Enthusiastic Good Roads Meeting

Callahan County Good Roads Association Organized. Callahan County can Secure Two Great Highways. Mr. E. J. Hernan of the National Good Roads Association and Rev. T. P. Grant of the State Good Roads Association. Address the Meeting

As previously announced, a good roads meeting was held at the Court House Monday night. A number of autos in charge of Judge B. L. Russell, Good Roads Committeeman for Callahan county, went to Putnam Monday morning to meet Mr. E. J. Hernan, Assistant General Director of the National Good Roads Association, Washington, D. C. and Rev. T. P. Grant, of Brady, who recently logged the North and South road through Baird and Albany. The speakers addressed the people of Putnam at 10 o'clock Monday morning and arrived in Baird with the Baird party about 12 o'clock.

Mr. Hernan is inspecting the proposed route from Fort Worth to El Paso, the last link of the Great Southern Highway from Washington to San Diego, California. The route between Fort Worth and El Paso remains to be located and all depends on how much the people living in the counties between the two cities want the road. Brownwood, Coleman, Ballinger and San Angelo are pulling hard to have the road located through these towns, Albany and Breckenridge are trying to have it located through these towns. Eastland and Callahan counties are pulling hard to have the route located along the T. & P. Ry.

Mr. Hernan has just inspected the Albany route and came back west over the T. & P. route. Just what he will do we do not know, but do know this, he is well pleased with the route through Eastland and Callahan counties, but much work has to be done on the road before we can ever hope to have this route even considered in the final decision.

Now it is up to Callahan county to get busy and start work on the road. Delay is dangerous. This Southern Highway will be the greatest continental highway in the United States because it can be used all the year round.

The Court room was well filled and we were glad to see so many ladies present. The ladies are as much interested in good roads as the men.

Judge Russell with the speakers, visited Clyde Monday afternoon and there were some 15 or 20 good roads boosters from that town present at the Baird meeting, among them: Dr. Tisdale, Dr. Bailey, Geo. M. Kerr, and Judge Council.

Judge Russell called the meeting to order and a number of talks were made by local men of Baird and Clyde. The meeting was enthusiastic and the people showed that they were in earnest. For 29 years we have in season and out of season boosted good roads in Callahan county and we are glad to see the people begin to realize the importance of good roads.

Mr. Hernan's speech was plain, practical and gave much interesting information about the good roads movement and the great possibilities for the future of Texas.

When the Great Southern Highway is located permanently it is expected that in time the Federal Government will assume entire control of the road and maintain it and thus let the people develop local roads, feeders for this great highway. Mr. Hernan said the time has come when the Federal Government was going to quit spending millions of dollars annually trying to make navigable unnavigable streams and spend the money building good roads that will benefit all the people.

Rev. Grant's speech was along the same lines, but dealt more with state roads and told what the State Good Roads Association was doing to secure the establishment of a State Highway Department and to employ a Highway Engineer to aid the counties in locating and building roads and asked the people present to organize a County Good Roads Association, which was done. Judge B. L. Russell was elected President and Geo. B. Scott, Secretary and Treasurer of the Association. Post-office address of both is Baird. This Association is a part of the State Association and the initiation fee is $5.00, of which amount $4.00 goes to the State Association and $1.00 is kept in the treasury at home to pay incidental expenses. About 45 members were enrolled at Baird and Clyde promises to come up strong. Y. A. Orr, at Putnam and C. A. Bowman and W. H. Shanks at Clyde are authorized to enroll members in the County Association and collect fees and remit amount to Geo. B. Scott, Secretary, Baird.

The following members were enrolled at Baird:

Secretary Scott requests us to urge all who have enrolled to call or send check for amount of fee as he wishes to remit to State Association next Monday.

We ought to have at least two hundred members in this Association.

FOURTH QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

The 4th Quarterly Conference of Baird Station, M. E. Church, South, was held at the Methodist Church Monday evening at 4:30. Rev. C. N. N. Ferguson, Presiding Elder present. Reports were made by the preacher in charge, Rev. W. Y. Switzer and by the Home Missionary Society, trustees, etc. This is the last visit of Brother Ferguson, as this ends his four years time. He has served this district faithfully and well and the best wishes of the official Board and all the members of the Methodist Church at Baird go with him wherever he may be sent.

This being the last conference for this conference year, there is considerable rounding up to do to complete the years work. Brother Switzer will leave for the annual conference in about ten days.

T. E. Powell, for seventeen years Sunday School Superintendent of the Methodist Church, asked to be relieved and J. W. Turner was appointed in his place. Suitable resolutions thanking Mr. Powell for his earnest, faithful work were adopted and ordered published in THE STAR. There will also appear a list of the Board of Stewards and Trustees.

While the past year has been a hard one on the church in many respects the report of the preacher in charge shows that the church, Sunday School, Missionary Society and Prayer Meeting are all doing well.

Brother Ferguson preached his farewell sermon Sunday night to a good sized audience.

GALVESTON ONE HUNDRED YEARS

OLD AND THE ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED AT ISLAND CITY.

PAGEANT AND BALL FEATURES

Two Thousand Persons in Attendance and the Proceeds Are to Be Applied to Have Playgrounds for the Little Ones.

In honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of Galveston a pageant and ball were held in the city auditorium on the night of Oct. 20. Over 2,000 persons attended. Funds derived will be applied toward assisting the Galveston Playgrounds association equip the city with suit-outdoor recreation places for the little and other children.

Sept. 1, 1816, there landed on Galveston about 200 men commanded by Don Jose Manuel Herrera and Don Luis Aury. Oct. 20 they completed the organization of the first government established at Galveston.

This historical event was the inspiration of the pageant, which featured Karankawa Indians, the first human beings on the island, and Jean Lafitte, pirate and leader of a commune that flourished at the Island City from 1817 to 1821. Days of the Texas war for independence, days of '61 and a tableau symbolical of modern Galveston were episodes of the pageant, presented by several hundred schoolboys and girls.

"WILSON FOR ME!"

THIS IS THE GREETING ROOSEVELT GETS AT GALLUP, N. M.

Colonel Roosevelt, on his campaign tour of the west for the Republican ticket, spoke Saturday in New Mexico and Arizona. He bitterly denounced the Mexican policy of President Wilson and advocated the election of C. E. Hughes.

At Gallup, N. M., where the colonel raised half of his rough riders, he had hardly commenced to speak, when noisy heckling commenced.

"How's Teddy, but Wilson for me!" shouted a railroad man.

Roosevelt made several efforts to speak, but others took up the cry, "How about Wilson? I bet you love him."

"I love no one too proud to fight," retorted Roosevelt.

"We've all got good jobs. Why should we change?" was shouted.

"Yes, but you forget the thousands out of work until the European war put money in your pockets," he said.

"How about the 1907 panic?" a man called out. At that, we would vote for you if you were running."

"What did you ever do? We've got eight hours!" yelled a railroad man with powerful lungs.

"You fool and coward!" shouted the colonel, "go home and sober up."

At Belen, N. M., Wilson pictures were thrust under his nose. Doris Gore, eleven years old, held one before him.

"You're too pretty a little girl to have such a picture," he said, patting her plump arm.

"Oh, I ain't either."

"Hurrah for Wilson!" was shouted.

"Hurrah yourself and this time for Hughes," was the retort.

REPUBLICANS CONCEDE OHIO.

BULLETIN AT TOLEDO ADMITS WILSON WILL CARRY STATE.

On the face of a statement issued by National Committeeman Hynicka of Ohio that the state would go for Hughes by a safe margin, a bulletin published at Republican headquarters in Toledo conceded that on the present polls President Wilson will carry the state by 30,000, but says Willis will be re-elected governor over J. M. Cox, Democrat, by 15,580.

Ferguson Sues Morris.

Suit was filed in district court at Bellville by Governor J. E. Ferguson against C. H. Morris of Winnsboro, claiming $25,000 actual and $25,000 exemplary damages through publication in the Austin Statesman and Tribune of alleged libelous articles. Mr. Morris is the only defendant named.

Austrian Premier Slain.

Count Stuergh, the Austrian premier, while dining in a Vienna hotel Saturday was shot three times by Ludwig Adler, a publisher of that city, and died instantly.

Quality First

After Nov. 30, it will cost you just $70 more to buy a 7-22 Chalmers. But the price on the 5-passenger 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers remains (for the time being) $1090 Detroit

Until midnight of Nov. 30 you can get a 7-22 Chalmers for $1280 Detroit—a car of rare ability, fascinating in body equipment, and, like a beautiful woman, of exquisite charm.

After that date the price becomes $1350 Detroit—$70 more. The $70 is just a few dollars less than the increase in cost of manufacture of this car since its appearance in June.

To those who have longed for the 5-passenger 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers—and have not yet possessed one, just a word of warning: the price remains unchanged just now—$1090 Detroit; we do not know how long this low price will continue. We reserve the right to increase the price without notice.

Only those who are buying materials such as go into high-grade automobiles can begin to realize the steady, upward trend of the materials market.

Just one condition today prevents a rise in price of the 5-passenger 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers—the fact that these cars are being made on a factory "work order" dating back several months.

Since the "work order" went through materials have jumped in cost again. When the current "work order" is completed and if materials remain at their present level or rise higher, only one course will be possible, an increased price.

Those who have been driving Chalmers cars know how diligent has been the Chalmers effort to set down cars of the quality kind.

They will understand how impossible it would be for Chalmers to dodge the increase-in-materials issue and maintain the prevailing price on the 7-22 Chalmers.

Lower the quality of the Chalmers car? Never. The Chalmers men take great pride, not only in the money the car makes for them, but in the car itself. And pride, as everyone knows, is a thing that can never be compromised.

As long as there's a name "Chalmers", there will be a quality car, and as long as there's a quality car there'll be a price fixed—not by the Sales Department—but by cost accountants.

And there'll be a fair deal. Chalmers says these two 3400 r. p. m. models will be continued into next season. You can bank on that. So that a Chalmers car you might buy now will be exactly like the one you would buy next spring.

Remember the $70 you can save now by anticipating the rise in price. There's an old Scotch proverb that says "A dollar saved is a dollar earned". $70 buys a good suit of clothes, a good pair of shoes, a good hat and some good gloves. Also it just about pays your dues at the club for a year.

Or, if it's a 5-passenger 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers you want, our advice is to get one now.

We are not sure the price is going up and we are not sure that it isn't.

TEXAS TALES TOLD BY TYPE

HAPPENINGS OF THE PAST FEW DAYS
CONDENSEDLY STATED.

ALL PARTS OF STATE COVERED

Rev. H. B. Wallin, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, Dallas, has accepted a call to a church at San Antonio.

Prairie Oil and Gas company will sink a well at once in the neighborhood of Fouke, fourteen miles south of Texarkana. Leases have been secured in all that territory.

J. J. Speed, son of S. G. Speed, a prominent stockman and farmer, was acquitted at Pearsall on the charge of killing W. S. Sloan at Derby, a tenant farmer on the Speed ranch.

W. O. Davidson, an employee of the Texas and Pacific railway as a telegraph operator many years and past twenty-eight years manager of Denton office, is dead, aged sixty-three.

Annual assembly of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene, Dallas district, was held at Sherman, about fifty evangelists being present and a like number of churches represented.

Houston chamber of commerce has employed Louis J. Hennessey, formerly with the New Orleans association of commerce, as publicity agent and manager of the convention department.

A bale of cotton raised on one and a fourth acres of sandy upland land without fertilization one mile from Tyler is the record of A. G. Bright, a tenant farmer. It and the seed sold for $152.32.

Owing to old age, Bishop J. S. Johnston of the Episcopal diocese of West Texas has resigned. His home is at Kerrville. During the civil war the venerable prelate was a Confederate soldier.

Important questions dealing with the revision of homestead laws were discussed at the International Dry Farming congress, held at El Paso in connection with the International Soil Products exposition.

Edwina Cozeaux, nine years old, the child of Charles Cozeaux, was burned to death at Dayton when the family home was destroyed by fire. Rest of the family, which included three other children, barely escaped.

Soon after drinking from a dipper on his front porch William Watson, a Centerville (Shelby county) became very ill. Antidotes were promptly applied. It was discovered that poison had been put in the dipper.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK GAINS 300 PER CENT

It is particularly pleasurable to call special attention to the increase in business made by this Winters institution and to note the steady, healthy increase from time to time. In this issue we publish the statement of condition as made to the Comptroller of the Currency on Sept. 12th.

This bank was organized March 27th, 1915, with total deposits of $43,000. After a period of 18 months this bank now shows a remarkable record of 300 per cent net gain in deposits, more, perhaps, than can be said of any other bank in the entire western half of the State. This gain is shown in deposits on this date being $175,000.00.

The continued growth of the First National has enabled it to become one of the most potent factors in the upbuilding of Winters and the Winters Country, and its influence is felt throughout the entire section.

The showing reflects the confidence of the general public in this growing institution and at the same time casts credit upon the untiring energy of Cashier Hillyard and Assistant Cashier Franklin in their combined efforts to make the First National Bank a credit to the community and a useful factor in the growth and prosperity of Winters and the Winters Country.

May they continue their efforts with the same degree of success that has attended them in the first year and a half of their work here.—The Winters Enterprise.

The good road spirit is working in Callahan county and we are going to do something, something more than we have ever done in road building. The meeting at the Court House Monday night is evidence of the awakened interest in good roads in Callahan county. We want to keep the interest growing and the first thing necessary is to get every live wire in the county to join the good roads Association organized Monday night.

We received a card this week from T. P. Cooper and Son, saying that they would revive the Colorado Clipper after a suspension of several years. The Colorado Clipper was one of the first papers founded at Colorado soon after the T. & P. reached that place and was put on THE BAIRD STAR'S exchange list when we issued the first number of this paper twenty-nine years ago, 1887. The old Clipper was a splendid paper and here's hoping that the new proprietor will make the new Clipper even better than the old.

The people of Baird do not yet realize what it will be worth to Baird or any town, to be located on the great Southern Highway, but they soon will. We must put the road in good condition and it will not require a great deal of money either, but it will require some money, good roads do not build themselves. We must act at once. Because two great auto highways have been logged through Baird don't get the idea that there is nothing to do. We must fix up the two roads, east and west north and south, then too there are the local roads. We need a route to Admiral, Cottonwood, and Cross Plains to connect with the Brownwood road. If we secure the location of the two great national highways through Baird it will be easy to get these other roads more local in their nature. We must not forget that we must have a better and more direct road to Oplin. These things are worth striving for and are absolutely necessary if Baird is ever to amount to anything.

DANGER IN USING GIN TRASH

By Frederick H. Blodgett, Plant Pathologist, Extension Service, A. & M. College of Texas.

Farmers are thinking this year more than some seasons about fertilizers and diseases. As the crop is more completely gathered the amount of trash appears to materially increase. At present there is an average waste of dirt, burrs, leaves, etc. of one hundred pounds to the ton of seed cotton. In many cases the waste is nearly double this amount, and in carefully picked cotton is of course, much less.

Many gins allow the broked burrs, along with some waste seed, to accumulate in considerable quantities. The farmers patronizing the gin haul this trash away for its supposed fertilizing value. There are always numbers of diseased bolls among those from which this trash is formed, the diseased spots being due to anthracnose and bacterial spot about equally. These diseased bolls or burrs are a source of danger, if used as fertilizer for next year's cotton crop. The disease will retain its vitality in the bolls, leaves, etc. for a year, according to experiments in other cotton states. It is a source of danger to the next crop to scatter those infected boll fragments upon the land.

The farmer could add more than double the fertilizer material to the land by turning the whole stalk under than by scattering the dry bolls only over the land. At the same time the soil would be improved by the addition of vegetable matter so as to better hold moisture and reduce drouth injury. This year with the cotton out of the field so early, the stalks can easily be turned under before they are killed by frost. With the sap in stem and leaf, decay will be more complete and the material become incorporated into the soil more promptly as plant food.

Turn under cotton stalks while still green, if possible; do not burn them.

Use "bolley ashes" for fertilizer if convenient, but do not use the gin dirt pile; there is too much disease carrying material in the old bolls.

To be of any real value the gin trash should be spread nearly two inches deep on the land before breaking, the hauling of such a quantity is more expensive than a similar value in city manure.

If one feels that he must use the trash, he should put it on his corn or grain land, but not on cotton land.

MRS. W. E. TOWNLEY

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

BURNT BRANCH CULLINGS

We clip from the Dallas News, that know it all on subjects, political, historical and otherwise, but they are progressive and make history and palm it off on we ignoramous, but the founders knew Texas history like a kid knows a primer. Now listen, Uncle Bill: "J. H. Lowery, who is visiting his daughter here, he is 85 years old and claims to be the oldest resident of Texas at the present time, having lived in the state for nearly 82 years. He attended the first democratic convention at Waco, Texas, held soon after the civil war, being a delegate from Collin county. This was the convention that nominated Dick Runnels over Sam Houston etc. "Now at the close of the war Uncles Dick Runnels and Sam Houston had gone to that home from which no traveler returns, both these distinguished gentlemen having died during the Civil War, Houston at Independence and Runnels on his plantation in Bowie county, and could only have been present in the spirit. The first Democratic governor elected after the war was J. W. Turockmorton, who was removed as an impediment to reconstruction, by the powers that were. This is on a par with some Texas history poked down the throat of the rising generation. Come some more Mr. Lovejoy and your champion, the Dallas News.

"Juan" was the first to feel the thrust of Uncle Bills "Blue X," as we received no Star last week and feel like we had lost a year of life Co. Com. Houston, that big souled man, is at it again, accommodating "Juan" with water and grass. There never was a better man than Milton and when he wants promotion I will help in the promoting act I see my old friend, Dr. Collier is visiting at Sulphur Springs. A pleasant visit, good time generally and a safe return home, my grand old friend of long ago.

Wheat $1.50, flour $4.00, as Jim Walker says: Please pass the corn bread."

When Uncle John Wagner was in the drug and stationery business he gave me an indelible pencil and I thought so much of it and used it so incessantly it has worn to a frazzel end. See, And Uncle Bill sent me a lot of nice white writing paper and its gone too. See again, Provided however, the stuff thus produced pays for the material.

Jno. W. Aiken lost a fine cow. To show she was a good one her hide brought $9.80 green. We used to have them butchered for the hide and tallow and sell the beef for 2 1-2 and 3 cents, but those days are past, but once and awhile we take less as on this occasion, $60.00 minus $9.80 equals $50.20 on the wrong side of the balance sheet.

Wind from the north, cool and bracing but dry, maybeso resin sometime.

The Cutbirth contingent will wind up the stubble breaking this week. Fritz and George have got "the get up and get that makes men great."

The cotton pick is a thing of the past in these parts and all express satisfaction at the results.

The tractor runneth without tailing the brones.

Jack Aiken is working on his hog pasture this week.

A goober machine passed north-bound to work the new staple.

Most all are too sanguine as regards a Democratic victory or a walk-over for Wilson, "there's many a slip twixt the cup and the lip. We hope for the best though."

All armies, as per reports are victorious, but the people the bone and sinew of the countries involved are simply starving to death. Thankful should we be we are not in it and a change might involve this country in the scrap. Let well enough alone.

Let me know when cometh District Court, Uncle Bill. I must come up and help Blanton out on his last rattle out of the box, and when he becomes Congressman I must go up to Washington, ditto.

Ed Odom raised and thrashed nearly 1000 bushels of peanuts. Figures it yourself at present prices and you will say the best crop raised so far. Will later on give it exact.

"The old scout" Hugh runs his steam outfit till way in the night and has about wound up the breaking.

O. D. Morrow, Will Duncan and others are on a prospecting trip to far off New Mexico.

Old friends, Manning and Arro-wood have gone to Arizona to take a peep at the surroundings. Others are on the prospect, the first thing you know this country will be depopulated.

Rev. Thorn is thrashing goobers in this and surrounding country, while other outfits are doing the frailing act in other localities. The boys are getting in the feed preparatory to the rain.

Good little shower last night filled the tubs and empty vessels, and thats all; maybeso more. This damp and drizzly weather is seriously damaging the goobers on the ground un-threshed up to this time. Several loads marketed at the Terminal yesterday with more to follow.

The future grain crop is becoming a serious proposition in these parts. If seasons permit the sowing at all it will be late for wheat and spring oats is an uncertain crop. This will necessitate a big acreage in cotton, corn and late feed stuff. Will have to mix hogs and cows.

One fellow watching and praying for rain, another petitioning thus: "I trust to the Lord to send no rain until I get my goobers thrashed and housed. You see its hard to please us all.

No Star, no Dallas News only the remains of an ill spent life, but such is our mail service.

Joe Baum is bailing hay for the citizenship generally he has the best outfit in the country.

This is the noisest country in the world, you can hear a steam whistle in any direction.

The Methodist protracted meeting at Burnt Branch is scheduled to commence today.

Our efficient mail man "Slim Jim" sports a two in hand on account of the predicted rain.

"Jusa."

COTTONWOOD LOCALS

October 17, 1916

Editor Star: After a long dry spell of weather the rain has come and it keeps wet, and the farmers, it seems are doomed to loose a part of all their peanuts. Some have their peanuts out of the ground, but only thrown in wind rows and if the wet days continue, more or less of them will go to the bad, and those that are still in the ground will sprout. Some are going right along gathering regardless of the wet condition of the land.

Miss Mattie Casey is visiting in Brownwood again this week, the guest of her sister.

Mr. Grady Respass left Monday on the mail car for some point north or west, we are ignorant as to his destination.

Grandma Ray is still very low and is not expected to live, the only change observable is, she is growing weaker all the time. All her children are here and have been here for the last few days. Some of them have returned to their homes.

Mr. Flowers living on Mr Casey's farm in the Sabano community, a few days ago stuck a bone in his foot, supposed to be a chicken bone. In a short time blood poison set up and last Saturday morning he died, and was buried in the cemetery at Cottonwood in the afternoon. We presume there were religious services held at the grave, but being absent ourselves, we are not positive. Peace to his ashes and our condolence to the bereaved family.

Since we began this communication it has began to rain and has rained a hard rain already and is still raining.

Say Uncle Billie if this wet weather continues it will ruin the peanuts and there is no cotton and what will the farmer's do, if the farmers have the only money crop they have destroyed? I can not see for the life of me what they will do, and again the retail merchant who has trusted them on the strength of the peanut crop and trusted solely to that source for his pay must suffer, to say the best of it and some will fail. If through the bad management of our president we had been thrown into a war, what would have been the result? But thanks to the keen foresight and the indomitable will of Mr. Wilson, war has been up to the present time, averted. Now if the people know when they are well off politically, they will select him and thus secure a strong advocate for peace another four years.

We will have to acknowledge that we have through the influence of our daughter and her man been inveigled into working a few days to aid them to get their peanuts out of the ground, and have not had much opportunity to gather any news.

Yesterday was trade day at Cross Plains and also the regular day for the U. C. V's to meet and we attended both, and had an enjoyable occasion, but it is real sad to see how tottery some of the old fellows are getting, while we realize we are one of them and with the rest of them will soon have to answer "roll call" across the river, yet we are quite stout for one of our years but awful clumsy.

Well I have scarcely room enough but must positively "keno."

"Uncle Jimmie."

Oct. 24th, 1916.

It seems that we are getting our lines crossed. On account of the failure of the mails from Cottonwood we have been unable to get our communications to the Baird office on time, but we have been on time at Cottonwood office every time and the deficiency has been in the mails not in us.

There is a rush on in this country to get the peanuts to the thrasher, every available hand of each sex is employed and a big demand for more. Why they have had Uncle Jimmie at work, what do you think of that, "Juan?" But to get Uncle Jimmie to the field and to keep him there is entirely two propositions.

There is some prospect of rain this morning which will increase the exertions to save the peanuts and the demand for hands will increase, and wages will soar skyward.

On Wednesday morning, Oct. 18th Grandma Ray, midst her children and sorrowing friends passed from this world to go and realize a vast eternity. Grandma Ray has suffered quite a while, but now we trust she is in a world where sorrow and pain does not exist. We think perhaps all her children save two were with her in her last hours. She leaves we think, ten children, a number of grand children, some great grand-children and a sorrowing husband to mourn her demise. We extend condolence to the bereaved ones. Peace to her ashes.

kett, were week end visitors to Cottonwood last week, the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Uncle Jimmie. Mrs. Burkett is teaching again this winter.

Deputy Sheriff Williams of Cross Plains passed through Cottonwood Monday enroute to Dallas in search of L. M. Bond of Cross Plains, who went to Dallas last week and was to return Saturday as per telegram to his family, but nothing has been heard from him since.

At the last meeting of the U. C. V's, of Camp Sul Ross at Cross Plains it was resolved to join the notional U. C. V's and the desired funds were raised and the acting Adjutant was instructed to apply for a charter. At the next meeting a short program will be rendered and the camp will elect new officers and perhaps an effort will be made to organize the daughters.

EULA LOCALS

October 23, 1916

Well Uncle Bill I guess you are wanting to know what has become of "Patsie," you know we have been awful busy, and rain, we sure have had it. We have the finest season we have had in a long time. Some have sowed wheat, I think there will be a lot of wheat planted this year. Wheat is such a good price and cotton is bringing a very good price. Cotton was selling at 18 cents in Clyde Saturday.

Uncle Bill just keep telling them about good roads and some day I hope we will have good roads all over Callahan county. You know we have the best county in the state and to make it a better county is to keep her roads up in good shape. George Gartner and Lloyd Farmer have haggred the clay road south of Eula and it is like a pike.

The young folks of Eula enjoyed a party at Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jones' Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gartner were shopping in Clyde Saturday afternoon.

R. E. Bockman was trading in Clyde last Friday.

J. M. Davis and others spent the first part of the week at the Dallas Fair.

Dan Clark, of Dudley, was in Eula, Tuesday. Patsie.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

With the exception of black ink, all raw materials used in manufacture of a newspaper have advanced in cost during the past twelve months approximately 100 per cent. This means that it will cost your publisher practically double to supply you with a newspaper the coming year.

Under stress of these unusual conditions, The Star-Telegram has been forced to increase its "Bargain Days" rate from $3.25 to $3.65. An increase of 40c per year (3 1-3c per month) or 12 per cent. Based on the conservative estimate increase in production cost of 100 per cent, under this price the division of added expense will be as follows:

Increased expense to The Star-Telegram88%
Increased expense to The Reader12%

This situation means that after "Bargain Days" the regular rate of $6.00 per year must be strictly enforced. We have battered the price to the very bottom in order to protect our Annual Subscription Cheap Rate Period, which has been in effect since the establishment of The Star-Telegram.

Do not take chances, save the $2.35, by ordering before Bargain Days expire. Take advantage of the $3.65 rate.

The high standard of The Star-Telegram will be maintained as long as there is a Star-Telegram regardless of any war burdens.

Some Thoughts to Take Home With You About The Buick 1916 Six

More 1916 Buick Valve-in-Head Sixes have been bought than any other six-cylinder car ever built. More people are today demanding this particular Buick model than ever demanded any single model in automobile history. In this car is found the development of the best thoughts and ideas of leading American and foreign automobile engineers. Every sound theory of mechanics have been investigated, and when consistent with Buick Valve-in-Head basic principles, have been adopted. The Buick Valve-in-Head motor consumes and uses a larger per centage of the power contained in gasoline than any other motor.
