Last week's congressional action favoring the Administration's tax reduction program has been generally accepted as a good sign that the country is on the way to fiscal recovery. The program is a good companion to the budget slashing program adopted a few weeks ago. Together they assure us taxpayers that we can expect government to take less of our earnings and leave more of them to us.

Unfortunately, a lot of people don't like the arrangement. They are mostly those who want to keep getting something for nothing and bureaucrats who hand out the federal goodies. Their attitude can be expected. But the rest of us are happy to see the change of direction. We like the switch from socialism to the traditional American way.

Since we're headed the right way our next hope is to see an all-out attack on some of the other Washington brainstorms that do more harm than good. A typical example is the congressional committee staffs which get bigger and more expensive every year. Their job in general is to assist congressmen by gathering information and proposing more legislation. It's a multiple cost situation. Besides getting big salaries those committees are justifying their jobs by creating more legislation which costs the country in money and time.

One would think that Congress was overloaded when it had 702 such employees in 1970, but imagine 1844 in 1979, with salaries up to $52,000 a year. Isn't it about time to reduce rather than enlarge the number of such employees? Isn't it also about time to trim the exorbitant salaries? Where do the government people get the right to pamper their employees with a lot better income than the private sector receives?

We've heard, of course that they have to be competitive to get the help. The opinion is valid to a degree. But does the pay apply to equal levels of work? How about an over-all comparison? Does an average private sector worker receive as much pay and fringe benefits as a government worker? This means that many a private employee is helping pay the big government employee more than he receives himself. And many other taxpayers pay the government employees more than they can pay their own workers. Really, it would help us taxpayers enormously if government adopted salary guidelines that compare with ours.

Another great opportunity to save money is to end forced busing of school children. One step in that direction was taken a few weeks ago when the House of Congress passed an anti-busing amendment to a Justice Department funding authorization bill. It prohibits the Justice Department from taking any action to require forced busing.

A Gallup poll shows that 72% of the US public is opposed to busing, so changes can be expected eventually to overcome the small but vocal minority which still has not wised up to the folly of costly, counter-productive and intensely resented forced busing. The program has failed in its first purpose, which was to provide a better education for children and it has promoted ill will rather than harmony among the races besides hampering parent participation in neighborhood school affairs.

The most obvious failure was financial. To begin, the school districts had to spend millions on investment and maintenance, and more millions on wages, oil and fuel. Meanwhile the country

Sacred Heart starts school countdown

Classwork at Sacred Heart School is still more than two weeks away but school consciousness is being given a chance to develop meanwhile in activities planned for students, teachers and parents. And the first school day is to be ushered in with an outside assembly of grades K through 8 while high schoolers observe the occasion in their home rooms.

First event on the schedule is the selection of classes by high school students on August 10, 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. They are asked to report to the high school main entrance and follow the signs. Teachers will be present to help with the selection. Before coming to the selection the high schoolers are reminded to review their student handbooks carefully to see what classes are required and what subjects are available. The handbooks were given out at tuition negotiations.

Students are also reminded that those whose parents have not registered and negotiated tuition will not be allowed to select or attend classes. From the 10th to the 24th students will continue their vacation, however teachers will spend five of the days at in-service duty. Those dates are Aug. 14, 17, 18, 20 and 21.

Also on Aug. 20 the Home-School Association will have its first meeting of the school year, at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center. Its primary purpose is a review of the student handbook by the principal to familiarize parents with the policies and regulations.

The parent-teacher meeting will also be an occasion for teachers to present briefly (3 to 5 minutes) their goals and guidelines for the year. The talks will be followed by a social at which teachers and parents can mingle.

Is tent wanted for Harvest Hoedown?

To have or not to have a tent for this year's Harvest Hoedown on September 19? That's the question Larry Kinard is trying to answer in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce.

Interested persons wanting a space under cover to display crafts, woodwork, photography, hobby or merchandise for sale are urged to phone Kinard at 4334 or 2227. This will be limited to Muenster community persons only and no charge will be made for the space. If sufficient interest is shown the tent will be provided. A nice opportunity to display or sell crafts, hobbies, etc.

Yard of the month Tom Hennigan

The Muenster Garden Club has announced Yard of the Month honors for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hennigan on Hickory St. Specifically mentioned was the well established grass in a relatively new lawn, as well as attractive shrubs, blooming flowers in front and back, and a small vegetable garden.

Gospel Music Rally

First Baptist Church of Muenster is sponsoring a contemporary Gospel music rally by the nationally and internationally famous Concern Singers. It will be held Sunday, Aug. 9, 7 p.m. in First Baptist Church. The public is invited and admission is free.

Football Physicals

Boys who expect to play football with the Muenster Hornets, Sacred Heart Tigers or Saint Jo Panthers are asked to report for physical exams Saturday, August 8, 7 a.m. in the MHS gymnasium.

A Mass with special liturgy for all students, on August 28, will observe the opening of the school year.

New teachers joining the Sacred Heart faculty this year are Serena Wright, graduate of SW Texas State University, teaching speech and drama; Ollie Adamson with a bachelor degree from University of Dallas and a master's from NTSU, teaching English; Catherine Armstrong-Thomas, biology grad of Michigan State Univ., teaching science, volleyball, basketball and track.

Pauline Stoffels, kindergarten; Terry DeGarmo, first year, music, drill team;

Sharon Michaels, Texas Woman's University graduate, teaching third grade; Deborah Endres, NTSU grad, teaching special education; Alric Gonzales S.W. Texas State University graduate in speech pathology and audiology teaching special education.

Three Benedictine nuns also join the faculty. Sister Cabrini Arami, native of Montague and a former SH teacher will be elementary coordinator and high school English and religion teacher; Sister Cecilia Marie will teach elementary religion and help in the elementary school office.

City Council meets

OKs proposal to ban eyesore

Relative to the current urge to dress up store fronts in town, a group of business people appeared at the city council meeting Monday night asking for removal of an eyesore. They referred to the run-down vacant building and shaggy trees between the Charm Shop and the Palace Cafe. The situation is aggravated by the fact that crackles have been roosting there and spattering the place with droppings. The neglect extends to trees, brush and weeds beside and behind the building.

Council men decided to take action in the form of a letter asking cooperation in improving the appearance of Main Street. The understanding is that if necessary the place will be designated as unsanitary and unsightly and corrective action will be ordered.

The council also had its second reading of TP&L's request for a rate increase equal to the amount which will be allowed by the Texas Public Utilities Commission. The request was tabled for final consideration following the third reading at the September meeting.

A radio for the fire department's tank truck was approved after the council was told that a CB's range of about two miles is not adequate for keeping in contact with other equipment. The replacement is expected to have county wide coverage with loud and clear instructions to help the driver locate a fire.

With new lighting being installed on the baseball park, the council voted to advertise for a buyer of the old lights and fixtures.

Still needs easement for water line

Use of the city's new water well is further delayed. A report Monday night at the city council meeting revealed that condemnation proceedings will be necessary to acquire right of way for piping water from the well to the Muenster distribution system.

City Attorney Chuck Bar-tush Jr. said the .6 acre area for a utility and ingress easement has been appraised and an offer on that basis has not been accepted, and the city therefore will have to resort to condemnation. A special council meeting for that purpose is set for August 28.

While waiting for a water line, the city has been leisurely about completing the well. It still needs to set a screen and install a pump in the hole, and expects to have that finished before a water line is ready.

Another special council meeting is dated for August 17, when the members will plan their spending for the next fiscal year. A formal hearing of the proposed budget will be announced at a later date.

More business for the special meeting on August 17 concerns purchase of the Myrick Building in which the Muenster Public Library is located. The proposal came up Monday night but action was postponed to allow more time to inspect the building.

Public School enrolls Aug. 14

Students of Muenster Public School will find three new subjects in the high school curriculum when they report for registration on Friday, August 14. They are computer science, general business and business mathematics.

On registration day buses will run their regular routes before 9 o'clock and leave at 11 to return the students home.

Registration for kindergarten is special. It will be held in the high school auditorium and the children need not be there. Instead, parents are asked to come with birth certificate and immunization record.

The following Monday students will start a week of class work, and August 24-26 they will have three free days while their teachers are at in-service duty. Eventually, on Thursday, the 27th, they will go into the regular routine.

The school calendar lists 175 days for students and 183 for the faculty. Also on the calendar are three extra days to be used as make-up in case regular days were lost in bad weather.

Open House

The school will be shown Monday night, Aug. 17, from 7 to 9 in a system-wide open house. Everyone of the district is encouraged to visit and see extensive improvements made during recent months.

Improvements include re-decorating, new fluorescent lighting, new acoustical ceilings, new vinyl tile, new carpet, some new furniture and many repairs.

Superintendent Charles Coffey invites all to visit classrooms, shops, bandroom, library, gymnasium and dressing rooms to see how a portion of the taxes are being used.

The new Muenster ISD administration building, completed this spring, will also be open to the visitors. Located just east of the high school, it contains a board room, reception area, workroom, vault, two rest rooms, equipment room, refreshment area and the superintendent's office.

Teaching Staff

The school's staff has seven new teachers and still has an opening for another.

Leonard Peters and Charles Meurer are coaches; Mrs. Jean Troop will teach remedial reading; Mrs. Phyllis Coffey will teach English and language arts; Mrs. Nona Stanley will teach special education; and Mrs. Marilyn Luke will teach in combined third and fourth grades.

Returning teachers are Florence Williams kindergarten; Mariam Russom, first; Gwen Trubenbach, first and second; Janie Wein-zapfel, second; Carol Dyer, third; Barbara Robison, fourth; Juanita Walterscheid, fifth; Prue Selby, sixth.

Fluker, counselor; Alford-dean Winn, principal; Michele Knauf, aide-clerk; Charles Coffey, superintendent; Sheri Robison, secretary to superintendent; Leroy Johnson, chief appraiser-tax collector.

Münster hat nur 2100 Bürger — allerdings in Texas!

gmt Münster/Texas, 4. Juni
„Come to the Germanfest in Münster, Texas“, stand auf Einladungskarten, die Münsters Oberbürgermeister Dr. Werner Pierchalla ins Haus flatterten.

Der OB machte sich schlau, erzählt jetzt: „1889 hatten die Gebrüder Flusche aus Attendorf im Sauerland 70

Meilen von Dallas (Texas) entfernt den Ort gegründet. Sie wollten ihn Westfalen nennen. Orte mit dem Namen oberhalb in Texas schon viel zu viele. Also nahm man den Namen der westfälischen Hauptstadt Münster!“

Der OB schickte dieses Jahr nur eine Münster-Fahne in die traditionsbewuß-te, deutschstämmige 2100-Seelen-Gemeinde. Dafür will sich jetzt Festkomiteechef Alvin M. Fuhrmann in Münster persönlich bedanken und gleichzeitig Anregungen für das „Germanfest 1982“ sammeln.

Ob der OB dann hinfährt? „Ich könnte es mir vorstellen. In Begleitung vieler Münsteraner Mitbürger!“ sagt er.

While vacationing in West Germany, The Ray Voths were given the clipping reproduced above, from a German newspaper, Das Bild, published in Essen.

The Voths, in a tour group with the Ray Walterscheids and Vincent Zimmerers left the party two days to visit the Claus Voths of Heiden. Ray's grandfather, a native of Germany, was a brother of his host's grandfather.

Among places seen was the birthplace of Ray's father, the late Barney Voth. Other familiar names in the area were Walterscheid, Wiesman, Flusche, Pels, Hellman and Becker. The three couples also vacationed in England, Switzerland, France and Holland.

Below is a translation of the news item by Mrs. A.V. Grant.

Münster has only 2100 people ...of course in Texas!

gmt Munster/Texas, June 4

Come to the Germanfest to Münster, Texas, so read the invitations which came floating into the house of Munster's chief mayor, Dr. Werner Pierchalla.

Cleverly the chief mayor relates: "In 1889 the Flusche Brothers, originally from Attendorf in Sauerland, founded the town 70 miles from Dallas, Texas. They wanted to call it Westfalen. However, towns with that name were already plentiful in Texas. So the town was named Muenster after the capital of Westfalen."

The mayor this year sent a Munster banner to the tradition conscious 2100 German descendants. For that the chairman, Alvin Fuhrman, extends personal gratitude and an invitation to the 1982 Germanfest.

Will the mayor go there? "I can imagine. In the company of many Muenster townspeople!" he said.

was wasting precious energy in an energy crisis. Considering the great cost we have to wonder whether the program would have been worth while even if it had accomplished some good. But paying what we did for a failure was a disaster. It needs to be eliminated with all possible haste.

Ironically, the landmark Brown decision by the Supreme Court in 1954 ruled that every American child must be permitted to attend its neighborhood schools and that no child shall be sent to any school because of race. But busing has always been a double violation of that ruling. Children were not allowed to attend in their own neighborhoods, and they were sent to the cross-town schools strictly to achieve a racial balance. As an illegal program, as well as a futile and wasteful program, busing needs to be abolished.

Washington Whispers of US News and World Report says "Reagan is likely to be put on the spot soon by an anticrime task force appointed by his own Attorney General, William French Smith. The group is expected to call for some sort of gun control - a step the President has long opposed, and one he rejected even after he was shot."

Will someone please tell those gun-control people that their solution is strictly a dud! Crime is not committed by guns, or knives or clubs or by lots of other objects that can be used as weapons. They are committed by criminals, and the only way to fight crime is to oppose criminals. The simplest and most effective way to do this is by applying laws which already exist.

If America will get tough about enforcement, and make the penalty severe, lots of would-be killers will not commit a first murder, and lots of murderers will not be around to kill again.

Regarding crime control by gun control, the first problem is getting them out of the hands of criminals. Do the controllers really think they would comply with such a regulation? But even if they lost the guns, they still have plenty of weapons. Paul Harvey reported a few days ago that guns were used in less than half of Chicago's murders last year.

Congressional Comment

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Wednesday, June 29, marked one of the most significant days in our country's economic history, as the U.S. House of Representatives put partisan politics aside and passed (238-195) the largest tax reduction program for the American people in our history.

Most importantly, passage of the Hance-Conable Bipartisan Tax Substitute completed the second stage of an economic recovery program that I honestly and sincerely believe to be in the best interests of every American. It signaled a distinct and dramatic change of direction for federal government during the 1980s.

After a great deal of deliberation and comparison of the two tax proposals, I voted for the administration-backed bipartisan substitute. I voted for it because I believe it is the best economic alternative, not only for the country as a whole, but particularly for the 17th District. I believe that for a variety of reasons:

- 1) The budget deficit is $5.3 billion lower in 1981-82 under the Hance-Conable bill than its Ways and Means counterpart.
- 2) The commitment to a three-year, 25 percent tax cut — as opposed to a 21-month, 15 percent tax cut, which would have been extended to the third year only if a set of unrealistic economic guidelines were met — was absolutely necessary if the President's plan was to have a chance of success. I believe the uncertainty created by that "third-year trigger," which Ways and Means Committee Chairman Rostenkowski himself admitted was unrealistic, would have negated the incentives and confidence necessary to increase the productivity needed to cut inflation. And it is inflation that is the one real enemy. We cannot lose sight of that goal: No one in this country will win unless inflation is brought under control. Both proposals would have cut taxes, but only one, in my opinion, had a chance to undermine inflation.

3) Cutting individual taxes, as provided in the Hance-Conable bill, is the best way to help small unincorporated businesses, which represent over 60 percent of the tax paying businesses community, and a guaranteed, three-year cut allows these firms to plan how to use and reinvest this money.

Hance-Conable is much better for the very smallest corporations. Fifty-five percent of the nation's incorporated businesses have less than $25,000 a year in taxable income, while over 75 percent of these firms have less than $50,000 a year. The Ways and Means bill did nothing for firms under $25,000 a year until 1984, while Hance-Conable reduces taxes in the two lowest brackets, where most of the small corporations are located, in 1982 and 1983.

Hance-Conable also moves toward simplifying inventory reform, an important step in the right direction for inventory and labor intensive businesses.

4) There are 82,500 small royalty owners — one out of every six residents — in the 17th District and the energy proposals in the Hance-Conable plan were clearly the most beneficial for that group, as well as for independent oil producers. Provisions that benefit these two groups also benefit the area in general, as the oil industry is one of the 17th District's largest economic bases.

5) The indexing proposals will automatically restrain future government spending.

Many of the other provisions of the two proposals — addressing the marriage tax, savings incentives and estate taxes, for instance — were almost identical.

The final consideration was the fact, witnessed by the 400-plus phone calls I received the day before voting, as well as thousands of telegrams and letters I have received on economic issues, that this was the President's program and the people wanted to give it an unencumbered chance.

It now has that chance.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

I have spoken often of the necessity for increasing defense spending to meet our national security needs. Because of past neglect, significant increases in the next few years are unavoidable. At the same time, however, we must be absolutely certain we are getting maximum benefit for every dollar spent.

For that reason, the Senate Armed Services Committee has been working with the Administration to find ways to reduce costs and root out waste and inefficiency in the defense budget.

No one denies that we have not always spent our money as efficient as we might — though the Defense Department historically has been much more careful with its money than many federal spending practices. With finite dollars, and needs larger than can be met immediately with those dollars, we must redouble our efforts now.

One proposal that holds promise is multi-year contracting. Under the current system, each year the Congress authorizes and appropriates money for the next year only. There is no assurance that a company's contract will extend beyond that year, even if it is known in advance the need will continue from year to year.

Particularly in some of our ship-building and tactical aircraft programs, this procedure leads to less efficient spending than would be possible if continuity could be assured.

To achieve maximum savings, multi-year contracting could be used in conjunction with cost-effective rates of production for such items as the F-16 and other combat aircraft, armored vehicles and other high-demand items which take several years to develop.

We in the Congress also have an obligation to make sure programs are fully ready before they are put into production, and that they comply with the highest of military and economic standards. This year, for example, the Senate Armed Services Committee recommended cutbacks in funding for the Trident submarine and the CX cargo aircraft because of disparities in program planning and cost estimates.

In other words, we will do everything in our power to cut costs, without cutting corners in our defense needs.

I might add that the Administration shares this view. Secretary of Defense Casper Weinberger earned his nickname "Cap the Knife" because of his intolerance of waste. He is working hard to establish procedures in the Pentagon to make maximum use of each defense dollar.

The American people will not — and should not — accept anything less.

However, it would be a mistake to think that we can avoid increases in defense spending simply by reordering defense priorities and cutting back waste. Our needs far outweigh the savings that can be achieved by even the most vigorous cost-cutting initiatives.

National defense does not come cheaply. Our weaponry is highly sophisticated and our technology must be developed even further. Unfortunately, some in the national media are perpetrating the notion that the Soviets build cheap, unsophisticated weapons systems. That simply is not true. The Soviet Union has been steadily closing the technology gap, and is constantly improving its weapons systems. We must keep up, and that costs money.

To meet our defense needs, and to keep our covenant with the American people, we must spend enough to build a national security system second to none, while making sure we get our money's worth.

...it pays.

when we switch over to the new lignite generating plant, utility rates have to increase."

Building a lignite plant is a great deal more expensive than building a natural gas plant. However, the cost of the lignite fuel will increase more slowly than natural gas, making electricity from San Miguel more economical as time goes on.

Later this year, when we switch to the San Miguel Plant as our primary source of electricity, the effect of these high construction costs will make a very noticeable increase in your monthly electric bill.

However, in future years, the San Miguel Plant will help us to slow inevitably rising costs and will assure our member/owners of a reliable and available source of electricity. We believe that's good news!

Because we are converting to solid fueled generating facilities, we will have more control of future fuel prices and the cost of electricity to member/owners of the Brazos Electric Power Cooperative.

2 attend annual firemen's school

For the good of the Muenster fire department and the Muenster residents, Don Abney and Mike Frost spent last week at the annual Firemen's Training School at A&M University. For the firemen they learned basics and methods to be applied in fires and also to be conveyed to other members of the department. For residents they earned a credit on the local fire insurance key rate. As usual, the money to be saved on premiums will amount to more than the cost of attending the school. The City of Muenster pays expenses of the two men while attending the course.

KCs will honor older members

Muenster Knights of Columbus who have been members 25 years or longer will be recognized on Sunday, August 16 at a breakfast in the K of C hall. The event follows the 9 o'clock Mass in Sacred Heart church at which members and guests will have reserved space and receive communion in a group.

Pins will be awarded to 25, 30, 35, 45, 50, 55, 60, and 65 year members. All members and wives and widows of deceased members are invited to come.

Studies of the week for the two men covered the basics on using standard equipment, safety practices, avoiding water damage as much as possible, servicing fire extinguishers etc. Also included was the use of ladders and tools, portable air packs and the materials and methods of fighting oil and LP fires.

Some 3000 men from 17 states and 13 foreign countries were enrolled in the class. Their training was on a 60 acre field and used 22,000 gallons of diesel fuel.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Knabe and Mr. and Mrs. Denis Walterscheid.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a formal wedding gown of white sheerest chiffon over taffeta. The fitted bodice and bishop sleeves were made of Chantilly lace. A chiffon ruffle edged the Victorian neckline and the V shaped deep yoke, accented with seed pearl embroidery. Three tiers of wide Chantilly lace edged the layered chiffon skirt, sweeping into a chapel train.

Her fingertip length, illusion veil was attached to a pearl embroidered Juliet lace cap. She carried a bridal bouquet of burgundy roses, white babies breath, and white stephanotis. A rosary, gift from the groom, was entwined in her flowers. For tradition she carried her mother's wedding handkerchief and wore pearl earrings borrowed from her mother.

ted bodices and spaghetti straps. The gored skirts had scalloped hemlines and were finished with pink satin bows.

They wore pink and burgundy roses in their hair and carried nosegays of burgundy roses encircled with pink carnations and tied with pink ribbons.

Mandy Rice, groom's niece, was flower girl and Jeremy Johnston, bride's nephew was ring bearer. The little girl wore a white dress overlaid with white chiffon, made by the bride's mother, and the little boy wore a white tux also made by Mrs. Norbert Knabe. He carried a satin heart-shaped ring pillow decorated with pink flowers and ribbons, also made by the bride's mother.

Paul Bartush was the best man, and Ted Walterscheid, groom's brother, Henry Knabe bride's brother, and Darrell Sicking were groomsmen. Bert and Tim Knabe, bride's nephews, Bret Walterscheid groom's brother and Jesse Walterscheid groom's cousin were ushers. Deano Bayer, Jared Bayer, Stanley and Rodney Knabe, bride's nephews were Mass servers.

Wedding music was given by Mrs. Ruth Felderhoff organist, Doug and Lynda Yosten, Christi Klement and Linda Flusche, guitarists and vocal group.

Altar decorations included lighted candles and arrangements of pink gladioli.

Liturgical Readings were given by Herbie Knabe, bride's brother; Offertory prayers were read by Mary Bayer, bride's sister. Offertory gifts were carried by Amy and Vickie Bayer, Weldon Bayer and Jordan Johnston, all nieces and nephews of the bride.

Reception

A reception hosted by parents of the couple followed in the Sacred Heart Community Center. The bride's sisters, Barbara and Mary Bayer registered 330 guests. The dinner was catered by Colonial Restaurant and the cocktail hour was catered by Herb Miller. "Texas Dust" played for dancing.

The bride's table, covered with a lace tablecloth, held a pair of tall candelabra with white candles, trailing English ivy, a bouquet of red roses and the bridesmaids flowers. Two floor arrangements of white mums were placed in front of the bride's table.

Guest tables were decorated with ivy and pink and burgundy rosebuds entwined around lighted candles.

The three tiered wedding cake, trimmed in pink, stood over a pink fountain. A bridal figurine decorated the top layer.

After a wedding trip to Arkansas, the couple will be at home in Muenster. The bride is employed by National Supply in Gainesville and the groom is a self-employed carpenter. Both are 1980 graduates of Sacred Heart High School.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents on July 30. A display shower was hosted by the bride's attendants on July 19, and a bachelor party was given by the best man in the Bartush home on July 29.

Sacred Heart School August Newsletter

School starts soon
by Stephen Beyer, principal

Well, it's time to begin setting up bedtime schedules and early morning wakeup schedules. School starts very soon. The first day of school for all students is August 24th. All students, kindergarten through eighth grade should meet on the black top between the grade school and the high school at 7:55 on the morning of the 24th. High school students should go to their home rooms when the 7:55 bell rings. High school students will be sent a list of homerooms before school begins.

Parent Teacher Meeting

The first Home and School Association meeting for the school year 1981-82 will be on August 20th, Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center. The primary purpose of this meeting is to allow the principal to go over the student handbook with parents in order to clarify all policies and regulations. Also, all of this year's teachers will be present to present a short (3-5 minute) summary of their goals and guidelines for the year. After the meeting, there will be a social in order to meet all new teachers and for everybody to fuss at the principal.

New Teacher News

This year we are pleased to acquaint you with the following new teachers at Sacred Heart School:

Ms. Serena Wright

Ms. Wright comes to Sacred Heart from Beeville, Texas where she has been very active in Catholic youth group activities. She also has participated in some local theater productions. This will probably clue you in to her teaching field. Ms. Wright is a graduate of Southwest Texas State University with a degree in Speech and Drama. Ms. Wright also is very near receiving her teaching certificate in Mathematics. She plans to bring back competitive Speech and Drama to Sacred Heart School. She also will be directing a major musical for the winter. Ms. Wright has already moved to town and is actively involved in the youth choir that meets on Wednesday nights in the school library. Ms. Wright is also taking some classes at Texas Woman's University this summer.

Mrs. Ollie Adamson

Mrs. Adamson comes to Sacred Heart from Mesquite, Texas. She has been a teacher for 5 years. Her most recent experience is in Carrollton-Farmer's Branch as a French and English Teacher. This year Mrs. Adamson's assignment will be High School English. Mrs. Adamson will also teach a class in Journalism where she will resurrect the Sacred Heart Student Newspaper. She will also help sponsor the Yearbook for grades K-12. Mrs. Adamson has her undergraduate degree from the University of Dallas and her Master's degree from North Texas State University. Mrs. Adamson taught in two Catholic schools before moving to Carrollton-Farmer's Branch. She hopes to get involved with many parish activities, so she has moved her home to Muenster. She feels that her biggest challenge will be to revitalize the high school English curriculum.

Mrs. Catherine Armstrong-Thomas

Mrs. Armstrong-Thomas, a native of Michigan, is Sacred Heart School's new science teacher. Mrs. Armstrong-Thomas has a degree in Biology from Michigan State University. She is recently married and hopes to make her husband, a coach at North Texas State University commute from Muenster. At present, she has compromised and the newlyweds are living in Gainesville.

Since being a newlywed is not enough for her, Mrs. Armstrong-Thomas has already begun to get involved at Sacred Heart. She will be coach of the new Sacred Heart Girl's Volleyball Team (prospective players can visit with her on August 10th during high school enrollment). She will also help coach the girl's basketball team. Since she was a track and field star at M.S.U. she will also assist during the track season.

Pauline Stoffels

Mrs. Stoffels is one of our Lindsay teachers. She has been teaching kindergarten during the last year while her husband worked on his degree at Texas A&M. Since both hail from Lindsay, they have returned and we are fortunate to have Mrs. Stoffels teach our kindergarten program. Mrs. Stoffels already has plans to begin a highly structure readiness program so that our kindergartners will have a head start when they begin the first grade. She enjoys gardening and babysitting.

Terry DeGarmo

Mrs. DeGarmo, next year's first grade teacher, is our other Lindsay teacher. She comes to us with four years of teaching experience in El Paso, Texas. Mrs. DeGarmo is a musician as well, and will help the primary department in the area of music instruction. Last year she was drill team sponsor in Lindsay and so this year she will bring her expertise to our Sacred Heart Drill Team. Her home is Louisville, Kentucky but we told her we accept Yankees here in Muenster. Mrs. DeGarmo brings with her excellent recommendations, and we certainly welcome her to Sacred Heart School.

Sharon Michaels

Mrs. Michaels returns to Sacred Heart after a leave of absence to have a child of her own. Mrs. Michaels says that her son, Chris, has taught her some new things about children. Just wait, Mrs. Michaels, the lessons are just beginning.

This year, Mrs. Michaels will be teaching the third grade, as well as using her musical talents in our liturgies and liturgy preparations. Mrs. Michaels' degree in Special Education and Elementary Education is from Texas Women's University. We all welcome Mrs. Michaels back to Sacred Heart School.

Deborah Endres

Mrs. Endres, a native of Muenster is Sacred Heart's new Special Education Teacher. Mrs. Endres, a graduate of North Texas State University, will be responsible for coordinating reading within grades K-6. We are very proud of the fact that Mrs. Endres, after having four children, returned to college to obtain her degree. This represents the patience and fortitude that is necessary to be an effective teacher. Congratulations, Mrs. Endres and welcome to Sacred Heart.

Alic Gonzalez

Mr. Gonzalez will be assisting Mrs. Endres in the Special Education department during the mornings only. Mr. Gonzalez comes to us from Southwest Texas State University where he graduated with a Masters degree in Speech Pathology and Audiology. Mr. Gonzalez has already met some of his students through summer tutorial programs. We welcome Mr. Gonzalez to Sacred Heart.

Our New Sisters

Sacred Heart has been blessed with three new Benedictine Sisters. The new local mother superior is Sr. Cabrini Arami. Sister's family is in Montague, Texas, so sister is very happy to be returning to Sacred Heart. We say returning because Sister taught here once before, in the early 50's. We're sure there have been a few changes since then. Sister will be in charge of coordinating the elementary program as well as teaching high school English and high school Religion. Sister will also help in the sacramental programs (1st grade - 1st reconciliation, 2nd grade - first communion and 8th grade - confirmation). Welcome back Sister and Good Luck!

Our two other sisters are Sr. Monica and Sr. Cecilia Marie. Sr. Monica is a native of Muenster and will be teaching the fifth grade. Sr. Cecilia Marie is a native of Jonesboro and will be teaching elementary school Religion as well as helping in the elementary school office. Welcome, Sisters to Sacred Heart.

School Board Meeting

There will be a school board meeting on August 11th from 7:30 till 9:30 p.m. Everyone is invited. The meeting will be in the high school library.

High School Class Selection

On August 10th, from 9:30 - 1:00 p.m. all high school students will select their classes for 1981-82. Students should report to the high school main entrance and then follow the signs. Teachers will be present to help with the class selection process. High school students should carefully review the student handbook to see what classes are required and what electives are available. Handbooks were given out at tuition negotiations. No student whose parents have not registered and negotiated tuition will be allowed to select or attend any classes. # Soil testing resumed at Cooke County College lab

Testing services are being resumed on a limited basis for the remainder of the summer at Cooke County College's Soil and Forage Testing Laboratory on campus.

"Starting this week, we will be conducting both soil and forage tests on Mondays and Tuesdays," reports lab technician Doug Robison. "Samples may be brought by the lab at other times during the week, but actual testing will be done only on these two days."

He adds that samples should be brought to the 400 (Science) Building on campus and left with a laboratory assistant.

The CCC Soil and Forage Testing Laboratory offers complete soil testing services, with tests aimed specifically at determining levels of crop nutrients such as nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, sodium and others.

"Based on our findings, we will make fertilizer recommendation according to the particular types of crops being grown in the soil tested," Robison says.

Primary focus in forage testing is centered on determining protein content of samples. This includes both forages and feed mixtures.

Other types of tests, such as those for prussic acid and nitrate content, are available but only through special arrangement. All tests are aimed at providing reliable information from which livestock owners and breeders can develop correctly balanced rations.

Charges for testing services are $3 per sample for soils and forages.

Robison says that completed test results will normally be made available by Tuesday afternoon for samples brought in on Monday.

Persons wishing to obtain additional information may contact the Cooke County College Department of Agriculture at 668-7731, extension 253.

60 persons attend Rosston club event

The annual informal get-together for members of the Ross-Point Community Improvement Club on August 1 featured a feast of casseroles, salads, beverages and hamburgers, hot off the wood-burning grill. The site was Dan's Lake, at Prairie Point, a gesture of hospitality by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Richardson, acknowledged by members with praise and applause.

Sixty persons attended the meal served under the trees, and joined in the opening prayer led by George Berry.

A business meeting followed. All officers: Standley Lovette president, Wilma Richardson 1st vice president, Junior Durham 2nd vice president, Anna Hirkos secretary-treasurer, and Jim Penton club reporter were present.

Penton reported on the successful Sam Bass Days celebration. The treasurer's report showed that the club was in the black, with a good margin. Members made plans to attend the Forestburg Watermelon Festival on August 29.

Tour England, France, Switzerland, Germany and Holland

Three couples travel

Pleasant memories of their vacation tour of England, France, Switzerland, Germany and Holland are reflected in conversations with Lu and Ray Voth, Lou Ella and Vincent Zimmerer, and Peggy and Raymond Walterscheid.

They are the local members of a 43-person-group in the foreign farm tour sponsored by Progressive Farmer Magazine from July 10 to July 24.

To begin their tour they flew from DFW to London and spent a busy few days seeing many of the famous landmarks and tourist attractions. Most memorable were St. Paul's Cathedral, the Changing of the Guard and the enormity of preparations for the royal wedding in Britain, and the procession route. They were also on conducted tours of English farms and dairies and saw crops of apples and hops.

They crossed the English Channel on Hovercraft and were in Paris during the Bastille Day celebrations, seeing a spectacular fireworks display one night. Included in city tours were the Louvre, Notre Dame Cathedral, the Versailles Palace and great areas of meticulously tended gardens and flowers.

In Switzerland they visited the town of Neuchâtel, where hundreds of acres of grape vineyards are tilled on steep mountainsides. Quite naturally, in the land of lakes their drives into the countryside included many lakes and continued on into the Simmen Valley, where Simmental cattle originated. They watched cheese making on Swiss farms and enjoyed cheese and wine tasting treats. The tour included a visit to a clock factory and the opportunity to buy cuckoo clocks, souvenirs and traditional beer mugs. The day after their visit in this area, a snow storm occurred that would have prevented much of the sightseeing for them. In Lucerne there were more opportunities for shopping and their Austrian tour guide was well informed and very capable, directing them to best values. A trip to a snowy mountain top was accomplished by a boat crossing, train, cog railway and ski lift.

The tour then led through the Black Forest to Heidelberg, Germany where 30,000 Americans live and then to Frankfurt. At this time the Ray Voths visited relatives, while the group continued on more farm tours, a river cruise and a visit to Cologne Cathedral.

The Voths were guests of the Claus and Martin Voth families and the senior Otto Voth in Heiden, Germany, north of Cologne and nearer Holland. Sister Agnes Voth of Holy Angels Convent, Jonesboro, Ark. corresponds frequently with Otto Voth. They also visited the farm where Barney Voth was born.

In Arnhem, Holland the Voths rejoined the tour group and together saw a wooden shoe factory, and another dairy farm where another kind of cheese was made. They attended the world famous flower auction, with 1,250 acres of greenhouses, where the auction is held 5 days a week, year round, and about 85% of the crop, about 350 million flowers, are exported annually. They saw one greenhouse where 60 acres of flower cultivation were under one roof.

They also toured a vast area of farm land reclaimed from the North Sea by a system of dikes and drainage. Wheat production there averages 120 bushels per acre; and 40% of the inhabitants live below sea level. Holland is about one fourth the size of Wisconsin, our largest dairy cattle state, but has 10% more cattle.

The Vincent Zimmerers also left the tour group for several days, after reaching Paris early in the tour. They were guests of his first cousin, Hugo Kolterman in Germany and then drove through Austria to rejoin the group in Switzerland.

After the Amsterdam visit, the tour group flew to London, Houston and Dallas on their return to Texas.

295 students attend Vacation Bible School

The Sacred Heart Parish Vacation Bible School of 1981 closed on July 24 after an eminently successful week. Beginning with a dedication Mass on Sunday at 11 a.m. celebrated by Father Denis Soerries and closing with a special liturgy and Mass on Friday, celebrated by Father Stephen Eckart, the week was filled with learning situations, fun activities and music and crafts and Bible study.

During the Sunday morning liturgy, teachers, aides, craft helpers and directors pledged to dedicate themselves to teaching religious education to their students. With an average daily attendance of 295 students, the 19 teachers, 19 aides and 19 craft helpers began each morning with a 9 a.m. worship service. In the Community Center, Mrs. Theresa Walterscheid directed activities of 3 to 5 year olds, leading them in prayers, songs and the day's teachings. The children also had the opportunity to deposit gifts for the Ronald McDonald houses, this year's mission project. Kindergarten through sixth graders began their worship service each morning with a procession into church to the theme of "Jesus, Your Word Lives in Me." Mmes. Emily Klement and Ruth Felderhoff led the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag, the Christian Flag and the Bible; Father Denis presented a brief homily; and the children had the opportunity to make contributions to the mission project. In individual classrooms, the children heard Bible stories relating to the Eight Beatitudes and Christian Living and living things God has made. In mid-morning Mmes. Ted Henscheid and Claude Klement and their assistants served snacks and refreshments.

Each day Mrs. Nita Fleitman directed a religious book store in the lobby of the Community Center. On Friday each child received a Ronald McDonald packet containing a hand puppet, cookies, a balloon, and a coupon for a free hamburger at McDonald's of Gainesville. Marie Dickey was McDonald's representative.

The special liturgy for the closing on Friday was planned by Mmes. Karen Endres, Emily Klement and Sister Romana Rohmer. All who were involved in VBS participated in the entrance procession while Mrs. Irene Hartman and her 4th grade class performed the sign language to "Jesus, Your Word Lives in Me." Mrs. Raymond Zimmerer's 4th grade class gave the Readings. First and second graders gave the psalm. Five year olds gave the gospel acclamation. Fifth and sixth graders presented Offertory gifts and passed collection baskets. The student body sang for the Offertory and Communion. Three and four year olds sang the Meditation and third graders sang "Joy".

Father Stephen presented an appreciation gift to VBS director, Mrs. Sylvia Bayer after Mass. Last week Thursday mission project chairman Mrs. Linda Knabe took four large cartons of toys and canned goods to the Ronald McDonald Houses in Dallas and Ft. Worth. In addition she presented a check for $333.02 to the Dallas house to help in the purchase of a child's wheel chair. The money was given by Vacation Bible School students.

Special decorations in church during the closing liturgy included a banner made by last year's VBS 5th and 6th grade classes surrounded by the Eight Beatitudes made by Mrs. Sidney Porter's 6th graders. A Ronald McDonald House banner made by Mrs. Debbie Endres 5th graders. This banner has been presented to the Ronald McDonald House in Fort Worth.

YOU GET A BONUS YEAR 'ROUND WITH AN ENERGY-EFFICIENT HEAT PUMP.

A heat pump is the most efficient heating and cooling system available today. That means you'll be getting a bonus when you install an energy-efficient heat pump because it'll save you money on operating costs. And since a heat pump both heats and cools, you'll be getting that bonus year 'round. Get the full savings story on the heat pump from your TP&L Customer Service Representative or Home Service Advisor... the Electric Energy Experts. Since TP&L doesn't sell or install heat pumps, your Energy Expert can give you impartial advice about what to look for and how much you can expect to save.

Coaches Leonard Peters and Charles Meurer, meeting with the MHS Hornets for the first time, propose to build their 1981 team on a slogan, "making the team is not enough, we'll make a winning team."

As they look over their job they are well aware of pre-season predictions, nevertheless their goal is to surprise the experts.

As Peters sees it, this goal is within reach. The Hornets last year had a dismal record of 3-5-2, but it included a number of games that could easily have gone the other way. The team actually was better than the record showed. Just a few right plays at the right time could have made a big difference.

According to a pair of football magazines, the Hornets have a long way to go. They are rated number 10 in the 12 member District 8-A, also number four in the north zone of the district. Teams of the north which get the nod ahead of them are Alvord, Era and Paradise.

Peters has hopes of finding 30 boys or more for the first practice. This will include 17 lettermen, ten of them seniors, and about a dozen starters. More experienced talent is expected from the 1980 junior varsity and still more from last year's junior high team. Prospects are good for both varsity and junior varsity teams.

Practice hours for the two-a-day sessions will be decided at the first meeting Monday. After that the team will carry on twice daily until the first day of school. The team will have its first scrimmage at Boyd on August 21, its second scrimmage here with Southlake Carroll on August 28.

Our experience has shown that a quality latex house paint is not only easier to apply than oil base, but it has far better color retention, stays more flexible and generally lasts longer than the finest oil finishes.

Koch-Britton Low Voltage Electric Stimulation
... for tenderness gains in every beef carcass you process!

Typical carcass during stimulation

2 second rest period | 2 second pulse period

When a carcass is stimulated, a lot of body heat is dissipated in a hurry. Extra bleeding occurs and reduces chances of spoilage and excessive trim loss. Once in the cooler, proper chill can be reached hours earlier, saving money and energy.

Next day, a brighter cherry red color appears. At grading time, about 6% of the carcasses move up to a higher grade. Heat ring and cold shortening are negligible. Aging time is far less (3 days instead of 7, or 7 instead of 21).

Checklist of Benefits

- Energy savings. Reach chill temperature 1-4 hours sooner.
- Less dripping.
- Less spoilage.
- Less shrink and trim loss.
- Shorten aging times up to 65% less time in cooler.
- Improved quality and flavor.
- 25% increased tenderness.
- About 6% move up a grade, better color, more visible marbling, less heat ring, reduced re-grade.
- Lower the Ph level.
- Eliminate cold shortening and dark cutters.

Tigers start practice Monday

1981 football for the Tigers of Sacred Heart High will get under way next Monday when the boys meet bright and early with their coaches, Father Stephen Eckart and Virgil Henscheid.

Going into their two-a-day practice sessions, the Tigers are aware of one of their tougher seasons of recent years. They are listed last in the TCIL pre-season district rating and they are hurting from last year's graduation losses.

But Henscheid isn't down hearted. He's looking for more muscle in returning let-terms as well as junior varsity boys who were undefeated in their 1980 season. He expects the team to be about like last year in speed and lighter in weight.

As regards numbers, the outlook is discouraging. The incoming freshmen will be fewer than last year's graduation loss. After the varsity roster is complete there may be too few players left for a JV team. The first day's turnout is expected to tell whether the Tigers will have a second team.

Next Monday's practice will start with two-a-day workouts and continue twice daily until classes start. The boys will wear shorts four days and put on the pads Friday.

Their first test will come on August 21 when they host Nocona in a scrimmage. The following Friday they will scrimmage at Lake Dallas.

Muenster Scores 92 on TABS

A recent announcement of scores in the state-wide Texas Assessment of Basic Skills (TABS) finds Muenster Public School third in the area with a score of 92. Listings of a number of neighbor schools were Lindsay 95, Saint Jo 92.6, Era 89, Gainesville 88.6, Valley View 88.3, Whitesboro 83.6, Callisburg 82.6.

The scores were based on grades received by students of the third, fifth and ninth grades in math, reading and writing. Muenster had 81 in math, 100 in reading and 95 in writing. The problem in math, as pointed out by Superintendent Charles Coffey, is that the test included students who had a poor background and subjects that had not been covered but the high grades in two other subjects compensated.

However, Coffey added that he does not like TABS because it does not do justice to a school like Muenster. It is restricted to basics whereas the local school additionally offers a good selection of subjects, and strives for excellence in all rather than giving extra attention to test subjects. The tendency in many schools is to teach the tests more than the curriculum and other subjects therefore are slighted.

Another fault he found with TABS is that the score may reflect students more than the school. The level of student talent varies from year to year and will determine the score more than the school's level of excellence.

No relief!

Muenster still has no drought relief. The total recorded by Steve Moster for the week was a puny .13 inch which brings the year's total to 19.69 inches. The best opportunity of two months was missed a week earlier when Muenster remained bone dry while good soakers, some up to 3 inches, fell within a few miles.

At the same time temperature is hotter, with only one reading under 100 in the past week. Lows and highs of the week were recorded as follows by Steve Moster. July 30, 75 and 100; July 31, 79 and 100; Aug. 1, 78 and 99; Aug. 2, 77 and 101; Aug. 3, 80 and 101; Aug. 4, 76 and 101; Aug. 5, 77 and 100.

Louise has a birthday on August 8
To those who know her
She has many traits.
She is loving, she is kind;
A more loyal friend
You'll never find.
As a wife her husband
Thinks she's great.
We hope success and happiness
Will be her fate.

FIRST TEXAS INTRODUCES MONEY MAKER SECURITIES.

Now get the high interest you need to beat the 80's.

First Texas Savings Association offers new Fixed-Rate and Daily-Rate Money Maker Repurchase Agreements. Both give you high interest rates on amounts from $2,000 without brokerage or service fees.

Our Fixed-Rate Money Maker Repurchase Agreement keeps your money at a high interest rate for your choice of 30, 60 or 89 days. And the rate in effect on the day you invest is guaranteed for the entire term.

With a Daily-Rate Money Maker Repurchase Agreement you earn interest at the current daily interest rate for a maximum term of 89 days. Plus you are allowed to make deposits and withdrawals of $500 or more with no penalty. And you receive a monthly statement showing every transaction.

You know your investment is sound. Our securities are backed by the strength and stability of First Texas. And these repurchase agreements represent a participation in a Government Security even though they are not insured by the FSLIC.

First Texas has a variety of savings plans to meet your needs. New Money Maker securities are just two of the savings plans at First Texas. We also offer high-yield 26-Week and 2 1/2-Year Money Market Certificates and other plans that can help you gain financial security for the 80's and beyond.

At First Texas, we have the financial know-how to help you decide which plan best fits your needs. So stop by, or call any of our 70 convenient offices today.
