Christian civilization got a welcome assist from Brazil last week when that country's authorities not only discovered but also scuttled a sneaky plot to send tons of munitions to Central America Marxists under the guise of medical supplies. Four Libyan cargo planes were relieved of their contraband loads and were sent back empty.

This column was highly pleased by the news even though it has not learned what happened or will happen to the shipment. It would be happy to discover that all of the war material, which was reported as consigned to Nicaragua for transfer to El Salvador guerrillas, was instead turned over to the other side of the Central American conflict. But in the absence of that disclosure it's comforting to think at least that the Marxists are deprived.

Another pleasing factor is also implied here. That is that Brazil apparently has made an important decision in favor of the free world. All of us would enjoy some assurance that Brazil has not been taken in by Communist indoctrination. This even sustains the wish that Brazil and possibly some neighbors of Central and South America will be on freedom's side if and when the chips are down.

A welcome US development from the Libyan caper is that lots of Americans had their eyes opened, and President Reagan got better response to his charge that the Reds of Cuba and USSR were pouring extensive help into Nicaragua to be used by El Salvador rebels to topple the legitimate government of that country.

Recent reports tell that the Sandanistas, who took charge when Somoza was booted out of Nicaragua, were having serious problems and were getting help from Russia and Cuba for their own civil conflict and for guerrilla war in El Salvador. That is the situation the President referred to in asking our congress for military aid to Salvador. He believes that the pendulum is swinging the other way in Central America and it's possible to not only save the key country but also to spark a recovery of civilization.

At this writing, the subject of Reagan's Wednesday night speech is not definitely told, but it can be assumed that he feels the urgency of the situation and favors striking while the iron is hot. Perhaps intelligence sources tell him the time is right. Perhaps he knows the Marxists are hurt by loss of the arms shipment. Perhaps he's learned that his friends and not the enemy will have the benefit of those arms. Whatever the case, the President thinks he has an important message that we need to hear. This may be a turning point in the global

Looking forward to another super festival, the committees of Germanfest 1983 along with the concession operators are in high gear this week getting ready for a grand opening with formal presentation of flags at 4 p.m. Friday under direction of Alvin Fuhrman and Wayne Klement, co-chairmen.

Their goal is to beat the record of last year when attendance was estimated at near 55,000, and they are basing their optimistic guesses on months of intensive promotion, extensive improvements, addition of activities and encouraging response to German Fun Run invitations.

To accommodate the crowd the festival will have 36 concessions, 24 of them located in a rambling 60 x 180 tent and 12 others located elsewhere on the grounds. There will be more activity away from the city park, such as a dance at the VFW Hall as well as the Fun Run, the bicycle rally and the motorcycle road-race.

Principal attractions, as usual will be culinary delights including German dishes, tons of sausage and hundreds of kegs of beer. All of the goodies along with other items and services are being offered with special attention to the Germanfest aim of emphasizing German culture in decorations and attire. The booth judged best at following the theme will receive and award from the Chamber of Commerce.

Other new presentations on the program are several contests such as ladies' smiles, ladies' pretty feet, men's biggest beer bellies, men's crazy legs, tobacco spitting, tugs of war, and horseshoes. And a big event making its second appearance is a bicycle rally with race courses of 35 K, 65 K and 100 K. It is co-sponsored by Stroh Brewery and the Bluebonnet Extension Homemakers.

For the sake of traffic improvement the Chamber has closed the vehicle entrance to pedestrians and installed a gate and ticket booth for people on foot. The admission fee will be $1.00 per person of high school age or older. Parking space will be available at several areas near the park and a shuttle service of vans will be available again to transport people to the park from uptown. Adequate security is likewise assured by a staff of officers to keep order and

Blood drive one of the best ever

Muenster's blood drive last week went over the top in a big way with a response of 135 pints to meet a quota of 100. It was one of the very best in the span of several years during which the Bloodmobile from the Red Cross blood center, Wichita Falls, made its twice-a-year visit here.

The total member reporting was 142, but seven could not be accepted because of medical history or current physical condition. Included were 42 high school students, an exceptionally large turn-out of that age group.

Students also had a prominent part in notifying former donors of the drive and recruiting "new blood" as well as assisting with detail work at the collection, such as registrations and serving orange juice, coffee and donuts. Other students involved were Mike Walter, Ryan Bayer and Jason Gehrig working toward Eagle Scout qualification.

Eight of the day's donors are listed as gallon donors. Wilfred Bindel completed his third gallon and Kenneth Walterscheid completed his second while Jill Mollenkopf, Debra Bindel, Jimmy Hellman, Kristi Oakley, Robert McDaniel and Dina Sicking completed one gallon each.

Hospital personnel who assisted the Red Cross staff in collecting were Joan Walterscheid, Aileen Cler, Peggy Gobble, Mary Ann Koesler, Joan Hellman, Gwen Carroll, Florence Fisher, Herman Carroll and Bob LaCoe.

Helpers from the hospital Auxiliary were Frances Bayer, Carol Henscheid, Tammy Henscheid, Carolyn Bayer and Juanita Bright.

City, county sign mutual aid pact

County Commissioners voted Monday to approve a mutual aid agreement between Cooke County and the City of Muenster which will essentially spell out the rules for sharing law enforcement officials between the two parties.

The agreement was made pursuant to state statutes which provide for the entrance into such mutual aid contracts and, as the agreement reads, "... is intended to cover day-to-day mutual aid but may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties to cover a state of emergency caused by natural disaster or other public calamity."

Such an agreement, whereby one party could request the help of the other in an emergency, is nothing new in essence, Muenster City Attorney Chuck Bartush, Jr. says. The two parties for years have had an unwritten agreement to help each other out. But the formal contract agreement spells out several rules in the areas of liability, authority and compensation that have been a little hazy until now.

Bartush said Monday that the two parties have been willing to help each other in the past, but without iron-clad rules, the law enforcement officials never knew if problems could arise because of some technicality.

For instance, generally, municipal officers lose jurisdiction once they leave the city limits, but this contract gives such officers the same authority as a sheriff's deputies when the sheriff requests assistance, which clears up any question of authority.

Concerning liability, both the City of Muenster and Cooke County will be considered working in a governmental capacity when working with each other for the good of the public as a whole and neither will be held liable for the actions of their employees.

The contract also stipulates that neither party shall be required to pay any compensation to any other party for service provided under the agreement. It is agreed that the mutual benefits and protections are considered compensation enough.

Bartush said, however, that the contract in no way binds a party to respond with assistance whenever called upon if lending assistance would mean neglecting a party's first responsibility. For instance, if a request were made by the county sheriff for assistance from Muenster, the Muenster police chief is free to turn down the request if, in the police chief's judgment, it would mean jeopardizing local security.

Muenster Police Chief Helen Tompkins said Monday she believes the city has more to gain from the agreement, but that the main advantage to be gained by County Sheriff Dan Tiller is in having someone in the area to call on when in need. She said she also believes the agreement will serve to improve the working relationship between the city and county law officers — a relationship that is already better now than it has been in years, she said.

Bartush said he believes the agreement will work to the benefit of both parties and will provide for more efficient police protection overall in the county.

He said this agreement is the only such pact in existence in Cooke County and he believes other local departments would do well to consider doing the same thing.

"Frankly, I don't understand why more of them aren't doing it now," he said. "Because, after all, it benefits all the people concerned."

City gets $4,669 sales tax rebate

The city of Muenster has received a check from State Comptroller Bob Bullock, in the amount of $4,669.41 as a rebate for the 1 percent city sales tax remitted by local business to the state. The taxes were collected on local sales made in February and reported to the comptroller by the end of March.

The payment increases Muenster receipts to $28,505, which is 3.59 percent higher than last year's $27,517. In that respect the city enjoys a better record than the average of all the state. With the check Bullock explained that the sales tax is down more than 3 per cent statewide, the first time in the 21 years of city sales tax that the amount has dropped. He further stated that the oil and gas industry pays about 30 percent of the sales tax, directly or indirectly, hence the slump in revenue can be blamed on the slump in oil field activity.

Remittances to other cities of the area along with the total of 1983 to date and percentage of change were reported as follows by the comptroller. Gainesville, $34,873, to date $258,014, down 11.32 percent; Lindsay, $2,382, to date $15,548, down 4.57 percent; Valley View, $575, to date $2,272, up 6.56 percent; Pilot, $1,840, to date $17,744, up 2.52 percent; Sanger, $1,242, to date $12,563, up 7.84 percent; Whitesboro $12,341, to date $32,124, up 11.46 percent; Nocona, $6,881, to date $41,761, down 16.27 percent; Saint Jo, $573, to date $6,013, down 27.37 percent.

Ruth 4:13-15

Boaz took Ruth. When they came together as man and wife, the Lord enabled her to conceive and she bore a son.

Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed is the Lord who has not failed to provide you today with an heir! May he become famous in Israel! He will be your comfort and the support of your old age, for his mother is the daughter-in-law who loves you. She is worth more to you than seven sons!"

Sister Cabrini named Sacred Heart principal

Effective at the end of this scholastic year, Sister Cabrini Arami, OSB, will be the principal of Sacred Heart School, succeeding Stephen Beyer, who will become the principal at St. Bernard's School, grades K through 8, in Dallas. Beyer has been principal at Sacred Heart for two years.

Sister Cabrini, who has been appointed to a three year term is a present member of the parochial school faculty, teaching algebra, geometry and trigonometry. A native of Montague, she is a former school principal, has a master degree in education from the University of Arkansas.

Germanfest weather?

Though rain is definitely needed, the Muenster area would be pleased with a few days of waiting. The month's measure is only .98 inch, but Germanfest is here. Clear weather for the duration is a high priority on the local want list.

Low and high readings of the past week were recorded as follows by Steve Moster.

April 21	43 and 68
	plus .27 in rain
April 22	61 and 82
	plus .05 in rain
April 23	55 and 74
April 24	45 and 75
April 25	46 and 80
April 26	53 and 80
April 27	58 and 80
Total moisture for the year to date is 7.50 inches.

C.H. Christians have 50th anniversary celebration at Easter time

Because their wedding day in 1933 was on Easter Eve and the anniversary was arranged to be observed on Easter Sunday each following year, children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Christian urged them to mark their golden anniversary on Easter Sunday in 1983.

Hosts for the anniversary party in the home of the honorees were their three sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Christian of Springtown, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Christian of Stephenville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christian also of Stephenville.

They were assisted by the Christians' six grandsons, Mike Barry and Brady Christian of Stephenville; and Richey, Kevin and Chad Christian of Springtown; and by the honorees' three granddaughters, Debra Christian of Hillsboro, Donna Christian of Irving and Shannon Christian of Stephenville. The three granddaughters presided at the serving tables.

About 300 guests were registered by Ermina Dutton of Fort Worth, sister of Mrs. Christian; Billie Webb of Dallas, sister of Mr. Christian; Nora Jo Hudspeth of Pilot Point and Suzanne Druss of Galveston, both nieces of Mr. Christian.

The three tiered anniversary cake, crystal punch service, and gold appointments and flatware were placed on a lace tablecloth, where the centerpiece was an arrangement of yellow roses. Betty Rose Walterscheid made the cake and Margarete Bewley catered the party.

The gold coffee service and an arrangement of yellow roses were on a separate table covered with a cut work cloth made by Mrs. C.H. Christian.

The registration table held a crocheted table runner made by Mrs. Clara Lenzini of Stephenville, a friend of Carol and Fred Christian. Also displayed there was a treasured old kerosene lamp that was used in the City Hotel of Boyd when it was owned and operated by Mrs. C.H. Christian's grandparents. The lamp has been restored for use as an electric lamp, and has a hand painted china shade. Another special ornament was a china Easter egg on a gold stand, made by Mrs. Maurine Griggs with names and wedding date of the honored couple. An arrangement of yellow roses and a lighted anniversary candle completed decorations on the guest registry.

Receiving special attention in the home was a wall display of a number of family pictures and a framed marriage certificate, where the focal point was a hand-painted Christian Family Crest, created by Sandy Christian.

All floral arrangements and corsages for family members were made by Nora Jo Hudspeth, niece of Mr. Christian. Guests attended from Alford, Decatur, Leo, Forestburg, Rosston, Hood, Muenster, Gainesville, Saint Jo, Boyd, Jacksboro, Dallas, Fort Worth, Stephenville, Lewisville, Era, Rockwall, Valley View, Denton, Springtown, Houston, Galveston, Pilot Point, Lubbock, Irving, Bowie, Lake Kiowa, Fort Davis, and Garland, Texas; also St. Louis, Mo. and New Roads, Louisiana.

An added pleasure for the honorees was receiving telephone calls from Oklahoma, California and several Texas cities.

Mr. Christian is a native of Rosston, a son of the late Hill and Lounis Christian, and is a rancher and bridge builder. Mrs. Christian is a native of Boyd and is the daughter of the late Charley and Dorothy Dutton. Both have taken very active parts in community affairs. They were married on April 15, 1933 and have lived in the Rosston Community throughout the 50 years of their married life.

Childbirth Association has May 3 program

A panel of new parents will share their experiences in a May 3rd program presented by Denton Childbirth Association. The program "Childbirth Experiences - A Family-Centered Approach," will focus on the intellectual and emotional needs of the family during pregnancy and birth. The discussion will explore ways the parents, the physicians and hospital staffs can work together to achieve a positive and rewarding birth experience. The free program will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the University Ministry Center, 1501 Maple, on Tuesday, May 3. The public is invited and children are welcome.

Marysville set homecoming for Sunday

The annual Marysville Homecoming will be held Sunday, May 1 at Marysville Baptist Church, beginning at 10:30 a.m. It will be a covered dish event, with visiting throughout the afternoon.

Bluebonnets hold officer election

The Bluebonnet Extension Homemakers met Tuesday April 10 in the home of Kathy Berres for the Club's annual salad supper to finalize plans for Germanfest and the 100 meter bike rally.

Election of officers was held and holding office beginning in September will be Sharon Wolf as president; Joyce Abney as vice president; Anne Perkins as secretary; Michelle Knauf as treasurer and Linda Vogel as council delegate.

The hostess served wine with the super delicious salads made by the club members. Year-long secret pals were revealed and drawing for new secret pals.

Final plans were made for the Saturday April 30 bike rally to begin at 11:00. Club president Anne Poole announced that pre-registration at present already out-numbers last years total for the entire race.

Jason is three
The third birthday of Jason Michael Luttmmer was celebrated at the home of his parents, Mike and Anita Luttmmer on Thursday evening April 14 with a Bar-B-Q supper. After supper, birthday cake and ice cream were served.
Guests attending were Jason's parents, his brother Charlie, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grewing, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Luttmmer. Also the honoree's aunts, uncles and cousins: Mr. and Mrs. Don Grewing and Brandon and Kristin, Billy Grewing, Betty Luttmmer, Linda Grewing.

Mindy gets 3 parties

Mindy Endres celebrated her third birthday on April 19. The first party was held in the home of her parents Bob and Kenya Endres.
A clown theme was used for decorations and birthday cake, made by Betty Rose Walterscheid. Guests were her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Endres, and the great-grandmother Mrs. Catherine Walterscheid. Also uncles, aunts and cousins and several friends Jim and Shirley Endres and children Dalanna and Allison; Shirley Wilde and children Jeffrey and Matthew; Kyla Hale, and Steve Henscheid; Terri Escobedo and children Brad and Barry; and Judy Biffle.
On the Sunday preceding her birthday, Mindy and her parents, accompanied by Dalanna Endres and Judy Biffle spent the day at Six Flags, as a special birthday treat.
On Friday, April 22 Mindy accompanied her maternal grandparents to Oklahoma City to visit an aunt, Kelly Insel. They toured "Show Biz Pizza Bear".

Herbert Yosten, Magdalen Lewis united in Sacred Heart nuptial

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Yosten are at home in Muenster, since returning from a wedding trip that followed their marriage on Thursday, April 21.
Father Denis Soerries officiated for the Nuptial Mass and double ring ceremony in Sacred Heart Church at 6 p.m.

The bride is the former Magdalen Catherine Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Susanna Noggler and the late Tony Noggler; and is a graduate of Muenster High School. The groom is the son of the late Nick and Rose Yosten and is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School. He is a member of the VFW and the owner of Yosten Sand and Gravel Co.
The bride and groom approached the altar together accompanied by the matron of honor and best man.

For her wedding she chose a formal gown of ivory chiffon designed with a high neck, a V-shaped chantilly lace yoke, edged with a matching chiffon ruffle that extended across her shoulders and in back. The long, full, gathered, sheer chiffon sleeves were trimmed with lace cuffs. The gathered chiffon skirt was edged with a wide ruffle.
She wore an ivory chiffon hat covered with matching chantilly lace. Her flowers were carried in a round bouquet of Phalaenopsis orchids, light blue gypsophila, apricot forget-me-nots, and a circle of candlelight lace, with ribbons and streamers.
For sentiment she carried a rosary formerly belonging to the groom's mother and wore pearl earrings borrowed from the groom's sister, Armella, Mrs. Werner Cler.

Attendants

Mrs. Pauline Spires of Gainesville, sister of the groom was the matron of honor, wearing a full length dusty rose dress and matching long-sleeved lace jacket. She carried a long-stemmed rose to match her dress.
Ted Noggler of Lindsay, brother of the bride was best man.
Terry Lewis of Denton, Wylie Lewis, Jr. of Gainesville and Doyle Lewis of Muenster, sons of the bride, and Glen Cler and Jerry Yosten, nephews of the groom, both of Muenster, were ushers.

Wedding music was presented by Linda Flusche, Christi Klement, Susan Metzler and Doug and Lynda Yosten, with organ and guitar accompaniment. Selections included "My Cup Runneth Over", "Of Our Hands" and "Only a Shadow" as guests arrived. At Offertory they sang "In to Your Hands" and at Communion "How Great Thou Art." When the couple placed a floral tribute on the Blessed Virgin's altar, the group sang "On This Day."
Participating in the Liturgy were nieces of the groom Kimberly Cler with the first reading and responsorial psalm; Jenny Yosten second reading; and Cheryl Denson of Lindsay, prayers of the faithful.

The bride's son and daughter, Michael Lewis and Mrs. Thelma Baxter presented the Offertory gifts.
Eucharistic Ministers were Lonnie Woods of Gainesville and Mrs. Arnold Rohmer of Muenster.
The church altar was decorated with lighted candles and large arrangements of cream-colored gladioli, tied with dusty rose satin bows. Matching bows marked pews for family members.
Reception
A reception followed in the VFW Hall in Muenster. Dinner was catered by Emil Rohmer and Rohmer's Restaurant for 215 guests. Music for dancing was presented by Corky and the Del Reys.
Mrs. Thelma Baxter of Nocona, daughter of the bride presided at the guest book, assisted by Anita Meurer and Renee Wimmer, both nieces of the bride. The guest registry held a light blue satin tablecloth and a heart shaped centerpiece surrounding the couple's wedding invitation, with mixed dusty rose, blue and candlelight flowers.
The gift table was also covered with light blue satin, and centered with a grouping of the couple's pictures.
Centering the bride's table was the three tiered wedding cake, decorated with dusty rose flowers on ivory icing. The floor length white tablecloth was decorated with scalloped swags of candlelight net, caught up at intervals with clusters of spring flowers. All decorations were done by Mrs. Arnold Knabe. Guest tables were centered with hurricane globes holding white candles, all standing in flower wreaths.
Betty Rose Walterscheid served the wedding cake, assisted by Anita Meurer,

Christenings

Miller
The baptism of Dana Michelle Miller, infant daughter of Stacie and Glenn Miller, was held on Sunday morning about noon, April 10, 1983, in Sacred Heart Church, with Father Victor Gillespie officiating.
The God-parents for Dana Michelle are an uncle, Jesse Walterscheid and an aunt, Elaine Walterscheid. The infant wore a christening gown, cap and shoes made by her paternal grandmother.

Simmons
Cheryl Lynn Simmons was baptized in Sacred Heart Church on Sunday, April 10, about noon, following the 11 a.m. Mass. Father Victor Gillespie officiated for the sacrament.
Cheryl Lynn is the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Simmons. Her baptismal sponsors were Chris Stoffels and Sally Stoffels, an uncle and an aunt. The christening gown was a gift from maternal aunts, Pam Dangelmayr and June Bargtush; other aunts Janel Stoffels and Sally Stoffels presented tiny shoes and a gold necklace, respectively.
Others attending the church service were Donna and Rex Simmons and children Russell, Chad and Pamela; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stoffels and family; Janel Stoffels of San Antonio; and Bob Berdanier of New Orleans.

All were guests of the Simmons family for dinner. The table centerpiece was a christening cake baked and decorated by Pam Dangelmayr.

1983 Germanfest promises biggest and best ever

Each year, on the last weekend in April, this friendly North Texas community puts out the welcome mat for one of the most festive and fastest growing celebrations in the entire state.

This year promises the same when thousands of visitors from all over will gather to partake in tons of German sausage, mountains of apple strudel, hundreds of kegs of cold beer and the kind of traditional German hospitality now a trademark for Muenster's annual Germanfest.

Visitors can move about in surroundings reminiscent of old Germany, partake in its many culinary delights and dance to almost non-stop polka and country and western music in this eight-year-old tradition that has increased each year in size, quality and popularity.

The most visible aspect of that increase, perhaps, is the German Fun Run — a race in both 15 kilometer and 5 kilometer divisions that is now the third-largest such race in Texas. From the modest first year in which some 250 runners participated, the 1982 race grew to draw more than 3,500. Race participants will receive a free Fun Run T-shirt and passes to a post-race beer and cheese party. Safety will be stressed, as always, with several first aid stations set up along the race course.

The weekend's list of activities, much too long to describe, is sure to delight all visitors. The festivities begin on Friday, April 29 at 4 p.m. with a colorful opening and flag presentation; a chug-a-lug contest, accordian music and a free street dance to highlight the activities which continue until midnight.

Saturday brings the Germanfest Bike Rally in 100 kilometer, 65 kilometer and 35 kilometer divisions; a Motorcycle Road-eo, a horseshoe tournament; a pretty baby contest; a talent show; a biggest beer belly contest; a ladies' smile contest; a pretty feet contest for the ladies and almost non-stop polka and country and western music.

Sunday continues with more of the same — more contests, more music, and of course, more sausage, cheese, strudel and beer. Sunday's highlight will be the German Fun Run, which is expected to break yet another participation record this year.

The Muenster Chamber of Commerce invites one and all to this, the 1983 Germanfest — a guaranteed crowd-pleaser for all ages.

Muenster is located on Highway 82, 14 miles west of Gainesville and some 70 miles east of Wichita Falls, about 75 miles north of the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex.

For further information, call (817) 759-2227 or (817) 759-4254.

Members of the Muenster Chamber of Commerce's Germanfest committees are shown in the above photo as they gathered for the final planning meeting for this year's event. The Germanfest proves each year to be the most involved project the group undertakes. At right, committee members Dan Hamric and Johnny Pagel seem to be having second thoughts about the idea, wondering if there's still time to pull out. But there wasn't.

ON THE COVER: Since his first performance at the Muenster Germanfest, Billy Roy's One-Man Band has been one of the event's most popular attractions. Billy Roy brings his show back again this year to add to this community's eighth annual celebration.

"Germans from all over the country"

The accompanying article presents a brief sketch of Muenster as it was slightly more than two years after its founding, which was dated by the early settlers as the feast of Immaculate Conception, December 8, 1889. These few words and the group of ads made up a page in the Texas Live Stock and Agricultural Journal published at Saint Jo on January 15, 1892. The Enterprise is grateful to Albert Hess for the loan of a reproduction of that issue and to Angelo Nasche who called it to our attention.

An interesting fact revealed in the article is that Muenster was well established during the first two years and its residents were recommending the community most highly as a place to come and live.

This Muenster page was one of 24 which made up Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Texas Live Stock and Agricultural Journal edited by Thomas F. Hughes of Saint Jo. Besides containing a fascinating variety of stories on farm life, it revealed that Saint Jo and Montague were thriving and prominent. Their business people had placed about half of more than 100 advertisements in the publication. Other ads were for business in Nocona, Bowie, Montague, Gainesville, Belcher, Belcherville, Hardy, Sunset and Ardmore (Indian Territory), even for a horse importer of Wisconsin and another of Ontario who supplied stock to Gainesville dealers. The livestock ads were for horses (Percheron, Clydesdale and buggy and riding horses) also cattle, mules, jacks and jennets.

A fascinating dental ad offered full upper or lower set of teeth, $7.50 to $20.00; gold fillings $1.50 to $10.00; amalgam fillings 50 cents to $3.00; gold crowns $5.00 to $10.00; silver crowns

$3.50; porcelain crowns $3.50 to $10.00. Reading notices were 25 cents per line, other ad rates available on request. Subscription rate was $1.50 a year for the monthly publication.

Editorial material was a wide range of subjects including a history of wheat, current crop farming trends, separate items on raising all the domestic animals and poultry, also orchard articles, menus, household hints, and an assortment of other farm items presented as recommended reading for livestock and agriculture people.

TEXAS LIVE STOCK AND AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL

Muenster Colony

The thriving colony of Muenster was started in January, 1890, by Messrs. Gunter and Wellesley, and is situated in Cooke County, Texas, on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad. Through the untiring efforts of the founders, Gunter and Wellesley, aided by their efficient agent, Mr. Henry Richter, the colony has been a success since the start. Muenster is a flourishing town with hotels, dry goods, hardware and other stores, a commodious church under the charge of Father Blum and a fine school taught by the Sisters of Providence, while the surrounding country is being rapidly opened up by farmers. The settlers are Germans from all over the country, and extend a cordial welcome to their fellow Germans throughout the United States, who may desire to better their condition to come and settle in their midst where with half their present labor they can earn a competency. The soil is equal to any in North Texas and produces corn, wheat, oats, cane, millet, potatoes, fruit and in fact everything that can be grown anywhere else.

Land can be purchased in large or small tracts at reasonable prices and on favorable terms. The situation is healthy, the climate salubrious and the soil most productive. Those who have already joined the colony have been most successful and no better chance is offered in the State of Texas to Germans to acquire a home.

Authentic German Sausages & Meats

Butch Fisher and Helmut Hanss (left & center) show a fine ham with their authentic, German recipe sausages in Fischers locker. Johnny Fisher has the plaque awarded at the Oklahoma-Texas Meat Processors Association Annual Show. The award was given for the Reserve Champ Commercial Ham which scored 86.7 points. The champ scored only 87 points. Helmut is a German native and expert sausage maker. Butch and Johnny are owners.

Our Germanfest Week Special is ...

Bratwurst $1.99
Fully cooked ... LB.

The best known German Sausage in the United States, "Bratwurst" Sausage should be roasted on charcoal grill or in a skillet. The word Braten means roasting or frying in German. Serving suggestions: with German Hot Potato Salad and Sauerkraut or on a bun with mustard or curry sauce. Bratwurst is a very mild sausage. Even German people, not used to eating spicy food have to put some mustard or horseradish with it. Bratwurst is the German hamburger. People can eat it on almost every street corner. Its white color is a result of having no preservatives and no smoke - just steam cooked to internal temperature of 150 F degrees until fully cooked. "This sausage along with German smoked sausage will be served at the Germanfest.

We'll be at the 'Fest in the main tent, and be sure to visit our market on Main Street for a complete selection.

Dances, musical shows add spice to weekend

No matter your preference, whether it be the beer barrel polka, the cotton-eyed Joe or just a plain two-step, the right bands and the right dance floors will be easy to find this weekend as the 1983 Germanfest schedule of activities includes several dances and hours of musical performances for your listening pleasure.

Germanfest just wouldn't be complete without an abundance of music and dancing any more than it would be complete without sausage and cheese.

Friday finds a variety of music to delight visitors, beginning at 6 p.m. with accordion music by Sonny and Norma under the pavilion. Across the way, Billy Roy, "The Coors One-Man Band" will entertain on the Coors stage. Helga follows Billy Roy at 8 p.m. with her accordion music and yodeling, while a free street dance with country-western music by Oklahoma Transport begins under the pavilion.

The music plays on Saturday beginning at 10:30 a.m. with Polka music by Brave Combo from Denton under the Pavilion for four hours. From noon to 2 p.m., Cooke County College Jazz Band will take the stage.

At 3:00 Carl Jones and Big Band will entertain the pavilion until 5:00. Later in the evening, more polka music from Helga will be under the pavilion while Billy Roy again takes the Coors Stage. Then, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., Hoss will provide music for a country-western dance in the VFW Hall. Reservations only.

Sunday arrives and the bands play on. While last-minute runners are signing up for the German Fun Run, Brave Combo and the polka sounds will again appear under the pavilion while Billy Roy's one-man-band show takes the Coors Stage.

Then, while the runners are setting out on the Fun Run course at 2 p.m. Helga will again fill the air with polka sounds under the pavilion until 6 p.m. Later at 8:30, Billy Roy takes the Coors Stage again as another Free Street Dance begins under the pavilion.

All these performers have proven to be crowd-pleasers in the past and this year should be no different.

Schaefer Beer introduced locally

Schaefer Beer, brewed and enjoyed on the East Coast since 1842, has been introduced to Muenster consumers.

Roger Fridholm, president of The Stroh Brewery Company, announced the appointment of Cooke County Distributing Company as distributor of Schaefer and Schaefer Light for the Muenster area.

Schaefer, which originated in the eastern region of the United States some 140 years ago, was acquired by The Stroh Brewery Company in 1981. At the time, Schaefer was the seventh largest domestic brewer.

"We are most delighted to be able to bring Schaefer and Schaefer Light to the Muenster area beer drinkers," said Edward Kopecky, Schaefer brand manager for Stroh. "Today's Schaefer is better than ever, and I think once consumers try it, they'll find out what made this product one of the top beers in regions of the country."

three days over the 1901 community celebration as Jennie Sieger.

She said: "There was dancing all afternoon and evening...and standard German cooking, nothing fancy. In later years, I helped cook the same foods for other celebrants. And they celebrated three days worth!!! Everybody in Muenster and Lindsay came. It was a great time for homefolks."

Jennie Schilling is now a resident of St. Richard's Villa. She keeps busy sewing on her treadle machine, and has made lap robes and lap covers, by actual count in the thousands. She admits that sometimes threading a needle is frustrating, "but I just wait a bit and try later."

Generations ago, marksmanship, competition and membership in a gun club faded from the observance and from frame of reference.

Now the fun-filled salute to German heritage and hospitality attracts thousands of visitors who dance the polka, eat miles of sausages, strudel and cheeses, and sample German cuisine, prepared by great-grandchildren of the earliest sponsors.

Now there are carnival rides for children, two stages with almost non-stop entertainment, talent shows, folk dancing, accordion music and yodeling, a street dance, country/western music, disco music, polka music, big band music, square dancers, a bike rally, a motorcycle road-ee, horseshoes, a jazzercise demo...and contests...you name 'em...chug-a-lug, pretty baby, ladies smile, pretty feet, beards, men's beer belly, local talent, tobacco spitting, etc. etc.

Maifest and Schützenfest were forerunners of our modern Germanfest, but today's Germanfest is related only in Gemütlichkeit, fellowship, good food and drink, music and dancing, and sincere welcome to visitors.

Emphasis in the three days of celebration is now on reunions, the nostalgic appeal of "coming back home", crafts, good food, putting the community's "best foot forward" and the enormous popularity of the Fun Run and the race runners party.

The first Run in 1976 drew 250 runners. In 1982 there were more than 3500 runners in the 15 kilometer and 5 kilometer races.

If the growth pattern continues, the 1982 attendance of about 55,000 might reach more than 60,000.

In 1976 when Muenster observed the Bicentennial, a combined attendance of the 4 day celebration, totaled about 5,000.

How everything got started — the 1899 Muenster Schützenfest

by Elfreda Fette

Muenster's first big community party was celebrated in May 1899 in the old Muenster Park. It was attended by everyone in the new town, according to tales old timers tell their great-grandchildren.

Families came in wagons and on horseback, from a wide rural area, and friends and relatives came from Lindsay and Gainesville, prepared to remain more than one day.

Known as "Maifest" (German for May Feast) between 1889 and 1899 it was soon referred to as "Schützenfest". The three-day party was planned and controlled by members of the "Schützen Verein," a social organization of marksmen, in modern words, "a gun club." It was the main social event of the year, marked by reunions, fellowship and camaraderie.

As generations passed and interests changed, the big event faded in observance and practice. Mostly it retained only its aura and appeal for the retelling. But in its hey-day, Maifest and Schützenfest were celebrated with gusto and a bent for hi-jinks. It was conducted with great good humor, but in a somewhat different vein than Mardi Gras, or Octoberfest or Germanfest.

At that same time, Muenster's first settlers recalled also their forefathers' love of military training, marching and discipline in their native Germany and the old army under Bismark.

First leaders of the Schützen Verein between the year 1889 and 1899 were Henry Richter "Herr Oberst" or Commander, Dr. Melcher First Major; Bernard Wiesman Captain; Frank Hess, Sr. First Lieutenant (correct German spelling); William Wieler Second Lieutenant; and Theodore Wiesman Third Lieutenant; Baerscheid and Gillie "Herr Doktors" (honorary.)

Only members of the Schützen Verein participated in the contests, the marches and the brass band, but the whole community and surrounding areas entered into the spirit of celebration, with anticipation, enthusiasm and total commitment.

For the early settlers in Muenster, life was not easy. Economy was tight; work was demanding and conveniences were sparse. Times for leisure were "few and far between." Travel was slow and distances seemed greater than they really were.

People came to the celebration mostly in wagons or on horseback. But come they did — from all over the county — to share the fun and feast that local townsfolk spent months in preparing.

One of those who prepared was Joseph Markowitz who, many months earlier, scouted the woods for a chunk of elm wood, the toughest he could find.

From it he carved an eagle. It was an ornate bird having a wing spread of more than three feet, with a crown on its head, a sphere in one claw and a spear in the other. Markowitz was a master craftsman, with a shop near the present location of Knabe Tire and Radiator. He secured the bird atop a high pole, awaiting the opening of the festival, to become its focal point.

In true German tradition, the celebration was preceded by a religious observance. Following Sunday afternoon Vespers in church, there was an opening parade, with military or martial overtones, pomp and ceremony, and as elaborate as possible.

Led by the uniformed brass band, marching proudly down Main street (the word was "stolz", or "proud of their image") members of the Schützen Verein, the marksmen, in military formation, carried the carved eagle. Preceding them were four officers on horseback, in uniforms, with gold braid and shoulder epaulets, sabers at their sides and plumes on their hats. At the park the eagle was mounted on a 60 ft. pole.

On Monday the marksmen returned with their families, all marching ceremoniously to the music of the band. The eagle was their target in a show of marksmanship; the contest was held to name the Schützenkönig, King of the Schützenfest. The contest was strictly disciplined and conducted according to established rules. Competition was keen, the honor was coveted because there were two prizes; the winner received $25 and named his Schützenfest Queen, who reigned with him for two days.

Marksmen first took aim at the eagle's crown, then at the wing tips and then progressively chipping away until one of them succeeded in shooting the wooden bird from its perch. The contest usually took most of the day. The winner was carried on the shoulders of his friends, to the bar, where it was his duty to treat everyone, and his privilege to name his Queen. They were the honored ones at the dancing that followed on both days. The Schützenfest Queen and her two

4000 expected for Fun Run

The outlook for this year's German Fun Run is great, with possible participation of 4000 entries, according to the estimates of Co-chairmen Dan Hamric and Ronnie Hess. They said that about 2500 pre-registrations were received up to Tuesday and experience indicates that as many as 1500 can be expected up to race time Sunday.

More basis for the estimate is that the annual gain has been 20 to 25 percent. That increase added to last year's 3250 supports a guess of 4000 or more, and that also happens to be the number of T-shirts on hand to be given to runners as souvenirs.

Entries, as usual, have been received from all areas of Texas and no less than a dozen from other states, and they include hundreds who were here before. One of those is Ben Maturi, a native of Kenya, Africa, attending NTSU, who set a new record with a time of 46 minutes and 30 seconds in the 15 km run.

New to the race will be Richard Hackney who got into the Guinness World Record Book by running 28 miles backward. He will run backward in the Fun Run. Also new to the big race is Dick Siegel of WBAP in his helicopter. He will keep an eye on the race and keep in touch by radio with the local crowd.

Except in numbers, Fun Run this year is very similar to the past several years. It will be run in 15 k and 5 k divisions and methods of conducting will be the same as those of the past. This efficient and orderly management is one of the reasons of German Fun Run popularity.

A scene from the start of the 1980 Fun Run.

Other appealing features are the abundance of prizes and trophies and lots of refreshments afterward. Along with the T-shirts there will be trophies for places through 6 to 9 age groups each of males and females in the long race, and also trophies to the first five males and females of the short race. In addition there will be trophies to the youngest and oldest finishers in each division and also to the first Muenster male and female of both races.

The Fun Run will be followed by a party for all participants in a picnic area across the creek from the city park with plenty of beer and soft drinks. The place has just been prepared for company with a general fix-up and a new 8x42 foot-bridge across the creek. The place will also be used for a bike rally party the day before.

The Fun Run will start at 2 p.m. Sunday on the third and fourth blocks of Main Street with 15 k and 5 k runners together. After a short distance the groups will split and go their separate ways to the same finish line. It is assumed that all short route runners will have finished before the long route runners arrive.

The Fun Run directors have a special request regarding the race: that bike riders keep off the course to avoid interference with runners. And they invite volunteers to help them manage the race.

'Fest shows growth through seven years

Germanfest had a humble beginning as the community's part in the national observance of bicentennial year, 1976. It was sponsored by the Muenster Chamber of Commerce...

Public response left no doubt that Germanfest and German Fun Run were both widely accepted as calendar marking events in North Texas, and much farther.

finishers on the 15 kilometer course. That kind of crowd obviously crowded the Community Center parking lot, convincing the chamber that the festival needed more space to continue its success story...

best ever. With Chairman Alvin Fuhrman and a hard working committee on the job, and the recommendations of former visitors spreading ever farther, and fine weather assisting, the attendance made a 50 percent increase to almost 30,000.

was aided by ideal weather, and Co-chairmen Dick Ferber and Alvin Fuhrman had the pleasure of seeing an increase of more than 30 percent to an all-time high of about 40,000. Fun Run's increase was small but reached a new high of 2040 and the number of finishers was 2018.

Weekend contests offer prizes for every talent

Contests, contests, and more contests. Visitors to this year's Germanfest will have several chances for friendly competition if they can match their talents or qualities with one of the many contests on tap throughout the weekend.

And, it's a pretty safe bet that the Germanfest maybe one of the only places anywhere to find contests such as these:

Bottoms Up! - A chug-a-lug contest for the best of the beer drinkers at 7:30 p.m. Friday and 8 p.m. Sunday at the Coors Stage.

Say cheese - Laides, 15 years of age and older, will vie for honors in the Ladies' Smile Contest to be held on the Coors Stage at 4 p.m. Saturday and 5 p.m. Sunday.

Whisper cheese - Who is the prettiest under the age of five? That's the question to be answered by the Pretty Baby Contest; 3 p.m. Saturday and 1 p.m. Sunday, Coors Stage.

The Prize Paunch? - For this one, the men will compete for the dubious title of he with the "Biggest Beer Belly". The fierce competition is scheduled for 5 p.m. Saturday and 3 p.m. Sunday, Coors Stage.

Ready, Aim... Ptooy! - Accuracy, trajectory and sheer power will be the key factors here as competitors gather on the Coors Stage at 6 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday to determine the finest of the finest at the Tobacco Spitting Contest.

Burly Burlesque - Anything can happen for this one, the Men's Crazy Leg Contest; 7 p.m. Sunday, Coors Stage.

The Best Bristles - The men compete in this one for the honor of "The Best Beard." 7 p.m. Saturday and 6 p.m. Sunday, Coors Stage.

Tootsie's tootsies? - Last, but certainly not least, here the ladies will vie for the honor of having the most gorgeous appearance below the ankle. "The Ladies Pretty Feet Contest" is slated for the Coors Stage at 8 p.m. Saturday and 4 p.m. Sunday.

In every case, a contest for every talent - and an honor for every winner.

Contestants in this year's motorcycle road-eo, sponsored by Gilbert Endres, Budweiser distributor, will have these fine prizes to compete for. There will be three events for motorcycles; motocross, TT track and jump—and three separate ones for three-wheelers; motocross, TT track and a barrel race (no jump for the three wheelers). Also, there will be three separate size classes for the motorcycles.

he saw the last shipment of beer kegs, when Prohibition became law, putting an end to the celebration.

He enjoyed telling about seeing pink lemonade for the first time at Schützenfest. His father, Alois Hoenig, was in charge of the lemonade stand, when the red tie he was wearing fell into the lemonade barrel. He told too that the barrel was so deep, it took a baseball bat to stir the lemonade.

Joe Hoenig described the open bowling alley in the park, that provided entertainment. Also the platform dance floor that could be picked up for storage after the celebration. Later when the old parish hall was built, the bowling alley was moved indoors and bowling tournaments were held on Sunday afternoons after Vespers. However, when Prohibition became law, the Kegelbahn (bowling tournament) with a glass of beer, was discontinued.

Mrs. Hubert Felderhoff and Mrs. Ben Luke recalled that as teen-agers, they heard stories of Schützenfest from their parents. Just remembering, they said, makes one feel like a celebration; such happy memories are a delight. Each said: "I remember when Papa told me..." it was a fun time, camaraderie was at its best, everyone was in such a festive mood; it was reunion time, a situation that came about because people did not gather together then as often as they do now - distances were greater and travel was not easy. They too recalled the decorations on the band uniforms, gold tassels and epaulets on their shoulders, gold braid and plumed hats.

Mrs. Jennie Schilling, who will celebrate her 100th birthday on June 19, is Muenster's only living former Schützenfest Queen. She recalls the exciting day she was notified that her fiancé, Joseph Noggler was the winner of the Schützenkoenig prize and named her as his Queen.

At the time, she was a clerk in a Gainesville Department Store, when told to rush, to catch the 4 p.m. train to Muenster. At the Depot she was met by the Muenster Brass Band, told the good news and accompanied, in grand style to the picnic area for the coronation ceremony. At age 18, she reigned for ladies-in-waiting always wore white dresses, with silk red, white and blue banner and sash. The King was expected to wear a black silk top hat and black suit and a similar patriotic silk banner.

Frank Endres was the first Schützenfest king. Following him were Joseph Noggler, Dr. Melcher, Matt Mueller, Sr., Matt Baerscheid, Franz Hesse, Henry Richter, Franz Hoening, Joseph Markowitz, Sr., Fred Blum, Frank Hess, Sr., John Wieler, Sr., Bernard Roewe, Charlie Markowitz and Hubert Felderhoff.

The next day, Tuesday, there was another contest, and the target was a wooden star, measuring 4-6 ft., and mounted on the same 60 ft. pole. The prize was $5.00 and this winner's queen was chosen by chance.

The third day of the festival was clean-up day, this too in true German tradition.

Much of this information was gathered through repeated interviews and conversations with Theo Miller, Joe Hoening, Mrs. Jennie Schilling, Mrs. Hubert Felderhoff and Mrs. Ben Luke, who were teenagers and even pre-teens at the time. They were all very gracious and generous in giving time to recall and retell stories told them by their parents. Many other stories, too numerous to recount, followed Schützenfest.

Names of the first officers and first Schützenkoenigs (the King) were obtained from Brother Thomas Moster's "History of Muenster," and Fr. Joseph Fuhrmann's "History of Muenster."

Natur!'" (Hole in Nature) or (a Hit in the Air!), a source of much mirth and good natured ribbing. Miller said too that his father was the drum major for the German Band, carrying a long pole with a gilded globe on top. His father was also the beer agent, having the kegs shipped in from Dallas on the railroad, in an ice car. The ice was in 300 lb. chunks.

His mother was in charge of the old kitchen for the festival with Mrs. Mary Lehnertz, mother of Joe Lehnertz and Martha Lehnertz (Mrs. Bert Fisch); and Mrs. Franz Hess Sr. mother of Frank and Justin Hess and Mmes. Wm. Walterscheid, John Hartman, Joe Walterscheid, and John Henschel. They of course had many helpers in preparing roast beef, sausage, the inevitable sauerkraut and baked foods. There was a tent with tables and chairs for serving and eating. The celebration continued into the night and lanterns and kerosene torches were used for lighting.

Theo Miller added that people came in wagons, with loose hay in the bed, some to be used to feed the horses, some to be used for weary children to sleep on as the parents drove home.

Joe Hoening recalled that as a child he watched the German band parade to the park, and admired their splendid uniforms. He said he remembered seeing the shipment of beer kegs as it arrived at the railroad depot, for Schützenfest and Planners for this year's Germanfest have encouraged a more strict adherence to the theme of German heritage for those participating and operating booths this year. This tall, handsome beer stein will be given as an award to the booth that best adheres to that theme.

Theo Miller recalled that before the Schützenfest was so named, it was originally call Maifest (May Feast). He described the wooden eagle carved by Joseph Markowitz, father of Charlie Markowitz, Mrs. Luke Temple, Mrs. John Temple and Mary and Anna Markowitz. He said that Theodore Wiesman, father of Mrs. J.J. Haverkamp, Mrs. Al Fleitman and Ted Wiesman, directed the target shooting, calling contestants by name, and announcing their scores.

Target misses were called "Loch Im

Up front, behind the scenes

Shown on these two pages are a few of the scenes of Germanfest, both before and during, somewhat in the succession in which they're supposed to happen. Clockwise from below, the final planning meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Germanfest committee with Larry Kinard, Alvin Fuhrman and Wayne Klement; moving in the new tables in the park for the celebration; Rudy Koesler's shop class raising the giant tent which will cover many of the concessions; the Jaycees' beer van; and happy feet dancing to the big band sounds of Carl Jones.

Clockwise from upper left, last year's fun runners depart Muenster with several kilometers of hot weather to look forward to; an airborne motorcycle competing in the motorcycle rodeo; and a contrast in the various contest is on tap for the weekend — a beard contest for the men ... and something a little different for the ladies.

This Week's Special

Bratwurst Fully cooked LB. $1.99

The best known German Sausage in the United States, Bratwurst Sausage should be roasted on charcoal grill or in a skillet. The word Braten means roasting or frying in German. Serving suggestions: with German Hot Potato Salad and Sauerkraut or on a bun with mustard or curry sauce. Bratwurst is a very mild sausage. Even German people, not used to eating spicy food have to put some mustard or horseradish with it. Bratwurst is the German hamburger. People can eat it on almost every street corner. Its white color is a result of having no preservatives and no smoke - just steam cooked to internal temperature of 150 F degrees until fully cooked. This sausage along with German smoked sausage will be served at the Germanfest.

Pat Knabe named "Twelve Apostle"

Catholic Life Insurance Union announces that Pat Knabe of Muenster has been named a "Twelve Apostle" and outstanding sales representative for 1982.

Catholic Life is a fraternal benefit society that was organized in 1901 to provide low cost life insurance protection to Texas Catholics and their families. The San Antonio based company has 35,000 members in 88 branches throughout Texas.

Knabe, who is a member of the Muenster Catholic Life branch, has been a part-time sales representative for 5 years. This is the fourth consecutive year that he has earned the "Twelve Apostle" award, which is given to the top Catholic Life sales producers.

The "Twelve Apostle" award will be officially presented at a Statewide Catholic Life sales meeting in June where Knabe and his wife Shirley will be honored at a luncheon.

Extension club sends five to district meeting

Five members of the Muenster Extension Homemakers Club, Mrs. Lucille Lutkenhaus, Mrs. Armella Lutkenhaus, Mrs. Alice Hellman, Mrs. Odilia Detten and Mrs. Mabel Sicking represented the organization at the annual District meeting of 17 counties on Thursday, April 21.

The Grayson County Council of Extension Homemakers Clubs hosted the noon luncheon for the all day meeting in the Silver Wings Club in Sherman. Business sessions included reports, review of regulations and plans for coming activities.

Clara Miller of Dallas, a member of the State Organization on War on Drugs, presented the program, as one of the Extension Clubs' principal projects of 1983.

The next District meeting of the Extension Homemakers clubs will be held in Corsicana in 1984.

Preceding the District meeting the Muenster Extension Homemakers Club held its regular meeting on Wednesday, April 13 in the home of Mrs. Armella Lutkenhaus.

Election of officers was held, resulting in re-election of all who served in '82-'83, including Mmes. Rose Rohmer president; Irene Klement vice president; Marie Walter secretary; Alice Hellman council delegate; Agatha Wolf alternate council delegate.

A club member Mrs. Juanita Bright presented program "Beauty For All Seasons," a Seasonal Color Analysis, based on a person's natural color, with emphasis on individual color designation, coordinated make-up, skin care and wardrobe planning.

The hostess served dessert and coffee to 16 members. On May 11, Mrs. Anna Henscheid will be hostess to the club.

Dr Pepper promotes Jim Schumacher

Jim Schumacher of Richardson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Trachta, has recently been named Vice President of Administration of the Dr. Pepper Company of Dallas. A news story about several promotions by Dr. Pepper, including Schumacher's, was carried in the Wall Street Journal.

A native of Muenster, Schumacher is a graduate of Muenster High School and North Texas State University and has been employed by Dr. Pepper for ten years.

He is married to the former Pat Otto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Otto of Gainesville. They are parents of three children, Jay, Jeanna and Jeff.

Please send news of your guests to Box 190, The Muenster Enterprise, Muenster, Texas 76252. Your guests will appreciate your courtesy and your out-of-town friends will be interested in hometown news.

4 MHS girls advance to finals in state track

Muenster High girls in regional track at Abilene last week qualified for one event in the state meet May 5 and 6 at Austin. The 800 meter relay team including Carmen Sicking, Rita Walterscheid, Shelly Zimmerman and LeAnn Sicking won second place.

The mile relay team was close with a third place whereas first or second is needed to qualify. Its runners were Paula Russell, Rita Walterscheid, Shelly Zimmerman and LeAnn Sicking.

The Hornets also placed in two other events, Shelly Zimmerman being 5th in the 800 meter run and Pam Hermes 6th in the discus. The team's total score was 31 points.

Other MHS girls qualifying for regional were Tonya Fisher and Dana Dankesreiter.

Five Lindsay girls are qualified for regional track at Abilene this week. They are: front, Anita Fangman and Brenda Haverkamp; back, Gina Arendt and Bridget Fangman; and not pictured Shannon Fleitman. They are entered in the 1600 m relay and discus.

Hornet varsity track did it right

The MHS Hornets varsity track team was left short handed last Saturday at the Southlake Carroll meet when freshmen and sophomores were entered in the JV division, but the youngsters were the gainers and won their part of the meet.

Muenster scored 113 followed by Celina 104, Callisburg 81, Carroll 64, Little Elm 44, Coppell 43, Frisco 43, Chico 22. Muenster was the only Class A entry of the group, the others being AA.

However the story was different in the varsity division where Muenster was ninth with 21 points. Little Elm won with 140. Scorers for the Hornets were Joe Hennigan, second in shot and sixth in discus and Kevin Felderhoff, third in the 110 hurdles and third in 330 hurdles.

Regional qualifiers of the Hornets were also at Southlake Carroll for a qualifiers meet, and barely got on the board in the strong AA competition. Their 11 points were scored as follows: Shelley Zimmerman, second in the 880 run, Paula Russell fifth in the 440, and LeAnn Sicking, sixth in the 220 dash. Frisco won with 116.

Muenster JVs earned their points as follows.
 3200 m run: Keith Klement 1 and Kevin Owens 2
 Shot put: Rodney Hess 3
 Discus: Tim Fleeman 3
 Highjump: Kevin Wolf 3, John Anderle 6
 880 dash: John Anderle 5

IF IT'S TIME TO REPLACE YOUR CENTRAL AIR CONDITIONER, DON'T WASTE YOUR ENERGY.

Not all central air conditioners are energy efficient. Some are just as inefficient as the ones built twenty years ago. But if you buy a high efficiency air conditioner, you'll save money in the long run on operating costs.

And buying an energy efficient air conditioner could also earn you a bonus from Texas Power & Light. Just buy a central air conditioner with the qualifying SEER,* and we'll send you a check worth at least $40 per ton of capacity.

So now, buying an energy efficient unit will save you money in two ways. First, with lower operating costs. And second, with TP&L's bonus check.

For more information about our Bonus Program, give the energy experts at TP&L a call. The sooner you do, the sooner you'll enjoy lower cooling costs and get a bonus check on top of it.

Sister Cabrini Arami, new principal of Sacred Heart walked along with Maria McCoy Saturday at the Texas Marathon for Non-Public Schools.

Texas Marathon is big success

Beautiful weather, enthusiastic participants and dedication to a cause helped make the fifth annual Texas Marathon for Non-Public Education an overwhelming success.

The event was fun and purposeful, bringing together thousands of members of the Fort Worth Diocese in a picnic atmosphere enhanced by colorful tents and shelters, prizes, balloons, concessions and Marathon T-shirts identifying groups of participants.

With pledge sheets in hand, 83 participants left Sacred Heart School at 8 a.m. on Saturday, April 16 in cars, vans and a school bus. Enthusiasm ran high for classes and individuals in competition, since each kilometer completed swelled the total, resulting in an estimated impressive amount of more than $2,000.

Preliminary breakdown of figures shows that Sacred Heart Schools will collect approximately $1500, and the Young Children's Learning Center about $500.

Only 15% of the gross income was returned to the Catholic Education Center to help defray organizational expenses, and to support the Diocesan education programs for all ages.

Special guest at the Marathon was Bishop Delaney who visited with the children and addressed all present, congratulating them on a job well done. Prizes will be awarded to individual students and classes who earned the highest dollar value in pledges.

Sponsors have expressed gratitude to all who participated, either by walking, pledging funds or special donations, and the helpers who shared the day's success.

Meeting ends Cub Scout year

Cub scouts of Pack 664 ended their school year in a pack meeting last Monday, April 25. The meeting opened with a spirit candle lighting by Ryan Sicking and a flag ceremony led by Kenneth Walterscheid and Jason Biffle after which Andy Trubenbach, new den leader, received his patch from Cubmaster Lupe Evans. Then the new den was introduced as follows: Kody Trubenbach, Justin Hartman, Tommy Greathouse, Brian Knabe, Martin McCoy and Scot Hennigan. Aaron Berres was absent. Next an induction was held for boys and parents and a demonstration emphasized a need for family organization, cooperation and support in the scouting program. A skit was then presented by Den Leader Kathy Sicking and her den which includes Scott Wilde, Ryan Sicking, Sammy Walterscheid, Helmuth Koelzer, Michael Gobble, Chad Simmons and Mark Flusche.

Den 4 presented a comedy of riddles and jokes from Boys' Life. Its members are Douglas Evans, Brad McDaniel, Ryan Gehrig, Kelly Colwell, Brian Reiter, Terry Felderhoff and Raymond Stewart. Cubmaster and committee member Judy McDaniel conducted advancements. The new den received its Bobcat badge as the boys, in a candle-lit room gave the Cub Scout sign and recited the promise and law of the pack, and moved their mark on the advancement ladder. The following received arrow points for electives: Kenneth Walterscheid, Jason Biffle, Darren Klement, Steven Nasche and Michael Gobble. Activity badges for artist and outdoorsman were received by Webelos Michale Abney and Billy Covington; and the outdoorsman badge only was received by Troy Pagel, Rodney Knabe, Jason Walterscheid and Joe Weinzapfel. Final advancement was the Arrow of Light, the highest award in Cub Scouting, to Billy Covington, Jerry Brawner, Joe Weinzapfel, David Rohmer, Jason Walterscheid, Rodney Knabe, Michael Abney and Troy Pagel. Special dates for the Cubs were announced as follows: Graduation of entire pack, May 5, 7 p.m. VFW hall; day camp, June 20-24; skating party, July 12; swim-picnic party, Aug. 8; first pack meeting of school year, sept. 26.

The new Cub Scout Den inducted into Pack 664 during the official meeting on Monday, April 25 included Kody Trubenbach, Justin Hartman, Tommy Greathouse, Brian Knabe, Martin McCoy, Scot Hennigan and Aaron Berres. This picture included brothers, sisters and parents of the cubs, who also joined in the ceremony, emphasizing the family organization.
