About the time we start thinking we have had all of the bureaucracy we can stand, the Carter administration decides to cram still more of it down our throats. The new brain-storm is a Department of Education to consolidate various government education programs into a new federal giant ... larger than Commerce, HUD, Interior, Justice, or State ... with a first year budget of $14.5 billion and an estimated work force of 15,600.

Notice, those are the figures proposed as starters. If precedence in government spending and employment is an indication, we can be sure that DOE (the acronym it's already been given) will get bigger and bigger. All of which indicates an insulting disregard by the administration for public attitude as revealed in the popularity of Proposition 13. How's that for irony? Carter and Co. reply to Proposition 13 by creating the 13th department of the cabinet. Considering how the other departments have been going whacky in paperwork and confusion, a person would think that those guys would learn to run a department before they create another.

However, they don't bother to think about such problems. On the contrary, the proponents have visions of channeling all federal education programs into a large mainstream...efficient and responsive to state and local jurisdictions. The goal is to make federal interests more visible and give American education a direct, single line to the White House.

That's how they put it, but the better guess is that the system will work the other way, with the White House using the line to pass down its orders to the state and local school organizations. There's no reason to hope that this will be any better than our present HEW, which has been quite effective in imposing its wishes on all the schools. The first step is to deal out the money, to the extent of making the schools dependent, and then advise that the funds will be shut off if a school doesn't do as Washington says.

Relative to the brainstorm, The Washington Post has commented "never underestimate the power of a bad idea to generate bad arguments," such as Vice President Mondale's lament that the United States is the only major industrial democracy in the world that does not have a department or a ministry of education."

Whether another country has it doesn't really seem important, of course, but the really important consideration is do we need it or want it? Education is already the nation's biggest industry. Student enrollment at all levels was 60,726,000 in 1978. That's about 27 percent of the population. And the number of teachers and other employees reached 5.2 million people. Also money spent in education, in 1975, was estimated at 7.9 percent of the gross national product whereas defense spending came to 5.5 percent of the GNP. It seems quite obvious that Education is already bigger than necessary as a branch of HEW.

Ostensibly the motive behind the new department has to be an improvement in education, but one has to wonder about political ramifications. This looks like a way to find places on the payroll for thousands of loyal liberal supporters...to improve chances of keeping the administration in power, to continue the emphasis on liberalism in the classrooms, and to promote a teacher organization that leans toward liberals of government. It's a good bet that the bureaucrats and politicians rather than students are the big beneficiaries of the proposal.

Few will deny that American education needs improving. While costs keep going up enrollment and test scores are declining. And problems go on and on, like court ordered busing, disregard of parental wishes, unpatric and immoral teaching, and crime in the schools.

What the country needs more than anything else is a solution to such problems, but the big question is who will solve them. The trouble we have was caused mostly by the liberals with their leniency and foggy ideas on rights and responsibilities. The solution isn't likely to come from the element that caused the problems in the first place.

If the administration really wished to do things for the younger generation and the nation it ought to give up the DOE brainstorm and start backing away from the boners that government made long ago. Let's give local school boards and administrators less interference from Washington, not more.

Germanfest Appraised as Better Show, Smaller Crowd

Another very successful event, though possibly not matching last year's crowd, was the general opinion of the 1979 Germanfest as indicated in discussion at Tuesday's Chamber of Commerce meeting. Alvin Fuhrman, chairman, said that organization and facilities were better, however attendance was hampered by cold rainy weather. While estimating a 20 percent drop in the size of the crowd he said that a better indication would be the volume of business done by each concession, and some of those reports have not been received.

Fuhrman's remarks were based on a committee meeting Monday night. The consensus there was that concessions were more attractive and their service more efficient and the entertainment program was fine. Also the larger staff of supervisory personnel helped keep the show going orderly.

A disappointing exception was the confusion resulting from the Saturday night shower. Crowds jammed the pavilion to keep dry and disrupted the show. Fuhrman said the committee extended special thanks to a number of persons for their special efforts in behalf of the festival. Among them were David Province and Bill Pratt, Al Walter, Al Wiesman, Frank Luke, Dick Ferber, Dan Hamric, John Fisher, Edgar Dyer, Wilde Chevrolet, Endres Motor and Peter McCoy for courtesy vans and the dozens who worked long hours in the booths. Also the committee commended the Jaycees for their improved beer serving facility and use of the 20 oz. souvenir beer cups. Saving the cups reduced litter and improved appearance of the park.

On the other side of the discussion was criticism of the city park as the Germanfest site. It was said to be undesirable from the stand point of roads and parking and has inadequate shelter in case of rain. Also restroom facilities are inadequate at crowded times and lawns and shrubs sustain year round damage from the crowd.

Extensive Repair Program Approved for County Roads

Several road improvement projects in Cooke County are included in a $238 million program of state-wide highway rehabilitation and improvement, which was approved last week by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission. The program consists of rehabilitation work, safety improvements and general betterment of US and State numbered highways in a total of 845 projects in 203 counties. It will result in improvements on 5,253.5 miles of the 71,000 mile state maintained highway network.

District Engineer Bob Schleider of Wichita Falls said that the following jobs are scheduled in Cooke County. Compromise with County Offered On Rural Fires

A compromise on the matter of Muenster firemen answering rural fire calls has been offered by the Muenster City Council to the county commissioners. The city offers to answer the calls for $2250 a year, thereby splitting the difference between the county's offer of $2000 and the city's asking price of $2500.

Councilmen at their meeting Tuesday night, aware that fires are more frequent in the summer, expressed a wish to be helpful if needed and offered to come halfway in their stand-off with the commissioners.

Also relative to the fire department, the council agreed to sponsor two members of the local department at the annual fireman's training school at A&M during the summer. While the volunteers get valuable training, the residents get credit on their insurance premiums.

Badly needed street repair work, after the rugged winter, was discussed but action was postponed until a meeting with a paving contractor.

Also discussed and postponed was an insurance plan for city employees. It awaits a study of rates. Still another matter was a proposed raise of water rates to offset a number of increases in the cost of power, equipment and supplies since the last raise in 1976. The problem is not if a raise is in order, but how much.

Band Gets Trophy And High Rating

Muenster High School's Hornet Band, under direction of Bob Hayes, closed out its competitive activity of the school year last Saturday by receiving a trophy and a rating of Division 1 (Excellent) for its performance in a band festival at Carrollton.

The event was sponsored jointly by Sandy Lake Amusement Park of Carrollton and the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company.

The MHS band presented two selections: the theme from "Close Encounters of the Third Kind", by John Williams and arranged by John Tegenhorst, and the Lord's Prayer by Arnold Strals arranged by Bob Lowden. Judges were from TCU, UT of Austin and SMU.

Area Rabies Alert

Somewhere in or near Muenster a dog and a puppy maybe infected with rabies. Both are females, the older dog about 12 inches tall, brown and black, with long ears.

The two animals were seen at Tony Felderhoff's last Thursday evening, and possibly were exposed to a rabid skunk found there the following morning. The two strays as well as Felderhoff's pet dog may have been bitten by the animal. Felderhoff's dog is known to have been sprayed-by it.

Mr. Felderhoff shot the skunk, and Dr. Tisdale sent the head to the State

Mayor Praises Police Dept.

Muenster policemen, recently criticized for being over-eager to issue traffic tickets, were stoutly defended by Mayor Leonard Endres at Tuesday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Responding to a report that Muenster is a speed trap, Endres said that the officers are doing an exceptionally good job in every respect, that they are fair in writing traffic tickets, and conscientiously patrol the town to keep an eye on homes and businesses.

Regarding criticism of over staffing, the mayor said the city is more fortunate than most people realize. Two of the officers are on the payroll and the other four serve for free while enrolled in the Texoma Police Academy. The city is not going overboard in hiring officers, he said, but the citizens get exceptional protection at a bargain price.

The praise extended to the municipal court where people get a fair deal from a capable and impartial judge.

6 from Muenster To Graduate at CCC

Cooke County College will confer degrees upon members of its 1979 graduating class in formal ceremonies Sunday, May 13, 3 p.m. in the activities center.

Dr. Bill Banowsky, president of the University of Oklahoma will be the commencement speaker. The class of 130 graduates includes six from the Muenster area. They are Linda Luikenhaus Coursey, Albert J. Zimmerer, Ray Fleitman, Carroll Reeves, Rex Simmons and Laura Stoffels.

Werner Cler was dismissed from Westgate Hospital on Wednesday, May 9 after being a surgical patient. He will recuperate at home.

City Gets $540 Rebate on Tax For Mixed Drinks

The City of Muenster has received a check in the amount of $540.69 from State Comptroller Bob Bullock as its rebate from the tax on mixed drinks sold here during the first quarter of this year.

This is a part of more than $5.2 million sent to some 200 counties and 354 cities as their share of the 10 per cent gross receipts tax on more than $180 million in mixed drink sales for the three months.

The total tax collection for those sales amounted to $18 million, and each of the cities and counties were rebated 15 per cent of the tax paid for mixed drink sales within their boundaries. After paying $5.2 million to the counties and cities, the state had a balance of $12.8 million.

Bullock said the total revenue to cities, counties and the state last year from the mixed drink tax was $65.3 million. With its first quarter collection of $18 million this year is slightly ahead of last year.

The mixed drink tax is collected by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission and city-county rebates are paid by the comptroller each quarter.

A statement issued by Bullock reveals that Muenster received $540.69 for its 15 per cent of tax revenue of $3,604.62. Gainesville received $525.60 for tax revenue of $3,504.00; Lindsay received $753.40 for tax revenue of $5,022.68; and the county received $2,607.04 for total tax revenue of $17,380.28.

CONTRASTING AMERICANISM AND COMMUNISM

We believe in a democratic regime that allows all people a voice. We encourage all of our people to belong to one of the political parties of the Nation. In Russia and all Communist countries they have only one party and that's the Communist Party. A small hierarchy runs it. They do not listen to the voice of the masses. For instance, it is very reliably reported from very recent research that only four per cent of the people of China are members of the Communist Party. It has never been reported that more than eight per cent of the people of Russia are members of the Communist Party. Even then, it is a relatively small hierarchy inside the Communist Party that makes the decisions.

To cozy-up to the Communists is to assume that they will not continue working desperately to turn the Third World Nations against America and against capitalism. Yet, you have only to look at what is happening in Angola, Rhodesia and several other countries in Africa to realize that the Communists are thoroughly committed to the destruction of capitalism in these developing African nations. Take a look at what is now happening in Vietnam, Cambodia, Ethiopia. Take a look at Russia's part in keeping trouble stirred-up in the Near East where America is spending so much time and effort trying to prevent a war and to establish a basis for peace. In view of Communist declarations of their purpose, in view of their activities, are we safe to assume that they are going to accept a middle ground and join sincerely with America and the rest of the West and Japan in trying to create a better world? Or shall we believe their documents and assertions, and know, on the contrary, that they are dedicated to our destruction and that of our Allies?

It is an old maxim that actions speak louder than words. Eisenhower was not guided by that maxim when he talked with Stalin back there in 1945. Our American leaders were not guided by that maxim when they worked out a plan with Russia for detente. If we are today guided by that maxim we will go very slow in cozying-up to China. We will be very sure that agreements we make shall not tend to strengthen their very efforts that are being directed toward our final destruction. I say this with emphasis because America has contributed much to the strengthening of Russia during these last 30 years. We have extended them very great and valuable scientific secrets; we have supplied them with very special equipment; we have extended them many billions of dollars in credits, and we have sent technicians to help them develop the very armaments that are being used now to threaten our own safety and to threaten the peace of the world.

The Communist attitude toward all other societies was well-expressed by Karl Marx as he wrote the Manifesto of the Communist Party to which the Communists are all dedicated. Marx declared a war of extermination of the society of his day in Germany. He mentioned Germany in particular because that was where he lived but his declaration of war was directed against all capitalist societies. "War on the German state of affairs? By all means! They are below the level of history, they are beneath criticism but they are still an object of criticism like the criminal, who is below the level of humanity but is still an object for the executioner." Regarding other governments, he continued to write: "In the struggle against that state of affairs criticism is no passion of the head; it is the head of the passion. It is not a lance. It is a weapon. Its object is its enemy, which it wants not to refute but to exterminate." When one reads the Communist literature of today he finds that it is still their objective. They aim at extermination of capitalism anywhere and everywhere.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Almost three weeks ago, Gov. Bill Clements said he saw no "compelling reason" to raise the state's interest rate ceiling and vowed to veto any legislation designed to do just that.

Luckily, the governor left his options open, saying he would keep his finger on the pulse of the housing industry and if he felt a drop off in activity, he wouldn't hesitate to call a special session if that was the action needed to remedy the situation.

When Clements arrived at his press conference this week, he had just received the news that the Federal National Mortgage Association—better known as Fannie Mae—was backing off from accepting low-interest VA and FHA home loans offered in Texas. Clements said he was numb from the news.

The effect of Fannie Mae's announcement—a tighter money market—was sobering clear to the governor, lenders and people looking to buy or sell a home.

What Fannie Mae feared was purchasing VA and FHA loans in Texas that might exceed the state's legal interest rate of 10 percent. Home buyers had been turning to the cheaper VA and FHA loans after finding the conventional money market all but dried up.

Lenders normally add points (one percent of what is borrowed) to get VA and FHA interest rates up to conventional money market levels. But when VA and FHA interest rates went up last week to 10 percent that meant lenders charging points on those loans might be in violation of the state's usury law.

Later in the week, Clements met with Sen. Bill Meier of Euless and Rep. Jerry Donaldson of Gatesville, the sponsors of legislation raising the usury limit from 10 to 12 percent, and said he was "reassessing and rethinking" what actions he might take in light of Fannie Mae's announcement.

After his meeting with Meier and Donaldson, Clements said he was evaluating a new twist to Meier's bill that would tie interest rates to those charged on long-term government loans. Twelve percent would still be the ceiling but lenders could let rates "float" up or down according to the conventional money market.

Sen. Bill Patman of Ganado, a long-time foe of bumping the usury limit, and Texas AFL-CIO President Harry Hubbard felt it was just more than an odd coincidence that Fannie Mae's announcement came on the heels of Clements' statement that he would veto a hike in interest rates unless something happened to change his mind.

Patman and Hubbard charged "collusion" between Fannie Mae and Texas lenders to "pressure the Legislature into raising the usury ceiling." FNMA officials vehemently denied such charges and said Fannie Mae's actions came as the result of vagueness over whether or not VA and FHA loans were exempt from state usury law penalties.

In the wake of Fannie Mae's announcement, it appeared that those with homes on the market were bearing the brunt of the tighter money market as lenders continued to offer VA and FHA loans with points charged not to the buyer, but the seller.

The Budget

While Clements was announcing his support this week for the repeal of the prevailing wage law, he was softening his stand on another key issue—teacher pay raises.

In the past, the governor has said flatly that he would veto any teacher pay hikes that exceeded 5.1 percent. But this week, Clements changed his tune, saying he had never pledged to veto pay raises of more than 5.1 percent.

The House appropriations bill bumps teacher salaries by seven percent in each of the next two years. Clements said that was unacceptable but believed it would be remedied in a conference committee. First though, the Senate must act.

Step One in that process was finished this week as the Senate Finance Committee completed work on its version of the 1980-81 state budget. That plan will cost the taxpayers $600 million more than the House appropriations bill.

Senate Debate

Senate debate on the state budget will begin this week. The Senate's spending plan would give teachers only the 5.1 percent increase in pay that Clements says he can support.

The Senate's budget would cost the state $20.8 billion. The price tag on the House bill would be $20.3 billion. Earlier in the session, Clements proposed a $19.8 billion state budget—including a $1 billion cut in state taxes. Neither the House or Senate have left much for the tax relief Clements has been demanding since taking office.

Another interesting provision of the Senate Finance Committee's proposal is that it eliminates over $400 million found in the House measure to reimburse school districts for revenues lost because of the Tax Relief Amendment approved by voters last November. The Senate plans to take up reimbursement when it begins debate on school finance.

The Senate Finance Committee also did away with additional exemptions for the elderly and handicapped with yearly incomes over $10,000.

The House

With the appropriations bill behind them for now, House members seemed to get a second wind this week as they passed a constitutional amendment legalizing bingo for non-profit and charitable organizations, approved legislation giving voters the power to rollback property taxes that exceed five percent, made it legal for farmers to produce alcohol to mix with gasoline (making "gasahol"), and, finally, overwhelmingly voted to require motorists to have liability insurance.

The "bingo" amendment, already passed by the Senate, was altered slightly and senators will now have to concur with a "local option" provision tacked onto the amendment before it is sent to voters for their approval.

"Gasahol"

Farmers are hoping they can squeeze a little alcohol out of some of their by-products and then add that to gasoline. The House made that a little easier this week by first making it legal to manufacture alcohol (for cars though, not human beings), and by authorizing the state to provide loans so farmers can build alcohol-producing plants on their farms and ranches.

What farmers will end up with is called "gasahol," simply a mixture of about 90 percent gasoline and 10 percent alcohol. "Gasahol" is one of the less bizarre alternative fuels being mentioned these days and it has already proved successful in such divergent places as Brazil and Nebraska.

No one is too old to learn, and that may be why all of us keep putting it off. Nothing is harder, on a woman's clothes than another woman.

Reunion Held by Classes of 1944

One of the many gatherings held to coincide with Germanfest was the get-together for members of the graduating class of 1944 from both Muenster schools, SHHS and MHS, and their classmates from any grade. Held Sunday afternoon, April 29, beginning at 4:00, it was a delightful occasion of visiting and remembering. Attending, with their spouses, were in front row: Leo Felderhoff, Johann Seyler Bezner, Juanita Weinzapfel Bright, Wilfred Walterscheid, Mary Ann Reiter Arendt; middle row: Joe Tempel, Earle Otto,

Not pictured above, but also attending were Dolly Endres Laviolette, Alvin Fuhrman, Urban Rohmer, Justin Hess, Jr. Missing were Dorothy Rohmer Wright, Frank Hennigan, Rosalie Lutkenhaus Sweed, Angie Knabe Lutkenhaus, Adeline Knabe Devers, Berthold Fuhrmann, Harry Sicking and Emmet Sicking. Two of the classmates are deceased, Geneva Gremminger Pagel and Alma Marie Luke.

Mary Ann Reiter Arendt brought a scrapbook with pictures, the class will and prophecy. Those attending had so much fun that plans were made to meet again in 1984, and all former classmates were urged to start making plans to attend during the coinciding Germanfest.

Hornets Win Two For 4-1 Standing In 14-A Baseball

Hornet baseballers kept their title hopes alive last Friday in a thrilling 7-6 extra inning win over Celina. The victory gave them a season record of 4-1 with two more games remaining on the schedule.

The lone loss is to Pottsboro. The four wins include two over Celina and 1 each over Callisburg and Sanger. A game with Callisburg was missed because of bad weather and will not be made up unless it has to be played to determine final standing.

The game with Celina was a see-saw affair. Celina took a 3-1 first inning lead, MHS tied it 3-3 in the third and moved ahead 4-3 in the fourth. Ending the 5th it was Celina again, 6-5, and the Hornets knotted it at 6 all in the 6th. Next inning was scoreless and MHS ended it dramatically in the 8th with back to back doubles. Curtis Pagel got the first one and came home on Dale Swirczynski's.

Steady pitching by Phil Wolf and Todd Richey held the visitors to 9 hits and 2 walks and 15 strikeouts. Meanwhile the Celina pitcher gave up 14 hits and 1 walk and fanned 3 both teams made 4 errors.

Hitters for MHS were Todd Richey and Dale Swirczynski, each a double and two singles; Phil Wolf and David Felderhoff, each a double and a single; Floyd Felderhoff 2 singles, Curtis Pagel 1 double and Carl Pagel 1 single.

The Hornets' best defensive game of the season to date was the 5-0 shutout of Callisburg last week Tuesday. Todd Richey did a great job in allowing only 2 hits and one walk while fanning 5 and his teammates gave him errorless support.

Their combined efforts allowed only 23 Wildcats at bat during the game. Of the three who got on base, one was caught stealing and the other two died on base.

The Callisburg pitcher gave up 5 hits and 2 walks and struck out 6 while his team made 5 errors.

Hornet hitters were Ricky Winn 2 singles, Phil Wolf a double, Todd Richey and Dale Swirczynski each a single.

SH Parish Hosts Diocesan Meeting

Two hundred and fifty delegates and fifty alternates, who are elected members of the Lay Assembly of the Fort Worth Diocese, representing each parish in the diocese, met in Muenster Sunday in the Community Center.

It was the first full meeting of the assembly, whose purpose is to formulate a Diocesan Pastoral Council, which is a Bishop's Advisory Board of 27 members. The group will be made up of three members from each deanery and several members from the Priests' Senate, several from the Assembly of Women Religious and several from the permanent Diaconate.

The Fort Worth Diocese is one of the first in the U.S. to comply with the directive of Pope John Paul II, to set up a Lay Assembly. Frank Luke of Muenster is one of the 27 elected Sunday to the Bishop's Advisory Board.

The entire group elected Dr. Betty Myers of Denton as president; Joe Perez of Bridgeport is vice-president for the North Deanery.

Local delegates to the Sunday meeting were Mrs. Paul Fisher, David Flusche and Frank Luke.

Warning Given Against Bogus Kit On Alaska Jobs

Alaska Commissioner of Labor, Edmund N. Orbeck, has issued a warning to residents of the contiguous United States against false advertising now appearing in newspapers and magazines.

Orbeck warns that "the offers for an 'Alaskan Employment Kit' in the national advertising, imply a positive job outlook for Alaska which is just now the case."

The Ads in question appear as news columns with an Anchorage, Alaska dateline and headlines i.e. "How to Get A $1,000 a Week Job In Alaska." The Ads offer an employment kit for $9.95 or $1 good-will deposit on C.O.D.'s when writing to a Washington, D.C. address.

The Alaska Official urges persons to be wary of the advertising. "Alaska has the highest unemployment rate in the nation with 11.1 per-cent annual average for 1978. Welfare rolls in the state have also increased as discouraged workers are no longer seeking employment.

FOOD for THOUGHT

An Agricultural Concern Of Interest to Everyone

Irrigation is used on only 12 percent of farmland devoted to the growing of crops.

Yet, this irrigated land, located primarily in the 17 western states, yields about one-fourth of the value of all crops.

This contribution of irrigated agriculture to the overall food supply must be considered as increasing non-farming demands are placed upon water usage.

Presented by this publication and Sperry New Holland to promote a better understanding of the modern farm to family food supply system.

Theo Kuykendall Dies

Friends in the Forestburg area have been notified of the death of Theodore Kuykendall, 85, in an Archer City Hospital. He was born on December 31, 1893 in Montague County and was a retired farmer. Survivors include his wife Sarah, five daughters and five sons.

Heard a feller say the other day that most of those "Anti-Nude Nuts" know about as much about nuclear energy as a Hog does Christmas. I'm inclined to agree with him. Why don't they demand to do away with T.V. sets, microwave ovens, etc. or demand we shut down the sun. Too much sun will give you skin cancer yet people lay out in it and fry themselves brown.

Let us not forget the FFA Junior Rodeo on Friday May 11 and Saturday May 12. Also the Rummage and Bake Sale sponsored by the Forestburg Fire Dept. Saturday May 12.

And don't forget our Mothers Sunday May 13th.

Air Conditioning and your electric bill.

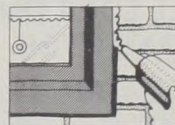

The summer months in Texas are that time when the largest factor in most electric bills is operation of air conditioning equipment. On the average, air conditioning accounts for about half of summertime bills.

The most important single factor in holding down the cost of air conditioning is insulation.

Proper insulation blocks out heat. Six or more inches is recommended for attics, three or more inches for walls and two inches around the ducts of central systems. Insulation dealers or a TP&L Service Representative will help you determine the amounts you have and the amounts you may need to add.

Replace missing or worn weather stripping around door and window openings. Caulk around the outside of doors and windows where the frames meet the walls.

Keep fireplace dampers closed when not in use. Close blinds or drapes to block out direct sunlight.

Keep furniture and draperies away from air outlets and returns. Clean grills often.

Set the thermostat on 78° or higher. Turn equipment off if you will be away from home for several days or longer.

Check filters every 30 days. If you have the permanent type, clean them by manufacturer's directions. If they're the disposable type, replace them when they're dirty.

Have your air conditioning equipment checked seasonally by a qualified serviceman.

Set the thermostat on 78° or higher. Turn equipment off if you will be away from home for several days or longer.

Two Salespersons See Avon Factory

Mrs. Alvina Hellman and Mrs. Odella Detten joined a group of 30 Avon representatives from the Gainesville, Denton and Marietta areas on Monday, April 30 for a tour of the Avon Production Co. Plant in Kansas City, MO. They were guests of Avon District Manager, Sandy Thorpe and left from Denton by chartered bus.

Part of the conducted tour showed them the full process their orders receive, from arrival by mail to filling and completion and shipping out. Five miles of "belts and pulleys" were housed in the plant, and are used to complete the full process.

Sightseeing in the area was included in the trip. The group returned home Wednesday, May 2. Before departure on Monday, Mrs.

Detten visited her son, Jerry Detten, who recently underwent an implant of a Pacemaker in Garland Memorial Hospital.

Visit in Kansas

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herr of Muenster and Melvin Herr of Denton visited their son and brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Herr and Courtney Ann in Pittsburg, Kansas Saturday, Sunday and Monday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ursula Herr. In Oklahoma City they stopped for lunch with Melvin's daughter, Kathy and in Tulsa with Ursula Herr's daughter, Patty. Charlie Herr took his guests for sightseeing into Missouri. Enroute home they stopped to tour the world famous Oral Roberts University and campus.

Pecan Trees Need Frequent Zinc Sprays During Spring

Beautiful pecan trees and regular harvests of high quality pecans begins each spring with frequent zinc sprays. Good foliage is the secret to optimum growth, healthy trees and regular production. Mature pecan trees can have double the amount of foliage with three or four zinc sprays in April and May. Leaves on mature trees are full grown by June, so spray early and frequently. Young pecan trees can grow six feet instead of six inches in one year if zinc is sprayed onto the foliage every two to three weeks from April until August. This is of course in combination with a good management program.

There are two types of zinc which can be used in Texas, zinc sulfate or NZN. Each is effective. Commercial pecan producers have used zinc sulfate with good results for over 40 years. Caution will need to be used, however, because zinc sulfate can kill many types of plants, so spray it only onto pecan foliage. NZN is a new type of zinc which is a liquid. It is developed by Dr. J. Benton Storey of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. NZN is highly soluble, less toxic to other vegetation and readily available at many garden centers.

The commercial rates of zinc for spraying pecan foliage in Texas are 2 pounds of zinc sulfate or 1-1/4 quarts of NZN per 100 gallons water.

The homeowner should use 2 teaspoons of zinc sulfate or NZN in one gallon of water. Other forms of zinc, such as zinc chelates or tree injectors, have been tested but have not been found to be an effective source of zinc for pecans in Texas.

Zinc is utilized by pecan foliage for the manufacture of a growth hormone called indole-acetic-acid pecan growth is greatly reduced. The leaves will be small and the shoots will be short and in clusters forming what is commonly called "zinc rosette". Zinc is not readily translocated from shoot to shoot; consequently, frequent zinc sprays are needed if new growth is to receive zinc. This is also why good coverage is important.

Since aerial application does not give complete tree coverage, commercial growers have to depend on ground sprayers for zinc applications.

There are over 600,000 acres of native pecan trees in Texas. Yet strange as it may seem pecans are one of the few plants that cannot absorb zinc from the soil. Texas soils frequently contain very high levels of zinc but because of the high pH nature of alkaline soils a high percentage of the soil zinc is not soluble in the soil water and is thus unavailable to the pecan. Applications of zinc to the soil are of no significant value to pecan trees in Texas.

Relative humidity has a great effect on foliar absorption of zinc. In for west Texas extreme difficulty can be encountered in getting the zinc into the leaf. Along the Gulf Coast, absorption can be extremely easy. Zinc should not be concentrated to 2X or 4X rates because foliage burn can result during periods of high humidity. The use of spreaders are not recommended because they can result in accelerated drying and reduced zinc absorption.

A pecan grower can determine if his zinc sprays are effective by observing the amount of terminal growth the trees make during the year. Mature trees should make 5 to 10 inches of shoot growth annually. Nonbearing of shoot growth each year. In addition, leaves collected in August or early September can be analyzed in a chemical laboratory to determine the concentration of zinc in the leaves. A level of 75 ppm is considered a minimum and 125 ppm is optimum. It is very important to have the leaves washed before analysis to prevent measuring the zinc that may remain on the surface of the leaf.

Zinc alone is not the answer to perfect pecans. It is, however, a very important cultural requirement. With good zinc management, other cultural practices such as fertilization and irrigation will be more effective. However, fertilization of irrigation without zinc sprays is of little value. So, zinc sprays are one of the pecan growers most important first steps to success each year, says Neil Tibbets, County Extension Agent.

Changes in the Social Security law which increased the tax for wage earners on January 1st left the rate for the self-employed unchanged. Nevertheless, self-employed people pay a higher tax than wage earners.

The self-employed were brought into the program in 1951 and started paying 4.25% on the first $3,600 (or $81). That same year a worker for wages paid $54. on the amount earned. This year, the tax for wage earners went from 6.05% to 6.13% and the taxable amount from $17,000 to $22,900. The rate for self-employed is 8.1%, the same as in 1978. By 1982, it will be 9.35% as compared with 6.7% for the wage earner.

The self-employed also must make quarterly payments on estimated annual earnings. If you need to establish an account for deposits toward meeting your quarterly payments, see any of our officers. When they advise you on saving toward future needs ... you can BANK on it!

THANKS

To the wonderful nurses of Muenster Memorial Hospital, to Dr. Antonetti, the Benedictine priests and sisters and Bishop Danglmayr, and to relatives and friends whose visits, cards, prayers and flowers made my hospitalization easier, I say: "Thank You". To my dear daughter-in-law who came to stay with me for eight days and help me get "back on my feet", I add most sincere thanks.
Mrs. Rosie Knauf

I want to thank everyone who sent cards, flowers or gifts, and friends and relatives who stopped by to visit while I was hospitalized. I appreciate the care and kindness of the doctors and nurses of Muenster Memorial Hospital and the prayers and visits of Father Stephen and Bishop Danglmayr. It all adds up to good memories.
Janet Koelzer

All too often, we are remiss in conveyance of appreciation when it is truly heartfelt. Well, this is one of those times when we truly feel strong emotion of appreciation, pride and gratitude.

To you young ladies of the 1979 Miss Muenster Pageant, we can only say that we have never ever seen a lovelier, more congenial group of girls. You were winners, each and every one, and we love you all.
Queenie and Lupe

We wish to extend our thanks to all who expressed sympathy or offered help in our recent sorrow and to the Reverend Fathers for the funeral service and for many visits during her illness. We are especially grateful to the Hospital Staff and Dr. Antonetti and the Staff of St. Richard's Villa. The spiritual bouquets, flowers, food sent to the family and the Sacred Heart High School Choir were deeply appreciated. The family of Katie Hacker

I wish to express my sincere thanks to all at Muenster Memorial Hospital for the devoted care I received while I was a patient recently. Special thanks to Doctors Juarez, Antonetti and Krallie, and to Herman Carroll and all the nurses. Thanks to Fathers Denis, Stephen and Cletus for their prayers and visits, and to all who phoned, sent cards, offered prayers and visited. Lawrence Streng and family

Brenda Voth, Steve Fuhrmann United in Nuptial

The wedding of Miss Brenda Voth and Steve Fuhrmann was held in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, May 5 at 5 p.m. Father Stephen Eckart celebrated the Nuptial Mass and heard their vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Voth of Muenster and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fuhrmann of Lindsay. In a setting of altar arrangements of white gladioli, tall floor candelabra at the entrance to the sanctuary, white votive candles and ivy along the communion rail, a background of Easter lilies on the main altar and white silk bows marking pews for family members, the bride was presented at the altar by her father.

She was wearing a formal bridal gown of sheer dacron polyester organza designed with a sweetheart neckline, full sheer bishop sleeves caught to deep lace cuffs, the empire bodice trimmed with imported French chantilly lace and seed pearl embroidery. In the skirt, front, an accordion pleated center panel dropped fan-shaped to the floor. An attached chapel train of French imported lace extended aisle-wide.

Four layers of English silk illusion formed the veil, which was edged with lace and was attached to a Juliet cap.

The bride carried a cascade of silk wild poppies, rosebuds in shades of white and apricot-peach, white stephanotis and greenery. She wore her late Grandmother Arendt's wedding band, now belonging to her god-mother, Mrs. Vincent Zimmerer. And she borrowed her mother's pearl necklace, in keeping with tradition.

Attendants

Bridal attendants were Carolyn Luke, a friend, as maid of honor; Sharon Voth and Linda Fuhrmann, bride's sisters and Sandy Voth, a cousin, as bridesmaids. Their satin dresses were identically designed with fitted bodices, short puff sleeves, flared skirts finished with a deep ruffle. They wore apricot picture hats, tied with chiffon streamers and flowers. The maid-of-honors dress was apricot, the bridesmaids' were peach. Their nosegays were of peach rosebuds and carnations and white peach ribbons. Each wore a wishbone necklace, a gift from the bride.

Jennifer Fuhrmann, niece and flower girl, carried a basket of apricot mums and rosebuds. Jeannene Voth, bride's sister was junior bridesmaid. Both were dressed exactly like the bridesmaids.

Pat Fuhrmann of Lindsay, groom's brother, was best man. Kenneth Luttmer of South Carolina, Mark Fuhrmann and Mike Fuhrmann, groom's brothers were groomsmen. Danny Voth, bride's brother, Tommy Hoberer groom's brother-in-law, Dwayne Hellman and Bert Walterscheid, friends, were ushers. Craig Voth, bride's brother and Kenny Fuhrmann, groom's brother, and John and Kevin Anderle, groom's nephews, were Mass servers. Men in the wedding party wore brown tuxedos, apricot shirts and matching boutonnieres.

Proceeding the ceremony, the bride gave her mother a long stemmed red silk rose and a similar rose to the groom's mother following the ceremony, also Jennifer Fuhrmann, a niece of the couple brought a floral tribute for the bride to place on the Blessed Virgin's altar. Nieces of the groom, Denise and Kim Anderle, Sandra Bauer, Stephanie Wimmer presented Offertory gifts and Shayne Wimmer, groom's nephew, presented the memory candle.

Wedding music was given by Mrs. Bev Fuhrmann, groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Janet Voth, bride's sister-in-law, and Mrs. Linda Flusche and Mrs. Christy Koessler, with organ and guitar accompaniment. Selections were "Wedding Song," "And I Love You So," "Follow Me," "Sunrise, Sunset," "One Hand One Heart" and "We've Only Just Begun."

Reception

The parents of the couple hosted a reception, dinner and dance in the Sacred Heart Community Center. Janet Voth, bride's sister-in-law, and Mary Grewing, a friend secured guests' names in the bride's book. The registration table was covered with a peach cloth and held the couple's memory candle and a basket of rice bags.

An arrangement of silk flowers, made by Carolyn Luke was used for the bride's table, which held the three tiered wedding cake, silver candelabra entwined with ivy and holding white votive candles and an apricot and peach wreath with a peach candle.

Reception assistants were Mmes. Vallie Gantt, Mona Ford, sisters of the bride and Mmes. Annette Anderle, Margie Wimmer, Becky Bauer, and Pam Hoberer, sisters of the groom. They served the wedding cake, decorated with wedding bells and doves, and rosebuds to match bridesmaids dresses.

Guest tables were covered with white cloths and held lighted apricot candles, arrangements of peach and apricot satin rosebuds and English ivy.

Guests danced to music by Hay Fever.

For the wedding and reception, the bride's mother wore a floor length knit blue gown and a corsage of white rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a soft knit mauve floor length dress and a similar corsage.

For traveling the bride changed to a green and floral print sheer polyester dress with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and is a sales clerk at Wal-Mart. The groom is a graduate of Lindsay High School, and is a dairyman. When they return from a wedding trip to Colorado, they will reside in Lindsay.

The rehearsal dinner was held in the home of the groom's parents on May 3rd. A miscellaneous shower was hosted by Carolyn Luke and Sandy Voth in the W. J. Luke home on April 6th, and a lingerie shower was given by Linda Fuhrmann, Vallie Gantt, Sharon and Jeannene Voth on April 30th in the Mark Fuhrmann home.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Endres for the Germanfest weekend were three of their children and families, Nick of Houston, Jean of Ardmore and Sue of Oklahoma City. Joining them Sunday was another son, Dick and children of Fort Worth. Guests of the Leonard Endres at the Germanfest dance were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisch of Guthrie, Oklahoma and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Graf of Plano.

Observing 20 years of Gemuetlichkeit, Alvin Fuhrmann, president of Sacred Heart Men's Choir, presents a plaque to Joe Fedor, president of the Dallas Frohsinn. The two groups have exchanged visits annually for 20 years.

Frohsinn and Men's Choir Have 20th Visit

The 20th straight year of exchanging visits by the Dallas Frohsinn and Sacred Heart Men's Choir was observed during the 1979 Germanfest by presentation of a plaque to Joe Fedor, president of the Frohsinn by Alvin Fuhrmann, president of the SH choir. The inscription read "To the Dallas

Frohsinn Singing Society, to commemorate 20 years of Gemuetlichkeit, from the Sacred Heart Men's Choir.

Acquaintance of the two organizations traces back to the Texas Centennial in 1936 when the Texanischer Saengerbund held its annual meeting in the old Jefferson

Hotel in Dallas. The Muenster choir was not a member of the Saengerbund but was invited to sing several numbers in the concert. Three years later the Gesangverein Frohsinn of Dallas joined the Muenster Maennerchor in a concert at the 1939 golden jubilee history of Sacred Heart Parish, and the two groups continued occasional exchange of visits until World War II.

In 1959, mainly through efforts of Oscar Longrich (Brother Oscar) of Dallas and Leo Henscheid of Muenster the two groups met again in Muenster. On the occasion President Herman Meiners gave a long speech in German only to discover later that little of it was understood locally. Muenster singers returned the visit by chartered bus during the annual Oktoberfest sponsored by Frohsinn. Since then the two organizations have exchanged visits every year.

Mr. & Mrs. Ronald Weinzapfel Return From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Dean Weinzapfel have returned from a wedding trip to Colorado and are at home in Muenster. The bride is the former Tina Marie Mollenkopf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mollenkopf, Jr. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel.

They were married in Sacred Heart Church on April 21 in a 5 p.m. Nuptial Mass with a double ring ceremony with Father Joseph Weinzapfel, uncle of the groom, officiating. Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with lilies and candles. Two tall floor candelabra, entwined with flowers, greenery and satin bows, marked the approach to the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was wearing a formal bridal gown, Victorian in concept, of organza and cluny lace featuring a sheer V shaped yoke accented with lace edging, tiny covered buttons and a high ruffled neckline. Long, sheer, full bishop sleeves were finished with lace cuffs, edged with a wide ruffle. A band of lace outlined the empire waist and encircled the flounced hem of the skirt, flowing in the back into a brush train.

Her fingertip veil was accented with lace appliques and lettuce edging, and was attached to a lace Camelot cap.

The bridal bouquet was of silk lilies, sweetheart roses, baby's breath and English ivy, cascade in shape, with lace and silk streamers. In keeping with tradition, the bride carried her mother's rosary, the groom's Grandmother Weinzapfel's handkerchief, and she had a blue garter and birthdate penny.

Attendants

Bridal attendants were her sister, Vicki Mollenkopf of Irving as maid of honor and Judy Fisher, a friend, of Arlington, Cheryl Mollenkopf, her sister, Millisa Weinzapfel, groom's sister, of Canyon, and Colynda Henscheid a cousin, as bridesmaids. They wore identically designed dresses of polyester eyelet over taffeta underdresses, with ruffled edge. Skirts were gathered to high waisted, fitted bodices and a wide ruffle covered the shoulders. Attendants, in lime green or sunshine yellow, wore matching bows in their hair, and carried partially closed umbrellas shaped of net and lace, filled with silk lilies, daisies, forget-me-nots and daffodils, satin bows and streamers.

April Truebenbach was the flower girl, carrying flowers and wearing a green dress identical to the bridesmaids. Ring bearers were Joe Weinzapfel groom's brother and Bart Henscheid, bride's cousin.

The best man was Ron Richardson, a friend of the groom from Arlington. Groomsmen were Kirk Mollenkopf, bride's brother, Garry Yosten, a friend from Hereford, Thomas Bright, groom's cousin of Virginia and Robert Weinzapfel, groom's brother.

Ushers were Lonnie Hellman, groom's uncle of Fort Worth, Hal Mollenkopf, bride's brother, Mark Mollenkopf, bride's cousin, and Sam Bright, groom's cousin of Waco. Mass servers were Lonnie Henscheid, bride's cousin and James Bright groom's cousin.

Le Ann Mollenkopf, bride's sister, preceded the wedding party's entrance into church, carrying the Unity candle to place upon the altar. Carla Truebenbach, bride's cousin, was a special attendant. Readers at Mass were Judy Herr, bride's cousin, and Sandy Hellman, groom's cousin. In the Offertory procession were Tracy Henscheid and Jay Mollenkopf, bride's cousins and Judy and Brad Biffle, groom's cousins.

Wedding music was given by the organist, Mrs. David Bright, groom's aunt and flutist Julia Bright, a cousin. Their selections were "Nadia's Theme" and "Joy". Vocalists were Gayle Miller and Janet Voth. Selections were "Evergreen", "Wedding Song", "Never My Love", "Of My Hands", "A Time for Us", "Peace, Joy and Happiness", and "Mother, at Your Feet".

The bride presented single, long stemmed roses to mothers of the couple and as a floral tribute, at the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Reception

A reception, dinner and dance followed in the Community Center. At the guest book were Tracy Klement and Pat Davidson, both of College Station, registering 310 guests.

The bride's table held silver candelabra with satin bows, also the bridesmaids umbrellas. Karen Schilling served champagne. Gayle and Garry Yosten, Gay Mollenkopf and Julia Bright served the three tiered wedding cake, which stood over a yellow fountain, in a circle of English ivy, decorated with yellow and green roses. The bride's cake and chocolate groom's cake were cut by Betty Rose Walterscheid and Mrs. Virgil Henscheid.

"Hay Fever" played for dancing. For the wedding and reception, the bride's mother wore a polyester full length powder blue dress with capped sleeves, and a rose and the high waistline. The groom's mother wore a polyester peach full length pleated dress with a matching lace cape.

The rehearsal dinner was held in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Albert Henscheid, on April 20 for thirty five guests. An "Around the Clock" shower was given on April 8 at the TP&L Building hosted by Cheryl and Vicki Mollenkopf, Judy Fisher, Carla Truebenbach and Colynda Henscheid.

Riding Club Preps For Horse Show

A review of lessons learned by 4-H Horse Club members, in preparation for the County 4-H Horse Show on May 19 at 9 a.m. at the Gainesville Riding Club Arena, was the feature of the April 23 meeting held at 7 p.m. at the Gainesville Riding Club.

Phil Whetstone, Assistant County Agent and Wilfred Sicking were in charge of the meeting and conducted the review.

Members are urged to send in their completed entry forms before the show. If necessary, entries will be accepted the morning of May 19, preceding the show.

Several mothers of the 4-H members have met to plan a good concession stand for the show. All proceeds will be added to the fund for all 4-H members. There will be no admission charge for spectators, and everyone is invited to attend, spend all of the day or a part, to see how 4-H is working to help the Cooke County youngsters. Questions may be referred to Phil Whetstone at the Cooke County Court House.

Growing Team Wins 2 from Denton VFW

A pair of victories over the VFW team of Denton extended the Growing baseball team's perfect record to 5-0 during the past week.

The first of the two was thriller in which the local fellows rallied strong in the sixth and put over 4 runs to tie the count at 7-7, then finished their job in the bottom of the last frame as Phil Wolf scored from second on Craig Walterscheid's 2-out triple.

Mike Hesse and Phil Wolf shared the pitching job, and between them gave up 8 hits and 2 walks while fanning 10. The Denton fellow allowed 10 hits and 4 walks and struck out 3. Growing hitters were Craig Walterscheid a triple and two singles; Phil Wolf, a double and a single; Kirk Mollenkopf, two singles; Monte Endres a double; Brian Herr a single.

At Denton the team led all the way to a 4-1 decision as Phil Wolf had it well under control by allowing 4 hits and 3 walks while fanning 5. The Denton hurler allowed 7 hits and 4 walks and struck out 7. In the errors department it was Growing 2 and VFW 5.

Soll Not Forever
We expect our soil to last forever. We take it so much for granted, we don't even see it, unless the kids track it in. But as Mark Twain said, "The thing about land is, they ain't makin' no more." When we cover our soil with concrete, or it blows or washes away, we've lost it forever.

When the grass looks greener on the other side of the fence, it may be that they take better care of it there.

I REALLY PREFER RELAXING TO PAINTING

THAT'S WHY I LIKE SATINTONE ... the easy paints

First, they are easy. They brush or roll like a dream, dry in minutes, and the tools wash up in water. More important still, they really last, and I do enjoy the longer time between repaints.

If you'd rather take it easy than paint, next time try SatinTone, the latex paint by Colony Paints. We have SatinTone for all surfaces; indoors or out.

What does it take to feel secure?

1. A place to hang your hat.

Actually it's much more than a place to hang-up. Or hang-out. It's where the heart is, and whether a castle or a cottage, there's just no place like home.

2. A chicken in every pot.

In most cases, one chicken and one pot are sufficient. Unless, of course, you have a very large family. Then, a turkey in the pot is even better. Best of all — a brother in the grocery business.

3. First Texas Savings.

Security is more than peace of mind. It's a plan of action — designed to meet your needs today, and grow with your goals for tomorrow. And a savings plan at First Texas Savings can really help. Our Regular Saving Accounts earn at the rate of 5.25% and keep your money readily available. Your account begins earning interest from the day of deposit. And, at First Texas, your interest also earns interest every day, to increase your annual yield.

For longer term investments at higher interest rates, Certificates of Deposit are ideal. Here too, First Texas gives you the benefit of earnings from day of deposit and daily compounding of accumulated interest. And you can choose from a variety of different terms and rates.

Certificates of Deposit*

Annual Rate	Minimum Term	Minimum Deposit	Annual Yield
5.75%	3-Months	$ 500	5.92%
6.50%	1-Year	$1,000	6.72%
6.75%	2½-Years	$1,000	6.98%
7.50%	4-Years	$1,000	7.74%
7.75%	6-Years	$1,000	8.00%
8.0%	8-Years	$1,000	8.33%

Certificates of Deposit are automatically renewable unless the Association gives written notice of cancellation at least 45 days prior to the maturity date. Loans are not covered by FDIC and are not insured. Federal regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawal. *Annual yield based on current rates and does not vary.

Of course, your savings can be insured safe, up to $40,000 for single accounts, to $200,000 for couples, and to $560,000 for a family of four by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. And First Texas Savings makes it easy and convenient to save too. With services like postage-paid Save By Mail, direct deposit of Government Checks, Checkmatic money transfer to simplify loan payments, and Read-Check, to put idle checking account funds to work, earning for you. Why not get all the details from a First Texas Savings Counselor? It's the smart way to get your savings growing. And get the confidence that comes with real financial security.

Jubilee Planned For Rev. Stephen

Sacred Heart Parish will observe the 25th anniversary of Father Stephen Eckart's ordination on Sunday, May 20. A con-celebrated Mass in Sacred Heart Church at 5 p.m. will be followed by a covered-dish supper in the Community Center. Ladies of the parish are asked to bring a generous meat or salad. The meal is for adults only.

Post Office to Bar Undersized Mail After July 15

"Use up your small and undersized envelopes and cards before July 15," Sectional Center Manager/Postmaster Jack D. Watson reminds customers. That is the date when the Postal Service's new size standards become effective. The Fort Worth postmaster said that after July 15, envelopes and cards measuring less than 3 1/2 inches high or 5 inches long will be returned to the sender if mailed.

Postmaster Watson said that because the envelope and greeting card industries have had more than three years to prepare for the new standards, few retailers should still be selling undersized pieces. "Many consumers, however, are likely to still have smaller envelopes and cards in their supply of stationery," Watson said. The regulations also prohibit flimsy cards. In the future they must be at least seven-thousandths (.007) of an inch thick. An official postal card, for instance, has a thickness of nine thousandths of an inch. Undersized pieces and flimsy cards are being banned because they can become trapped in other mail, tear and jam mail processing machinery. As a result, the letters of others can also be damaged.

Reports Needed on Crops, Livestock

During late May and June, many Texas farmers and ranchers will receive a crop or livestock questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service or will be personally interviewed by the Service's field staff. The information gathered through questionnaires and interviews provides the basis for determining the acreage devoted to the various crops and midyear livestock numbers for the state of Texas and for each county. Crop and livestock reports provide a dependable, unbiased picture of Texas' most important industry—agriculture. The estimates in the reports are tools to help farmers and ranchers work out their planting, breeding, feeding, storing, producing, and marketing plans. Farm organizations and legislatures use them in planning programs. The estimates are also used in establishing the various government program acreage and payment levels to farmers for the state and county.

Extension economists and private farm and ranch management consultants use them as a basis for advising farmers and ranchers. Exporters use them in planning and promoting the sale of agricultural products abroad. Prompt and accurate completion of the survey forms provides for more reliable estimates and helps to reduce survey costs.

All individual farm and ranch information is kept confidential, and only state and county summaries become part of the final published estimate.

This is a cooperative effort of the USDA's Economics, Statistics, and Cooperatives Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Green Plants Are Air Conditioners

Air conditioning an entire yard may seem like an impossible job, but plants are among the most effective air conditioners in existence. Landscaping to utilize the air conditioning effect of plants will be discussed in detail at the Texas A&M Research & Extension Center Open House and Field Day May 16, 1979. The special program will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the new auditorium. The TAMU Center is located 4.2 miles north of LBJ on Coit Road in north Dallas.

Plants filter air in just about the same way as mechanical air conditioners. Trees, for example, mix clean air with polluted air. The commercial air conditioner does this by forcing good air into an area of impure air. Plants, rather than using forced air techniques, simply give off pure oxygen which mixes and dilutes the bad air.

Plants also collect dust particles from the air. These particles are trapped by tiny hairs on plant leaves and then are washed to the ground by falling rain.

Plants help to dilute bad air contaminated with pollutants. An acceptable ratio is 1 part polluted air to 3,000 parts good air, but along many highways, the ratio may fall to almost half that level. Large, open "green belt" areas would help to diminish smog buildup.

Plants can also be used to mask unpleasant fumes and odors. For example, the fragrant blossoms of the Texas Mountain Laurel, viburnum, honeysuckle, jasmine, pitosporum or lilac can effectively mask unpleasant odors.

The next time you purchase a shrub or tree for your property, consider some of these air conditioning benefits as well as the beauty, shade and screening provided.

Family Observes 45th Anniversary Of Martin Bayers

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bayer celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary on Sunday, April 29, with a buffet luncheon in their home for 28 family members.

Tables were decorated by a daughter, Nelda Bayer, with a centerpiece of pink, white and yellow spring flowers and sapphire blue candles. Golden candle holders on the lace-covered honoree table were gifts to her parents. Specially printed memento napkins were gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Ken Otto (daughter, Patsy).

A toast to the anniversary couple was offered by their children before dinner. The white anniversary cake, trimmed in pink and yellow flowers, was cut by the Bayers and served by their granddaughters, Rhonda, Cheryl, Jennifer and Melanie Bayer.

The group spent the afternoon visiting and remembering. Preceding the meal, the Martin Bayer family attended the 11 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church. Later a family portrait was made, with group pictures of children and grandchildren.

Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bayer and Rhonda, Cheryl and Jennifer; Mr. and Mrs. David Bayer and Ryan, Melanie, Deanne and Brandon; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bayer and Lisa Ann; and Bill Bayer all of Muenster. Texoma Area Gets Energy Cost Relief

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm announces the approval of a $65,000 grant to the Texoma Regional Planning Commission at Denison, by the Community Services Administration.

The funds will be used to assist eligible families who experience substantially increased energy cost and or face life or health threatening situations caused by winter related energy emergencies. The program will run for six months beginning January 1, 1979.

The Texoma Regional Planning Commission serves Cooke, Grayson, and Fannin Counties.

Confusing Forms To Be Simplified By Comptroller

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Wednesday said his office will step up the battle to reduce confusing government paperwork through the introduction of a new series of tax return forms this month.

Bullock said eight new tax forms will be inaugurated in an effort to make returns less bewildering for taxpayers and to reduce errors and improve efficiency in the comptroller's Office.

"Government paper work shouldn't be a puzzle designed to test the ingenuity of the taxpayers," Bullock said.

The new forms which are color-coded, are used to report city and state sales tax collections, metropolitan transit authority tax collections, or make direct payment of city, state and MTA payments and pre-payments of taxes require less information than the old forms.

Beginning this month, quarterly tax filers will receive orange-colored returns. Monthly returns are shaded green, with direct payment returns on gold and pre-payment forms printed in pink. Supplemental pages are gray-colored.

Bullock said the new returns, besides the color scheme, are easier to read because of a cleaner typeface.

The forms also request less information and more logically follow bookkeeping sequence.

"There are also more explicit instructions on or near the information blocks that request information that should make the returns easier to prepare and file," Bullock said.

The new forms are part of a series of internal improvements being made in the Comptroller's Office to improve efficiency and lighten paperwork for many taxpayers.

Bullock said most taxpayers were alerted to the changes in the returns during the past couple of months.

"However, if an individual with a sales tax account has questions, they can be answered by employees of the Comptroller's field offices throughout the state or by calling Area Code 512/475-1931 or toll-free from anywhere in Texas at 1-800-252-5555," he said.

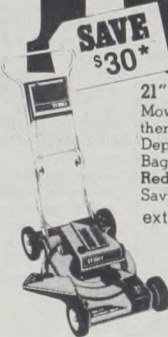

Telephone lines are less likely to be busy early in the morning (8 a.m. to 9 a.m.) or late in the afternoon (4 p.m. to 5 p.m.), Bullock said.

Late last year, the comptroller's Office replaced the Texas tax permit application required of persons or firms before collecting and paying sales tax, use taxes, or cigarette, cigar and tobacco taxes.

The revised form had one-third the number of pages of the old forms and had 25 fewer information reporting blocks.

Springtime Storms Increase Lightning Damage Danger

AUSTIN—Four out of five human deaths or injuries from lightning occur in rural areas, the Texas Department of Agriculture warns, and, as spring approaches, the likelihood of the violent electrical charges increases.

Isolated buildings and equipment in rural areas are interconnected by a network of water pipes, electric wires and metal fencing to make them irresistible conductors in lightning's search for a path to the ground.

Barns are particularly vulnerable as they are often the tallest structures around and regularly contain highly combustible material.

Gambling Winnings Must Be Reported For Income Tax

Taxpayers who win cash from raffles, lotteries, racing and games of chance must include the money as income on their Federal income tax returns, the Internal Revenue Service said.

These activities are considered forms of gambling by the tax laws and money won is income, the IRS advised. Contest prize money and awards from employers also are taxable income.

Noncash items won in contests or donated by employers, such as household appliances, all-expense-paid vacations, or cars, are included in income at fair market value. Both cash and noncash winnings are shown on Form 1040 as "Other Income," the IRS said.

Gambling losses may be deducted to the extent of the winnings. They are reported on Schedule A of Form 1040. In either case, the taxpayer must be able to substantiate amounts reported, so the IRS suggests keeping racing stubs and lottery tickets.

When a taxpayer wins a prize or award which the giver will not make available until some time in the future, the taxpayer does not have to report the prize until it is actually received or made available.

Piano Students Gets High Ratings In Music Festival

Eleven of Mrs. Rosemary Dankesreiter's students participated in the Cooke County Music Teachers Association Adjudication Festival held on April 28 in the Gainesville High School Music Department.

They performed memorized piano selections and were rated as Superior, Excellent, or Good by Dr. David Petrasch of Grayson County College.

Those performing and their ratings were: Jayna Hofbauer, superior; Francine Hudspeth, excellent; Julie Rohmer, superior; Christi Rohmer, superior; Sandy Taylor, excellent; Dana Dankesreiter, superior; Janel Flusche, good; Laura Flusche, excellent. All are of Muenster. Lindsay students were: Collette Hoenig, superior; Aaron Hoenig, excellent. Saint Jo student Clifford Bogges, superior.

Those receiving a superior rating were invited to perform in a recital the same afternoon at 4:30. Participation in the Festival was an exciting and educational experience for the young pianists.

Eighteen students are now preparing for a recital to be held on Thursday, May 17, at 7:30 in the Sacred Heart Grade School. All parents, friends and interested persons are invited to attend.

Kinne's Jewelry Featured During Preservation Week

Historic Preservation Week, May 6-12, is being sponsored in Gainesville and Cooke County by the Cooke County Heritage Society, the Cooke County Historical Commission, and the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

Both Mayor Glenn Loch and County Judge Gregory Underwood have issued proclamations calling for observance of the week, pointing out that buildings and places which have shaped our lives are tangible evidence of the past and serve to enrich our lives today.

The theme for this year's observance is "Preservation Is Good Business." Accordingly, the two local sponsoring organizations are calling attention to Kinne's Jewelry Store, which has retained the exterior and much of the interior of the store essentially as they were originally. Of particular interest is the ornate ceiling in the building.

The Heritage Society and the County Historical Commission are maintaining an information desk at Kinne's from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Monday through Saturday, May 7-12. Information is available about the tax advantages of historic preservation under the Tax Reform Act of 1976 and the Revenue Act of 1978, as well as about the Texas state preservation program, the National Register of Historic Places, and the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Technical bulletins on rehabilitating historic buildings are also on display.

Visitors to Kinne's during Preservation Week may also enjoy seeing the private museum which has been established there by the owner, Francis A. Wiese. It includes treasures such as silver mesh purses from the 1920's and other items which have been in the store since that date, as well as numerous items from Wiese's personal collection.

Kinne's Jewelry Store was begun in 1889 when W. B. Kinne, Sr., renting a corner of a store on the east side of the courthouse square, launched his jewelry firm. He moved into the present location in 1913. His sons, Harry Kinne and W. B. Kinne, Jr., entered the business in 1919 and 1926 respectively. The latter died in 1972, and Harry operated the store until his retirement in 1974. At that time the firm was purchased by Wiese, who has retained the antique decor and fixtures. The showcases that have been there through the decades and the grandfather clock purchased by the founder some 80 years ago add to the turn-of-the-century atmosphere.

Any further information about Preservation Week may be obtained by calling Morton Museum, 668-8900.
