TUESDAY CEREMONY UNITES MISS ENDRES AND PVT. FUHRMANN

Sacred Heart church was the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony performed at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning to unite Miss Mary Elizabeth Endres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Endres of this city, and Pvt. Valentine Fuhrmann of Camp San Luis Obispo, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fuhrmann of Lindsay. Rev. Father Thomas, pastor, officiated during the recitation of the vows and was celebrant of the nuptial high mass.

Chrysanthemums were massed against greenery to decorate the altar and the church choir rendered music for the mass, assisted by Sister M. Leonarda at the pipe organ. She also gave lovely interpretations of the traditional wedding processional and recessional. A large number of relatives and friends of the young couple from this city and from Lindsay attended the rites.

For her wedding the bride chose a lovely gown of white lace and satin. It featured the new long torso bodice of lace ornamented down the back with satin covered buttons, and a full gathered skirt of satin which fell into a short train, a sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves pointed over the wrist. The veil of illusion was fingertip length and was caught to a shirred coronet of the same material. The bride carried a lace handkerchief, borrowed from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Paul Endres, and another "something borrowed" was the white prayerbook that her mother carried at Luke's wedding thirty-three years ago. Atop the book were arranged the bride's flowers, gardenias, from which fell streams of white satin ribbon.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Florene Endres of Fort Worth, who wore a gown of rose lace and net, fashioned similar to the bride's with bracelet length sleeves. She carried an arm bouquet of white mums and wore a shoulder length veil of rose net.

Edwin Fuhrmann, brother of the bridegroom of Lindsay, was best man.

Immediately after the services the bridal party and their parents were guests at breakfast in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke. A color scheme of white and pink was noted in decorations. The table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, flanked with pink candles.

At noon a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, for members of both families and in the evening at 5 o'clock a buffet supper and reception honored the couple at the Endres home. One hundred guests attended. The bride's chosen colors of white and pink were accented in decorations and the service table held a large tiered cake.

The reception preceded Pvt. and Mrs. Fuhrmann's departure on a wedding trip, the destination of which was not revealed. They will make their home in San Luis Obispo after November 24. For traveling the bride wore a three-piece beige wool suit with gold blouse and brown accessories.

Both young people are popular in this city and Lindsay. Mrs. Fuhrmann attended Sacred Heart school and graduated from Holy Angels Academy, Jonesboro, Ark. The bridegroom attended the Lindsay school and entered the army in February receiving his basic training at Camp Wolters where he qualified as a sharpshooter and attended the bugler school. He is now stationed at Camp San Luis Obispo with the 159th Infantry.

Prior to her wedding Mrs. Fuhrmann was employed as bookkeeper at the Muenster Refinery, for the past year, and before that time assisted with office work at the REA office.

She has been an active member of Blessed Virgin Sodality and a leader in parish discussion club activity.

Texas produces 85 per cent of the United States' sulphur.

Mail Gifts Early

The Post Office Department now is starting the most gigantic task in its history—the movement of a deluge of Christmas parcels, cards and letters while maintaining the regular flow of millions of pieces of mail daily to and from our armed forces all over the world.

Indications are that the volume of Christmas mail will be the largest on record. Already in September, latest month for which figures are available, retail sales had reached a level second only to the record month of December, 1941, according to the Department of Commerce. And sales are rising. Such heavy purchases always presage heavy mailings.

If thousands of our soldiers, sailors, marines and civilian friends are not to be disappointed at Christmas time, the public must cooperate by mailing earlier than ever before and by addressing letters and parcels properly. The best efforts of the Post Office Department alone cannot be enough, in view of wartime difficulties faced by the postal system. The public must assist.

About 25,000 experienced postal workers have already been taken by the war services. Arrangements are under way to add thousands of temporary personnel to the postal staffs but this man power is hard to find and is inexperienced. Facilities of railroads and air lines are heavily taxed by movements of huge quantities of war materials and personnel. Extra trucks are almost impossible to obtain. Winter weather, hampering transportation, is beginning. The free-mailing privilege granted to members of the armed forces has not, it is estimated, expansion of those forces also is adding rapidly to the postal burden.

The deadline already is past for mailing gifts to Army and Navy personnel overseas with assurance that the parcels will arrive by Christmas. The New York post office reports that in late October, 350,000 such parcels were handled daily in that office alone.

The Post Office Department is making strenuous efforts to avoid such a terrific jam as it faced in 1918 under similar conditions, during the First World War. It can succeed in those efforts—and avoid many heartaches for its patrons—if the public will cooperate by mailing early.

Hints For Hunters

College Station, Nov. 20, 1942

Hunting this year will have more problems than usual, along with its pleasures. R. E. Callender game management specialist for the A. & M. College Extension Service, sees one in the gasoline rationing and another in the scarcity of ammunition. Combined, they represent a break for wildlife. With less gasoline, sportsmen are likely to confine hunting to short periods, and shortage of ammunition means fewer shots and a more plentiful supply of seed stock for next year's production. He predicts a good crop of deer and quail, and wild turkey about as good as last season.

Assuming that hunters will consider the food value of their bags more seriously than in previous years, Callender points out that with some definite exceptions, that there is no limit to the time game birds and animals may be kept in storage, provided storage occurs within three days after the end of the season. The exceptions are migratory birds and waterfowl which may be possessed for only 30 days after the close of the season. Deer must be removed from storage before June 5, except that deer sausage, jerk or deer meat which is cut and wrapped, or such meat stored in any privately owned or leased locker in a cold storage plant, may be kept there indefinitely.

To prevent spoilage of deer meat by careless handling, Callender suggests placing the bled and dressed carcass in a long sack made of a heavy canvas or unbleached sheeting and tying it securely to prevent contact by insects. Keep the carcass dry and not skinned till frozen in storage.

Callender says that if the weather is cool the deer can be kept in camp. If not it should go to storage without delay. If storage is not readily accessible, the carcass can be hung out each night and wrapped in blankets and placed in the shade during the day. All hides should be kept and tanned for later use. Extension publication B-86 describes the method of tanning leather at home.

No Income Tax Deferral For Men In Service

Dallas.—W. A. Thomas, Collector of Internal Revenue, said Tuesday that payment of income taxes may not be deferred for those members of the military forces whose pay is adequate to meet the bill.

He added that even those whose salaries are too small to pay the taxes are not deferred from tax liability if they have filed a joint income tax return with their wives.

In the latter case, he said, the Treasury has outlined a policy of placing responsibility of paying the tax upon the wife, no matter what her income, if she owns property, individually or jointly with her husband.

Married men in the service whose pay is too small to be assessed for taxes may avoid throwing the burden of payment on their wives by filing separate returns next year, Thomas said. The collector added that many had filed joint returns this year on 1941 taxes.

Thomas asserted that the wife is not liable for her husband's half of the tax if she files a separate return, but she is liable for her own half.

COTTON FARMERS TO VOTE ON MARKETING QUOTAS DECEMBER 12

Cotton farmers all over the south go to the polls Saturday, December 12 to vote on cotton marketing quotas.

Cotton marketing quotas have been in effect for the past five years the growers voting each year to use quotas as a means of insuring each grower his fair share of the available market for cotton, George Slaughter, chairman, Texas AAA committee, pointed out in announcing the referendum date.

Last December 83.4 percent of the Texas growers voting favored quotas on the 1942 crop, while 93.9 percent of the growers voting over the nation favored quotas.

Slaughter indicated that because of wartime conditions, the number of ballot boxes for this year's referendum would be considerably larger than the number in previous years. This move is intended to make it possible for all growers to get to the polls despite the transportation problem and the rush of war-time food production.

Full information on the present cotton situation and the prospective demand for cotton next year will be provided farmers eligible to vote in the referendum, Slaughter said.

Education Week Observed
Thursday afternoon a small program was given in the Parish Hall in keeping with National Education week.

Evelyn Wiseman gave the opening address in which she pointed out the need of education and the part the schools were to play in this present crisis. She also spoke of the need of the close cooperation of parents with the schools.

The sixth grade presented a historical pageant "America Marches On." The youngsters were costumed in keeping with the periods of American history they were depicting. The pageant was directed by Sr. M. Gertrude and Sr. Leonard was in charge of the musical numbers.

The high school students, under the direction of Sister Paula and Sister Geraldine, presented a play "We Hold These Truths." The play pictured very vividly the way America educates her boys and girls for the right freedom of which we are all so proud.

The Cast

Speakers of the Prologue: Evelyn Wiseman, Johann Seyler, and Della Rose Endres and actors, Thomas Felderhoff, Harold Luke, Earl Koelzer, Frank Hennigan, Lucille Wimmer, Rose Marie Endres, Gladys Wilde, Leo Felderhoff.

Chorus by the S.H.S. Glee Club.

The music for this play was furnished by Juanita Weinzapfel.

Several short talks were given by the high school students. These speeches were in keeping with the general themes of the Catholic Educational Association "Catholic and Community Activity" and that of the National Educational Association, "Education for Free Man."

Alma Marie Luke stressed the part Catholic schools must play in forming good citizens not only now, but especially for postwar America. "We have been entrusted with the hearts, minds and souls of these precious children that in the Ark of American Education we may keep them safe, guiding them to maturity until the waters of blood and hate have subsided and the dove of peace again finds a footing in a better world—a new America rising from the cold gray ashes of pride, greed, and materialism. An America which will be dedicated anew to God and to democracy."

Dolores Lehnertz addressed her words to all the boys and girls. She told them that Uncle Sam needs each and every one of them and that they should do their part generously and gladly.

Helen Ruth Otto's subject was "Catholic's Part in the Program." This topic was the one especially stressed in the circular sent out by the N. C. W. C.

"We owe it to our country, and we owe it to God. We know the Truth that contains all other truths, the Truth that can keep men free. But is it not enough to know the Truth. We must put the Truth to work. We must do the Truth in Charity. Our neighbors will catch a glimpse of the Truth if we are found working side by side with them contributing our wisdom, our love, and our energy to the furtherance of worthy causes and the defense of things that are Sacred."

We certainly thank our parents and friends who were present Thursday. Their presence was an encouragement to the students and faculty. We take it to mean that they are interested in our school. But what about the great number who were not present? Certainly we don't like to take their absence to mean that they aren't interested. We like to feel and know that you are back of us in this serious business of education. Remember the school needs and wants your help and cooperation.

For Victory

We are very proud and happy to announce that last week Billie Joe Miller purchased a fifty dollar war bond through the school. S.H.H. is proud of you, Billy Joe, and the wonderful example you have set for the rest of us. More power to you and Uncle Sam.

Thomas Otto also deserves special mention. Since war stamps have been on sale at the school, Tommy has purchased without fail, from $1.50 to $3.00 worth every week. That's a swell record for anyone.

Volley Ball

S.H.H. volley ball team had its first game of this term and emerged with flying colors. Our opponent was Lindsay High. The final record was Lindsay one game and Muenster four games. The scores were the following: the first game, fifteen-ten in favor of Lindsay, the other four, 15-10, 15-5, 15-2, 15-8 in our favor.

We must admit that the Lindsay girls are very good and will soon show us defeat if we don't take our practice games more seriously. So come on girls, let's practice diligently and try to follow our captain, Evelyn Wiseman's directions. Our directress, Sister Geraldine, complimented the captain and the team for their fine teamwork.

Looking over the score sheet we see that for Lindsay, Marcella Schmitz lead the scoring by making eleven points. Johnny Ann Seyler made a very fine showing for SHHS by scoring fifteen points. By close observation we notice that Lucille Wimmer is still our star player at net and that Mary Nell Hennigan is catching up to her fastly. We would like to add that Alma Marie Luke is the fastest player and is always ready when the ball comes. All those who played showed excellent teamwork and anyone can tell you how much it counts in the final score.

The Lindsay boys played SHH boys two games of volley ball and won a decided victory. It must be said in favor of the boys of SHH that they never play volley ball—except for an occasional skirmish with the girls. We would like to give out the score of the games, but either no one knows it or they are ashamed to tell. The boys say that they will beat Lindsay in a game of football anytime.

We have made arrangements with Lindsay for a return engagement on November 19th. Cross your fingers everybody.

SHOWER-PARTY HONORS BRIDE OF THIS WEEK

Miss Mary Elizabeth Endres, who was married to Pvt. Valentine Fuhrmann on Tuesday, was complimented with a miscellaneous shower and party Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, with Mrs. Hugh Jackson and Mrs. Paul Endres of Gainesville as co-hostesses.

The party rooms were decorated with arrangements of pycnanthia and chrysanthemums and the forty guests registered in an attractive guest book over which Miss Juanita Weinzapfel presided. A novel musical game was directed by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Juanita Weinzapfel at the piano, a life story of the honoree and her bridegroom being worked out by questions and musical selections as answers. Misses Dorothy and Loretta Hartman, as winners, distinguished each tune, tying for first place and received a lovely tray which they, in turn, presented to the honor guest.

After refreshments were served, the guests were given ends of string which they followed through three rooms to untangle and secure favors, sticks of candy tied with red, white and blue ribbons, each bearing clever, short verse, which caused considerable amusement when read.

Later the honoree opened the many lovely and useful gifts with which the guests presented her and they were admired by the assemblage.

LINDSAY PARISH TO HAVE THANKSGIVING CELEBRATION SUNDAY

The Lindsay Thanksgiving bazaar and picnic, originally scheduled for Thanksgiving Day, will be held instead, next Sunday, Nov. 22, it has been announced. The date of the affair was changed so as not to conflict with Muenster's celebration on Nov. 26, and allow citizens of both communities to attend both affairs.

The Mothers' Society has made extensive plans for the social and a variety of games, other entertainment, a wide selection of refreshments and various diversions will be featured. Everybody is invited to attend.

LINDSAY SCHOOL TATLER

Picnic Sunday The annual Thanksgiving festival will be held on Lindsay parish grounds Sunday afternoon and evening, November 22, under the auspices of the Mothers' Society and the Catholic Action Club.

If you intend to spend a delightful Sunday, attend the Lindsay Thanksgiving festival. A special feature of the event will be the children's carnival. The dart and target games, the thrilling game of quoits, penny bingo, the wheel of fortune, the bowling alley, and the fish pond will offer amusement to all. A one-act play, "Freedom Rings," a 1942 dramatic production, will be staged by members of the Little Theatre, and the newly organized song-o-phone band will make its first public appearance.

The Mothers' Society and Our Lady of Perpetual Help Junior Sodality extend to all a hearty welcome.

Volley Ball The volley ball teams of Lindsay school played the Muenster teams on Friday afternoon. Our boys scored a victory, but the girls were defeated in a series of five thrilling games. At the end of the first game which Lindsay girls won, the players seemed too exhausted to match the Muenster girls who were then just beginning to warm up. The team was impressed by the beautiful teamwork and genuine sportsmanship of the Muenster girls and boys. A return game will be played at Lindsay next Wednesday afternoon.

ing to find legitimate deductions for the income tax report. The effort has convinced me that once again I'm due to enjoy the poor man's privilege of submitting the report minus a check.

And I almost forgot, I had my picture taken. Camera shy or not, the pressure had become so intense that further resistance was useless. It seems to be customary, you know, to go and smile for the birds as soon as a fellow puts on a uniform. I did not have what it takes to break down the tradition. Besides, I've been reminded ever so many times that the Enterprise is printing pictures of the home town lads, and it isn't quite proper that a former member of its staff should be one of the few not to appear.

So I had my picture took. After getting spruced up in my Sunday best, I ambled into the photographer's with an air of mingled nonchalance and bravado. A good soldier doesn't let anyone know when he's scared. But the pretense did not fool the photographer. Not a bit. He seemed to think it was necessary to remind me that photography is safe and painless. Then he tried strategy. Engaging my attention and snapping when I least expected it. Usually that did the work. I'd catch on just in time to put on a blank stare or a silly grin. The law of averages was in his favor. Out of 8 or 10 attempts he caught a few views in which I did not look as though I was having a picture taken. Clever people, these photographers. They get results in spite of the worst handicaps.

Mrs. Henry Branham, his parents, is now at Algiers, New Orleans, La., waiting to be transferred to a permanent station, his mother advised Tuesday.

Pvt. Albert Steinberger, stationed at Perrin Field, enjoyed a visit Sunday from his wife, his father and his wife's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter and daughter, Edna Lea, who drove to Sherman to spend the afternoon with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeve Cooke received a letter from their son, Fred, of the U. S. Navy this week. He is stationed somewhere in the Pacific war zone and stated that he was well. His letter was written Oct. 29.

Pfc. Ferd Yosten has a new address as follows: 59th Fighters Sq.; APO 762, c/o Postmaster, New York City, N. Y. Ferd left Philadelphia, some time ago and members of his family have not heard from him recently.
