

United Way Campaign Begins

After almost four years of the present administration, Carter and Mondale are finding it difficult to appeal to voters on their record so they are doing their utmost to destroy the opponent.

A favorite strategy of their campaign is to imply that Ronald Reagan doesn't know what it's all about, that he's incompetent and irresponsible, a person who would get the nation's economy in a snarl and completely wreck the US relationships with other nations of the world.

Well, since they have brought up the subject it seems only fair to recall some of the things that were done by Carter during the past four years. Also, it's fair to observe that some of the cases have to be judged as either ignorance or malice, either of which is no more complimentary than the opinions they are attempting to establish about the opponents.

Let's start with the Koreagate scandal, which came up shortly after Carter came to office. The president learned that 115 present and former members of Congress were suspected of having taken bribes...hundreds of thousands and perhaps million of dollars...from Korean influence peddlers. In view of previous campaign talk on Watergate, here was a golden opportunity to go after corrupt government.

But there was a difference. Watergate had been Republican, this was a Democrat case. Demands for investigation were delayed and delayed until finally one person was convicted, a former congressman. So, it's proper to ask whether the President really knew what he was doing in that case.

Also shortly after Carter came to office he personally presented the famous crown of St. Stephen to the Communist dictator of Hungary. This extremely valuable jewel encrusted gold treasure dates back hundreds of years to the saintly man whose name it bears, and was enshrined in a cathedral as a cherished possession of the Hungarian people. When the Reds took over and Cardinal Mindszenty voluntarily chose exile in the American embassy he took the crown with him and later transferred it to the American government for safe keeping from the Communists.

One of Carter's official acts was to personally present the crown to the Reds in direct violation of the transfer entrusting it to US, and added insult to injury by declaring his pleasure in returning it to "the people of Hungary." Again one has to wonder, did Carter realize what he was doing? Did he know or care that he was betraying a trust, proclaiming before the world that America can't be depended to keep a promise, and betraying the millions of Hungarian people to whom the crown was a cherished symbol of faith? Imagine! The man guilty of this ignorance or betrayal dares to question Reagan's competence and integrity.

Another case deserving thought is the Panama Canal giveaway, the deal that was pushed by the president and rail-roaded through Congress in spite of objections by three fourths of the nation. And to make matters worse, the deal included an agreement whereby we taxpayers would pay the Red dictator, Trujillo, billions of dollars for accepting the property. In the first place, this ripoff of taxpayers is inexcusable. But it is minor compared with the harm done to our country. By this act our president surrendered to our sworn enemy the control of this waterway, which is vital to US economy and security. Again a person has to Muenster's community United Way campaign got under way Tuesday at the monthly Chamber of Commerce meeting with distribution of packets to the workers. Johnny Leftwich, county chairman, was there and showed a promotional film directed by Pat Summerall and featuring players of NFL Football.

Leftwich stated that the county goal this year is $112,804, an increase of $13,804 over last year. The figure reflects budget increases by participating agencies because of inflation. Target date for finishing the campaign is Friday, October 24.

Campaign solicitors are Tommy Hesse, Mrs. Arnold Schilling, David Bright, Roger Taylor, Kenneth Selby, David Fette, Alvin Fuhrman, Bob Vogel, Tom Herr, Joe Hellman, Larry Hennigan, Virgil Henschel, Dennis Hess, Henry Weinzapfel, Johnny Pagel and Monica Hess.

In other Chamber business Alvin Fuhrman and Dick Ferber were announced as chairman and co-chairman for Germanfest '81. Fuhrman said their planning will start soon with first priority on finding 25 to 30 good workers. Another goal is to have the recently acquired office and a part time worker on the job soon to help with the paper work.

Regarding Christmas parade, the decision was to coordinate with Jaycees before planning.

The report on Harvest Hoedown was satisfactory. Rain undoubtedly decreased the crowd, however it was equally welcome. Even so business was better than on the average Saturday.

A visitor at the meeting was Danny Darwin of the Texas Rangers pitching staff.

Alumni Completes Homecoming Plans

SHH Alumni put finishing touches on their plans for the 1980 Homecoming, when they met in the school library last Sunday night. Homecoming Activities scheduled for Saturday, November 1 will begin with the anticipated Sunday Mass at 5 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church, followed by a social hour in the Community Center at 6 p.m. Open to all graduates, but honoring especially grads of 1940, 1950, 1960, and 1970. Pick-up foods and refreshments will be available.

The SHH Tigers - Tyler Gorman football game will begin at 7:30 and the Homecoming social and dance will follow after the game, in the Community Center. It will be open to the public and will feature the "Hard Times" Band. Beer and set-ups will be available. Admission to the dance portion of the celebration will be $7.00 per couple.

Funeral service for Cindy

Cindy Ramsey

Cindy Marie Ramsey, the 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ramsey, was killed instantly at 5:11 p.m. Thursday afternoon in Myra when a small motorcycle on which she and her sister were riding was struck by a truck. As told by State Trooper, Dudley Ivie, the girls' vehicle pulled from a gravel road into the path of the northbound truck on FM 1187.

Her sister Karrie Lynn, 8, was taken to Muenster Memorial Hospital and transferred to Texoma Medical Center in Denison and later to Parkland Hospital in Dallas. She sustained head injuries, a fractured right leg and possible kidney injury. The report Tuesday was that she is improving and anxious to come home.

Funeral service for Cindy

was held at 2 p.m. Monday in Sacred Heart Church with the Reverend Rick Cox and the Reverend Keith Thomas officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery of Gainesville directed by Geo. J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home. Pallbearers were uncles: Greg Pennington, Joe Pennington, Jr., Rod Pennington, Roy Lee Ramsey, John Ramsey and Steve Smith, Jr.

Survivors are her parents; a twin sister, Sandy Marie, the injured sister, Carrie Lynn, and a brother Justin Wade, all of Muenster; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pennington of Oklahoma City and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ramsey of Myra; and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Yeager of Bernice, Okla; also aunts and cousins.

Henry Pels Jr.

Henry (Curly) Pels, 49, lost a short but intensive struggle with cancer at 6:30 a.m. last Thursday in Muenster Memorial Hospital. Treatment for the ailment began with surgery at St. Paul's Hospital on July 23, and he has spent more than half the time since then at St. Paul's and the Muenster Hospital.

Funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at 3 in Sacred Heart Church with Father Denis Soerries officiating at the Mass of Christian Burial and Fathers Patrick Hanser, Stephen Echert and Alexis Williams co-celebrating.

Also participating in a special liturgy planned by Sister Carmelita were five god-children of the deceased. Kevin Pels read from scripture, Sherri Muller recited petitions, Chris Schilling recited a poem, "Safely Home," Jana Herr and Shirley Henschel presented offertory gifts. Sacred Heart High

Larry Kinard, Jr. Assigned to TP&L Muenster Office

Larry Kinard, Jr. has been named customer service supervisor in Muenster for Texas Power and Light Company, according to Gainesville District Manager Tom Parsons.

Kinard came to work for TP & L as a customer service representative in Paris in 1978. He assumed his duties in Muenster Oct. 6.

"I am looking forward to working with the people in Muenster," Kinard said, "and I am just happy to be a part of the development of this fine community."

The 26-year-old Monahans native graduated from Colorado, Texas High School and Texas Tech University where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism/English.

"We are extremely fortunate to have Larry in our district," Parsons said. "He will be a great asset to the community and he will be able to offer the residents of Muenster the best possible service."

Kinard and his wife Marty have one son, Matthew, who is 13 months old.

Beta Kappa Adopts Reach Out Program

Beta Kappa, a local philanthropic sorority, during its monthly meeting October 14 adopted a new program called "Reach Out".

The new program will make sorority members available at times of need, such as illness or death in the family. They will bring in meals, keep children, run errands, and anything that might be of help to those in need.

Margaret Stormer, chairman of the program, will have a card file of the Beta Kappa members so that she will know who is available and what services each can provide. The members will go in pairs to provide whatever service is needed.

This assistance program is in accordance with the Beta Kappa pledge: "The only right we have is the right to help others, and how better can we fill a void or need than by helping others, and thus, ourselves".

Volley Team Wins District Trophy

Muenster High's volleyball team won the double honor of district and bi-district champion Tuesday in the District 8-A tournament hosted by MHS. Since the district matched with 8-A in VIL has no volleyball team, Muenster becomes eligible for regional play on November 15.

The Hornettes started the tourney with decisive wins of 15-2 and 15-4 over Slidell. Carla Walterscheid led the scoring with 10 consecutive points, including two aces.

Their second match was an equally decisive 15-2 and 15-4 win over Alvord. Slidell took second place honor with 15-9, 15-9 wins over Alvord.

MENTALITY OF THE ALL-VOLUNTEER FORCE

The condition, ability and combat readiness of the Armed Forces should be of vital importance to every citizen. Now that we have placed our reliance on an All-Volunteer Force, how is this concept working?

Speaking on this matter in the Senate on February 4 of this year, Senator William L. Armstrong of Colorado, stated:

"This year for the first time ever, all of the services failed to meet their recruiting goals. In the first 10 months of the 1979 fiscal year, the Army experienced a shortfall of 17.4 percent in its recruiting goal. The Marine Corps, Navy, and Air Force recruited only 93, 94, and 96 percent of their respective goals in the same period. The recently publicized recruiting scandals indicate that the Army's recruiting problems may be even more severe than these statistics alone might indicate."

The Senator further stated that "The Armed Forces are also discovering that a steadily increasing percentage of those they do recruit are unsuitable for military service and must be discharged before their enlistments expire. Compounding the problem is that the learning skills of those who are attracted to our military service and who do serve out their terms of enlistment is declining."

Armstrong said that "Nearly 50 percent of all male volunteers test mentally in the lower half of the U.S. population compared to 32 percent in 1964. Army training manuals are being rewritten downward from an 11th to an 8th grade reading level. This is a very serious development in an Army where a corporal who commands a tank is responsible for a more complex piece of machinery than the fighter planes which were flown by college graduates during World War II."

No one in Congress should be better informed on the status of the All-Volunteer Force than the Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Senator John Stennis of Mississippi. In a "memorandum of remarks" placed in the Congressional Record on April 21 this year, Senator Stennis stated:

"In 1964, 21 percent of new Army recruits were in Mental Category IV. Mental Category IV corresponds to a score that would place an individual in the 10th to 30th percentile of the relevant population. Those in Category V, the lowest 10 percent, are excluded from military service by law. Previous statistics claim that only 10 percent of the Army recruits in 1979 fell in Category IV. But now, because of problems with the test, DOD (Department of Defense) estimates that 45 percent of new recruits are in Category IV—more than four times the proportion originally claimed. "To make matters worse," continued Senator Stennis' memorandum, "only 38 percent of Army male recruits are high school graduates. This is a sharp decline from the 55 percent high school graduates recruited last year over the same period."

When leaders of the stature of Senators Stennis and Armstrong bring us such alarming reports, backed with facts, we had better pay attention and then demand that action be taken. It is obvious there is something drastically wrong with the All-Volunteer Force under present conditions and it is imperative that corrective action be taken immediately.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — During the 1978 gubernatorial election, the Mexican-American voters were touted as an up-and-coming political bloc, and one on which would hinge the outcome of several political races.

The Democrats traditionally drew strong support from the Hispanic voters, and both parties may have taken it for granted. For whatever reasons, including a lack of incentives or political hopes, Hispanic voters turned out in low numbers. Consequently, Democrats were surprised and Republicans joyful to learn that GOP nominees Bill Clements and John Tower had defeated Democrats John Hill and Bob Krueger.

The low turnout had its punitive repercussions, at least in the Legislature where Hispanics won few committee plums. Since Hispanic leaders did not deliver the votes, the plums were not delivered to them, so to speak.

Second Time Around

As this year's presidential race nears the finish line, the Hispanics are again receiving their fair share of attention, by both Democrats and Republicans.

Both President Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan have made campaign swings through South Texas with promises to be back soon.

Both campaigns say carrying Texas is vital to winning on Nov. 4. Thus, Reagan elaborated on Clements' plan to issue work visas to illegal aliens and Carter bragged on more Hispanic appointments by him than any other presidents.

Growing Bloc

The politically emerging Mexican-American vote has doubled since the 1976 presidential election, when nearly 400,000 voted. A voter registration drive has bumped it to an estimated 800,000, or about 18 percent of the total Texas vote.

And Hispanic leaders are again touting their bloc's role in making a president. The winner, they say, will have to make gains among Hispanic voters.

The Republicans are aiming to capture 30 percent of the Hispanic vote, more than double the 13 percent garnered by Gerald Ford in 1976. A low Hispanic turnout is seen as harmful to Carter, who drew only 20 percent Hispanic votes in his primary run against Teddy Kennedy.

Unsolved Problem

Outspoken Ruben Bonilla, president of the League of Latin American Citizens (LULAC), doesn't put much stock in any short-term solution to the flow of illegal aliens from Mexico. He favors a liberal amnesty program instead of an open border, and a strong emphasis on bilateral trade.

He supports Carter, saying "If Hispanics wanted an actor as president, they would vote for Ricardo Montalban."

Penalize Employers

A Lufkin Congressman, Charles Wilson, wants Congress to make it illegal to hire undocumented workers, making it a felony crime on second offense. Wilson was addressing a group of teachers concerned about the problem of educating illegal alien children.

Many Texans have been up in arms lately since a federal court ruled the state must foot the bill for schooling the youngsters whose parents unlawfully cross the Rio Grande to work here. Wilson, Atty General Mark

White and others want the federal government to reimburse school districts who enroll alien children.

Crime Victims Fund

White is also concerned about the state's new compensation fund for crime victims, saying the federal courts could force the state to extend it to illegal aliens who fall prey to criminals.

Under the new law, $10 to $15 in court costs are set aside to help victims of violent crimes, covering hospital bills, lost wages or funeral expenses.

White said last week there are serious doubts whether illegal aliens are excluded from the already-dwindling fund. The fund amounts to about $1 million a year, about half of its estimated need.

AG Ruling

In a legal opinion issued last week, White ruled state law prohibits dentists from consenting to dental treatment of persons under the care of a Department of Mental Retardation facility. Dentists may provide treatment, however, provided consent is obtained from three physicians licensed by the state.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
 U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
 142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

The 96th Congress is winding down. It will function for only a few more weeks in a post-election "lame duck" session. During the current recess, we can examine its accomplishments thus far, but, alas, will find little to cheer about.

The 96th was supposed to be an "oversight congress." When it started business some 21 months ago, the American public had told its members they were fed up with ever-bigger government and worsening economic problems. This Congress was going to do much of the costly and ineffective over-regulation imposed in other years. It was going to reduce the massive burden of federal spending which threatened to stifle our nation's economy.

Unfortunately, the promises of two years ago lie shattered at our feet. Instead, this Congress added to the size, the cost and the burden of government.

Instead of acting to make the U.S. more energy independent, Congress enacted a far-reaching mixed-up energy program which virtually assures our continued dependence on unstable foreign sources.

The Majority of members of this Congress negated the positive effects of oil price deregulation with the so-called windfall profits tax. The remainder of the energy program -- the synthetic fuels bill and emergency conservation and gasoline rationing measures -- add to the nation's supplies of regulations, but don't add one barrel to our energy supply.

Agriculture policy is almost as disorganized. While more farmers than ever are being driven out of business, Congress has largely acquiesced to the Administration's blatantly anti-producer policy. "Pro-consumer" is the watchword, with little thought to the effect on consumers of economic chaos among producers.

Despite pious promises to reduce the size of government, Congress created a controversial and costly Department of Education. The taxpayers will be coughing up $14 billion for that act alone.

Perhaps the most significant record compiled by the 96th thus far is its failure once again to come to grips with the critical problem of government spending. Interest rates have soared to record rates and remained intolerably high because of the drain of government borrowing on the money available to private business and individuals. Yet, it is clear that when the final spending tallies are made, we will be way over the spending targets set earlier this year, with a record $60 billion deficit.

While Congress has been busily spending money, it has failed to take measures to shore up the economy. Despite the shock of the sharpest recession in history in 1980, we likely will enter 1981 with our people taxed at the highest rates ever. We likely will have no program for encouraging investment to provide jobs and real growth to our economy.

In fact, we still will have the patchwork of unnecessary and often contradictory regulations which taken together keep productivity down and discourage the reindustrialization of our economy so desperately needs.

That the November lame duck session is necessary is testimony to the ineffectiveness of this Congress in meeting its primary responsibilities. Only two of the 13 major appropriations bills for fiscal year 1981 have been passed, and the fiscal year began Oct. 1. The Second Concurrent Budget Resolution, spending ceilings which law requires to be passed each year by Sept. 15, has been put off until after the election.

When the 97th Congress starts work in January, it will face the same challenges the 96th did: to bring government regulation and spending under control, and to discipline itself to carry out its responsibilities without waffling or delay. I only hope for the sake of our nation the 97th is more successful in meeting its responsibilities.

Draw The Line On Crime.

Alarming increases in criminal activity in our state is the biggest single threat to the well-being of Texans. It is time our elected officials start to get concerned about crime. Bob Glasgow has served for seven years as a criminal prosecutor. During that seven years he successfully prosecuted 864 criminal cases—that illustrates how he feels we should deal with law breakers. As state senator Bob Glasgow will fight for laws that protect the law abiding, not the law breaking. Draw the line on crime. Elect Bob Glasgow.

Wednesday is Bloodmobile Day

The Bloodmobile of the Red River Region of American Red Cross Blood Service will make its regular semi-annual visit to Muenster next Wednesday, October 22.

David Bright, local blood service chairman and hospital administrator, said the unit will be set up as usual in the K of C Hall between 2 and 7 p.m. The collection quota is 100 pints, the quantity normally used in the hospital district in half a year.

Technicians from the Red Cross center of Wichita Falls will have charge of the operation, and personnel from the hospital and hospital auxiliary will assist.

The Wichita Falls headquarters of the regional Red Cross blood service serves an area of 28 counties in North Texas and South Oklahoma by providing free blood to the patients of 41 hospitals. The only charge is for processing, storage, delivery, etc. There is no charge for the blood because it is donated. Hence the total charge for a transfusion is about half of what is charged when commercial blood is used.

system is regarded as a major asset to the patients of Muenster Hospital and residents of the hospital district. The saving is substantial, especially when a large quantity is used. When used for a district resident in another hospital, arrangements are made to have Red Cross return the blood.

According to the Red Cross regional center, each district should feel responsible for meeting its own needs, as reflected in the quota. It suggests contacts with the old reliable donors, along with special efforts to recruit new donors. It is inevitable that the number of regulars will decline, and new donors are constantly needed to make up for the losses.

Students are specially invited to join in the good work. They may donate at 17 (with signed permission from a parent) and everyone from 18 to 65 is eligible unless disqualified by present illness or medical history. The general requirement is that a donor must weigh at least 100 pounds and be in good health, also the date of last donation must be at least 56 days before.

Ross-Point Club Meets on Oct. 1

The Ross-Point Progress Club met Wednesday, October 1 in the Community Club Building. Officers attending were Mrs. Dan C. Richardson (Wilma) president; R.B. Durham, Jr. and Mrs. Cecil Raney vice presidents; Annabell Kirk secretary-treasurer and Jim Penton, reporter.

Members discussed and approved the purchase of stoves for the Community Building. Harvest Super tickets were distributed for members to sell. The date is November 8 and the price is $4. for adults and $2. for children.

Don Rice, service administrator of CPR spoke on that project and told members about renewing their CPR cards.

Immunization

Available Oct. 22

The Texas Department of Health Region 5 in Arlington announces an immunization clinic to be held in Muenster at Sacred Heart Community Center on Wednesday, October 22, 1980, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

The Clinic will provide immunization against Diphtheria-tetanus-pertussis (DTP), Polio, Rubella (red Measles) and Rubella (German measles), for infants 2 months through 18 years. (Exception: Females over age 12 will not receive rubella vaccine without a physician's consultation and prescription). Precautions must be taken with females in the 12-18 age group to insure that they are not pregnant when they are immunized with measles vaccine, and that they do not become pregnant for 3 months following immunization.

Immunizations are incomplete if a child has not received three (3) doses of DTP and Polio vaccine with at least one dose administered past the fourth birthday. All children under 18 years must have an informed consent form read and signed by the parent or legal guardian. If possible, the parent should accompany the child to the clinic.

Today's Tomorrow Shapers

A future-oriented "force" is working in this community. It's a Texas organization with more than 160,000 participants and 22,000 field workers whose product is backed by the skills and expertise of more than 300 specialists with more than 50 major universities as the knowledge base - and an entire federal government department giving it support.

It's 4-H. In Texas, more than 160,000 youth ages 9-19 are part of this largest youth organization of its kind in the United States -- and one of the oldest youth organizations in the nation.

These youth are benefiting from 4-H educational programs in one or more of some 60 project areas, says Preston Sides, 4-H and youth specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, sponsoring agency of the Texas 4-H and Youth Program.

Young people in 4-H Clubs learn and grow under the direction of almost 23,000 trained volunteer leaders who meet with them in almost every Texas community, Sides explains.

County Extension Agents provide 4-H program direction and management in every county of the state.

These agents are backed up by the expertise of highly skilled specialists headquartered either in area offices or at the main headquarters of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, part of The Texas A&M University System.

Texas A&M University, in turn, is a part of the nationwide land-grant system which involves 52 other colleges and universities. The program receives further support through this link as part of the United States Department of Agriculture.

State, county and federal support, then, combine to make 4-H a unique organization, Sides says.

But it's the support of private citizens, organizations, corporations and foundations whose assistances makes it possible to multiply 4-H public resources many times over, he stresses.

"More than five million boys and girls participate in 4-H every year in the United States," Sides notes.

"They are learning and growing through the development of their head, heart, hands and health -- 4-H is shaping tomorrow's world."

News of 4-H

The Muenster Community 4-H Club held Family Night on October 4 with a covered dish supper in the Cooke County Electric Co-op Building.

Following the meal, John Zimmerer presented a slide program on 4-H work in Cooke County. Mrs. Imogene Zimmerer presented certificates of accomplishments to members and they, in turn, completed yearbooks.

The next meeting will be a trip to the Planetarium at CCC on October 21.

Letter to the Editor...

Letter to the editor
My Very Dear Friends:

In the shortest and warmest way I know how, I wish to say good by to each and everyone, as though personally, in Muenster and surrounding cities and towns.

I wish to thank you for all the love, respect and honors you have bestowed on me.

I wish to thank everyone who has given me money and stamps for my Mission Work.

The latter will keep on. The stamps will be in charge of Sister Lillian Marie; the Mission Work will be taken care of by Sister Carmelita and Mr. Jo Caserta; the Sacred Heart Leaflets will be distributed by Sister Genevieve.

The reason for my sudden departure from your midst is my poor health. I suggested it myself, and my Mother Superior in Jonesboro expressed her wish that I come home, and I have always considered my Superior's will as God's will. I know Mother Julia left me here as long as she could, because she knew how much I loved Muenster and the State of Texas; but I will let my love shine on Arkansas if it is God's will.

My new address is: Sister M. Theresina, O.A.B. Holy Angels Convent, PO Drawer 130, Jonesboro, Ar. 72401.

High school athletics encourages ambition in minority students

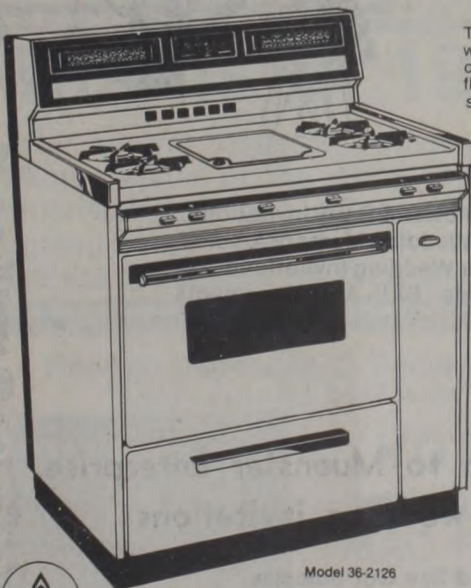

COLLEGE STATION — Participation in high school athletics may serve as a substitute for parental and peer encouragement to attend college, especially for disadvantaged youth, says a Texas A&M University sport sociologist.

"A growing body of research literature indicates that participation in interscholastic athletics is associated with higher levels of educational ambition, college attendance and career achievement," said Dr. J. Steven Picou in a paper presented at the American Sociological Association's annual meeting.

The study revealed that athletics has more important consequences for disadvantaged youth who receive little support from parents or friends for educational achievement. It was also reported that sports involvement encourages advantaged youth as well, but to a lesser degree.

The Home That Love Built

Located at 1604 8th Ave. is Ft. Worth's Ronald McDonald House, a "home away from home" for families of children who must undergo lengthy treatment at Cook Children's Hospital and Ft. Worth Children's Hospital.

The need for such a house was first recognized by the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia when, in 1969, three-year-old Kim Hill contracted leukemia. Her father, Fred Hill of the Philadelphia Eagle football team, became involved in fund-raising for the fight against leukemia in the Philadelphia area. Having organized a non-profit organization, "Eagles Fly for Leukemia", Hill, his teammates, team owner and general manager, began a series of activities and raised almost $150,000 for the leukemia fund. The first Ronald McDonald House opened in Philadelphia in 1974.

The Ronald McDonald House is a place where parents can stay near their children during the critical treatment and care required by illnesses such as cancer and leukemia, and where the children themselves can stay with their parents when being treated as out-patients. At present, there are 40 houses in some stage of development across the country. McDonald's Restaurant operators in each city have sponsored fund-raising since 1974, and the Dallas/Ft. Worth McDonalds operators have pledged $125,000 over a 5 year period to the Ronald McDonald House in Ft. Worth.

In addition to the McDonald Restaurant pledge, a $25,000 grant from the Ray Kroc Fund serves as seed money for renovation of the Ft. Worth house, and a major contribution has been donated by the Sid Richardson Foundation. Woodie Woods, Mayor of the city of Ft. Worth, has proclaimed October 8-15, 1980 as "Ronald McDonald House Week" in Ft. Worth.

As a project of Friends of Children, Inc., a non-profit organization, the Ronald McDonald House of Ft. Worth is in need of funds for renovation and operation. It is scheduled to open early in 1981. Anyone interested in making a donation may send a contribution to: Friends of Children, Inc., PO Box 2271, Ft. Worth, Texas 76101.

City Gets $4,079 Sales Tax Check

The City of Muenster has received a check from Comptroller Bob Bullock in the amount of $4,079.57 as rebate on city sales taxes collected here during the period ending October 3, 1980. He said the payment is a part of some $28.2 million returned to cities of Texas for remittances to his department in October.

The one percent city sales tax is collected along with the state's four percent tax by business people and returned monthly by the Comptroller to the cities where collected.

The comptroller also reports that the check increases the city's total to $63,410.01, a 17 percent gain over last year's $53,928.44.

Rebates to other cities of the area along with the total to date and percentage of change were reported as follows by the comptroller.

Gainesville, $35,234, to date $596,473, up 8%; Lindsay, $2,735, to date $37,385, up 2%; Nocona $4,179, to date $102,935, up 18%; Pilot Point $2,686, to date $45,830, up 23%; Saint Jo $1,655, to date $22,366, up 30%; Sanger, $1,627, to date $27,893, up 27%; Whitesboro $1,705, to date $69,416 down 7%.

Defensive Driving Course Available October 29 and 30

A Defensive Driving Course will be available in Cooke County on October 29 and 30. It will be sponsored by AARP and held in the First Baptist Church Educational Department in Gainesville. Everyone interested is invited to attend. For the class, there will be no age limit or restriction. At least 35 are needed to make the class available.

Instructors will be Lucille Parkhill, John Holder and Floyd Kelly, and there will be an assistant from Dallas on the first day. Mrs. Alice Hellman of Gainesville is coordinator. She may be reached at 665-5853 for more information.

Hours for the two day mini-course are 9 a.m. — 3 p.m. October 29 and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on October 30.

Mrs. Hellman reminded that those completing the course earn a 10% reduction on their car insurance premiums. She also said that the course was offered previously in July 1977.

5 Local Students Get RN Licenses

Twenty-two recent graduates of Cooke County College's associate degree nursing program are now fully licensed registered nurses, having been notified that they have passed state licensing board examinations.

Five of the newly registered nurses are from Muenster. They are Sandy Voth, Linda Walterscheid, Mary Caplinger, Mary Fisher, and Stacie Walterscheid.

The nursing students' overall performance on the exams upheld what has become a tradition of CCC graduates, with 22 out of 24 posting passing grades for a success rate of 92 percent.

"This is a genuinely outstanding accomplishment," says Rebecca McClelland, director of CCC's Allied Health Division. "We are justly proud of these graduates, and we congratulate them on their performance."

"The passing rate on the state board exams also speaks very well for the nursing program itself here at CCC, especially in view of the fact that it is higher than that for many four-year colleges and universities."

VFW Aux. Bake Sale Planned

The Ladies' VFW Auxiliary meeting was held with the VFW Post 6205 Monday, October 13 in the Post Home. Mrs. Gilbert Knabe presided with Mrs. Herbie Herr serving as guard pro tem and Mrs. Dave Haverkamp as patriotic instructor pro tem.

A bake sale will be held Friday, October 24, 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Hofbauer's and Fischer's grocery stores with Mrs. Leo Hesse as co-chairman. Members are urged to bake their favorite pies and cakes, rolls or breads for the sale, or a donation of $5 would be greatly appreciated. A portion of these sales will be donated to the Ronald McDonald House.

Christmas contributions were given to the Child Development Center in Gainesville and to the State School in Denton.

On Veterans' Day, November 11, after the morning Mass, members will again take part in a service at the cemetery, and everyone is invited to attend. The Auxiliary presented a 4 X 6 nylon flag to the Sacred Heart School. Members voted to contribute to the Health and Happiness Christmas Cheer Fund, and a round of applause was given to Mrs. Dave Haverkamp and her crew who helped clean up and put up drapes in the VFW hall.

Mrs. Ollie Sicking was lunch hostess for the sixteen members and two guests, Mrs. Lou Sutton and Flossie Roberts of Denison.

The Auxiliary and the VFW held a joint social hour and discussed the District meeting to be held November 8-0 in the Post Home.

Bake Sale to Benefit Cancer Aid and Research

Members of the Muenster VFW Auxiliary will hold their fourth annual bake sale to benefit the Cancer Aid and Research fund, on Friday, October 24 at Fischer's and Hofbauer's, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The benefit is an established project each year in November, when all auxiliaries contribute to the National Office for two special funds: 1. cancer grants to help cancer stricken members ease financial burdens; 2. cancer research centers. A percentage of the proceeds is returned to the individual states for grants to local victims and cancer research institutions.

Each Auxiliary member is asked to bring baked items to the stores Friday, wrapped and named and with a suggested price attached. Cash donations are requested from members unable to bake. All members will be contacted by phone.

Auxiliary members wish to remind the public that better selections are available during the early hours of the sale. The Auxiliary asks that everyone "Help Us Help Others Fight Cancer!" Remember the date is Friday, October 24.

OK Weather

Ideal temperature of the past week has been recorded as follows by Steve Moster. Oct. 9, 64 and 90; Oct. 10, 63 and 90; Oct. 11, 57 and 80; Oct. 12, 52 and 79; Oct. 13, 56 and 85; Oct. 14, 63 and 84; Oct. 15, 70 and 85.

Meanwhile moisture readings were all zeroes. Current totals continue at 22.03 inches for the year and 3.34 inches for the month.

Fitts for Sheriff

Dear Citizen,

As the November 4th General Election approaches, I realize it is going to be impossible to meet all the voters. I would like to take this opportunity to personally solicit your vote for sheriff of Cooke County.

Facts about myself are listed below for your consideration.

1. Life long resident of Cooke County.
2. Attended the Gainesville public schools and graduated in 1964.
3. Graduated from Cooke County College with associate of Applied Science Degree in Law Enforcement.
4. Property owner and taxpayer.
5. Deputy Sheriff for over nine years in Cooke County.
6. Hold a Basic and Intermediate Certificate from the Texas Commission from Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education.
7. Married and have two sons.

I believe honesty, fairness, and integrity are vital in good law enforcement. With my past experience as a deputy sheriff, education in law enforcement, and common sense, I feel I can professionally and effectively serve the needs of Cooke County. If elected the office of sheriff, I pledge to you, the citizens of Cooke County, to enforce the law throughout the county to the best of my ability.

In closing, I want to ask each of you to consider the facts and vote for the candidate, regardless of party affiliation, that can honestly serve the people of Cooke County.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth Fitts

Seven New Members Join Beta Kappa

At their monthly meeting, Tuesday, October 14, seven new members were pledged to the Beta Kappa Sorority. They are: Lynn Dangelmayr, Jeanne Greathouse, Becky Felderhoff, Wanda Flusche, Dolores Miller, Sidney Porter, and Marilyn Smith.

Rush activities began September 6 with a "Kaffee Klatch" in the home of Kathy Fette from 10 to noon, with members bringing homemade breakfast breads, to give the prospective members an opportunity to meet Beta Kappa members and learn more about the service sorority.

On September 9, prospective members attended a Beta Kappa meeting at the home of Barbara Felderhoff, president of the sorority, to observe meeting procedures and content. Plans were discussed to make children's "busy books" for local hospitals, and for the strudel sale to be held in December. Pam Fette, educational chairman, gave the program on "How to choose a topic and write a speech".

Rush activities continued with a cocktail buffet on September 29 in the home of Louise Fisher for the Beta Kappa members and their husbands and the prospective members and their husbands.

In a candlelight ceremony, Tuesday, October 14, the seven pledges received their first year pin and became full-fledged members of Beta Kappa. Barbara Felderhoff, president, and Kathy Fette, rush chairman, conducted the ceremony.

After the ceremony, the regular meeting was held, hosted by Pam Fette, in the TP&L room. The educational program consisted of two speeches: "Learning Disabilities," by Margaret Stormer, and "Co-ordinating Your Wardrobe," by Jan Cain. Also discussed was the new "Reach Out" program and the Love Funds provided in times of need by the service sorority.

A special work day meeting will be held October 23 for making "Busy Books". The next monthly meeting will be held Tuesday, November 11.

A Karri Ramsey Fund has been established at Muenster State Bank to help her family recover from extremely heavy medical and other expenses. The fund was organized by friends of the family and all who wish to participate are invited to make a deposit at Muenster State Bank.

Bullion Baptism

The baptism of Christopher Joseph Bullion was held on Saturday September 27 at 2:30 p.m. with Father Stephen Eckart officiating in Sacred Heart Church.

Christopher Joseph is the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bullion of Austin. Baptismal sponsors were an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Yosten. The christening gown is a tradition in the Henry Wiesman family and was worn by all the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Attending the ceremony were the baby's mother, his sister Lesley, his god-parents, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yosten, David Yosten of Plano, Paula Yosten and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Grewing and Michael.

After the ceremony all of the group gathered at the Leonard Yosten home for a buffet of pick-up foods and dessert. Mrs. Bullion and her children remained for several days to visit with family members before returning to Austin. She is the former Susie Yosten of Muenster.

Nancy Bright Visits Here

Mrs. Nancy Bright is visiting her husband's parents, the David Brights this week. She is also looking for a new home in Granbury, where they will live while her husband will be an engineer employed in the construction of the new Nuclear Power Plant.

Mary Jean Schad Weds Melvin Bayer

Mary Jean Schad of Lindsay became the bride of Melvin Bayer in a Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony celebrated by Father Cletus Post in St. Peter's Church on October 11 at 5 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schad of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bayer of Muenster. The bride is a graduate of Lindsay High School and Texas Woman's University of Denton and is a Registered Nurse. The groom is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and Cooke County College and attended North Texas State University and the University of Dallas. He is employed by Bayer Electric of Denton.

The bride was presented by her father at the altar decorated with lighted candles and arrangements of white and apricot gladioli and fern, with more votive candles and greenery on the Communion rail. She designed and made her own formal wedding gown of white silk organza over polyester. An intricate pattern of Venise lace appliques formed the neckline and an over-lay on the fitted bodice. Lace appliques were also traced on the long full sleeves and in the center front of the skirt. A band of lace rested above the full ruffle at the hemline, and swept into the elegant cathedral train.

Her sheer bridal veil was attached to a Juliet cap. With her bridal bouquet she carried a wedding prayer book formerly belonging to her late grandmother, Mrs. John Schad (Sophie) and used 80 years ago at that wedding. For sentiment she borrowed her mother's wedding ring.

Attendants

Mary Bayer of Fort Worth, groom's sister, was the maid of honor. Alice Schad of Dallas, Phyllis Schad and Joanie Schad both of Lindsay bride's sisters were bridesmaids. They were identically dressed in apricot princess gowns with beige lace capes, also designed and made by the bride. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of Frenched Talisman carnations and gladioli florets. The bridesmaids carried baskets holding an assortment of blue and apricot silk flowers.

The best man was E. J. Schad, bride's brother of Valley View. Groomsmen were Larry Bayer of Enid, Oklahoma, Paul Bayer and Leon Bayer, both of Muenster, groom's brothers. Ushers were Danny Schad, bride's brother and Mike Kendall. Mass servers were Glen Hermes, Mike Hermes and Nathan Bayer, cousins of the couple.

Wedding music was presented by Lynda and Doug Yosten, Linda Flusche and Kristi Klement.

Reception

A reception followed in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gainesville. Presiding at the bride's book were her two sisters-in-law, Elaine Schad and Donna Schad, who registered 300 guests. Aunts of the bride and her mother prepared the dinner.

The four tiered wedding cake was baked and decorated with apricot roses by the bride's sister, Alice Schad. She also made the groom's cake. Reception assistants and cake servers were the bride's twin sisters Alice and Phyllis as well as Minnie Hundt and Amy Strittmatter all of Lindsay and Kim Bayer of Muenster. Decorations in the reception rooms carried out the bride's chosen colors. After dinner, guests danced to music by Doug Martin's Band.

Guests attended from Brewster, Washington, Dallas, Fort Worth, Denton, Bonham, Hurst, Garland, Lewisville and Cooke County. Mr. and Mrs. Wally Stotler attended from Washington and were guests of the Bayers.

Among pre-nuptial parties were a recipe shower on October 5 in the home of the Alfred Bayers, hosted by Mary Bayer, Alice Schad and Judy Hudnall; and a kitchen shower given by cousins in the home of Mrs. Gregory Hundt in Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Young of Marysville are telling proudly of the births of two new grandsons last week.

A son, Casey Lloyd, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Minor of South Lake, Texas on Wednesday, October 8, 1980, at 3:51 a.m., weighing 7 lb. 8 1/2 oz., in Irving Community Hospital. He joins two brothers at home, Robbie and Randy. In addition to the Youngs, the paternal grandmother is Mrs. C.G. Minor of Irving. The great-grandmother is Mrs. Estell Young of Whitesboro. Mrs. Earl Minor is the former Janice Young.

A son, Vincent John, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Felderhoff, at Flow Hospital in Denton on Saturday, October 11, 1980 at 9:50 a.m., weighing 7 lb. 9 oz. He is a brother for Chris and Jeff and a grandson for Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Felderhoff of Muenster. The great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rauschuber of Muenster and Mrs. Estelle Young of Whitesboro. Mrs. Mike Felderhoff is the former Pam Young. Mrs. Lloyd Young spent several days with both of her daughters after their return from the hospitals.

Shower Honors Mrs. Bartush

Five hostesses honored Mrs. Chuck Bartush, Jr. Sunday afternoon, October 5, with a layette shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Simmons.

Guests enjoyed playing "Baby Bingo" games, and were served refreshments of punch, nuts, mints and a decorated, bib-shaped cake from a lace-covered tea table.

The honoree received a yellow and white lace sock corsage and opened a shower of baby gifts.

Sharing hostess duties were Mes. Donna Simmons, Cindy Gehrig, Pam Dangelmayr, Janel Atkins and Candy Geiser.

Garden Club Told of Iris Culture

Members of the Muenster Garden Club enjoyed an informative and delightful program on iris culture and use of iris in the Landscape Monday evening. Here to tell of their hobby and work in that field and to show slides of their spectacular iris gardens were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brooks of Iowa Park, who have more than one thousand varieties growing.

Mrs. Brooks discussed the culture, care, transplanting, fertilization, climate and sunlight needs of irises, mentioning that more improvement has been accomplished in this field since the time of Grandma's old "Flags", than in almost any other plant. Mr. Brooks conducted the slide program.

Other guests were Mrs. Lynch, sister of Mr. Brooks and a member of the Gainesville Iris Club, Miss Marian Russom, a faculty member at Muenster Public School and Mrs. Jan Beaver of Tulsa, daughter of the James Roarks.

Mrs. Pat Stelzer was hostess in the Cooke County Electric Co-op Building. She was assisted by her daughter, Rene in serving home-made cookies and coffee.

Mrs. James Roark conducted the business meeting. Members heard amendments to the by-laws presented by the governing board and voted on each individually.

Holly Koch reported on the Area 2 Fall meeting scheduled for November 13. Principal speaker will be Carroll Abbott of Kerrville, state wildflower authority. Eileen Luke reported on the County Council meeting and said that Sue Endres is the new District Director of District II, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. The next County Council meeting will be at the Koch home on October 23. Sue Endres reported that the County Council will sponsor the next area-wide Flower Show School to be held in the Cooke County Electric Co-op Building.

Members discussed a pilgrimage to Thistle Hill, the Waggoner mansion in Fort Worth on November 15. They also planned to observe Arbor Day by planting new shrubs or trees in their home landscape. Also announced was the Christmas Tasting Bee and Show and Sale of Christmas decorations to be held in the Women's Forum Building in Wichita Falls on December 4.

Mmes. Loretta Felderhoff and Marie Endres will decorate a special Christmas ornament, representative of this area, to be sent to the Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. tree in Houston. Members also heard about the support given by Texas Garden Clubs to garden therapy for hospital patients in the greenhouse maintained at Ronald McDonald House in Houston.

The next meeting for the Muenster Garden Club will be on November 11 in the home of Mrs. W.J. Luke.

Garden Club Attends Flower Demonstration

Nine members of the Muenster Garden Club attended a program on Ikebana, the Japanese art of flower arranging, on September 25 in Wichita Falls.

Vicki A. Porter of Fort Worth was the speaker in the newly re-decorated Woman's Forum Building. A luncheon featuring an oriental menu preceded the demonstration.

Attending were Mmes. Paul Endres, Ed Knauf, Pat Stelzer, Ray Wilde, Al Hess, Herb Miller, Peter McCoy, Enrique Juarez and King Koch.

Lunch Box Idea For The New School Year

The new school year brings with it a need for creative lunch box ideas. One nutritious suggestion is Spicy Carrot Bars. And kids will love them!

These bars feature whole-grain oats and shredded carrots, giving a hearty taste and texture. Wholegrain oats contain 7 B vitamins, vitamin E and 9 minerals. Carrots are rich in carotene which the body converts to vitamin A.

Bake up a large pan of Spicy Carrot Bars to pack in lunch boxes or save them for an after-school snack. They store well and you'll get an "A" from your family for making them.

Spicy Carrot Bars

- 1-1/4 cups firmly packed brown sugar
- 2/3 cup butter or margarine
- 1 egg
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1-1/3 cups all-purpose flour
- 1-1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1-1/3 cups quick or old fashioned oats, uncooked
- 1 cup shredded carrot
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Confectioners sugar

Heat oven to 350°F. Beat together sugar and butter until light and fluffy; blend in egg and vanilla. Combine flour, cinnamon, salt, soda and nutmeg; add to butter mixture, mixing well. Stir in oats, carrot and nuts. Spread evenly into greased 13x9-inch baking pan. Bake at 350°F. for 25 to 30 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool; sprinkle with confectioners sugar. Cut into bars. Makes one 13x9-inch pan of bars.

Kenny Rogers' Country Chicken Salad With Down-Home Flavor

Country singer Kenny Rogers has traveled full circles in the music business. His first million-selling record, "Crazy Feeling," reached the charts when he was 19 years old, and prompted the singer to leave home in Houston to establish his career. He landed an appearance on American Bandstand, followed by stints with the Bobby Doyle Jazz Trio and the New Christy Minstrels. But when the Minstrels parted, he and former members formed the rock group that Rogers eventually headlined, The First Edition. They left behind a string of hit songs, including "Ruby, (Don't Take Your Love to Town)," and "Tell It All, Brother," when they disbanded.

Four years ago, Kenny returned to the music scene bringing with him his Southern heritage, and recognition of his talent as a country performer was quick in coming. Last year, in addition to hosting the prestigious Country Music Association Awards Show, he was voted Male Vocalist of the Year and his album, "The Gambler," (UA) won Album of the Year.

your childhood experiences stick with you. This recipe is a combination of mom's chicken salad with a few special touches from my wife, Mary Ann. I must admit, it's one of my all-time favorite recipes."

To add some country flavor to your next meal at home, try serving Kenny Rogers' chicken salad recipe. Complement it with some hot mulled punch and a crusty loaf of bread. It's guaranteed to round up all the hungry appetites in your family.

Kenny Rogers' Country Chicken Salad

- 2 cups chopped cooked chicken
- 1 cup chopped apple
- 1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
- 1/2 cup Kraft real mayonnaise
- 1/4 cup sweet pickle relish, drained

Hot Mulled Punch

- 1 qt. Kraft pure 100% unsweetened pasteurized orange juice
- 3 cups apple cider
- 1/4 cup granulated sugar
- 1/4 cup packed brown sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon allspice
- 1/8 teaspoon ground cloves
- Soft Parkay margarine
- Cinnamon sticks

Combine orange juice, cider, sugars and spices in 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a boil; simmer 5 minutes. For each serving, pour punch into mugs; top with dollop of margarine. Stir with cinnamon stick.

WE HAVE THE FARM BOSS AND IT IS A STIHL.

IT STARTS EASIER. Because of a hotter spark, better carburetion and a food-free design. IT'S MORE RELIABLE. Because it has longer wearing parts that won't break down. IT'S MORE POWERFUL. Because it has the biggest power-to-weight ratio of any popular saw. IT'S QUIETER. Because its large, bellied muffler is more than just a tin box. IT COSTS LESS. Because a saw that's last about twice as long will only cost about half as much.

Longhorn Lore

By Glenda Lee

This week's column is devoted to the 1980-81 Seniors of Forestburg High School. The class consists of two girls and five boys who are: Janice Lanier, Glenda Lee, Willy Sandusky, Michael Forrester, Thomas Romine, John Coffman, and Robby Covington.

The Seniors selected Janice Lanier and Willy Sandusky as candidates for the Halloween Carnival King and Queen. We are now hard at work raising funds to assure our win in this contest.

Sponsors for the Senior class are: Mrs. Joann Sicking and Mr. Lester W. Boyd.

Next week in the Longhorn Lore the upcoming events of the Halloween Carnival will be featured.

Forestburg FHA

The Forestburg FHA Chapter held a meeting on Mon. Oct. 6. Willie San-dukusky was elected FHA Beau for the 1980-81 school year. The chapter plans to have a cake walk at the Halloween Carnival on Sat. Nov. 1. Patty Duke is chairman for the UNICEL project and will have something planned to raise money at the Carnival. The FHA is also planning to have a Halloween Party for all the children in the community. It will be on Halloween night at 6 p.m. There will be games, a best "spook" contest, and refreshments. Carol Maughn is chairman of the party.

Class officers for the Seniors were elected and are: Willy Sandusky - president; Michael Forrester - vice-president; Glenda Lee - secretary; Janice Lanier - treasurer.

Muenster and Lindsay Students Will Take Aptitude-Merit Test

Tom Fluker, director of guidance at Muenster and Lindsay High Schools, has announced that students taking the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) on October 21, will benefit from additional services in 1980. These services are designed to provide students with more information about the content and uses of the test. Students of Muenster and Lindsay have been taking this exam together for years and will take it at Lindsay this year. Fluker said he expects about two thirds of the two junior classes, a total of about 40, to participate. Students who plan to take the 1980 PSAT/NMSQT will receive a complete sample test for practice, along with an answer key and scoring instructions. When scores are reported in December, each student will receive a Report of Student answers, including the correct answers as well as the answers the student gave. To allow students to refer to the original questions, schools will return test booklets with scores. Students will continue to receive ABOUT YOUR PSAT/NMSQT SCORES, a booklet of general information on college planning.

The PSAT/NMSQT is cosponsored by the College Board and National Merit Scholarship Corporation. It is administered annually to more than one million students and measures verbal and mathematical abilities that are important in college work.

The PSAT/NMSQT gives students a chance to find out what the College Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) is like, and helps them in planning for college; further, students who opt to participate in the College Board Student Search Service have an opportunity to hear from colleges that they might not otherwise learn about. The PSAT/NMSQT is also the qualifying test for students who wish to participate in the nationwide scholarship competitions administered by National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Grade 4 CCD in Special Liturgy

The fourth grade CCD class participated in the special Liturgy held with the CCD Mass last week Wednesday night in Sacred Heart Church, when the principal theme was "Our Community and God's Family."

Eric Dankesreiter read the introduction to the Mass, explaining the Liturgy as it led each 4th grade student with his or her family to become part of the community and then part of God's family.

Kristie Fette gave the First Reading from Exodus, relating how families joined for the Passover celebration. Stacie Sicking responded with the Psalm for the day. Father Denis read the Gospel from Saint Luke

Pre-School Activity Program

Edna Knabe will be coordinator for the monthly pre-school activity program sponsored each year by the Friends of the Library. Mothers interested in helping should contact her (759-2930 or 759-4141) or the Muenster Public Library (759-4291). Parents or guardians are asked to register their three, four, and five year olds within a week at the Library so that a program can be planned for October. The $2.00 yearly fee can be paid at the library at the time of registration.

relating the travels of the Holy Family to Jerusalem for the Passover Festival when Jesus was 12 years old. The beautiful homily traced the individual family unit to God's family.

Danny Black, Jeannene Walterscheid, Rhonda Stewart, Murlin Evans, Deanna Bierschenk, Shane Wimmer and Chris Klement gave the Prayers of the Faithful. Laurie Fisher, Weldon Hermes and Lisa Hamric presented Offertory gifts.

The altar banner depicted a figurine for each 4th grade student lettered with the family name. The inscription read "We Become One As We Go To The Father." Preceding the special observance, each 4th grader made invitations to send to parents, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles and grandparents, inviting them to attend and join in the Liturgy. Students attended with their families in reserved pews.

Mrs. Wayne Klement, Mrs. Paul Fisher, Mrs. Wylie Lewis and Mrs. Mike Kleiss are the 4th grade CCD teachers.

Texas Garden Clubs Offers Scholarships

Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. awards scholarships annually to qualified students to encourage the study of horticulture, floriculture, conservation, forestry, botany, agronomy, plant pathology and allied subjects.

These annual grants are awarded in honor of Mary Budham Kittel, Bess Buchanan, Florence H. Thomas, Nellie Day Trigg, and a special honoree if funds are available.

In order to qualify, the applicant must be a Texas resident, a student of Jr. or Sr. standing or a post-graduate at the time of application and have a scholastic record of not less than a B (3.0) average. Winners are announced at the annual Spring Convention in April or May.

Application blanks may be obtained from the scholarship chairman, Mrs. G.G. Orr, 342 Wilchester, Houston, Texas 77079, and should be returned to her by certified mail on or before Nov. 15. More information is available by first contacting Mrs. August Felderhoff, 759-4479.

Library News

Margaret Murray of the Northeast Texas Library System (NETLS) office in Dallas spent a day last week (Wednesday) with librarians Mary Mosler and Teresa Fowler evaluating the Muenster Public Library's collection. She stressed the importance of adopting a written policy including the Library Bill of Rights and other important documents and information. She made suggestions regarding the selection of materials and the weeding of the collection. She praised the staff for the number and quality of materials in the children's department and for the work they had done to accomplish this.

The Northeast Texas Library System comprises of 53 libraries in 33 counties. A representative of the system visits each library yearly as part of the service to the member libraries.

Hearing Loss Is Not A Sign Of Old Age

ADVERTISEMENT

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest Beltone aid of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

True, all hearing problems are not alike... and some cannot be helped by a hearing aid. But audiologists report that many can. So, send for this free model now, and wear it in the privacy of your own home. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It's yours to keep, free. The actual aid weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. 62483 Beltone Electronics, 4201 W. Victoria, Chicago, Ill. 60646. 48-101

Paul Fishers and Mrs. Pick Travel in Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fisher and Mrs. Henry Pick returned recently from a two week visit in Germany as guests of relatives of the late Mr. Pick.

Upon arrival at Frankfurt, they were met by Father Joseph Pick, a nephew, and were guests at the Seminary, enjoying quite cool temperatures to contrast with Texas weather.

Father Pick led them on a tour of Frankfurt where highlights were the famous Cathedral, the old section of the city, the Henniger tower, the Henniger Brewery. They were particularly impressed by the life size statuary in the Cathedral.

The group also visited Henry Pick's sister and brother in Duren and other relatives in Kreuzcapelle, touring also the old church there, built about 1100.

They saw the famous Cologne Cathedral, where some of the scars of war are still visible. Returning to Frankfurt they toured the Palmgarten and Heldenbergen and were guests of Anna Marie Beier for "kaffe and kuchen."

In Wurzburg they visited and went sightseeing while Father Pick attended a meeting of journalists and then drove on to Weisenhorn where Father Pick is on the staff of a grade school and college. They also visited the Benedictine Abbey at Ottoeben, possibly the most beautiful church in the world, with ceilings painted with white and gold angels; an enormous pipe organ and balconies reminiscent of old opera houses.

In Memmegan they enjoyed window shopping and saw the city walls, with towers and gates. Here also Paul Fisher visited a dairy. In Rimsting they visited and were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Pulte and family.

On another day they went by boat to Chemesee Island to tour King Ludwig's castle, where 20 rooms are finished and 50 rooms remain unfinished. The Fishers' impression: "Beautiful beyond description."

They saw many churches - every little town had a church. The Cathedral of Ulm has the highest steeple of any in Germany. Maria Vesperbild is a small church that has become a pilgrimage site with wayside grottos and outdoor Stations of the Cross. Drawing the most attention was the grotto holding the statue of Our Lady of Lourdes, with dozens of burning vigil lights.

Father Pick accompanied them on return to Frankfurt, and from there the three returned home. Mrs. Paul Fisher commented on the very favorable weather, the beautiful flowers of Germany and the garden vegetables which were at their best.

Five Spend Weekend in Kansas City

Five relatives and friends flew from DFW last week Thursday to spend a long weekend in Kansas City with the C.J. Newman family. They included Mmes. Queenie Walterscheid, Ann Walterscheid, Peggy Gobble and Doris Hellman, all of Muenster, and Mrs. C.J. Newman, the former Mary Nell Hellman is the daughter of Mrs. Ernie Hellman. They all attended a layette shower for Mrs. Doug Hallman of Kansas City, granddaughter of Mrs. Clarence Hellman.

Attend Funeral

Among out-of-town relatives attending the funeral of Mrs. Alfons Koessler, Sr. were Sister Mary Helen Fuhrmann and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Williams of Wichita Falls. The occasion offered Sister Mary Helen some time for visiting with her father, Henry Fuhrmann, while Mrs. Williams, the former Sadie Jo Geray reminisced with old acquaintances about their school days in Lindsay. Sister Agnes Endres came with them to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Leonard and Mattie Endres.

Forestburg News by Myrt Denham

Grasshoppers have not been mentioned for sometime. However, a brand new batch of them has hatched out. Have seen many, many small ones when out walking in the hills and dales. Let us just hope that the pests have gotten their seasons mixed up and that they think this is springtime.

Mrs. Bess Orrell, of Saint Richard's Villa in Muenster, spent the weekend of Saturday, October 4 to Monday morning the 6th visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Steadham and family and Mrs. Billie Poynor.

Mrs. Mabel Kimbell and Mrs. Lucas Ivettes of Idalow and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Eds of Saint Jo visited with Mrs. Mollie Moore Saturday October 4.

Mrs. Doyle Tillman of Tyler spent Monday afternoon and night October 6 with Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Reynolds. Mrs. Tillman's husband is the son of Leonard and Edith (Reynolds) Tillman of Levelland. His mother and W.T. Reynolds are brother and sister. Doyle is presently working in Indonesia. Mrs. Tillman left Tuesday a.m. the 7th for Wichita Falls to visit her parents.

Bennett Reynolds might be classed in the "Singles Group" these days. His little "frau" Betty took off into the Wild Blue Yonder Tuesday p.m. October 7 for California. There she will visit with her sister and husband-Mr. and Mrs. Donald Priest and with many old friends for about a month. Betty makes a yearly jaunt to California to visit and to get away from the heat, dirt, dust, bugs, snakes and adverse weather conditions of Texas—none of which are found in California so she informs me. We sincerely wish her a nice visit while out there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Farmer visited with Mr. and Mrs. "Boodle" Williams of Montague Wednesday night October 8.

The Forestburg United Methodist Women's Group met Wednesday p.m. at the annex of the church. Mrs. Alice Shears, President, opened the meeting with a devotional reading and prayer then Mrs. Esther Shears led the two programs for the day entitled "Do All to the Glory of God" and "Grateful Hearts". After the program, the group enjoyed refreshments of cupcakes and punch served by Mrs. Esther Shears. Others present were Mms. Lucille Littell, Laura Belle Jackson, Vera Mae McGee, Decie Ellzey, Marion Sockwell and Myrt Denham.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirt Keller of Gainesville are the proud parents of a little boy born Thursday October 9 in Denton. The young gent weighed in at 7 pounds 15 oz. Grandparents are the late Junior Freeman and Mrs. Helen Freeman of Alvord. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hunt of New Harp.

Mrs. Claudine Martin of Bowie visited in the V.C. Greenwood home and also with Mrs. Decie Ellzey Thursday October 9. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Young of Alvord also visited in the Greenwood home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of Wichita Falls visited with Mrs. Joe Denham, Bellmire home, Bowie Friday a.m. October 10. Mrs. Denham and the Smiths were neighbors and friends for several years in Wichita Falls. After visiting with Mrs. Denham, the Smiths made it out to the Perryman Denham perch in Dewey. They spent the afternoon with us. During the course of the afternoon, Joe and Perryman discussed politics. Joe said, "I'm not gonna vote for Reagan for he is planning to put everyone back to work.—I'm retired and don't aim to work anymore."

Sometime back Vera Mae McGee had herself a royal battle with a big snake between her house and yard gate. She said she beat it's head into the dirt and worked it around good. Then when she lifted her hoe the snake slithered away. Reminds me of another lady's encounter with a snake. This lady (now deceased) went down into her cellar—stepped right in the middle of a snake. She said, "He was a-biting at me with his 'haid' and a-whispering at me with his tail." This snake ended up the looser!

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hunt Mrs. Oleta Wallace and Mrs. Georgia Greenwood returned home at 2 a.m. Saturday October 11 after spending almost a month in California visiting with relatives in Stratsmore, Portersville and Plainview and surrounding areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Kuykendall of Pine Bluff, Arkansas visited with his parents, Ida and Willie Kuykendall the weekend of October 12.

Mrs. Wynona Riddle and her mother Mrs. Georgia Greenwood attended the Mobley-Hudson Reunion Saturday, October 11 at the Newport School in Newport. Wynona said that they had a good time visiting with all the folks and chatted with Mrs. Bertha Volkman of Bowie and her brother Jack Ensey of Sunset.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jackson attended the regular meeting of the Greenwood Chapter 1060 of the OES Friday Night October 10, in Greenwood.

Mrs. Cile Perryman and Shelley visited with Mrs. Joe Denham Sat., p.m., October 11 in the Bellmire Home in Bowie.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Holzbog and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wade and family attended Six Flags Sunday, October 12.

Mr. and Mrs. C.G. Greenwood of Park Springs visited with Calvin Greenwood Monday October 13.

Mrs. Mae DeGraffenreid entered the Nocona Hospital Monday, October 13.

Mrs. Alice Shears celebrated her birthday Friday, October 10th and Mrs. Juanita Bailey celebrated her's on Saturday, October 11. Mrs. Decie Ellzey has a birthday coming up on Wednesday, October 22.

Noticed that I didn't give you the date of the next musical at the Nocona Community Center—Cleo Lanier says it is on Saturday, October 25.

Not much news this week—reckon everyone was busy watching baseball games and football on television.

The "art" of predicting the future in a crystal ball is called screeology.

Sewing clothes lowers expenses, expands wardrobe

Kathy Smith knows the secret of how a working woman can wear high fashion clothing for low prices—sew your own.

Like most women, she loves to look through the racks of $50, $75 and $100 dresses at the fashion shops. But Smith rarely buys, for she knows she can produce a similar garment for a fraction of the retail price.

"Whenever I see a dress I really like, I'll go over to a fabric shop or piece goods shop to find a pattern and some cloth that are a pretty good match to what I saw," says Smith, a secretary in the personnel department of RJR Archer, Inc. "That way, I can go home and produce just about the same piece of clothing for one-half to one-third of the retail price."

"Sewing your own clothes carries a number of advantages besides being inexpensive," she adds.

"I know what I make will be tailor-made for my figure," she notes. "The patterns you buy in stores are geared to three different sizes—such as 8-10-12—so if your proportions fit one size above the waist and another below, you can make the proper adjustments when you sew your own dress."

Because the fit is better, homemade clothing usually lasts longer—and a seamstress can make sure the article's seams and fabric are strong and durable.

In addition, a good seamstress will Kathy Smith, wearing some of the clothes that she has made herself, admires the 195-piece patchwork quilt she also sewed.

allow plenty of cloth for a dress or skirt to be re-hemmed, according to constantly changing fashion lengths. And if the clothing ever receives minor damage, the woman who sews can often fix the situation at home, instead of paying for costly outside mending.

"To me, the key is patience," she continues. "You have to expect to make a few mistakes at first—and you shouldn't be afraid to take out a seam and start over on a piece of material if the work isn't going well. If you do stick with it, after you wear your first homemade dress or skirt—you'll be hooked."

2 1/2-year return reflects interest earned on $1,000 principal and accumulated interest for 2 1/2 years at current rate.

Current rate of 11.55% yields 12.24%
Staying ahead financially has always been a race. But the 80's present new, tougher challenges.
At First Texas Savings, we have ways to beat the 80's. Like our 2 1/2-Year Money Market Certificate. It offers the guaranteed maximum rate, compounded daily, 365 days a year, for maximum yields on amounts as small as $100. No bank can pay more. Rates for new certificates are set biweekly and are good for the entire term.
Sure, our 2 1/2-Year Money Market Certificate is a good investment, but it's also a no-risk investment. Your money is insured up to $100,000 by a federal agency and secured by First Texas' over 1.6 billion dollars in assets.
Best of all, at First Texas, all or part of your money is available anytime, or you can borrow against it. Penalty on early withdrawal is six months' interest and only on the amount withdrawn.
So, before you put your money anywhere, remember: Others may keep you even in the 80's, but First Texas Savings will keep you ahead.
* Effective October 16 through October 29, 1980.

Cowtowners Blast Tigers 40-15

Saturday was a bad day for the Sacred Heart Tigers. It seems they could do nothing right and the opponents could do nothing wrong in a scoring spree that left them at the unhappy end of 40-15.

"There are days like this," Father Stephen Eckart observed while recalling that the Tigers did not play up to their potential, whereas the hosting Fort Worth Country Day Falcons had practically no problems. Sacred Heart's only success came in a pair of touchdowns during the last 6 and a half minutes.

The game started as a run-away. Following the opening kickoff the Cowtowners ripped off 71 yards in five plays for the first touchdown. Four tries gained 35 to the SH 36 where the extra talented quarterback, Vincent, broke loose on the first scoring jaunt. He also made the kick that upped the score to 7-0.

Following kickoff the Tigers fumbled on their second series and the Falcons headed for their second score. The drive used nine plays for 39 yards. Hyde went in from the 6, Vincent kicked the extra point.

The next drive was similar. After Sacred Heart's kick on first series, Country Day rolled 55 yards in 5 plays. Big gains were 13 by Hyde, a 12 yard pass by Vincent, and a 23 yard run by Vincent. This PAT try missed and the score was 20-0, still in the first quarter.

Sacred Heart responded with brief success. It made 4 first downs gaining 64 yards to the 19 yard line, then fumbled, starting a number of exchanges. Tigers lost possession once on a 4th down gamble and once on a punt. Falcons lost it twice on fumbles recovered by Steve Hennigan. But when the Falcons got organized they scored in a hurry. Three passes gained 15, 24 and 10 yards to the fourth TD. Extra point try was good. The Falcons led 27-0 at half time.

The next drive started after Sacred Heart failed to make its second series. The distance was 45 yards using 7 plays and the pay-off was a pass for 13 yards. The kick upped the score to 34-0.

Following next kickoff the Tigers looked good for awhile, starting with Ricky Hennigan's 49 yard kickoff return to the Falcon 43. Two first downs advanced to the Falcon 20, but the drive ran out of steam, ending on the 18 four plays later. Falcons then advanced two series and kicked on the third backing up the Tigers to their 6. Two series later a desperation try on fourth and 1 resulted in a loss instead of a gain giving Country Day a set-up on the 20. Four plays made the distance. The Falcons had finished their scoring at 40-0.

Finally, then, the good part came for the Tigers. On first play after kick off Mike Nash connected with Monte Endres for a 73 yard touchdown play, then passed again to Endres for extra points. With 6:17 remaining SH trailed 40-8.

Most of that time was spent swapping possession. Falcons had to kick, Tigers lost the ball by interception. Falcons failed on a fourth down try, and Tigers fumbled the ball away, then came the final SHTD as Brian Bednorz intercepted and returned 20 yards to the goal. Nash's place kick made the score 40-15.

JCs Host PP&K District Contest

All of the trophy winners of Pass Punt and Kick competition sponsored two weeks ago by the Jaycees of Muenster, Lindsay and Gainesville are eligible for the district competition to be hosted Saturday by Muenster Jaycees.
 This means that a boy who was Number 2 or 3 can be Number 1 this week, according to program chairman Chuck Bartush, Jr., who also pointed out that this week's contest will award only one trophy in each age group, not three for each age as previously reported.
 Regulations provide for a total of 54 entries...the three trophy winners of six age groups in the three local contests. However it is possible that some age groups will not be fully represented and the total number of contestants will decline accordingly.

 The district contest will be held Saturday at Muenster Public School, starting at 1 p.m.

Muenster and Era Tie 14-14

When the final buzzer sounded in Friday night's contest of the two Hornet teams, Muenster supporters heaved a sigh of relief, and Era fans a groan of disappointment. To MHS it was a feeling of escaping disaster, to EHS it was a feeling of seeing victory snatched out of their hands.

The score was 14-14 as Muenster was saved by the clock. That was the score when, with seconds to go, Era lined up on the 1 yard line in a third down and goal situation and failed to get the play under way before time ran out.

That was the score 3 minutes and 11 seconds before when the visitors uncorked a stunning 76 yard drive combining great effort with a pair of lucky breaks. Just before Muenster had missed a field goal in the attempt to break the tie, and Era responded instantly with a 7 yard gain by Gary Fenley, the scabback MVP of the Era outfit, plus 15 free yards for a face mask penalty.

Next series had reached a fourth and 8 situation when Yarbrough gambled big and won big. He heaved a pass that was deflected off the finger tips of defender Gary Klement and floated softly to the intended receiver, Brian Davis.

Then Yarbrough passed to Fenley for 11 yards and scooted around end for 17 to a first down on the 4, with seconds to go. Two tries gained 3 and two tries remained for the last yard...but not enough time.

The end result is that the two Hornet teams stood the 8-A district race with a tie. And for the season to date, Muenster has a record of 1-3-2 whereas Era has 1-4-1. However, on the basis of statistics, Muenster can claim the win. It penetrated the 20 four times and Era three times. Also it made 15 first downs and Era 13. Total yardage, likewise, barely favored MHS by 305 to 289.

The game started with an exchange of kicks after which Fenley and Co. started the evening's first scoring drive. It went 45 yards with Fenley accounting for 40, including 8 for the TD. Barthold kicked the PAT and the score was 7-0 at 4:30.

Muenster's comeback came promptly as Gary Klement gained 6 Dale Swirczynski passed to Winn for 18, and Monte Wimmer busted through for 20 to the 18. But the momentum did not last. Two tries lost 8 yards, a pass was incomplete, and the attempted fourth down pass ended in another 5 yard loss. The series lost 13 yards back to the 31.

The remainder of the half consisted of small successes by Muenster, but nothing for the scoreboard. Jeff Tempel recovered a fumble, Wimmer made a 17 yard gain, Ricky Winn and Tim Schneider caught passes for 24 yards and 10 yards.

Muenster resumed the good work easily in the second half on the inspiration of a fumble recovery by Chris Rohmer on the MHS 23. Big plays in the 77 yard drive were passes of 11 to Winn, 13 to Schneider and 16 to Flusche. Rusty Serna in 4 carries accounted for 27 of the rushing yards, including 6 for the touchdown. Swirczynski's extra point kick made the count 7-7 at 5:11 in the third period.

The next touchdown was the sensation of the game. Shortly after the kickoff following TD, Barthold recovered a fumble on the Era 20. That's where Fenley broke away for the long gallop to pay dirt. Barthold kicked the point. The score was 14-7 at 2:22 in the third period.

And again the MHS boys retaliated with a good drive of their own, starting on their 30. Serna was the work horse gaining 58 yards to the 12 in 6 carries. But a stubborn Era defense there made the next series tough. Four tries made the distance by inches, and Serna crashed over for the final 2. Swirczynski's kick tied it the second time at 9:52 in the last period.

An interception by Klement on second series after kickoff sparked a drive that had the looks of a tie breaker for MHS. From the Muenster 45, Swirczynski passed and Winn stretched for a fingertip catch on Era's 26, a 29 yard pass. Then a procedure penalty plus gains of 4 by Klement and 7 by Serna reached the 10, where Era called a halt. An offside penalty plus 3 plays netted only a yard, and Swirczynski tried a field goal. It missed, after which the Era guys made their sensational final effort.

Texas' small towns are doing just fine

COLLEGE STATION — Once depicted as an endangered species, the small town in Texas is alive and well, says Dr. Robert Skrabanek, sociologist at Texas A&M University.

Two-thirds of all Texas towns with less than 500 people lost residents between 1950 and 1960. The situation began to reverse in the late '60s, and now three-fourths of those towns have recorded population increases, he said.

LIKE YOU, THEY'LL HAVE ALL OF THE NATURAL GAS THEY'LL NEED.

Just as you do today, your children will have a dependable supply of natural gas for their homes — if they're served by Lone Star Gas Company.

In other words, we aren't about to run out of natural gas. The facts are strong and very reassuring. Our supply is based on purchase contracts for the gas from more than 19,000 wells in Texas and Oklahoma. And because no well lasts forever, we prepare for your future needs by steadily buying new long-term reserves.

The fact that we're well established in Texas and Oklahoma also works in your favor. Nine basins in these two states are estimated to contain 50% of the nation's remaining onshore gas reserves. And Lone Star's pipeline system gives us excellent buying opportunities in eight of them.

Producers drilled thousands of wells in these major basins last year. They're drilling more this year. And we'll be shopping hard, just as we always have, for the best energy values for your future.

Lone Star Gas Company

GAS. IT'S PLENTIFUL, EFFICIENT AND RIGHT FOR THE TIMES.

Uphill Struggle Awaits Hornets

A really rugged tussle apparently awaits the Hornets as they square off Friday in the homecoming feature of Muenster High. As seen by Coach Jerry Stinson the signs point to odds favoring the visitors in such categories as size and the record to date, as a consequence of which Muenster can expect an uphill job.

In the first place Paradise has a strong list of veterans back from the zone champ team of last year. Secondly it has size, including four over 200 pounds in the line plus more muscle to spare for the backfield. The weight advantage is enormous compared with the Hornet average weight of under 165.

And then there's the record: 3-3 to date including a 47-0 runaway over Perrin, another big win over Masonic Home and close losses to Valley View and Collinsville.

Actually the situation is not very different from some of the other games. Hornets are the lightweights all through the season, and other opponents have had more impressive records. Just the same MHS has played tough. Just 6 points added in the right places to their 1-3-2 record could make it read 5-1. It tells something about potential even if it doesn't show on the record.

However, there's a question about this week's potential. Rusty Serna is sidelined with a foot injury. Monte Wimmer is either doubtful or handicapped with a finger injury. Both are key men whose absence could be vital. Otherwise the team is healthy and ready, and it has positive ideas of upsetting the favorite. With their usual hustle and a few breaks they can do it, Stinson believes.

In last week's 8-A opener Muenster and Era tied 14-14, Paradise trampled Perrin 47-0 and Alvord edged Saint Jo 14-13. Standings are Paradise 1-0, Alvord 1-0, Muenster 0-1, Era 0-1, Saint Jo 0-1, Perrin 0-1.

Tigers Will Face Abilene Christian

It's going to be different this week. That's a promise from the Tiger coaches, Father Stephen Eckart and Virgil Henscheid as they sadly recall their 40-15 loss to Fort Worth Country Day's Falcons last Saturday. After Sacred Heart's poorest performance of the season, they are confident that the boys have the miserable playing out of their systems and are ready to get back to normal.

As Henscheid sees it, the Falcons are due credit for their win. They have a fine team. But the Tigers' poor playing made the win come lots easier than it should have, and this week's opponent will find them a lot harder to deal with.

Regarding Abilene Christian, there are practically no answers. The only information reaching here to date is a present record of 2-3-1, without specifics on who the opponents have been. Henscheid assumes they will be comparable to the Tigers, and a good game can be expected.

Sacred Heart will be physically ready, except Teddy Walterscheid who has a knee injury.

Quarterback Dale Swirczynski, 33, gets off a long pass beyond the reach of Era's Barry Durham. Dale's blocker is Matt Sicking, 62. Janie Hartman Photo

Fort Worth Team Beats Cubs 28-10

The Tiger Cubs shared in Sacred Heart's disappointment last Saturday at Fort Worth Country Day School. They were 28-0 losers in the game preceding the varsity's 40-15 loss.

Their distress started early with a fumble on their own 33 yard line, from where the future Falcons scored in four tries. A sweep around left and a run for the PAT gave them a score of 8-0.

Next score resulted from an interception and 20 yard return to the end zone, plus another 2 point play for PAT.

The score was 16-0 at the first quarter and remained that way through the second. However SH broke even on the period's action with a fumble recovery and a pair of first downs. The FW boys likewise made a pair of first downs. First down count for the half was Fort Worth 5, Sacred Heart 4.

Starting the third period the Falcons intercepted and traded punts and then scored from the 37 in five plays.

The final score originated early in the fourth as SH lost possession on a fourth down try at the 36. The hosts used 4 plays scoring from there.

The Tigers best effort was a 30 yard touchdown in the fourth period, but spoiled by a penalty.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the family of Mrs. Mary Koessler wish to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude for the care and services to our mother during her extended illness and at her death. We are especially grateful to Dr. Enrique Juarez and Dr. Rahman, the staff of Muenster Memorial Hospital, Gainesville Memorial Hospital, and St. Richard's Villa. Words can never express the deep appreciation we experienced for the kindness and concerned dedication administered to our mother by Father Denis, Father Stephen, Father Placidus and Father Cletus. We will be forever grateful for the many visits, get-well cards and wishes, and prayers during her illness and especially for the kind expressions of sympathy given to us by many relatives and friends. We also wish to express our sincere thanks for the many Mass offerings, flowers and food brought to our homes, and for the beautiful meal prepared by the Catholic Daughters following the funeral Mass. We will long remember the inspiration we received from the music of the Choral Group. The children, grandchildren and the great-grandchildren of Mary Koessler

Prevent Accidental Poisonings

Help prevent accidental poisonings in the home, urges Mary Ann Shirer, a health education specialist.
Here's what you can do, she recommends.

Buy and use products with child-resistant caps and closures.

Make sure household
plants are not poisonous.
Keep products in original containers with warning labels intact. Make sure that drugs, cleaning products and other potential poisons are kept securely in cabinets and other locations out of children's reach.

Remember, if it's not food, it's probably dangerous to a small child,
the specialist points out. Dr.
Shirer is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Adult carelessness is usually a direct cause of accidental poisonings.
Poisonous household plants cause the greatest number of child poisonings. Detergents, cleaners and soaps rank second, and vitamin/mineral preparations rank third, Dr. Shirer reports.

Until the 1970's, aspirin was the substance most commonly involved in poisonings of young children.

However, since safety closures were put in use, deaths of young children from aspirin ingestion have decreased 76 percent, she adds.

THEY DEPEND ON YOU

energy answers

from the Texas Energy Extension Service

What maintenance and operational measures are recommended for the energy efficient use of fireplaces? G. R., Commerce.

If you use a fireplace fairly frequently, the chimney should be cleaned from time to time because of the formation of creosote, a black tarry liquid that results from the condensation of wood gases not burned in the combustion process. Creosote, however, is dangerous only if allowed to accumulate in large amounts when it becomes fuel for a chimney fire.

Although chemical cleaners can be used for cleaning the chimney, eventually it will have to be cleaned manually.
This can best be handled with a wire chimney brush made especially for this purpose.

Other maintenance and operational suggestions include the following:

(1) Lower the thermostat setting to 50-55 degrees when the fireplace is in use. Heated air from the rest of the house will be lost, but the furnace won't use nearly as much fuel.

(2) Close all doors and warm air supply ducts entering the room with the fireplace and open a window near the fireplace about 1/2 to 1 inch.
Air needed for combustion will be drawn in through the partially opened window, not from the rest of the house.

(3) Consider installing a glass screen if you have an open masonry fireplace. Louvers at the bottom restrict the amount of air up the flue.

(4) If your fireplace damper opening can be adjusted from outside the fireplace, close the damper part way. This reduces the draft and the amount of warmed air drawn in from other parts of the house.

(5) Close the damper when the fire is out. If the damper is left open, your furnace may consume 10 to 30 percent more fuel than it does normally.

use and care of fireplace and woodstoves is contained in ment of Energy publication

Dollar Dividend Days

Now's the best time to buy Sperry New Holland balers, hay tools and windrowers. You can receive a cash dividend of up to $1,500—or get Free Finance until the seasonal use date—it's your choice.

Free Finance means you can get the machines you want now, while equipment is available, and not pay any finance charges until their seasonal use date. A great way to insure you get the tools you need for next spring, and enjoy tax benefits this year.

Dollar Dividends give you up to $1,500 cash when you purchase and pay for eligible new machines. The size of your dividend depends on the model you buy, and how soon you buy it. Check this list for the models you need and the dividends you'll get.

The sooner you buy—the larger your dividend check.

Is Trouble 'Brewing' In Your Office Coffeemaker?

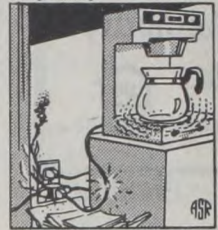

Workers who start their days at the office with a warm, friendly cup of coffee may be in danger of starting something not quite as friendly and considerably warmer if they aren't careful.

The trouble with that cup of morning motivation is that it may have been produced by a first-rate arsonist - the office coffee machine. According to the Chicago Fire Department, these appliances are the single greatest cause of fires in that city's downtown office district. And the risks are by no means limited to fire.

Proper care in operating and maintaining these traditional sources of office caffeine reduces the potential for catastrophe. At best, office fires can be a nuisance, resulting in minor carpet damage, smoke on the walls and a few mornings without freshly brewed coffee. At worst, major damage and serious injuries could occur through the spread of the fire.

There are a number of practical precautions that can be taken to lessen hazards from office coffeemaking appliances, says CNA insurance safety professional Hank Stewart. He suggests these measures:

- Use only units that have been listed for office use by Underwriters Laboratories. Many smaller home units are not designed for the office.
- Store combustible materials - coffee filters, napkins, office supplies - away from the appliances and the electrical outlets used to power them. The only way a fire can spread beyond a machine is through burnables left carelessly nearby.

- Check the condition of cords. Frayed cords are fire hazards.
- Do not hook up to extension cords. Many cords are not designed for even the demands of small appliances like coffeemakers and may overheat.
- Place the appliance directly in front of the outlet to eliminate the need for extension cords. Cords laid across aisles and other employee traffic routes can cause falls and injuries.

- Avoid the use of multi-plug adapters in wall outlets. The coffeemaker should not be sharing a receptacle with a typewriter, radio or other high-current equipment.
- Be sure the grounding terminal in the coffeemaker's three-prong plug is intact and secure to reduce the chance of shocking.
- Install a timer to automatically turn off the appliance at least one-half hour before the end of the business day. Timers should be sealed to prevent tampering and any units not equipped with timers should be unplugged at the end of the day.
- Appoint one person in the office to oversee use of the coffeemaker. Before leaving the office this individual should see that the unit is off and cleaned up.
- Take care in the handling of coffee pots, too. Empty pots should be removed from warmers on the coffeemakers. And anyone planning to carry a pot of coffee into a meeting should take a moment to check the condition of the handle; a meeting ought to be memorable for the accomplishments of the participants, not for an untimely disaster brought on by a broken coffee pot.

IT'S TRUE that blender breakfasts are perfect for active Americans who need energy to start the day but have no time to cook. Chiquita Brands, Inc. suggests a "jogger's breakfast" of bananas, pineapple juice, yogurt and brewer's yeast—blended until ingredients are smooth and creamy.

Put your food and fitness knowledge to the test

Attention fitness-conscious Americans! If you're entering a program of exercise, your eating habits have a new significance. To test your knowledge of food and fitness, Chiquita Brands, Inc. (Chiquita® is a registered trademark of United Brands Co.) has prepared the quiz that follows. Take it and make sure your diet's up to the physical hurdles it may encounter on the road to fitness. 1. If you're in an exercise program, you should eat lots of protein and relatively little carbohydrate and fat. True or false? False. When we exercise, we need carbohydrates and fats to fuel our body. Protein is not a source of body fuel, and eating excessive quantities of this nutrient can also tax the kidneys. Nutritionists suggest that the general population—including non-professional athletes—get most of its calories from carbohydrates (50-55 percent) and rounds out its diet with fats (30-35 percent) and proteins (15 percent).

2. Both simple and complex carbohydrates are equally good for the athlete. True or false? False. Simple carbohydrates are foods such as sugars, which our body uses almost immediately. Some athletes eat them for quick energy, but then encounter a "drop-off" when the calories have been burned.

Complex carbohydrates, however, are used more slowly by the body, so they're a good, steady energy source. Athletes should eat more complex carbohydrates: fruits such as bananas, vegetables, whole grain breads and cereal products, and nuts.

3. Athletes should be extra careful to get enough water and to choose the right snacks. True or false? True. According to Dr. Irving Glick, official physician of the Chiquita Cup International Young Masters Tennis Championships held recently in New York, athletes should take special care to get enough water and to choose snack foods wisely.

He advises those who exercise to drink lots of water and juices, and to pick snacks for their energy and nutritional value.

A banana, he notes, gives a steady supply of energy, and also provides the body with potassium and magnesium—two minerals which help maintain the body's chemical balance. Being 75 percent water, bananas are a good source of fluid, too.

4. If you exercise in the morning, eating breakfast beforehand will hinder your performance. True or False? False. The body is like an automobile; it won't run properly without fuel. Skipping breakfast can be detrimental not only to athletic performance, but ultimately to your long-range health and well-being.

Experiment with using healthy ingredients to make quick, nutritious breakfasts in your blender. The recipe below, "Jogger's Breakfast," is a good start to any day—or sports activity.

This, plus other recipes and nutritional information are contained in "Eating For Fitness," a booklet published by Chiquita Brands, Inc.

To receive a free copy, send your request and a self-addressed, stamped #10 envelope to: "Eating For Fitness," Chiquita Brands, Inc., Dept. M, 1271 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020.

JOGGER'S BREAKFAST

- 1 Chiquita banana, peeled 1/2 cup unsweetened pineapple juice
- 1 cup low fat yogurt
- 4 tablespoons brewer's yeast

Place ingredients in blender, mix until smooth and creamy.

MANAGING YOUR MONEY

GOLD

Of the many investment options available today, gold is one alternative hedge against inflation.

For those who have made the decision to purchase gold, gold coins offer one of the easiest, most portable and most flexible means of owning the precious metal at this time.

The Gold Coins of Mexico offer a broad range in size from the 50 peso Centenario, weighing more than one ounce of gold, down to the 2 peso piece which is often turned into beautiful jewelry.

These coins are among the most popular bullion coins in the world. As with all gold coins, the purchase price includes a premium to cover minting and distribution. For a free brochure on these coins, write: The Gold Coins of Mexico, Information Center, Grand Central Station, P.O. Box 1812, New York, NY 10017, or see a coin dealer.

YOUR PERSONAL FASHION CONSULTATION

will turn LOOKING GOOD into LOOKING GREAT!

Want to turn looking good into looking great? McCall Patterns' team of experts has developed a personalized fashion consultation program for Fall/Winter 1980.

It offers individual advice on the kinds of clothes best suited to your particular figure type, coloring, personality and lifestyle.

How do they do it? With computers. New York fashion experts program in all of the important fashion variables of the coming season... and then, along with key information about you, the computer comes up with specific wardrobe suggestions to satisfy your particular fashion needs.

All you do is fill out a detailed questionnaire that includes distinctive information about yourself: your precise measurements, color preferences, personal fashion style, personality, and the geographic environment in which you live. You send it to McCall's with $4.95 and in four to six weeks, you receive your Personal Fashion Consultation.

Your consultation will include a personalized letter full of advice on your best silhouettes and colors, plus a pattern and fabric selection well suited to your lifestyle. You will also receive a color chart, a booklet of silhouettes and cosmetic tips — all in advance of the Fall/Winter season.

The Personal Fashion Consultation was designed to help you coordinate and update your existing wardrobe, and to avoid wasting time and money on sewing or buying the wrong things. The Fashion Analysis Questionnaire is available at any fabric center that carries McCall's Patterns. It is printed right inside "Fashion Digest," a free leaflet.

Or, you can write to McCall Patterns, Personal Fashion Consultation Program, 230 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10017, for a free questionnaire.

Confetti....

wonder whether the president really knew what he was doing? Did he think that this concession to world Communism was a service to this country? Still, Carter urges the nation to question Reagan's judgment.

Also an incident of the past year is the betrayal of Taiwan, one of the few remaining free countries of the world. In establishing diplomatic relations with the Peking Chinese, Carter agreed to break relations with Taiwan, thereby again proclaiming to the world that an alliance with US is worthless. In addition to shabby treatment we are guilty of further weakening the dwindling number of free countries who desperately need to stick together. Does Carter think it is morally right to stab a friend to please an enemy? Does he think it's politically smart to write off an ally?

These incidents are only a few of the many that have come up during the Carter administration. They are part of a miserable record including inflation, wild spending, big taxes, military unpreparedness, and various other symptoms of failure which are currently haunting all thinking people. But the man who is principally responsible for the mess now puts on his best sanctimonious look while telling us to ignore Reagan because his judgment can't be trusted. As it looks from here, anyone who has fouled up so completely is not qualified to question another's ability.

Sound waves used to detect track flaws

COLLEGE STATION — An improved technique using ultra-high frequency sound waves for detecting flaws in railroad tracks is being developed by engineering researchers at Texas A&M University.

Each year rail failures are the single greatest cause of train derailments throughout the country. Many flaws in the rails remain undetected, despite a large fleet of flaw detector cars inspecting several hundred thousand miles of track annually, said researcher Dr. Don E. Bray, a Texas A&M mechanical engineering professor.

Present methods depend on a less sophisticated system to locate and identify dangerous weak points in the rails.

The new technique under study by Bray sends ultra-high frequency sound waves into the metal and measures their echoes, akin to the technique used in radar.

The study is funded by U.S. Department of Transportation and is a continuation of rail safety research conducted by Bray during the last 16 years.

Consumer Tip: Let your car breathe... A dirty, clogged air filter robs you of precious gasoline. Car engines burn a mixture of gas and air. A dirty filter decreases the amount of air effectively reaching the engine and thus causes a higher ratio of gas to be burned. Check your filter by holding it up to the light. If you can't see light through it, replace it. You'll improve your gas mileage...

New Booklet On Merchandising Tips Is Inflation-Fighter For Business

"Merchandising for Profit, a Guide for More Business" is a new eight-page tabloid publication that can help every businessman reap more profit in this inflation-ravaged age.

The booklet is a storehouse of tips and advice on "getting the most of what you've got" and there's dollars and cents suggestions on merchandising, advertising, motivating employees, handling credit, housekeeping, and the section on meeting and beating competition could mean the difference between profit and loss.

Another tip worth dollars suggests taking advantage of the local newspaper's professional art services and layout expertise which can give any business, an extra edge in putting the best foot forward in advertising and promotion.

"Fantastic" is the way Lyndell Williams, Executive Director the Texas Press Association, describes the tabloid.

As Emerson said, "This time, like all times, is a very good one if we but know what to do with it."

All in all, the little tabloid rounds up a lot of good advice for every business, large or small.

Copies are available for $1 from Merchandising, P.O. Box 29, Eastland, Texas 76448. ($5 will bring 10 copies for distribution to employees).

energy answers

from the Texas Energy Extension Service

Can you give me some idea of the cost of a domestic solar water heater? T. R., Victoria.

It is difficult to estimate the exact cost of a domestic solar water heater since it varies according to system size (depending on the number of people using it), materials used, labor for installation, and federal tax credit value. The initial costs are much higher than for a conventional water heating system alone.

Costs for an average solar water heating system for a typical family could range anywhere from $1200 to $2500. In warm climate areas where freeze protection is not so critical, costs are considerably reduced.

Information on costs and other aspects of solar water heating is available in a publication titled "Solar Water Heaters — Consumer Tips and Information." The publication is available free upon request from the Texas Energy Extension Service offices. The supply of these publications is very limited, and they will be available on a first request basis.

Can you tell me how many BTU's of solar energy can be collected in the winter in Jackson county? C. W., Lolita.

The following is solar data for Corpus Christi and Houston which should be reasonably applicable to the Jackson County area. The figures represent the total hemispherical mean daily radiation given in BTU's per square foot for a horizontal surface. These figures are for "typical" years and are lower than figures provided by the Department of Commerce and the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) which are synthetic figures based on calculations.

Corpus Christi

January	898.1
February	1147.4
March	1429.9
April	1642.4
October	1416.3
November	1042.7
December	849.7

Houston

January	772.4
February	1034.2
March	1297.4
April	1522.3
October	1275.6
November	924.0
December	729.6

BTU's per square foot per day which are incident on a surface tilted up at 35 degrees and pointed south would be as follows:

Corpus Christi

January	1274
February	1405
March	1519
April	1491
October	1737
November	1469
December	1271

Houston

January	1024
February	1266
March	1379
April	1382
October	1564
November	1302
December	1091

It is important to be aware that you can only expect to utilize 40 to 50 percent of this heat in any solar collector system.

If you have a question about energy conservation around the home, send it to ENERGY ANSWERS, Texas Energy Extension Service, Center for Energy and Mineral Resources, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843.
