NUMBER 7

James G. Watt, secretary of the Interior, is Number 1 on the hit list of environmental cranks of the country. The reason they are screaming for his scalp is that they disapprove of his policies in managing the public lands. After the abuse he has been enduring, it is gratifying lately to see him getting better treatment.

One pleasing sign was the endorsement he received a few weeks ago from the board of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association. These down-to-earth farmers and ranchers like his policy of using natural resources to enhance national progress and security, as well as to preserve natural beauty for the enjoyment of posterity.

The unanimous resolution of the stockmen noted that, for the first time in decades, the Interior Department has a secretary trying to fulfill the mandate of the President and the majority of people for preservation, proper management and multiple use of public lands held in trust by his department.

TSCRA also pointed to the deteriorating park system under previous secretaries who allowed land-hungry bureaucrats to acquire useless lands for more parks when the existing system suffered from poor management. Watt's effort to curb this situation was praised, and so was his plan for "an orderly and proper multiple use of existing facilities where oil, gas, water and strategic minerals await development vital to our nation's growth and security."

Similar high regard for Watt was expressed by Edwin Fuelner of the Heritage Foundation following an appearance of the secretary before a meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors. As he says, "after just a few minutes of hearing Jim Watt espouse the common sense conservatism which initially attracted President-elect Reagan, the gross caricature of a disturbed man hell-bent on a mission of environmental destruction easily melts away."

Watt's statement to the editors presents an attitude that has been observed by comparatively few people. He said that almost a year ago the American public gave Ronald Reagan a mandate involving three elements: restore the national stature, remedy our ailing economy, and strengthen national security, and Watt feels that his duty is inextricably intertwined with that mandate. He reasons that "to be good stewards of our national resources...to protect the environment...we must have a strong economy. To have a strong economy, we must not only protect natural resources but make wise use of them. Failure to develop resources adequately also means that we as a nation will be lacking in national security."

The secretary is forceful in presenting facts and logic to support his contentions. He claims that proper management of resources will go far in easing dependence on foreign nations for roughly 40 percent of our crude oil needs, as well as strategic mineral requirements now ominously met by the Soviets and the unstable African countries.

Watt continues that without proper management...the ability to strike that delicate balance between extreme preservationism and negligent radical exploitation...a political and economic crisis can develop which will cause

Smoke pours from the burning home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hoedebeck Tuesday afternoon as Muenster Volunteer Firemen arrive on the scene. Damage was extensive to one of the bedrooms, where the blaze began and several other rooms received smoke and heat damage. No one was home at the time of the fire.

Damages heavy in residential fire

Jim Hoedebeck and Al Schmitt shared extensive damage in a fire Tuesday. Hoedebeck sustained heavy losses in furnishings and clothing, Schmitt sustained losses to the building. None of the family was at home at the time, and the cause is unknown.

Lynn Huchton reported the fire at 2:30 p.m. and Muenster firemen were there in moments. With doors and windows closed, flames were confined to one room, however dense smoke and intense heat spread to the other rooms, the heat being sufficient to melt plastic articles.

Flames were quickly brought under control confining fire and water damage to the one room. Other rooms remain structurally sound with smoke damage only. However heat and smoke damage to furniture, clothing and appliances was extensive. A TV, stereo, refrigerator, living room and bedroom suites are lost, along with bed clothes and about two-thirds of the family's clothes. A number of things can be salvaged after intensive work to remove smoke and odor.

The community is mobilizing to help in the emergency. A shopping cart has been set out at the Ben Franklin Store where friends can leave clothes and household items. The two daughters, age 7 and 12, use size 10 and ladies' size 16. Along with other things they lost all of their Christmas gifts and toys.

More help is on the way from Sacred Heart Parish. Father Denis announced that a special collection will be taken up for the family at next Sunday's masses. And Jaycees have offered to pick up and deliver items. People who have clothing and things to spare are asked to notify the Jaycees.

The family has since moved into the Henry Luke Estate house at 215 N. Oak.

The Eagle insignia is pinned on the uniform of James Bright by his mother Juanita, as his father David Bright observes, during the Sunday ceremony.

James Bright reaches Eagle rank

Amid the formalities of traditional Boy Scout ritual, James Bright was admitted Sunday to the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank attainable in the Boy Scout program.

The ceremony was held in Sacred Heart Church in the presence of his family and a group of friends and Scout dignitaries and was followed by a reception in the Bright home.

A special feature of the ceremony is that it included four brothers and three cousins of the honoree, all Eagle Scouts. Sam Bright was master of ceremonies, David, Joseph, and Thomas bright, along with Ronnie Weinzapfel had parts in the presentation; Andy and Jonathon Birden of Denton were escorts.

The event opened with a procession of participants as Stephen Vogel, Kevin Wolf and Kirk Klement carried flags. Then Sam Bright reviewed the path followed in heeding the Call of the Eagle. Tenderfoot Allen Hudspeth appeared as a reminder of the first step of scouting. As the narration continued Allen was followed by Mike Walter, second class; Ronnie Walterscheid, first class; Mikael Fette, Star Scout; and Craig Stoffels, Life Scout.

Bruce Schneider, Eagle

Award Chairman of the Butterfield Trail District of the Longhorn Council, then spoke briefly, referring to the occasion as one of pride and joy, the culmination of a long record of effort and achievement.

The chairman then called upon the Court to come forward and verify the candidate's fitness for the Tom Crawford, present February 1. Seven county offices are to be filled in this election. In addition to county judge, they are county clerk, now held by Frank Scoggin; county treasurer, held by Irene Bryant; district attorney, held by Phil Adams; Precinct 4 commissioner, held by Robert Bayer; Precinct 2 commissioner held by Kenneth Alexander; and justice of peace, being vacated by Crawford.

Some of the incumbents are reported to have indicated their intention to seek re-election, however they have not notified the Enterprise.

Hike expected on local cable TV charges

An increase in the base rate for TV cable service in Muenster appeared probable Monday night when Alvin Fuhrman of North Texas Communications appeared before the city council asking for the hike. He explained that inflation and rising costs are reasons for the requested increase from $6 to $8 a month, and added that improvements now planned may later up the price to $9.95 a month.

The council postponed the request to its February meeting and asked Fuhrman to submit a proposed ordinance for consideration.

The city council also postponed action on a proposal by Texas Power and Light Co. Larry Kinard, local representative, asked the city to relinquish its original jurisdiction over rates. The understanding was that the city would abide by Public Utility Commission decisions rather than take part in rate discussions. In limited discussion the council favored retaining its involvement but decided to postpone the subject until the next meeting.

Kinard also presented an application to suspend the requirement to approve adjustments in the fuel cost factor of the rate schedule. A 120 day suspension was granted to allow study by the council and the PUC.

In other business the council had its second reading on an ordinance to establish charges for overdue library books.

And Sam Endres, Vincent Felderhoff and Earl Fisher were reappointed to the zoning board, subject to their acceptance.

City petitioned to order bingo election

A petition for an election to legalize bingo in Muenster was submitted to the City Council at its meeting Monday night. It was accepted subject to a review to determine whether it meets requirements of the law, with special attention to the number of qualified voters endorsing the request.

The law states that only qualified voters may sign the petition, also that the number of eligible signers must be at least 10 percent of the number voting in the last election of the governor.

If the petition is in order the city council at its next meeting will order the bingo election along with the regular city election.

If the issue is approved in the election, non-profit organizations will become qualified to operate bingo games on condition that they receive permits from the state. Separate permits are required of every organization operating the game.

Ceremony and reception observe Albert Kubis golden wedding

A Mass of Thanksgiving on the feast of the Holy Family was offered by Albert and Catherine Voth Kubis on Sunday, December 27, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary, when they were surrounded by their children and spouses, all their grandchildren and numerous relatives and friends. Celebrant of the anniversary Mass at noon in St. Peter's Church was Father Alcuin Kubis OSB.

The honor couple was married in Sacred Heart Church of Muenster on January 19, 1932 with the late Fr. Frowin Koerdert officiating. He was the son of the late Adalbert and Elizabeth Kubis and she was the daughter of the late Bernard and Mary Voth.

They are the parents of seven children, Mary Elizabeth, wife of A.J. Felderhoff; Alma Louise, wife of Adam Wolf; Gilbert, husband of Rosina Kubis; Alcuin Paul, husband of LuAnn Kubis; Janie, wife of Kenneth Thurman; Bernard, husband of Lynn Kubis; and Theresa (deceased). There are 27 grandchildren.

Maid of honor and best man at the wedding 50 years ago were Mrs. Cecilia Schmitz and Ben Voth, who again attended at the anniversary Mass.

The special liturgy was planned to include grandchildren and directed by Sister Florence Marie Kubis, sister of Albert. She also designed and provided souvenir booklets to enable guests to participate in the liturgy. Father Alcuin, brother of Albert, directed the honor couple and their children in a renewal of marriage vows.

Participating in the special liturgy were Phil Wolf, Jeff Felderhoff, and Michael Kubis, ushers; Ronnie Felderhoff master of ceremonies; Kenny Thurman, Toby Kubis and Ronnie Kubis Mass servers.

Beth Ann Thurman gave the general intercessions and Prayers of the Faithful. Randy Wolf narrated the Offertory procession. Participating were Judy Felderhoff who brought to the altar the family Bible, symbol of a staunch Catholic family united in faith and love. Sherrie Thurman presented a basket of fruits of the earth, symbol of Albert's life as husband, father and breadwinner. Kassi Kubis presented a cook book, symbol of Catherine's devotion to her family and friends. Chris

REAGANOMICS
We hear a great deal these days about "Reaganomics." Just what does it mean? Well, in reality it represents a dramatic and significant change in the fiscal or taxing and spending policies of the federal government.

Since the Great Depression Era, tax policies have been biased in favor of consumption. This is generally referred to as demand side economics, wherein an attempt is made to stimulate the economy by increasing demand.

Demand side economics depends upon greatly increased government spending, public works projects, welfare programs, anything to get more money into the hands of the public. At the same time taxes are held relatively low, leading to budget deficits. Such policies are always accompanied by inflation, decreasing the value of the purchasing power of the money, which erodes the worth of all savings in whatever form.

At the height of the Depression in 1939 the dollar was worth about 2 and one-half percent of its value. The latest Consumer Price Index for August, declares that the 1981 dollar is worth only 11.5 cents compared to the 1939 dollar. Stated another way, it means that since 1939 the dollar has lost 88.5 per cent of its value. So have all other thrift instruments denominated in dollars, such as bonds, retirement annuities and savings in banks and savings and loan institutions.

The philosophy of demand side economics was based on taxation for income redistribution — a Robin Hood approach — taking from the producers in society and giving to the non-producers.

represented by Reaganomics is characterized by five measures: (1) tax reductions,

(2) reductions in federal spending, (3) elimination of massive numbers of stifling, unnecessary government regulations, and (4) a slow but steady growth in the money supply, all of which are aimed at (5) a balanced federal budget.

The philosophy of demand side economics was based on taxation for income redistribution — a Robin Hood approach — taking from the producers in society and giving to the non-producers.

The philosophy of supply side economics is to leave more funds in the hands of the producers so they can save and contribute to capital investment. It is increased capital which leads to increased production, which in turn leads to increased wealth, which then results in a higher standard of living for everyone.

Economist Dr. Edward Moscovitch, speaking before a recent conference of the Fiscal Policy Council in Washington, stated that "The very complexity of our tax code is a major enemy of economic growth." He pointed out how people with funds to invest look for tax savings rather than for profit through production. To counter this problem he recommends a simplified tax code involving a flat-rate personal income tax with no deductions, "By eliminating deductions," he said, "we can so increase the tax base as to make possible a low average rate for everybody."

A variation might be replacing income taxes by a value-added tax, which taxes only consumption and permits savings to accumulate tax free.

Moscovitch said, "A 24 percent value-added tax, a flat rate 20 percent tax on income over $20,000, and $1,000 annual payment per-capita would provide the same revenues as the current corporate tax and personal income taxes combined.

Such tax revisions would bring about the accumulation of billions of dollars in capital for new businesses, new tools, new jobs and new prosperity. It's something to think about!

political forces to turn to our resources without regard to ecology and quality of life. That crisis must be avoided and it can be avoided if there is an orderly, phased program that will protect the environment at the same time it develops needed energy resources. Contrary to radical pleas from less-rational environmentalists, Watt has sworn to accomplish his goals without any form of "exploiting nature's cathedrals, our national parks."

The Heritage Foundation president concludes by stating that rarely in our history has a public figure been as unjustly victimized as Secretary Watt... it is difficult for the intelligent observer not to conclude that if any American resource is being exploited, it is Jim Watt.

Rates Go Up For Medicare

The Medicare hospital insurance deductible, the amount a Medicare patient is responsible for when he or she first receives hospital inpatient services in a benefit period, will increase to $260 in 1982, a Social Security spokesperson said recently. The 1981 deductible was $204.

Also scheduled to increase are the per-day amounts patients are responsible for after specified lengths of stay in a hospital or skilled nursing facility, the representative said.

After 60 days of inpatient hospital care in a benefit period in 1982, Medicare will pay for all covered costs except $65 a day. The 1981 figure was $51.

For each reserve day of inpatient care, Medicare will pay for all covered costs except $130 a day. The 1981 figure was $102.

Texas Oil & Gas...

U. S. Energy 'Crisis' Remains Big Problem

By Avery Rush, Jr., Chairman
Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association

The United States of America continues in the throes of an energy "crisis."

True, there is in the world today an overabundance of crude oil, a so-called "glut." This overabundance is the result of the combination of full production schedules in most producing countries and conservation in the larger consuming nations. The result has been more than adequate supplies generally and a decrease in prices of some oil.

But, this situation almost surely will be short-lived. Saudi Arabia has decided to institute a one-million barrel per day reduction in production. Although oil decontrol has spurred U.S. drilling, we are not finding as much crude oil as we are producing; certainly not nearly as much as we are consuming.

So, if you are an American homeowner or apartment dweller, motorist, clerk, businessman, farmer, student or housewife your standard of living, even your way of life, continues to be affected. This is because our nation's appetite for oil, as already indicated, far outpaces our ability to produce under present economic, technical, and political conditions.

The extent of the problem can be understood as it is reflected in our import figures: Even after the acceleration of oil price decontrol by President Reagan and the aforementioned return of strength and vigor to domestic drilling, this country must import six-million barrels of oil daily.

To be sure, this six-million barrel level is a significant improvement over the days when we were bringing in eight- to 10-million barrels. But, six-million barrels at $35.00 per barrel costs $210-million each day. That amounts to $76-billion annually. This is not a sum that even the wealthiest nation on Earth can continue to pay indefinitely.

But, there is more than just economics to consider. There is another development — a cutoff of supplies — that could be of even greater concern to a nation that must import such a large amount of its energy, the national lifeblood of any industrialized nation.

To be denied access to that oil, with no other sources available, could wreak havoc with a country's economy. In an extreme case, a national economy virtually could cease to function.

It is for these reasons that the foremost problem facing this country today remains the displacement of this amount of imported oil with safe, secure, domestically produced oil. Only then will the energy "crisis" be a thing of the past.

Accent On Health

Texas Department of Health
Robert Bernstein, M.D., Commissioner

Seven simple health habits should be among your New Year's resolutions to help you live a healthier life in 1982.

Dr. Cliff Price, Associate Commissioner for Personal Health Services with the Texas Department of Health, has the following suggestions:

(1) Learn to manage stress better and try to enjoy life more. "It's important to remember that the minimum amount of emotional or physical stress you can handle might be the maximum for someone else," Dr. Price said.

"Each of us whose work is not physically demanding should have an exercise program and outside interests to relieve stress. The professional golfer Jack Nicklaus used to say he did a lot of fishing — so he could be a good golfer."

(2) Use your seat belts. "Accidents were the fourth leading cause of death in Texas during 1980," Dr. Price warned. "In 1980, 7,785 Texans were killed in accidents. I'm sure more deaths could have been prevented if motorists had buckled up."

(3) Avoid substance abuse. Stop smoking. Smoking has been linked to lung cancer, pulmonary disease, heart disease and other health problems.

Avoid too much alcohol. "I don't think you can deny the relationship of alcohol to auto accidents and homicides," Dr. Price said. "In addition to accidents being ranked the fourth cause of death in 1980, homicide was ranked seventh and suicide ninth."

(4) Be sure your younger and older children are up to date with their immunizations, including the booster shots. "Students, regardless of age, are now required to have a dose of measles vaccine on or after their first birthday, or provide a physician validated history of measles illness," Dr. Price said.

In addition, all students who were immunized prior to January 1, 1978 are required to obtain a measles vaccine booster. Measles vaccines used prior to that date, for the most part, did not offer the protection of improved present-day vaccines.

(5) Learn about good nutrition. Eat three balanced meals a day and try to reduce intake of salt, saturated fat and sugar. It is estimated that the average American consumes more than 125 pounds of sugar each year. Also, maintain your normal weight. Too much weight contributes to high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, and other medical problems.

(6) Get regular exercise and proper rest. Jogging might be right for some, while briskwalking might be better for others. Get plenty of sleep during the cold winter months, when the body's defenses need to be at their peak.

(7) Develop a sense of health awareness. "This includes following your doctor's instructions, and learning basic first aid such as cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR)," Dr. Price said.

For further information, contact Cliff Price, M.D., Associate Commissioner for Personal Health Services, Texas Department of Health, 1100 West 49th Street, Austin, Texas 78756, telephone (512) 458-7321.

Final installment of income tax due

The fourth, and final, installment of estimated Federal tax payments on 1981 individual income is due by January 15, 1982, the Internal Revenue Service says.

This installment should be paid using declaration voucher No. 4 found in the Form 1040-ES package, "Declaration of Estimated Tax for Individuals."

Taxpayers whose anticipated income changed during 1981 may have to file an amended declaration. Space is provided in the estimated tax package to compute an amended estimate.

For more detailed information, the IRS publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax," is available free by calling the IRS forms/tax information number in the local telephone directory.

Now Is Time to Make Plans for Retirement

People planning to retire in early 1982 should start making serious plans right now if they have not yet done so. A part of this planning should be applying for Social Security retirement benefits, a Social Security representative said recently.

Applying for benefits at the proper time is very important, the spokesperson said. This is because benefit payments are geared to the month of application.

For example, a person applying after reaching 65 generally can receive benefits for up to 6 months before the month of application, but not before the month he or she reaches 65.

A person applying between 62 and 65 cannot generally get any benefits for months before the month of application.

In addition, a person can receive benefits only for months he or she meets eligibility requirements for the entire month. Generally, this means that a person cannot get a benefit for the month of his or her 62nd birthday. The first benefit payable is for the following month.

Before applying, a person should gather together the required evidence. This includes his or her Social Security card or a record of the number, birth or baptismal certificate, and Forms W-2 or self-employment tax returns for the past 2 years. If this evidence is not available, the people at the Social Security office may be able to suggest substitutes.

An application can be made either in person or by telephone, whichever is most convenient. The application process can be started by phone and completed by mail.

More information about Social Security benefits can be obtained at any Social Security office. The address and telephone number of the nearest Social Security office can be found in the telephone directory.

Instructions from the... Owners Manual

by Mark Emerson

One of the first things Jesus taught me when I was born again was His wish to protect me and direct me through persons he had placed in my life, especially those in authority.

The virtue of submitting one's self to God given authority, I found, was not designed so much for the purpose of getting under that persons domination as it was for getting under their protection. And thusly authority became a haven rather than an dread, especially when it came to prepare for and combat against any form of temptation.

Saul, the first king of the Israelites had to submit himself to God's authority through the prophet Samuel. In ISM 15 we learn how Saul was instructed to a certain task. He did most of what he was instructed but fell short of his goal by presuming he knew God's intentions better than Samuel and tried to take a shortcut. His rebellion was compared by God's prophet to the sin of sorcery which no one needs to tell us is serious business. Furthermore his crime of presumption was compared to the sin of idolatry. Again heavy stuff!

Many a time can I personally testify to the result of not tending to the words of my heavenly appointed parents or my spiritual director (disciples if you be of protestant faith). When we refuse the protection of these God given umbrellas (if you will) we merely subject ourselves to the kingdom and power of Satan.

Another lesson to learn about authority is its purpose for direction. Our direction for life decisions should be based on faith; sometimes even enacted in faith. Did you ever hear the story of the fellow that fell off the edge of the cliff and grabbed a hold of a tree root shortly before plummeting to his death? Well immediately he began to call on God to assist him with great abandonment. Only to be answered by a simple yet confident reply, "Let go!" Sometimes, and it probably should be, most times, God wants us to utilize the faith His Holy Spirit brings, however one of the most basic aspects of this type of faith is realizing how he gets the message to more and in what direction through those he has placed in our lives.

What we're basically talking about here is God's spiritual chain of command. It seems worldly to say that such a common thing as this which is found in all forms of governments today would be something God would use to direct us. This is precisely what Matthew was trying to reveal in Matt 8:10. Jesus is astonished by the faith of the centurion who literally lived under such a chain of command in those days. The centurion had come seeking healing for an ailing servant but did not insist as did others for Christ to come to the servants bedside but merely wish for the words to be spoken by Jesus. Jesus' response shows us how intent the Lord is on having us respond to those in authority over us. "I tell you most solemnly, nowhere in Israel have I found faith like this."

Let us respond to God's authority. Lets grow in stature and character as we saw Jesus doing in the care of Joseph and Mary (from the last entry). Let us submit to authority's protection from the powers of the evil one; and let us learn authority's direction to God's holiness when we obey.

Hospital personnel portrayed on two quilts

Presentation of 5 service pins highlights hospital party

Employees of Muenster Memorial Hospital have been recording biographical legend in stitches during the past several weeks. Their project, originated by Director of Nurses Joan Walterscheid, was a pair of quilts made up of forty squares with employees' names and artwork representing their departments or the nature of their work.

Some of the squares were humorous. All were unique and beautifully done. Most of them were hand embroidered, some were combined applique and embroidery, several were liquid embroidery.

Sixty one persons participated in making the squares and piecing them together into two queen size quilts. Quilting was done principally by Mmes Margaret Kupper, Catherine Hermes and Agatha Wolf, with help from Augusta Walterscheid and other hospital employees.

The quilts were decoration items at the Hospital Auxiliary Dance and will be featured in the January issue of "All Around Cooke County."

An air of suspense accompanied the project. It was originally agreed that the 40 employees named on the squares would be eligible for chances at a drawing for the quilts during the annual Christmas party for hospital personnel. The lucky persons were Kim Walterscheid, business office clerk, and Linda LaCoe, nurse's aide.

Presentation of five and fifteen year service pins and drawings for two commemorative quilts were the highlights of the annual hospital party Saturday, Dec. 19, in the K of C hall.

Fifteen year pins were awarded to Frances Mildred Yosten, nurse's aide, and Genevieve Pels of the dietary department by D.M. Bright, administrator, and Al Trubenbach, board president.

The five year pins were awarded to Peggy Hatcher, RN, 3-11 supervisor, Shirley Endres, LVN, and Herman Carroll, CRNA by D.M. Bright and Rufus Henscheid, board secretary.

Lucky employees in the quilt drawings were Kim Walterscheid and Linda LaCoe. The special quilts featured biographical squares of forty employees, each eligible for a chance at the drawing.

About 110 persons attended the party catered by Ginnie and Ed Schneider. Doug Martin provided the music.

Kim Walterscheid and Linda LaCoe were winners in the drawing for two personalized quilts during the annual hospital employee and staff party. The quilts have 40 squares of biographical stitchery on the employees.

Five employees of Muenster Memorial Hospital received service pins at the annual hospital party. Here are Al Trubenbach, board president, Genevieve Pels, 15 years, Herman Carroll, 5 years, Shirley Endres, 5 years and Rufus Henscheid, board secretary. Not pictured are Peggy Hatcher, 5 years and Frances M. Yosten, 15 years.

Two nominated to Service Academies

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm has announced the names of two Cooke County youths included in a slate of nominees to the United States Service Academies.

Gaining nomination to the Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland was Steven Luke, Route 2, Muenster; Paul Bianchi, 1902 Laurel Road, Gainesville, received a nomination to the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

The Academies will now examine and appraise the nominees and select a Principal for admission, with qualified alternates. Alternates may be given further consideration, depending upon available vacancies.

Applications invited for Stenholm internship program

Students and teachers interested in participating in the third summer internship program sponsored by Congressman Charles W. Stenholm can pick up applications at the Congressman's Abilene District Office in the Federal Building.

Applications for the program, which will include two Omar Burleson Congressional Interns and two Lyndon Baines Johnson Congressional Interns, must be postmarked by midnight, February 12, and mailed to the Abilene office.

The interns selected will receive full Congressional Office experience at Stenholm's Washington office, with one intern from each program to serve during June or July, 1982.

"We have had an outstanding group of interns to participate in the program for the past two summers," Stenholm said. "The competition for the positions has been keen and I would encourage anyone interested to get their applications in as soon as possible." "The program is designed to provide the intern with a full Congressional legislative experience in the Washington office," Stenholm said.

Formal applications and further details may be obtained from the Abilene District Congressional Office, P.O. Box 1101, Abilene, Texas 79604, or by calling AC 915-673-7221.

Damrons will conduct crusade January 16-20 at Baptist Church

First Baptist Church of Muenster will hold a city wide crusade nightly at 7:30 January 16-20 with Alan and Sarah Damron.

The Damrons, who were in Muenster last February for an evangelistic crusade, have formed their own evangelistic association in Havre, Montana. Alan Damron has preached in crusades in California, Wyoming, The Dakotas, Montana and other states.

During the past year, the Damrons completed their first record album, "Meet the Master." Sarah Damron wrote many of the songs on the album and will be singing again this year at the crusade.

Vernon Huckaby 62, of Forestburg dies in accident

Funeral service for Vernon Glenn Huckaby, 62, of Forestburg, was held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the chapel of Scott-McCoy Funeral Home with the Reverend C.E. Cole of Saint Jo Church of Christ officiating.

Burial was in Hardy Cemetery directed by Scott-McCoy Funeral Home, and pallbearers were Kenneth Evans, Larry Evans, Gordon Griffin, Doyle Gates, Doe Mosley and Tommy Bonner.

Huckaby was killed in a tractor accident at 11 a.m. Sunday, January 3.

A lifelong resident of the county, he was born at Montague on Feb. 28, 1919, a son of the late Vernon and Sadie Huckaby. He was married to Mary Evans at Forestburg in August, 1940. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and a veteran of World War II.

Survivors are his wife; two daughters, Glenda Carlton of Saint Jo and Sheila Pomeroy of Forestburg; two sons, Eldon and Ricky, both of Forestburg; nine grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and one sister, Marie Parr of Denton.

Chris Sicking, chief of the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department, is assisted by Harvey Schmitt and Mike Frost in strapping on an air tank before entering the burning home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hoedebeck as Henry Knabe leaves the house. No family members were home at the time of the blaze Tuesday and the cause of the fire is unknown.

Bullock explains law on legal bingo in Texas

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Thursday that voters in at least 12 Texas counties and five cities will decide January 16 whether non-profit groups can legally operate bingo games in their communities.

"This is going to end the confusion about bingo in Texas. From now on, bingo is going to be approved by the voters and licensed by the state or it's going to be illegal," Bullock said.

Cities, counties and justice precincts that approve bingo can also levy a 2 percent gross receipts tax on the games. The Comptroller's office will handle licensing of the games, collect the tax and return it to the communities where the games are held.

Where voters approve bingo, non-profit groups must get licenses from the Comptroller's Bingo Regulation Division and can't legally operate games until 10 days after the local option election, according to Division Director George Garland.

"We are urging non-profit groups in these counties and cities to apply in advance for their licenses by contacting us right away," Garland said.

Organizations should contact the division by writing to 111 E. 17th, Austin, Texas 78774 or calling 1-800-252-5555.

According to the new bingo law, cities, counties and justice precincts that don't vote to approve bingo in January must wait until the next constitutional election date of April 3.

To call a bingo election, a local governing body must receive a petition with the signatures of 10 percent of the number of voters who cast ballots in the last governor's election.

The Comptroller's first enforcement priority following the January voting will be to protect those groups who have obtained licenses.

"Especially where the local government has levied the 2 percent tax," Garland said, "we will be checking to make sure every bingo game is licensed. Those that don't have licenses will be urged to get them. If they don't become licensed and keep playing bingo, we will file complaints with local authorities and the Attorney General."

Counties due to vote first on the bingo question include Guadalupe, Comal, Kerr, Maverick, Kleberg, Victoria, Fayette, Milam, Wharton, Nueces, Lavaca, Jim Wells and Webb.

Cities holding January 16 elections include White Settlement, Schertz, Selma, Gregory and Reno.

Barrett, Klement united in McAllen ceremony

The wedding of Donna Jean Barrett and Christopher John Klement was held on December 19 at 7 p.m. in the Church of the Good Shepherd in McAllen, Texas, with Rev. R. Haspany officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Barrett of McAllen. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Klement, formerly of Münster; he is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Klement and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wolf, all of Münster.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was wearing a formal white lace and organza gown designed with an empire bodice, Queen Anne neckline, long, slim lace sleeves, and a detail of tiny front pleats covered with tiny pearls. The skirt swept into a flowing cathedral train.

Her tiered veil of illusion was edged with a wide band of matching lace and was attached to a caplet of lace and tiny pearls. She carried a hand-painted fan with a cascade of white roses, valley lilies, traditional orange blossoms and white baby's breath.

For sentiment the bride wore her maternal grandmother's wedding ring, and pearls that were a gift from an aunt.

Attendants

The bride's sisters were her attendants. Susan Rene Barrett was her maid of honor. Mrs. Greg Johnson, Sabrina Carol Barrett and Christy Ann Barrett were bridesmaids. They were identically gowned in wine dresses with a bustle design. Their flowers were clusters of mums, irises, carnations, navy velvet ribbons and silver streamers.

Denise Nannette Nelson was the flower girl. Jason Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thrumen Wolf was the ring bearer. He is a nephew of the groom.

The groom's brother, Mike Klement was best man. Jonathan Klement and Greg Klement also groom's brothers, and Murray Meggison were groomsmen. Kevin Rock, Morris Nelson III, David Gray and David Johns were ushers.

Wedding music included piano and vocal selections. Church decorations included Christmas trees with myriad lights, mirror pillars holding containers of navy blue silk poinsettias and burgundy mums, with a background of lighted candles. White poinsettias lined both sides of the steps leading to the altar.

MRS. CHRISTOPHER J. KLEMENT

Reception

A reception followed the church ceremony. Among the reception assistants were relatives of the groom, and former Münster residents, Mrs. James Wolf, Mrs. Jim Otto and Mrs. Leroy Kupper, in addition to a number of friends from McAllen. Elaborate decorations in the reception area included arrangements of white spider mums, wine and navy velvet bows, ferns and poinsettias.

The five tiered white wedding cake was decorated with blue roses and held the same bridal couple figurine used for the groom's parents wedding 24 years ago. Buffet tables held an array of varied pick-up foods.

Among local relatives attending the wedding and reception were the groom's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wolf and Mrs.

Norbert Klement; also uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Wolf of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolf of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kupper of Rockwall and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Otto of Garland.

He is a graduate of Sharyland High School and attended Southwest Texas State University. The bride is a graduate of Valley Christian High School and attended Howard Payne University.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wolf returned last week Monday from a month's vacation with their son and family, the Wilfred Klements and sons in Mission, Texas.

checklist of Benefits

- Energy savings. Reach chill temperature 1-4 hours sooner
- Less dripping
- Less spoilage
- Less shrink and trim loss
- Shorten aging times up to 56% less time in cooler
- Improved quality and flavor
- 25% increased tenderness
- About 6" move up a grade: better color, more visible marbling, less heat ring, reduced re-grade
- Lower the Ph level
- Eliminate cold shortening and dark cutters

When a carcass is stimulated, a lot of body heat is dissipated in a hurry. Extra bleeding occurs and reduces chances of spoilage and excessive trim loss. Once in the cooler, proper chilling can be achieved hours earlier, saving money and energy. Availability is higher, efficiency is more apparent. All grading time, about 1/2 of the carcasses move up to a higher grade. Heat ring and cold shortening are negligible. Aging time is far less: 13 days instead of 7 or 7 instead of 21.

Nuptial at San Antonio unites Cecile Janicki and David Bujonos

St. John Neumann Catholic Church in San Antonio, Texas was the scene of the marriage of Miss Cecile Renee Janicki and David Bujonos at 2 p.m., January 2, 1982. The celebrant of the double ring nuptial Mass was Father Tony Cummins.

The bride is the daughter of Lt. Colonel (ret) and Mrs. J.P. Janicki of San Antonio, Texas. Cecile Renee is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Pagel of Muenster. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Bujonos of San Antonio, Texas.

As the bride proceeded down the aisle on the arm of her father, she paused and presented a long stemmed silk rose to her mother.

The bride's traditional gown was fashioned of French White silk organza over heavy moire jaffeta. Bands of heavy French lace adorned the bodice and long sleeves that fell into lace cuffs, also encircling the full skirt. Her veil, attached to a French lace bonnet, fell into a double sweeping cathedral length train. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white silk gardenias, white rose buds and lily of the valley on a bed of ivory. She had a silver and pearl rosary entwined into the bouquet. The rosary was one her mother carried at her wedding. The sanctuary was decorated with poinsettias, palms and tall tree brass candelabra with white satin bows.

Attendants

Mrs. Burt Tackaberry, sister of the bride from Fort Leavenworth, Kansas was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were her sisters, Miss Janelle Janicki, of San Antonio, Mrs. Starla Janicki, of Manassas, Virginia, and Mrs. Ann Walker, a friend from San Antonio.

All of the attendants wore period beige chiffon blouses, hunter green chiffon velvet skirts with mauve taffeta cummerbunds. They carried arm bouquets of mauve roses and ivory spider lilies on a bed of palms. Courtney Walker served as flower girl, she wore a dress similar to the attendants and carried a basket of mauve silk baby rose buds and ivy.

Ushers were Richard Benning of Austin and Michael Thomas of Houston. Scott Eaton read the scripture passages which were chosen by the bride and groom. James Nelson and Nathan Stevens served as acolytes.

Wedding music on the organ was presented by Cheryl Sanders and the Ed White Middle School Choir under the direction of Mrs. Margie Camp. As the mothers of the wedding party were escorted to their places, the choir sang the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria." Other wedding songs included the Madrigals, "May God Smile on You," and "The Lords Prayer," which was a solo by Mrs. Margie Camp.

honor he sought. Frank Rust verified his proficiency in craft and skills as indicated by the record of merit badges and advancements. Henry Weinzapfel referred to activity in school and Scout program in verifying willingness and ability for service and leadership. Ken Fette based his approval on the Scout's observance of the Scout promise and law.

That ceremony was followed by a listing of qualities expected of an Eagle Scout. David Bright emphasized honor, reflecting credit on home, church, school and self. Joseph asked for loyalty, "Be true to thyself and thou canst be false to any man." Ronnie urged character, including moral courage as well as physical. Thomas called for service...to help, comfort, protect and defend the unfortunate or oppressed.

These admonitions were followed by the candidate's recitation of the Eagle Scout pledge and presentation of the Eagle badge by Scoutmaster Waylen Poole to the Eagle's mother and the neckerchief to his father. The articles were pinned and tied on the new Eagle by his parents.

John Waterscheid, assistant scoutmaster, ended the ceremony with the Eagle Scout Charge calling on James to dedicate to the traditional Scout virtues in service to God and country. Afterward Father Stephen Eckart gave a blessing and led in The Lord's Prayer.

What you should know about the energy-efficient heat pump.

Central heating and air conditioning systems don't last forever. So if you have to replace your present system, think about an energy-efficient heat pump.

The heat pump is a single cooling and heating unit. In the summer, the heat pump is an efficient air conditioner and delivers cool air. In the winter, the heat pump switches and provides warm air.

The heat pump uses electricity efficiently because it delivers about two units of heat for each unit of energy it uses during the heating season. Year-round the heat pump is the most efficient combination cooling and heating system available today.

Consider the energy-saving facts and call Texas Power & Light for more information. We'd like to help you learn more about the energy-efficient heat pump.

Denhams visit in New Braunfels

Myrt and Perryman Denham returned January 4 from a ten day visit with relatives and friends in New Braunfels. First Baptist Church plans '82 MDO program

The Mothers' Day Out program at First Baptist Church of Muenster will not be held during the month of January. Plans and preparations are being made for the 1982 Mothers' Day Out program, and mothers wishing to participate are asked to call Teresa Rainwater 759-4180 or Margie Klement 759-2555.

The Mothers' Day Out program is offered for all children ages 1 through 5 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Mothers whose children participate are asked to work on an alternating basis and will be assigned a specific date to work when they call to sign up their children for the new year. This will eliminate overworking of some, and enable mothers to know in advance when they are to work. No mother should have to work more than once every three months.

The following dates show the MDO schedule for the first six months of 1982. Thursdays: Feb. 4, 18; Mar. 4, 18; April 1, 15; May 6, 20; June 3, 17; and July 1, 15.

Mothers may call anytime during January to sign up for the new year.

Growing Child

P.O. Box 620N, Lafayette, Indiana 47902 (317) 423-2624

Understanding and encouraging your child's special gifts

How do you know if your child is gifted? What does it mean to be gifted? How can you best help your child develop his or her special gifts? Here are some guidelines from Growing Child, the monthly child development newsletter, that may help you answer these questions.

Your child's giftedness may be expressed in many different ways. If you were told your child was highly gifted, what would you immediately think? That she would be able to read, write or do mathematics far ahead of most children her age? That he would have a special gift for drawing, acting, or playing a musical instrument?

Most people have ideas of giftedness or creativity that are limited to these kinds of talents. In actual fact, areas of giftedness have no limits. Your child might be especially gifted in using his hands to make things. She could be particularly gifted in her ability to understand other people's feelings, or to remember things and events. Whatever skills a human being can possess is an area of potential creativity for your child.

Children may be highly gifted in one area, and average or even below average in another. There are some children who are smarter, more talented, better coordinated, and generally more outstanding than most others in everything they try. These are the ones who are most likely to be noticed and labeled as "gifted." But even these children have areas in which they are not outstanding.

And there are many more children whose special gifts may go unnoticed because their talent lies in an unexpected area, or because they seem ordinary in other ways. It is your challenge, and your responsibility, to discover your child's special gifts and give him the chance to develop them.

Every child has the potential to be creative. Creativity is the way in which your child uses his special gifts to express what is unique about him. It is not something reserved only for certain people. Creativity is self-expression. It is a basic human need, and people who have never developed their gifts so that they can express who they are can feel a sense of frustration and lack of fulfillment.

You can help your child develop her talents so that she can express them creatively. With opportunity and your encouragement, she will learn to express what she thinks and feels about life in her own special way.

Your child's giftedness is part of his nature, but it requires nurturing in order to develop. Your child will naturally be drawn to activities that give him a chance to develop the special gifts that are a part of his nature. But he needs encouragement and opportunity in order to develop his natural talents.

For example, you might notice your child singing along whenever he hears music on the radio, on television or on records you play. Your encouragement, plus some records of his own- not just "children's" music, but a variety of selections of good music - might give him a chance to expand his interest and skill.

Your child needs to develop basic skills in an area before he can use those skills effectively. For example, he needs to know how to cook before he can combine ingredients in new and interesting ways to invent his own recipes. To be creative, your child must first have "know-how." Then he will be able to use the basic tools and information in an exploratory way, playing around with what he knows in order to come up with a variety of unusual, interesting, and unique combinations...and that's what creativity is. Your child needs to use her gifts in order to develop them.

How many times have you told your child to do something, and then become impatient when she doesn't do it "correctly" right away? How often have you shown her how to use something and ended up doing it yourself, while she simply watches? It's easier to take over for your child than to let her do things herself. But it's important to take the time to let her try things until she can do them well. Learning perseverance is an important part of learning to use one's special gifts. It takes a while to learn a new skill, and your child needs the chance to practice it until she masters it. She needs your support, encouragement, and interest in her attempts, even when not completely successful...and your loving patience while she's learning. She needs to do in order to learn to do with skill and creativity.

Your child signals his areas of potential giftedness by how often and how long he is interested in an activity. He will naturally be attracted to certain activities and will want to engage in them whenever he gets the chance. For example, your child might especially enjoy pretending to be people he has seen on television, or in books you've read to him. Or he might be very interested in being with you when you're taking care of your plants or gardening. Whatever your child's interest is, you can best encourage it by:

Noticing and commenting on his interest: "I see you like to be with me when I'm fixing something that's broken."

Giving him the opportunity for involvement: "Would you like to try to fix this yourself?"

The Growing Child newsletter follows a child's development month-by-month. For more information on the social and physical development of children from birth to six years old, write to Growing Child, PO Box 620N, Lafayette, In. 47902. Include child's birthdate when writing. A year's subscription to the newsletter costs $11.95.

"The Odd Couple" billed January 28, is a comedy

Local and area playgoers who want to start off the new year with a laugh should get their wish with "The Odd Couple," scheduled to open at the Butterfield Stage Playhouse in Gainesville on January 28.

Co-directors Dick Powell and Rodger Boyce, who also will play the two featured roles, stress that this is the original Broadway version of Neil Simon's all-time classic stage comedy...

Powell pointed out that it also became a hit motion picture starring Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon...and a long-running television program...

Others appearing in "The Odd Couple" will be Jack Mercer, Don Dudley, Dan Weber, Brent Hadaway, Sandy Carpenter and Karen

Stanley. Tickets go on sale Monday, January 18. There will be 7 performances in all. January 28-31 and February 4-6. All seats are reserved. Curtain time is 7:30 p.m. nightly and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee. Call 665-8152 for reservations.

Ross Point Club Welcomes 1982

Members of the Ross Point Progress Club are telling their associates of the great good time they had at the December 31 club meeting in the Community Center. The festivities included a variety of snacks, cookies and candies, mostly homemade, brought by the forty persons who attended, including two guests from the Forestburg area.

There were tables of dominoes, other games and visiting. As the final few minutes of the old year approached, they all sang "Auld Lang Syne."

The club president has announced that there will be no January meeting because no necessary business seems pressing. Other meetings will resume next month, scheduled for the first Wednesday of each month. Jim Penton is club reporter.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has released 1,884,900 pounds surplus processed cheese for distribution to needy Texans by non-profit organizations, Gene P. Dickey, Southwest Regional Administrator for USDA's Food and Nutrition Service, said Wednesday. Dickey said the state allocations were made in accordance with President Reagan's decision to release 30 million pounds of stock-piled cheese on a nationwide basis. Delivery of the cheese in Texas will be administered by the Texas Department of Human Resources. Apportionment will be through the normal commodities channels. The cheese will be distributed to the needy of Texas by recognized charitable non-profit organizations. Groups which have adequate storage facilities and record-keeping ability, as determined by the state, will be eligible to participate in the cheese distribution program.

USDA allotments for the Southwest Region are: Arkansas 303,700 pounds; Louisiana, 558,500 pounds; New Mexico, 172,300 pounds; Oklahoma, 399,200 pounds; and Texas 1,884,900 pounds. The total for the Southwest Region is 3,318,600 pounds. Allocations were based on state populations.

Special Program

Our special program for those in need was very successful. We collected and distributed over two hundred dollars worth of "goodies". Thank you to all those that made our program a success.

Coming Attractions!!

February - Next month our 8th graders will begin a candy (pre-valentine) sale to benefit their 8th grade graduation trip. We encourage everyone to participate when these eager young sales-persons come around.

March - In March we will begin our annual magazine drive. Those who subscribed last year will want to wait until March for your renewal so that the school will receive credit for your renewal.

Notes from a friend

This past month we received a letter from Sister M. Agnes Voth sister of Theodore and Ray Voth. Besides alerting us to the fact that the Holy Angels Convent will be graduating some new Sisters this year (which hopefully will come our way), Sister also sent us the following clippings we thought you might be interested in reading.

$1-Million Hit in Pledges for High School Fort Smith - Fort Smith area residents who are trying to start a Catholic high school have raised more than $1-million in pledges, drive director Carl Martinous II said.

"It's a little more surprising than what we expected," he commented. The drive is for the area's first Catholic high school since St. Anne's closed here in 1973.

Martinous said $800,000 was pledged after the first organizational meeting in October. The group has a goal of 400 to 500 persons pledging $5-million to start the school. "Right now, we need the names and the pledges," he continued. He said the group is still unsure whether there will be enough support to sustain the school. St. Anne's closed because of financial problems.

Towns around Fort Smith have expressed more interest than expected, Martinous added. He said he has heard from Ozark, Greenwood, Charleston, Paris, Booneville, Van Buren, Poteau, Spiro, Muldrow and Sallisaw. The project has yet to be approved by His Excellency Bishop Andrew J. McDonald of Little Rock.

Catholic School "Heart of Church" - Rome (NC) - The Catholic school is "at the very heart of the church," Pope John Paul II said.

The pop's strong affirmation of the value of Catholic education came as he spoke to more than 7,000 Christian brothers, students and parents in Rome. The ceremonies held at the world headquarters of the Brothers in Rome, marked the 300th anniversary of the foundation of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, as the order is formally called, by St. John Baptist de LaSalle in Rheims, France.

4-H Club news

Monday evening, December 21, 45 4-H'ers had a hayride sponsored by 4-H County Council, but it wasn't just a hayride. The 4-H'ers traveled all over Gainesville and sang Christmas carols along the way. We hope it made Christmas a little merrier for those who heard them. The group ate Christmas goodies after the hayride.

Special thanks to the planning committee made up of Linda Sandmann, Robert Kelley, Stephen Becker, and John Sandmann, and to Parker Yarbrough for use of the truck, trailer, and hay. Many other people and 4-H'ers helped, and we send our thanks.

December was a time for families to be together. As a result, there were not as many 4-H activities planned. However, January picks back up. 4-H doesn't leave the family out; it involves the family.

Looking to January, Share The Fun will be January 16, 1982, at the Gainesville Middle School Auditorium. This will be an evening of fun for the whole family. 4-H clubs are working right now on their skits and acts for Share The Fun. The public is invited to attend.

Training for 4-H clothing leaders will be January 21, 1982, at 4 p.m. at Texas Power and Light, Gainesville. This will be an important meeting to explain and help with the clothing project.

Livestock projects will be going strong throughout the winter months. Concentration on method demonstrations will begin in February, and March is livestock month with the various county livestock shows.

There is plenty in store in 4-H for the coming months. These activities are just the highlight. If you are interested in learning more about 4-H, contact the County Extension Office, 665-1966. Happy New Year!

Elm-Red District sponsors 22nd essay contest on conservation

Clyde Hale, Chairman, Board of Directors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District (SWCD) announced today that the local district would sponsor the 22nd annual essay contest on the subject of soil and water conservation. The deadline for the contest is February 8, 1982. The rules of this contest are very simple. Any boy or girl residing in the Upper Elm-Red SWCD who is not a high school graduate may enter the essay contest. This year's subject is "Soil and Water Conservation". Hale stated, "The Upper Elm-Red SWCD will give incentive awards for each winner as follows: First prize, $25, Second prize, $15, Third prize, $10." Essays will be judged locally in the Upper Elm-Red SWCD. Hale urges all vocational agriculture teachers in the three county district, along with the English teachers, to use this essay contest as a composition assignment on conserving our natural resources. Hale encourages all students to start immediately on this contest. Entries of 300 words or less should be sent to the Upper Elm-Red SWCD, P.O. Box 340, Gainesville, Texas 76240, by February 8, 1982. This does not jeopardize Texas Interscholastic League eligibility. The first place award will be presented at the Annual Awards Banquet later this spring.

SH sweeps series with MHS

Sacred Heart teams were the winners in both ends of a twin bill with Muenster High last Saturday night. The Tigerettes delighted their coach, Jon LeBrasseur, with a fine second half performance resulting in a 15 point victory, and the Tigers came from behind in the final period for their three point win.

The first half of the girls game was a deadlock with a 4-4 tie the first quarter and a 16-14 Tigerette lead the second. Then SH got organized and surged to a 35-26 third period and kept gaining in the fourth to the 53-38 win.

Anne Felderhoff led the Tigerette scoring with 18, Susan Walterscheid added 15, Marilyn Hartman 7, Carol Walterscheid 4, Karla Hartman 4, Connie Stoffels 4, Jenny Felderhoff 2.

For Muenster High the scorers were Stephanie Richey 14, Charlotte Fleitman 8, Sandy Wimmer 8, Jill Walterscheid 2, Carla Walterscheid 2, Shellie Zimmerer 2, Peggy Winn 2.

Tigers gained gradually in the first half for leads of 6-4 and 24-16. Then the Hornets had a hot streak, taking a 34-33 third period lead before SH recovered and inched to the 47-44 win.

Kevin Felderhoff led the game's scoring with 24. Tim Schneider had 8, Dale Swirczynski 6, James Huckaby 4 and Gary Klement 2.

Four Tigers scored in double figures. They were Brian Herr 12, Gene Fuhrman 11, Neil Hesse 11, Greg Walterscheid 10, TJ Walterscheid 3.

A fast break by Anne Felderhoff ends in this shot for 2 in the Tigerettes' 53-38 win over Muenster High. Peggy Winn arrives late for the Hornets.

SH teams take 2 from Saint Jo

Sacred Heart was the winner by close counts in a pair of games with Saint Jo High on the SH court Tuesday night. The Tigerettes came out in front 47-44 and the Tigers by a score of 60-51.

The girls made the grade in spite of physical problems. Laurie Endres, Laura Grewing and Susan Walterscheid were sidelined with injuries and Connie Stoffels was back after a one month absence. SH was tied 9-9 at the first quarter and slumped to a 27-17 deficit at half time. However it got back in contention with a big third quarter, ending 37-36 favoring the Tigerettes, and kept ahead for the final lead of 47-44.

Anne Felderhoff was top scorer with 21 (13 in the third period), Carol Walterscheid added 14, Karla Hartman 9 (plus 12 rebounds), Marilyn Hartman 2 and Jenny Felderhoff 1.

Coach LeBrasseur was less than enthused with his Tigers who played one of their poorer games, but with the Panthers having the same problem the SH effort was enough to win. The Tigers started with a 12-9 first quarter lead and trailed 23-21 at the half. They led 42-35 after a big third quarter, then gained slightly in the fourth for the 60-51 final count.

Brian Herr, in one of his better games, hit 10 points and made 4 steals, Gene Fuhrman scored 18, Greg Walterscheid got 8 points and 9 rebounds, Neil Hesse and TJ Walterscheid each scored 9, Darrell Herr made 6.

Earaches can be serious

As winter approaches with its cold air and drafts, the susceptibility to earaches naturally increases, says the Texas Medical Association.

There are various ways in which an earache can develop, but the most common causes are:

An infection of the middle ear—the middle ear becomes inflamed, pus accumulates and the ear drum bulges, causing pain.

An inflammation in the ear canal—better known as "swimmer's ear"—occurs when water accumulates in the ear, flushing out the protective layer of wax. This leaves a dark warm place for bacteria to grow, and if an infection takes hold, the tissues in the ear swell, resulting in an intense earache.

Wax impactions or foreign bodies—if wax in the ear becomes hard and presses against the ear drum, a particularly irritating ache can occur.

It is easy to recognize an earache because the pain is so intense, but other symptoms such as bleeding, inflammation, swelling, or drainage from the ear indicate that the ear is infected.

In the absence of any drainage, an individual can usually alleviate a simple earache by placing several drops of warm mineral oil in the ear, inserting a cotton ball and lying down, with the ear pressed on a heating pad.

But if there is any drainage whatsoever, nothing should be placed in the ear until a physician can be consulted. If the ear happens to be infected, as drainage often implies, an untrained individual can easily aggravate the condition and cause the infection to spread beyond the middle ear to the brain, ultimately resulting in a hearing loss.

MHS wins pair from Valley View

MHS basketball teams improved their district rating Tuesday night in a pair of games with the Valley View teams.

As a result both have a standing of 2-1, with wins over Era and Valley View and losses to Alvord. For the season the Hornets are 8-4 and the Hornets are 8-5.

The Hornets started with a 9-7 first quarter lead and trailed 18-14 after a poor second quarter. Then they improved and gained steadily to leads of 29-27 and 44-40 in the third and fourth. Their worst problem was the free throws, only 10 out of 31 tries.

Tim Schneider was top scorer with 18. Kevin Felderhoff made 13, Wayne Carroll 9, Dale Swirczynski 3, Gary Klement 1.

Hornettes likewise ended with a 4 point victory, and the game was also similar in another respect. They led 13-4 at the first period and trailed 21-20 after a miserable second period. Then they came to life for a 35-25 third period lead and outlasted a Valley View rally in the fourth. The final count was 45-41. Like the Hornets, they were awful at the foul line...only 11 out of 32 shots.

Stephanie Richey led the way with 16 points. Sandy Wimmer made 9, Jill Walterscheid 8, Carla Walterscheid 7, Charlotte Fleitman 5.

Gene Fuhrman makes a lay-up for the Tigers in their victory over Muenster High. Others are Greg Walterscheid 23, and TJ Walterscheid 41, of the Tigers and Dale Swirczynski 34 and James Huckaby of the Hornets.
