Doreen Pels, Steve Taylor Exchange Wedding Vows

Before the main altar decorated with lighted candles and peach gladioli, Miss Doreen Pels and Steve Taylor exchanged wedding vows during a nuptial Mass in Sacred Heart Church Saturday at 5 p.m. Father Stephen Eckart officiated. Enhancing the setting were two arrangements of greenery marking the entrance to the sanctuary and matching green arrangements at the sides of the high altar. Two low arrangements of white carnations were placed on the altar before which the couple recited their vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Pels and Mrs. Charles Taylor and the late Lt. Col. Taylor.

The bride was presented at the altar by her father. For her wedding she chose a white bridal formal designed with a silk, cluny lace bodice and matching short oversleeves. The square neckline was lace-edged. Full triple sheer long sleeves were gathered to close fitting lace-edged cuffs. The full skirt of sheer organza over taffeta was edged with a deep ruffle of silk clung lace, rising in front over the instep and sweeping to a chapel length train. A satin ribbon marked the empire waistline, and Venice lace appliques, embroidered with pearls, accented the front of the dress, sheer sleeves and neckline.

Her bridal veil of illusion was edged with wide lace and was attached to a lace cap. She carried a bridal bouquet of white daisies, carnations and stephanotis. For something old and borrowed she wore her mother's pearl necklace and, traditionally, the blue garter.

Immediately following recitation of vows, the couple lit their memory candle.

Attendants of the bride were her sister, Janet Pels as maid of honor; the bride's cousin, Mrs. Allen Truebenbach and a friend, Cheryl Bayer of Denton as bridesmaids; her sister Rita Pels as junior bridesmaid and April Truebenbach as flower girl. They were identically gowned in peach polyester crepe princess dresses with natural colored lace capes. Each had a wreath of flowers in her hair and carried a wicker basket of mixed flowers in pastel spring tones.

Gary Endres, cousin of the bride, was best man and groomsmen were Roger Taylor, groom's brother and Dan-

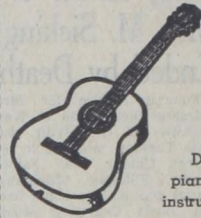

H. Lutkenhaus' Guests

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Lutkenhaus Thursday through Sunday were his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Don Acker and Frankie, Rowan and Vance of Nazareth, Texas. Another son, Clayton Acker was unable to accompany them. The Ackers and their hosts especially enjoyed all day Saturday spent at Lake Texoma fishing and boating. There they were guests of the Lutkenhaus' children, Mr. and Mrs. James Krahl and family and Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Lutkenhaus and family, all of Gainesville. Also with them were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wilde and Darin of Gainesville. The Ackers returned to Nazareth Sunday evening, well-supplied with fish for their freezer.

Father, reading son's report card: "He excels in initiative, group integration, and responsiveness. Now if he'd only learn to read and write."

Sonny: "Dad, Mom just backed the car out of the garage and ran over my bicycle." Dad: "Serves you right for leaving it on the front lawn."

ny Voth, a friend. Mass servers were Lonnie Henscheid, Hal and Kirk Mollenkopf, cousins of the bride. Ushering guests were Jerry Taylor of St. Louis, Mo., groom's brother and Kevin Pels, bride's cousin.

Pews for guests were marked with peach and white bows.

Wedding music, with organ and guitar accompaniment, was given by Gayle Miller, Linda Miller, Laura Kralicke, Lynda Klement and Mary Hess. Selections included "Evergreen", "Sunrise, Sunset", "Time In a Bottle", "Color My World", "Of My Hands", "Peace Be With You, My Friend", "Follow Me", "Wedding Song" and, at the Blessed Virgin's altar, "Peace, Joy and Happiness".

Reception

A reception and dinner followed in the Community Center. Mrs. Michael Fuhrmann and Mary Hess were at the guest book.

Serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Jerry Walterscheid, and three cousins of the bride, Colynda, Tammy, and Brenda Henscheid.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a full length blue chiffon dress; the groom's mother wore a yellow chiffon long dress. Each had a corsage of peach roses.

Decorations in the reception room included two arrangements on the bride's table featuring crystal, candles and carnations. A center globe held peach carnations, surrounded by several slim tapes and a ring of fern. The wedding cake of three tiers was iced in white, with tiny peach florets. Three ferns in floor containers stood at the base of the cake table. Guest tables each held an arrangement of spring flowers centered by a lighted candle with ivy runners. Suspended from the ceiling was a hanging basket filled with white flowers and cascades of greenery, accented with white doves.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to the Coast the bride was wearing a red and white pant suit. Upon their return, they will make their home in Muenster.

The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and is employed at Jr. Elite. The groom is also a graduate of Sacred Heart, attended CCC and is a student at North Texas State University majoring in business, and is employed at Fischer's.

Among pre-nuptial parties were the rehearsal dinner on May 27 in the home of the groom's mother and a miscellaneous shower on May 6 hosted by Beverly Fuhrmann, Cheryl Bayer, Janet Pels and Carla Truebenbach. Punch and cake were served to twenty guests.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Ramie Hesse of Denison, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cupit of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fuhrmann of Irving, Emma Fisher of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Appel of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Fuhrmann of Friona, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Muller and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Devers, all of Valley View, and a number from Gainesville, Lindsay and Muenster.

HAY PRODUCERS

Sicking Tractor Co. has received the new McKee Round Balers, a new concept in round bales. It forms bales with a soft center for better curing and a tight outside for better weathering. Regardless of the type of hay, bale starting problems are virtually eliminated even in such crops as milo stalks and peanut hay with less leaf loss.

Jack Reiter Is Wheelchair Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Reiter and Mindy of Lancaster were Saturday and Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. Hilda Reiter and were visited during the weekend by his brothers and sister and their families. On the return trip to Lancaster, they stopped in Myra to visit in the Paul Sicking home.

Jackie Reiter, who was in an automobile wreck the day before Mother's Day, spent most of his visit in a wheelchair. Both feet are in casts, one foot broken in 3 places, the other cracked in 2 places.

Making the Drag In a Wheelchair

Mrs. J. J. Haverkamp was dismissed Tuesday from Muenster Memorial Hospital and will recuperate at home while her broken left leg heals. She was hospitalized on May 8. Her trip home was novel, she said, even enjoyable. Her grandson, George Luke "just wheeled her down the hall, out to the sidewalk and down Maple Street, over West 3rd Street, up North Elm just a bit and then up the front porch steps" into her home where her daughter, Mrs. Tony Luke and Mr. Haverkamp awaited their arrival. She said "We did not stop traffic, but we did receive many friendly waves from passersby, who enjoyed seeing grandmother and grandson on a lark." A daughter, Mrs. Johnny Sturm is with her parents this week and another daughter, Mrs. Willard Zimmerer visited last week.

Myron Hess and his nephew, Craig Monday have returned from a vacation trip to Colorado. They were gone 9 days and camped out in the mountains northwest of Denver, saw elk and drove in hail, snow and rain. In Denver they visited their sister and aunt, Diane Hess. Myron has returned to summer school at Texas A and M University.

YOU CAN BANK ON IT!

One of the things misunderstood by many people is the reason for the change of currency standards a few years back. Next time you're holding a dollar bill take a look at the green seal and the legend across the top, "Federal Reserve Note". Both denote the responsibility of the Federal Reserve System for insuring the currency.

In the past, most currency carried the legend, "silver certificate", denoting that the currency was redeemable in silver equivalents at the U.S. Treasury in Washington, D.C. Heavy demands for currency made it obvious that such huge reserves of silver could not be kept on hand for such redemptions, so the change was made to Federal Reserve Notes.

Now the currency is backed 100 per cent by a variety of collateral consisting of government securities, gold certificates and other special assets (including silver).

Some folks hardly ever have any company and some seem to be kept real busy with it. Things were really "busy" at the Willie Orrell home recently. Guests in their home were W. L. "Buster" Orrell and daughter of Kirkland, Washington, Guy Gates of Torrance, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Christian of Rosston, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chambers of Runaway Bay, Mrs. Etta Smith of Sunset, Bill Cupp of Gainesville, Jeanette Montgomery of Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. George Morby, Mrs. Russell Nunnelly and son of Wichita Falls, Syretta Morby of Denton and her husband to be Randolph Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Orrell and sons of Dewey, and Cleo Lanier of the burg, also Joe Tinney of Waco and Charlie Tinney of Denton.

They headed for San Antonio the weekend of May 21 to visit Gladys' mother, two sisters and their families, then on to Jourdan to visit her father and by Tuesday they were back home in Dewey. Now that is "moving on" and one might suspect that Gladys is shaking her head and wondering if she was even there at all. The Barclays granddaughter Jennifer Barclay accompanied them on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dunford of Colorado Springs, Colorado visited with Mrs. Lula Sessums May 20 and 21.

Alice Shears and husband Homer spent a most relaxing and enjoyable weekend recently with her nephew Delvie Whiteside and family at their lakeside home on Lake Texoma. Alice says they spent their time boat riding, relaxing, fishing, and visiting.

The 8th grade Graduation Exercises were held at the school Thurs. nite May 26. Afterwards the youngsters were honored with a very lovely party in the Gerald Lanier home.
