CONFEETTI

A few weeks ago when the boys at Munda were advancing at the rate of only a hundred yards a day you may have wondered why so slow. I did. And now I have an answer. The problem cleared for me as I was taking my second trip through Fort Sill's battle inoculation course. It's a day's work just to move a hundred yards like that, regardless of whether a fellow does any fighting.

From what they are saying around here that little trip under the bullets has become a standard feature of training in almost every camp. Well, nothing could be better. Besides furnishing a thorough workout it gives valuable practice in keeping down, all the way down, while moving forward. And should it develop that a person will not need the practice, at least he will have acquired some appreciation of what the boys at the front go through. He'll heartily agree that Sherman was right.

The course this time was different from that we went through a few months ago. And as much tougher as it was different. That's how it seemed, although I must admit that the season and the time of day may have had some effect on my opinion. You can imagine what it was like at 2PM on ground that had not felt a drop of rain in weeks.

The procedure, in case you are interested, is something like this. Sneak up in a trench until about forty men are abreast, then peek over into the business ends of a couple of machine guns about 75 yards ahead. Just behind them is a ridge of dirt, the objective that must be reached strictly by horizontal locomotion. Between here and there are a few barbed wire entanglements to make the advance more realistic — and harder

Then a loud speaker blares out "over the top," and you're off, slithering over the edge of the trench as flat as a snake. It doesn't take but a moment to realize that this is anything but fun. So you decide to snap it up and get out of the misery. About 30 yards out the line you begin to notice that it's work, hard work, and that you can't possibly keep up the pace so you start slowing down. You've already passed a couple strands of barbed wire that some fiend deliberately neglected to remove after completing the other entanglements. No matter how low that stuff is, you go under, not over. And while doing it you're inching along by squirming on your back. That way you can pick off any strand that happens to snag on your clothing. Most likely you're lifting it up all the time while wriggling under. Same is true of the regular entanglements, only more so. There are more wires to contend with.

About half way along you notice that you're tired and winded. Breathing is spasmodic and muscles ache terribly. You've got to rest a while. But you can't lie quiet. The ground is so hot you can feel yourself toasting.

The farther you go the worse it gets. You've accumulated a throat full of dust. So you cough, and a cloud of dust flares up in your face. Half of it seems to go into your eyes and the other half right back to your throat. You also start to feel bruises on your chest from the dozens of rocks you've skidded over. Another case of fiendish failure to clean up. And you also begin to notice the skin peeling off your elbows or knees. The spot affected is determined by an individual's method of applying traction in its locomotion — whether he's mostly pushing with his legs or pulling with his arms.

All the while the guy at the loud speaker has been yelling his head off. "Don't lift that wire so high, you'll poke your hand into a bullet. Snap it up. Wait to get home before you take a nap. Get off your knees or you'll be picking lead out of your rump." You get so you hate him.

Toward last you're dimly aware of going forward in a semi-blind stupor. But eventually you reach the finish line, roll over, struggle to your feet, and begin stumbling in the general direction of shade or drinking water.

What a relief to relax! You don't bother with such trifles as dust dimmed eyes, aching muscles, raw spots, or streaks of mud on face and clothing. Mud that was made by the mixture of dust with your sweat. If you went through with your shirt tucked inside your trousers you are also aware of a few handfuls of grit you've scooped up along the way. But you don't notice any of that. All you think of is water and rest.

And, naturally, you start wondering whether you'll survive the second trip. That's right. You're only half through. The ordeal just completed was a dry run, for practice, so that you'll know how to act when the guns are popping. (Continued on Page 4)

Home From War Theatre

S. Sgt. Roman Trachta is here since Saturday on furlough to visit his mother, Mrs. Annie Trachta and other relatives. He returned to the states two weeks ago after spending more than a year in the Asiatic Pacific with a medical division. He leaves Monday for Camp Barkeley where he will enter OCS in Administrative Medicine. Roman says very little about his experiences overseas and adds that his activities were such as cannot be published due to military censorship. The course he is to take will require approximately four months and he looks forward to more overseas duty at its completion.

Transferred To Georgia

Sgt. Alois Rohmer was last week transferred from Los Angeles to Fort Benning, Ga., he has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rohmer.

Accepted For Navy

Lawrence Rohrer, son of Mrs. Katy Rohrer, left Thursday of this week to join his brother, Louis in the Navy. He passed his physical at Dallas last Wednesday. Also taking physicals at Dallas the same day were Walter Richter and Leroy Sicking, who were rejected.

Writes From Sicily

S. Sgt. Ferd Yosten, writing from Sicily, reports that he is fine and that his new station is a welcome change from the desert sands of Africa, where he spent several months. He is with the air corps as a mechanic.

Truck Farmer In New Guinea

Sgt. Earl Lehnertz, stationed in New Guinea, reports this week that his duties are changed from cook to "plain old plow jockey." He explains by saying: "I am now in charge of a vegetable farm; you should see it. The Victory gardens you folks in the states brag about have nothing on this. We're feeding the boys lots of radishes, string beans, and similar vegetables, and cucumber and watermelons will soon be in. I have two tractors and plenty of natives to help gather the vegetables." Earl concludes his letter, which was written to the Enterprise by adding: "Keep the papers coming for me to read and give my love to all"

NEWLYWEDS LEAVE FOR FLORIDA HOME TUESDAY

Coast Guardsman and Mrs. John H. Wimmer left Monday for Panama City, Florida, where they will make their home at 608 Harrison Ave., as long as he is stationed in that city. The couple was married here on August 10 while he was on a 15-day leave. For traveling Mrs. Wimmer wore a two piece suit of navy blue crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. She is the former Miss Olivia Walterscheid.

On Sunday evening they were honored with barbecue supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bayer. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walterscheid, Miss Katie Mae Walterscheid and Mrs. Joe Bayer and Family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Seyler returned last weekend from a trip up north and were accompanied home by six-year-old Billy Taylor whom they have adopted. The handsome blonde youngster needs no official introduction. He resided here last winter with his mother and the Seylers tried at that time to adopt him but were not successful because the mother was unwilling. She moved to Peoria, Ill., and finding that she was absolutely unable to care for the child wrote the Seylers to come for him. According to Illinois state laws a period of six months is required before final adoption papers can be completed. Billy says he hopes he never has to leave again, that he loves the Seylers and his new home and that he doesn't want to go away.

Mr. and Mrs. M.J. Endres were in Fort Worth Sunday to attend religious services at which their daughter, Sister Irma, took her perpetual vows. They were accompanied home by both daughters, Sister Irma and Sister Agnes, who spent until Wednesday evening here with their parents. Sister Agnes has recently returned from Washington, D.C., where she attended summer school. She will teach in Dallas again this year, and Sister Irma will teach in Fort Worth.

Miss Ludwina Vogel of Houston is here for a visit with her parents and other relatives.

Gas Rationing Cut Began In Texas Monday

Beginning Monday Texas motorists get only three gallons of gasoline for each ration coupon, either A, B or C, instead of the customary four gallons.

There have been many protests of the reducing of the value of coupons, and few Texans pretend happiness over the order forcing them to conserve a product with which, Texas abounds.

"Fill 'er up" orders boosted gasoline sales locally Saturday as motorists drove into service stations to cash in coupons while the four-gallon ration remained in effect.

Importance of accepting only endorsed coupons when making either retail or wholesale sales has been stressed again by OPA, and dealers were warned also not to accept loose coupons. They are also told to report all overage to the board. Overage, it is explained, applies to selling portions of coupons, for example, selling ten gallons and collecting four tickets.

Under the new plan, one gallon of the gasoline should be used for occupational driving and two gallons for non-occupational. At present, of the 16 gallons a month allowed on the A card, six gallons are considered non-occupational.

The maximum amount which will be allowed motorists needing their cars in the "course of work" will be cut from 1720 miles a month to 480. This does not affect preferred motorists such as doctors, ministers and war workers, who receive C cards according to actual need but without a specific limitation.

"A" book coupons No. 7, now good for three gallons, must last through September 21.

MRS. J.B. WILDE IS REELECTED TO STATE LEAGUE OFFICES

Mrs. J.B. Wilde of this city was re-elected to both her offices in the forty-fifth annual convention at Seguin on August 10 and 11. She is state treasurer and treasurer of the Women's Section.

Frank C. Gittinger of San Antonio was elected president replacing Joseph Molburg, and Walter Albrecht, San Antonio, was re-elected secretary. Castorville was chosen as next year's convention city.

Seguin was host to approximately 30 priests and 250 delegates and visitors for the annual meeting last week.

SURPRISE PARTY GREETED THE ALBERT HENSCHIEDS

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henschied were honored with a surprise party last Thursday evening at their home in observance of their 19th wedding anniversary. Their daughters, Misses Clara and Rosalie, and Mrs. Frank Schilling planned the affair for which approximately 100 relatives and friends were guests.

For the honor couple the party was a complete surprise. They were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schilling and considered that a very pretty compliment, an anniversary dinner in their honor. At a time, pre-arranged by their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Henschied were telephoned to come home. When they arrived they found all the guests, laden with refreshments and gifts in keeping with the occasion.

Games and music were enjoyed, after which lunch was served. Music was furnished by Miss Veronica Yosten, piano; Henry Yosten, accordion; and Buddy Yosten, guitar.

Personnel included the following and their families: Messrs. and Mesdames John Rohmer, August Walterscheid, John Felderhoff, Nick Yosten, Joe and Meinrad Hesse, Leo Henschied, Walter Klement, Felix Yosten, Henry Henschied, R.R. ### NOTHING UNLUCKY ABOUT THIS 13TH

Who ever said anything about Friday the 13th being unlucky? That's what Pfc. and Mrs. Hugh Jackson want to know. For them both Friday and 13 are lucky. Their first child, a 9-pound boy, arrived at the local clinic last Friday, August 13. Incidentally the proud father was also born on Friday the 13, in 1913. He spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday here with his family, returning to Camp Wolters Sunday evening.

The baby was baptised Sunday afternoon in Sacred Heart church by Father Thomas and received the name Joseph Arthur, being named after his two grandfathers. The maternal grandparents, Mayor and Mrs. J.M. Weinzapfel, were sponsors and the infant wore the long dress, with its lace and insertion petticoats, in which his grandfather Weinzapfel was baptised 49 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Wilde and daughters drove to Camp Maxey Sunday to visit their son and brother, Pvt. Ray Wilde, who was recently transferred to that camp from Abilene. Ray accompanied them home in the afternoon to spend several hours here and was driven back in the evening by his sisters and a group of young friends.

Guests of Father Thomas last Wednesday to Saturday were his brother, Martin Buerler and son, Herman Joseph, or Fort Smith, Ark. Friday, joined by Father Richard, the group visited in Gainesville, Lindsay, Wichita Falls and Windthorst, Herman Joseph is entering Subiaco Monastery this week. He joins two brothers studying for the priesthood.

Mrs. John Schmitz underwent a major operation at Saint Paul's hospital in Dallas last Thursday. Her husband and daughter, Mrs. Joe Wimmer, were with her at the time and on their return home reported that she was resting well. They visited her again Sunday and said she was recovering normally. She will remain in the hospital for another week, at least.

Henry Harrison of Archer City spent last Sunday with his brother Alford Harrison.

Funeral Services Held Monday For Mrs. John Luke, Sr.

Mercury Drops To Season's First Norther

44 Degree Change Noted; Strong North Wind Drives Away Badly Needed Rain

Climbing to 112 degrees, to set the summer's record, Monday's scorching melted away in the late evening before the season's first norther. Tuesday a.m. readings were 65, and on Wednesday morning Muensterites were shivering at 68 degrees. With the mercury registering well above the 100 mark for weeks the sharp decline sets the coolest weather Muenster has had since early July. Hopes for rain, badly needed, faded as the sky continued clear and unclouded.

The dry weather promises the earliest cotton crop in about 10 years. Cotton has held its own quite well in spite of no appreciable rain since early July and only small reserves of subsoil moisture. The plant, however, has quit growing, and bolls are popping open, most of them unmaturing. Reports are that farmers will be gathering the crop before the end of the month. Reports also indicate that most cotton will be pulled because bolls are small and have opened before fully developed. A farmer near Forestburg reported about three bales open in his field this week.

The Muenster Gin is being repaired and remodeled for the approaching season. Cooke County's first bale was ginned at Valley View Friday and the second, grown in the Bulcher community, was ginned Saturday at Gainesville.

The continued dry, hot weather is responsible for a drop in milk receipts at the local cheese plant. Daily average the first three days of the week was 32,000 pounds, the lowest of the season. Receipts dropped consistently since early June when the year's high of 48,000 pounds was recorded.

Meanwhile farmers are still waiting for rain so they can plow. Most of those who tried it during the past weeks gave it up as a bad job.

LOCAL GROUP ATTENDS ANNUAL 4-H PICNIC

More than 100 women and girls affiliated with home demonstration and 4-H clubs of Cooke County enjoyed the annual rally and picnic held last Thursday at the T.B. Davis farm east of Gainesville.

The morning was spent in registration and renewing acquaintances, at noon a sumptuous picnic lunch was spread and the afternoon was devoted to games, contests and a program.

Muenster girls appeared on the program. Coralee and Rosalee Fuhrmann gave a vocal duet and Bernice Reiter and Tresa Ann Hess appeared in a song with Patsy Miller of Era.

In a horse shoe pitching contest, between the women and the girls, Coralee and Rosalee Fuhrmann held their places in the girls' section as winners but were defeated by the women in the finals.

During the afternoon Miss Nette Shultz, county agent, presented the gold star award to Miss Patsy Sullivan of Whaley 55 club, for high ranking 4-H work done during 1942.

Attending from Muenster were Sponsors Mrs. J.M. Weinzapfel and Miss Olivia Stock and Mrs. M.J. Endres and Eileen Koelzer, Rosalee and Coralee Fuhrmann, Arnes and Philomena Felderhoff, Olive Haverkamp, Edna Margaret Hartman, Dolores Gremminger, Mary Ann Felderhoff, Bernice Reiter, Joan Swirczynski, Pauline and Clara Magee, Tresa Ann Hess and Tresa Rohmer.

Also in attendance were Mrs. Ben Sicking and daughter, Miss Rose and Miss Willie Sowder.

SURPRISE PARTY GREETED MRS. PATRICK ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J.W. Patrick was honored with a surprise picnic and barbecue party last Thursday evening at the Bill Mathews ranch near Myra in observance of her birthday. Friends planned the affair. Persons included Messrs. and Meses. J.W. Patrick, Woody Chapman, L. Burchfield, Bill Mathews, Matt Stelzer and their families and Mrs. Tom Bryant and daughter, Mary.

Pioneer Resident, 79, Died Friday Evening Following Long Illness

Mrs. John Luke, Sr., 79, died at her home north of the city Friday evening at 5:15 following a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held at Sacred Heart church Monday morning at 9 o'clock with Rev. Thomas Buegler, pastor, officiating at the requiem high mass and at burial in the Muenster cemetery. Four grandsons, Paul and Michael Luke and Daniel and Bernard Luke served as altar boys, and six grandsons were pall bearers: Vincent Luke, Petty Officer 2C, Dallas; S. Sgt. Wilmer Luke, Lubbock; Edwin Luke, Fort Worth; and Arthur, Paul and Urban Endres, Muenster. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Mrs. Nick Miller.

Mrs. Luke, whose maiden name was Mary Koester, was born in Wentzville, Missouri, on November 28, 1863, and was married to John Luke on April 18, 1882. They moved to Muenster to make their home in 1902. Mr. and Mrs. Luke, as pioneer citizens of the community, took active part in both civic and religious enterprises. They engaged in farming and he was also one of the early school teachers here. For 30 years he was organist of Sacred Heart parish. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in April of 1932 and he died the same year on November 26.

Survivors are ten children, six sons and four daughters: John Luke of Fort Worth; Carl Luke, Dawn; Mrs. Mike Koelzer, Herford; Ben, Henry and Joe Luke, Mrs. W.H. Endres and Mrs. Martin Friske, Muenster; Alphonse and Miss Theresa Luke, who reside at the family home, 42 grand-children, 9 great-grandchildren, and three brothers and a sister, who reside in Missouri. Nine of Mrs. Luke's grandsons are serving in the U.S. armed forces.

All ten children were here to attend their mother's bedside and remained for the funeral services. Other relatives at the last rites were Miss Eugenia Luke, Fort Worth; Mrs. Carl Luke, Mike Koelzer, Mrs. Loyal Neal, and Miss Elfreda Luke of Denton.

RATION "COINS" TO BE USED FOR POINT CHANGE MAKING

Plastic or glass "coins" valued in ration points rather than cents will be put into circulation beginning about January 1. OPA has announced, as a supplement to the present stamp system.

The tokens, red and blue, will be manufactured in one and five point units, the one-point token to be about the size of a nickel and the five-point about the size of a quarter.

For use only in food rationing the tokens will be given to dealers to make change for stamps of a higher value. Red tokens will be used for meat and blue ones for processed goods.

War Ration Book 3 will become effective about Sept. 12, it was stated.

LEAGUE, GARDEN CLUB HAS MEETING FRIDAY

Mrs. Herbert Meurer and Mrs. Tony Gremminger were speakers on the program at the regular monthly meeting of the Civic League and Garden Club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Meurer's subject was "What to do in the Garden in August" and a round table discussion by members followed. Mrs. Gremminger told about Colonial Gardens in America.

During the business session, preceding the program, Mrs. M. J. Endres, vice president, presided and committee chairmen gave reports.

FOUR SISTERS TOGETHER FIRST TIME IN 6 YEARS

Mrs. J.J. Haverkamp and Mrs. Al Fleitman returned last Thursday from a week's visit in Carlsbad, N.M., where they were guests of their sister, Mrs. A.H. Lueb and family. Other guests during the week were another sister, Sister Ann Theodore, and the Lueb's daughter, Sister Miriam Dorothy, both of San Antonio. It was the first time that the four sisters have been together in six years. The Muenster ladies also enjoyed a tour of the Carlsbad Caverns before returning home.

HOME DOLLARS ARE OUR OWN Children

We cannot spare the dollars earned in this community any more than we could do without our young people who were born here.

It would be civic suicide if we were always to send away the best of our youth. Likewise, home-earned dollars, born of our own hard work, should not be sent away needlessly to give strength to other communities at the expense of our own.

This is a matter for every citizen to think about—and to do something about. Patronize home merchants. Boost this community. Buy and bank at home. Keep our dollars here to nourish our future prosperity. Let's all do our part.

Dependable POWER on the Ground Keeps 'Em in the Air!!

HITLER, Tojo and Mussolini now know what the people of this country have known all the time ... that an American flyer, reared in free, democratic America is worth several of their regimented robots. ALL THE fast-moving, hard-hitting American flyers are not trained and equipped in Texas, but a great many of them are. The building and equipping of Air Force fields and bases called for a degree of efficiency and speed which only American industry, grown great and capable under the free enterprise system, knows how to deliver. And in every operation, dependable electric service was of vital importance. THIS COMPANY now serves nine installations used in the Air Force war program ... nine air fields and training schools which require as much electricity as normally used by an entire city of some 50,000 population. In every instance, electric service for construction and for operation of these fields was ready ahead of demand. In a like manner, the Company has met fully the requirements of all military installations and war industries ... ahead of demand, and without curtailing service for civilian needs.

THIS COMPANY has been able to deliver the power when needed and where needed because of 31 years of planning and building a system and an organization in the American Way ... the free enterprise way ... to be always ready ahead of demand.

WINNING the war is the big job now for all. And to this end our facilities and resources are dedicated ... to win the war as quickly as possible, and to do such a thorough job of it as to forever discourage the dictators who seek to destroy our freedom ... our American Way of Life!

Confetti---

When you get a slug of water you know someone is adding insult to injury. Out of an old tank truck and worthy of nothing better than sprinkling a street. Apparently creek water with some disinfecting agent. At any rate so vile tasting that anyone less famished would never swallow it. But therein lay its sole merit. You couldn't drink too much, as you might if the water were deliciously pure and cool like another group's. They imbibed freely. On the next trip seven men passed out. One from our group, six from theirs. Needless to say, the second run was about like the first. Only difference was the bullets. First they could be heard distinctly whizzing overhead. Later their sound died out as the incessant pounding of the guns predominated. Toward last we could feel the muzzle blast. Strange as it seems, most of the fellows negotiated the second trip with less trouble than the first. It's a tough grind all right. But remember, it's only a sample of what the boys are going through in the hot zone. Now take time out to marvel at the stamina of men who go through a similar crawling advance and still are able to aim a shot or wade into close combat. Thousands of the boys are doing that. For you and me.

ISABEL SCHMITZ, ANTHONY KLEMENT UNITED THURSDAY

LINDSAY.— Miss Isabel Marie Schmitz, daughter of Theodore Schmitz of Lindsay, and Anthony Klement, CM 2c, U.S. Coast Guard, of Muenster and Bucksport S.C., and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fr. Klement of Muenster, were united here in St. Peter's church Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. Conrad Herda, officiating at the rites and at the nuptial high mass.

The bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white fashioned with a long, fitted bodice of satin and full net skirt, bracelet length sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a wreath of seed pearls and she carried an arm bouquet of white gladiolas. For "something borrowed" she wore a strand of pearls belonging to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Pat Schmitz, of Gainesville.

The maid of honor, Miss Anna Marie Klement, sister of the groom, wore a gown of pink ribbed taffeta, made similar to the bride's with bracelet length sleeves. She wore a shoulder-length veil matching her dress and a corsage of white carnations.

Harold Schmitz, brother of the bride, was best man.

Breakfast was served to the bridal party following the church services and at noon immediate members of the two families, Fr. Conrad and the Muenster pastors, were guests at dinner in the home of the bride's father. The bride's chosen colors were accented in the dining room and the table was centered with a three-tiered cake, topped with miniature bridal figurines, and flanked with pink and white tapers.

A reception in the community hall, beginning at 8 p.m. with a buffet supper and terminating with a dance, honored the couple in the evening. Approximately 200 persons attended.

The bridegroom is on a 14-day leave and the couple will visit relatives here and in Muenster 'til Monday when they depart for S. Carolina to make their home in Bucksport, where he is stationed. For traveling the bride will wear a navy frock with white accessories.

Both young people are popular in Lindsay and Muenster of which they are natives and where they attended school. He entered the service on the 25th of August last year.
