Under the US legal system it is essential that every "i" must be dotted and every "t" crossed in preparing the charges against an accused person. If not some smart-alec lawyer may have a court verdict overturned on grounds the court's procedure was illegal.

Some years ago a murderer, convicted of stomping a person to death, was set free because the charge did not specify that the accused had stomped the victim to death "with his feet."

Since then justice has been violated dozens of times because of the exclusionary rule whereby certain guilt was excused because of a technical fault in police or court procedure.

This fact was brought to public attention again just a few days ago when a judge of this state freed a convicted rapist because one word had been omitted in charging him. It was another case which had no bearing whatever on the person's guilt but only a mistake in legal procedure.

According to columnist James Kilpatrick the exclusionary rule originated in 1914 when federal marshals without a warrant broke down the door of a Missouri home and rummaged through desks and bureaus to obtain evidence against a lottery suspect. "There was no pretense of authority, probable cause or anything else. The court, shocked by the marshals' conduct, unanimously held that evidence so seized could not be used against the defendant at a trial."

There is no doubt that our legal system is being fouled up frequently by the exclusionary rule. Consequently many people, including some of the legal profession, think the time has come to abolish it. As Judge Wilkey of a US Circuit Court stated, the guilt of the accused has nothing whatever to do with the conduct of an investigating officer. And he might have added that the guilt has nothing to do with the mistake of a clerk or stenographer preparing legal papers. When the exclusionary rule is applied to this extent the only result is that justice is cheated and a guilty person is allowed to go free.

While there is widespread support for abolishing the rule there are also reservations about unapproved police action in seeking evidence. As in the decision of 1914, along with many present investigative procedures, it is assumed that the rights of individuals must be respected. Hence it is also assumed there should be a "reasonable belief" exception in doing away with the rule so that incidents like that of 1914 can be avoided.

That exception obviously is intended to protect the innocent but it includes a flaw in that it may also protect the guilty. A person who escapes investigation because of reasonable belief of innocence may actually be guilty and escaping justice because no one does anything about it.

It seems that the first and most important goal in our system of justice is to apprehend and convict the criminals...and, of course, to make them serve just punishment. Furthermore, it seems that any method of procedure which establishes this verdict ought to be ac-

Tuesday of this week ushered in a brand new era for the Muenster State Bank. It marked the first meeting of stockholders since their number was vastly increased by recent extensive stock purchases.

The number of stockholders was suddenly raised from 20 to 103 when 1700 shares representing 34 percent of the institution's total stock was bought by 83 persons.

As pointed out by Earl Fisher, bank president, the significant point in the development is an extensive expansion of support and interest from a comparative few to a more general community representation. With few exceptions, the entire list of stockholders is made up of Muenster people.

Almost all of the stockholders, new and old, were present for Tuesday's meeting in the Sacred Heart Community Center. They started their new organization by increasing their number of directors from 7 to 11, the additions being L.B. Bruns, Doris Hamer, Richard Grewing and urban Endres.

A further addition was the election of J.M. Weinapfel as an honorary lifetime member of the board in recognition of his many years of service to the bank and the community. He was identified as a pillar of the community, a great contributor to civic, social and spiritual welfare. And he was gratefully remembered as the benefactor of many who got their start with a loan from him and received financial advice from him.

The newly elected directors join the following seven previous members of the board: David Bright, J.R. Dangelmayr, Earl Fisher, J.W. Fisher, Herbert Meurer, John David Meurer and Henry Weinapfel. One result of the enlarged membership is that the majority consists of persons who are not personnel of the bank.

All eleven of the board were present after the stockholders meeting at a directors meeting to name the bank's officers. They are Earl Fisher, president; Henry Weinapfel, executive vice president; John D. Meurer, vice president and cashier; Lillian Walterscheid, assistant vice president; Betty Ann Trubenbach, assistant cashier.

Ronnie Felderhoff, representing the Muenster City Council, accepts a check for $1,000 from Mark Klement and Wayne Klement of the Muenster Jaycees. Felderhoff also received another check for the same amount from Dick Ferber, at left, on behalf of the Muenster Chamber of Commerce. The donations will go toward renovation of the house which will serve as headquarters for the local ambulance substation.

C of C, Jaycees give to ambulance fund

The local substation of the county's ambulance service received additional local support Tuesday as the Muenster Chamber of Commerce and the Muenster Jaycees each donated $1,000 to the city's ambulance fund. Ronnie Felderhoff, representing the City Council was present at the Chamber's monthly luncheon to accept the checks from Chamber President Dick Ferber and Jaycee President Wayne Klement and Treasurer Mark Klement.

Felderhoff expressed gratitude on behalf of the city council for the financial assistance as well as the general support offered by local residents. He also said the persons who would staff the local substation are looking forward to their service here.

A progress report on the 1983 Germanfest was given by Alvin Fuhrman, who announced that Wayne Klement had agreed to join him as co-chairman for this year's event. Fuhrman said the first Germanfest planning meeting has been scheduled for Jan. 21.

Most of the discussion concerning Germanfest concerned security and traffic safety. Ferber noted a small administrative problem in planning adequate traffic safety in that all highway west of the Highway 82-Main Street intersection lies within the Nocona Highway District.

Ferber said he and Police Chief Helen Tompkins plan to meet with district officials in an attempt to improve highway safety in the Germanfest area.

He said he also plans to meet with sherriff's department officials soon to discuss plans for park security through the use of uniformed deputies, the same as last year's method.

The annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet has been tentatively planned for March 11.

Ambulance station almost set

Muenster Volunteer Firemen and other volunteers have been spending spare time lately at renovating the future residence and headquarters for operators of the local ambulance service. More than 15 persons were on the job Saturday.

The place is due to be occupied during the coming weekend or early next week, according to Ronnie Felderhoff, who has represented the city council in getting the project organized. The agreement is that the county will locate one unit of the Cooke County Emergency Medical Service here if the city will provide the location. The Boyles Estate house on Oak Street was chosen for the purpose and is being renovated by volunteer labor along with volunteer financing by the Chamber of Commerce and Muenster Jaycees. A garage to shelter the vehicle is next on schedule.

Work in progress, according to Felderhoff is a general renovation including ceiling, wall panel and inside paint plus areas of new vinyl floor. Outside, the building is receiving two coats of paint and shabby trees have been removed.

Court views bill as 'a lesson'

Cooke County Commissioners voted Monday to pay two bills for unauthorized repairs to county flood control dams--and let the experience be a lesson.

The commissioners court had earlier accepted a bid for $71,358.60 to complete the needed repairs. But before the work had been completed, it was determined that further repairs were needed. The court later received two bills for the work, one for $1692.48 and another for $200.

Pat Gallup, the Oklahoma contractor who received the contract for the job, told the commissioners he had received the go-ahead on the extra repairs from Soil Conservation Service officials.

The commissioners argued that the repairs were unauthorized because County Judge Jim Robertson (the contracting officer) had not approved them in advance.

After lengthy discussion on the matter, both sides agreed that it was not the amount Muenster volunteer firemen and other volunteer workers who donated their time this week to help with the renovation project for the house at the corner of Oak and Third streets which will serve as the local ambulance substation. Emergency Medical service is expected to begin early next week.

Good News

Give ear, listen humbly, for the Lord speaks. Give glory to the Lord, your God, before it grows dark; Before your feet stumble on darkening mountains; Before the light you look for turns to darkness, changes into black clouds. If you do not listen to this in your pride, I will weep in secret many tears; My eyes will run with tears for the Lord's flock, led away to exile.

F.E. Schmitz named citizen of the year

Frank E. Schmitz recently received a plaque from the Cooke County Board of Realtors honoring him as Citizen of the Year for his extensive activity in behalf of the Frank Buck Zoo of Gainesville. Frank was instrumental in founding the zoo after a fire destroyed the Gainesville Community Circus and still continues his interest in acquiring animals and equipment for the zoo. He is president of the F.E. Schmitz Co. of Gainesville, a former resident of Muenster.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
 U.S. SENATOR FOR TEXAS
 142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

With the beginning of the 98th Congress and the New Year it would be useful for our national leaders to consider resolutions to tackle the hard decisions facing our nation, our nation.

We should resolve to gain control of federal spending. This will require us to deal with so-called "uncontrollable" spending which calls for dispensing money to anyone who meets eligibility requirements without regard for total budgetary consideration. It is growth in this type of spending which has brought us to a fiscal crisis, and only action to control its growth will solve our problems.

We also should resolve to face the Social Security issue, to ensure the system remains sound and will continue to provide retirement income for those who have contributed during their working careers. This is the purpose for which Social Security was designed, and is its first responsibility.

As we begin our work for this Congress, we must resolve to maintain our program to rebuild our national defense capability, and not to be stampeded by short-term political considerations into failing to fulfill this obligation.

We must address our nation's economic problems. This will entail stimulating real economic growth in ways which will encourage the creation of new, long-term jobs in the private sector. At the same time, we must resolve to avoid yielding to the temptation to accept quick-fix temporary solutions which in the long run will only make our problems worse.

Finally, we must resolve to discipline ourselves to act in timely fashion on the legislation which faces us. Last month, we were forced to pass a continuing resolution to pay for most of the government's activities during the rest of the year because we failed to pass appropriations legislation by the end of the Congress.

But delaying passage of important spending bills until the 11th hour as did the last Congress is not a responsible way to govern. Certainly, it does not allow for the full consideration and deliberation we owe our constituents. In recent years, Congress more and more often has delayed, missed its self-imposed deadlines, and failed to pass the most basic of legislation until the last moment.

There is no reason for this delay. For example, last year, the Senate Armed Services Committee, which I chair, sent the full Senate the defense authorization bill April 13. The Senate took up the legislation May 13 and passed it within a few days. However, it was August 17 before the House had acted and House and Senate conferees worked out differences in the two versions of the bill so that it could be passed in final form.

This delay inevitably put off the defense appropriations bill, which also had to be passed before money could be spent. Indeed, this legislation was finally thrown into the continuing resolution, which was enacted in the closing moments of the 97th Congress and signed by the President on December 23.

I hope my colleagues will resolve that this year such delay will not be tolerated. Only if we do will we be able to meet our responsibilities to you, the people whom we represent.

The Owner's Manual

By Larry Tisdale DVM

Many times the message revealed in a particular scripture verse is applicable to more than one situation. I believe this is true in the message which the apostle Paul delivered to the church at Philippi. In Philippians 4:19 Paul says, "And my God shall supply all your needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus."

The church at Philippi had taken up a collection and sent it to Paul, who in all respects was a foreign missionary traveling from town to town and country to country preaching the word of God. Paul was now writing them to thank them for their gift and to remind them that God would honor their sacrifices and meet their every need. The message to us today is that the church that gives to missionaries will have its own needs supplied.

This also applies to individuals as well as to churches. If we will give with a heart full of gratitude for all that God has done for us, He promises to meet our every need. Notice that this says needs, and not every want and desire which we might have. God knows what we need before we even ask for it. He also knows that some of the things we think we need, we are better off without. I am sure this is the reason we never get some of the things we think we have to have. It's funny how as we get older we can look back and see that we got along just fine without some of the things we thought we could just not live without a few years earlier.

Another need which we have, and I'm not sure this verse is referring to this need but I am going to mention it anyway, is the need to let God work through us to meet the needs in other people's lives and to love our fellow man more. You say that's hard to do? That's right, but we need to realize that we are not the source to meet other's needs, but only the channel. We need to realize that our resources and our love are from God, and we must draw them from him.

Our love for God must precede our love for the lost. If we love God, we will love when he loves. To love without action, without meeting needs, is not love. Every time you find God loving man, God is meeting needs.

BLACKS IN THE BOARD ROOM

By Edwin Feulner

The experts seem to have discovered a new problem to worry about: whether blacks are getting their "fair share" of top corporate jobs.

As usual, there are two competing schools of thought. One group argues that much progress has been made; others suggest that the black people one finds in corporate board rooms are either janitors or mirages. And both sides can produce an impressive array of statistical and anecdotal information to prove their point.

One recently published book, co-authored by an employee of Xerox Corporation and (understandably) a fiction writer, is glibly titled, Black Life in Corporate America. In the book, authors Glegg Watson and George Davis argue that black progress has been slow, and that the corporate board room has not been hospitable to black managers. Whether it's the old-boy network in action, subtle prejudice, or what have you, the authors conclude the road to the top is full of potholes and detours, bumps and curves that white executives don't have to negotiate.

A different view comes from columnist and social critic Walter Williams. Dr. Williams, a professor of economics at George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia, argues that whatever potholes and detours stand in the way of black progress have been put there by government do-gooders. Moreover, Williams argues persuasively, on an age-adjusted basis, college-educated black women are doing better than their white contemporaries, and while college-educated black men lag behind their white counterparts. This is largely due to their distribution in the job market, rather than any "other factor, hidden or observable. The problem: many college-educated black men turn to lower-paying careers in teaching, while a much greater proportion of whites go into high-paying careers in industry engineering, architecture, and so forth.

When jobs are compared — white and black teachers with the same education and experience, for example — blacks and white are almost indistinguishable. Professor Williams finds in his important new book, The State Against Blacks (McGraw-Hill, 1982).

The Bureau of Labor Statistics can't make up its mind. Commissioner Samuel Ehrenhalt has compiled evidence showing that the number of black professionals, technicians and managers increased to 2.3 million between 1970 and 1980, more than doubling. In some job categories, blacks far outgained whites during the decade, the Ehrenhalt study shows. A report by BLS economist Diane Westcott, meanwhile, argues that workplace progress during the 1970s was slower than in the 1960s.

Which only goes to show that you can prove anything with statistics.

Rounding out the new literature on this subject is a lavishly printed volume you are unlikely to find in any bookstore: Who's Who in Black Corporate America, published by a young Washington entrepreneur, William Reed. The book is fascinating because Reed doesn't fool around with statistical analyses, sob stories, juicy quotes, pictures, or any other literary or academic device. The book just gives us 268 pages of biographical profiles of black men and women — largely out of the public eye — who have parlayed their talent, education, and determination into positions of corporate responsibility: manufacturing, marketing, and sales executives; scientists; engineers; presidents and vice presidents of various companies; corporate board members; entrepreneurs.

These aren't affirmative action officers, minority recruitment specialists, or OEO compliance officials who were chosen because of their blackness. These are people who have quietly made it in corporate America, and are on their way up — even while others like Davis and Watson suggest it can't happen.

CAUSE OF THE CURRENT RECESSION

Henry Hazlitt recently said: "The high rates have brought on the present depression with its mass unemployment."

"The great political irony is that, though previous administrations are chiefly responsible for the huge deficit spending, the present administration is in danger of getting practically the entire blame for the depression by the mass of voters."

Since high interest rates caused the present recession we should want to know what caused the high interest rates.

The major causes were inflation and federal budget deficits.

There are several components which combine to make up nominal interest rates. The original rate historically has been 2 to 3 percent. Added to that is a long-term risk premium of about 2 percent.

Thus, if there were no inflation the nominal interest rate would be about 5 percent.

However, with inflation a premium for that must be added in.

In our example, with a 5 percent inflation rate the nominal interest rate would rise to 10 percent; with a 10 percent inflation rate it would rise to 15 percent. It is then obvious that inflation has an important impact on interest rates, and the higher interest rates go, the more negative the impact is on business activity.

Now, here is where Federal Reserve monetary policy and federal budget deficits enter the picture. In October 1979 the Fed changed its policy in attempting to control the money supply. Instead of targeting interest rates, it changed to targeting available credit — the money supply.

The huge budget deficits of the last decade soon added the fifth component to nominal interest rates — the fear premium of about 2 percent.

This was brought about by the fact that investors are concerned that these huge deficits will be financed by: either (1) government taking too much of available capital, thereby "crowding out" private borrowers, and the fear of (2) the Federal Reserve "loosening" monetary policy and setting off another inflationary binge.

It is these tremendously high rates over the past few years, caused by inflation and approximately $50 billion budget deficits which brought on the current recession in this country.

To end the recession will require removal of the causes: inflation and federal budget deficits. That means keeping a tight rein on the quality of money and credit and drastically reducing federal government spending.

Letter to the Editor:

Dear Residents of Muenster:

It is my pleasure to announce that on Monday, December 20, the Cooke County Commissioner's Court gave its approval to a plan which will allow our service to base an ambulance in Muenster. It is my opinion that this expansion plan will be one of the most valuable steps ever in our efforts to provide comprehensive, emergency medical service to the residents of Cooke County. By strategically locating our units throughout Cooke County our response times should be cut drastically, thereby increasing the effectiveness of our services.

Many residents in and around the Muenster area and all of western Cooke County voiced their support in this project and we feel that this could have been one of the deciding factors in gaining its approval. It is for this reason that we are grateful to those of you who helped. To show our appreciation we have decided to offer, for one additional month, our "CAREFREE" subscription program.

The program, created to reduce the cost of ambulance service, will be sold from now until January 31, 1983, to those persons who live in west Cooke County. We feel that due to the time lapse involved in responding to this portion of the County, many decided not to take out this plan, however, with the recent addition of the Muenster station it might be more attractive to those people.

If you wish to receive a brochure fully explaining the "CAREFREE" program and an attached application or if you have any questions please feel free to contact our business office at 665-1012 or 759-4991. A application is attached.

Again, our sincere appreciation for your help. We hope you never need our service, however, if you should we would like to make it as untraumatic as possible.

With best regards, Sincerely,
 Don Rice, EMT Paramedic

cepted as valid. If anything about the procedure was out of line it was a separate incident to be handled accordingly.

For instance a policeman who did not respect the rights of the accused, or violated the regulation in some other way, to obtain evidence ought to be disciplined for his conduct, but the criminal's conviction should not be reversed. It seems like complete folly to excuse a criminal for his crime because of some other person's mistake or indiscretion.

There are many cases in which the guilt or innocence of the accused is established beyond a reasonable doubt in spite of mistakes or even misconduct in the legal procedure. Common sense demands that such findings be accepted as valid and any unrelated details before or during the trial be dealt with separately.

Our first concern is to deal more effectively with crime, and the exclusionary rule isn't helping.

Clara Hermes was sworn in January 7 as postmaster of Lindsay by William Hathman, postmaster and sectional center manager of Fort Worth. She has been a part-time postal clerk at Lindsay since October 30, 1974, and officer in charge since the resignation of Mildred Biffle on October 1.

Clara Hermes takes oath as Lindsay postmaster

Clara A. Hermes is the new postmaster of Lindsay. She was sworn into office Friday, Jan. 7, by Willie H. Hathman, Fort Worth Postmaster, in the company of a number of past and present postal employees along with friends of Lindsay.

The oath of office reads as follows. "I, Clara A. Hermes, having been appointed postmaster, Lindsay, Texas, do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the constitution of the United States; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, and without any mental reservation, or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter; so help me God. Officially administered at Lindsay, Texas, on January 7, 1983. W.H. Hathman, MSC manager/postmaster."

Among the visitors were past-postmasters Mildred Biffle and Ewald Hoelker of Lindsay, present postmasters Imogene House of Era and C.L. Williams of Myra, Travis Reed of the Customer Service Division of the Fort Worth post office, and friends of Lindsay.

of money that was of prime consideration, but rather a principle—a contract is a contract. The contract in this case included a provision for changes, if needed, but only if such changes were approved by the contracting officer. In this case, they hadn't been.

Robertson said he had been told by SCS officials that he would be advised of any changes in the contract, but that he had received no such change orders. If he had, he said he would have submitted the proposed changes for consideration by the entire commissioner's court.

But Gallup said such a practice creates problems in that urgent additional repairs simply can't always wait several days for approval.

The commissioners, at the same time complaining that federal government contracts are too loosely-termed, voted to pay the bills, and watch more closely next time.

The federal government pays 75% of the cost of such repairs, but Robertson said the commissioners were concerned even if only a few tax dollars were involved.

In other action, the court granted a request by Larry Hawkins of the Callisburg school to check out a large number of books from the county library periodically and transport the books back to Callisburg for use by the students. The commissioners and library personnel agreed to the proposition, provided the Callisburg school would be held responsible for the books.

The commissioners also adopted a resolution concerning the Job Training Partnership Act of 1982. The act involves a program, which will be administered by Texas Governor Mark White, designed for training in skilled labor. The program will be administered first through the Texoma Regional Planning Commission and then through the individual counties.

In other action, the court agreed to advertise for bids on remodeling job for the district clerk's office and also accepted a lease for the justice of the peace office for Precinct 2.

News of the Sick

Infant John Michael Hoenig has been dismissed from Flow Memorial Hospital in Denton and is at home now with his parents, Sandra and David Hoenig and his 5-year-old sister, Leigh Ann. He was born on Nov. 30, 1982, weighing 4 lb. 3 oz. and was a patient in the Neo-Natal Unit for 5 weeks. John Michael is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sloan and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hoenig, all of Muenster.

CCC to register for Spring 1983 term

On-campus registration for the Spring term at Cooke County College is set for Thursday and Friday (Jan. 13-14) in the Activities Center, and students who have yet to secure a registration time permit should do so without delay, according to college officials.

Dr. Don Stafford, CCC registrar said completion of a simple application for admission is all that's necessary in most cases to qualify for enrollment. High school or college transcripts from the last school attended are required but may be turned in after registration.

Once the completed application is turned in, students will be issued a time permit to register. They also will be given a trial schedule to be filled out with the assistance of a college counselor.

The trial schedule, signed by a counselor is required for admission to the registration area. Appointments with counselors can be arranged through the CCC Counseling Center, and counselors will be on duty during registration to assist latecomers.

"We will do everything we can to make it easy for students, especially those who are getting started late, to get into school this spring," said Stafford.

The number of the registrar's office at CCC is 817-668-7731, extension 223.

Registration for the spring term at CCC will be conducted from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursday and from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Friday.

Late registration is scheduled for Monday through Wednesday (Jan. 17-19) beginning at 10:30 a.m. each day.

Classes for the 1983 spring term will begin Monday, Jan. 17.

Service held for John Quinlan at South Bend, Ind.

Funeral service for John A. Quinlan, 67, of South Bend, Ind., was held Wednesday, January 5, at Holy Cross Church of South Bend with Father Albin Hosinski CSC officiating at a Mass of Christian Burial, and interment was in Highland Cemetery.

Quinlan, husband of the former Dorothy Fette of Muenster, died January 2 after a long illness. He was a retired engineer of Bendix Corp. Aviation Division, retiring in 1977 after 25 years of service. He was a member of the Holy Cross Church, a graduate of Texas Tech, a member of the Bendix Management Retiree Club.

John Quinlan was born July 8, 1915 in Marietta, Ohio, and was married to Dorothy Fette on February 1, 1941. They have lived in South Bend since 1942.

Shooting death ruled a suicide

James Breyfogle, 20, rig operator for an oil well servicing company, was found dead Friday about 4 p.m. in the home of his half brother, John Tamplin, at 118 W. Seventh Street.

According to Sheriff's Investigator Jim Westfall, he was killed by a single gunshot wound in the right temple from a .22 caliber pistol.

Chief of Police Helen Tompkins said officials of the Southwest Institute of Forensic Science in Dallas had determined that the death was a suicide. Justice of the Peace Dorothy Smith ordered the body sent there for an autopsy. The body was sent to Hobard, Ind., for funeral service and burial.

Breyfogle was born at Gary, Ind., on July 7, 1962. His mother is Johna Breyfogle of Hobard, the former Johna Graham of Gainesville. He had been living in Muenster about a year.

Six of Beta Kappa attend district meet

Six members of the local Beta Kappa Chapter attended the District VI meeting in Wichita Falls on Sunday, Jan. 9. Attending were Louise Fisher, Barbara Felderhoff, Becky Felderhoff, Lisa Gonzalez, Debbie Hess and Marlene Endres.

The local chapter won a second place award for raising "Civic Money" and second place for raising "Service Money."

Also Barbara Felderhoff was elected to the office of District Parliamentarian. The group of women heard an address on Women Time Management, and a report on upcoming Easter Seals Program, and Rehabilitation Centers. Barbara Felderhoff won a stuffed Christmas tree in one of the several drawings.

Love Fund opened by Beta Kappa

Beta Kappa of ESA has established a Love Fund at Muenster State Bank for Janice Hesse, wife of Richard Hesse of Gainesville. Friends and residents are invited to participate, to help defray mounting expenses for her medical care, and hospitalization during her prolonged illness.

Hortons entertain in San Antonio

Gene and Margaret (Bergman) Horton of San Antonio have sent belated Christmas greetings to The Enterprise, telling also about their Christmas guests. Included were her son and daughter-in-law, Douglas and Gayle Wilde, and Gayle's parents, the Bill Sheltons. Also, Art and Viola (Bergman) Arnold and her grandson Chris Sommers all of San Antonio and Floresville.

Christmas afternoon phone calls came from Mrs. Horton's daughters and families, the Nel Brachus and son Billy and the Danny Beachers all of Westbrook, Maine. Also from Mrs. Arnold's daughter and son-in-law, the Cliff Langhoeffers of Dodge City, Kansas. Another call came from friends, Walt and Cooke Opensnako of Bayfort, Mich.

Best news shared by all was the improvement in Gene Horton's health. After multiple surgeries, he is now an out-patient from Audie Murphy Veteran's Hospital.

Mrs. Gene Horton and Mrs. Art Arnold are former Muenster residents, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bergman.

Steven's Family Thanks You

In our grief, we are heartened by the kindness showered upon us by our relatives, neighbors and friends and Steven's classmates, teachers and all acquaintances.

The prayers offered for Steven and for us; the messages, cards and phone calls that said "We Care"; the Masses, spiritual bouquets and floral arrangements; the words offered in tribute to Steven; the beautiful liturgy of his funeral Mass; the hundreds who came to pray; and the spontaneous outpouring of friendship and concern from this entire community, all these are blending into a comforting memory.

We are particularly grateful to Fathers Placidus, Denis and Victor; to the Benedictine Sisters, to the ladies who prepared the family meal, to the Knights of Columbus who provided a place to gather, and to our out-of-town friends who drove long distances to attend Steven's funeral and to everyone here whose presence showed your love for a boy.

We pray that God will bless you, and sustain us until we meet again.

Luke families have reunion

A delayed Christmas gathering for several members of the Ben Luke relationship was held on Saturday Jan. 8, awaiting the attendance of Father Eugene Luke of Subiaco and several others who came for the weekend to attend the Luke-Vowell wedding.

A Home Mass celebrated by Father Eugene at 6:30 p.m. preceded a covered dish supper hosted by the R.N. Fette family.

Attending were Katie Herr, the Tony Lukes, the Bill Lukes, Dan Luke and family, the Don Hartmans andson, the Dave Fettes and son, and Bernie Fette, all of Muenster; the Bernard Lukes of Irving; Carolyn Luke and a guest of Denton; Damian Luke of Wichita Falls and a guest of Texarkana; Harold Luke of Arlington; Carol Hancock of Fort Worth; Father Eugene and the hosts.

Ramon Luke marries Tawni Vowell

Tawni Gay Vowell became the bride of Ramon Eugene Luke on January 7 in a 7 p.m. Worship Service held in First United Methodist Church in Gainesville, the bride's childhood home church. The date and time were chosen because of the Biblical significance to the number "7".

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Lynn Vowell of Valley View and the groom is the son of Daniel B. Luke of Muenster and the late Dolores Luke.

The bride is a graduate of Valley View High School, and Texas Woman's University, Denton, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing. She completed the one-year-advanced-studies program for college graduates at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. She was an exchange student in Japan in 1977 and was in Israel during the summer of 1982. A member of the TWU cross-country track team while a student, she was also Cooke County's Ideal Miss in 1976. The bride is a Registered Nurse and was employed as a surgical floor nurse at Flow Hospital in Denton, where she recently resigned, to move to Corpus Christi after her marriage.

The groom is a graduate of Muenster High School, and the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. He completed Naval Aviation Flight Training in 1981 and is a Lieutenant in the United States Navy; also a Search-and-Rescue Helicopter Aircraft Commander and Photography Division Officer, and is stationed at the Naval Base in Corpus Christi.

The double ring wedding ceremony and worship service were planned and written by the couple. Officiating ministers were Rev. Carroll Copeland of Tyler, Father Eugene Luke of Subiaco, Ark., and Deacon Jerry Klement of Temple.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was wearing her mother's wedding gown, a chapel length dress of white Douppioni silk taffeta fashioned with a Sabrina neckline accented by a yoke of Alencon lace. The bouffant skirt also featured an inset of matching lace that formed an apron effect. Her fingertip veil of illusion was gathered to a delicate headpiece and fell in drifts to the sides. For sentiment she borrowed her mother's pearl strand necklace, and carried her mother's white wedding Bible in her bridal bouquet of white roses and white stephanotis.

Attendants

Chana Vowell of Valley View was her sister's maid of honor. Mrs. Dwayne Rohmer, the groom's sister Cheryl, and Mrs. James W. Ballard, Jr., the bride's friend, Janet, were bridesmaids. They wore emerald green hooded floor length velvet capes, and carried elegant white muffs.

Lt. Tom Rychlik, USMC of Norfolk, Virginia, a classmate of the groom and company commander at the U.S. Naval Academy, was best man.

LTJG Bart Roberts, USNR of Jacksonville, Florida, a friend of the groom; and MID'N I/C Mark Vowell USNR of Norman, Okla., brother of the bride were groomsmen. All wore their official formal military uniforms.

Damian Luke of Wichita Falls, Benji Luke of Nacogdoches and Gregory Luke of Muenster, all brothers of the groom, and Lt. Kenneth Bitter, USN of San Diego, classmate of the groom at Annapolis, were ushers.

The wedding service included piano prelude music by Kirk Dearman of Dallas, organ prelude music by Glenn Wilson of Gainesville and the traditional wedding marches.

The invocation and The Lord's Prayer were given by Father Eugene Luke; followed by a congregational hymn "They'll Know We Are Christians by Our Love," and a solo: "The Wedding Song" sung by Kirk Dearman.

Two Scripture Readings and the Sermon were given by Rev. Mr. Jerry Klement. The Intercessory Prayer was led by Rev. Carroll Copeland, followed by a solo "I Could Never Promise You" sung by Mr. Dearman. The exchange of vows and the exchange of rings were officiated by Rev. Copeland, followed by the prayers of the bride and groom.

As the couple approached the altar for the lighting of their Unity Candle, the bride's father sang "Sunrise, Sunset", accompanied by Mr. Dearman. The unity candle was made by the groom's uncle, Father Eugene Luke.

Pronouncement of Marriage and Presentation of the Couple were made by Rev. Copeland.

Decorations in church included white tapered candles in a pair of tall floor candelabra in the altar space and the unity candle flanked by tall white tapers on the altar.

Reception

A reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church followed the wedding service. The bride and groom entered under an arch of sabers presented by the groom's former classmates and friends. Adding to the military formality, the groom's personal naval officer's saber was used to cut the wedding cake.

Eleanore Shewan of Valparaiso, Ind., classmate of the bride at the Bible Institute, presided at the bride's book, securing signatures of 275 guests.

The bride's table was covered with white lace, and held the wedding cake, punch service and the Unity candle. The three tiered, all white wedding cake was accented with ivy and white babies breath. An emerald green fountain was placed beneath the first columned tier and the top layer held an arrangement of three white wedding bells accented with pearls.

Decorations in the reception room carried out the bride's chosen colors of emerald green and white. The gift table was covered with an emerald green cloth and the centerpiece was a treasured keepsake, a tall, 3 tiered, metal, 20 candle candelabra of original design - used first for the golden wedding anniversary of the groom's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luke, and later for the 25th anniversary of the groom's parents.

Reception assistants were Mrs. Betty Rose Walterscheid of Muenster, Eleanore Shewan of Valparaiso, Ind., Ann Morrison of Garland, Evalyn Carson of Valley

View and Mrs. Carrie Davidson of Valley View.

During the reception a slide presentation was shown on the screen, featuring pictures of the bride and groom from childhood through the present courtship days.

After a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple will be at home in Corpus Christi where he is stationed.

Rehearsal Dinner

The rehearsal dinner was held at K-Bob's Steak House on Jan. 6 for 25 guests. A shower on Dec. 12 was hosted by friends at First United Methodist Church; and another shower on Dec. 17 was given by the floor staff at Flow Memorial Hospital where the bride was employed.

What is a Mother

It takes a Mother's Love to make a house a home
A place to be remembered, no matter where we roam
It takes a Mother's Patience to bring a child up right;
And her Courage and her CHEERFULNESS to make a dark day bright...
It takes a Mother's THOUGHTFULNESS to mend the heart's deep "hurts",
And her SKILL and her ENDURANCE to mend little socks and shirts...
It takes a Mother's KINDNESS to forgive us when we err;
To sympathize in trouble and bow her hear in prayer...
It takes a Mother's WISDOM to recognize our needs
And to give us reassurance by her loving words and deeds
It takes a Mother's ENDLESS FAITH, her CONFIDENCE and TRUST
To guide us through the pitfalls of selfishness and lust
And that is why in all this world there could not be another
Who could fulfill God's purpose as completely as a MOTHER.

A First Texas 80's Report: On Money Market Investments.

"Only one plan offers you an escalating interest rate. Plus a lot more!"

Today, a lot of places offer money market investments. Banks have them. So do brokerage houses. But only First Texas has Money Maker Plus. It's a new type of high-yield investment designed with many pluses to help you beat the 80's.

+Plus: An escalating interest rate.

The first and biggest plus is the interest rate. It's escalating, so the more you invest, the higher your interest rate. And throughout 1982, First Texas interest rates were consistently higher than the average rates of money market funds.

Under	$2,500	$2,500	$5,000	$10,000	$50,000
Rates:	5.25%	9.50%	10.00%	10.50%	10.75%

These sample rates illustrate the increments of this investment. Actual interest rates will probably differ and may vary daily.

+Plus: It's insured.

Another plus is that your principal and interest are insured safe up to $100,000 by the FSLIC. You also have immediate access to your money.

+Plus: Check writing, and a free regular-checking bonus.

With the First Texas Money Maker Plus, after a minimum opening deposit of $2,500, you can write checks, pre-authorize drafts, and make additional deposits or withdrawals of $500 or more.

There's a checking bonus, too. When you open this account, you'll receive a free First Texas regular checking account for one year.

+Plus: It's only at First Texas.

Other pluses include no activity charges or management fees, and you even receive a monthly statement of your account.

Mail this coupon or bring it to your nearest First Texas office today to open your account and receive your free one-year regular checking account. Or call this toll-free number: (800) 442-1256; or in Dallas, call 458-4790 and they'll open it over the phone.

The Money Maker Plus account.

When you add up all the pluses, it's yet another way First Texas can help you make the most of your money. And that's what beating the 80's is all about.

The 1983 American Beauty Rose of the Year

Throughout the world, American rose hybridizers are recognized as the leaders in the development of superior rose varieties. They have taken the once delicate rose and endowed it with many superior characteristics. Today's top American Roses are easier to grow, require less care, yet produce the most beautiful flowers in all the world. And they are hardy under even the toughest growing conditions.

But every American rose variety isn't equal in its ability to produce superior growth and blooming without special growing conditions or constant care and attention. Each year the All-American Rose selections committee evaluates newly developed roses which have undergone two years of thorough testing in twenty-five official test gardens throughout the United States. Only roses which have performed exceptionally well and possess superior growth and blooming traits are eligible for the final balloting by the experts on the committee. The winners receive the highly coveted AARS seal.

Peggy Lee the 1983 American Beauty Rose of the Year. Introducing the most beautiful pink Hybrid Tea Rose of all time with blooms so enchanting they're like a song that haunts your memory. The big flowers are 4 1/2-5 1/2" across with 30 exceptionally broad petals and are borne in profusion on bushy, upright-spreading, well-branched plants. Abundant medium green foliage. Large, long, pointed, urn-shaped buds. Delightful, delicate fragrance. All-in-all a truly classic rose well deserving of special recognition as the American Beauty 1983 Rose-of-the-Year. Just like the all-time great entertainer for which this new rose has been named, it is destined to become a special favorite of everyone who truly appreciates style, grace and charm.

Morning Sun, the American Beauty 1983 Special Award rose. Gardeners are constantly on the search for the increased hardiness in a yellow rose...and this winner of American Beauty Roses 1983 Special Award has that special quality - above average hardiness. Its large 40 petal medium yellow flowers are abundant and long-lasting. Glossy foliage and long, low-thorned cutting stems add to the special qualities which make Morning Sun especially outstanding for bouquets. The upright bushy plants are robust and disease resistant.

The Muenster Enterprise is grateful for the pictures for our use in "Photos From The Past." We will continue to use them as space allows. Persons who have old pictures from any era are invited to share them with our readers. May we repeat a suggestion made a number of time by those who offered pictures? "It would be good to urge your readers to ask their parents or grandparents or other relatives who know dates, places, and names of people in treasured old pictures, to fully identify them, write and record the pertinent information, for the sake of this and future generations."

Richardson family gather for holidays

Mrs. August Fleitman enjoyed a family reunion of the Richardson relationship this Christmas for the first time in 7 years, held in the family home in Gainesville. The fun-filled day included singing Christmas carols in English, French and German, while Mrs. Les Richardson accompanied on her guitar. Also, getting acquainted with newest members of the family and picture taking were added pleasures.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Martin and Mrs. Camilla Young and daughters all of Gainesville; Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Zackery and family and Mark Richardson all of Denton; Mrs. Norman Snodgrass and son of Edinburg; Mr. and Mrs. August Fleitman and family of Muenster; Mrs. Robert Bush and family of Madison, Wisc. and Mr. and Mrs. Les Richardson of Dallas.

Mmes Snodgrass and Bush also visited in homes of their brothers and sisters several times and one day they all visited the Golden Triangle Mall. Mrs. Snodgrass brought everyone gifts of beautiful lemons from Edinburg, grown to grapefruit size on grafted trees. Mrs. Bush returned home on Jan. 1 and Mrs. Snodgrass on Jan. 2, departing from DFW.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the entire Muenster Memorial Hospital staff especially Drs. Knight and Kralicko, the nurses, lab, X-ray, kitchen and housekeeping personnel for the concern and care given me during my 5 week confinement there. My thanks go also to Bishop Dangelmayr, Fathers Denis and Victor for bringing Holy Communion so regularly, and to Fathers Jerry Mossman and Harry Fisher for their visits. Many thanks to all who sent flowers, spiritual bouquets and cards, and also those who visited me and prayed for my recovery. Special thanks to my neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. LaCoe and family for the quick thinking the day of the accident. I appreciate and will always remember all the kindnesses shown me.

Sincerely
Mrs. Frank Yosten

Fat Stock Show opens Jan. 16 for 12 days

A 20 percent increase in the junior division has been reported for the 87th annual Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, scheduled for its 12-day run Jan. 26 through Feb. 6 at the Will Rogers Complex in Fort Worth.

W.R. Watt Jr., show president-manager, noted the largest increase is in the junior barrow show where entries gained 623 head to total 1,673. He said junior lamb entries have increased 213 to 1,562 head.

He said overall in the cattle, sheep and swine divisions entries total 9,793 head. Exhibitors of poultry, pigeons and rabbits have until Jan. 15 to enter, but Watt estimated that this group will number around 4,200 head.

Entries in the horse division this year are about 2,000 head, with some entries still being processed. Overall, the Stock Show entry is estimated at 16,000 head, about the same as the past several years.

Entries are also being taken for the annual Stock Show All-Western Parade, scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. Friday, Jan. 28, downtown. The parade, unique in that no motorized vehicles are allowed in the line-up, is open to riding clubs, bands, marching units and horse-drawn vehicles. There is no entry fee for the parade. Applications are available at the Stock Show office.

Jerry Clower, Grand Ole Opry star and nine-times Country Comic of the year, will be special entertainer at each of the 22 rodeo performances.

Rodeo tickets are on sale daily, including Sunday, at the box office in the lobby of Will Rogers Coliseum. Tickets for all nights and weekends are $8 each, and $6 for weekday matinees. Mail orders should include $1 extra per order for return postage and handling. Mail to Stock Show office, P.O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Tx. 76101.

Members of the American Farm Bureau, in their national convention at Dallas this week, liked what they heard in President Reagan's speech, especially his "Payment-in-Kind" program to reduce the farm surplus and his proposal for higher prices on farm exports. Standing behind the president is Robert Delano, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Among members attending were Leonard Hartman, president of the Cooke County FB, and his wife, Emily, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Hartman, Bill Bayer, and Kenneth Woods of Forestburg.

Economist predicts bad year for agriculture in Texas

Agriculture is at a crossroads due to large supplies and low prices, and farmers have few options to improve their situations in 1983.

"Just how long farmers can hang on financially is the big question," says Dr. Carl Anderson, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "Right now, many are scraping the bottom of the barrel as far as their financial resources are concerned — thanks to three consecutive years of poor prices. And they can't last much longer. Only those who are virtually debt-free will be able to make it."

Returns to assets of debt-free farmers will average in the range of minus 3 to minus 7 percent in 1982, says Anderson, while returns to farmers with a heavy debt load will be a negative 14 to 18 percent. "With those kinds of figures, it's easy to see that farmers must depend less on debt financing," he said.

Farmers generally are victims of overproduction in recent years coupled with a major slowdown in farm exports and domestic demand. This has led to growing stockpiles of most crops. Present farm programs designed to reduce these stockpiles have been a flop, Anderson said. So farmers and farm policymakers must soon decide whether or not to do something about the increasingly critical farm dilemma.

"Among options are mandatory production control and possible marketing quotas to bring supplies in line with effective demand," the economist said. "Strong supply management likely will improve current low farm income in a couple of years. With voluntary programs, it will take much longer."

Regarding the dilemma of farmers, Anderson offers a number of observations: 1. For 1982 net U.S. farm income is projected at $19 billion, down from $25 billion in 1981. Cash receipts will be about equal to farm expenditures this year, so virtually all net income will come from government payments and non-money income. Income could improve some in 1983 depending on what direction farm programs take.

2. Farmland markets are expected to remain sluggish. In some areas of the U.S. and Texas, land prices likely will decline.

3. Farm exports are facing major setbacks. No noticeable progress has been made in trade negotiations with major U.S. foreign market countries such as the European Common Market, Japan, Mainland China or Russia. When economic conditions are bad, countries want to export more and import less. A big setback to Texas cotton growers is that China intends to grow more cotton and import less from the U.S.

4. Although credit is available, farmers have difficulty in qualifying unless they still have adequate collateral. Debt restructuring will continue. Loan delinquencies, foreclosures and bankruptcies will be up although lenders seldom benefit from liquidating a borrower.

CCC offers word processing

In a recent workshop for area high school secretaries conducted at Cooke County College, the main thrust of technological change for secretaries was characterized in two words: word processing.

Claudia Ayers, IBM marketing representative from Dallas, presented the workshop with special emphasis on the current and future use of the word processor in office work.

"Our basic purpose in presenting this special workshop was twofold," explained CCC outreach counselor Linda Mast who coordinated the program. "First we wanted to express our thanks to the secretaries for their assistance to the Cooke County College staff during the school year. Also, we wanted to bring them the latest job-related educational information."

Among CCC staffers participating in the program were Mary Jo Leach, secretary to the Dean of Students and president of the college's Secretarial Association. She introduced the workshop and explained how college secretaries take advantage of courses at CCC to upgrade their professional skills.

More detailed information regarding instructional programs specifically related to word processing was given by Maxine Stillely director of the division of business administration at CCC. She reported that the word processor is creating a wealth of new job opportunities.

Training is now available in word processing at CCC where both beginning and advanced courses will be offered to students this spring. In addition to classroom instruction, students taking the courses will put in extensive time practicing on the latest and most modern word processing (WP) equipment.

Basically, WP systems are built around machines that look like typewriters but work like computers, capable of storing information, correcting mistakes, merging form letters with address lists and making hundreds of copies.

"They do all this at high speed, repeating typed documents and letters ten times faster than the average typist," Ms. Stillely explained, "and every copy is perfect."

Job opportunities, said Ms. Stillely, are excellent in this specialized field, and earning potential for trained WP specialists is high. In addition, current demand for part-time specialists is substantial.

Word processing courses are being offered during both the day and evening this spring at Cooke County College. Students may take word processing courses only or other additional academic courses if they choose.

Completing a simple application for admission to the college is all that's necessary to qualify for enrollment in most cases, Ms. Mast pointed out. Registration for the upcoming spring semester at CCC is scheduled for Thursday and Friday (January 13-14) on campus.

For more information, call Ms. Mast at 817-668-7731, extension 216.

Forestburg News

by Myrt Denham

The Forestburg homemakers are planning on compiling a recipe book and would like for Forestburg ladies to send them their favorite recipes for it.

Mrs. Phyllis Berry, wife of Henry Berry, of Nocona was a very lucky lady last week—winning a brand new Ford pickup. Seems Henry had purchased a ticket from the Rotary club in Nocona, who were selling chances on the pickup as a money raising project. Anyhow, Henry put his wife's name on the ticket—and she won! Henry is the son of "Dude" and Bula Mae Berry.

Christmas holiday visitors with Mrs. Alice Shears were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Shears and children of Clyde, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shears and grandson Mickel of Nocona and Mrs. Esther Shears and Rhett.

Mrs. Gretell Fanning and Mrs. Alice Shears were New Years day dinner guests of Ross and Lucille Littell.

Mrs. Mollie Morre is a patient in the Gainesville Hospital as of last week. W.F. Conway, "High Sheriff of Montague County" is a patient in the Muenster Memorial Hospital as of last week. Am told he is to be dismissed any day now.

Mrs. Minnie Forrester of Decatur visited with Mrs. Edna Forrester Saturday, December 25.

Recent visitors with Aunt Mollie Howell were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Howell of Alford. Wynona Riddles reports that Aunt Mollie is doing very well these days.

Marion Foster of Pampa, son of the late Lee and Kate Foster, was a recent visitor in the Forestburg community.

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Mitchell of Niteo, West Virginia, spent Tuesday night, December 28 with their Aunt Mrs. Nema Barnett. Mrs. Mitchell is the daughter of the late Charlie and Vera (Boyd) Barnett.

Mrs. Mary (Hunt) Kazmir of Portersville, Calif. fell one day last week and broke her hip. She is a patient in the Exeter Memorial Hospital, Room 40, Exeter, Calif., 93211. Mrs. Kazmir is a sister to Joe Hunt and Mrs. Georgia Greenwood.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. D.D. Echols of Mallard were: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mills of Burkburnett; Charles and Joyce Leeper of Fort Worth, Sandra McClary of Lancaster and Hazel Greenwood.

Mrs. Virginia Vann of Montague visited with Mrs. Alice Shears and Mrs. Esther Shears and Rhett Friday December 31st.

Charlie and Gladys Barclay were in Alford Sunday, January 2nd to visit with his mother Mrs. Claude Barclay and Charles brother Theo and family from Dallas. On Monday the 3rd Charlie and Gladys made a business trip to Valley View.

More January birthdays are: Sam Parsons - Jan. 8th, Tanya Parsons - Jan. 9th, Christy Dell Greenwood - Jan. 20th, and Bula Mae Berry, Jan. 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Griffin, Jr. were honored with a reception and wedding shower Sunday p.m. January 2nd from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Forestburg Community Center. About forty people attended.

Mrs. Cleo Lanier attended the "Swearing In Ceremonies" at the County Court House for County officials Saturday January 1st. Shirley Lanier of Forestburg started her new duties as County Treasurer on January 3rd.

Miss Lecia Lynch of Arlington visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Lynch, Sunday January 2nd. That p.m. Mrs. Virginia Lynch and Lecia and Mrs. Merle Hudspeth drove over to the Bowie airport to pick up Merle's sister, Mrs. Norma Moore of New Roads, La. Mrs. Moore will visit with her mother Mrs. Irene Harry for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hofbauer and children of Muenster visited with Dude and Bula Mae Berry Sunday p.m., January 2nd. Carvin Moseley was also a visitor in the Berry home.

Charles Lanier of Wichita Falls visited with his mother Shirley Lanier during the New Year holidays. On Sunday the 2nd he visited with his grandmother, Mrs. Cleo Lanier.

Mrs. Wanda Monroe and daughters Cindy, Janet and Jackie motored over to Bowie Monday, January 3rd to visit with another daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie May and children.

Recent visitors in the Loveta and Clifton Bewley home were Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Echols of Watuga and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Bewley and children of Era.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Greenwood of Pilot Point visited with his mother, Mrs. Georgia Greenwood and family on Saturday, January 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barton of Lake Jackson arrived in the Burg Thursday, December 23, to visit with her mother Mrs. Elva Carter. On Sunday December 26 the Bartons returned home and Mrs. Carter's company was Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Neeley of Gainesville, Mrs. Esther Shears and Rhett and Mrs. Alice Shears.

About 1 a.m. January 3, "the lights went out" in Dewey for about 3 hrs. Seems someone traveling on the Sunset Highway towards the Montague Highway Intersection — just kept "a-going" straight ahead and plowed into a electric utility pole. A lot of us sure missed our electric blankets in a hurry.

A tropical Anne Murray in new special

By Debra Morgenstern Katz

Anne Murray's last prime-time special on CBS, "A Special Anne Murray Christmas," did so well in the ratings that not only was she nominated for a People's Choice award but she was asked by CBS to do another musical-variety program this winter.

But a Christmas extravaganza, it won't be.

"I didn't want to do another Christmas special," says Miss Murray, in a phone interview from her native Canada. "I don't want people looking at the TV set and saying, 'Oh, look, there's Anne Murray. It must be Christmas.'"

So there'll be no sleigh bells and red-faced Santas on Miss Murray's newest special, airing Wednesday, Jan. 19 on CBS. Quite the contrary — palm trees and sailor suits will be the most common sights.

"Anne Murray — Caribbean Cruise" features the award-winning singer and her co-stars, singers Eddie Rabbitt and Jose Luis Rodriguez and diet expert/comedian Richard Simmons aboard the S.S. Norway for a musical journey around the hot, lush Caribbean islands.

"I've always wanted to go on a cruise," says Miss Murray, who's earned 3 Grammy awards, six gold albums, two platinum albums, and 18 Juno awards. "Ever since I was a little girl, that's been a dream of mine. I've always thought I'd like to get on a boat and sing for a couple of weeks."

And that's what she does. Both the ship itself and the island of St. Thomas are backdrops for the steel bands and musical numbers — from rock to reggae — of the special. Songs from Miss Murray's latest album, "Hottest Night of the Year," will be included.

MHS upsets Forestburg 65-44

MHS Hornets had a big night at Forestburg last Thursday. After losing three previous games to the Longhorns they breezed to a decisive 65-44 triumph in the fourth encounter.

Credit goes to two factors, as seen by Coach Gustine. Muenster was at its best of the season and Forestburg was not up to par. Nevertheless the win was very satisfying and a welcome boost to Hornet morale.

Following a 10-8 first quarter lead the Hornets hit their stride in the second and gained 13 for a 29-14 advantage. They kept up the good work in the third adding 8 to their lead for a 49-26 lead.

However the situation got tense in the fourth when a Forestburg hot streak trimmed the MHS lead to 12 points with 5 minutes to go. Fortunately for the Hornets their rally halted the Longhorns and gained to the 21-point final lead.

Kevin Felderhoff was the MVP with 20 points, 24 rebounds and 6 blocked shots. Other scorers were Wayne Carroll 16, Steve Fisher 13, Jay Mollenkopf 8, Kevin Wolf 6, Ronnie Fisher 2.

Hornettes were less successful. They got along for three quarters with leads of 6-4, 12-9, and 18-15, but could not stand the pressure of Forestburg's fourth quarter rally. Outscored 13-4 in the period they ended at the short end of 28-22. Stephanie Richey scored 8 for MHS and Rita Walterscheid 6.

Hornets nudge Knights 51-47

In a double overtime classic the Hornets edged Lindsay's Knight 51-47 on the MHS court Tuesday night. But the girls game was different, much different, as the high flying Lindsay girls scored to an easy 48-24 win.

The boys' game was hot all the way with Muenster trailing 12-9 at the first quarter and leading 19-16 and 31-27 at the second and third. Lindsay regained the lead and was ahead 42-39 40 seconds before the end. Then Steven Fisher hit a clutch shot and Kevin Felderhoff tied the game with the first of a one and one. First overtime yielded two buckets on each side and the second went Muenster's way as Felderhoff got two field goals and Ronnie Fisher hit the second of two foul shots while holding the visitors to 1 free shot.

Kevin Felderhoff led the way with 27 points, 15 rebounds and 4 blocked shots. Wayne Carroll added 10, Ronnie Fisher 7, Steven Fisher 5 and Kevin Wolf 2.

Lindsay girls gained in three quarters of the first game and gave up 2 points of their margin in the fourth. Scores by periods were 9-4, 21-7, 39-13 and 48-24. Rita Walterscheid led the Muenster scoring with 11, Stephanie Richey made 6 and Jill Wimer 5.

Standing in district now are 2-1 for the Hornets and 1-2 for the Hornettes. Their next action will be Friday at Alvord.

Tiger super rally nips Alamo

A red hot rally overcoming a 12 point deficit late in the fourth period propelled Sacred Heart to a thrilling 56-55 win over Alamo High of Amarillo here Friday night. The victory, giving them a standing of 1-1 in the TCIL district race, was No. 100 in Coach Jon LeBrasseur's career with the Tigers.

The coach was enthusiastic about the achievement, saying the Tigers played their sharpest game and made specially good use of times out and steals. The winning shot, with 13 seconds to go, was made by Darrell Herr following a steal.

The visitors led for three periods, by scores of 14-11, 30-23 and 40-31 and carried on until two minutes before the end. Then they launched the inspired rally that turned the game around.

Neil Hesse and TJ Walterscheid shared scoring honors with 13 each and Greg Walterscheid was next with 12, including 8 super big ones in the last two minutes. Duane Walterscheid and Darrell Herr had 9 each.

SH girls had no problem in soaring to a 66-31 runaway. They led 41-7 at the half and coasted while holding their margin to the end.

Susan Walterscheid topped the scoring with 23 points, Anne Felderhoff had 14, Sandra Walterscheid 12, Marilynn Hartman 8, Sandra Hess 4, Lydia Walterscheid 2, Lisa Haverkamp 2, Laurie Endres 1.

Winners named in free throw contest

Winners of the annual free throw contest sponsored by the Knights of Columbus are announced by Dan Hamric, chairman. It was held Saturday in Sacred Heart gym with 51 children participating.

Winners and alternates and their scores are listed as follows. The scores indicate the number of shots made out of 15 tries.

Boys division. Age 14: Ken Hesse 13, and Cezar

Zamora 9; Age 13: John Mangum 10, and Brent Holland; Age 12: Darrell Dangelmayr 9, and Ryan Bayer 9; Age 11: Mike Mangum 4, and Chad Fleitman 3.

Girls division. Age 14: Page Sirman 11, and Sandra Walterscheid 9; Age 13: Danna Hamric 8, and Beverly Haverkamp 7; Age 12: Renee Klement 7, and Vicki Walterscheid 6; Age 11: Amy Walterscheid 4, and Lisa Hamric 3.

SH teams split at Notre Dame

Sacred Heart Tigerettes won a 36-33 squeaker and the Tigers lost a 75-50 bomber in their journey to Notre Dame of Wichita Falls Tuesday night. As a result the SH girls now have a 2-1 record and boys a 1-2 record in the TCIL district race. Both will have another meeting with Alamo at Amarillo Friday, the 21st before going to the district tournament.

The girls game was close all the way with Tigerettes leading except once in the second period when ND led 11-10. Scores ending the periods were 8-6, 14-13, 28-23 and 36-33. Poor shooting on both sides accounts for the low scores. Toward the end the Tigerettes were in foul trouble when Karla Hartman and Sandra Hess came from the bench and did a fine job.

Anne Felderhoff scorched the net with 21 points and

Susan Walterscheid added 9. The Tigers encountered a powerhouse in the ND Knights and were outscored in every period by counts of 16-11, 37-26, 57-38 and 75-50. Their top scorers were Neil Hesse 13, Greg Walterscheid 12, TJ Walterscheid 9, Darrell Herr 7, Gene Haverkamp 6.

Next on the schedule are Chico there Friday at 6 p.m. and here Tuesday at 6 p.m.

Lindsay splits at Alvord, Slidell

The Knights did not fare as well, losing a squeaker to Alvord and a one sided tussle to Slidell. Playing the Bulldogs they trailed 11-10 at the first quarter and led 23-22 and 32-31 at the second and third, but Alvord nudged ahead in the fourth for its 42-40 win.

Three seniors, Greg Haverkamp, Ronnie Fleitman and Mike Hermes shared the scoring honors with 10 points each.

The Slidell game was no contest and ended with the hosts in front of a 55-38 count. On the way they had leads of 17-8, 33-18 and 49-28. Lindsay's leading scorers were Greg Haverkamp 12, Doug Anderle 11 and Glenn Hermes 10.

Junior varsity boys preceded each of the twin bills. At Alvord Lindsay lost 43-30 as Kevin Fuhrmann and Wayne Fleitman each hit 10.

The score was 64-33 in Lindsay's favor at Slidell, as Larry Hermes and Wayne Fleitman scored 16 each.

After their first two games of the district basketball race Lindsay girls have a perfect start of 2-0 whereas the boys have 0-2. They divided honors at Alvord on January 4 and at Slidell on the 7th.

Two Knights receive all-state honors

Post season recognition for two Lindsay gridders was received last week in all-state selections by the Texas Sports Writers Association. Stan Dieter was named linebacker on the No. 1 defensive team; Gary Weems received honorable mention as a running back.

Film on water conservation features Garden Club meeting

Water Conservation and a film on "Water for Tomorrow" prepared and furnished by Oklahoma State University, were features of the January meeting of Muenster Garden Club on Monday evening in the TP&L Building. Mrs. Pat Stelzer was hostess to the group.

Mrs. Ray Wilde presided for the business meeting. Members answered roll call by naming a way to conserve water. Mrs. James Roark reported on the Christmas party hosted by the County Council of Garden Clubs in the home of Mrs. Loree Blagg in Gainesville.

A book on Flower Arrangements Suitable for Churches was exhibited and will be given to Muenster City Library in memory of the late Mrs. Ben Luke, a former charter member.

The nominating committee Mrs. Herb Miller, Mrs.

James Hess and Mrs. Paul Endres reported the following nominees for 1983-84: Mrs. Ray Wilde president; Mrs. James Roark 1st vice president, Mrs. King Koch 2nd vice president, Mrs. Ray Sicking 3rd vice president, whose additional duties are programs, yearbooks and membership; Mrs. Bill Luke secretary, Mrs. James Hess treasurer, Mrs. Herb Miller parliamentarian.

A discussion and pre-planning followed on the club's Germanfest booth.

Next month's meeting on Feb. 14 will be in the home of Mrs. Al Hess, when Mrs. Paul Endres will present a program on "Cactus."

The hostess served refreshments to eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Bilderback of Myra who attended with Mrs. Ray Sicking.

Beta Kappa meets, sets up Love Funds

Kathy Fette hosted the January meeting of the Beta Kappa chapter of ESA on Jan. 11.

Members voted to establish a "Love Fund" on behalf of Mrs. Richard Hesse who has been hospitalized since November. The club also voted a donation from the "Love Fund" to the V. Gaston family of Saint Jo.

Louise Fisher reported on chapter presidency and Jean Greathouse reported on the vice-presidency. Barbara Felderhoff told about the district meeting in Wichita Falls on Jan. 9.

Gifts of T-Shirts were presented to beta Kappa members who wear the top fund raisers in their recent Cystic Fibrosis Walk-a-thon.

TIA plans for mini-reflection

Plans for coming months and reports of chairmen were features of the Jan. 9 meeting of TIA, Youth Ministry Group.

Students heard a report from the social chairmen on their visit to St. Richard's Villa for an afternoon of bingo for the residents. The group of four sophomores, Jana Hamilton, Pat Herr, Donna Wolf and Tonya Fisher and Mrs. Arnold Rohmer served angel food cake and ice cream following the games. The group will return for another visit with residents on Jan. 23 and invite any high school sophomore to join them.

Plans were made to have a mini-reflection day on Sunday, Feb. 20 with Pam Alford, diocesan youth ministry consultant, leading the program. Mass for the youth will follow. For March 20, roller skating and a meal are included in tentative plans.

The next meeting of TIA will be on Sunday, Feb. 6 in the TP&L meeting room, where plans and liturgy will be developed for the mini-reflection day. Members were urged to mark the important dates of Feb. 6, Feb. 20 and March 20.

Schedule of Meetings

PTO

The Muenster Public School PTO will meet Monday, Jan. 17 at 7 p.m. in the high school. The program will feature a style show by MHS Homemaking students and the business meeting will include a discussion on projects to be funded by the PTO. A baby-sitting service will be provided. A meeting of Band Parents will follow immediately after the PTO meeting.

VFW Auxiliary

The regular VFW Auxiliary meeting is scheduled for Monday, Jan. 17 at 8 p.m. in the Post Home.

Phone 759-4311 or send notes to Box 190, Muenster to report news of illness or injury to be included in our "News of the Sick" column. Patients appreciate "get-well cards" from friends who hear of their illness through the column.
