

C. H. CLARK TALKS TO LADIES' LEAGUE ON TREES, FLOWERS

Speaking on the planting and care of trees and flowers, county agent C. H. Clark appeared before the Muenster Ladies' Civic League at their regular meeting last Friday afternoon.

Mr. Clark stressed the advisability of cultivating local flowers known to be suited to the climate, and hardy flowers that require less care in preference to fancy varieties. He also gave instructions for spraying to combat the destructive attack of insects.

Regarding trees, the speaker emphasized that care should be taken to avoid planting them too deep and that no fertilizer should be used.

In the absence of the league president, Mrs. John Fuhrbach, Mrs. John Mosman presided at the meeting.

A report from the cemetery committee revealed that bermuda sod will be planted as soon as the ground is levelled and cultivated. It was announced also that the local parish and the city will share equally the expense of watering lawn, shrubs and trees in the cemetery during the dry season.

Discussion on the proposed spring flower show ended with a decision to set the day for May 19 and place Mrs. T. S. Myrick in charge. Her assistants for the event are Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel and Mrs. Tony Gremminger.

A quilt show in connection with the flower show is headed by Mrs. Clarence Wilson and a canning and vegetable display is under the direction of Mrs. B. H. Hellman and Mrs. T. P. Frost.

According to a resolution passed in the February meeting several ladies brought in spare plants and bulbs for exchange.

The guest speaker at the next League meeting will be Father Frowin Koerdit his subject to be "Civic Government."

J. C. "JIM" REESE ASKS FOR SUPPORT AS COUNTY CLERK

J. C. (Jim) Reese, remembered in Muenster and neighboring communities for many pleasant relations in the past, authorizes The Enterprise to announce that he will be a candidate for Cooke County Clerk in the Democratic primary of July 23.

To the old timers of Muenster and the north end of the county Mr. Reese needs no introduction. He was a resident of the Wolf Ridge community and a frequent visitor here for nine years prior to 1912 when he began his business career at Gainesville. Then again he served as deputy county tax assessor for this section of the county from 1923 to 1925. In general, he is not personally acquainted with the younger voters but invites all of them to investigate his qualifications and the record of his past life.

Mr. Reese has spent 34 of his 57 years as a citizen of Cooke County. His occupations during that time made him thoroughly familiar with the duties and responsibilities of public office; his clerical experience gave him the background necessary as a qualification for efficiency. Mr. Reese assures every citizen that if elected he will do his utmost to give capable, industrious, honest and efficient service.

In 1935 Mr. Reese was appointed as Cooke County Jailer, a position which he holds at the present time. Official duties in this position, the candidate explained, are of such a nature that he will have little time to spend on a personal campaign. The few days at his disposal will be spent in reaching as many as possible, but he will depend to a great extent on the support of friends to bring his request for votes to citizens he cannot reach.

Mr. Reese entered the campaign of his own accord without prompting from friends or any political group. He seeks the office of county clerk because it offers an opportunity for greater responsibility and greater service. As an honest, industrious and capable man he asks for support.

HYACINTH CLUB HAS TWO WEEK SESSIONS ON LENTEN SERVICES

"Church services during Lent" was the subject of study when 15 members of the Hyacinth Club gathered for their weekly session Monday night in the home of Mrs. M. J. Endres, under the direction of Mrs. John Mosman.

The subject is being considered as a two weeks assignment covering the ritual and significance for the services of Ash Wednesday, Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, Easter, Tenebrae and other occasions observed in a special manner.

WEINZAPFEL TALKS ON RADIO PROGRAM OF DENISON K.-C.'S

As state treasurer of the Knights of Columbus, J. M. Weinzapfel appeared last Sunday on a special program sponsored by Denison knights in commemoration of Founders' Day. Mr. Weinzapfel's five minute address was a part of the program broadcast by the Denison radio station.

Opening his speech with remarks on the nature and destiny of man, Mr. Weinzapfel praised founders of the Knights of Columbus for bringing into existence an order conducive to both spiritual and temporal welfare, then mentioned some of the order's past services and its future destiny as a bulwark of Christianity and Americanism.

The Founders' Day celebration began with a group attendance of the knights at 8 o'clock Mass and communion, followed by breakfast served in the K of C hall by ladies of the parish.

Beginning at 10:30 o'clock the formal program with a radio hookup got under way with District Deputy Francis J. Mooney of Denison as director. A thirty minute address by a Mr. Lampin, Denison attorney, and a 15 minute skit by George Holden and John Arnold, along with Mr. Weinzapfel's speech made up the principal parts of this program.

Muenster knights attending the celebration were J. M. Weinzapfel, Herbert Meurer, George Gehrig and Jake Horn Sr.

SCOUT PROGRAM TO BE REVIVED MONDAY NIGHT AT MEETING

After being inactive for about three months Muenster Boy Scouts revived during the past week and set Monday night as the opening meeting of their new program. At that time, Scoutmaster Nick Miller said, all boys eligible for scout membership, especially those between the ages of 12 and 14, are cordially invited to attend and learn a few things about scouting.

To a great extent the revival of interest is traceable to a reorganization of the scout committee in its meeting on Wednesday night of last week. By a new arrangement scout programs for all meetings are now planned by the committee, and one committee member will be present at each scout meeting.

Present members of the scout committee are Herbert Meurer, chairman, Father Francis Zimmerer, Dr. T. S. Myrick, Joe Fisher Jr., J. M. Weinzapfel, R. J. Hellman.

BUSY CORNER POOL YIELDS 200-BARREL WELL TO FLUSCHES

The first well of the Flusche farm came in last Monday when Kingery contracting for Birdwell hit a 200 barrel producer adjoining the Winstead and Johnson wells.

At the same time drilling continues steadily on other locations of the busy corner. Mudge is nearing completion on its Johnson 23 and "Pretty Boy" McClure has just finished his Number 8 Winstead. Drilling on an adjoining location, J. G. Richards and Son is coming close to the sand on its Number 3 Winstead. Trumpler Oil Company has just finished tapping its seventeenth outlet to the Andress pool.

E. J. Ruwaldt is beginning to drill at Cap's Corner. Flusche finished moving the rig to that location from the Andress lease Wednesday.

SMALL TRACTOR IS NAMED SUBSTITUTE FOR 4 HORSE TEAM

From H. S. Wilde, local Allis-Chalmers dealer, comes the statement that tractors have made another advance on the domain of farm work that at one time was conceded to horses. The new model B Allis-Chalmers, he said, is designed to take the place of four horses.

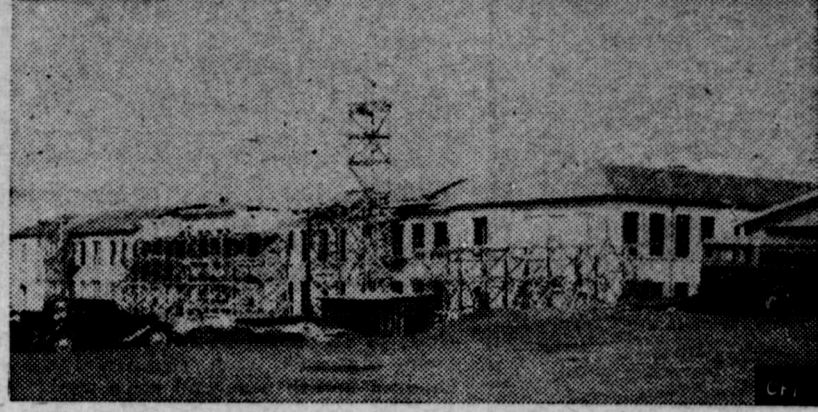

Mounted on rubber the new machine has a rated draw bar horse power of 14, and is meant to pull normal four horse loads such as a two disc plow a drill or harrow or binder. Having a short wheel base and small turning radius the tractor is adaptable to row work.

Mr. Wilde received his new small tractor while in Dallas last Saturday. On the same day he unloaded four new "WC" row type tractors from a freight car.

MORE LOCK BOXES

The Muenster State Bank almost doubled its capacity of safety lock boxes last Saturday, when it received a unit of 40 boxes. The bank previously contained 48 boxes, a capacity found inadequate since the increase in business activity during the past few years.

REBUILD ON SITE OF DISASTER

NEW LONDON, Texas.—On the site where the ghastly gas explosion occurred on March 18th, 1937 killing 280 students and 14 teachers, and demolishing the former structure, the above building is rapidly nearing completion. Taxable resources of the school are listed at $20,000,000, the school's yearly income is approximately $350,000. It is hoped that the building will be sufficiently complete so that the June graduating exercises can be held there as well as memorial services to those whose lives were lost in the disaster.

FRANK M. ALDRIDGE REVEALS CANDIDACY FOR COUNTY CLERK

Frank M. Aldridge, well known business man of Gainesville, has authorized The Enterprise to announce his candidacy for Cooke County Clerk in the Democratic primary election of July 23.

In making his official statement, Mr. Aldridge pledges himself to render the best service possible in the event that voters of the county entrust him with the important and manifold duties of county clerk. He points to a long business career as evidence of his ability to conduct the affairs of office efficiently, and to a reputation for fair impartial dealings as his assurance of conscientious work.

Coming to this county with his parents when a child of four, Mr. Aldridge spent his boyhood and youth in the Myra community. For the past 15 years he has been a citizen of Gainesville, being entrusted in recent years with the county wide agency for Marathon oil products. Through many pleasant business dealings in this connection he has extended his acquaintance and friendship to every community of the county.

Mr. Aldridge is the head of an estimable family and as such is deeply concerned with the welfare of every home. His live interest in public affairs is his principal inducement to seek an office in which he can be of service to other citizens. He has never held a public office before, neither has he been a candidate in any previous election.

Mr. Aldridge already has the support and encouragement of a host of citizens who are eager to recommend him as a man of character and integrity and who feel that voters can have every assurance of making a wise choice when they entrust him with the guardianship of their official records. To citizens not acquainted with him, Mr. Aldridge invites a checkup on his reputation; to his acquaintances he expresses sincere appreciation for every word of support they can give.

BRONZE STATUE IS GIVEN AS PRIZE IN CATECHISM CONTEST

Thelma Kathman was proclaimed winner of a beautiful 8-inch bronze statue of Immaculate Conception in a contest conducted among pupils of the Parochial fifth grade Wednesday morning. Bernard Swirczynski, runner up in the contest, received a book of games, jokes and stories as second prize.

The leading percentage in answering a set of catechism questions was to determine the winner except in the case of a tie when the number of cancelled stamps for a mission box was to be considered. Ten pupils received perfect marks. They were Helen Ruth Otto, Emma Felderhoff, Thelma Kathman, Louise Mages, Rosalie Henschel, Emma Lee Fette, Robert Bayer, Clifford Otto, Henry Yosten and Bernard Swirczynski.

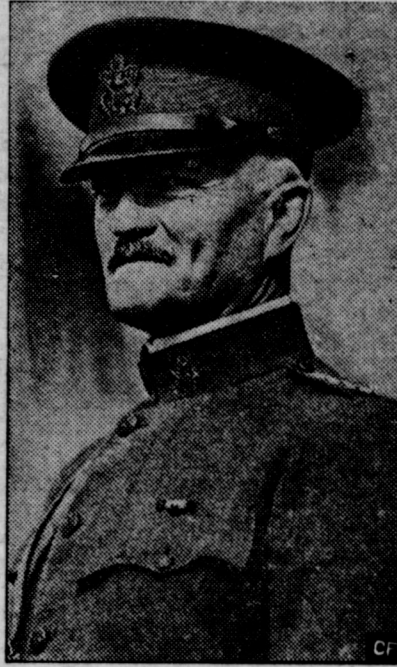

The statue is a reproduction of the famous Stanford White design.

MUENSTER FARMERS VOTE FOR QUOTA ON COTTON MARKETING

Muenster followed the general trend of Southern farmers last Saturday by voting in favor of cotton marketing quotas in the referendum proposed by the AAA. Seventy-four for and 41 against, was the result of the Muenster poll.

Official reports broadcast since last Saturday indicate that the referendum carried by an overwhelming majority of 7 to 1. A two thirds majority vote was necessary to make the regulation effective.

RECOVERING

The above photo shows John J. Pershing as he appeared while commander-in-chief of the AEF during the World War. His physicians reported Monday that he sat up for the first time in a month, and is definitely on the road to recovery.

D. "DOLPHY" SCOTT ENTERS CAMPAIGN FOR COUNTY CLERK

D. (Dolphy) Scott, postmaster of Sivelis Bend, has requested The Enterprise to publish his official announcement as candidate for the office of county clerk of Cooke county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, July 23.

Mr. Scott will be remembered as a candidate for office in the last election, in which he fell short by only a few votes. He is one of the county's best citizens, a son of the late M. C. Scott who lived for many years southeast of Gainesville.

Several years ago the Scott family moved to Sivelis Bend, where the elder Scott passed away and Dolphy still lives with his mother. He spent all his past life in this county and is known as an industrious, honest and capable citizen, a man his neighbor would support for any office. Fully

5 TEAMS INCLUDED ON ROLL OF LOCAL SOFTBALL CIRCUIT

Initial steps in the formation of a softball league for Muenster were taken on Wednesday night of last week when representatives of Bulcher, Hays, Marysville and Forestburg teams met with Paul Nieball, Herman Swirczynski, Rudy Hellman and Leo Henschel.

Word was received from Lindsay that attempts to enroll a full team were unsuccessful, hence the prospect of a league entry from that quarter were considered small.

Present indications are that the league will consist of six teams: Muenster, Hays, Bulcher, Forestburg, Marysville and another entry yet to be decided. Saint Jo is considered a likely prospect.

HIP AILMENT SENDS LEONARD ZIMMERER TO DALLAS DOCTORS

Leonard Zimmerer, a younger brother of Father Francis Zimmerer, was taken to the Carroll-Driver-Girard Clinic at Dallas Monday for a series of tests and X-rays to determine the nature of a hip ailment that has bothered him for some time. Father Francis, who accompanied his brother to the noted bone specialists, advised that the young man will remain there until Friday.

WOOL, TINFOIL AND STAMPS REQUESTED BY MISSION CIRCLE

A highly successful meeting in which a large array of mended and newly made garments were added to the Mother's Society Mission Club was held last Thursday afternoon in the Parochial school auditorium. Thirty-five ladies were present.

During the meeting it was decided that next month's meeting will be held on April 7, the first Thursday of the month, rather than the regular day, Thursday the fourteenth is Holy Thursday.

It was noted also that the five pounds of wool which the ladies requested as a donation toward a quilt had not been received. They are hopeful, however, that someone will answer their plea during the coming shearing season.

The ladies are also making requests for all the tinfoil and cancelled stamps that can be saved. These items, considered worthless by most people, have a distinct value in foreign missions. In saving stamps people are asked to save all the perforation by tearing or cutting off a good portion of the envelope with the stamp. Tinfoil was said to be more valuable when placed in sheets rather than rolled into balls.

An unusual donation eagerly accepted at the last meeting was an old trunk. It is regarded as ideal both for storing goods until the next shipment and for a shipping container.

SODALITY MEETING GETS LIVELY WITH LARGE ATTENDANCE

With an unusually large number of members in attendance the Blessed Virgin Sodality of the Muenster parish enjoyed a lively and successful meeting last Sunday afternoon.

One of the principal decisions of the group was to join the mission sewing circle, which is sponsored by and composed chiefly of ladies of the Mother's society. The circle meets once each month to sew and mend garments for missions.

Another activity adopted at the meeting is the saving of cancelled stamps and tin foil and the arrangement of scrap books from old Christmas greeting cards, all of which are to be forwarded to missions.

The sodality's participation in the annual parish picnic on Easter Monday was also considered. Plans to conduct a tango stand, the nature of the prizes, and the prizes to be made and donated by members were all discussed.

LADIES' SHOP, NEW STORE TO OPEN AT GAINESVILLE FRI.

Mrs. J. P. Goslin and Miss Ruth Craven, who during recent years have become well known through their association with the J. C. Penny store of Gainesville, have announced Friday, March 18 as opening day of their careers in a business of their own. Their store, known as "The Ladies' Shop," is located on the west side of the courthouse square in the building recently known as "The Boston Store."

A complete line of ladies' ready to wear, millinery, shoes, accessories, and a fascinating array of lovely piece fabrics are the featured items in this new store.

With a long back ground of experience and a wide acquaintance gained through their several years in previous connections, Mrs. Goslin and Miss Craven enter their new venture optimistic of winning recognition for their store as one of the leading ladies' stores of Gainesville.

For the past three weeks they have been occupied with interior changes, decorations, and the selection of their stock of merchandise.

COMMITTEE RUSHES PREPARATIONS FOR DRYING EQUIPMENT

When drying equipment will be installed in the Muenster cheese factory at the earliest possible date, it was decided by committeemen of that organization in their meeting Tuesday night.

On Wednesday C. J. Fette and J. W. Hess were making preparations to remove the boiler now in use and replace it with the greater capacity boiler recently purchased from the Gainesville water department, but which will not be released for a week or ten days pending arrival of new equipment to take its place at Gainesville.

Work now consists of making necessary connections to use the small emergency boiler at the plant and removing a section of wall so that the exchange of large boilers can be made.

Addition to the building for when drying space will follow installation of the boiler.

BETTER ROAD IS GOAL SET BY C-C GROUP

Will Invite Commissioners of Precincts to Help Plan Program

Better roads for Muenster and its surrounding territory was the outstanding subject of discussion when the Chamber of Commerce met last Thursday night in the school building.

As chairman of the roads and industry committee, Dr. T. S. Myrick stressed the urgent need of all weather roads in the Wolf Ridge community and the advisability of building a road south from Muenster, past the Linn school and connecting with the Butterfield Trail at Leo. This route was described as eventually extending to Decatur and cutting off almost 30 miles for livestock haulers driving to Fort Worth besides opening new trade advantages for communities in the south part of the county. In an attempt to work out practical plans, Dr. Myrick said, he will ask County Judge Ray Winder and Commissioners Felker and Bezner to attend the next meeting.

Father Francis Zimmerer, chairman of the religious, educational and recreational committee entered a plea for action in recovering several baseball suits that were appropriated by individuals when the Muenster Ollers became disorganized a few years ago. Business men, who had provided the equipment, stated it was for the official city team, not for individuals, and authorized the committee to demand the return of the suits.

A special measure of praise was directed toward the group who had succeeded in extending their original REA project from 173 to almost 700 consumers. Rural Electrification is one of the major objectives of the Chamber of Commerce and has had both the support and encouragement of that body even though the project originated outside its ranks.

Official recognition was given also to the community auction sale being held here on alternate Saturdays through the efforts of John Bayer. Increasing attendance at the event is thought to lead to large trade day gatherings in the near future.

Roy Endres was chosen chairman of the membership committee at an election to determine a successor for J. P. Flusche, who recently moved to Pilot Point.

In the future general Chamber of Commerce meetings will be held on the second Thursday of the month. The date for the next meeting is April 14.

NICK MILLER AND AL KLEISS ENTER RACE FOR TRUSTEE

Nick Miller and Al Kleiss are said to be the only candidates entered to date in the annual race for Muenster school trustee to fill the vacancy being created by the expiration of Joe Kathman's term.

With a campaign already under way, present indications are that the race will be easily the warmest that Muenster has witnessed in recent years.

CONCRETE CULVERT SOUTH OF CHURCH REPLACED BY DIP

After completing the 600 foot curb south of the church and school a little more than a week ago, C. M. Walterscheid and his crew built a curb at the Eberhart home.

Early this week they returned to the street south of the church to replace an inadequate culvert with a dip drain.

The change was made chiefly because the small drainage capacity failed to handle the large volume of water coming from the north end of Main Street. The culvert was unsatisfactory also in that it was higher than the sidewalk beside it and caused puddles of water to drain back on pedestrians' way.

Street commissioner Henry Fleitman supervised the work which was contracted by C. M. Walterscheid.

ANOTHER OPERATION

In another attempt to restore usefulness to the arm injured in his automobile accident last Summer, Ben Seyler submitted to an operation at St. Joseph's hospital in Fort Worth Tuesday afternoon. Assuming that no news is good news employees at the garage took it for granted Wednesday that Mr. Seyler is making normal progress.

THAT ROYAL FLUSH IS NO LONGER ROYAL

NEW YORK.—Head for the hills men, a royal flush is no longer royal—five of a kind is tops in poker.

Four American playing card companies, announcing Sunday they were manufacturing five-suit decks using a dark green spread-eagle as the pip for the fifth suit, gave out new poker valuations to go along with contract bridge rules for the sixty-five card deck.

The valuations are (hold your breath): five of a kind, straight flush, four of a kind, full house, flush, straight, three of a kind, two pair, one pair—in five card hands.

The companies said the eagle was used during the Civil War days when the regulation pips were replaced by all-American figures including the eagle and a shield.

COSTS MAN $313 TO CHANGE TIRE OF STALLED MOTORISTS

MARSHFIELD, Mo.—It cost Fred Wetzler, Cabool log buyer, $313 and some hard work when he stopped to change a tire for four stalled motorists six miles east of here Wednesday, Wetzler reported to Sheriff J. D. Johnson.

Wetzler was returning home from Tahlequah, Okla., when he stopped on Highway 66 to aid two men and two women. They offered him $1 to change the tire. He changed it. They handed him a $10 bill. When he took out his wallet to make change, they took his wallet and car, and he walked to Marshfield. His car was found later, a mile from where he was robbed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Federal income tax clerks don't know whether the man was kidding or not, but here's what they received in the mail from a taxpayer assessed $7.40:

"My salary was $400 a month.

"Somebody got my job, the finance company took my car, the bank took my home, my wife took all the furniture and somebody took my wife.

"All I have left is my health and education and I would be glad to have the opportunity to work out the bill in your department."

Uncle Sam doesn't have any such arrangement for paying taxes, so the man still owes the $7.40.

RICE LAKE, Wis.—A Rice Lake attorney who needs a maid of all work in his home doesn't believe in one taking the job without premeditation. He ran the following newspaper advertisement Sunday:

"Wanted — A maid for general housework; seven children, lots of noise, nothing to eat; husband, an Alderman, another business on the side, late at lunch as often as six times a week; position offers splendid opportunity for one wishing to gain experience as to management of private restaurant or small hotel, or possibly a day nursery. CORSICANA. — Chewing tobacco is being fed to Navarro County poultry flocks as a remedy for blue bugs and worms. Farm Security Administration fieldmen report a spread of the disease among families financed by the FSA, and the tobacco is successful in bringing about normal production again.

Hens are given a tobacco pill the size of a pea at night and in the morning on an empty stomach. This is repeated a week later. Though more expensive treatments are known, the chewing tobacco is very effective.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—An outlay of $65.50 once prevented a war, and a government employee apologized for spending it.

HE'LL BE PUT OUT IN TIME TO BEGIN SEASONAL OUTPUT

BALTIMORE, Md. — Magistrate Elmer H. Miller Friday suggested fifteen days would be about the proper jail term for Robert Doyle, 40, arraigned for vagrancy.

Doyle disagreed. He asked for—and got—thirty days.

The reason? Doyle is a gardener and, he explained, in thirty days spring will be here (he hopes) and he can find work.

FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE

While a deplorable state of affairs now threatens an upheaval that may eventually open the way for dreaded European "isms" church leaders on every side are begging for the one and only change that can return this nation or any other to a semblance of real freedom, security and happiness. Their plea, however, goes unheard because their message is so entirely different from the modern tendency to "take all the law allows."

Since nations and laws are concerned only with human beings it is plainly evident that the first and most important step in improving a country is to improve the integrity of its citizenship, to bring out the worthwhile traits that have ever been the characteristics distinguishing men from lower animals. Modern methods, in America as in most other so called civilized nations, seem to have a greater tendency to degrade man than to elevate him.

To explain that legislation and the artificial sedatives now being used by our national and local governments is inadequate, is superfluous. Open minded people can study hundreds of modern regulations and find that all of them fall short of realizing the benefits they promise. The fault is not in the law but in the people to which it applies. The greatest change, and the most difficult change, is yet to be made. People must experience an awakening of conscience so that they are willing to be regulated by what they themselves know to be right or wrong.

Philosophers of every age advise us to settle problems by going back to first principles. We accept this advice in recommending a new era of decency and honesty for the coming generation, with an eventual return to standards that the past few decades have permitted to be scrapped.

Decency was mentioned first because it is a fundamentally necessary trait for upright manhood. It is a sustaining virtue without which other virtues have only a remote chance of surviving.

How can the standard of decency be raised? By a very obvious disapproval from decent people of the present day disgusting prevalence of filth. Educators can substitute morality for their blather of advice on how to "avoid being caught." Legislators can discard their filthy proposals on birth control in favor of a plea for self control. Decent citizens can put pressure on magazine dealers who stoop to enrich themselves at the expense of youthful innocence.

There is a streak of common clay in every personality. The person who permits it to dominate himself forfeits all right to respect; the one who permits it to contaminate others brings irreparable injury to them and a terrible responsibility to himself.

While it is true that Christian nations must be alert to keep the flood of poisonous "isms" from the door, they must be mindful of the fact that their first and most important line of defense is Christianity.

OUR ROAD PROGRAM

Last week's Chamber of Commerce meeting contained what may become the nucleus of valuable improvements for Muenster and its neighbors. Leading in the plea for a better road program, Dr. T. S. Myrick explained the expediency of opening a new road to communities at the south end of the country and also of improving now existing roads in the Wolf Ridge territory.

Here is a program of vital importance to Muenster's continued expansion. All here are aware that native sons and daughters are occupying new outposts every year, many of them now living on farms that are considered outside the community. Within a few years they will not be Muenster people, unless the community is expanded to reach them.

This is where the importance of a better road system becomes evident. Muenster merchants do not want to lose the trade of their former patrons, Muenster farmers do not wish to see a decline in their trading center. Roads, no matter whose home they pass, will help everyone in the community.

Equally important is the prospect of opening a new trade territory. In every direction from Muenster there is a borderline fringe of residents who in the past found it more convenient and more profitable to do their trading in other places. With a good road leading to Muenster and good values offered by Muenster business men, many, perhaps a majority, of those borderline residents would come to consider this place as their business center.

Considering the background of progress our city has enjoyed in recent years we can easily imagine a steady growth of trade and industry to support our steady growth of population. This is a natural and desirable objective, one that deserves the constant and enthusiastic support of the entire community.

This year, election year, is a very appropriate time to think of opening new trade channels, or dredging a few that have been permitted to lose usefulness. The next few months is the time for campaign speeches from us voters to the candidates, especially those running for commissioners of the precincts north and south of Muenster. And the speech might be something on this order: "I intend to vote for the man who agrees to put Muenster roads in condition. And I intend to watch his activity on Muenster roads during his term of office."

SERVICE

The beloved Teddy Roosevelt is credited with this very worthy quotation: "The test of a man's worth to a community is the service he renders to it."

Any mention of accumulating a private fortune is conspicuously absent from that remark. Great men do not speak of success in terms of money. For them the only thing that counts is a pleasant life that brings comfort and security to themselves and their friends.

Those same great men will tell us that man is essentially a social being whose life is not complete unless intimately associated with the lives of fellow men. There are some, of course, who, like lone wolves, go their own way and ask only that others leave them be, but they are in the minority and miss the greater joys of living.

Friendship and comforts are usually regarded along with health as the most precious possessions of life. Both can be vastly increased by a spirit of community service. Common interests and common efforts bind people together with a more general understanding and a deeper sense of appreciation, and their combined activity results in improvements that are equally beneficial to all.

The fruits of community service are already apparent in Muenster's Rural Electrification project. Several friendships have become more intimate. Greater comforts, which no one person could have secured alone, are imminent because of co-operative service.

Other such opportunities are at hand. Let us accept them eagerly because they offer more fruits of community service.

Napoleon boasted that he never tried to make friends; that followers were of more importance. The result of that philosophy was what? Well, the most striking picture of Napoleon in existence is one of him standing alone, in exile, with an unhappy melancholy expression on his face.—Dale Carnegie.

If we can sustain a truly free and truly responsible press, democracy will survive against the bellowing of dictators.—Arthur Hays Sulzberger, New York Publisher.

What Others Have to Say--

"BACK DOOR" MALADY'S RAVAGES

Conservatively there are 6,500,000 persons in this country who have syphilis. Some estimates declare that the disease strikes one of every ten American adults. Contrasted with Sweden's rate of seven in every 100,000, that toll is appalling.

Yet syphilis, if properly treated and if treated early enough, can be made noninfectious. As a first step toward controlling the spread of the disease, physicians and public health workers everywhere are eager to reduce the infectious cases to a minimum.

Wide public education on the causes and cures of syphilis is essential to the attainment of this goal. The layman does not come naturally with an understanding of diseases, and yet all public health movements depend for their success upon public sympathy and understanding.

With proper public education, the rather complex aspects of syphilis will become common knowledge even as has the public's grasp of tuberculosis. But only when it does can a winning fight be waged against its inroads on the nation.

There is a hundred times as much syphilis as infantile paralysis, twice as much as tuberculosis, and more than scarlet fever. And while we pale with dread at so-called epidemics of any of the "parlor" diseases, this "back-door" scourge is taking a far greater toll.

Syphilis is held responsible for 10 per cent of all insanity, 18 per cent of all diseases of the heart and blood vessels, 15 per cent of all blindness, and accounts for most of the still-births and for the deaths of many infants during their first few weeks of life.

It will not be easy to conquer syphilis. That must be understood. But it can be conquered and will be conquered, if every individual in the country arms himself with the knowledge of its extent and its cure.—The Daily Texan.

WHAT MAKES A NEWSPAPER?

A mistaken idea with some people is that the newspaper is an individual proposition.

They do not realize that the local paper is as much a part of the community as the school, churches or anything else. The newspaper is different from any other business—it is a community affair. It is for the service of the people and not for any individual.

You may not like the editor and the editor may not love you any too well—but the paper he is responsible for does just as much for you as the services rendered others. There is nothing personal with it. It is here for a purpose—to do what good it can in every way it can, and the greater the support of those it undertakes to serve, the better service it can render.

It takes the people to make a good newspaper and without the help of the people no one can run a successful newspaper. It requires money to operate any kind of business—even the churches—and the papers are no exception, and for this reason they must have the financial support of the business interests as well as the good will.

Few newspapers make more than a comfortable living and scarcely any are reported rich from money made in the newspaper business. They deserve to be trusted and to be understood by the people, and a liberal patronage is necessary if the paper is to be a credit to the community.—Van Alstyne Leader.

HE WAS A BOY SCOUT

Homer M. Price, whose daily column in the Marshall Messenger is so rich with beautiful sentiment and sound logic, thus comments upon a personal observation made in his home city:

"Tim" Meddlin says: "The best things a good man does are not big things but just little nameless unremembered acts of kindness and love."

"I saw an illustration yesterday of what Tim says in the above. An old, old Negro woman hobbling along with a stick was starting to cross a street with the red light against her. Cars were coming from both directions and the old woman was scared and bewildered. A boy of about 13 saw the situation, rushed to her and safely escorted her across the street. I don't know the boy's name but at the Rotary Club yesterday the Boy Scouts put on a program and I saw the boy who helped the old woman was one of the Scouts."—San Marcos Record.

The French embassy at Austin is said to be the only building ever constructed on American soil by a foreign government.

An obstacle is some thing you see when you take your eyes off the goal you are trying to reach.

THE MOST AMAZING QUARTER-CENTURY IN TEXAS HISTORY

DURING the past quarter-century Texas has witnessed an amazing development of her vast resources and opportunities. Population has almost doubled. The volume of agricultural products has increased substantially. Mineral and oil products have increased in annual value from about $25,000,000 in 1912 to almost $600,000,000 in 1937. New wealth, added by manufacturing processes, has called for new payrolls, and has helped materially to bring the annual spendable income of Texans to the impressive total of more than two and three-quarter billions of dollars.

A Vital Stimulant to Progress

Dependable electric power service has been a vital stimulant to balanced development. In 1912, the Texas Power & Light Company was organized; and, in 1913, it built and put into operation the first high tension power transmission line in Texas. Thus began the pioneering of a service which has expanded to meet the needs of a greater Texas. Had it not been for the consistent expansion of this service during the past quarter-century, vast sources of new wealth might still be lying dormant as they had lain prior to the coming of this dependable, low-cost power service—abundant for all purposes.

To Those Who Had No Service

During this dynamic quarter-century the Texas Power & Light Company extended its service to 512 Texas communities of which 380 had not previously had electric service. Today, more than 40,000 rural and farm homes are served by this Company. Of the 512 communities, 478 have population of less than 2,500. Yet, Texas Power & Light Company brings to the people of this area a service which is not excelled even in the most densely populated areas of the nation, at an average cost to its customers lower than in many large eastern cities.

A Vigorous Community Asset

Texas Power & Light Company service is, however, more... far more... than the mere delivery of electric energy. It brings many vigorous aids to help round out the whole program of Better Living in the communities in which it operates. Its engineers and technical men advise and work with commercial and industrial establishments, helping them gain full advantage of their opportunities. It renders engineering service, planning service, technical service, specialized advisory service with respect to all uses of electricity in the home, in business, in industry, on the farm, and to the municipality.

Providing Cheaper Electricity

Today, the customers of Texas Power & Light Company enjoy a service which is not excelled anywhere... in any community, regardless of size or location. Lighting, cooking, refrigeration, sewing, cleaning, laundering, and many, many other services relieve drudgery and bring health, comfort, and convenience to the home. Yet, the cost of all these services is one of the smallest items in the family budget. In every other use, too, this service brings a value which greatly overshadows its cost. During the past ten years the cost of Texas Power & Light Service has gone down, and only down, despite rapidly changing and frequently rising costs of other items in the budget.

Truly, An Amazing Period

Yes, the past quarter-century has been an amazing one in the history of Texas. It is only an indication of the vast developments which lie immediately ahead. Tomorrow is filled with opportunities... Texas Opportunities... opportunities for great industrial achievements... for commercial and agricultural progress only hinted at in the past. The Texas Power & Light Company rededicates its intensely localized services to those communities in which it puts its shoulder to the wheel, with other citizens, to shape and build Better Living for all.

Those who assisted in finishing the quilt are: Mesdames Anna Wiese, Mathilda Hinzman, Lena Zimmerer, Augusta Bezner, Clara Dieter and Binz of Muenster.

DAUGHTER SEES FATHER AFTER ELEVEN YEARS

Lindsay.—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Alexander of Sacramento, California were the guests of the latter's father, John H. Theisen, Wednesday.

The visit held a special significance for Mrs. Alexander because it was the first time she saw her father since the observance of his 70th birthday anniversary eleven years ago. Mrs. Alexander is remembered by her friends as Regina Theisen of Muenster.

LADIES' SODALITY ORGANIZES STUDY CLUB AT LINDSAY

Lindsay.—As an aid to "know your religion better," and at the same time to carry out a wish of the Holy Father, members of the Young Ladies' Sodality organized a study club at their regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. Father Bonaventure, assistant pastor, who met with the girls, explained the functions of the club and the wealth of knowledge that can be drawn from attendance at the study periods.

Young ladies who have expressed their intentions of enrolling in the club are Misses Eirreda Bezner, Leona Berend, Frieda Kuntz, Lonia Gieb, Antonia Hundt, Magdalline Block, Rosalie Schmitz, Mary Bengfort, Mary Hermes and Otilia Fuhrmann.

Officers chosen at the meeting are Antonia Hundt, president; Leona Berend, vice-president and Magdalline Block, secretary.

The first meeting was set for Wednesday evening, March 16.

Confetti

By CON FETTE

Perhaps we Americans and Europeans are living in a false illusion of civilization. There is the story of an old cannibal who could not understand how foes in the World War were able to eat all the men they killed. When told that Europeans do not eat their victims the old man was horrified, and asked what sort of barbarians the Europeans were, to kill without any real object.

As though encouraging a more rigid observance of Lenten regulations a prominent columnist devoted his entire offering of a few days ago to the subject of fasting. But he was not treating his subject from the angle of spiritual dividends received from mortification. He was speaking of physical benefits—better health, and for many, a welcome saving in money that will be handy for other things.

Skip a meal, is this man's advice. While it is true that many a person engaged in hard work does not find such a plan practical, there are many whose activity demands only two meals a day. Those persons would find that the change would give them a new measure of energy and an appetite to make their food more enjoyable. As for the hard working fellows, who must be heavy eaters, the natural inference must be to eat a little less than they want. If a slight hunger is good for one class it must be good for another. Those who attend services in Muenster have often heard that regulations of the church care for man's physical as well as his spiritual health. A prominent man's opinion adds weight to testimony to that claim.

At the risk of antagonizing our lady friends we meekly submit the opinion of Anatole France that their shoes, and not only themselves, are responsible for much of their charm. The position of the feet upon the ground determine a lady's carriage, a very important part of her general appearance. So, in the opinion of Mr. France, the young lady who wishes to be attractive had better not forget her high heels, preferably heels that give her foot an angle of 35 degrees with the ground.

We hope that no one has gone so far as to pack his winter clothes away in moth balls. If so the chances are that there will be a few regrets Saturday. Rough weather on Saint Joseph's day has been traditional ever since the early years of this colony and, with March winds in full force, there is an excellent chance for a repetition of former conditions. Perhaps there will be another gale like the one an old timer described as raging "for 48 hours on St. Joseph's day." Nothing the weather man can do on that day would be surprising.

Something I found out only a few days ago but you probably knew it all along: A sheep can survive indefinitely without a drink of water, provided it is permitted to get out early and get a little dew with its early morning grazing. In this respect it holds an advantage over camels that can go several days without a drink but then need a half a barrel or so. You probably knew too that the humps on camels are mostly fat, reserve food storage from which the camel's digestive system draws if and when it is put on a forced diet. As the reserve food is used the humps begin to flatten out.

ST. JOSEPH FEAST TO BE OBSERVED AS PARISH HOLY DAY

In keeping with the traditional practice of observing St. Joseph's day, March 19, as a parish holy day, Father Frowin Koerdts announced the following schedule last Sunday as applying to that day: 6:15 low mass; 8:30 high mass and sermon; 3:00 The Way of the Cross, litany and benediction.

Early in the history of the Muenster colony St. Joseph was named the patron saint of this parish and

H. S. WILDE PLANS GAINESVILLE STORE FARM IMPLEMENTS

Announcement was made by H. S. Wilde this week that he is making preparations to open an Allis Chalmers agency at Gainesville in the very near future. The new business is to be run in connection with his local agency.

On Wednesday no definite decision had been made regarding the location Mr. Wilde will use, but it was stated that four places were being considered. Richard McAfee was named as the man probably to be placed in charge of the store.

Mr. Wilde spent a part of his time Tuesday in moving new farm tools to Gainesville from his Muenster stock.

TOUGH QUESTIONS TRIP KNIGHTS AT WEDNESDAY STUDY

Father Francis came prepared for the wise guys Wednesday night when he conducted the second of a series of religious problem contests as a special feature of the Knights of Columbus weekly study sessions for the purpose of imparting a more comprehensive general knowledge on religious subjects. Some of his questions were real teasers.

As in the first meeting contestants were eliminated until the winner was determined. In this week's contest the first prize, a missal, was awarded to Harry Fisher and the second, a rosary, was given to Ray Heitman.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH OF LINDSAY GETS ROOF REPAIR JOB

Lindsay.—For several days of the past week William Gruber and associates have been occupied by re-roofing the side aisle portions of St. Peter's Church. Their work consisted in removing the tiles and the old tar lining, spreading a new layer of tar paper and replacing the tile. The work was done under the personal supervision of August Schmidkofer, local carpenter.
