarendon was Arlie Williams in the home of her son, Harvey and Betty Williams. Also spending Christmas at Harve and Betty's was Terry Doc and Charlotte Williams from Abilene; Greg Williams from Jacksonville, Florida; C. J. and Lee Bollinger of Chandler, Arizona; Kyle and Ann Williams from Canyon; Bridgette and Richie Johnson of Idalou; Kelly, Brittany Kelly and Darrell Cash from Clarendon.

Joining the group on Christmas night was David Majors from Idalou and Kelly and Belinda Nelson of Canyon.

I was quite amused last week when I read a letter mailed to the Paducah Newspaper office with a Turkey postmark. The letter enclosed the article that appeared in several of the big city issues about the Turkey Thanksgiving Dinner that was held the Sunday before Thanksgiving.

The author of the letter (no signature) stated that the article was published in several of the big city papers, but not in the Tribune.

The article was published in continued form for three issues of the Tribune. Evidently, the author of the letter does not read the Valley Tribune.

The author also complained that there was never any Turkey news in the paper. Mrs. McFall has tried for some time to employ a reporter in Turkey but without success. I am strictly a volunteer helper until she finds a reporter for Turkey. I only do it so Turkey will have a representative reporter from Turkey. Since I am not a salaried employee, I only turn the news that the people of Turkey turn into me, by phone or mail.

So—if you want your news in the paper, please call me or take your news to the Turkey City Hall.

Those visiting in the home of Tink and Estelle Lane and attending the wedding of Robyn Lane and Brian Martin last Saturday night were: Kenneth and Linda Lane and Linda's daughter, Shara Perkins all from Katy; Keith and Jan Lane and Jonda from Greeley, Colorado and Jeffrey and Deanna from Lancaster, TX; Kay Clay and Sherri Ganda from Ringling OK and Tammy Clay from Dallas; Barry Lane and daughters, Sasha, Cassie and son Cass from Booker; Dr. Jon and Debbie Maxwell and daughters, Emile and Tiffany from Idabel, OK.

They all arrived safely back home before the snow came in Tuesday morning.

Mary Jo Barnhill has been a patient in a Lubbock hospital since Christmas Eve. She had heart surgery and hopes to be home soon.
