

As if it were not enough for the boys over there to sweat and bleed for us, they have to put up with a lot of humiliation.

Imagine the average Yank's embarrassment when confronted by the kind of news we've been having lately. John L. Lewis still wrangling, and threatening another strike. Work already slowed down by the coal shortage, more strikes in vital industry, and adding insult to injury, the zoot suit riots. Imagine how you would feel if you were the ardent booster over there and got these reports from home.

A correspondent says that the British cannot comprehend the strike situation. They don't understand how the people can be so selfish and short sighted as to drive a bargain in this emergency. Neither can they understand the public nor the government that tolerates such outrages. Our service man abroad feels the same and resentful to boot. He's hurt he's been let down by the country he's been talking up.

As regards Lewis, this column announces a change of opinion. Lewis is more than just a labor racketeer. He's an ally of Hitler and Hirohito, a traitor of the foulest stench. If his previous sorry record isn't enough to establish the fact his latest stunt certainly is. When a man comes forth with demands so completely ridiculous as his last, it becomes obvious that his primary purpose is to cripple industry. There's more behind it than a lust for power and money.

By what manipulation of his fiendish mind can he justify the demand for pay going to and from work? What industry in what country has ever done it? Think of what the proposal means. A complete industrial revolution that would throw the whole nation into confusion. And would not accomplish anything in the end. Even a warped mind like his should be able to understand that industry can pay labor on one basis only — the work done. If non productive hours are padded into the time sheet the employer obviously will have to pay less per hour. In the end there can't be any difference, if the employer is to remain in business.

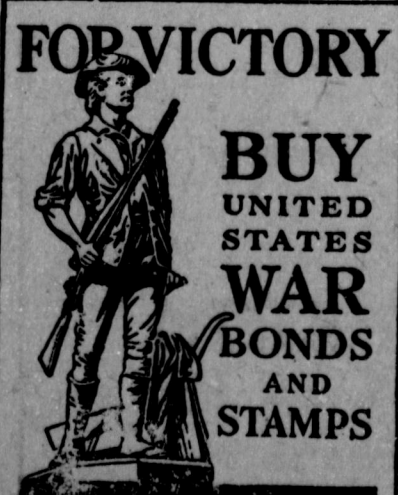

Introducing that stuff at this time is sabotage pure and simple. For it serves only to hamper the war effort by prolonging dissension.

Adding weight to the plausibility of a deal between Hitler and Lewis is the remarkable similarity in their methods. Remember how Hitler gradually gobbled up most of Europe? The pretended indignation over the plight of oppressed people he wanted to help, plus strong arm methods, plus the solemn promise that each new demand would be his last — a promise that wasn't worth three whoops in hadsn. Compare that with the Lewis system. Sentimentality and brute force and the ever recurring worthless promises.

Now follow the comparison a little farther. Hitler's trickery made him dictator of Europe and world enemy No. 1. Lewis became dictator of organized labor and America's public enemy No. 1. Hitler forced his way so far that civilized humanity had to set out for his destruction — a task which we hope, is now approaching its final stages. Lewis is another menace who will continue his abuses until the strong arm of national indignation strikes him down — another task which, we hope, will be completed soon.

About the worst to be said regarding the zoot suit situation is the fact that there are enough of 'em to make up a mob. Any ardent American is reluctant to admit his country harbored so many who were daffy enough to wear the silly things.

They say the service men declared war on zoot suiters because

Catholic League Enjoys Inspiring District Meeting

Muenster is Host Tuesday For One-Day Convention

Re-election of officers Tuesday afternoon featured the final session of the Northern District of the Catholic State League of Texas here Tuesday. They are Joe Lindemann, Windthorst, president, and Henry Osterman, Scotland, secretary-treasurer.

Delegates of the district composed of Muenster, Lindsay, Pilot Point, Rhineland, Mount Carmel, Windthorst and Scotland gathered here for the one-day conclave which featured inspiring and instructive lectures. First speaker for the occasion was the Rt. Rev. Abbot Edward Buerger, O. S. B., P. H. D., of Windthorst, who gave an eloquent address on "Lessons of the War".

"There is much evil in the world which is brought to our attention in times of war," the speaker said. "Likewise," he continued, "there are many good lessons taught us through strife, one of these being the great charity men have for one another, as evidenced by work of the Red Cross and other similar organizations." He elaborated on several points, both good and bad, and added that war tends to make man turn toward religion, and that only a peace, built on Christian principles, can be a lasting peace.

The second address, given by Brother Lawrence J. Gonner of San Antonio, entitled "Christian Principles of Post War Reconstruction" took up where Abbot Edward's address left off. He discussed the Christian social order which must necessarily be employed in the post war era. An order of practical living and Christian principles based on the philosophy of Christian charity will bring lasting days of peace, he said.

Walter Albrecht, state secretary of the league, brought a short message in which tribute was paid to the late Rev. John Nigg, writer of the league's present constitution, and to Muenster men serving in the armed forces.

Mrs. Ben Schwegmann of San Antonio, president of the Women's Union and also second vice president of the organization, gave a charming discourse on the woman's angle in which she talked against women working in public life, neglecting their homes and children, which results in juvenile delinquency and other evils and urged the upkeep of the Christian home, which builds the foundation for tomorrow's men and women.

Albert Schrempf, organizer of the Catholic Life Insurance Union, was the next speaker. He reported on business stating that Muenster leads the district with 240 members and that Lindsay is a close second with 218 members.

As the final speaker Rev. Father Frowin, former local pastor, and for more than 25 years organizer of the North Texas district, said a few words in which he expressed his pleasure in being able to attend the convention and urged continued activity of the league, appealing to the youth of the organization to carry on in the footsteps of their elders.

In the business session following the Catholic Day program old and new business was discussed, roll call of delegates took place, officers were elected and it was mentioned that most likely Seguin will be host for the annual state convention. An organizer for the North Texas District to replace Rev. Francis Zimmerer, now with the armed forces as chaplain, was brought before the meeting and was left as an appointment to be made by a committee in charge.

The convention got under way shortly after 2 o'clock, following attendance at Mass and the community dinner in the parish hall, and business was concluded at 5:30.

Sacramental benediction was given by Father Paul at 8, and a social, honoring visitors, was held in the hall in the evening. Gordon Shay and his orchestra from Wichita Falls provided music for the dance.

State officers attending the sessions in addition to Mrs. Schwegmann, and Mr. Albrecht, were Mrs. J. B. Wilde, treasurer, and Miss Anna Marie Klement, secretary of the youth group, both of this city.

Rev. Father Thomas, pastor, was general chairman of the day's events and was assisted by the affiliated societies of the parish.

ROHMER BROTHERS SERVE IN ARMY

Pfc. Albert Rohmer

Sgt. Alois J. Rohmer and Pfc. Albert L. Rohmer, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rohmer, are serving in the army. Sgt. Rohmer entered the service in December, 1941, receiving his training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and Camp Polk, La. Since March, this year, he is stationed at the desert training center, California. He is connected with an armored engineers battalion. Pfc. Rohmer was called to

FIRST 1943 WHEAT SOLD HERE THURSDAY

Muenster's first load of 1943 wheat was brought to Kimbell elevator here last Thursday afternoon by Miss Laura Lee Wilde. It had been combined by her father, Joe Wilde, at the J.H. Cone farm. The grain tested 60. The load contained 161 bushels.

The first load to Morrison elevator was brought in Saturday by Frank Yosten. It was grown on his farm northwest of town and also tested 60. Mr. Yosten combined the grain and brought in two loads each weighing 3,840 pounds. His wheat this year averages 21 bushels per acre.

First barley of the season was sold to Morrison by Arthur Hellman Saturday afternoon.

MUENSTER REFINERY ADDS NEW MEMBER TO FLY BLITZ

The latest improvement by the Muenster Refinery in its Fly Blitz line is the addition of a Cattle Spray. Tests in the laboratory have proved it to be as high in killing effect as the already popular insect spray of the same name. The new Cattle Spray is superior to insect spray in the killing of flies in the barns and on the cattle themselves because of its ability to stay with the cattle while they are in the field. The spray has been tested by local dairymen and has been proclaimed the best that they have ever used.

As regards the Insect Spray the local Refinery reports that it has surpassed all expectations for its killing power and comments continue to come in daily.

In the two short months that Fly Blitz has been on the market it has spread to all parts of the state and repeat orders are heavy. So great is the distribution that the Refinery is unable to meet with the demands, however, it was stated that a sufficient supply will be kept on hand to meet the local demands.

Miss Charis Bradshaw of Gainesville was here for a weekend visit with her sister, Mrs. T.S. Myrick and family.

FORMER MUENSTER FAMILY HAS 4 SONS IN SERVICE; ANOTHER TO GO SOON

Eugene of Fort George Wright, Wash., and Pfc. Clarence of Fort Sam Houston. The other son, Pvt. Alfred Schmitzer is stationed at Perrin Field. The boys were all born here. Wilfred will soon join his brothers in the service.

Also spending the day here were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hughes and daughter, Mrs. Hughes is the former Miss Margaret Schmitzer, and Miss Helen Finke and Mrs. Elizabeth Foster, all of Denison. Pfc. Joseph Schmitzer was married to Miss Finke on Wednesday of this week.

Large Crowd Is Present At Rev. Hoedebeck Has First Mass Here Tuesday

FATHER HOEDEBECK HONORED AT PROGRAM RECEPTION MONDAY

An attendance that filled the parish hall honored Rev. Father Paul Hoedebeck, O.S.B., Monday evening when a program and reception was given for him. The large auditorium was decorated with ecclesiastical banners and the Stars and Stripes and bore a large "Welcome" streamer above the entrance doors.

The program, under the direction of the local Benedictine Sisters, was presented in an impressive manner by the performers.

The opening selection was a number by the Youth Band after which Mary Ann Reiter, niece of the honor guest, gave the address of welcome. A greeting song was presented by the Glee Club and Frank Hennigan delivered an address to the honoree.

A resume of the early life of Father Paul was enacted by Virginia Walterscheid, Reynold Reiter and Ethel Bayer, and Clyde Fisher and Gerald Bayer gave a dialogue entitled "The Beautiful Hands of a Priest", followed by A.J. Felderhoff's recitation, "First Mass". A musical recitation, "The Angel's Prayer", was presented by Betty Lou Buckley with Juanita Weinzaepfel playing the piano accompaniment.

The Youth Band played between numbers and Miss Philomine Hoedebeck of Denison, sister of Father Paul, brought the "Thank You" address.

Former Member of Local Parish Was Ordained On June 3 at Little Rock, Ark.

Most of Muenster and scores of visitors, along with relatives from more distant places, packed Sacred Heart church Tuesday morning when Father Paul Hoedebeck, O.S.B., offered his first solemn high mass at 10 o'clock, in the presence of the Rt. Rev. Paul Nahlen, abbot of Subiaco Abbey, and the Rt. Rev. Abbot Edward Buerger of Windthorst. He had been ordained June 3, at Little Rock, Arkansas.

Assisting as deacon and subdeacon at the ceremony were Rev. Alfred Hoening and Rev. Vincent Orth, also native sons of the parish. Rev. Father Cletus of Subiaco was arch priest and Rev. Herbert Vogelpohl of Fort Worth was master of ceremonies. Little Charlotte Hoedebeck of Shawnee, Okla., niece of the celebrant, was spiritual bride for the occasion, carrying the chalice, and little Pauline Ann Myrick and Doris Lee Reiter were her bridesmaids. They carried baskets of wheat sheaves and grapes, symbolic of the bread and wine used in the holy sacrifice.

As speaker for the occasion, the Rt. Rev. Abbot Paul Nahlen brought an appropriate and inspiring sermon on "The Dignity of Priesthood". In the course of his talk he mentioned the fact that Father Paul was the ninth native son of the Muenster parish to embrace the religious life. He elaborated on the duties of priests, as representatives of Christ on earth. To assist in the salvation of souls, he said, is the principal duty of a priest and this is accomplished by teaching and administering the sacraments and especially by offering the sacrifice of the mass. He ended with a plea for more priests to assist people through these turbulent times.

Preceding the mass the new priest and other clergy were escorted to the church by a procession led by the Muenster Youth Band and a group of 29 small boys and girls as pages, carrying white gladioli, each representing one year of the celebrant's life. All who partook in the ceremony with relatives and members of the local parish societies were in the procession.

The church was beautifully decorated befitting the dignity of the occasion. Flags of church and state and the Stars and Stripes, along with hundreds of red and white gladioli, gold and white streamers, and lighted candles gave a harmonious festive appearance.

Following the ceremony group pictures were made and the clergy were escorted to the rectory by the band, after which all went to the parish hall to partake of a sumptuous dinner prepared by the Mother's Society. More than 500 persons joined in the community dinner.

Father Hoedebeck, members of his family, and the clergy were seated at a large T shaped table, centered with a beautiful cake. It was in the form of a missal almost identical to that the priest uses at mass, with red covers and gold binding, and was topped with a lamb and white roses. Other decorations on the table were wheat sheaves and bunches of grapes.

Members of Father Paul's family attending the celebration were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck, Philomine and Eugene Hoedebeck, Ray Hoedebeck and son and Mrs. Cletus Hoedebeck and two children of Denison: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hoedebeck and family of Shawnee, Okla.; Pfc. and Mrs. Alfred Hoedebeck of Fort Screven, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spurgeon and child of Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Clem Reiter and family and Frank Hoedebeck of this city.

Brothers unable to attend were Bob of Ada, Okla.; Joe of California, Cletus of Kansas and Pvt. Norbert Hoedebeck, with the U. S. Army stationed in North Africa.

MISS BONNIE YOSTEN AND ARNOLD HESS ARE UNITED MONDAY

Sacred Heart church was the scene of a pretty wedding Monday morning at 8:30 when Miss Bonnie Yosten, daughter of John Yosten became the bride of Arnold Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hess.

Rev. Fr. Thomas officiated at the ceremony and was celebrant of the nuptial high mass which was followed by sacramental benediction. Members of the church choir, assisted by Sister Leonarda, organist, rendered the wedding music.

The bride was lovely in a floor length frock of white satin and lace. The dress was made with a long sleeved satin bodice and fitted mid-riff of lace from which fell the full skirt of lace. It was worn over taffeta. The bridal veil was finger-tip length and was attached to a white satin halo. For "something borrowed" the bride wore a three-strand pearl necklace belonging to her bridesmaid, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white gladioli.

Miss Mildred Walterscheid, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor.

Following the church rites the bridal party were guests at breakfast in the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pels, and at noon they were honored with a dinner at the John Yosten home. Relatives of the couple were guests and during the afternoon a reception was held. The bride's table carried out her chosen colors of white and blue and was centered with a large tiered cake, topped with a miniature bridal figurine. The reception preceded Mr. and Mrs. Hess' departure on a short wedding trip.

American daring and genius startled the world in 1819 when our Savannah was the first steamship to make the transatlantic crossing. This feat is celebrated annually on National Maritime Day, May 22d, by Presidential Proclamation.

Early steamships, even up to 1860, were also equipped with sails, averaged only about 10 miles per hour, and were considered unreliable by the captains of our mighty clippers and pocket ships.

To-day steam engines, diesel motors and turbo-electric drives are all used as fast means of propulsion for the steady stream of cargo ships sailing the world's oceans.

SAVE LEGUME SEED

A last minute caution on saving legume seed for winter cover crops. For an indefinite time Cooke County farmers will have to depend largely upon legumes for soil building. This is due to a shortage of commercial nitrogen fertilizers. Legumes utilize the nitrogen in the air by means of bacteria in nodules on their roots. Legumes also are a source of feed. But seed is required to grow legumes and farmers are urged to harvest every patch of vetch which has matured on their land. The major part of the supply of vetch seed planted in Texas is grown in the northwestern Pacific coast states. But there will be a shortage in that supply this year because of unfavorable weather at planting time and because of heavy weevil damage. Farmers are urged to harvest and save sweet clover seed, including Hubam. There is a shortage of Hubam seed, which is well adapted to the blacklands area and to south Texas. It will be ready for harvesting during June and July, and every ounce saved for home use and for sale to other farmers needing it will stretch the curtailed stock of seed. Appreciation of the value of cover crops was indicated in the purchase of more than two million pounds of legume seed by Texas farmers for planting in 1942. This was more than twice the amount bought for planting in 1941.

BANKING

MUENSTER STATE BANK

This column is supplied for the information of patrons giving briefly details of the purpose, functions and the manner in which banks serve their communities, State and Federal Government.

The origin of Banking cannot trace its beginning to any one time or place. It is noted, however, that the service of banking emerged in one form or another in every seat of ancient and medieval civilization, as man began to break away from family isolations and form tribes. The origin of money necessarily preceded the origin of banking, for banking is the business of making money more useful, as will be pointed out in further discussions.

Banks in this country are not government institutions. They are in effect just like any other store or manufacturing concern, they are in effect private enterprises in which individuals have invested their money with the expectation of making a profit.

Banks do have an obligation to the public, as is set forth in their charters by some government agency, under which they are permitted to operate.

A bank is a reservoir of the funds of its community. It accepts the excess funds, keeps an adequate amount in reserve to meet demands of withdrawals for the carrying on of commerce within its community or any other place in the world, and it makes available funds to legitimate borrowers in the community.

Banks, unlike other businesses, differ in this respect, they do not have merchandise to offer for resale on which to make a profit. They sell only intangibles, credit and service, and it is for this reason, there enters into every banking transaction a human element which is the principal factor in its operations. said zooters were getting rowdy, cutting in on their romances, and making general nuisances of themselves in other ways. That will do as an immediate cause of hostilities. Probably the real reason is that service men could not stand the sight of the suits and longer.

The zoot suit is a haberdasher's nightmare, a supreme insult to the esthetic taste of a cultured nation. Infinitely worse than the worst flukes in the history of feminine apparel. Look the thing over from head to foot and you find nothing but an outrage to the eye. First that flat crown, wide brim hat with the ridiculous feather. The extravagantly padded knee length coat is freaky but has one redeeming merit. It hides most of the even more freaky pants. Except when left flopping open. Then you see that the pants extend way up to the armpits and drape in sissy pleats down to the knees. Finally the puny, ankle tight cuffs that make normal sized feet look like something enormous.

When you come to think of it, service men did not wrong the boys so awfully by yanking off their suits. They were not any more ridiculous in shorts and dangling shirt tails than they had been in the other mess of rags.
