Miss Gilbert Is Shower Honoree

Miss Kathy Gilbert was honored with a bridal shower in the FLOMOT community room on Saturday afternoon, June 2. Approximately 55 guests called between the hours of three and five. Out-of-town guests were from Dalhart, Lockney, Brownfield, Matador, Silverton and Quitaque. Out-of-town gifts were sent from Anson, Amarillo, Dallas, Plano, Littlefield, Medicine Mound, Afton, Lubbock, Plainview, Quitaque, Matador and Cedar Hill.

Mrs. Leland Heiskell of Dalhart registered the guests in a white satin bride's book, a gift of the hostesses. The registry held a bride doll and a vase of pink carnations. The bride and her mother were presented corsages of pink and white carnations nestled in puffs of chiffon and ribbon.

Refreshments of flower decorated cake squares, lime green punch, mints and nuts, all carrying out the bride-elect's chosen colors of lime green, lemon yellow and pastel pink, were served from a table covered with a cloth of spring flower design under net. A large white decorator candle inside a floral and ribbon container was used as the centerpiece. Appointments were crystal and silver. Napkins were yellow with "Kathy and Neal" printed in gold.

Wave A Magic Wand?

Do you wish you could wave a magic wand to make money problems disappear? Even the magic wand of earning more doesn't seem to do the trick!

Money problems appear in many forms. Some of the common causes of money problems are impulse buying and too many bargains, easy credit, tight budgeting and no savings for emergencies.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were displayed. They included an electric vacuum cleaner, electric skillet, electric deep fryer, electric toaster, electric bun warmer, a 53-piece set of dishes, pressure cooker, ceramic canister set, ceramic tea carafe and warmer, Old Hickory kitchen knife set, other dishes, blankets, sheets, pillowcases, towel sets, bathroom sets, waste basket, range set, glasses and pitcher set, hand crocheted articles, and many more.

The hostess gift included a nine-piece set of cookware, mug tree and mugs, sugar and creamer, salt and pepper set, all hand decorated in the Merry Mushroom pattern. Other gifts matching the hostess gift were also given by other guests.

The hostesses were Mrs. Herb Martin, Mrs. Clois Shorter, Mrs. Jack Pigg, Mrs. Terry Sperry, Mrs. Windell Morris, Mrs. Tim Lane, Mrs. Orville Lee, Mrs. Wayne Hunter, Mrs. Johnny Speer, Mrs. George Pope, Mrs. Grady Timmons, Mrs. Leon Cloyd, Mrs. Joe Ike Clay, Mrs. Howard Rogers, Mrs. Stanley Degan, Mrs. Jack Starkey and Mrs. Louis Shorter.

KITCHEN SHOWER
 Kathy was also given a kitchen shower by her Phi Mu sisters and friends at Lubbock in May. The Lodge was beautifully decorated with her chosen colors and gifts included an electric blender, an electric crock pot, salad set, refrigerator set, Corningware, cook books, towel sets, place mats and others.

Easy credit has caused many families to find that their payments and income are the same amount. The cost seems so little when you look only at the payment. The trouble comes from forgetting to add all of your payments. Too many payments may take part of the paycheck needed for necessary expenses.

Do you have the credit card blues like Mr. Stay-in-Debt? If so, you may be interested in attending one of the credit institutes being held in Briscoe County this month. The institute will be held in Silverton Monday, June 18, at 8:00 p.m. at the First State Bank Pioneer Room. Mrs. Dorothy Powell, County Extension Agent, will present a program on "The Truth or Consequences of Credit." After a short break a question-and-answer session will be moderated by Mabry Greenhaw, manager, Plainview Production Credit Association, Silverton branch, and H. B. Simpson, executive vice president, First State Bank, Silverton.

The Quitaque institute will be held Tuesday, June 26 at 8:00 p.m. at the First National Bank Community Room. Mrs. Powell will repeat her program. The question-and-answer session will be moderated by O. R. Tark, Jr. and Bob Ham, president and vice president, respectively, of the First National Bank, Quitaque.

The Credit Institute is being sponsored by the Briscoe County Home Demonstration Council, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas A&M University. Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

A. H. Dickenson Rites Held In Missouri

Funeral services for Albert H. Dickenson of 708 South 17th, Blue Springs, Missouri, were conducted June 2, 1973 at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Webb Chapel there. Officiating was Rev. William E. Crawford.

Burial was in the Blue Springs Cemetery.

Mr. Dickenson was born February 26, 1912 in Briscoe County, and died May 31, 1973 at Research Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri. He had lived in the Blue Springs area for 35 years.

He was a foreman for Ralston Purina Company until his retirement in February 1970. He was a member of the Blue Springs Methodist Church, a Navy veteran of World War II and a member of the American Legion.

He is survived by his wife, Bonnie W., of the home; two sons, Donald W. Dickenson, Hendersonville, Tennessee, and Ralph G. Dickenson, Farmington, Missouri; two brothers, Klee Dickenson, Blue Springs, and Gene V. Dickenson, Dallas; two sisters, Mrs. Marguerita Terry, Dallas, and Mrs. Dorothy Wilbur, Dalhart; and six grandchildren.

Holt Reunion

The Holt Reunion will be held beginning at 10:00 a.m. Sunday, June 17, in the Silverton School Cafeteria.

ASTROWORLD is a multimillion dollar family entertainment center located in Houston, Texas, due south of the Astrodome. Americana Square (in the foreground) is the first of ten separate "worlds", packed with over 100 rides, attractions, and shows. The 65 acre Park is part of Astrodome, the greatest complex of family enjoyment.

Mrs. Barney Bogan and three lady friends of Nacogdoches stopped by to see Sid Bogan Monday afternoon. The ladies were enroute to Colorado on vacation.

Mrs. Ralph Carter accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hedrick and boys of Amarillo to Fort Worth Tuesday of last week and spent the week visiting relatives in Fort Worth. Larry had a business meeting in Dallas from Wednesday until Friday. The ladies took Scott, Todd and Layne to Six Flags on Wednesday.

Venoi Cain of Pharr, Texas visited his mother, Mrs. W. W. Cain, and friends in Quitaque from Saturday until Tuesday morning. He stopped by Lake Tawakoni to visit his sister, Mrs. Evelyn Manry and family enroute to Quitaque.

Mrs. Dora Hawkins spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Tubby Hamilton in Plainview. She attended church services with them in the beautiful new Methodist Church in Plainview.

Mrs. Hawkins returned to Lockney Sunday afternoon and visited Frank Hawkins in the hospital and his wife, Lena, and Mrs. Edna Cox. She spent Sunday night with her twin sister, Mrs. Nora Ayres, and her husband in Lockney.

R. S. Lewis of Stanton visited friends and relatives in Quitaque from Thursday until Saturday.

Aunt Kit Washington, 93, of Flomot, has been on the seriously ill list.

Benjamin Franklin designed a dollar made of silver, brass and pewter, bearing the motto, "Mind Your Own Business," and minted in 1776.

On Memorial Day the flag should be displayed at half mast from sunrise to noon and at full mast from noon to sunset.

Orchids grow from the smallest seed in the world.

MRS. RICHARD GLYNN BRADEN

June 9, 1973, in the First Baptist Church in Quitaque.

The Rev. Freddie Martin, pastor, officiated before a background of rows of brass candelabra with white tapers and baskets of orchid and blue gladioli entwined with trailing English ivy. The aisles were marked with white bows centered with stephanotis and ivy.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Stark, jr. of Quitaque, and Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Braden of Ropesville are parents of the bridegroom.

Wedding selections were presented by Mrs. Ross Herrington, organist and aunt of the bride.

Sam Brown of Tullia, soloist, sang "If I Could Tell You" and a prayer, "Eternal Life."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formallength traditional gown of satif-faced peau de soie accented in Bordeaux lace. The deep square neckline was edged in lace which continued down the center front in a vertical panel, and encircled the hemline. The long bishop sleeve es were softly shirred to the wide lace cuffs. Her detachable train was caught at the waist with a soft tailored bow, and was also edged in lace. Her tiered bouffant veil of illusion fell from a matching lace capulet and was edged in matching lace. She carried a bou-quet of Eucharis lily and stephanotis on a white Bible belonging to her matron of honor, Mrs. Mike Hunter of Plainview, a former roommate of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Becky Braden, sister of the groom, Mrs. Scotty Stark, sister-in-law of the bride, and junior bridesmaid was Lisa Herrington, cousin of the bride.
They wore dresses of printed organza over check in colors of blue, orchid and deep purple. They were styled with empire waistlines with orchid velvet streamers down the front and featured butterfly sleeve-es. They wore headpieces of orchid velvet tubing tied in a double bow and centered with stephanotis.
Their bouquets were of cymbidium orchids and stephanotis.

Charles Braden of Houston served as his brother's best man.
Roy Rowland of Lubbock, Lyn Searcy of Ropesville, and Don Snodgrass of Plainview, and Scotty Stark of Lubbock, brother of the bride, were groomsmen, and Randy Stark, brother of the bride, Russell Arrp and Ricky Blackman, both of Ropesville, served as ushers.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony.
Assistants at the reception were Mrs. Stanley Payne, Plainview;
Mrs. Monte Stephens, Canyon; Mrs.
Van Bradley, Lockney, and Misses Kim Ham, Quitaque, and Lisa Hartgraves, Abilene.

The refreshment table was laid with a white organdy cloth over white satin and centered with silver candelabra with blue tapers and small arrangements of blue and orchid carnations with trailing ivy. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with blue and orchid flowers and topped with flying white doves. It was served with orchid frosted punch, nuts, mints and dainty sandwiches with appointments of crystal and silver.

After a wedding trip to Santa Fe, New Mexico, the couple will be at home in Goodpasture Hall, Wayland Baptist College in Plainview after June 15.

Miss Stark is a graduate of Quitaque High School. She is a 1973 graduate of Wayland Baptist College in Plainview. She played basketball with the Hutcherson Flying Queens, was listed in
"Who's Who Among American College and University Students."
She is presently employed by Central Plains Hospital in Plainview.

Mr. Braden finished Ropesville High School. He is now a senior student at Wayland Baptist College where he plays on the Varsity basketball team. He is a member of Chi Omicron fraternity. He is also employed in Plainview.
