THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1889.

We want better roads.

The town wants better roads.

Gates and bad roads will kill any town in the world.

Baird will be everlastingly skunked if we do not have the roads worked.

Houston received the first bale of the new cotton crop July 22, which sold for $225.

We call the attention of our readers to Dr. Tolat's letter in this issue in regard to payments on school lands.

Baird wants and is entitled to the cotton and other products raised in the county, but bad roads will drive the trade elsewhere.

CLAY MANS, a prominent stockman of Colorado City, died in Denver, Col., a few days ago. This one by one the old-timers are passing away.

A GREAT many people predict that the Galveston-Dallas News will elect Attorney-general Hogg governor of Texas yet, by its continued abuse.

THE management of the T. & P. Co. have recently contracted for twenty-five new locomotives. The first installment will begin to arrive about August 1.

FROM the Granbury Graphic we learn that Judge I. M. Onias, of Belle Plaine, has accepted the presidency of Granbury college for a term of five years.

WRIGHT CUNNEY has been appointed collector of customs at Galveston. Let's see, was it the Brownwood Appeal that predicted that Cunney would never get there?

COL. J. T. BIRBY died at Abilene last Saturday. Col. Birby was well known in this county, having lived at Belle Plaine several years ago. His friends in this county will be pained to learn of his death.

REPORTS of farmers meeting and resolutions in favor of cotton bagging continue to come in. The Jute bagging trust evidently struck a snag when they attempted to advance the price of bagging.

AT the meeting last week of the Callahan County Alliance the Alliance high school was located by that body at Union Grove, that place being in the center of the county.—Cottonwood Prodigal.

THE best way to kill off a candidate is to bring him out a year or two before the election. Wonder if this is why nearly every paper in the state, big and little, are advocating some particular man for governor to be elected next year?

THE Fort Worth Gazette is considerably exercised over the fact that the assessors' books show that only one-half acre of beans were planted in Tarrant county last year. What's the matter with the beans, they are all right? At least they sold for $25, and still the Gazette is dissatisfied.

THE Texas Western and Jones County Callopie have consolidated and this Texas Western will hereafter be issued by the Anson Printing Co. This is a wise step and we are satisfied the people of Anson and Jones county will find that one paper well patronized will be worth more to the county than to divide their support between two papers.

FROM present indications Belle Plaine college is a thing of the past. This is indeed unfortunate for the county and for the town of Baird especially. A few thousand dollars would have saved this valuable property, but it seems it could not be raised and the school has closed indefinitely. Baird will miss several thousand dollars in trade that we would have received had this school been kept up.

THE people of Callahan county bought about sixty thousand pounds of bacon last year according to the assessor's report. This is about fifteen pounds for each individual in the county. This is a small amount but it is just fifteen pounds for each individual. Baird does not mean to say that the people of Callahan county should eat each bacon, but they should raise it at home.

THE cotton crop of Callahan county for 1888 sold for $74,854. The crop of 1889 will probably amount to $125,000. Baird's business men should begin to hustle for this crop. The first step should be to have the roads worked, and secondly, to plant good seed advertisements in THE STAR.

This commissioners' court have levied a tax to work the roads, but the fund will not be available for several months and if Baird wants to get the trade from the country...

THE County Alliance at its last meeting adopted the Prodigal as the official organ of the Alliance in Callahan county, and the editor of the Prodigal doubtless has beautiful visions of larger supplies of beans, potatoes, melons and subscribers...

ALF. TOLAT, of Abilene, handles Anarchist of the Baird Star controversy in the last issue of THE STAR, and does it in a way that ought to hurt, but we question if reason or argument will reach such extremists.

THE Houston Post says they have donkey parties in that city which are very entertaining. We'd like for the Post to give us an idea of this notable entertainment, as we hereabouts do not understand how she goes.—Albany News.

JUST wait until another political campaign comes around and then donkey meetings will be fashionable.—Stephensville Headlight.

A LITTLE money expended on the different roads leading to town by our business men will be returned to them a hundred fold this fall. It is a settled fact that the farmers are going to trade where they can do the best.

A TOWN may puff and blow as much as it pleases, but if its local paper has one side printed in Dallas and the other at home it is a sure sign that said town has no enterprise or it would support an all home print paper.

WE publish in this issue the resolutions in full adopted by Troy lodge No. 446, A. F. and A. M., upon the death of B. C. Evans of Fort Worth. Masons will notice that a radical departure is taken from the stereotyped resolutions usually adopted upon such occasions.

This is a wise step and we are satisfied the people of Anson and Jones county will find that one paper well patronized will be worth more to the county than to divide their support between two papers.

THE ONLY CURE. "Love is a tender thing," Thus all the poets sing; So when you fell your life Go straight and tender it.—Somerville Journal.

Way Home Institutions Languish. (Brownwood Appeal.) Over a dozen years ago an organization of enterprising capitalists set to work to establish a woolen manufactory at New Braunfels, Tex., with an outlay of over one hundred thousand dollars cash, and a further indebtedness of $125,000.

THE Houston Post says they have donkey parties in that city which are very entertaining. We'd like for the Post to give us an idea of this notable entertainment, as we hereabouts do not understand how she goes.—Albany News.

actly the opposite opinion.—San Antonio Times. Probably no one ever thought the sheriff had the right to name a governor, but Attorney-general Hogg has accused them of a grave offense, and in his accusation proved himself a violator of the law by not prosecuting them.
