

THE MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

"BOOSTING THE BUSIEST LITTLE TOWN IN TEXAS"

VOLUME 1—NUMBER 7

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1937

$1 PER YEAR—5c PER COPY

HATCHERY OPENS 1937 SEASON IN NEW QUARTERS

Normal Capacity of Giant Incubator Is 7,200 Eggs Weekly

Last Monday, January 4, marked the opening of a new era in the history of the Muenster Hatchery. On that day, for the first time the hatchery began operations in its new home. For the past two years the business enjoyed such a marked success in the old Wolf Theatre building that it was able to finance the new $2,000 home on Main Street.

Felix Becker, manager of the Muenster Hatchery, started this year's business by setting 3,000 eggs in the giant incubator. He explained that it is his intention to make light settings until he is certain that everything is working in tip top shape. As soon as he feels assured that conditions are correct he will be in a position to set as many as 7,200 eggs each week, and in emergency cases, by making special arrangements in the incubator he can set considerably more than the regular setting.

The incubator itself is actually a fair sized room with an aisle in the center and 175 trays for eggs on either side. Each tray holds 150 eggs and the total 350 trays will hold more than 52,000. The task of turning eggs once a day is simplified by tilting the trays, which are suspended on chains.

Temperature in the incubator is kept constant at 99 degrees by the use of a thermostat. Heat is provided by steam radiators in connection with circulating fans that drive the warm air from the ceiling to the floor and thence under the curtains, which separate the trays from the aisle, and from there travels upward

See HATCHERY, Page 4

KNIGHTS CONSIDER NEW AMENDMENT ON CHILD LABOR

Muenster Council to Have Short Study Club Session as Part of Future Meetings

The child labor amendment, which is before the Texas Legislature at the present time, was the outstanding topic of discussion at the Knights of Columbus regular meeting held on January 6.

Father Frowin, chaplain of the council, warned those present that the amendment, unless very satisfactorily worded, could be interpreted as taking authority over a child from the hands of parents and placing it in the hands of the State. In that event two very serious complications could develop. The child could successfully refuse its parents' command to do any kind of work and in that way completely break down the Christian idea of the sacredness of the home. And again, the State would be in a position to close denominational schools if complete authority over the choice of a school were taken from parents.

Following a motion by Herbert Meurer, the council voted to secure from State Deputy C. K. Welch of Wichita Falls a statement of the State council's attitude regarding the amendment and the basis, if any, on which the Knights should voice their objection.

It was felt that since the proposed amendment was undoubtedly originated to remedy some evil it must have some good points that are worthy of consideration, but at all

See KNIGHTS, Page 4

Ida Walterscheid Is Honored at Bridal Shower by Relatives

Relatives of Ida Walterscheid gathered in the local Knights of Columbus Hall on New Year's night honoring her with a bridal shower before her marriage to Meinrad Hesse on January 4.

A group of almost 70 guests consisting chiefly of brothers, sisters, and cousins of the bride with their respective families enjoyed a pleasant session of progressive 42.

Sandwiches, cake, and coffee were served as refreshments.

City Council Chooses Muenster Enterprise As Official Newspaper

In a meeting of the City Council on January 4 a motion was carried to have The Muenster Enterprise recognized as the official newspaper of Muenster.

Naturally, The Enterprise staff is elated over the honor conferred upon the product of their efforts. They consider the Council's action as an expression of confidence and in return give their assurance that the confidence will not be betrayed.

The Enterprise, spurred on by Muenster's confidence, will continue in its chosen work of "boosting the busiest little town in Texas."

MUENSTER GIRLS NEW THREATS IN COUNTY CIRCLES

Show Flashes of Form in Victory Over Team from Calisburg

If Muenster's Volley Ball girls will convince themselves that they are capable of keeping up the good work begun in the Calisburg match Tuesday night, they are definitely in the running for Round Robin honors, is the general consensus of opinion in Cooke County sports circles now. In the best exhibition the local lassies have given to date, they took two games in a row 15-6 and 15-13 to win the match and second place in the Class B standing.

Valley View's green clad damsels continue to retain their strangle hold on top position and a perfect record after their decisive victory in the contest with Era.

In the opening minutes of the first game Muenster forged to the front and held their preferred position throughout. All members of the squad were clicking nicely as they steadily added a point or two while holding their opponents to a few scattered markers.

For a while the second game seemed to be destined for a decidedly unfavorable ending. The teamwork and co-operation so apparent earlier seemed to give way at times to panic and general confusion. However,

See MUENSTER GIRLS, Page 4

Muenster Volley Ball Girls Accept Invitation To Stoneburg Tourney

Miss Dorothy Fette, coach of the Muenster High School volley ball team, has accepted an invitation to the Stoneburg Tournament Friday and Saturday of this week, she advised Tuesday night.

The only information she was able to disclose concerning the tourney is that the local girls will be matched against the strong Ringold sextet in their opening encounter.

The girls who are definitely slated to make the trip are Louise Schmitz, Virginia Gehrig, Alvina Gehrig, Mildred Patrick, Nita Jean Camp, and Bernice Kathman.

News Briefs

Ben Luke took the Subiaco sextet back to their classwork last Monday morning.

Mrs. Charles Pagel is driving a 1937 DeLuxe Sport Chevrolet Sedan purchased from Joe Wilde during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Baker of Chicago arrived Monday night for a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Muenster. They are the guests of Mrs. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hellman.

Ray Wilde and Maurice Pagel have completed another step in their march toward a second class scout rating by passing their cooking and fire building tests. At the same time Herbie Camp passed his cooking test requirement for first class scouting.

Ben Benson drove to Dallas last week to be present at the wedding of his brother. He was met there by his wife, who had spent the Christmas holidays with her family at Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Benson returned to Muenster December 31.

Father Francis left Wednesday morning as a chauffeur for John Schilling and Misses Marie Becker, Anna Becker, and Margaret Simmons on a trip to Windthorst where Miss Simmons visited at the bedside of her sick sister, Mrs. Muench-rath.

Additional NEWS BRIEFS, Page 2

Test for the Nerves

Dr. Thomas H. Staggers, mechano-therapist of Cleveland, Ohio, thinks he has something here as he piles match upon match upon match, all upon the mouth of a beer bottle. The something is a test of steady nerves. Working most of two days, the doctor succeeded in erecting a tower of 3,585 matches before someone with a heavy tread caused the edifice to collapse. This tower upon which the doctor is shown working, is his second attempt. He has promised to keep at it until the first tower is left far in the shade.

Permit Granted to The Enterprise By Postal Department

Your publishers are happy to announce the receipt of a communication from the Third Assistant Postmaster General at Washington advising that a permit has been granted for the entry of The Muenster Enterprise as second class mail.

Application for the permit was made by ourselves on December 10 and the permit was made effective as of December 11.

SUMACS RETAIN PERFECT SCORE IN ROUND ROBIN

Burger Lads Take Calisburg 48-14 in Game Played Tuesday Night

Tony Burger's Sumacs retained their first place and perfect record in the Cooke County Class B Round Robin schedule by smothering the Calisburg quintet 48-14 in the Gainesville Fair Park Gymnasium Tuesday night.

By scoring a decisive victory of 34-11 over the Era team Valley View's Eagles moved up to second place in the league standing.

From the opening whistle fans were assured that Tuesday night's contest was all Muenster's. The Sumacs started the game by carrying the ball into enemy territory and, following a few unsuccessful attempts at the basket, scored three field goals in rapid succession. From that time until the closing whistle the game was little more than a series of scoring sprees for the Muenster boys.

Dan Renfro, stellar forward on the Sumac club took the lion's share of the scoring honors with a total of 25 points. His teammate, Albert Hoehn, ranked second with 10 points, and Castleberry of Calisburg was third with 8.

Throughout the game the Sumacs continued to extend the margin of advantage over their foes. The first quarter ended at 10-2, the half at 19-5, and the third quarter at 36-8.

Mr. Burger sent in his reserves in the second quarter and again in the final period, to give them a total playing time of approximately one quarter. During that time Calisburg scored 7 points against 4 for Muenster.

Late in the final period Mr. Burger responded to the regulars' plea and permitted them to re-enter the game in the hope of running the score up to 50 points. The lads, never having scored that number of points in a contest, made a gallant last-minute attempt to reach the mark but their efforts fell short by 2 points.

Census Shows Decrease in Cooke County Cotton Crop

A census report recently received from the United States Department of Commerce reveals that 8,850 bales of cotton were ginned in Cooke County from the crop of 1936 prior to December 13, 1936, as compared with 9,391 bales ginned to December 13 of the 1935 crop.

Meinrad Hesse Marries Miss Ida Walterscheid in First Wedding of Year

Muenster's first wedding of the new year was solemnized at the Sacred Heart Church Monday morning, January 4, when Ida Walterscheid became the bride of Meinrad Hesse. The couple were married by the Rev. Father Frowin, pastor of the Muenster parish, who was also the celebrant of a Nuptial High Mass. Leo Henseid, the groom's companion at work in the local Waples-Painter lumber yard, led the choir in the four-voice "Susan Corda," a composition by Franz Hamma.

The bride's sister, Agnes, and the groom's nephew, Frank Felderhoff, were bridesmaid and best man for the occasion.

The bridal ensemble consisted of a white satin dress with three-quarter length white veil and an arm bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was dressed in royal blue satin and a white turban style hat and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Decorations for the main altar of the church were made up principally of white chrysanthemums and poinsettias along with dozens of lighted candles.

Immediately after the nuptial ceremony the young couple accompanied by their immediate families and Fathers Frowin and Francis, had a wedding breakfast in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Wm. Walterscheid.

Following the breakfast Mr. Hesse and his wife left for a trip to San Antonio and other cities of South Texas. They intend to be back in Muenster in about a week.

During his absence Meinrad's place at the Waples-Painter Co. is being filled by Charles Fisher, book-keeper of the Waples-Painter Co. of Gainesville.

LUGS PROHIBITED ON MAIN STREET BY CITY COUNCIL

Plans to Retain Frank Hoedebeck As City Marshal Being Made by Muenster Body

Tractors with lugs and any other implements or vehicles injurious to pavement are to remain off the main street of Muenster, it was decided in the regular meeting of the Muenster City Council on Monday night, January 4.

The penal code which applies to injuries on State and Federal highways will be adopted by the city. This code provides for a fine of not less than $100 for violation of the statute.

A considerable shock to the council members came with Frank Hoedebeck's resignation as city marshal. In view of the fact that Muenster has enjoyed a noticeable decrease in disturbances during the two years Frank held his office, Muenster people are especially re-

See CITY COUNCIL, Page 4

News Review of the Week

British and Nazi Moves May Force Showdown

Jan. 5.—At the same time England and Germany made moves that may make a European war out of Spain's civil war.

England demanded of Germany and Italy that they reply not later than Saturday to Britain's proposals to stop the flow of foreign volunteers to Spain.

Germany advised that the Palos incident will be considered as closed Friday at 8 a.m. If at that time Socialist Spain does not return Germany's one passenger and cargo the Nazi government will turn over to the Spanish insurgents the two Spanish ships she captured from the Socialists.

If those threats are carried out what will happen?

Automobile Workers Continue Differences with General Motors

Jan. 5.—Almost 50,000 General Motors employees are idle in 16 strike affected plants as the labor-management differences continue with neither side willing to give in, and Government agencies seek to form a conciliation satisfactory to both groups.

Homer Martin, president of the Automobile Workers of America, advises that a general stoppage of General Motors is under way and expresses his willingness to co-operate in the Government's effort to reach a conciliation.

Democrats Elect Rayburn As New House Chief

Jan. 4.—Among party pow-wows, back-slapping, and general bustle, the Democrats of the House of Representatives elected Sam Rayburn of Texas as their leader for the coming session of Congress. Rayburn won over O'Connor of New York 184 to 127.

England Sends Warships to Patrol Spanish Waters

Jan. 4.—Seventeen of Great Britain's warships were set to the task of protecting British merchantmen since the recent halting of one British ship and the shelling of another.

At the same time official protests were directed to the Spanish insurgents.

Meanwhile Socialist officials at Bilbao advised English ships to navigate with care and announced long range coastal batteries were set for "practice" fire into the patrol course of two German ships.

From Berlin a statement is released by Nazi officials that German ships will continue to seize and search Socialist Spanish ships to avenge the capture of the German ship Palos.

Complications in Spanish War May Lead to General European War

Jan. 3.—Dangers of international warfare increase as the countries of Europe stand at attention following Germany's recent shelling of one Spanish vessel and capture of another. Nazi officials say the acts were to punish Spain for the capture of a German ship which was released only after the cargo and a sailor had

See NEWS REVIEW, Page 4

ROAD SOUTH OF MUENSTER GETS NEW GRAVELING

Felker Secures WPA Help in First Project of Administration

"Babe" Felker, the new commissioner of the southwest corner of Cooke County, is beginning his first administration with a bang. Early Monday morning, January 4, he had his crew and a group of 43 WPA workers together at the Barney Voth farm south of Muenster getting organized for the graveling project that will extend from the Big Elm bridge to the Muenster city limits.

In an interview Monday morning Mr. Felker advised that the graveling project now under way includes the road leading to Muenster from the south and the mile of road between the Vogel and Kleiss homes southwest of Muenster.

Through the extension of a Federal grant Mr. Felker was able to secure WPA assistance until February 15 in the construction of the two roads. During that time the Federal Government will assume 70 per cent of the financial burden and Cooke County the remaining 30 per cent. According to the new commissioner there is a good chance of completing the work before the deadline if favorable weather continues and no unforeseen difficulties develop.

A crew of 43 WPA gravel scoopers under the direction of Mr. Ligon, who had charge of the WPA workers during the street paving project, are loading a fleet of trucks from gravel pits on the Barney Voth farm two and a half miles south of Muenster.

Following preliminary grader work the gravel is being spread eight inches deep and 16 feet wide.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY INITIATES CLASS OF 16 NEW MEMBERS

Father John and Ten Guests from Lindsay Are Present at Ceremony

Sixteen new members were initiated into the Muenster Holy Name Society in a meeting pronounced by Father Francis, spiritual adviser, and Al Kleiss, president, as the most pleasant and successful gathering in the society's two years of existence. Special guests were 10 members of the Lindsay young men's group accompanied by their spiritual adviser, Father John Nigg. The meeting was held on the night of Tuesday, January 5, at the Sacred Heart Parish Hall, 93 of the old members being present.

The newly initiated members are Lawrence Voth, Raymond Temple, Alfred Sicking, John P. Streng, Martin Klement, Lawrence Knabe, John Knabe, Joe H. Walterscheid, Norbert Knabe, Arnold Hess, Leo Schmitt, Anthony Klement, Harry Otto, Arnold Rohmer, Albert Herr, and John Sicking.

As yet no definite date has been set for the formal acceptance of the new members at the special church services.

Following the initiation ceremonies the crowd enjoyed refreshments and more than an hour of visiting in the basement of the hall.

Lindsay's delegation was made up of Father John, Ray Kupper, Gregory Hundt, Herbert Hundt, Lawrence Streng, Bill Flusche, Joe Hundt, Vincent Zimmerer, Tony Koester, Joe Spaeth, and Fred Mosman.

Deacons Ordained in Sunday's Services at Myra Baptist Church

Rev. C. M. Thomas filled both morning and evening appointments at the Baptist Church Sunday.

A special ordination service was held Sunday afternoon for the purpose of ordaining the following deacons of the church: John Lomax, Lee Livingston, N. Melton, Edd Jones and H. H. Baldwin.

Those assisting in the service were Rev. E. G. Pennington, Reverend McClelland, C. B. Farr, Reverend Jordan, S. R. Crow, and the pastor, Rev. C. M. Thomas.

THE Muenster Enterprise
Published Every Friday at Muenster, Cooke County, Texas

Entered as second-class matter December 11, 1936, at the post office at Muenster, Texas, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1937

R. N. FETTE, Editor and Publisher
WILLIAM FINK, Managing Editor
E. J. FETTE, Advertising and Circulation Manager

Subscription (In Cooke County): $1
Outside Cooke County.....$1.50

Display, per column inch.....25c
Foreign, per column inch.....35c
Readers, Among Locals, line.....5c

FINANCING A GYMNASIUM

The support Muenster's athletic teams are getting from local fans is really encouraging. If the boys and girls have a chance to win their games they are certain to come through with flying colors.

To those of us who are looking forward to Muenster's gymnasium the constantly increasing number of sports fans has a far more important significance. To us it means that our people are wasting precious time by delaying a gymnasium project.

The one important problem in erecting any building is the method of financing it. In the case of a gym here it could be paid for within 10 years by the high school basketball players alone. By charging an admission price of 10 cents a person they would take in no less than $500 a year.

Would Muenster people pay that much? It seems that they would when they are paying at least that much to see games elsewhere.

Furthermore the revenue from visiting fans would help considerably.

Besides that there is always a chance of additional income from volley ball games, independent teams of basketball and volley ball, invitation tournaments, fees from members of an athletic club, and several other sources.

All those things added together form a mighty good solution for the big problem in the gymnasium plan.

After all, can a gym be such a huge item to finance? If it were, how could we explain their presence in such towns as Bonita, Ringgold, Spanish Fort, Southmayd, and other places that don't have half the financial resources that Muenster possesses?

SPENDING AT HOME

We persist in our plea for support to local merchants. We are determined to discourage, insofar as possible, the long established custom of watching the cheap prices of chain stores and mail order houses.

After all we must realize that whoever sells an item makes a profit. If the chain store or mail order house offers a cheaper price we should be prepared to receive a cheaper product.

In supporting this viewpoint we are not being narrow, neither are we working solely for the benefit of our advertisers. We are working for the community in general. We are trying to keep the profits at home where they can be spent for our benefit.

What happens when you patronize a chain store or a mail order house? The money goes to headquarters somewhere in the East where a group of millionaires, who don't need the money nearly as much as we do, are only adding it to their surplus wealth. It's like carrying coal to Newcastle, or carrying water to the ocean.

And when we're financially pressed the East sends our money back for us to use—at the rate of interest the millionaires specify.

Now let's look at the other side of the picture. We need money. We want to use it over and over again to improve our town, our homes, our farms, and to enjoy some of the pleasures to which every working man is entitled.

Do yourself a favor. When you need something see your Muenster merchants and if they cannot supply it go to Gainesville. You can get some benefit from money spent here or in Gainesville but you won't get anything back from Wall Street.

YOUR DRIVING

The tragedy between Lindsay and Gainesville on Christmas was near enough to home to make an impression. Some will consider it just another accident to forget, but it really should be another accident for us to think about.

It is hard to estimate how many of us traveled that road that same night. The victim of that accident could have been any one of dozens of us.

After giving thanks that we were spared let's ask ourselves a few questions like these: Is my driving speed too fast considering the condition of the road and the condition of the car? Driving the way I normally do, could I have prevented a crash?

Too many of us are getting by on plain luck instead of correct driving. It is one thing to just guide a car down the road and another thing to have it constantly under control.

For the benefit of yourself as well as of others, decide whether your driving habits are safe, and if they are not, change them before it is too late.

BRISBANE—WHO WILL TAKE HIS PLACE?

Last week witnessed the last stage in the career of the most powerful man in America. Arthur Brisbane, whose editorial column was published in more than 200 large dailies and 1,200 weeklies, had a greater influence on public opinion than did any man in recent times.

People are found by the hundreds who permitted their opinions to be molded every day by Brisbane's viewpoints. Truly, "the pen is mightier than the sword."

After the first day following the great columnist's death his readers began to miss him. Someone will have to be found to take his place.

Who will that someone be? What convictions will he plant in the minds of his readers? The answer to that question is all important.

In these times when the world is thrown into such maddening confusion by the Godless element, the importance of having the right kind of person in Brisbane's place is quite apparent.

News Briefs

(Continued from First Page)

Henry Martini of Windthorst visited in Muenster last week as the guest of his uncle, F. J. Schenk.

A baby son was born to Mrs. Lotspelt on January 5 in the home of her brother, Mr. Coppick.

FOR SALE—Hatching Eggs from blood tested, vaccinated, and culled flock of English Leghorns. See Albert Hencheid, (Adv. 7-11p).

Mrs. G. A. Stelzer, who has been in poor health for the past month, was removed to Dallas Wednesday where she will be under the care of Dr. Mann.

Anna Margaret, daughter of A. C. Stelzer, spent New Year's Day and the week end with her family here. She came to Muenster with her aunt, Mrs. Faecke, with whom she is living at Denison.

Eileen Reid, the cheer leader of last year's pep squad at Muenster High School, arrived last Saturday for a two-day visit with schoolmates. She returned Monday to her home at Megargel, Texas.

During the past week Al Walters has been spending the greater part of his time moving and getting organized in his new home southwest of Myra. He now occupies the Sam Gregory farm.

The latest report of Mr. Meurer is that he is slowly regaining his health and has improved sufficiently to tackle his work in short courses. He managed to attend a directors' meeting at the bank only a few days ago.

Henry Loerwald, brother of Mrs. Al Walterscheid, accompanied by Margaret Gales and Eddie and Agatha Thilges of Iowa have returned to their homes in Iowa following a two weeks' visit in Muenster and Lindsay.

In spite of the rumor that Muenster's $90,000 overpass on Highway 5 crossing the Katy tracks, would not be opened to traffic for another week or 10 days, barricades were removed from the structure on the morning of January 4.

J. C. Haffner, the pharmacist of the Dixie Drug Store, spent Wednesday in Dallas calling on old time friends and making business contacts for the drug store. He drove down with F. E. Schmitz, who spent the greater part of his time at the Ford Motor Co.

Toney Burger was on the losing side when the Cooke County coaches bowed 32-19 in their game with the Era Independents following the Round Robin games Tuesday night. Toney says the reason is "too much Wylie"—there are four Wylies, and all of them good, on the Era quint.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schnitker, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fette, and Ben Seyler drove to Kilgore Tuesday to attend the marriage of Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fette, to "Doc" Henderson. They returned home during the early hours of Wednesday morning.

John Chandler advises that he is an uncle. His sister, Naida Bell, the wife of "Wash" Campbell of Dallas, is the mother of a baby son born during Christmas week. Naida Bell is well known here from her frequent visits with Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler.

The Gainesville Hatchery will begin to set eggs January 2. Raise Early Broilers for Quick Money. See us for chicks and custom hatching, feed and supplies. Mrs. T. J. Clark, 411 N. Commerce St., Phone 219. (Advertisement, 5).

J. P. Flusche spent the early part of this week moving and getting settled in his new home on the farm known to Muenster people as the Stacy Farm. It adjoins the home of his father, Joseph Flusche, east of Muenster. J. P. will continue his trucking activities in connection with his farm work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Faecke and their daughters visited with the Stelzer families here during the past week end. They advised that their daughter, Sister Martha, formerly Elizabeth Faecke, who taught in the Muenster school about 10 years ago, is now teaching at Our Lady of Good Counsel Academy in Dallas.

New additions to the personnel of Ben Seyler's repair department are Tony Gremmlinger and Johnny Otto. Mr. Gremmlinger, a man of 16 years' mechanical experience, made the change last week from the Highway 5 Garage. John Otto was formerly employed in the Flusche Bros. Garage.

C. J. Kaiser advises that his family is making plans to move to Muenster as soon as suitable living quarters can be located. His father, Frank Kaiser, has been here assisting C. J. in the Dixie Drug Store since its opening late in November but his mother remained at the family home in Fort Worth.

Scoutmaster Nick Miller and his assistant, Paul Nieball, represented the Muenster Scout Troop in a district meeting of committeemen held at the First Methodist Church in Gainesville on January 4. Mr. Miller advises that Mr. McClure, Gainesville's city manager, will replace Mr. Leon Gilmore as the committee chairman during 1937.

According to reports recently voiced within earshot of The Enterprise office three Muenster people made land investments as follows: Henry Henschel, Jr., bought the Crowe farm across the road from his present home southeast of Muenster; Justin Hess bought the Theodore Wiesman place; and Leo Henschel purchased the Fred Herr, Jr., farm on the old Muenster-Saint Jo highway.

Linn News

Mrs. Wylie Corbin is on the sick list this week.

Ralph Brewer of Sudan and Jimmy Brewer of Myra are visiting the Fielders.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sowder of Lubbock visited his sister, Miss Willie Sowder, last week.

Chas. Bradley with his daughter, Mrs. Hazel Chaffin and babies, are visiting relatives at Ringgold.

Mrs. Carl O'Bannon of Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Coursey.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gordon, a girl, Monday, December 21. The young lady has been named Jo Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Diamond King announce the arrival of a baby girl Thursday, December 24. She was named Bobbie Sue.

Misses Latrese Howton, Josephine Wright and Mrs. Selby Fielder visited Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barker at Muenster Monday.

Mrs. John Gregory and children of Hood, and daughter, Ruth, of Fort Worth visited Thursday with Mrs. T. N. Fielder and Mrs. Selby Fielder.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCool and daughter went to Whitesboro Tuesday to visit. Miss Bertie Aiken, who is Mrs. McCool's sister, returned home with them for a visit here.

Mrs. Era Mitchell of Oklahqma and Mrs. Ida Parker of Fort Worth, with their respective families, visited their mother, Mrs. Jeff Linn, during the holidays.

Turl Harrison of Fort Worth and Pauline and Frank Harrison of Gainesville spent the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harrison, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Gayner and children of Ringgold are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas Bradley, and sister, Mrs. Diamond Kink, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Price McCool, Darrell McCool, Mrs. Clarence Hudspeth and daughter of Marietta, Okla., spent from Thursday to Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fears and sons of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harrison and children motored to Ardmore Tuesday where they visited Mrs. Taylor, who is in the hospital there in a critical condition. They then went on to Wilson, Okla., where they visited their son, Charlie Harrison, and wife.

Myra News

Ernest Biffle and family spent Sunday in Fort Worth.

Mrs. A. R. Address is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Wilma Pendleton and family moved to the Reed community this week.

John Klutts of McKinney was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Blanton Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Maxwell and family of Dallas were guests of Mrs. C. L. Maxwell and sons Friday.

Misses Eunice Rosson and Inez Fears returned to Dallas last Sunday to resume their course of studies at Draughan's Business College.

Mrs. Austin Perryman, Miss Opal Perryman and Will Perryman of Frederick, Okla., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Blanton Saturday.

Miss Claudine Brogan, primary teacher in the school, returned Sunday from Kansas where she spent the Christmas holidays with friends and relatives.

Miss Dorothy Fay Blanton returned to Denton after spending the holidays with her parents. Miss Dorothy is a sophomore in the Teachers' College.

Frank McCollum, who has been connected with the cotton gin here, has recently sold his residence to Lon Blanton. Mr. McCollum moved to Tioga Monday.

Sam Gregory and family, who sold their home south of town moved to their new home north of Valley View this week and Al Walter has moved to the former Gregory home.

Mrs. W. S. Rollie, and Nettie Dugan of Hobart, Okla., and Mrs. Herbert Onstall and children, Billie Jean and Junior, of Roosevelt, Okla., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Biffle, Jr.

Those from Myra attending the bridal shower given by Mrs. Stan Harral of Hood in honor of Mrs. Morris King Wednesday were Mesdames Lon Blanton, John Trew, B. C. Rosson, Tom Pryor and Oscar Aldridge.

Dr. and Mrs. Jimmie McGee of Columbus, Ohio, Jim McGee, Sr. of Gainesville, Mrs. Church Hay of Gainesville, Mrs. J. H. Gatewood and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Trew were dinner guests of Mrs. L. A. and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Townsley Tuesday.

Those attending the mission school in Gainesville at the Grand Avenue Baptist Church Monday evening and heard Miss Blanche Groves, a returned missionary from China, were Mesdames Albert Address, John Blanton, Tom Watson, Holeman Ackler, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Fred McTaggart.

Lindsay News

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bezner motored to Lawton, Okla., last Wednesday for a short visit with the Venerable Sister f Alban, a sister of Mr. Bezner.

Paul Flusche has resumed his studies in Corpus Christi College Academy after spending his Christmas vacation here with his mother, Mrs. Anna Loerwald.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Gieb and children, Bettye Rae, Frances and Bill, of Dallas, and Mrs. Joe Gieb and daughter, Lucille, of Gainesville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gieb Sunday.

Miss Clara Hundt, daughter of

NICK

The Cleaner
and
Electric Shoe Hospital
Muenster, Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hundt of this city, underwent a tonsilectomy at the Gainesville Sanitarium last Tuesday afternoon, December 29. Latest reports advised that she was resting comfortably and recovering rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bukowski and family left for their home in San Antonio last Saturday evening, January 2, following a several days' visit here with Mrs. Bukowski's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rauschuber; her sisters, Mrs. Lena Arend and Mrs. Clem Hermes, and her brother, Frank Rauschuber of Valley View.

The Sublaco quintet, composed of Lambert Bezner, Edward Schad, Joseph Koesler and Herbert and Ralph Bezner, left early Monday morning for Arkansas where they resumed their studies in Sublaco College after spending the holidays here with homefolks. Jake Bezner took the youngsters back in his car.

Henry Loerwald and daughter, Mary Ann, and small son, Charles, and Miss Margaret Gales of Lu Verne, Iowa, accompanied by Edward Thilges and his sister, Miss Agatha Thilges of Bode, Iowa, returned to their respective homes Monday following a two weeks' visit here with relatives and friends.

John Fuhrmann, who had been granted a 10-day furlough, returned to Randolph Field Tuesday after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fuhrmann. His sister, Miss Veranica, accompanied him as far as San Antonio. From there she continued her trip to Corpus Christi where she resumed her duties of nursing in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walterscheid and their children, Irene and Arthur Simmons, of Carlsbad, N. M., have returned to their home after spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Walterscheid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neu, and family. They were also guests of the Charles Ruwaldt and Walter Pulte families at Gainesville. Mrs. Walterscheid is the former Mrs. Mary Simmons.

Linn Community Has

Demonstration Club

Meeting January 5

The Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid Tuesday afternoon. After the business meeting, several social games were enjoyed, which included an old fashioned spelling match won by Miss Willie Sowder.

Mrs. Walterscheid received a surprise shower. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Wylie Corbin's home on January 26.

Refreshments of hot chocolate and cookies were served to Mesdames Dude Rosson, Alfred Harrison, Price McCool, Sam McCool, Ben Sicking, Wylie Corbin, Ed Aston, Jr., Jack Biffle, Jim Howton, Doc Gray, Lutkenhaus, T. N. Fielder, Selby Fielder, Misses Sowder, Bertie Aiken, Rose and Irene Sicking of Linn, and Mesdames Frank Bayer and Hofbauer and John Walter of Muenster.

Visiting Sisters Leave

For La Crosse Convent

After Two Weeks' Stay

The two weeks' visit of the Venerable Sisters Rosina and Domitilla of La Crosse, Wis., was brought to a close on New Year's Day when C. J. Fette and Mrs. G. H. Hellman took them to meet the Katy Special at Denison. The sisters left on their return trip a day earlier than originally anticipated so that they would have a day of rest following their train ride before resuming classroom duties.

Their departure marked the closing chapter in a merry-go-round of activities that made up what they consider the most exciting two weeks of their careers.

Sister Rosina, who is now celebrating the golden jubilee of her sisterhood, was especially elated over the opportunity of seeing the children and grandchildren of her now deceased sister, Mrs. Ed Fette, the majority of whom she had not met before. During her stay here she had the pleasure of visiting in the home of each of her nephews and nieces.

In addition to visits, the guest's time was occupied by drives through the local oil fields, the wilder areas of Cooke County, and an extended tour through South Texas.

At Austin they were honored in having Governor Allred as an escort in their trip through the nation's second largest State capitol.

At San Antonio they took in the sights of the Alamo, San Fernando Cathedral, Brackenridge Park, Our Lady of the Lake, and the ancient mansion occupied about 200 years ago by the Spanish Governor of the Province of Texas.

Near Bryan, where they were the guests of Father Gleisner and John O'Connor, a former resident of Muenster, the sisters inspected collections of petrified wood. While there Sister Rosina secured the donation of one carload of the material for use on the grotto now under construction at LaCrosse. She intended to arrange for the transportation of the stone as soon as she reached her convent.

An Ordinance

Ordinance No. 52

An Ordinance Adopted by the City Council Complying with That as is in Effect in the State of Texas, Prohibiting the Use of Machinery, Trucks and Tractors That are Injurious to the Surface of Paved Highways and Streets within the City Limits of Muenster, Cooke County, Texas, Providing a Penalty and the Collection of Fines, and Creating an Emergency.
Penal Code of the State of Texas

Article 818.—Protuberances on Tires

Therefore be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Muenster, Cooke County, Texas, that:

No person shall operate or run on any public highway, any vehicle which has on its periphery any block, log, stud, cleat, ridge, bead or any other protuberance of metal that shall project more than one-fourth of an inch beyond the tread or traction surface of the tire, unless the said wheels are protected by bands, wooden blocks, skids or some sufficient device to protect the highway against injury by reason thereof. Nothing herein shall prevent the use of traction engines with cleats on the driving wheels thereof on dirt or unimproved roads, or the use of vehicles actually engaged at the time in construction or repair work on roads. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars.

(Acts 1917, p. 477; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 70.)

*So in enrolled bill. Should probably read "lug."

Passed and adopted this, the 4th day of January, 1936.
Attest:
HENRY J. LUKE,
Secretary, City of Muenster.
M. J. ENDRES,
Mayor, City of Muenster.

HOME BEAUTY SHOP
Muenster, Texas

NOW OPEN!

See us for Baby Chicks, Custom Hatching or Poultry Supplies

Muenster Hatchery

FELX BECKER, Manager

Phone 83

WHEN IN GAINESVILLE—

Stop at

Hellman & Maddox

—for—

Groceries, Flour, Feed and Produce

ON THE MARKET SQUARE

FAMOUS HEADLINE HUNTER

FLOYD GIBBONS

ADVENTURERS CLUB

Hello everybody

"An Aftermath of War"
By FLOYD GIBBONS

TODAY'S story from Bert J. Balsinger of Carnegie, Pa., brings back memories to your old Headline Hunter. I was down there in Coblenz when the American doughboys took over the Watch on the Rhine, right after the Armistice, and I remember the tragic case Bert tells us about.

When our boys marched into Coblenz, more funny things happened than you could shake a stick at. I got a great kick out of a couple of New York doughboys standing guard on the fortifications of the centuries-old castle and fort that commands the Rhine. They sure looked out of place in that stronghold of kings with Old Glory flying overhead where the banners of the haughty Hohenzollerns had flown so long.

From a high vantage point on the walls they pointed out to me the kaiser's summer palace below. Civilians were strolling in the gardens where once only royalty trod.

Suddenly the civilians took to their heels in obvious terror. A cloud of dust went up from one corner and a rumbling noise came to our ears. I stared at the dust and couldn't believe my eyes.

A battery of light field guns galloped like mad across the garden—in the very shadow of the kaiser's palace—and quickly deployed into line of fire. The guns were unlimbered and the horses led behind in the twinkling of an eye. It looked like trouble to me. I jumped to my feet.

Just a Yank Battery Practicing.

"Keep your shirt on," my exiled friends told me quietly. "That's a Yank battery giving these boys a touch of militarism. They're only fooling but it helps keep these guys peaceful."

I relaxed then and felt like a rookie. But that outfit sure did look as though they meant business. Too bad the kaiser couldn't see it.

But other things, not so funny, were also happening as Bert's story will show. Bert and a buddy of his in the army of occupation were on outpost duty at the American bridgehead boundary. Things were pretty quiet down that way, near Rossbach, Germany, and while the pals were waiting to go on duty, Bert suggested a pleasant way to pass the time.

There was a swell forest just beyond the boundary, in what was known as "neutral territory," that looked as though it might hold some nice deer. Both armies had agreed to stay out of this territory and it was against army orders for our men to cross the line.

So Bert and Reiss Went Hunting.

Bert's buddy was Private Reiss Madsen of Sacramento, Calif. Reiss liked hunting so he and Bert slipped into the forest to see if they could bag a deer with their service rifles. Bert walked about 50 paces ahead of Reiss as the two hunters kept their eyes peeled for game.

Suddenly Bert stopped short. He had seen something moving behind a bush. He signaled silence to Reiss and brought his gun up.

But, just as he was about to fire, he noticed that instead of a deer a man was watching him from the bush. The man was in the uniform of the German army and, Bert knew, had no more right there than he did.

Bert smiled and stood there feeling a little foolish. He couldn't speak enough German to tell the man he thought he was a deer so he didn't say anything. The man in the bush never moved but suddenly with a clatter, a patrol of German dragoons dashed up and Bert found himself looking into the muzzles of five rifles.

Fired on By German Dragoons.

They took deliberate aim at him without saying a word and fired point blank.

Bert says he didn't know what to do. He was so flabbergasted that he just stood still. He didn't know whether or not he was shot and couldn't understand what they were talking about. The war was over and here were Germans shooting at him.

When they leveled their guns at him again, Bert dropped his rifle and put up his hands and hoped Reiss had done the same thing. Then the Germans came up to him and jostled him about roughly, disarmed him and led him away a prisoner. A German non-com stuck a Luger automatic against his side and Bert thought it was all over with him. But another non-com knocked the gun away and growled something Bert couldn't understand. Bert glanced back to see what was happening to his buddy and what he saw almost made him drop.

Reiss lay still on the ground—dead—the whole top of his head had been shot away!

Bert says his captors began to have an argument then. He knew what they were arguing about. Some wanted to kill him to cover up the other shooting and others were for taking him prisoner. He just waited and prayed and finally "his side" won. They marched him to a German jail and locked him up.

The next morning Bert, wondering if they were going to execute him, heard an American voice and to his joy, in came an American major. The major listened to his story and shook his head in wonder. "You're lucky you're alive," the major growled, "come on."

And Bert went back to the American guardhouse, the happiest prisoner that the grim place had ever held. An investigation took place. There was nothing to be done. Bert and Reiss had disobeyed orders.

Bert was given three months' confinement for the sake of army discipline and he spent part of this time writing the story of his pal's death to Reiss' mother in Sacramento.

John Wieler Assumes Agency for Magnolia Petroleum Company

Since January 1 John Wieler is Muenster's new authorized agent for the products of Magnolia Petroleum Company. He is taking over the dealership vacated by Flusche Bros.

when they moved their business to Decatur during the last week of the past year.

John, one of this city's native sons lived here until he took over the agency for Marathon oil products at Gainesville two years ago. His present headquarters is the Herr Motor Co. in the building formerly occupied by Flusche Bros.

Grand Jurors Appointed By Judge Boyd

Sixteenth District Court convened January 4, with the following grand jurors impanelled by Judge Ben W. Boyd:

Jack Smith, Whitesboro; Leroy Porter, Myra; J. B. Townsley, Gainesville; Sidney Tipton, Pilot Point; H. U. Nall, Gainesville; Dolphy Scott, Sivells Bend; O. T. Sellars, Gainesville; Homer Smith, Callisburg; Batr Terry, Gainesville; E. T. Spires, Gainesville; C. H. Chisum, Valley View; H. E. Schmitz, Gainesville.

The following cases were set by Judge Boyd:

State of Texas vs. Charley Smith, possession of untax paid whiskey, for the purpose of sale.

C. C. Littleton vs. Gainesville Oil Mill; set for January 25.

C. C. Littleton vs. M. E. Singleton; January 25.

M. H. Tate vs. Luther F. McCollum et al; January 25.

Sanders Jarrett vs. J. L. Gettys, to try title; January 21.

Sanders Jarrett vs. Ancil H. Ross et al, try title and for damages; January 18.

J. G. Fulks and I. R. McCann vs. V. D. Randall, to try title and for Raymond P. King, adm. II. P. damages; January 25.

Ware, vs. C. Lanier, suit to remove cloud from title; January 14.

Tom W. Newsome et al vs. J. C. Whaley, et al, for debt and foreclosure; January 25.

T. M. Thurman vs. Lee London, et al, to quiet title; January 18.

Harry Kindsfather vs. Republic Underwriters, to set aside award of Industrial Board; January 18.

John Knabe vs. Republic Underwriters, to set aside award of Industrial Board; January 18.

Republic Underwriters vs. John Knabe, to set aside award of Industrial Accident Board; January 18.

Republic Underwriters vs. R. R. Johnson, et al, to set aside award of Industrial Accident Board; January 18.

Republic Underwriters vs. Mrs. E. C. Adamson, to set aside award of Industrial Accident Board; January 18.

The Commissioners' Court convened in special session on January 2, 1937, and approved official bonds for the following officers:

Sallie Whitfield Bass, county treasurer; Wm. C. Culp, county attorney; W. W. Rudd, constable, Precinct 7; C. J. Jones, Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1; E. A. Felker, commissioner, Precinct 3; Chas. P. Priddy, county clerk; Joe Bezner, commissioner, Precinct 4; Hugh S. Morgan, public weigher; Truman Pace, district clerk; H. D. Henderson, commissioner, Precinct 1; Harry Lowe, commissioner, Precinct 2; Hugh Hamilton, tax assessor and collector; Ray Winder, county judge; J. D. Howeth, county surveyor.

Employment of a special constable for Precinct No. 1 was continued for 15 more days.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

John M. Taylor, Jr., Madill, Okla., and Miss Ethello Cato, Madill, Okla. Ed Hess, Muenster, and Lucy Fuhrmann, Muenster.

Old Officers Retained At Annual Meeting of Telephone Company

Members of the Muenster Telephone Company held their annual meeting on December 31. In it they re-elected the officers of the past year as follows: J. W. Meurer, president; Henry Fleitman, vice-president; J. S. Horn, secretary; and M. J. Endres, treasurer.

Mrs. J. S. Horn, the official operator of the telephone company for the past five years will continue her duties at the switchboard although, for the time being, her expired contract has not been extended.

On January 9 the directors of the phone lines will meet to discuss the advisability of providing for the hire of an official lineman to accept the responsibility of keeping lines in constant working order. To date the boxholders on the lines took charge of the necessary repair work on their respective lines.

Hyacinth Study Club Meets in Endres Home

The Hyacinth study club held its opening meeting of the new year Tuesday night in the home of M. J. Endres with Marie Seyler in charge as instructor. The subject for discussion was "The Nativity."

Because of the frequent conflicts that have come up in the past when social activities fell on nights scheduled for the study club's meeting, a resolution was passed to hold future meetings once every two weeks instead of weekly and extend the sessions from one to two hours.

The next meeting was set for January 19.

John Fisch and Family Accompany I. A. Schoech On Return from Visit

John Fisch and family were the guests of friends and relatives here over the past week end.

Mrs. Fisch and the daughters arrived in Muenster shortly before New Year's Day in the company of Mrs. I. A. Schoech who was returning with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

Group of Youngsters Surprise John Voth And His Young Bride

An old fashioned chivaree greeted John Voth and his young bride last Saturday night. About 12 carloads of youngsters who had previously met at the rock station drove up and leaned on horns until all ears ached.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech and family at Vinita, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Keough, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rettig, and Miss Margaret Schoech at Springfield, Mo.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Frank Hoedebeck and Mrs. Clem Reiter with her four children. Frank and Mrs. Reiter left the Sunday after Christmas to be present at their brother's wedding and returned to Muenster December 30.

When that sort of disturbance grew tiresome the entire group stormed John's house and playfully proceeded to make perfect pests of themselves.

But after the storm subsided the crowd settled down to more civilized fun, such as dancing and visiting. Before going on the surprise visit members of the party had had the foresight to provide for a pony keg of beer and some ambitious young musicians to furnish rhythm for the dancers.

ing with her son, Andrew, and her daughter, Mrs. "Skinner" Wiesman, from a holiday visit in Missouri and Oklahoma.

On New Year's Day I. A. Schoech returned with Mr. Fisch.

The Schoech holiday tour included stops with the Fisches at Okmulgee, Mrs. Ida Schoech

NEWS REVIEW

(Continued from First Page)
 been seized by the Spanish Socialists. The present cause for fear in Europe is that Germany and Italy, who have recognized the rebels as the real Spanish government, may openly support it. In that case the Spanish Socialists would probably receive the support of Communist Russia, and perhaps that of France. With that group of nations at war it would be next to impossible for others to remain out of it.

United Automobile Workers Union Have GMC Workers Support

Jan. 3.—In a conference at Flint, Mich., the United Automobile Workers Association reported that it has eight strikes in progress in General Motors plants. Some of the strikes are in Fisher Body plants.

If necessary the organization threatens to call a general strike in order to secure their demand of a collective bargaining agreement with General Motors.

Mr. Brophy of the U. A. W. A. advised that at the present time eight General Motors plants are shut down because of strikes and four more because of body shortages.

Arms Embargo and Labor Problems Face New Congress

Jan. 3.—The first concern of the new Congress meeting this week is to place an embargo on arms shipments to Spain. Committees of both Houses made preparations to push the embargo legislation and thereby prevent the shipment of $2,300,000 worth of airplanes reluctantly approved by the State Department for lack of authority to interfere.

Next in importance is a list of domestic problems touching especially on questions of labor, wages, relief, and Social Security laws. As a part of the labor problem the Congress is likely to consider a constitutional amendment giving Congress the right to regulate wages and hours.

Film Star Takes His Life

Jan. 3.—Ross Alexander, happy-go-lucky leading man of the screen was found last Sunday with a .22 calibre bullet wound in his temple and the gun clutched in his hand. Officers pronounced his death as suicide.

180 Executed Near Peiping, China

Jan. 3.—Within 24 hours 180 drug addicts, thieves, and other undesirables were executed in accordance with recently passed anti-drug laws and other morality codes in China.

The anti-drug law assesses the death penalty on persons declared to be incurable drug-addicts and also on persons convicted of smuggling or peddling certain drugs.

Football Goes Out With New Year's Day Classics

Jan. 2.—Grid fans of the Nation had their last treat of the season as football classics in various corners of the Nation were held on New Year's Day.

At the Cotton Bowl in Dallas TCU upheld the reputation of the Southwest in defeating Marquette 16-6. The game was a heartbreaker for the Golden Avalanche from Milwaukee, which held the edge on its southern rivals in yardage gained and passes completed.

At Pasadena's Rose Bowl the Pitt Panthers humbled Washington's Huskies before a capacity crowd of 87,000, the score being 21 to 0.

The University of Santa Clara attacked hard and fast in the early part of the game to defeat Louisiana State University 21 to 14 in the Sugar Bowl classic at New Orleans.

In other New Year's games Duquesne University defeated Mississippi State University 13-12; the East came out at the lead of a 3-0 score in their charity game with the West; Villanova and Auburn tied at 7-7; and Hardin Simmons defeated the Texas School of Mines 34-6.

Millions Spent as New Year Is Ushered In

Jan. 1.—It is estimated that $10,000,000 was spent in New York alone while the gayest New Year parties since 1929 cheered the abdication of 1936 and the accession of 1937. Plate charges in several of the hot spots ranged as high as $20 in New York, $12.50 in Chicago, and $7.75 in Washington.

Twelve loop hotels in Chicago welcomed between 15,000 and 20,000 revelers spending approximately $400,000. At the famous Mrs. Mc-Lean party at the "Friendship" estate near Washington, $50,000 was spent to entertain 620 guests.

Kidnappers Captured by Fort Worth Police

Jan. 1.—A pair of wisecracking kidnapers changed their tune when identified by five victims they had recently abducted and robbed in Fort Worth and Ennis.

Charles Jones, 21, of Kansas City, and Greer Hayes, 27, of Meridian, Miss., are being held by Fort Worth police in connection with the kidnappings, a similar kidnapping in Alabama, as well as the theft of the automobile in which they were driving.

An Unusual Payoff

Jan. 1.—Paying off the loss of a bet back in 1922 still gives two Fort Worth boys the shivers as they take their icy plunge each New Year's Day. The boys, betting on North Side's gridsters four years ago agreed to take five New Year's swims if their champions lost. Since then the two boys have been taking their New Year's cold baths and have another left for January 1, 1933.

Two Die from Tank Explosion at Nocona

Dec. 31.—E. R. Crow of Wichita Falls, Kenneth S. Deeds of Nocona, and Roy Jones, who lived at the Continental Oil Co. camp north of Nocona, are dead following the explosion of the "gun barrel" tank they were welding on the Roland lease of the Continental Oil Co.

Bank Night Ruling Not Due to Affect Texas

Dec. 31.—The Supreme Court decision on the unconstitutionality of theatre bank nights will not hinder the comptroller's department of the State of Texas from collecting its regular 20 per cent tax on bank night prizes, because the question remains open as to whether any statute exists prohibiting the bank night prizes.

The Supreme Court decision places the State of Texas in an embarrassing position. Texas has in the past month collected more than $15,000 from taxes on a practice that is itself unconstitutional, the bank night prizes being held as lottery.

HATCHERY

(Continued from First Page)
 past the trays and leaves in ventilation ducts above.

A thermometer and humidity gauge on the inside show the conditions in the incubator, whereas a combination clock and thermometer on the outside draws a temperature chart during the entire 21-day hatching period.

A brooder room adjoining the incubator will accommodate about 4,000 baby chicks. Mr. Becker advised that it will not be necessary to provide for more than that number because most of the hatching done here is custom hatching. The brooder is there merely for the baby chicks the hatchery will offer for sale. As other chicks are hatched they are placed in cardboard chick boxes ready for delivery to the customers.

Arrangements have been made with a number of local poultry raisers whereby hatching eggs will be available throughout the hatching season. Anyone not knowing where to secure eggs of a desired breed will be able to locate them through the assistance of Mr. Becker.

First rate service is assured through the hatching season by the fact that Mr. Becker will be on duty day and night after moving temporary living quarters to the hatchery last week.

As an aid to poultry raisers the Muenster Hatchery has secured a full line of poultry feeds and poultry remedies, some of which are now available at the hatchery, and others will be available in the near future.

MUENSTER GIRLS

(Continued from First Page)
 at the crucial moments the girls were equal to the strain. A last minute rally brought the desired results.

By far the outstanding performer on the Muenster sextet was Louise Schmitz. Her consistent playing at all positions and especially her bullet-like drives from the net position constituted the principal thorn in Calisburg's side.

How Modern Cavalrymen Ride

Here is one of the combat cars of the mechanized force of the United States army participating in extensive maneuvers in the Middle West. In time these cars, capable of great speed and heavily armed, will displace cavalry in war. All the cars are equipped with two-way radio for keeping in constant touch. The "cavalryman" shown here is operating an anti-aircraft gun.

While all players are deserving of praise for the marked improvement they have shown, there are two who rate special mention. Bernice Kathman and Nita Jean Camp, freshmen playing their first games of tough competition distinguished themselves with a brand of consistent performance that is usually seen only in veterans. Their coach, Dorothy Fette, and Muenster fans are counting on these two girls to come through with flying colors during the rest of the Round Robin.

CTY COUNCIL

(Continued from First Page)
 luctant to accept his resignation. For the time being the resignation has been pigeonholed while the council is trying to make the job financially attractive enough to warrant Frank's re-consideration.

In order to minimize the chances of automobile crashes at the intersection of Main Street and Highway 5, the city is considering the institution of some traffic regulating system. To date no definite decision has been made but it is thought that stop signals will be placed on Main Street, to bring cars to a halt before crossing the highway.

Another subject for discussion was a street graveling project. That plan calls for the reconditioning of several of Muenster's cross streets which have been permitted to deteriorate considerably during the past few years.

Monsignor Dangelmayr Is One of Four Priests Receiving Papal Honors

Dallas, Jan. 4.—Bishop Joseph P. Lynch today announced news from Rome that four priests of the Dallas diocese had received high papal honors.

Very Rev. Msgr. Augustin Dangelmayr, chancellor of the diocese, and Very Rev. Joseph G. O'Donohoe, dean of the Sherman district, have been made domestic prelates with the title of right reverend monsignor.

Very Rev. Patrick J. F. O'Beirne, dean of the Wichita Falls district, and Rev. Dr. W. J. Nold of the Sacred Heart Cathedral, Dallas, have been appointed to the highest rank of chamberlains of the papal household, with the title of very reverend monsignor.

In 1806 the Ohio Legislature created a lottery law to raise $12,000 needed to repair the bank of the Scioto River at Chillicothe.

New and Second Hand Furniture Bought and Sold

R. O. PEARCY
 114 N. Dixon

KNIGHTS

(Continued from First Page)
 costs it should be fought if the sacredness of the home is jeopardized.

In harmony with the current Catholic Action program the Knights decided to conduct a short study club session as a part of their future meetings. The purpose is to stimulate an interest in religious and moral questions in the hope that members will become more thoroughly acquainted with the basic principles of their religion. R. N. Fette was appointed as chairman of the first session to be held in connection with the regular meeting the first Wednesday of February.

Also offered as a source of benefit to the members were the remarks of Mr. Hennigan and Mr. Weinzapfel urging those who have the time to take advantage of the Knights of Columbus home study courses. Leaflets describing the course and listing its variety of subjects, were distributed among the members.

To relieve J. W. Meurer of the burden of caring for the council's finances during his illness, Grand Knight Hennigan appointed Herbert Meurer as acting treasurer. It was said in the meeting that Mr. Meurer had expressed the desire to be permanently relieved of his office, but the council, reluctant to lose his services, declined to replace him in office until a formal resignation is received from him.

Herr Motor Company Adds New Tools and Instruments to Shop

No, the Herr Motor Co. will not confine its service to washing, polishing, and greasing, as several Muenster people seemed to gather from last week's account in The Enterprise. While it is true that the new business is preparing to give unexcelled service in those respects it wishes to have its prospective patrons realize that it is ready to offer equally as good service in other respects.

A first class automobile clinic is available in the "Ford Laboratory Test Set" purchased from Ford Motor Co. By the use of that instrument Shorty and Ferd will be able to diagnose the ailment in any "sick" car brought into the garage. It is equipped with gauges to check spark plugs, coils, batteries, condensers, radio tubes, oil pressure, compression, carburetor vacuum, as well as numerous other phases of correct performance of automobile motors.

Likewise the new garage has added to its supply of equipment an instrument to check and adjust the alignment of front wheels. This replaces the old style, inaccurate method of using a stick to get the proper wheel alignment.

Another addition is a set of tools for the body repair department. Mr. Herr advises that by the use of these tools he will be able to do an A-1 job of ironing out fender and body dents.

Mrs. Frost's Return From Dallas Clinic Delayed One Week

Mrs. T. P. Frost, who has been receiving treatments in the Medical Arts Hospital at Dallas for the past several weeks, did not recover sufficiently to return home Tuesday as was anticipated—the earlier part of last week.

In a statement Wednesday Mrs. Ben Hellman, the patient's mother, advised that Irene's progress in regaining her strength is steady but very slow. According to word recently received from her Dallas doctor, she will not be permitted to return for at least another week.

Mrs. Frost has been attended by her husband almost constantly since she went to Dallas. She has been cheered also by frequent visits from her family and friends of Muenster.

To pull through the critical days of her illness Mrs. Frost had to receive three blood transfusions. Two of them were given by her husband and the other by her brother, Clarence Hellman.

The nose and olfactory organs of a leading perfumery expert are insured for $25,000 by the company which employs him.

China last year had one of the largest harvest yields in years, production of cotton reaching a record high, estimated at 3,600,000 500-pound bales, about 1,000,000 bales more than in 1935.

STOP AT

HICK'S NEW DEAL CAFE

First Door North of Kress
 Gainesville

HERR MOTOR COMPANY

1936 DeLuxe PLYMOUTH COUPE, with radio and heater, 5,000 actual miles.
 1935 FORD COUPE

F. E. Schmitz, Sales Manager

Service! Price! Quality!

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS

Close-Out Sale

on

Sanitary Milk Pails

Were $2.50 ... Now $1.50

Watch This Space Through 1937 for Bargains in Groceries

The Farmers' Marketing Association
 The Farmers' Store and Market

MUENSTER, TEXAS

LONE STAR CLEANERS

WEST SIDE OF COURTHOUSE

Gainesville

PHONE 332

FOR YOUR GAS and OIL

...see...

Jno. J. Wieler

Now Authorized Agent for Magnolia Petroleum Co.

For Muenster and Vicinity

HEADQUARTERS AT HERR MOTOR CO.