Eastland Farmers Cotton Allotment Hiked

Through the Editor's Spectacles By GEORGE

The book, "Were You in Ranger," written by Boyce House, former oil belt editor and now a staff man on the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, is said to be establishing almost a record for a Texas volume. The book, published by a Dallas concern, is a story of the oil boom here nearly 20 years ago.

Stanford's defeat of the University of California 13 to 0 yesterday afternoon removes another undefeated team from the rapidly dwindling company of the football elect and throws the western half of the Rose Bowl aspirations into a muddle.

The same thing was true back in the early years of the century when football in the midwest was patronizingly regarded by the eastern big shots.

There is no doubt in my mind that the southwest teams of this year are, on the whole, superior to the teams of other years.

Additional Certificates Are Due to Arrive Soon

Word has come from the state cotton allotment board that all cotton producers of Eastland county who have an allotment basis of 1630 pounds or above will receive an additional allotment of cotton tax exemption certificates within the next few days, according to C. Metz Heald, county agent.

The county agent and the cotton control committee were gratified at this additional allotment. They have been trying to get some relief in this matter ever since it became apparent that the two-bale regulation would work a hardship on approximately 40 per cent of the cotton farmers of this county.

MUSSOLINI TALKS WITH DRUMMOND

Reported Il Duce Tells France Oil Embargo Means War

ROME, Nov. 23. (AP)—Mussolini and the British ambassador, Sir Eric Drummond, held another conference late today which saw Italian resistance to sanctions. The conversation lasted 20 minutes. "Contact is still being maintained," was the only comment from government sources.

Diplomatic circles see much significance in the constant ambassadorial visits, particularly in Paris. Papal Nuncio Maglione and the Italian ambassador, Vittorio Cerruti, talked there again today.

Missions of pledges of boycott of sanctionist nations rolled in today for Mussolini's answer to notes from nations besieging Italy.

Notes were received from Britain and France saying they would hold to the sanctions despite Italy's protest against them and the Franco-British boycott sprang into life.

Oil Embargo Warning. It was reported, unofficially, that Italy had warned Premier Laval of France, that an oil embargo "would mean war."

Story of Texas U. Land Endowment Told by Benedict

The intriguing and unique story of the land endowment of the University of Texas was recounted by President H. Y. Benedict of that institution at the annual meeting of the association of governing boards of state universities at Lincoln, Neb. President Benedict described the steps by which the land endowment was obtained and discussed the policies pertaining to its administration.

Texas came into the union, Dr. Benedict pointed out, with the right to retain ownership of her public land and upon that fact, he said, hangs the story of University of Texas lands.

"The constitution of 1876," he continued, "canceled a previous land grant to the university and in lieu thereof set aside one million acres of the unappropriated public domain for the university and its branches." In 1883 the legislature set aside another one million acres.

"Since the unappropriated public domain was, during the early '80's, practically all located in west Texas, the university land had to be located in the Trans-Pecos and east-of-the-Pecos part of Texas. At this time this semi-arid region was unsalable and unleaseable and was thought to be so valueless that it was surveyed quite inaccurately and in large blocks in order to avoid the expense of subdivision. It was so valueless that the Texas & Pacific railway rejected it and left it for the university."

"Unique Provision" President Benedict pointed out that money received for grazing leases on this land virtually built all of the university buildings down to 1928 and paid a considerable portion of the running expenses besides. He commented upon the fact that the state constitution prohibits the appropriation for university buildings out of tax money, which he characterized a unique provision.

He called attention to the fact that all money received from oil and gas royalties and other mineral leases must go into the permanent fund of the university, only the income of which may be spent. He outlined the manner in which the permanent fund was invested, there being now $625,000 in state of Texas bonds belonging to the university, $9,680,000 in United States bonds, $5,800,000 in Texas municipal and county bonds, $6,000,000 in building bonds issued by the university itself and to be repaid to the permanent fund from the interest received on other securities. The 2,100,000 acres of west Texas land, the 100,000 being a guess at the excess, is also considered a part of the permanent university fund.

from the selling university bonds to the permanent university fund the institution was able to finance a $4,000,000 building program for the university, and a -2,000,000 program for the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas. Subsequently, at the request of the board of regents, the privilege of investing the permanent funds in the bonds and obligations of the board of regents in the future was withdrawn. The president expressed the belief that this widening and narrowing of the field of investment is a unique episode in the history of higher education in the United States.

Dr. Benedict said that since 1925, at Galveston and Austin and Mt. Locke, including construction now in progress, $14,500,000 has been spent for buildings and other permanent improvements, this amount having been secured as follows: $2,175,000 from the Sealy and Smith foundation, the Littlefield family, W. J. McDonald, and the Ex-Students' association; $1,030,000 from gifts from the federal government via PWA and direct grant for a centennial museum; $1,867,000 from loans from the federal government via PWA; $4,000,000 from "building bonds"; and $5,425,000 out of income from the university endowment fund.

The University of Texas, he pointed out, was operating at the lowest cost per student of any of the institutions in its class. He announced that enrollment had increased by another ten per cent or more this fall.

Childress Team Defeats Cisco Loboes 13 to 0 Here Friday

RUN UP 23 FIRST DOWNS TO CISCO'S 5

The Childress Bobcats came to town Friday afternoon and ran up 23 first downs to score two touchdowns and a point after touchdown for a 13 to 0 victory, but the game was much better than the statistics would reflect.

The Loboes made only five first downs during the game, but the home town fans will always believe that nullification of a brilliant aerial touchdown raid of the local by an offside penalty had much to do with the outcome of the game.

The Loboes broke out with a series of short flat zone passes and laterals that had the Childress lads dizzy for a spell. They started that business just as soon as the game opened. Woods tossing to Wende who lobbed to Beasley for a 15-yard gain and a first down on Childress' 40-yard line. A pass was incomplete and Woods was stopped at the line but on the next play Woods rifled to Burnam who took it racing across the Bobcats' secondary and ran to within inches of the goal line before he was forced out. The double-offside penalty, however, completely nullified the gain and Stansbury was forced to punt, the ball rolling out on Childress' 25.

Superior Attack.

The Bobcats showed a markedly superior running attack, slashing through the Cisco line for great gains, and doing a few things with laterals and passes themselves. Let it be said to the credit of the officials that they inflicted as many and as severe penalties on the visitors for infractions of playing rules, penalties which undoubtedly cost them touchdowns. Taking the ball on their 25 the visitors marched down the field in a stunning succession of first downs, but were set back by a 15-yard penalty that even a pass of the same distance, Patton to Andrews, failed to overcome. The threat was halted when a long aerial was grounded in the end zone and the Loboes took the ball on their 20.

The Loboes retaliated with another drive, featured by Beasley's 24-yard center around his left end on a reverse, but the attack bogged down and Stansbury was forced to punt, Burnam dropping the Bobcat receiver on the Childress' 23.

Visitors Score.

Carter, quarter and chief running and passing back of the visitors, a clever and capable player, and Carter and Terrell, hard driving ball carriers, resumed their offensive campaign with similar effect, losing the ball when Cisco recovered a fumble, but regaining it when Rainwater intercepted Stanbury's pass on the 50-yard line. This time the visitors would not be denied, even by a 15-yard penalty, such as halted their original attack. A pass and a lateral, simulating Cisco's tactics, overcame the set-back by a gain of 16 yards. An earlier five-yard penalty again the visitors likewise had failed to halt their succession of first downs in the campaign. Patton was the chief ground-gaining influence in this march to a score, driving off tackles and throwing passes with deadly effect. Carter made the score when he dove over late in the second quarter from the one-yard line. Stephens kick was no good and the score stood 6 to 0.

Penalties Too Much.

Cisco opened up with fair ground gaining tactics in the third quarter, but their rate of gain was not enough to offset penalties for offside. As the game wore on the Loboes were obviously tired, and their open game worked with less effect against the stronger visitors, who scored their second touchdown late in the fourth quarter. Terrell plunging over after a drive replica of the first, off-tackle down the field that was almost a slashes being mixed with passes and laterals Stephens' kick was good to make the score 13 to 0.

Play of Wagley at end stood out defensively. Loss of Ivie at center due to an ankle injury weakened the team by removing Burnam from his position at end and tackle where he had been effective in pass receiving earlier in the game and in defensive play. Wende, Merrett, Barnes, Rainbolt in the line played good games against heavier opposition. McCannell and Rylee, who alternated in fullback position, and Woods did yeoman service. Stansbury's punting was up to standard and Woods' passing and running were

Their impressive 27 to 6 defeat of the Rice Owls Saturday afternoon at Fort Worth made the "Horned Frogs" of Texas Christian university one of the outstanding candidates for the Rose Bowl on New Year's day. ## Among The Derricks

PROGRESS MADE IN GORMAN FIELD.

GORMAN, Nov. 23.—Gallagher and Lawson now have the well on the Moates tract in good condition. They raised the tubing about ten feet Wednesday and the well is now flowing close to four barrels per hour. The well has been acting much stronger than that at times and would then shut off. They tried the swab and other remedies and then concluded the tubing was too low in the hole. With its raising the well began a steady flow.

The Hampton well of Martin and Case has run into hard luck. It was down within a hundred feet of the anticipated pay when it lost a string of tools in the hole. The crew has been fishing for the past week and has about decided to try to drill by them down to the pay level.

On the Johnson tract the Hoffman and Page well is going right effective. Beasley was the chief ground gainer of the Loboes, getting off for several long jaunts.

on down. It is now down to 1,100 feet and making plenty of hole each tower. The well will not be finished for sometime yet.

On the Payne tract Brewer et al are spudded in and have the bit going right down. This well will be a more vital well than any which is now drilling for it is far enough from the other producers to get quite a bit of country proven up.

TWO WELLS TO DRILL NEAR EASTLAND.

EASTLAND, Nov. 23.—Drilling applications for two wells near Eastland were on file Friday at the railroad commission office.

S. M. Dickerson of Waco will drill No. 2 Laura E. Murrell, five miles south of Eastland, section 30, block 2, H. & T. C. railway survey. It is planned to drill to 1,375 unless gas or oil is found in paying quantities.

Ray T. Hoff of Comanche will drill No. 1 L. M. White et al, seven miles southeast of Eastland, block 2, McClelland county school land leagues 3 and 4 survey. Drilling to a depth of 1,500 feet is contemplated.

Date of the Murrell well start was scheduled this week and the White well is scheduled to begin Monday.

NEW TEST OF MORAN SAND.

ALBANY, Nov. 23.—St. Mary's Oil & Gas Co. of West Virginia No. 1, Ella and W. G. Webb, is a new location for a 2,200 foot test in center of north 80 acres of university survey No. 68, four miles west of Moran, southeast Shackelford, indicating a revival of the deeper sand and lime prospects for the Moran area, which has been producing oil for more than 20 years. The new test is less than a half mile south of the famous Tarrant-Cloud No. 1, rated as having produced not far under a million dollars worth of oil, coming in at 300 barrels daily from the Moran (Strawn) sand at 2,200 feet the well has produced continuously for more than 20 years.

Fortex Oil Corp. No. 1, R. E. Burns in northeast quarter section 18, Orphan Asylum lands, 8 miles southeast of Albany is drilling at 1,400 feet on another Strawn sand test.

A. A. Michaels No. 1, Florence J. Whitney, is drilling at 1,040 feet on another Strawn sand test in J. Gregg survey No. 4 just across the line in Stephens county.

Material has been moved in on the W. A. Carter farm, center of east half section 70, Lunatic asylum land, at Sedwick, Texas, for what is reported to be a 4,000-foot test by Niola Oil Co. and other East Texas operators.

NEW AREAS ARE OPENED.

ALBANY, Nov. 23.—Poly Oil corporation No. 9, Florence and Delia Spears, is showing up for 25 barrels or better from Bluff Creek sand 792 to 802 feet after a ten-quart shot, having been drilled to 755 feet in March, 1935, and plugged as a dry hole, but cleaned out this week and drilled 37 feet deeper for a nice producing well, making nearly a quarter-mile south extension for the Eahart pool. The new well is located in the northwest corner of south 140 acres of southwest quarter section 1, Blind asylum, a half-mile southwest of Albany corporate limits.

J. L. McMurray heirs-L. C. Heltzel No. 2, Dawson & Conway, is drilling at 1,500 feet in center of southwest quarter section 193, E. T. Ry. a northeast advance test in the Bluff Creek pool, and will drill the sand this week.

interesting test two miles west of Bluff Creek pool. Reliance Oil & Royalty Corp.—Jones & Stasney No. 12, G. R. Davis, is preparing to spud in northeast corner of T. & N. O. survey No. 4, on the lease where the operators have completed eleven producers and no dry holes.

Albany Oil Co.—Wm. Pardue, Jr., No. 6, G. R. Davis, is a new outpost test north of the G. R. Davis pool in center northeast quarter of southeast quarter section 218, E. T. Ry.

Texas Central Oil Co. et al, No. 1, Dawson & Conway, is drilling at 1,025 feet in southeast quarter of section 162, E. T. Ry., a wild-cat test seeking a trend pool northwest of the Cook ranch area. Humble Oil & Refining Co. No.

1, T. G. Hendrick, is drilling at 815 feet in center of west line of section 181, E. T. Ry., a new test for northwestern Shackelford, which will go to the 1,900 foot horizon.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous—for praise is comely for the upright. In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid of what man can do unto me.—Ps. 56: 11.

"Give me this, the heart to be content, And if my wish seems thwarted, to be still, Waiting till puzzle and pain be spent, And the sweet thing made plain, God meant."

If one could be happy, let him forget himself, and go about making some one else happy.—Lillian Whiting.

Human and Other Nature

By W. F. BRUCE

Every day is a day of small things; for every day has hidden away among its passing seemingly insignificant happenings the beginning of movements that affect the world.

I remember the surprise that I had once when I pulled off a tender stalk of green corn and rather carelessly pulling it to pieces found wrapped up inside the whole form of a mature stalk of corn, blades, nodes, tassel, and even silk.

With Zechariah the prophet we may well explain, "who has despised the day of small things?" It is an exhortation to courage and to action.

ple would yet have a glory that the former had never known. It might not be in magnificence nor in cost; but in significances and in association with events that had to do with the progress of the kingdom of God it would far exceed. These words might be said to every bawler of past glory.

Historical Dep't For Centennial Creates Interest

DALLAS, Nov. 23. — Establishment of the historical department of the Texas Centennial exposition under Professor Herbert Gambrell of Southern Methodist university has created state-wide interest amongst private collectors and owners of historical heirlooms.

Hundreds of offers of historic mementoes of the heroes of Texas history have been pouring in from city and farm house. The private offers alone would fill the spacious hall of 1836 in the Texas Hall of State which has been allocated for the historical exhibit.

Added to this will come exhibits from the Garcia library at the University of Texas in Austin which will include the original account of Cabeza de Vaca of his adventures in Texas published in Zamorra, Spain in 1529.

The original Texas declaration of independence and the constitution of the republic and the state of Texas will be brought from suspended between the two extremes. The legislature probably thought it discharged its responsibility in a compromise fashion to the satisfaction of all. But what it has accomplished is to give Mr. McDonald neither the satisfaction of acquittal nor the punishment of a conviction, leaving the case just about where it was, with the enemies of the official still loaded with ammunition against him and his friends without definite instance of justification.

Benefit Game

SOME time ago the suggestion was made that a benefit game be matched between the Cisco Lobos and the Eastland Mavericks, proceeds of which would be divided between funds for players invalidated by the sport a few years ago.

THE suggestion is presented here for the benefit of those who might be interested in developing the project. There is no doubt but what the beneficiaries of such a benefit contest are in need of the funds that would be raised, but there is a doubt that any reasonable amount of money would be obtained.

REPORT SHOWS PROGRESS OF SCHOOLS OVER FIVE YEARS

A summary report of the progress and activities of the Cisco public school system during the five years he has been superintendent has just been submitted to the Cisco school board by Supt. E. N. Cluck. The report deals comprehensively with the system, its activities and progress and makes recommendations for its improvement.

The report is divided into the following sections:

Scholastic Standards

The Cisco schools this year were in the state, regardless of size, rated among the first 25 schools. The system has maintained its affiliation with the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges, which has 273 affiliates in the state. This rating is based upon the percentage of graduates attending college and the percentage of failures in college subjects by these graduates. Association records show that 34 per cent of the 1933 graduates attended college in 1934 and that their percentage of semester hours failed was only 15.1.

The Cisco schools employ an "honor point" system of graduation. Graduates are divided into three groups according to their work over the four-year period in high school. These are the high honor graduates, honor graduates and graduates. Members of the first group must have averaged 90 or above during their four years in school, and members of the second group between 80 and 90. Members of the graduate group who fall below an average of 80, are not recommended for college, although, the reports says, in many instances students from the lower group have made splendid college records.

Percentage of students in the two honor groups has steadily increased. The honor point system, by stimulating incentive throughout the four years, has improved interest in making higher grades throughout all the classes.

Considerable freedom is allowed students in the selection of courses of study.

Encouragement toward higher scholarship is carried into the lower grades through awarding certificates of merit and attendance certificates.

Students representing the high school in athletics are required to pass three or four in the semester during which they participated in order to be eligible to receive a sweater or letter award.

All members of the high school faculty are now required to have degrees and are assigned to the field in which they majored. Non-degree teachers in the grades are asked to complete 24 semester hours of college work every three years until they receive their degrees.

Curriculum Improvements.

A course in diversified occupations to meet the practical needs of the average boy or girl was introduced last year. The course enables the boy or girl unable to go to college to enter the business world upon graduation from high school with two years of technical training in his or her chosen field.

Outstanding work continued in vocational agriculture and home economics.

Commercial law introduced into the system and Latin I and II re-introduced.

Hour recitation plan adopted.

Fourth grade included in departmental work, causing children in this grade to be taught by specialists in their respective fields.

Attempt made to add public school music. Due to unexpected

New Wild Life Head

Ira N. Gabrielson (above), succeeded J. N. "Ding" Darling as chief of the federal bureau of biological research at Washington, D. C. Gabrielson was an assistant and consulting specialist to the bureau when Darling resigned. (Associated Press Photo)

Starts Tax Crusade

Lewis H. Brown (above), president of Johns-Manville corporation, launched a crusade against taxation with a battle cry of "the cost of government must be reduced."

crowded conditions course has been temporarily discontinued and the teacher assigned to regular teaching position.

Special supervision assigned to physical development of children through a program that not only develops the body but teaches proper health habits, etc.

Cisco has the best adult education program in the state, according to W. E. Marshall, district supervisor of adult education in the state department of education.

Material Improvements.

Library facilities greatly increased over the five years. Heating system at high school improved. Playground equipment added. Remodeling of west ward building under way through WPA appropriation and repairs secured for other buildings in the system. Concrete floors in high school halls rebuilt. Interiors of all school buildings recalcimined.

New and up-to-date grade card system for grade schools adopted to carry detailed information regarding child's work and progress. New permanent record system installed at high school.

Dothan school district brought into Cisco system through contract with Dothan trustees by which schooling is furnished all pupils of that district. The bus routes added to bring high school students from eight outlying common school districts to Cisco for schooling.

Transfers into Cisco schools have greatly increased.

School grounds landscaped and beautified. New bell system installed at high school. Stage repaired and new ceiling installed in auditorium.

Teachers' salaries paid more promptly than in several years.

Extra-curricular activities are planned for the development of character and preparation for useful citizenship. Each student, in addition to any academic or athletic credit, is required to earn credit in some literary or club activity. For those interested in music, the band and choral club are maintained. The Cisco Lobo band has won the west Texas contest several times in recent years. The choral club took second place in state contest at Belton.

A dramatic club is maintained. A museum of natural science is being developed. Students are encouraged in newspaper activities, publishing a small school newspaper regularly.

Free community night programs are presented at the high school at intervals, made up of numbers given by pupils from the various schools. These have brought school and patrons into closer contact and have helped to build a community spirit that is vital.

Recommendations made, many of which have already been undertaken, include:

Extend public school music in the grades to all ward schools and make it a permanent plan.

Part-time evening classes in vocational home economics for the women of the town, three-fourths of the expense to be met by the state and federal governments.

Experiment with a class of home economics for boys.

Work out a plan through which pupils in grades four to seven may be promoted by subjects, as is practiced in the high school, provided the student does not fail in more than two subjects.

Provide part-time elementary librarian in order that children may be taught early the value of books, and to raise the standard of reading.

Put out a printed course of study for the Cisco schools as soon as new curriculum is adopted by state department of education.

As soon as finances will permit, employ specialist to supervise all grade school work.

Extend vocational courses to pupils in sixth and seventh grades.

Provide evening classes in commercial work, three-fourths of the expenses to be paid by the state and federal governments.

Add an additional teacher and grade to east ward if enrollment increases.

Give consideration to the advisability of employing a school nurse.

That you seriously consider some plan for providing a gymnasium large enough to accommodate the entire system.

Secure an expression teacher to be placed in the schools, her salary being what she makes through fees and tuition.

Seriously consider introducing vocational guidance, business English, commercial geography and more industrial work as the need arises and finances will permit.

Buy duplicating machine (worth its cost as a teaching aid).

That you add additional library books and materials to the ward school libraries.

Texas May Get Million-Acre Park in 'Big Bend' Country

FORT DAVIS, Nov. 23. (AP)—Deep in America's last frontier—the Big Bend country of West Texas—lies 1,000,000 acres of rugged beauty apparently destined for a national park.

Across the Rio Grande at the southernmost part of the great bend in the stream, Mexico is planning a 1,000,000-acre park to make it an international show spot.

State and national park leaders recently made preliminary outlines of the desired scenic area on the Texas side. In the party of nine that spent five days in the Big Bend were Col. Conrad L. Wirth, assistant director of the national park service, and D. E. Colp, chairman of the Texas state park board. They saw the "scenic million" acres from horseback, motorcar and plane.

Now Deserted.

A vast and empty land of broken mountains and canyons, the Big Bend once was the home of the ancient basket maker Indians. Now it is deserted. It has almost no population.

Its peaks and pockets and barren canyons gleam in rainbow colors. The Chisos, a mountain range bearing the name of an Indian word for ghosts, are rugged remnants of one of the oldest parts of the earth's surface, say scientists.

Towering above all is Mount Emory, 7,385 feet above sea level—high for Texas.

Already in the heart of the Chisos lies a state park of 286,000 acres, being molded by CCC workers. The greater park will include this. The state park lies 112 miles from Alpine.

The tentative selection of land takes in not only the Chisos range with its beautiful canyons, but includes the famous Mariscal canyon and Santa Helena canyon—the "grand canyon" of the Rio Grande.

Authorized by Congress. The area has a wide diversity of bird life. Its vegetation includes the red and green madrona, nearly a dozen kinds of oaks, the southernmost aspens in America, junipers, pines, pinons and the weeping cedar that occurs in few parts of the United States.

Congress has passed a resolution authorizing the national parks service to accept this area as a national park when it can be turned over to them in fee simple. To be able to give title, the state of Texas will have to acquire ownership, in part by purchase and in part by legislation, as there is considerable state school land included in the district.

Randolph Clark—

its removal from Thorp Springs, it and held an honorary membership in its board of trustees.

He was a native of Texas and was one of the best known men in the ministry of the Christian church in the state.

Born in Harrison county August 15, 1844, he began preaching at the age of 26. Since that time he had been engaged in college work, teaching, and preaching. Feeble health forced his retirement from active work about four years ago. The greater part of his preaching was in evangelistic work and special meetings.

Funeral services will be held in Stephenville, Texas, where he made his home for many years, and burial will be there beside his wife who died a number of years ago. The day and hour had not been set tonight.

Both Dr. Randolph Clark and his brother served in the Confederate forces during the civil war. He was chaplain of the trans-Mississippi division, United Confederate veterans, at one time.

Candidate for Governor.

He was a candidate for governor of Texas against Charles Culbertson on the prohibition ticket.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Holloway of Dallas and Mrs. F. H. Chandler, Mrs. E. T. Chandler, and Mrs. M. D. Hassler of Stephenville, and two sons, Lee Clark, dean of Randolph college, and J. L. Clark, head of the history department at Sam Houston State Teachers college, Huntsville.

A son, John J. Clark, died a few years ago. Dr. Clark was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark. He was educated at Carlton college, Bonham, and Bethany college in West Virginia.

On July 5, 1870, he married Miss Ella Lee of Bonham, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Roswell Walter Lee. In addition to his children, he is survived by two brothers, T. M. Clark a teacher at Randolph college, which was named in honor of Dr. Randolph Clark, and Joseph Clark of Stamford, and two sisters, Mrs. Ida Nesbitt of Abilene and Mrs. Joseph Rodgers of El Paso.

A new German law requires that all agricultural leaders must be of "German, or parallel" blood.

South Sea Fears of Japan's Aims Found by Envoy

By GLENN BABE.

TOKYO, Nov. 23. (AP)—Japan's southern island neighbors, the Philippines and Dutch East Indies, are afraid they lie in the pathway of a Japanese program of southward expansion, said Katsuji Debuchi, former ambassador to Washington, on his return from an official tour of the South seas.

The rotund and jovial diplomat who held the Washington post from 1928 to 1933, and tried to make the United States take a sympathetic view of Japanese expansion on the continent, was on a "goodwill mission" to the Philippines, New Zealand, Australia and the Dutch Indies.

Calls Leaders 'Deluded.'

He told the Japanese press that leaders in the new Philippines commonwealth and in the Dutch colonies "labor under certain delusions with regard to Japan's policy of advance in the southern Pacific."

"An exaggerated view of our expansion in the southern seas prevails in the Philippines and the islands controlled by Holland," he said, adding: "Misunderstandings seemed to prevail," and implying that Japan has no intention of harming her island neighbors in the course of her rise to dominance in the eastern ocean.

In Australia and New Zealand, Debuchi said he found friendliness toward Japan, with "all former misunderstandings arising from our Manchurian policy dispelled."

Debuchi, who visited Manila in August, emphasized that Japan in her relations with the Philippines through the next 10 years, must avoid causing uneasiness or affront to the still sovereign United States.

"Japan's relations with the islands during the commonwealth period must take full cognizance of American opinion, and the three nations must cooperate along lines of mutual concession," he said.

"It must be admitted, however, that after independence the Philippines, which hitherto have found the chief outlet for their products in the United States, must seek other markets. Economic difficulties probably will beset the future of the independent Philippine state.

Baird Jury Gives Rockett 5 Years

BAIRD, Nov. 23.—After deliberating less than an hour, a jury in 42nd district court at Baird returned a verdict of guilty in the case of Page Rockett, 19, and assessed a five-year penitentiary sentence. Arguments in the case, which opened Thursday, were completed Friday at mid-afternoon.

Rockett, resident of the Pioneer community in Eastland county, was charged with a statutory offense. Complaining witness was a 16-year-old Cross Plains girl, who testified she was assaulted on the night of November 9, near Cross Plains.

J. D. Taylor, 20, also of Pioneer, was indicted on the same complaint. He has not been tried.

Belief Borah Is to Make Race for President Grows

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23. (AP)—Senator Borah bluntly asserted today that should he receive the "unexpected and great honor" of being president, he would veto as unconstitutional such legislation as the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill. His stand was given in a letter to the National Association for Advancement of Colored People. It replied to one sounding his views, as a presidential possibility, toward the anti-lynching bill he opposed in the senate. The Idaho republican's quick response to the challenge and his wording of it, furthered the growing belief that he will get into the presidential race.

CAGED FURY

ROARING WITH RAGE, THE CAPTOR LIONS CLAWED VICIOUSLY AT THE CAGES IN WHICH TARZAN AND SIGREDA HAD SOUGHT REFUGE.

FROM THE CANNIBALS ROSE GREAT HOWLS OF FIENDISH MIRTH AT THE PLIGHT OF THE CAPTIVES.

AND MENO COMMANDED HIS WARRIORS: "GO TO THE REAR OF THE CAGES AND DRIVE TARZAN INTO THE ARENA!"

BUT THE APE-MAN NEEDED NO PRODDING, FOR HIS HEART RAGED NOW WITH THE FURY OF BATTLE. HE OPENED THE CAGE DOOR!

WITH A HUNGRY SNARL, ONE OF THE LIONS PLUNGED IN, AND TARZAN JERKED THE DOOR SHUT.

THEN THE FURIOUS BATTLE WAS JOINED BETWEEN BEAST AND MAN—BEAST IN THE CLOSE QUARTERS OF THE CAGE.

THE SWIRL OF TALONS MINGLED WITH THE FLASH OF TARZAN'S KNIFE, FOR THE APE-MAN WAS NO LESS AGILE THAN HIS BRUTE FOE.

FINALLY, EMBRACING THE BEAST, THE JUNGLE LORD DROVE THE BLADE INTO ITS THROAT.

AS THE CARNIVORE DIED, SIGREDA THRILLED AT THE HEROIC VICTORY OF THE MAN SHE LOVED.

NOW TARZAN LEAPED OUT OF THE CAGE TO ENTER ANOTHER, TO PURSUE THE SAME STRATEGY OF KILLING ONE LION AT A TIME.

HE ELUDED THE SWIFT BEASTS AND DARTED TOWARD AN OPEN DOOR, BUT HE CAME TO A SUDDEN STOP.

THE CAGES BRISTLED NOW WITH SPEARS THRUST FROM BEHIND BY THE WARRIORS! TARZAN WAS TRAPPED BETWEEN TWO ARMS OF DEATH! NEXT WEEK: LOVE'S TENTACLES
