

If I am at all susceptible to the influence of the weather this should develop into a stormy column. For the elements are on a rampage. Continuous lightning and thunder with a driving rain. And now, just now, a few sharp reports on the roof — and more of 'em. That's right; hail. I hope it won't last. I especially hope it won't move down to Cooke County and add more punishment to the beating that crops have had through the winter.

As far as I am concerned personally, I feel luxuriantly comfortable. Rough weather always affects me that way — when I'm inside. Furthermore, I'm well pleased with my good fortune in getting here just before this started. Time out. Maybe this is a false alarm. The hail lasted only a few minutes and the rest of the storm is already calming down. Probably just an April shower.

Weather or no weather, this has been an eventful evening in its own right. I have had the satisfaction of ordering my uniform. To a certain extent that can be considered a part of the usual ordeal around here. Rush and wait and hope you'll find what you need. Just imagine the congestion when some 400 men have to be outfitted every week by six or eight stores. Actually, that happens mostly on Saturday afternoon and night. The only opportunity we have of getting away.

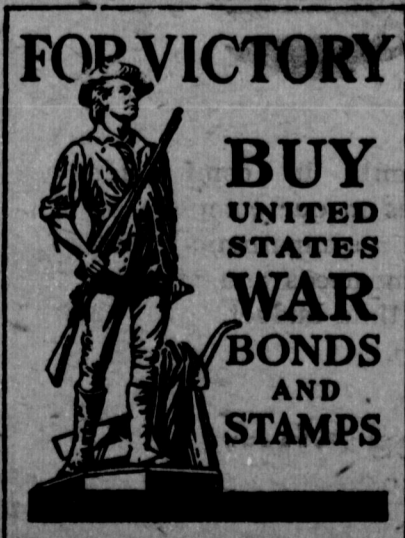

If some of the big moguls up the line want to win the eternal gratitude of millions of soldiers they can do something to remedy this hurry and wait situation. I refer to such cases as rushing clothes to the cleaners and waiting in line for 30 minutes before reaching the counter. At the barber shop you wait another hour or so. The PX is so crowded that you have to force your way in and out. Likewise it's wait an hour or two for buses or cabs to town. And once you get there you find every place jammed with soldiers. However, there are hours and hours every day when barbers are reading comic magazines, buses are running almost empty, PX's and downtown stores have no customers at all. Definitely, the army has a need for staggered schedules so that everybody will not be trying to do the same thing at the same time.

But getting back to the uniforms. To me it was a completely new experience. Never before have I picked out such an array of clothing at any one time. It runs into money, too. Uncle Sam expects his officers to be living examples of what the well-dressed soldier wears. Which is alright by us, as long as he continues to dish out that 250 dollar uniform allowance with each commission. Seems like a lot of money to drape over your back, doesn't it? However there's little if any of it left by the time the wardrobe is brought up to standard.

This is Sunday morning (current last night interrupted this dissertation a few lines above) and it's a beautiful day. Just what a person hopes for after a Spring shower. In general, conditions like this are making our work more interesting than it used to be. No more of that miserable shivering on a black hill crest in sub-freezing winds. We've changed the scene to greenery, blossoms, flowers, birds and deer. It was Thursday that we came upon a herd of fawns romping around the hillside. They are tame here. Apparently used to soldiers but not molested by nimrods. Probably also smart enough to keep away from rifle and artillery ranges.

These changes may explain in part why the tension in this course seemed to relax a great deal during the past week. A greater percentage of our time is taken up in field demonstrations and RSOP's (reconnaissance, selection and occupation of position — the army also goes in for a share of alphabetical nomenclature). During the next ten days we're to have even more on it.

Scholastic work this week was featured by three exams. Passing marks in two of them and probably also in the third, thanks to the G-2 system. By way of explanation (Continued on page 8)

Muenster Has New Industry Insect Spray Is Manufactured At Local Refinery

Another industry for Muenster, the manufacture of fly and insect spray, this week joins the parade of other local businesses. The product is being manufactured at the Muenster Refinery, and its trade name is Fly Blitz.

The story behind the history of Fly Blitz is an interesting one. The idea was born almost a year ago, and since that time, John Ezell, manager of the plant, has improved, tested and perfected the solution until today it is ready for the market—a quick knock-down, high-kill and outstanding repellent.

Minor changes were made in the fractionating column at the plant and the petroleum base was re-run until an ideal carrier base for a spray was derived. To this base killing toxin was added.

Old and un-used equipment has been converted into bottling works and at the present time labeling is done by hand.

The product has been thoroughly tested not only locally but also in numerous army camps, warehouses, dairies, stores and homes throughout North and East Texas and in each instance it has been given the highest recommendations.

The use of Fly Blitz results in rapid and effective control of insect pests without damage to furniture, clothes, rugs, wallpaper and food. It is a vital factor in sanitation.

Fly Blitz is available in bulk and small containers at the refinery and in small sized bottles at all local stores.

"At this time, due to war conditions, the business is operating on a small scale," it was stated.

"However, enough will be manufactured to take care of all local need this year and some of it will find its way outside the community and county."

After the war, manufacture will reach a high scale. At that time the necessary machinery for bottling and labeling will be available and the killing toxin, much of which is being used by the government now, will be available in quantities sufficient to meet demands.

Fly Blitz is a product of which Muenster can definitely be proud. It has been given rigid tests and has stood them. It is an industry which will mean much to this community's already enviable record.

A full-page ad further describing this new product appears in this newspaper. We urge our readers to read this advertisement.

UPPER ELM-RED SOIL GROUP MEETS

The Board of Supervisors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District held their regular monthly meeting Thursday, April 8, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The chief item of business was the discussion of ways to secure more widespread use of conservation practices and proper land use to enable farmers to meet their war production goals and at the same time preserve their good soil.

The Board further voted to send a letter of condolence to Mrs. J. Oscar Aldridge, widow of the late district supervisor.

GORDON SHAY AND ORCHESTRA TO PLAY ON EASTER MONDAY

Gordon Shay and his orchestra of Wichita Falls will be on hand at the parish hall to provide music for the Easter Monday dance. Mrs. Folk Becker, president of the Mother's Society, the sponsor group, advised this week.

Other plans for a banner celebration are also in progress, she said. Kiddies and oldsters alike will have plenty chance for games, hamburgers, cold drinks and dozens of other features of a picnic.

Members of the Young Ladies' Sodality are reminded this week to bring their tango prizes, Mrs. Becker added.

KATY CHANGES TIME

A change in the arrival of the westbound Missouri-Kansas-Texas passenger train No. 33 became effective Sunday, April 11. It arrives here now at 11:10 instead of 12:44 as it did formerly. The new schedule will improve the through service Henry Steizer, local agent, said affording a through connection from Saint Louis with the Texas Special. There will be no change in the evening train schedule.

John Zimmerer, 62, of Lindsay, Died Saturday Morning

Funeral Services Are Conducted Monday From Saint Peter's Church

John Zimmerer, 62, retired Lindsay farmer and resident of that community for 41 years, passed away at his home northwest of the city at 9:30 Saturday morning following a lingering illness.

For the past two years Mr. Zimmerer had been bed fast and though he was subject to severe suffering he never complained, bearing his affliction with real Christian fortitude. Relatives and friends who visited him were impressed by his cheerful attitude and his patience.

Local Bond Sales For March Total $12,905

Muenster citizens purchased $12,905.25 worth of war bonds and stamps in March, 1943, according to official tabulations released by J. M. Weinzapfel of the Muenster State Bank on Saturday. Of this amount the bank sold $10,175 worth in bonds and the post-office $2,730.25 in bonds and stamps.

Adding the January and February purchases Muenster's total for the first three months of 1943 is $49,341.65.

Bob King, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Eileen King, of the Linn community, received several broken ribs Saturday when he fell from a horse he was riding.

Local Sales Are $23,000 First Day

Cooke County Quota Is $560,000; Muenster Will Raise $50,000 In 3 Week's Campaign

The second war bond drive, in which the goal is 13 billion dollars in sales, got underway Monday and the first day in Muenster showed a remarkable beginning, according to J. M. Weinzapfel, local chairman.

The county's quota amounts to $560,000 of which Muenster's pro rata share is $50,000.

Assisting Mr. Weinzapfel in the drive are voluntary workers, including H. P. Hennigan, Paul Nieball, F. J. Hess, Rudy Hellman, John Kreitz, J. W. Fisher and R. R. Endres. These workers will take the field to sell their neighbors war bonds.

Every city, town and community in the United States, and every citizen, is expected to do his part in the purchase of bonds. This is the biggest war bond campaign ever staged in the world. The drive will last three weeks. The astounding sum of thirteen billion dollars must be raised to support American armies that are now attacking the enemy. An offensive army requires ammunition and materials that cost staggering sums of money.

Muenster's quota, though quite a sizeable amount, is no larger than any other town or city of equal population in the United States. It is up to every town to meet that quota.

It is no small task and will require great effort and sacrifice by many to accomplish it. The county goal of $560,000 means that every man woman and child who normally make up the population must purchase a $25 bond.

Many will not be able to purchase that amount for every member of the family, and so, many others will have to invest two, three or even four times as much in Government securities.

An important thing about the drive, it was mentioned, is that if there are war stamp books about the house partially filled, enough stamps should be bought to fill these books and turn them in for bonds. Stamps count little toward the campaign unless books are filled and exchanged for bonds.

Something else important is to purchase all bonds in Cooke County. A citizen living on the edge of an adjoining county who makes his purchase in that county helps it reach its goal but does not contribute toward the Cooke County goal. Therefore it is urged that all Muenster citizens make their purchases locally, either at the Bank or the Postoffice. Bonds are credited to the county in which they are purchased.

On display at the Muenster State Bank is a thermometer which records the progress of the drive. The red line goes up in accordance with the amount of freedom securities purchased.

According to the report started Monday, Muenster plans to send that red line over the top. In this, the greatest financing drive in history, the slogan is, "They Give Their Lives — You Lend Your Money", and Muenster is striving to surpass the quota. It has been done in the past in every drive that was participated in. No less can be done this time.

YES — WHAT?

There was quite a bit of commotion in the neighborhood of Johnny Sicking last week one evening when the Sicking's three-year-old son, Jerry, was missing. It was 9:30.

After searching all over the house and yard the almost frantic parents asked neighbors to help in the hunt.

A short time later Jerry was found contentedly roaming the field some distance from home. When he looked over the delegation that had been searching for him his only comment was, "What are you-all doing out in the field this time of the night?"

Leo Felderhoff is able to get around without the aid of crutches which have been assisting him to school for the last several weeks. He sustained a severe gash on his left leg when he was kicked by a cow while milking.

Lethane -- Thanite

Fifteen years ago an outstanding American Chemical Company started to develop a synthetic organic insecticide made wholly from raw materials produced in America. Out of their research Lethane was born in 1930, and with each intervening year its merit has been more fully established.

As the foremost synthetic organic insecticide on the American market Lethane stands ready today to relieve, in large measure, the shortage in botanicals, which has been created by the war.

This is another example of how American industrial research and development, carried out in years past, comes to the aid of the American people in these critical times. Lethane is added to all FLY BLITZ sprays. In addition Thanite, a synthetic organic insecticide manufactured by Hercules Powder Company is added to FLY BLITZ.

Spray

When Used As Directed

Guards The Home

The killing toxin used in FLY BLITZ sprays is playing an important role in the disinfection of the home. Its use results in rapid and effective insect control without damage to furniture, rugs, stored clothing, wallpaper and food.

FLY BLITZ sprays control flies, mosquitoes, bed bugs, weevils, lice and other insects commonly found.

In the home, on farms, in food processing plants, in dairies, ware houses, in fact wherever insect control is needed, FLY BLITZ sprays are effectively at work. They'll stay on the job.

Guards Stored Foods

Many days after bags containing grain are sprayed with FLY BLITZ, common warehouse insects coming in contact with those bags will be killed. This lasting killing power of FLY BLITZ sprays, together with their complete and immediate effectiveness, is an important safeguard for vital stored foods.

By controlling food-destroying pests such as the confused flour beetle, the grain moth and the granary weevil, FLY BLITZ sprays are contributing directly to the war effort.

Guarding stored foods is one of the many vital services performed by FLY BLITZ made with America's outstanding synthetic organic insecticide.

Guards American Dairies

The killing toxin used in FLY BLITZ sprays is more widely used in live stock sprays than any other insecticidal ingredient. This is because it provides quick knock-down, high-kill, and outstanding repellency at low cost.

The Government is urging dairymen to surpass their 1942 record output of milk products. FLY BLITZ sprays are playing an important part in this effort. A vital factor in sanitation, they also protect the animals and save time by freeing cows and men from fly annoyance.

The killing toxin in FLY BLITZ sprays, the first and outstanding synthetic organic insecticide, is at work controlling insect pests on farms, in food processing plants, in dairies, warehouses, factories and homes.

Your Health

BY GEO. W. COX, M. D.
 Texas State Health Officer

Austin, Texas.— Commending the patriotic spirit shown by thousands of Texans who are enthusiastically raising victory gardens, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, declared today that health insurance is included in the crops which will be harvested.

"Point rationing will not be too much of a hardship for the family with a garden," Dr. Cox said. "Using greater quantities and varieties of fresh vegetables in the menu will make for better health conditions in general."

Dr. Cox stressed the fact that malnutrition can lead to serious illness, such as beri-beri, rickets, scurvy and pellagra, and that it will certainly result in a lowering of vitality and capacity to work.

"Carrots, beets, lettuce, onions, greens and all other fresh vegetables supply needed vitamins to the daily diet," Dr. Cox said. "In addition to the beneficial outdoor exercise resulting from the gardening, every individual with a victory garden can be assured of a healthful, well balanced diet."

"You can supply all your nutrition requirements, and your health need not suffer, if you can supplement your meat allowance with a pleasing and healthful variety of fresh garden vegetables."

FOOD FOR FREEDOM

THIS IS ABOUT MILK
Cooke County could reach its milk goal for 1943, if every cow yielded an additional one-fourth pint per day. In other words, the average daily production per cow must be increased from 10.4 pounds to 10.9 pounds of milk. On a yearly basis, the milk production per cow must be raised from 3,140 to 3,270 pounds.

It will not be possible to increase the number of cows in Texas in 1943 since more than the usual number of milk cows were slaughtered in 1942 because of the labor shortage and other handicaps. That means, then, that all the increase must come from the cows now being milked.

To get the increased production of milk per cow necessary to meet the 1943 goal, the dairyman should:

1. Feed more roughage. This means hay, pasture and silage.
2. Feed a grain mixture suited to the roughage.
3. Feed grain mixture according to production. Three pounds per gallon of milk.
4. Milk at regular intervals. Milk rapidly and completely.
5. Provide good clean warm water for cows in cold weather and good clean cool water in hot weather.
6. Protect cows from extreme heat and cold.
7. Control lice and grubs.

A dangerous practice of smoking in bed is leaving a record of death the destruction.

Buy Bonds TODAY

For Things You Want Later

Patriotic citizens are investing every dollar possible in United States War Bonds and Stamps.

Thus they are helping to supply the 1 1/2 billion dollars Uncle Sam needs to run the War for just one week. And they are building a reserve to provide funds for a new home, for that new automobile or something else they want after the War is over and critical materials are again available for civilian needs.

Make your dollars fight today... buy the things you want tomorrow.

gram "A Day in Spring" was beautifully rendered by the glee club, under the direction of Sister M. Geraldine.

Juanita Weinzapfel accompanied all the songs and dances at the piano.

After the program, Father Richard gave a very brief talk commending the class and glee club for their hard work and excellent performances.

SOFT-BALL GAME

Sacred Heart High boys were again victorious in their softball game with the public school last week. The final score was 5 to 6. A game with Lindsay has been scheduled for this week.

WAR STAMP DRIVE

A new War Stamp Drive was undertaken last week. We are pleased with the results, but COME ON! Let's have more this week.

TIN CANS COLLECTED

A large collection of tin cans can be seen on the school grounds. The drive was begun last week after Mr. O'Brien, the county superintendent, visited the school and gave a short pep talk to the student body.

BOOKS ARRIVE

After patiently waiting for several months, the Book A Month Club Books finally arrived. Due to the war, it was impossible for the Club to have the books printed earlier.

Evelyn Wiesman attained her sixty words a minute in typing this past week.

SNOOPING

According to Webster's Dictionary, the word "snoop" means to look or pry in a sneaking manner. Now we wouldn't describe ourselves as sneaky but we are inquisitive. As someone once said, "The Snoopers are cute unless they have something on me".

First Year Latin Class was in progress and Tommy Otto was reading. He came to the word NECABIT (which should be pronounced ne-ca-bit) and he read nee-a-bit. The Freshmen laughed and laughed. Don't feel bad Tommy we know you didn't mean it. Or did you?

In Geometry class: Teacher—"Do you have the answers written in your book?"

Ruben: "No, just underlined".
Sis and Gladys had an unexpected call during shorthand class on April 2. It's too bad your plans did not work. I'm sure you would have enjoyed yourselves.

Now that the Freshmen's Victory Garden is growing, we saw three freshmen out with hoses during recess the other morning. It could be that they are having trouble with weeds.

MUESTER PUBLIC SCHOOL

The typing classes have been doing very well with their work. Dorothy Nell, Cornelia, Lorene Lutkenhaus, and Florentine, all of whom began in the fall, are making 30 to 35 words a minute on 10 minute speed tests in the class that began in December. Thelma, Katherine, Arnold, Bill

Hamilton, and J. L. are making from 25 to 35 words on one minute tests.

The conservation class has finished its text book. The students are now working on projects, scrapbooks and subjects pertaining to conservation.

The P.-T. A. program last week was especially interesting. Miss Luke's room had a short play and song about a sick dolly. Miss Wiedemann summarized several means of "Conservation on the Home Front". Dorothy Nell spoke on "Medicine and Chemistry." Julius Stelzer told of "New Discoveries in Medicine." Billie Hoehn told of several ways to improve "Public Health".

The boys are working hard practicing soft ball. They have had several good games with the Parochial school. We all like the spirit of good sportsmanship and comradeship developing between the schools.

Mrs. Kine and Mrs. Burchfiel took the 5, 6, 7, and 8 grades on a picnic Monday afternoon. Everyone had a good time and only a few minor accidents like sticker burrs and burned weiners marred the trip.

The algebra class had begun to worry about state tests. Wonder why the English class is muttering "Friends, Romans, Countrymen"? The Texas history class all made in the 90's on the six weeks test — Wonder how?

Scraps may come and scraps may go but scrap metal is needed for the duration. Give it now!

This Dinner-Table War

Is Your Family in Fighting Trim?

OF COURSE it's more trouble to feed a family in wartime!... That's what war is: trouble. But even so, aren't America's dinner tables banquets, compared with those in the other nations that are fighting to save mankind's freedom? That's why American women can swing market baskets and count ration points, and think nothing of it. They are helping to win. And in this war, we win or we die.

Gas Ranges Simplify Nutrition

If you take good care of your modern Gas Range, it can feed your family for years and years. Put it through its paces. Use the simmer-burners, for instance, for flawless vegetables; the thermostat-control for correct baking and roasting; the smokeless broiler, on ball-bearings, for sizzling foods in their own juices. Follow a Nutrition Guide. Even with war restrictions, you can have good-tasting meals that guard the health and good looks of your family.

FREE: Canning Booklet

(Wartime Edition)

Ready for you at your Lone Star Gas Company offices, telling how to put up Vegetables, Fruits and Meats. Pictures and charts throughout. Special recipes, from Hominy and Sauerkraut, to Berry Jam made with corn syrup.

NOTICE to Lone Star customers in towns that have no company offices: Please send a postal for your Canning Booklets, to Miss Albertine Berry, Lone Star Gas Company in Dallas.

LAMB PIE

Wartime version.
As seen in the casserole above.
More vegetables and less lamb.

- 1 Pound lamb shoulder, cut in cubes, rolled in seasoned flour
- 2 Tbsp. bacon drippings
- 2 Onions
- 3 Cups boiling water
- 1 Bay leaf

- 1 Cup diced potato
- 1 1/2 Cups peas
- 1 1/2 Cups carrots, sliced
- 1/2 Cup chopped celery

Biscuit dough

Brown the cubes with onion, in bacon fat; pour off fat and add boiling water. Cover and simmer slowly 1 1/2 hours. Add vegetables for the final 30 minutes of cooking.

Taste, to be sure it's seasoned right, then transfer to a casserole. Place tiny baking-powder biscuits on top, and bake until biscuits are brown. Makes a fine main dish for 6.

Are you giving your worn-out kitchen fats to the Government?

Strain through fine mesh into metal container. Keep in cool place. Rancid fat makes fewer bullets. Sell to butcher when you have one-pound or more.

THE 2nd WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

America...you've got to get tougher!

A MERICA — Let's be frank about it . . . so far, many of us back home have been fighting this war from an easy chair. Many of us have bought War Bonds out of extra cash, out of money we didn't miss too much. We haven't been really tough with ourselves.

But this war is a hard, down-to-reality war. And many of our boys are dying in it.

We've got to buy MORE

So your government asks you to buy Bonds and more Bonds—to get really tough with yourself. We're asking you to give up the frills and "extras."

We know how human it is not to make sacrifices until the crisis drives us to it. In England they felt the same way until the bombs started falling.

Bombs are such persuasive things. But just as persuasive ought to be the spirit of our brothers, sons, husbands.

If you could see

Look at it this way—suppose you had a magic carpet that could take you to Africa and New Guinea. Suppose you could hear the groan of American boys wounded, and American boys dying. . . . Say now, how many Bonds would you buy?

That kind of war

THEY . . . are dying. And they will keep on dying until we drown the enemy in an overwhelming torrent of bombs, bullets, guns, tanks, planes, ships, and shells.

That's why we're asking you, in this one month of April alone, to lend Uncle Sam 13 billions of dollars—by buying War Bonds. 13 billions of extra dollars—over and above any buying that you'd be doing anyway!

A lot of money

Of course, 13 billion dollars is a lot of money. It'll take sweat and tears to raise it. It'll mean going without now. But also—it will mean savings now—to buy later. It'll mean giving up everything you can't square with your conscience, so that we, us, our children, can have a better, more decent place to live in when this war is won.

The drive is on

So during this month of April, if someone calls on you to ask you to buy War Bonds in this 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE, will you buy to the limit—and then buy more?

Better yet, will you go to your Bank, Post-office, or wherever you're used to buying your Bonds—and buy NOW? Will you lend extra money this month? Money that can hasten the day of Victory? Money that can help to save American lives.

Money buys money

Remember, what you're really buying with your money is still more money. For after all, these Bonds are money! Money plus!

Every dollar you put into War Bonds will bring you a dollar plus interest.

So the more Bonds you buy the better for you. Americans — Get Tough — with yourselves — for your country.

UNITED STATES TREASURY WAR FINANCE COMMITTEE --- WAR SAVINGS STAFF --- VICTORY FUND COMMITTEE

CONSERVATION OF BIRD LIFE IS TOPIC AT GARDEN MEET

"Nature's weapons are not always visible, but they are as critical as any that spout flame and smoke," Miss Olivia Stock said in addressing the Civic League and Garden Club at its regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon. Her topic was "Conservation of Bird Life".

There are 1400 species of birds in the United States, 800 of which are found in Texas, and the discussion brought out the part these feathered friends are playing in the war effort.

The faithful carrier pigeon was listed. When all other lines of communication are smashed feathered flight with strategic orders can be depended upon to come through. Likewise, the woodpecker frees forests of destroying ants and beetles, and trumpeter swans eat water vegetation, which if clogged, would hamper vital transportation. Birds also eat weed seeds, which if permitted to grow, would choke off war crops, the discussion revealed. An over-hunted land will not yield the weapons for victory, it was pointed out.

Numerous ways to conserve this wild life were listed and habits and characteristics of birds were mentioned.

Mrs. Jake Pagel was the other speaker on the afternoon's program. She told members what to do in their flower and victory gardens this month.

Business Session

During the business session, over which Mrs. Joe Luke, president, presided, an interesting report on cemetery work was given by Chairman Miss Mary Becker. She announced that the recent collection amounted to $271.21 and thanked all who contributed to the cause. Shrubbery has been trimmed and will be sprayed in the near future, she announced, and a few small cedars will need replacing. Twelve more curbs have been removed during the past few weeks and all foot markers have been leveled so as not to interfere with the mower. Several loads of ground for grave fill-ins have been hauled and in the near future marigolds will be planted along the walk from the entrance to the center monument it was reported. The hedge from the church to the cemetery has also been trimmed and the trees painted with lime.

Mrs. Jim Cook told of work being done by the defense committee and advised that 120 yards of materials are on hand to be cut and made into garments for the Red Cross. This will be begun after Easter she said.

She read a letter from T. G. C. Russi of Camp Howze thanking her and other members of the League for the lovely set of curtains which were made for a day

ENTERPRISE WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD, SAYS SEABEE IN S. PACIFIC

"Although it doesn't arrive too regularly and a little late, when it does get here, the Muenster Enterprise is worth its weight in gold," so says H. A. Bezner, MM 1-C, writing from a South Pacific Island. The letter, posted on April 4, arrived on April 11, via air mail.

Hugo mentions that it was through the Enterprise that he was able to have his friend, Clarence "Dutch" Metzler, also of Lindsay, come over to visit him one day. Except for the first time he saw his brother, Raymond, on the same island, that was the happiest day he has spent since leaving the states, he said.

He gives an interesting account of the natives, their customs and habits. The men buy their wives—some bringing quite a price. The only ceremony is the pay-off to the girl's parents. He has also witnessed a native war dance.

He tells of attending Mass kneeling besides natives, about one-fifth of whom are Catholic. Quite a number of them speak fair English. They are very dark skinned with frizzy hair. Some of the women shave their heads.

Hugo is with the Seabees and says they are getting plenty to eat. Almost entirely canned foods. They've had fresh eggs twice and beef, pork and potatoes some eight or ten times. Cigarettes are always plentiful. Recently picture shows made their appearance and athletic equipment has been received.

"Mail means more than anything to men out here," he adds, and asks that his best wishes be extended to everyone at home.

Hugo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bezner and has been stationed overseas since September. His parents will be happy to give his address to anyone who wishes to write to him.

ation, G-2 is the designation given that department of a general staff which handles intelligence data. Our G-2 file consists of examinations taken by former classes. Quite a variety presenting a multitude of questions. By getting 'em down pat we're set for at least part of the coming exam. Incidentally, it's the only possible system. There aren't enough hours to review the hundreds of pages we romp through in our classes.
Obviously the purpose here is to give us a few fundamentals and introduce us to the manuals we will frequently have to consult later. We don't get tactical formulas. There aren't any because in every case the decision will depend to a great extent on the prevailing situation. That's why instructors as well as students like to quote:
"Here lie the bones of Lt. Jones, A graduate of this institution. In his first fight He went out like a light Using the school's solution."
