VOLUME XLVII DECEMBER 3, 1982 USPS 367-666 MUENSTER COOKE COUNTY TEXAS 76252 TWENTY CENTS NUMBER 2

It's beginning to appear that the nation wide cheer by Democrats following the election is less meaningful than they assumed. Although they took an impressive lead in winning 26 House seats, they see troubles ahead in converting their anti-Reaganomics into effective political action. As stated in Conservative Digest, "The Democrats have yet to decipher a successful formula for persuading a majority of Americans to go back to the old days of tax and spend, tax and spend."

A sign of widespread public attitude was apparent in at least a few races, in which candidates made Reaganomics their No. 1 issue. Jack Kemp of New York took 76 per cent of the votes in spite of a heavily unionized district and 13 per cent unemployment in Buffalo. Roth of Delaware was a 55 per cent winner with probable help from an opponent who was too critical of his tie with Reaganomics. Also Phil Gramm, one of the Boll Weevils, did well by being identified as a supporter of the president. He won the primary by a comfortable majority and the general election by 96 per cent.

The Democrats wisely and successfully passed the administration's economic policies during the race. Instead they harped constantly on unemployment and the implication that the millions of jobless were going hungry, because of the president, as well as the loose talk that Republicans were on the verge of lousing up the Social Security program. There was also extensive griping on too much tax, too much military and too little welfare. The whole big effort was amplified by the strong support the country's many liberal papers and magazines as well as more help from radio and TV. All of us remember the constant harping on these subjects for weeks before the election. In fact the comparative closeness of the outcome makes us wonder whether a lot of fair minded people were turned off by the obvious bias. It's surprising that GOP was even in the game, considering how much support was stacked on the other side.

First there were the loyal party members who have always voted that way. In addition there were the many blacks and Latins who expect their bread to be buttered better by Democrats, plus union bosses looking for continued political clout. Besides them don't overlook old folks, who were convinced that the party is their only hope for social security, and welfare beneficiaries who are afraid of being kicked off the gravy train. And don't overlook a lot of smaller minorities like the anti-gun and anti-nuke groups, and pro-busing and anti-abortion and anti-prayer people and the gays. Talk about minority support, the Democrats really had it. This many minorities has to add up to a majority. Can anyone explain why they failed to sweep the nation?

Apparently the reason is that a surprisingly big percentage of our people stuck by the ideals which won for them in 1980. They believe in the common sense economics of reducing tax and making ends meet. They believe in the basics of religion and morality by which the country grew and thrived. They favor a realistic attitude to the Red Menace and the administration's firm policy in dealing with it.

Getting back to the few who did well in the election by supporting the Reagan

County jail rated sub-standard

Cooke County jail, which has been in use for just over two years, now fails to meet state standards. That is the word county officials expect to hear following inspection by a state official on December 7.

First indication of sub-standard rating was received by the commissioners court from Jack E. Crump of the Texas Commission of Jail Standards at the Texas Commission of Jail Standards at their Monday meeting.

He said the problem is overcrowding. A study of the facility by a commission employee shows that it is designed to accommodate 17 prisoners but the average population there during the past year has been 20, and 22 are there now.

Crump stated further that the situation is likely to get worse instead of better. Based on current local trends, the jail is expected to need a capacity of 32 by the year 2000. And based on state trends a capacity of 43 will probably be needed in 2000. He said that anticipated growth of Gainesville and the county will increase the need to nearer the state figure.

If the jail commission says the county jail does not meet state standards, the commissioners face an expansion project, Judge Jim Robertson said. The job can be simplified somewhat, according to Sheriff Dan Tiller, who said the jail was designed so its east wall can be removed and 13 rooms added.

Robertson said that expansion of the jail appears to be inevitable, and added that standards required by the state do not help the situation...that the state has gone a "little bit overboard" in providing for the comfort of inmates. "If the state commands us to make the jail into a country club, we have no choice", he said.

TFB head says export financing is key to ag economy recovery

Export financing is the key to short-term economic recovery in agriculture, the president of the Texas Farm Bureau told delegates to the TFB's 49th annual meeting in Dallas Monday.

Carrol Chalouka, wheat, feed grain and livestock producer from Dalhart, said four things are necessary in the long run for agriculture and the nation as a whole to overcome the current recession. These were:

1. Farmers must cut production in line with demand. 2. Agriculture must find a way to increase farm exports. 3. The nation must complete the economic recovery program begun two years ago. 4. These things must be solved in a way that will "strengthen and maintain our political and economic system."

The TFB farm leader said the most important action that must be taken is to increase exports of grain, cotton and rice.

He said grain exports could be increased from the current 5 billion bushels to 6 billion bushels a year by developing a credit program that would make short-term credit available to countries who need our products and can pay for them eventually, but who at present have neither the money nor credit.

"This could be accomplished through a U.S. government guarantee of principal and interest for loans from commercial sources to finance food imports," he said. "It is not necessary that government provide the money. The loans would be supplied by commercial banks with the government guaranteeing the loans."

He said the blended-credit program recently announced by the administration obviously had this in mind.

However, he said the announced program would not be large enough to do the job that is needed. To increase grain exports by a billion bushels would take credit guarantees of from $3 to $4 billion, he explained.

Chalouka said the government program not only needs more funding, but should be expanded to include additional crops. Commodities now under discussion include corn, wheat, soybean, vegetable oils, tallow, cotton, eggs, poultry and lumber, he said. "Why not include pork, high-quality beef and variety meats?" he asked.

The TFB leader said exporters have learned that selling meat abroad is not easy. While all farm products are affected by unfair trade barriers, meat is confronted by additional problems of health and sanitary regulations, he explained.

On an optimistic note, he said that export of pork has greater potential than expected.

He said high-level government negotiations are needed to open markets.

"The Japanese consumer should be as free to choose the kind of meat he wants as the American consumer is in his choice of a car," he said.

Chalouka said that the combination of reducing production by 10 to 15 per cent and increasing exports to 6 billion bushels of grain should bring reasonable balance to supply and demand.

"With lower interest rates and inflation of 3 to 6 per cent, all of us in agriculture should be feeling much better," he said.

Anna Becker, dies of coronary

Anna Becker, 91, who spent all but three years of her life as a resident of Muenster, died of a heart attack at 2 a.m. Wednesday in Muenster Memorial Hospital. She had been admitted to the hospital about 8 p.m. Tuesday following her first attack at home.

Until then she had been in normal good health, feeling well enough to crochet Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral service is scheduled for 10 a.m.

Saturday in Sacred Heart Church with Fathers Denis Soerries and Victor Gillespie con-celebrating at a Mass of Christian Burial.

Interment will be in Sacred Heart Cemetery directed by Nick Miller Funeral Home, and pallbearers will be Paul Becker, Werner Becker Jr., David Hundt, James Hundt, Donnie and Chris Sicking.

Rosary service will be held at 4 and 8 p.m. Friday in the Chapel of Miller Funeral Home.

Anna Becker was born on May 14, 1891 in Exeter, N.H., a daughter of the late Nicholas and Barbara Becker, and came to Muenster with her family in 1894. She was a member of St. Anne's society and active in parish affairs.

Survivors include one sister, Mary, of Muenster; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Bill Becker; four nieces and four nephews.

Auxiliary Programs benefit hospital

The time is growing shorter for participating in the Hospital Auxiliary's holiday project, "In Lieu of Christmas Cards." As the deadline nears for including names in the Christmas greetings that the auxiliary will publish in the Christmas issue of the Muenster Enterprise, the organization urges early response.

Serving a two-fold purpose in assisting toward donations of new hospital equipment, and also freeing up much needed time for busy people, the project has been continued without interruption for 13 years by the Muenster Hospital Auxiliary. A suggested contribution is an amount comparable to what is ordinarily spent on cards and postage. A signature should be exactly as the donor wishes it to appear in print. Deadline is December 13, and the address for mailing in names and contributions is Mrs. Evelyn Sicking, Treasurer Muenster Hospital Auxiliary, P.O. Box 453 Muenster, Texas 76252.

Matthew 24:1-5

Jesus left the temple precincts then, and his disciples came up and pointed out to him the buildings of the temple area. His comment was: "Do you see all these buildings? I assure you, not one stone will be left on another—it will all be torn down." While he was seated on the Mount of Olives, his disciples came up to him privately and said to him: "Tell us, when will all this occur? What will be the sign of your coming and the end of the world?" In reply Jesus said to them: "Be on guard! Let no one mislead you.

For our Christmas issue

Again this year, as we did last year, the Muenster Enterprise is appealing to its readers to share their old Photos From the Past showing pictures of Christmas trees from their childhood, traditional family Christmas customs, decorations or toys from long ago etc. Also, please send notes recalling treasured Christmas customs or family gatherings, or relatives observances. We hope to include these in our Christmas issue of The Enterprise.

Parade needs participation

Last call to all who wish to make Muenster look good at the upcoming Christmas parade and Santa visit. The event is barely more than a week away, and it's high time for interested people to get busy.

Reports from the committee are that response has been slow, so it is sending out a special appeal to community pride to come to the rescue. Floats, decorated vehicles, marching units, or anything adding to interest of appearance, will be welcome. Persons to contact are Jane Monday, Deb Klement and David Fette.

Welcome Soaker

Something for which to express Thanksgiving gratitude is a welcome improvement in the local moisture situation. Fields are in great condition after 2.47 inches of soakers. However the rain was strictly for the land. Very little of it reached the lakes and creeks.

Total rain of the month added to 4.22, and total of the year is 34.81 inches, which is very close to normal.

Low and high mercury readings of the week were recorded as follows by Steve Mosler. Nov. 24, 28 and 44; Nov. 25, 34 and 42; plus .05 inch rain; Nov. 26, 38 and 44, plus .68; Nov. 27, 39 and 44, plus 1.73; Nov. 28, 33 and 64, plus .01; Nov. 29, 42 and 74; Nov. 30, 40 and 80; Dec. 1, 60 and 74.

More than 233 Bayer relations gather for reunion

Memories of John and Appolonia Bayer were recalled with delight, nostalgia and a touch of reverence Saturday, November 27, 1982, when an all day reunion, Mass, and dinner and supper were attended by more than 233 descendants and their spouses, culminating many months of plans and preparations. Relatives recalled that their last reunion was held in mid-summer, 1954 about two months preceding the death of "Grandpa Bayer" on August 30, as he was planning his annual trip "back home" to Iowa.

Heading the list of descendants who attended the reunion were the six surviving children of John and Appolonia Fisher Bayer, namely: Frank Bayer, Margaret, (Mrs. Victor Hartman), Agnes (Mrs. Norbert Klement), Martin Bayer, George Bayer and Johnny Bayer. Late members of the family are Theresa (Mrs. Joe Mages), Joe Bayer and Al Bayer. Included among descendants and guests were a number of the 49 grandchildren, 147 great-grandchildren and 40 great-great-grandchildren. Father Denis Soerries was a special guest.

Central meeting place for the reunion was the VFW Hall in Muenster, where guests gathered for a covered dish meal at noon, visiting throughout the afternoon, attendance at a reunion Mass in Sacred Heart Church at 5 p.m. and return to the VFW Hall for the evening meal and program.

Principal organizers for the reunion were granddaughters Loretta Bayer Davis and Lanette Bayer Trammell who wrote and mailed invitations two months ago. The guest book, complete with signatures and addresses, was a gift from Mrs. Davis and was won by Agnes Bayer Klement.

Robert Bayer was master of ceremonies for an after dinner program, when he recognized each family individually, asked all representatives to stand, come forward in a group, when pictures were made.

Credits given for special efforts included mention of Bert Hesse who made nine oil paintings of family trees, one for each member of the John Bayer family, and Tina Hesse who labeled each leaf. These were given to the children or surviving family members. Also to Marge (Hesse)Devers who baked and decorated a family tree cake; to Tom and Joyce Bayer who compiled and traced the family tree and assembled information over a long period of time; to Mrs. Dick Ferber who wrote the family history; to Ethel Mae Bayer Hesse and Frances Knabe Bayer who arranged centerpiece for each table, using logs, leaves and acorns to represent head of family, children and grandchildren.

A sing-a-long after dinner was great fun and was led by guitarists Gene Pelzel, Patti Bayer and Brian Tompkins. Recipes were exchanged, adding to the fun. Guests came prepared to collect and exchange and acquire family favorites.

Special decorations, in addition to those listed above, were dominated by a large wedding picture of the John Bayers, above a table where treasured old pictures were displayed. Streamers led from the picture to each of Bert's tree pictures. A special memorial table held pictures of deceased family members and newspaper clippings. Copies of the printed family history were also displayed and read with many memories recalled.

Joining local family members were the following guests from out of town: the Grady Wards of Lubbock, Cynthia Meador and Lauren of Canyon, the Joe Bayer family of Dallas, and Cindy Bayer of Dallas, members of the Al Bayer relationship.

Also the Joe David Bayer family of Denton, the Melvin Bayers of Denton, the Lewis Seays of Clifton, Larry Bayer of Enid, Okla., the Mike Bayers of Denton, Carolyn Bayer of Irving, the Dicky Rogers of Sherman, the Billy Joe Devers family of Valley View, the Charles Golas family of Paradise, members of the Joe Bayer relationship.

Also Georgia Ann Norvell of Austin, the Clarence Bayers of Arlington, the James Schwabs of Austin, members of the George Bayer relationship.

Also the Donald Bayers of Waco, Nelda Bayer of Dallas and the Kenneth Ottos of Tulsa, members of the Martin Bayer relationship.

Also Mike Klement of Mission, Norma Cain family of Ardmore, Marcyline Marr of Everman, and the Jim Otto family of Garland, members of the Norbert Klement relationship.

Also Edna Tompkins family, the Mike Fedors family, the James Tompkins, the Scott McMonigles all of Arlington, Mark Tompkins of Conroe and the Ted Gremminger Jr. family of Denver, Colo., the Randy Morrows of Wheatridge, Colo. the Willard Hartman family of Killen and the Gene Hartman family of Denton, members of the Victor Hartman relationship.

COMMENT

The Owner's Manual

By Larry Tisdale DVM

Did you ever have, see, or hear about someone having an accident? Of course you did. We hear about accidents happening every day. However, there is one accident that will never happen. You will never hear of anyone "accidentally" getting into heaven. Those who go to heaven will do so only because they have chosen by their own free choice Jesus Christ to be their personal Lord and Saviour.

Many people seem to be deceived into thinking that they can waste away their present life pleasing self and indulging in sin and then someday, miraculously, by the grace of God, they will accidentally arrive in heaven. Nothing could be further from the truth taught in the Bible. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus taught; "Enter by the narrow gate, for the gate is wide, and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter by it. For the gates is small, and the way is narrow that leads to life, and few are those who find it." (Matthew 7:13 & 14)

One writer said that he finally found where the narrow road was. It was in the middle of the wide road running in the opposite direction. Another writer says, "Heaven is a prepared place for a prepared people." Have you made your preparations so that when your life on earth is finished you know without a shadow of a doubt that you will go to heaven? If not why not?

You can drift along in the natural, carnal way of life and end up in hell. But it takes conscious effort in trusting God, loving God, obeying God and serving God to arrive in heaven. The wide gate with the broad road that leads to destruction in verse 13 is an easy road to find. Anyone who travels the pathway of life may accidentally find themselves on this road without program, it appears now that the main GOP mistake was in failing to emphasize the subject. They might have pointed out that the big issue, unemployment, was actually inherited from the other party and the whole economic solution would be further advanced if the administration could have had more cooperation.

So now we have the situation of election winners coming up with an opportunity but a shortage of ideas. They ridiculed cutting spending and taxes, apparently intent on the old policy of liberalism.

If that's the aim, they could have trouble with a congress that's no less conservative than before, not to mention the president. Or if they succeed in the folly they'd create even more mess for the country to clean up. Either way, the outlook seems encouraging for a comeback of traditional Americanism in 1984.

Meanwhile people who want the comeback need to organize and work. Their real goal is to restore the old time dedication to God and country which used to be taken for granted.

To date the Texas Crime Stoppers Advisory Council has passed information to law enforcement agencies which has resulted in 66 arrests and the seizure of over $2.7 million in stolen property and narcotics. The council has paid out over $3,400 in rewards.

The Texas Crime Stoppers Advisory Council wants you to know some facts about drunk driving in Texas.

- One half of all traffic accidents involve a driver who has been drinking.
- It is estimated that on any weekday in Texas, 1 out of 50 drivers has been drinking or is drunk. On weekends, this ratio climbs to 1 in 10.
- Last year there were 36,774 reported accidents in Texas that were the result of DWI — more than 100 per day.
- 23% of all traffic deaths in 1981 involved drunk driving. The ten year total of DWI related deaths in Texas is 19,000 — more than the population of many Texas cities.

Texans should be outraged at this senseless destruction by drunk drivers. For too long, society has permitted innocent persons to be killed on our highways, because it is easier to ignore the DWI problem than to face it.

People have been led to believe that DWI is not really a crime, and the drunken driver is not really a criminal, but this is not true.

For the month of November, the Texas Crime Stoppers Advisory Council is focusing its statewide "Crime of the Month" on DWI. No reward is offered. Instead, the Council urges you to support local and statewide efforts to reduce the number of drunk drivers on Texas highways.

Every Texan must make a personal commitment to help put an end to this tragedy. Together we can prevent the drunk driver from spreading further death and destruction on our highways.

Small-business Angle

SMALL BUSINESS SEEN HOPE OF ECONOMIC GROWTH WORLDWIDE

Small business can be the big winner emerging from the current worldwide recession. That was the consensus of small-business leaders from 62 countries who met last month in Malaga, Spain.

The word heard time and again over three days of seminars and workshops was "flexibility." Small business, it was said, is the salvation of the world economic malaise because small entrepreneurs have the vision and the ability to adjust quickly to changing conditions — to move from one business mode to another.

Bert Twaalfhoven, an extremely successful businessman from Holland, told me, "While the climate today in Europe is extremely difficult — even more difficult than in the United States — the small-business owner who finds his market niche and has the flexibility to move into that niche will be successful in the 1980s."

Twaalfhoven thinks the current economic downturn presents an opportunity for the return of the entrepreneur as a major force in business. "The entrepreneur is finally coming back," he said. "He is being recognized by banks and other business people as the strong leader who can take his business — even in a troubled industry — and make it more successful."

Conspicuously absent from discussions among small-business experts, especially those from western Europe and North America, was talk of government involvement in the development of small businesses. W.H. Rompkey, Canada's minister of small business, said his country's approach is that of a partner with small business "but a partner that is behind small business."

He thinks the government should stay out of the way of the small-business owner. "What we need to do," said Rompkey, "is to clear away some of the underbrush so that small business can grow." He thinks that changes in the tax structure to remove disincentives to new and expanding small businesses are preferable to new government programs designed to "help" those same enterprises.

Reflecting specifically on the problems of small business in the United States, Small Business Administration head James Sanders said, "People in the U.S. and other countries may now have to learn two or even three trades in one lifetime, because we have lost the leadership in industries such as autos and steel. But government cannot change that reality. What we can hope is that the small businesses, which can turn around faster than the big corporations, will invest in new and promising industries and lead the nation out of the current recession."

The message from Malaga was one of optimism, pride and determination. Small business is recognized by the governments of the free world as vital to economic growth in the years immediately ahead. Those governments may be willing to assist with changes in regulations and tax law, but the small entrepreneur will be left more to his own initiatives than in recent years. That means that the alert small-business owner who can react quickly to change can turn today's economic woes into tomorrow's entrepreneurial success.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

Longterm success in solving the economic problems facing American farmers depends on our ability to expand foreign markets, increasing the opportunity for sales of our harvests.

For many years, American farmers not only have made our own population the best fed in the world at the lowest prices, but also have supplied much of the rest of the world. However, in recent years they have faced increasing — and often unfair — competition from other nations.

Members of the European Economic Community, for example, heavily subsidize exports to foreign markets. These subsidies place American farmers at a disadvantage by forcing them to try to compete with nations which sell abroad at less than the true market value of their products. The problem is complicated by barriers set up by many nations to discourage American farm imports. With the severe problems facing our farmers, we must act promptly to improve their position in the international marketplace.

The Administration is attacking this problem on two fronts — by attempting to negotiate more equitable import-export agreements, and by a foreign credit program designed to spur export sales.

Next week, General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) Talks will resume in Geneva, with the goal of reducing protectionist trade barriers which have proliferated during the current global recession. The U.S. will push for reductions in European government subsidies of agricultural exports, easing of quotas which limit U.S. export markets, and a strong monitoring system to oppose any new protectionist measures by GATT members.

We will tell our trading partners that we intend to compete strongly in the international marketplace. We want to compete fairly, and we expect them to do the same.

However, realistically we must understand that these negotiations will be lengthy and success will come slowly, and our farmers' economic difficulties must be addressed now.

The Department of Agriculture has instituted a new program which shows promise. A three-year, $1.5 billion low interest rate credit program will be offered to developing nations interested in increasing their imports of American agricultural products. During this fiscal year $500 million of these low interest loans will be made available by blending two existing programs. The $100 million interest-free direct government credit program will be combined with $400 million in government guaranteed private credit. The result will be to reduce the effective interest rate on all of the loans under the program to about 8.88 percent.

Since this program was announced in late October, new agreements have been reached with Morocco, Yugoslavia, the Philippines and Egypt involving additional wheat exports of 1.7 million tons, cotton exports of 40,000 tons and corn exports of 350,000 tons.

Because of the high level of demand for these favorable loans, the U.S. is in a position to pick the best credit risks and the nations most likely to become longterm customers who will be able to purchase in future years without extra assistance.

In short, the "blended credit" program is a good way to increase demand for U.S. products in developing nations, improve the U.S. long-range competitive position in these markets, and provide a base for further cash or private credit sales.

Certainly, this program is not the solution to all of our farm economy problems. But it is a step in the right direction.

Safety measures should be considered before buying toys for children this holiday season.

Linking your child's age with the right toy is the first step in preventing injuries which befall thousands of children each year in the nation.

An estimated 130,000 children under the age of 15 were treated in hospital emergency rooms for accidents resulting from toys in 1981, according to the U.S.

Consumer Product Safety Commission.

"A child's development has much to do with choosing the right toy," said Dan Sowards, Chief of the Hazardous Products Program for the Texas Department of Health. "A year or two, or even a few months in a child's development can make quite a difference in his or her ability to cope with toys."

For this reason, manufacturers are required by the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission to place age recommendations and precautionary labeling on toys. Testing is done for three different age levels: 18 months and less, more than 18 months but not more than three years, and three years to not more than eight years of age.

Besides looking for age recommendations, the consumer should look for precautionary labeling such as "nontoxic" on painted toys, "flame retardant/ flame resistant" on fabric products, and "washable/hygienic materials" on stuffed toys and dolls.

Toys that can easily be broken are dangerous because of sharp cutting edges. Small toys, especially those with removable parts, can sometimes be swallowed by younger children, or become lodged in the ear, nose, or windpipe.

Remote control airplanes, guided missiles, and similar flying toys can be harmful if the child using them is careless or not properly supervised. Sowards recalls how one toy made by a large manufacturer was recalled because it projected small objects. "The objects had been responsible for a large number of eye injuries," he said. Arrows or darts used by children should have soft cork tips or rubber suction cups. Sowards advised.

He said electrical toys must meet mandatory requirements for maximum surface temperatures and electrical construction, and have warning labels. Electrical toys with heating elements, including toy ovens, are recommended for children more than eight years of age.

When buying a toy box look for a lightweight lid that can easily be opened from the inside. Sowards says the Product Safety Commission is currently drawing up mandatory regulations for toy box lids. "This year alone a number of deaths and many injuries were recorded due to falling lids and head or arm entrapments," he said.

Sowards advises that if a toy is found to be hazardous the following steps should be taken:

1. Immediately put the toy away.
2. Contact the Product Safety Division, Texas Department of Health, at 512/458-7519 or the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission Hotline Number: 1-800-638-CPSE.
3. Return the toy to the store, and explain to the manager why the toy is being returned.

EARNED BENEFIT? OR WELFARE?

In a recent article, the eminent economist, Dr. Hans Sennholz, wrote:

"Let us assume that a married person who regularly paid his payroll taxes since the initiation of the Social Security System retired after 20 years of coverage, on January 1, 1957.

"Let us also assume that he contributed the maximum payable under the law. From 1937 through 1949, he contributed 1 percent on $3,000 annual income, $30 per year, or a total of $390 in 13 years.

"In 1950, he paid 1 1/2 percent on $3,000 or $45. From 1951 through 1953, his payment amounted to 1 1/2 percent on $3,600 or $162. In 1954, the payment was 2 percent on $3,600 or $72. In 1955 and 1956 his taxes amounted to 2 percent on $4,200 or a total of $168. Altogether he paid no more than $837 during the first 20 years of coverage. If we add an equal amount of 'employer contribution,' which actually came out of his pay, his total contribution to the System amounted to $1,674.

"In 1957, this payment entitled a retiring couple to receive $162.80 in monthly benefits, which since then have been raised to $516 per month. In other words, in 1957 they received in ten months and eight days the equivalent of their total contributions. His life expectancy, however, amounted to approximately 13 years, hers to 18 years. If they are still alive today, 23 years later, they are collecting every three months and eight days what they paid in since the beginning. Their total benefits have exceeded $50,000 on total contributions of $1,674 or 30 times more than they paid in."

If this doesn't illustrate an inequity, what would? If this doesn't make clear why the Social Security program is in economic straits, what would?

To present the facts on a current basis, consider this comment from Congressman Latta of Ohio:

"A worker retiring at age 65 in 1982 who has paid the maximum tax on the maximum earnings allowable under the law will have paid $14,766 into the trust fund. This person will receive $8,148 annually in

A First Texas 80's Report: On Investments.

"Knowing how to deal with today's unpredictable interest rates means knowing all your options."

Will interest rates go up? Or will they fall? These days, nobody knows for sure. But one thing you can be sure of is your options. First Texas has just the right plan, no matter what you think interest rates will do in the future.

Plan One: New Escalating-Rate Money Maker Security. Invest up to 89 days.

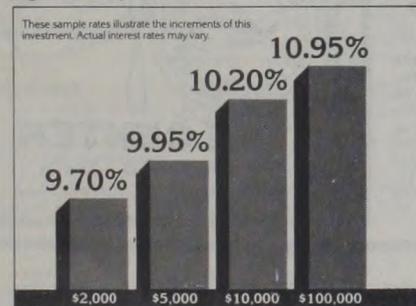

If you think interest rates will climb, First Texas has a great new short-term investment, their Escalating-Rate Money Maker Security. It's escalating, because the more you invest, the higher your interest rate.

For a minimum deposit of $2,000, you can buy a Security for 89 days with a daily or fixed rate. Or for a minimum of $20,000, you can buy a 30- or 60-day fixed-rate Security.

These Securities have continually outperformed the money market funds, plus they beat inflation by a wide margin.

The more you invest, the higher your interest.

This new Money Maker Security is escalating. The sample rates in the chart illustrate how the rate changes to your advantage the more you invest. And for amounts of $100,000 or more, you'll find that the rates are comparable to other investment certificates.

Safer than money market funds.

The First Texas Escalating-Rate Money Maker Security is a safer investment than most money market funds. That's because both your principal and interest, even on investments over $100,000, are backed by the strength of First Texas and a trust arrangement.* With most funds, your entire principal is at risk.

Also, at First Texas, you have immediate access to your money with these Securities. And with our daily-rate Security there's no penalty for early withdrawal.

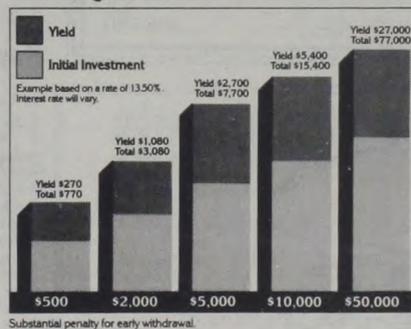

Plan Two: New Long-Term Money Market Certificates. Invest for 48 months.

If you think interest rates will fall in the future, First Texas has a new long-term Money Market Certificate—a long-term fixed-rate investment. With the long-term Money Market Certificate, you can safely lock up a high interest rate now.

A safe way to lock up your financial future.

You can start with a deposit as small as $500. Plus, you know your investment is safe, because these Money Market Certificates are insured by the FSILC.

The term of the Money Market Certificate is now at 48-months. A variable rate, 42-month plan is also available. Check the example chart to see just how large your initial investment can grow.

Substantial penalty for early withdrawal.

Long- or short-term? The choice is yours.

So whether you decide long- or short-term is your best option, now's the time to invest and First Texas is the right place to go. First Texas. They can make the most of your money. And that's what beating the 80's is all about.

*Minimum deposit: $2,000 (89 days) or $20,000 (30 or 60 days). Escalating-Rate Money Maker Securities are Repurchase Agreements which are secured debts of First Texas, collateralized by government securities. These Repurchase Agreements (obligations) are not deposits or savings accounts. Although not insured by FSILC, First Texas has set aside government securities with a trustee in a separate trust account to protect the purchaser against loss.

Cheryl Luke and Dwayne Rohmer exchange vows

Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Rohmer are at home in Dallas since their wedding in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, October 30. Father Eugene Luke, uncle of the bride, officiated for the Nuptial Mass and heard their vows during a double ring ceremony in the late afternoon.

The bride is the former Cheryl Luke, daughter of Daniel Luke and the late Dolores Luke; and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rohmer.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was elegantly gowned in a formal white wedding dress of sheerest organza over peau d'oeil. Designed with long sleeves, a high lace Victorian neckline over a sheer appliqued yoke, and fitted lace bodice, the dress featured an aisle-wide cathedral train completely edged with lace. In the front, a band of lace outlined a deep scalloped effect, revealing a detail of wide crystal pleating that swept back into the train.

She wore a white lace bridal hat enhanced with silk roses and pearls, and an attached illusion finger tip veil; and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley surrounding her mother's wedding Bible and rosary, accented with a string of pearls.

"Something old" was her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Henzler's gold cross and necklace.

Attendants

Cindy Sangster of Dallas was maid of honor. Mary Luke of Fort Worth, Sandra Henzler of Dallas, both cousins of the bride, Mrs. Tom Hennigan, the groom's sister Lora and Mrs. Troy Sicking, the groom's sister Dina were bridesmaids. They wore identical teal dresses. Their flowers were wristlets of sonia roses, gladioli and pearls; and each had a tiny cluster of sonia roses in her hair.

Kenny Rohmer of Gainesville was his cousin's bestman. Damian Luke of Wichita Falls, Lt. Ray Luke of Corpus Christi, bride's brothers, and Greg Rohmer and Chris Rohmer, groom's brothers, were groomsmen.

The groom's cousins David Rohmer, Weldon Bezner and Ronnie Walter-scheid were Mass servers.

The bride's cousins Frank Luke organist and Carolyn Luke vocalist presented wedding music as guests assembled and during Mass. Two of the songs were the favorites "Somewhere, My Love" and "Edelweiss."

Decorations in church carried out the bride's chosen colors of peach and teal. Peach gladioli, and powder blue carnations in white containers, tied with peach satin bows were on the main altar. The couple's unity candle centered the front altar. A pair of tall, pyramid floor candelabras with lighted white candles stood on either side and a similar pair of candelabras entwined with smilax and traditional white stephanotis blossoms flanked the main altar. Large potted ferns were placed at the entry to the sanctuary and clustered peach satin bows marked family pews.

Reception

A reception, dinner and Heart Community Center. A cheese buffet and assorted pick up foods and bar were set up preceding the seated dinner. Tammy Harris and Lisa Hargis of Texarkana presided at the bride's book.

The bride's table was covered with white lace, and held candles in votive crystals, white daisies and sonia carnations. Centerpieces for guest tables, the food service tables and reception room decorations were all designed and planned by the bride, carrying out her chosen colors of teal, sonia, and peach, including an original decoration of sonia colored net extending from the center of the room to the table for the wedding party, with white doves in flight, giving a wedding veil effect.

The three tiered white wedding cake, baked and served by a friend, Betty Rose Walterscheid, was decorated with white doves, white wedding bells and sonia roses, and was placed over a lighted fountain.

Reception assistants were Tawni Vowell of Valley View, Julie Holly of Wichita Falls, Mary Margaret Rohmer of San Antonio, Mrs. Jack Endres of Dallas, Carol Singleton of Lake Jackson and Mrs. Danny Beeson of El Paso.

The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and Stephen F. Austin State University and is an accountant employed by Mobil Oil Corporation in Dallas. The groom is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School, Cooke County College and American Technological University and is a flight instructor at Airport Flying School. They are at home in Dallas.

The rehearsal dinner was held in the home of the groom's parents on Sunday, October 24 and a coffee honored the bride - elect on Sunday, October 10, hosted by Mrs. Anthony Luke and daughter, Mary Luke, for about 40 relatives and friends.

Highlights of the family history referred to the dangerous, adventuresome ocean voyage of Johann Adam Bayer in 1839, settling in Marquette County Michigan; marrying Theresa Schultes in 1869 and living in Iowa until 1876. It also noted the birth of John Bayer in 1871. He arrived in Muenster, in 1893, later marrying here, and settling down to farming, cattle buying and auctioneering and hauling freight between Muenster and Gainesville. His wife was known for her singing ability. They were community pioneers and they became parish and civic leaders.

Appolonia died in 1932; and in 1947 John moved to town, near Sacred Heart Church. He died in 1954, one month after 100 family members gathered to celebrate his birthday.

Shirley Hermes and Jeff Krueger exchange vows

Shirley Ann Hermes of Lindsay became the bride of Jeff L. Krueger of Sanger in a Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony on November 27 at 5 p.m.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hermes and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Krueger.

Father Cletus Post officiated in St. Peter's Church of Lindsay before an altar decorated with lighted candles and bouquets of gladioli, carnations, mums and baby's breath in white and pink; with votive candles and ivy held in branched candelabras on the Communion Rail.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she designed and made her bridal gown of white satin, with a sweetheart neckline, sheer organza inset, with stand-up lace collar. Re-embroidered Alencon lace with seed pearls covered the fitted satin bodice, and long tapered satin sleeves that came to lace points over her hands. The floor length skirt, A line in front, swept to the back with released fullness, with a wide hemline edge of matching lace. An overskirt of sheer organza was caught up on each side and held in place with a delicate cluster of white satin rose buds. Both sheer and satin formed the cathedral length train.

Her elbow length illusion veil was attached to a white satin and lace pill box headpiece.

In keeping with tradition she wore an "old" ring formerly belonging to her late grandmother, Mrs. Joe Hoenig, who received it at age 16. She "borrowed" a diamond and pearl necklace earring set from Sally Arendt; she wore "blue" lace on her slip and a "new" pearl necklace, gift from the groom, and had a birthdate penny in her shoe.

She carried a cascade of pink silk roses, pink and white carnations and stephanotis with an entwined crystal rosary. Her ivory prayer book was a gift from her parents.

Attendants

Attending the bride were a friend, Lisa Arendt as maid of honor, another friend Janet Voth, and sisters of the bride Gayle Hermes and Beverly Hermes as bridesmaids, all of Lindsay. Their dresses of rose pink satin were designed with sweetheart necklines, fitted-bodices, long sleeves fitted to the wrists with gathers at the caps, full gored skirts and floor length wide sash tied at the back.

Their flowers were silk nosegays of pink roses, white and pink carnations, stephanotis and pink satin streamers.

The flower girl Chelli Shafer, cousin of the groom was similarly dressed and carried a white basket of mixed flowers in the bride's chosen colors.

Stephen Williams of Garland, a friend, was ring bearer.

The best man was Billy Dial. Groomsmen were Kenneth George, Kevin Patton, and Brian Moon, all friends of the groom from Sanger. Ushers were David Hermes and Gene Hermes, bride's brothers of Lindsay, David Garner of Colorado Springs, Bud Corley of Sanger and Chris Edwards, Leroy Hermes bride's brother was candlelighter, and with Greg Zimmerer, Jerry Brawner and Sam Fleitman, cousins, were Mass servers.

Pat Hennigan, Jr. and Jimmy Lawson both of Gainesville presented traditional wedding music with organ and vocal selections.

Reception

A reception, catered dinner and dance in the Gainesville Knights of Columbus Hall were hosted by parents of the couple, for 260.

Sharon Fangman of Lindsay, a friend and Sammie Childers of Denton, sister of the groom, secured signatures of guests in the bride's book.

The bride's table held the four tiered wedding cake, baked and served by Betty Rose Walterscheid. Assisting were Carol Hermes, Pam Hermes, Nancy Zimmerer, Alethea Brawner, all bride's cousins. Also decorating the bride's table were crystal candelabras with pink candles, and pink and gray center bands of crepe paper with pink roses. All pink crepe paper roses used to decorate guest tables were made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Julius Hermes, Sr. Other table decorations were votive candles and pink streamers.

Dance music was provided by Disco D.J. Kurt Schmitz.

Out of town guests included the bride's grandfather Joe Hoenig of Muenster, Rita Cottle of Carrollton and Diane Saucier of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pelzel and Michael of Ennis, Ronnie Hermes of Luling and Dana Fuentes of Austin. Other out of town guests came from Kansas, Colorado, California; also Dallas, Garland, Denton, Sanger, Gainesville and Muenster.

When the couple returns from a trip to San Antonio, they will be at home in Sanger. The rehearsal dinner on November 26 was hosted by the groom's parents at The Dutchman. A shower was hosted by Sally and Lisa Arendt and Margie and Janet Voth; another was hosted by Emily Fergus and Mary Huston of Sanger; and a display shower was held on November 21 by Gayle and Beverly Hermes.

The bride is a graduate of Lindsay High School and Cooke County College and is a secretary employed by Riblet Glas - Tec of Gainesville. The groom is a graduate of Sanger High School, attended Cooke County College and is field manager of Bolivar Water Supply Corp.

Codi Yosten continues winning recipe tradition

Codi Lynn Yosten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yosten of Euless and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Yosten of Muenster won second place in the student category of the Mid-Cities Daily News' 16th annual holiday cookbook contest. Her mother was the grand prize winner in 1979.

Codie, 16, won a $50 prize for entering this recipe for "Turtle Cake," a recipe she received from her grandmother during a visit here last summer.

She is an honor student at Trinity High School in Euless. She also ranks No. 1 on the tennis varsity team, is junior representative on the executive student council, and is a member of the Textettes at Texas Stadium, working during SMU and Dallas Cowboy games. Textettes, ages 16-21, try out for the squad and are chosen during the summer before the football season at Texas Stadium. They have two uniforms one for SMU, another for Cowboy games, and get paid per game. Their main job is to assist people in finding their seating arrangement. They are expected to project a good image, since they represent the stadium.

Her winning cake recipe follows:

TURTLE CAKE

- 1 box German chocolate cake mix
- 1 14-ounce bag caramels
- 1/2 cup evaporated milk
- 3/4 cup melted butter or margarine
- 2 cups pecans, chopped
- 1 cup chocolate chips

METHOD:
Prepare cake mix using package directions. Pour half the batter into a greased and floured 9x13 inch baking pan. Bake at 350 degrees F for 15 minutes and let cool when done.
In a pan, melt caramels with milk and butter over low heat, stirring constantly, let cool and pour over cake, sprinkling 1 cup pecans and half of the chocolate chips.

Pour remaining batter over this and sprinkle remaining pecans and chocolate chips.
Bake for 20 minutes longer.

When done, cool and cut in squares. Serve right out of the pan.

Serves 12-15 persons.

Christmas mailing tips

With the Christmas mailing season just ahead, Fort Worth, Texas Postmaster W.H. Hathman is offering tips for customers to assure that their cards and packages arrive on time and in good shape.

In addition to shopping and mailing early, customers are urged to properly address cards and packages with the name, house number and street (or post office box number), and the city, state and ZIP Code reserved for the last line.

"It is also a good idea to put a slip of paper with the recipient's name and address and your return address inside parcels, and be sure the addressing on the outside of the parcel includes your return address and ZIP Code," Hathman says.

Customers are also reminded to check the size of their envelopes before mailing Christmas and other holiday cards. Letter size standards require that envelopes be at least 3 1/2 inches high and 5 inches long to be accepted for mailing.

The Postal Service is also asking customers to put an ounce of extra care into preparing parcel post and other packages for mailing. Parcels will arrive at their intended destination in good shape if mailers will follow a few simple suggestions:

CUSHION: Make sure contents are well-cushioned and there is no empty space in the box. Use crumpled newspaper around the item—including all sides, top and bottom. Commercially available foam shells or air-pocket padding also make good cushioning materials.

DON'T OVERWRAP: Just use your carton. Brown paper and twine cord are not necessary. Paper can rip, and twine can become entangled in processing equipment.

SEAL PROPERLY: Close your parcel with one of the three recommended types of tape: pressure sensitive, nylon-reinforced kraft paper, or glass-reinforced pressure sensitive.

AVOID SMUDGES: Use smudge-proof ink for your addressing.

POSITION ADDRESSES PROPERLY: Put the recipient's address in the lower right portion of the container. Put your return address in the upper left hand corner. Remove all other labels from the box.

USE ZIP CODES: Be sure to include the ZIP Code in both the recipient's and your return address.

TIME IT RIGHT: Mail early in the month and early in the day.

USE THE RIGHT SERVICE: Irreplaceable items, such as cash and other valuables, should be sent by registered mail.

IF YOU RUN OUT OF TIME: Priority Mail affords First-Class handling for packages weighing over 12 ounces and up to 70 pounds. Priority Mail can be sent from any post office, station or branch or through rural carriers to any address in the U.S. Delivery of Priority Mail is accomplished in two to three days anywhere in the country. Priority Mail can even be used for foreign mailings.

The service is available with insurance, return receipt, COP, certificates of mailing and special delivery. Customers interested in Priority Mail should contact the post office for details.

DPS report

A report from Captain J.A. Dumas of the Texas DPS reveals that one person of Cooke County died in a traffic accident in October, also that 16 personal traffic injuries were sustained and there were 15 property damage accidents.

Capt. Dumas is assigned to the 6 county area including Hunt, Delta, Lamas, Fannin, Cooke and Grayson. That area had 8 traffic fatalities, 78 traffic injuries and 100 property damage accidents.

The county troopers request the aid of all county drivers in reducing the accident toll. They ask: please observe the speed limit, use seat belts no matter how short the trip, and please wait until arriving at destination before using any kind of alcoholic beverages.

With the Thanksgiving period coming up, the troopers urge all drivers to be very alert and use good judgement when driving.

FHA Interest Rates

Interest rates for loan programs of U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration, which were lowered last month, dropped again effective November 1, Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block announced today.

Block said the additional reductions, which are as much as two percentage points for some loans, are possible because of the general move toward lower interest rates across all sectors of the economy.

"Lower interest rates for Farmers Home Loan Programs will be of great benefit to the entire rural economy and particularly for the nation's farmers who depend on credit so heavily," he said.

In the Farmer Programs, the interest rates for farm operating loans will go from the present 13.25 percent down to 11.5 percent. Farm ownership loans will be reduced from the present 13 percent to 11.5 percent. Interest rates for limited resource farm operating loans will be lowered from 10.25 percent to 8 percent and limited resource farm ownership loans drop from 6.5 percent to 5.75 percent.

Some loans to help farmers recover from natural disasters will have a lower interest rate. The rates for production loans to farmers who need financing above the actual loss but who cannot get credit elsewhere will be lowered from 15.5 percent to 14 percent. The rate for actual loss loans remains at 8 percent. The rates for economic emergency loans will also be reduced. Economic emergency production loan rates will be reduced from 13.25 percent to 11.5 percent and economic emergency real estate loans go from 13 percent down to 11.5 percent.

Interest rates for single family housing loans will drop from 13.125 to 11.5 percent except for those who can afford the rates charged by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Their rates will drop a full point from 13.5 to 12.5.

Loans for multi-family housing will be reduced from 13.125 to 11.5 percent.

Muenster High business students attend career symposium

The senior girl students taking business courses at Muenster High School attended the fifth annual Business Career Planning Symposium co-sponsored by the Professional Business Women, Department of Business and Economics, and the Office of Placement and Career Planning at Texas Women's University in Denton, on Monday, November 22, 1982.

The students were able to attend four sessions during the day-long event, selecting from the following speakers in a wide range of business fields.

The keynote speaker for the luncheon was Jane Jayroe with KXAS-TV (Channel 5). Ms. Jayroe shared anecdotes of her life as a shy girl from a small Oklahoma town where her parents were both educators and of her experiences as Miss America. She told the students that although no one plans to experience tragedy, few people escape suffering in their lives and that a woman should be prepared to be self-sufficient if necessary. She said that her A B C's for life are attitude, belief and commitment. She and all other speakers challenged the students to make an informed career decision by seeking as much information as possible about a chosen field while considering personal interests and abilities.

Business students attending were Susan Bayer, Sherri Boydston, Susie Fleitman, Kyla Hale, Connie Lutkenhaus, Lisa Martinez, Jill Mollenkopf, Fumiko Nishiyama, Tenna Tisdale, Renee Wimmer and Shelly Zimmerer. Students were accompanied by Business Education Teacher Sheri Robison and Counselor Tom Fluker.

CHRISTMAS SHOW

On Thursday, December 16th, the elementary school students will entertain the Muenster community with their annual Christmas show. The theme for this year's show is "Christmas Around the World." The entertainment will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the community center. After the show, refreshments will be served.

Everyone in Muenster is cordially invited to attend our special Christmas show.

TUITION PAYMENTS

As the holiday season approaches we are all beset with extra expenses. Often we delay or even skip our tuition payments because of these extra expenses. Traditionally, December and January are the lowest tuition income months. Yet, did you know that our expenses continue just as usual? About 85 percent of our expenses are fixed expenses that vary very little from month to month. So holidays and vacations do not normally reduce our bills.

We ask you to think of this as you face the holidays. Please help us meet our obligations by paying your negotiated tuition.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

School will be dismissed for the Christmas holidays on Fri., Dec. 17th at 11:30 a.m. Classes will resume on Mon., Jan 3rd. We hope everyone has a safe and joyful holiday.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

- Dec. 3 - Non-uniform day for all students K-12.
- Dec. 8 - Feast of the Immaculate Conception. We will have a special liturgy at school. There will be no holiday.
- Dec. 16 - Special Christmas show at 7:00 p.m. in the community center.
- Dec. 17 - School is dismissed for the holidays at 11:30 a.m. Classes resume at 7:50 a.m. on Monday, Jan. 3rd, 1983.

HOME AND SCHOOL BAKE SALE

The Home and School association is having its annual bake sale on Friday, Dec. 3. Shelled pecans are still needed to help make the sale a success. If you have any shelled pecans to donate, please call Ginny Mangum (4133). The proceeds of the bake sale are used to support various projects at S.H.S. This year the HSA has purchased ceiling fans for the elementary school restrooms, playground equipment and some textbooks.

Please support the HSA bake sale on Friday, Dec. 3.

LIBRARY NEWS

There are reference books and other books missing from the library. They were not taken out this year but possibly were removed during the last two years. Sr. Carmelita requests that students and parents look in their hide away places to see if some of these books may still find their way back to the library rather than having to be replaced. There are some books missing from the elementary school library as well. Mrs. Felderhoff is also requesting the return of these books should you find them among your children's collections at home or at school.

Thankyou.

Tigers edged 12 - 0

At the bottom of the pile is a St. Pius quarterback sacked for a loss by Troy Yosten. Other Tigers in the action are Mike Dangelmayr 40, Mike Bartush 65, Floyd Trubenbach 62, Curtis Henscheid 84 and Greg Walterscheid 58.

Sacred Heart's hope of winning the TCIL state title was halted abruptly on the Tiger field Saturday night in the showdown with Houston's powerful St. Pius Panthers. The Tigers were 12-0 losers in the semifinal for the playoff for No. 1 honor in Class 3AAA.

In spite of heavily stacked odds the Tigers went down with dignity. Coaches Virgil Henscheid and Julian Walterscheid said their defensive effort was the best of the year but unfortunately they had problems on offense. Over all they did a great job against the team which outnumbered them two to one and averaged 235 pounds in the line as compared with their 170.

As the game opened it seemed that the Sacred Heart ambition had a chance. After holding the visitors on the first series of their first possession they started from the St. Pius 42. Neil Hesse reached the 31 on two keeper plays but the effort ended two plays later with an intercepted pass on the Panther 6.

Houston responded with a pair of first downs and had to punt on third series.

Then Sacred Heart had another moment of success but fumbled on the second series, giving the Panthers possession with 36 yards to go.

From there two plays overcame a stubborn Tiger defense. After two no-gains the Panthers got to the 25. Then they lost 9 yards in three tries and made good on fourth down with a reverse play by Hansen for 34 yards to pay dirt. The try for PAT failed and St. Pius led 6-0 at 10:52 in the second period.

The next score was a quickie following Sacred Heart's third turnover of the young ball game.

The Panther kickoff was fumbled, giving Houston a set up only 26 yards away. Six plays advanced 21 yards to the 5 before one short gain and two illegal motion penalties set the ball back to the 11. However the next try got results. Halik passed to Hansen for a TD at 5:57 in the second period. A pass for two bonus points failed, ending the nights scoring at 12-0.

After that the action was mostly in midfield and featured two more frustrating turnovers by the Tigers, but also a good defensive stand which stopped another St. Pius score.

Late in the second period a 9 yard run by Hesse and a 12 yard screen pass to Wade Walterscheid gained to the SH 45, but an interception on the next play ended the threat.

The Tiger defensive stand came about midway in the third as St. Pius drove 72 yards in six plays (including a 49 yard scoot by Hoss) to the SH 20. However three tries there advanced only 2 yards and a field goal attempt failed.

That was followed by the Tigers' best offense of the game. Three first downs in 6 plays gained 36 yards to the Panthers' 44, but the next series ended in a punt.

The final Tiger disappointment was another interception late in the game.

Defensive standouts for the Tigers were Jim Bartush, Mike Dangelmayr, T.J. Walterscheid, Greg Walterscheid, Floyd Trubenbach, Mike Bartush, Curtis Henscheid, Troy Yosten and Darrell Herr.

Wade Walterscheid was the leading SH rusher with 26 in six carries. Herr was next with 23 on 8 carries and Hesse had 23 on 11 carries.

Lindsay loses 28-12 to Italy in playoff regional

The most thrilling football season in Lindsay High School history came to a close on Turkey Day at Midlothian as the Knights lost 28-12 to Italy in the regional of the state Class A playoff.

This rounds out a record of 11-2 for the team, including district and bi-district championships. Following the loss to Italy, Coach Grady Roller referred to the season and told his boys to hold their heads high, that they have a great record and nothing to be ashamed of. Lindsay started the season rated by some as No. 1 in the state and was listed as No. 5 going into the regional. Entering the contest the two teams played on even terms through the first quarter after which the Knights got organized and took charge. They made a steady drive of 76 yards in four first downs capping it with a pin point pass, Steve Corcoran to Mike Hermes, between two defenders for a 20 yard touchdown. Leonard Fuhrmann's kick for extra point was blocked leaving Lindsay with a 6-0 lead at 5:01.

After the kickoff Italy had a bad first series ending in a good punt resulting in Lindsay's possession on its own 27 yard line. From there Gary Weems, on the next play, shook off two tacklers and sprinted 73 yards down the left sideline for the second touchdown. Fuhrmann's try for PAT was wide and the score was 12-0 at 2:28 before half time.

That was the end for Lindsay. After the score the Gladiators suddenly put their game together and took control. They returned the kickoff 15 yards to the 40 and got 5 free yards on a penalty to start from 55 yards out. The next 8 plays were made with professional precision as Italy hurried to score before half time. The job was finished with 17 seconds to spare, and Lindsay's lead was cut to 12-7.

The end of the first half was only a sample of what was coming in the second. The Gladiators dominated almost all of the way. Their first possession started on their 47 after a Lindsay punt and used 8 plays in going the 53 yards. Reese was the big gun of the drive with gains of 18 and 12 and the scoring run of 5. The kick for bonus point was good, and Italy was ahead 14-12 at 8:07 in the third.

Next score was almost a gift. After several exchanges of possession Italy intercepted a Lindsay pass for a set-up only 29 yards away from pay dirt. Shortly after that Anderson scored from the 5 and the PAT upped the count to 21-12.

The last counter followed a fourth down gamble by the Knights after which Italy was in business with 41 to go. Reese scored from the 22 and another PAT success raised the count to 28-12.

Still trying to sweeten their score, the Knights made a big play near the end but it fell short. Corcoran passed to Fuhrmann who lateraled to Weems for a 33 yard total gain.

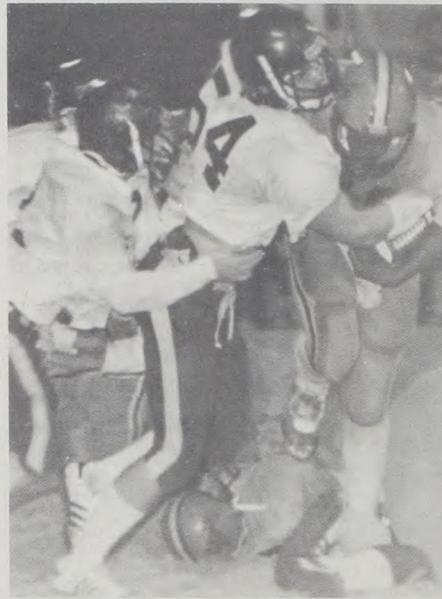

Standouts of the Knight defense were Gary Dankesreiter, Stan Dieter, Ronnie Fleitman and Greg Haverkamp. Weems led the rushing with 158 yards on 18 carries.

MHS rally beats Panthers 59-51

Substituting for Sacred Heart Tigers, who were still involved in football, the MHS Hornets met Saint Jo's Panthers Friday night in the Tiger gym. The game was the only contest of the week for the Muenster Teams.

The Hornets made a strong start for a first quarter margin which almost stood up to the end. After a 17-6 first period lead they gained to 29-13, then got into a slump resulting in a 31-31 tie in the third. However they rallied and ended the period with a 40-33 lead, then went on to a 59-51 win.

Coach Alan Gustine was happy with all of the game except the cold streak, but added that the team is making progress and looks better than at this time last year.

Kevin Felderhoff led the way with 26 points and 24 rebounds, and Ronnie Fisher was next with 14 points and 10 rebounds. Other scorers were Wayne Carroll 12, Kevin Wolf 5, Steven Fisher 2.

Both MHS teams will be in the Slidell tournament this weekend, playing Chico in their opener.

Lindsay wins two and loses one in hosting Paradise

Lindsay basketball teams won two out of three of their games with Paradise last week in the Lindsay gym. Junior varsity girls had everything their way in taking a 34-6 half time lead then sailing on to a 53-14 win. Top scorers were Brenda Haverkamp 14, Kathi May 12, and Gina Arendt 8.

The next game was more of the same as varsity girls finished at the long end of 54-13. Scorers were Bridgett Fangman 16, Shawna Hellman 16, Diane Luttmer 6, Nancy Zimmerer 6, Beverly With most regulars of the Lindsay Knights still involved in playoff football, the team was short-handed for the Paradise game. Nevertheless, the five who played gave a good account of themselves in losing 54-38. They scored as follows:

Glen Hermes 10, Aaron Hoenig 8, Kevin Fuhrman 7, Jeff Hellman 7, Kevin Macready 6.
