Bishop Delaney heads Sacred Heart commencement program

Bishop Joseph Delaney of the Fort Worth Diocese honored graduates of Sacred Heart High School in three ways Sunday night at their commencement in Sacred Heart Church.

He was celebrant of the Commencement Mass while Father Denis and Father Victor joined as con-celebrants. He gave the commencement message. And he presented diplomas.

He pointed out that it was especially proper to observe the event on the feast of Pentecost, in that each is a commencement. Pentecost was more than the end of Christ's presence on earth as a man, it was the beginning of the Church by the Holy Spirit. Also, the graduation is more than the end of study and school activity, it is the beginning of a new life in college or career.

He told the students that their goal in life is to apply what they have learned in love and service to God and fellow man.

Bishop Delaney presided at the presentation of diplomas and honor awards as Father Denis assisted and Father Victor, along with Sister Cabrini and Sister Carmelita, performed the ring and tassel formalities.

Others taking part in the ceremonies were: Ruth Felderhoff as organist; Emily Klement as song leader and soloist; Laura Flusche, Paula Yosten and Leslie Hess in scriptural readings; and Lydia Walterscheid, Kevin Switzer and Keith Hennigan in presentation of offertory gifts.

The senior class and Tammy Hess presented "Wherever You Go," and Wendell Black sang "Bridge Over Troubled Waters" as a meditation. Ruth Felderhoff played "Pomp and Circumstance" for the processional and "Chariots of Fire" for the recessional.

Members of the class of 1986 are: Timothy Walter Bartel, Charla Renee Bayer, Randall Lynn Bell, Laura Ann Flusche* (Salutatorian), Donna Kay Fuhrmann*, Amber Lynn Grewing*, Lisa Marie Haverkamp*, Keith Thomas Hennigan, Leslie Ann Hess, Tammy Rose Hess, Kenneth John Hesse*, Russell Lynn Knabe, Gary John Nasche*, Carol Lynn Reiter, Kevin Robert Switzer, Darren Joseph Voth, Lloyd James Walterscheid*, Lydia Kay Walterscheid*, Sandra Ann Walterscheid*, and Paula Jean Yosten* (Valedictorian). An asterisk indicates member of the Honor Society. Linda Biffle and Joe Felderhoff are the class sponsors.

$20,000 hangs in the balance Muenster nears judging

Next week on May 29 and 30, the entire city of Muenster will be judged as either the winner, or the loser, in the $20,000 contest sponsored by the state.

WHAT RESIDENTS DO IN THE NEXT WEEK WILL BE THE DECIDING FACTOR IF MUENSTER IS TO WIN OR LOSE.

The impact of winning this contest could be very important and far reaching for the future history of Muenster. The funds would be used to landscape the entryways and right-of-ways of Hwy. 82 and Hwy. 373 running through our town. Included in landscaping may be lighting fixtures of cast metal with 4 and 5 globes as used at the turn of the century. The look of these fixtures will "place our town on the map" as visitors are treated to the only town in North Texas with such decor. More importantly, all Muenster's residents will benefit from the beautification to enjoy throughout the years. It would also set the stage for our town's CENTENNIAL celebration only 31 months away.

THINGS YOU CAN DO TO HELP:

- *Mow all grassy areas around your business and at all lots owned. Clean up all the mowed grass.
- * Do a DAILY litter pickup on every part of your lot, and maybe someone else's.
- * Display "Don't Mess With Texas" stickers.
- * Pick up and use "Don't Mess With Texas" litter bags.
- * Send help or take part in litter pickups Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 5:30.
- * Keep elementary school posters on display until after May 30.
- * Sweep gravel from curbs in front of lots you own, trim or edge grass.
- * Place business by-products out of sight (old tires, beer cartons, boxes, trash storage, etc.).
- * Treat the street in front of your business or home as your own. Keep it clean.
- * If you want to "adopt" a piece of road, do it now. See Maudine at the Chamber office.

Harvest starts slow

The community's wheat harvest got off to a late start Tuesday after being delayed almost a week by the weather. Traffic of grain trucks was building up Wednesday and both local dealers were busy.

Originally, the season started on the 14th, but a night of sound and fury with tornado watches and .09 inch of rain was enough to stop the combines. Additional rainfall of 1.27 inches in the weekend kept them idle until Tuesday.

First delivery was by Aloys Fuhrmann to Muenster Mill on the 14th. It tested 61. But the quality did not last. His test dropped to 56 when he returned Wednesday. Tony's Seed and Feed got its first grain Tuesday, May 21, from Denis and Dale Hofbauer. It tested 58.

At this time, the season has not advanced far enough to estimate the yield. However, general opinion is that it is poorer than last year. Causes are said to be disease and insects along with a shortage of winter moisture. Still another factor is deterioration in the past week's rain.

Price, too, is disappointing. It's $2.50 for soft wheat and $2.60 for hard wheat.

Because of the delay, the harvest is barely started. However, the balance of more than three-fourths will go fast if the current good weather continues.

DOING AN EXTRA GOOD JOB of cleaning and painting the municipal swimming pool requires a few extra days to finish. Originally scheduled to open this weekend, the pool will have to wait till Thursday, May 29, for Splash Day. City Manager, Joe Fenton, made the announcement Tuesday.

Aim of Mailbox Improvement Week: better service, safety

The U.S. Postal Service has designated May 19-24 as "Mailbox Improvement Week."

"Each year a week in May is set aside to remind customers on rural, city motorized and contract delivery routes to examine and improve, where necessary, the appearance of their mailboxes," Muenster Postmaster Virgil Henschel said.

"The purpose is to call attention to the need to provide mail receptacles that are conveniently located, safe to use, neat in appearance and are designed to protect the mail from the weather," Postmaster Henschel continued.

There is no question that neat, attractive mailboxes improve the appearance of country roads and suburban streets. The Postal Service points out, however, that Mailbox Improvement Week means more than eye appeal.

"Say that an old, dented box has sharp, cutting edges or that the receptacle is too small, too hard to reach or made inaccessible by obstructions," comments Postmaster Henschel. "In such cases, the mail would be stamped undeliverable and the customer would have to come to the post office to pick it up. We need the cooperation of our customers to maintain service at its highest level."

Postal regulations require that rural and contract route carriers must have access to mailboxes without having to leave their vehicles. Such boxes must be located on the right-hand side of the road in the carrier's direction of travel where traffic conditions would endanger a carrier driving to the left to reach the boxes. The boxes also must be placed to conform with state laws and highway regulations.

Celebrating Texas

Spanish Influence

Part 2 of 3

by Robert McDaniel

One of the cultures that has had a significant influence on Texas is the Spanish culture. It is difficult to observe any part of Texas without noticing this influence.

One area in which Spanish dominates our state is in the naming of the geographical areas such as rivers, mountains and plains. Most of the major rivers and several of the larger tributaries are named from some Spanish word - Trinity (the Holy Trinity), Colorado (colored), Nueces (nuts), Brazos (arms of God), Sabine (from sabinah which means cypress in Spanish), Hondo (deep), Frio (cold), and the southern boundary Rio Grande (Big River). Other geographical areas include the Diablo Plateau, Balcones Escarpment, Guadalupe Mountains, Chisos Mountains and Palo Duro Canyon.

Another area dominated by the Spanish is place names. Some major cities are: Galveston, Corpus Christi, San Antonio, Laredo, San Angelo, El Paso, Amarillo, as well as less populated areas: Aqua Dulce, Chico, Bonita and Cielo. At least 41 of the 254 counties were named for some Spanish words ranging from Mea Casto County; religion - Angelina County; animals - Lavaca County; to fruit - Nueces County.

Spanish is spoken as the mother tongue by approximately 20 percent of the state's population as well as the second language of many Anglos. Even those who do not speak Spanish fluently still have incorporated various Spanish words into their vocabulary: patio, plaza, siesta, fiesta and hacienda, plus food dishes too numerous to mention.

Some historians think that the major contribution made by the Spanish was when sheep, horses and cattle were introduced into Texas. The Hill Country and to the west still produces more wool than any other section of the nation, with San Angelo, in Tom Green County, being the largest processor. There are two hypotheses as to the origin of the horse in Texas. One is that the early Spanish explorers, prior to settling an area, often landed and freed several kinds of stock (horses, cattle, sheep, pigs and goats). Then later, when settlers migrated to the area, the ones that had survived and multiplied were used by the settlers. The second hypothesis, and the most accepted, is that the horse is a result of those brought by the Conquistadores of Spain to help conquer the Indian tribes found in the New World. Some escaped and the end product was that large herds of wild mustangs were available when Mexican and Anglo settlers arrived. The hypotheses for the Longhorn cattle is the same as for the horse.

The Spanish also influenced the process of working cattle from the roundup to the different terminology used by the cowboy. The noun rodeo comes from the Spanish verb rodear - to surround or gather, extra horses were kept in the remuda, the cowboy's tenguillon hat is nothing more than an altered version of the sombrero, the bandana, chaps and spurs were also borrowed from the Spanish.

Many buildings in Texas have a Spanish architectural influence. They range from homes which used Spanish techniques to help keep buildings cool during the oppressive summer heat in Texas to the beautiful missions built by the Indians under the guidance of the Spanish missionaries.

Lastly, but of equal value, are three concepts Texas has which originated from the Spanish culture. They are women's suffrage, adoption and homestead protection laws. The English system, under which the Americans were reared, allowed women and children few rights and had few laws controlling property in relation to homesteads.

The more one looks around Texas, the more one is able to see how the different cultures have been partially assimilated into other cultures. This is also what helps to make Texas unique.

VFW Auxiliary sponsors safety and Americanism programs

The VFW Auxiliary to Post 6205 has completed several safety, Americanism and Patriotism projects for school children during the past year. Stressed in particular were child safety and poison control programs.

Members recently presented to Kindergarten classes pamphlets containing a checklist of poisonous products found in homes; poisonous plants in and around homes; home fire-safety checklist; Mr. Yuk stickers; Mr. Yuk color books.

Distributed earlier were child's information sheets sent home to be completed by parents and filed with important family records.

Also given to school principals were child and drug safety color and activity books entitled "It's OK To Say No To Strangers," and "It's OK To Say No To Drugs."

The Auxiliary also presented parent/child contracts to MHS Student Council for use in its drug seminar; bike safety rules and lite-a-bike tapes to first grade classes in both schools; and cancer information pamphlets for use in church collections.

On Loyalty Day, May 1, the Auxiliary presented flags and Pledge of Allegiance cards to all kindergarten students. Also Flag Etiquette books and pamphlets to the principals for distribution to teachers.

Auxiliary members urged the parents to discuss with children all pamphlets, especially in the area of child safety.

Auxiliary officers participating in the programs were Agnes Hesse, Auxiliary Americanism chairman; Laujuana Klement, secretary; Linda Knabe, safety chairman; and Frances Bayer, president.

Gilbert Endres Distributing receives Anheuser-Busch award

MUENSTER - Gilbert Endres Distributing, Inc., local distributor of Anheuser-Busch beers, has been named winner of the world's largest brewery's 'Dimensions of Excellence' Bronze Eagle Award for outstanding corporate community service in 1985.

Of Anheuser-Busch's family on 975 wholesalers nationwide, eight received the most coveted 'Dimensions of Excellence' Ambassador/Gold Eagle award, 16 wholesalers received the Gold Eagle award, 41 distributors were recognized in the Silver Eagle category, and 50 received the Bronze Eagle awards.

"The 'Dimensions of Excellence' winners have established a blueprint for success that other wholesalers and brewers can emulate and, in the process, have greatly enhanced the image of the malt beverage industry and the credibility of its members," said Michael J. LaMonica, vice president of Marketing Operations at Anheuser-Busch. "The performance of each one of these wholesalers plays a major role in our continuing efforts to upgrade our wholesaler family. These winners are a key behind our continued success as the world's largest brewer."

To be eligible for 'Dimensions of Excellence' recognition, Anheuser-Busch wholesalers must be in compliance with the corporations' standards and basic operational guidelines. The six performance categories include: sales and marketing, delivery procedures, warehousing, personnel management, administration, and community involvement.

Oil price war may endanger National Security

DALLAS - Dallas oil man L. Frank Pitts warned recently that the price war being waged by Middle Eastern oil producers against Western producers is working so well that it may soon leave U.S. national security in danger, our foreign policy in the hands of Middle Eastern potentates and the U.S. economy in shambles. He recommended the immediate imposition of an import fee to stabilize oil prices in this country and forestall massive trade-deficit spending.

Pitts is an independent producer of oil and natural gas who has served on the government's National Petroleum Council under the last five Secretaries of Energy and has been appointed by both Democratic and Republican Administrations. He is a past president and chairman of the 5,500-member Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association and a frequent expert witness at Congressional hearings.

Pitts' remarks were triggered by the regular Monday morning announcement by Hughes Tool Company, Houston, of the number of drilling rigs at work in the United States. "The 809 rigs working last week is a record that fell sharply below the historic previous low record of 814 rigs set in 1971," Pitts said, "and is the lowest it has been since World War II." The Hughes count is commonly used by government and industry as an indicator of the health of the U.S. oil industry. The highest count was in 1981, when more than 4,500 rigs were operating. Today's figure dramatized that more than 3,500, or 82 percent, of U.S. drilling rigs, are gathering rust as the worst depression in U.S. oil industry history grips producers.

"The temporary low price of foreign oil has many government officials claiming credit for improving the American economy," Pitts said, "but the cheap foreign oil is only the first part of an orchestrated trap, engineered by Saudi Arabia, which will soon set off new oil shocks making those of the 1970s seem to be only tremors by comparison." Pitts said the first four months of this year already has seen oil and gas drilling and support activity dismantled by at least 50 percent. The economic barriers to U.S. production have been created by Saudi Arabia as it "dumped" 2 million barrels of excess oil per day on the world market since December.

According to Pitts, the United States is on a course that will again see, in two years or less, more than 50 percent of our oil needs being imported. "That's the condition we were in when the Middle East producers raised oil prices so outrageously in the 1970s," he said, "when it sent paralyzing blows through our economy."

Last April 18, the Wall Street Journal published the results of a survey it conducted with the cooperation of NBC News. The Journal reported that a random sample of adults favored a tax on imported oil by 53 percent to 36 percent. "I think that's a good example of responsible public thinking," Pitts applauded, "and shows again that the American people have the common sense to face up to hard decisions, even when Congress is reluctant to take a stand."

NOTICE!!

Practice for First Communicants who have been contacted to participate in VFW Memorial Day services will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, May 24, in Sacred Heart Cemetery. For more information, call Linda Knabe, 759-2592.

Film series Continues at First Baptist

Five more films remain in the series "Love Is A Decision," being presented at Muenster First Baptist Church Sunday evenings at 6:30. Everyone is invited to attend.

"Hands Across America" needs hands in Bowie

Mrs. Lillian Appel, a member of the Sesquicentennial coordinating committee, was notified late Wednesday that "Hands Across America" needs volunteers in the Bowie area on Sunday, May 25.

The event is scheduled for 2 p.m. However, she urged arrival by 1:30 and suggested that everyone will need a hat and those who bring a battery-operated radio will be able to hear the national broadcast.

Groups will be assembling near approaches to Bowie, along Hwy. 287, the Fort Worth to Wichita Falls highway.

MAILBOX

Customers are requested to remove obstructions - including vehicles, trashcans and snow - that make delivery difficult.

For both suburban curblin and rural roadside boxes, the Postal Service requests a height of 3 1/2 to 4 feet from the bottom of the box to ground level. The address should be clearly printed on the receptacle to assure more efficient delivery.

There are approved traditional and contemporary mailbox designs. A customer-designed rural box needs the prior approval of the postmaster before it can be installed.

One last safety caution from the Postal Service: Some mailbox supports are so massive (heavy metal posts, concrete, farm equipment filled with concrete), they are damaging vehicles and causing serious injuries to people who accidentally strike them. The Federal Highway Administration has suggested mailbox mounting and support designs that post offices will share with their customers.

Conf. Air Force to have exhibition

The Dallas/Fort Worth wing of the Confederate Air Force will be sponsoring a World War II Aircraft Exhibition at the Terrell Airport on Saturday and Sunday, July 5 and 6. There are over 100 World War II era planes expected to be on the ramp as well as some vintage aircraft from World War I and the war in Southeast Asia. There will be plenty to eat and drink. Many of the planes will be open for spectators to go in and inspect.

NOTICE!

The garbage pick-up truck will make regular rounds on Monday, Memorial Day, May 26.

Stormy Weather!

With harvest time drawing near, farmers were casting anxious glances to the sky last week as the surrounding areas were hit with heavy rains, high winds and, in some instances, tornadoes. Fortunately, the most severe weather missed the Muenster area. Rainfall amounts and temperatures were recorded as follows by Steve Mosler.

May 14	80 and 70
May 15	with .09 in. rain 86 and 65
May 16	82 and 70
May 17	with .55 in. rain 64 and 62
May 18	with .92 in. rain 68 and 56
May 19	70 and 49
May 20	76 and 59

The total rainfall amount for the week was 1.56 inches, bringing the total for May to 5.26 inches.

Funeral held for Mrs. Harry Scoggins, 51

Funeral service for Anna Grace (Mrs. Harry) Scoggins, 51, was held Saturday at 10 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church with Father Victor Gillespie officiating at a Mass of Christian Burial.

Mrs. Scoggins died Thursday in Muenster Memorial Hospital, ending a long illness and after many months of hospitalization in Westgate, Gainesville Memorial, Irving Community Hospital, a return home for three days and three days again in Muenster Memorial.

Preceding the funeral, rosary was recited at 4 p.m. in the McCoy Funeral Home Chapel and a wake service was held at 8 p.m.

Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery with McCoy Funeral Home directing and Lennie Haverkamp, Benny Haverkamp, Sonny Walterscheid, Joe Koesler, Harold Flusche and Ronnie Hess as the pallbearers.

Anna Grace Scoggins was born in Muenster on April 7, 1935, and was married to Harry Scoggins on May 23, 1953. She was a housewife and lifetime resident of Muenster.

Use Savings Bonds for education

The Gramm-Rudman-Hollings balanced-budget law has already reduced Federal funding of college education grants and loans beginning in March this year and, according to plan, the greatest reductions are yet to come. During these belt-tightening times Americans must find other acceptable ways to pay for their children's higher education.

The U.S. Treasury's Savings Bonds Division offers a "Tax-Free Interest" funding option which many citizens believe to be the safest and most thrifty way to save for college costs. A small monthly investment of $25.00 in Savings Bonds at a child's birth - with an average yield of 10 percent - will be worth $14,358.32 at age 18 ... just in time for college. The total accrued interest on these Bonds will be free from Federal income tax when the fund is used for college education, provided the following simple rules are followed: Purchase the Bonds in the child's name at any age with a parent listed as beneficiary. At the end of the first year of Bond purchases, file a Federal tax return in the child's name, listing accrued interest as income. No further tax returns need be filed unless the child has an income in any one year, including Bond interest, in excess of $1,040.00.

WHERE OTHERS HAVE THEIR BRANCHES, WE HAVE OUR ROOTS.

Today's banking picture leaves a lot to be desired. The big financial networks have branches everywhere. The home office dictates policies for everyone ... which means the real decision makers are often hundreds of miles away. While you're looking for personal service ... big banks' employees are climbing the corporate ladder. Their main concern? Personal success.

At our Independent Bank things are different. We have our roots firmly planted in the community we serve. When you need to see a decision maker, you see a neighbor who's responsive to the local economic climate and has the responsibility for making your money work here ... in our community.

If your bank gives you the feeling you're out on a limb ... maybe it's time to bank the Independent Way.

You Know Us. We Know You.

Annual FHA banquet honors mothers of students

"Spirit of Texas" was the theme of the annual FHA banquet at Muenster High School on April 29 at 7 p.m. Mothers of the students were invited as special guests.

The Public School cafeteria was decorated in a Sesquicentennial theme. Red and white gingham covered the guest tables, and was used to curtain the windows behind the main table. A banner carried the theme, "The Spirit of Texas Is Alive In FHA." Covering another wall was a handpainted mural depicting a Texas landscape of pecan trees, bluebonnets and a covered wagon.

Table decorations were centerpieces of a Texas flag and Muenster flag, with red, white and blue bows, votive candles in canning jars tied with ribbon, and fresh, long-stemmed roses and streamers. Deann Walterscheid and Melanie Richey were co-chairmen of the decorating committee, assisted by Terri Whitley, Kristi Pagel, Melody Klement, Michelle Hudleston, Donna Walterscheid, Kim Bayer and Rhonda Stewart.

Dolle Pagel, president, was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Alma Wolf gave the invocation.

The menu included a tossed salad appetizer and a main course of barbecue beef, potato salad, baked beans, relishes, dinner rolls, apple or cherry crisp served with vanilla ice cream, iced tea and coffee. The food was planned and prepared by FHA members in their homemaking classes, except for the meat which was prepared by Mike Sturm.

Welcome, given by Kristi Pagel, and response, given by Kay Pagel, were followed by the introduction of guests by FHA members.

Each mother was presented with a long-stemmed yellow rose.

A project report was given by reporter Judy Biffle, who described a year of FHA activities. Regional and State meeting delegates were recognized by Mrs. Joni Sturm, adviser.

The Muenster YHT chapter was represented by Tina Bindel who gave the YHT award for Outstanding Future Homemaker to Kristi Pagel. She also gave the runner-up award to Tracey Walterscheid and she recognized Terri Whitley as an outstanding applicant.

Entertainment included a tap dance by Rhonda Trubenbach and jazz dances by Tracey Walterscheid, Kristi Pagel, Meredith McDaniel and Laura Hesse.

A style show followed, with Homemaking I and II students modeling their classroom creations for spring. Models were Cheryl Bayer, Deanna Bierschenk, Kim Hess, LaNell Sicking, Jeannene Walterscheid, Kim Bayer, Kristin Fette, Penni Hess, Kristi Pagel, Melanie Richey, Tracey Walterscheid, Rhonda Trubenbach, Terri

Whitley, Connie Klement, Rose Herr and Rhonda Stewart.

Programs for the banquet were designed and planned by Tracey Walterscheid, Judy Biffle, Meredith McDaniel and Dolle Pagel. The program was concluded with a benediction by Connie Klement and her mother, Laujuana Klement.

News of the sick

The infant daughter of Christi and Leon Klement is showing improvement, according to a note from her mother Wednesday morning, who said "Bridgette is breathing room air with no machine. Tomorrow she'll start taking formula through a tube, although she has not regained birth weight." Christi is remaining in Fort Worth at her side. ## Love at first touch.

We've got the new Xerox 6020 Memorywriter. It's typing made easiest.

Xerox asked secretaries what they wanted in an electronic typewriter. They said, "Make it easy."

So Xerox created a Memorywriter with so many automatic features, typing simply couldn't be easier.

And now it's here—the new Xerox 6020 Memorywriter.

It's still the basic typewriter secretaries want—for forms, for envelopes, for labels.

Yet it's got word processor power to make most documents a breeze.

With a 3-line display which shows them text, features being used, and helpful directions.

With block editing so they can move, copy or delete blocks in seconds.

With document format storage, starting with a 16K memory which can be expanded to 32K or 64K with optional cassettes.

And with Automatic Spellcheck, an option which provides a 50,000-word dictionary to verify spelling, plus any special words in your business.

What's more, for text editing, there just isn't a more automatic typewriter that does so much, for such an easy price.

So stop in, and ask for the new Xerox 6020 Memorywriter, and make typing easy for your secretary.

Remember when thawing frozen food was an adventure?

Times have changed...

It used to take hours to thaw frozen food and prepare a meal. Today, the microwave oven has changed all of that. Not only can you thaw food in minutes but you can cook and have it ready to serve in no time... before anyone else gets to it.

Times have changed for your cooperative, too.

The Brazos System builds power plants to last at least 35 years. Over those years, fuel is the major cost—so today we use a less expensive fuel, lignite.

Lignite plants are large and complex... more difficult to operate and maintain. Even so, we expect them to continue to be the most economical choice for making electricity. Lignite costs considerably less than natural gas.

Your business, Cooke County Electric Cooperative, benefits from that choice, and so do you. The power of the kilowatt hour can do so much good... don't waste it.

THE JOY ON THE FACE of this young camper at Camp Sweeney attests to the fun that the diabetic child finds when they are "one of the gang" at the camp sponsored by the Southwestern Diabetic Foundation each year.

Camp Sweeney: special camp for special kids opens soon

All the signs show that summer is fast approaching - Little League play is starting up, mosquitoes are out, the days are lengthening, and children everywhere are packing for summer camp.

For many children with diabetes, summer means spending three wonderful, fun-packed weeks at Camp Sweeney in the green hills of North Central Texas, 10 miles northeast of Gainesville.

Camp Sweeney is a summer camp especially for diabetic children ages 6 to 18. The camp is sponsored by Southwestern Diabetic Foundation and is funded through the United Way and private donations.

Children at Camp Sweeney participate in the same activities that their peers in other summer camps enjoy, such as swimming, boating, fishing, archery, hiking and horseback riding. In addition to these activities, campers at Camp Sweeney learn how to deal with their diabetes and lead normal lives. Each camper's diet is individually monitored by an experienced kitchen staff. The medical staff is on duty 24 hours a day to check the campers for any adverse signs and to conduct classes to help educate the campers on the medical aspects of their disorder. Any child with diabetes may attend Camp Sweeney, regardless of ability to pay. Scholarships are available for any diabetic child who wishes to attend camp. Camp Sweeney does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, religion, creed, nationality or handicap.

This summer's sessions are as follows: Session I - June 8 - 27; Session II - June 29 - July 18; Session III - July 20 - August 8. There are still openings in all of the sessions at this time. For more information on attending the camp and the scholarships that are available, contact the Southwestern Diabetic Foundation at P.O. Box 918, Gainesville, Texas 76240 or 817-665-9502.

Camp Sweeney is indeed a special camp - for special kids. Of all the activities and education that the camp offers, perhaps the most appealing offering to the children

-PERSONAL-

Mr. and Mrs. Al Yosten were in Aubrey Sunday for the annual Tischler reunion at the Aubrey Community Center. About 50 relatives were present, coming from Tioga, Collinsville, Pilot Point, McKinney, Garland, Dallas, Euless and Muenster.

4-H Club elects officers for 1986-87

The Muenster 4-H Club held its last meeting for the year May 13 at the Muenster Public School cafeteria. Twenty members were present.

Officers for next year were elected. The senior slate of officers includes: Stephen Becker, president; Wayne Becker, vice-president; Amy Bayer, secretary; Staci Sicking, recreational leader; Andy Burnette, council delegate; Jared Bayer, alternate council delegate; Sam Fleitman, reporter. The junior slate of officers includes: Marcia Vogel, president; Sheila Huddleston, vice-president; Amber Vogel, secretary; Vickie Bayer, recreational leader; Sherilyn Sicking, council delegate; Werner Becker, alternate council delegate; and Rodney Vogel, reporter.

Members voted to "Adopt a Section of a Highway," and will be notified as soon as sufficient information is gathered.

Reports were given by the senior 4-H members who will be traveling with 4-H this summer.

Stephen Becker will be traveling to Washington D.C. to the 1986 National 4-H Citizenship-Washington Focus for two weeks. This citizenship program is designed to supplement the citizenship education and leadership development that a 4-H'er receives through 4-H, home, school and church.

Andy Burnette will participate in the 1986 National Leadership Conference in Miniwanca, Michigan for 12 days. Andy received the 1985 Danforth "I Dare You" award at the county level and applied for a scholarship to attend this conference sponsored by the Danforth Foundation.

Wayne Becker will go to Texas 4-H Congress to be held in Austin, Texas in July. He will participate in a four-day Legislative Conference in the capitol city.

New members are always welcome and membership is open to all youths, third grade through age 19, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

Barbara Bayer, organizational leader, announced there will be a swim party held this summer. The date will be announced.

Discussions were held about ways to increase attendance of members at the meetings. Suggestions were for members to watch the newspaper for announcements about meetings and to put posters on bulletin boards at both schools as a reminder to 4-H members.

Auxiliary sells Buddy Poppies

Muenster Ladies Auxiliary to the VFW will hold a Buddy Poppy sale at church doors after all Masses during Memorial Day weekend. All monies collected remain in Muenster and are used exclusively for veterans and/or their families. The VFW and Auxiliary members urge the public to "Remember the men who can't forget."

who attend the camp is the chance to be "just like everyone else."

Instead of being the "only one with diabetes," they are surrounded by bunkmates and cabinmates who also have to take insulin shots, eat a certain way, and most importantly, who understand how it feels to be a diabetic - the fears, the experiences, the laughter.

Camp Sweeney makes the diabetic child "one of the gang."

Business planning workshop to be held on June 2 at CCC

GAINESVILLE - Going into business for one's self is a popular dream for many people, but Claire McMillan says those who pursue that dream without a detailed plan are destined to probable failure.

How to formulate an effective, operational business plan is the focus of a special workshop to be conducted June 2 (Monday) at Cooke County College.

Ms. McMillan, adjunct member of the CCC Business Division faculty who will be featured on the program, says the workshop is designed not only for persons who may be planning to open their own small business but also for those who may already have been in business for a while but are yet to achieve the success they had hoped for by now.

A small business and computer consultant in the Denton area, Ms. McMillan will be joined in presenting the workshop by Dr. Patsy Ledbetter, CCC history instructor who is also a practicing attorney working often with small businesses; Maxine Stilley, director of the CCC Business Division and owner of her own business; the Nutrition Cupboard; and Bill Williams, CCC real estate instructor and owner of First Realty Co.

"I think it's very significant that all these people are not only experienced teachers but also know firsthand the problems and challenges faced by persons trying to operate their own business," McMillan observes. "Their insights and advice should prove quite valuable to workshop participants."

The workshop is open to all interested persons, and cost of participation is $20 for individuals, $35 for married couples. The enrollment fee also includes an information packet and refreshments.

Joint sponsors of the workshop are CCC's Division of Continuing Education and Division of Business, in cooperation with McMillan Associates and the U.S. Small Business Administration.

"This could well be one of the most profitable evenings ever spent by anyone seriously considering opening their own small business," says Linda Mast, CCC's director of Continuing Education. "It can save them time, increase their chances for success and help them avoid costly mistakes."

"A good business plan can do all these things for a beginner, but it can also be of immense benefit to those who may already have been in operation for some time. Good planning definitely keeps a small business profitable and healthy."

The workshop will get underway at 6 p.m. and run through 9 p.m. in the Little Theater on the CCC campus. Participants are asked to come between 5:30 and 6 p.m. to sign in and have refreshments.

Persons wishing to register for the workshop should go by the CCC Division of Continuing Education office in Room 107 on campus as soon as possible. For more information, call 817/668-7731, Ext. 223 or 242.

Muenster Extension Homemakers meet May 14 for last yearly meeting

Muenster Extension Homemakers Club met in the home of Bea Young on May 14 at 2 p.m., and she gave the inspiration "Look On The Sunny Side," following with a poem by Paul Harvey "God Made A Farmer."

Irene Klement presented a program on "Organization," giving household hints to lighten household tasks. Preceding the business meeting, members answered roll call by giving or suggesting ideas for better household organization.

Members contributed to a fund to benefit the Joe Walter Workshop for Handicapped Persons, who will be moving soon into the former Safeway Building.

Jaci Bilderback was named the club's nominee for delegate to the state convention in McAllen.

Following adjournment, the hostess, Mrs. Young, served a dessert course with strawberries over ice cream in meringue shells, with iced tea and cookies. Eighteen members attended.

The next meeting will be held in September at the home of Rose Rohmer, when members will complete yearbooks. The club is in recess during the three summer months.

KCs have bingo Sunday

Muenster Knights of Columbus will host Family Night and Bingo on Sunday, May 25, at 7 p.m. in the KC Hall. Everyone is welcome.

Julie Zimmerer is honored

Julie Zimmerer, daughter of Rudy and Claudia Zimmerer, was the honoree at a noon meal following her First Holy Communion in St. Peter's Church in Lindsay on Sunday, May 4, in which she gave the First Liturgical Reading and led the congregation in the Communion Antiphon.

Special guests at Mass and at the dinner in the home of her parents were her grandparents, Mrs. Mary Hundt and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Zimmerer; her godparents Carol and Roger Luttmir and Lizzie, Maggie and Sara; and Sister Dorothy Theresa Zimmerer.

Others attending were Julie's brothers Patrick and Andrew,

Sister Emily, Marilyn and Donnie Cox, Nancy Hundt, Chris Hundt and Shelly Zimmerer, Doris Harrison, Susie Zimmerer, David Stormer and Jason Zimmerer.

Following the meal, the group enjoyed viewing the videotape of the Mass and First Communion as recorded by Julie's father.

Lindsay fraternity meets in May

The Secular Franciscan fraternity of St. Peter's Parish held its monthly meeting on May 13 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stoffels in Gainesville.

Opening with the ritual prayer, Mrs. Tony Hermes, president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Veronica Klement gave scriptural readings from Corinthians I.

A card of thanks received from the family of Mrs. Ceal Mosser was read. Mrs. Hermes read a letter from Richard Morton, SFO provincial president, expressing disappointment that the "Family Gathering" planned for Cleveland, Ohio in July was cancelled because of low pre-registration totals.

A new Ritual was announced for the lay Franciscan fraternity. The pen pal network, on an individual basis, was discussed. The address may be found in the SFO Communicator.

Plans were begun by the fraternity for the annual garage sale, with place and time still to be decided.

The meeting closed with the ritual and St. Francis prayer. After adjournment, the hostess served cherry-cheese pie, mixed nuts and iced tea.

The scars of an abused child can stay with us all his life.

Abuse as a child is a common thread that runs through the lives of most men and women in prison today.

And statistics show that the violent crime in America is often committed by adults who were abused as children.

Not all abused children grow up to be criminals. If we can prevent child abuse, however, we can decrease America's crime rate.

And child abuse can be prevented.

The National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse is a private charitable organization that knows how to prevent child abuse.

But we need your help to do it. We need money. We need volunteers.

Take the first step toward preventing child abuse. Send us your check today. Or write for our booklet.

Because if we don't all start somewhere, we won't get anywhere.

Help us get to the heart of the problem.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Pecan growers in Cooke County as well as homeowners with backyard trees need to be on the lookout for casebearers.

Based on various prediction models as well as trappings and scouting reports, casebearers should be showing up on pecan trees in Cooke County on about May 24 to May 26. This should be your treatment time if you are not making insect counts.

The May 24 to 26 date is a good prediction. However, producers can look for the presence of eggs and hatch. You should inspect about 200 clusters for eggs. If you have at least one egg per 100 clusters, then you have economic infestation. Check the eggs you found and watch for hatching. The larvae will feed on the leaves and buds for 2 or 3 days before it enters the nut.

Normally, casebearers damage nuts within a two-week period - from the first week of May in southern and coastal areas to the first week of June in northern and western sections of the state.

To time spray applications for casebearer control, first check for eggs on a daily basis. Eggs are usually found on the tips of nutlets and are about the size of the ball in a ball-point pen. The eggs are white when first laid, then turn red over a 3 to 5-day period before turning white again after hatching.

Insecticides recommended for casebearer control include diazinon, sevin, malathion and zolone. Pydrin and Ammo have recently received pecan labels. You can also add a fungicide and zinc to your spray schedule.

Cattlemen pleased with court ruling for orderly marketings

FORT WORTH - Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, a Texas-based beef cattle organization, expressed pleasure and relief with a district judge's decision April 30 ordering the U.S. Department of Agriculture to ensure orderly marketing of dairy cattle in the Dairy Termination Program, according to its president, John E. Birdwell of Lubbock.

"I view it (the decision) as a positive step that will help the industry immediately," he said. Futures prices per hundredweight for cattle for delivery in May, June and July rose $1.50 Tuesday and Wednesday, he said. Futures prices can rise a maximum of $1.50 a day.

"I think (the rise in futures prices) was anticipating the favorable ruling by Judge Woodward," Birdwell said.

On Wednesday, U.S. District Judge Halbert O. Woodward ruled that USDA must implement by June 1 cattle marketing procedures that would minimize the impact of the dairy "whole-herd" buyout program on the red meat industry.

The decision, however, does not halt the program designed to cut milk production and reduce dairy surpluses over an 18-month period. On March 28, USDA announced that, beginning April 1, 14,000 dairymen nationwide would be allowed to slaughter 1.55 million dairy cows, heifers and calves at a cost of more than $1.8 billion to achieve that goal.

TSCRA, other state and national cattlemen's associations and individual cattlemen filed suit, claiming USDA caused a dramatic plunge in beef prices by marketing too many dairy cattle in the first five months of the program without announcing orderly marketing procedures as required by Congress.

Judge Woodward heard testimony on April 22 and April 28 from experts who said that it might take years for the beef cattle industry to recover from the dairy buyout program. Woodward ruled that USDA was, indeed, in violation of a Congressional mandate to outline orderly marketing procedures to minimize the impact on the red meat industry.

Dairy cattle marketings will continue in the current format under the herd buyout program until the June 1 deadline. The judge, however, did order USDA to allow for a "proportionate percentage limitation" of dairy marketings from April to September.

AG BRIEFS...

BUY TEXAS-GROWN PRODUCE - "TexFresh" produce - that's the marketing scheme that should get the attention of a lot of Texas consumers this spring as fresh fruits and vegetables hit the market. The new 1015Y Super Sweet onion, developed at Texas A&M University is an excellent choice for consumers along with a wide array of other Texas-grown products, including cantaloupes, honeydew melons, cucumbers, bell peppers, watermelons, squash, tomatoes, okra and blackeyed peas. Texas vegetables are unsurpassed in flavor and quality and are good buys, too, says a horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. For further savings, buy in large quantities for freezing or canning.

RUSSIAN WHEAT APHID SPREADS - The Russian wheat aphid, which made its first U.S. appearance across the Texas South Plains in March, has spread into four other states and can be expected to appear in other wheat producing states to the north, says an entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. The pest has been confirmed in 54 Texas counties, 18 counties of New Mexico, seven in Colorado, four in Kansas and two in Oklahoma. The aphids are dispersed primarily by winds, and winged adults can be borne hundreds of miles in a short time.

4-H ROUNDUP TIME AT HAND - More than 2,000 4-H members, adult leaders, friends of 4-H and county agents with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will gather at Texas A&M University June 9-11 for the annual Texas 4-H Roundup. The 4-H program is conducted by the Extension Service. 4-H'ers will compete in the State 4-H Food Show, State 4-H Project Show and in 40 different contests during the three-day period. More than 100 youth will receive scholarships totaling almost $700,000 through the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation. In addition, special awards will be presented to outstanding 4-H adult volunteer leaders and to individuals and organizations that have provided long-time support to the 4-H program in Texas.

HOME EC BRIEFS...

SELECTING BEEF FOR MICROWAVE COOKERY - Many people don't use their microwave ovens to cook beef roast because they think it will be tough or overcooked. According to Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist Dr. Alice Hunt, one key to tender microwaved beef is to select the right cut to cook. She suggests choosing beef with even marbling or fat cover for more even cooking, cuts that are even in shape and thickness and those without bone on just one side of the meat.

LACK OF COMMUNICATION ABOUT MONEY CAUSES FAMILY PROBLEMS - One of the major causes of family problems is failure to communicate about family finances. "Couples who didn't bother to discuss family finances when times were good find themselves at odds when the situation changes," says family economics specialist Nancy Granovsky. For example, a person may tolerate a free-spending spouse until one of them becomes unemployed. Then it's easy to blame the spouse for spending instead of saving and emotions can build until the problem affects their basic relationship, she says.

Farmers are warned not to burn wheat stubble

Burning stubble from an average wheat crop sends about $10 worth of nitrogen per acre up in smoke. All nitrogen in residue is lost by burning.

Using conservation tillage, however, you can plant into that stubble and use the nitrogen that is tied up in the residue said Ray Svacina, district conservationist for USDA's Soil Conservation Service at Gainesville.

"The use of wheat residue is especially important in the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District, where more than 150,000 acres of wheat are planted annually," Svacina continued.

Depending upon the kind of equipment used, conservation tillage leaves from 90 to 30 percent residue on the ground after planting.

"When residue decomposes on the soil surface, the nitrogen is made available for the next crop. In addition to the nitrogen, decomposing stubble adds organic matter to the soil, helps control erosion, reduces soil moisture loss and improves soil aeration, tilth and permeability. The stubble also helps provide a habitat for such wildlife as pheasants, rabbits and quail."

Svacina said to make the nitrogen in the residue available requires the activity of numerous soil organisms. They flourish in a soil rich in organic matter.

"One important organism is the earthworm," Svacina said. "Research has shown that earthworms increase when a dependable supply of crop residue is available."

"They digest the organic matter and pass nutrient-enriched soil through their bodies. This recycles nutrients and makes the soil richer. In addition, their tunnels allow air and water to penetrate soil more rapidly. Burning stubble destroys organic matter."

For more information on conservation tillage practices to use on your land, contact the local office of the USDA's Soil Conservation Service.
