He is a former pastor of the Quitaque Methodist Church.

her mother, and carried by her mother in her own wedding.

Her wedding gown was the traditional something new, a blue garter was something blue, she wore a necklace belonging to her grandmother and a pin belonging to her great-great-grandmother, and placed pennies in her shoes with the birth dates of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Jim Covin of Vega was matron of honor. Mrs. Larry Davis of Hart was bridesmaid. They wore formal length gowns of blue styled with empire waistline and

A-line skirts, scooped neckline and puffed sleeves accented with white lace. They carried nosegays of blue carnations.

Jim Huckabee of Olton served as best man, and Larry Garvin of Olton was groomsman.

Johnny and Rex Jennings, brothers of the bride, and Bob Hall, brother of the groom, served as ushers.

Mrs. Delmar Givins of Olton played traditional wedding selections throughout the ceremony. Miss Karen Hobbs of Vega, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Slutz of

Vega, sang "A Time For Us" from Romeo and Juliet and "Theme from Love Story" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Vows were exchanged before a white kneeling bench and an altar flanked with spiral candelabra and baskets of white stock and blue and white carnations and palms. The communion table was decorated with a white memory candle with greenery and was lighted by the couple at the close of the ceremony.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall. The refreshment table was laid with white organza over blue. The bride's bouquet centered the table, flanked by crystal candle holders with blue candles. The three-tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells was served with white punch with crystal and silver appointments.

The couple left on a trip to Colorado, and will be at home in Olton upon their return.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Vega High School, attended McMurry College in Abilene, and WTSU in Canyon. She will be employed in a dental office in Olton.
