Sam Bass Pioneer Day

A gunfighter team competition and a children's carnival will highlight a day full of activities for "pioneers" of all ages at the Seventh Annual Sam Bass Pioneer Day to be held in Rosston on Saturday, July 18. The event is sponsored by the Rosston Volunteer Fire Department.

A 10 a.m. parade, followed by horseback games and the carnival, are scheduled for morning fun. A barbecue plate lunch will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., but sandwiches and drinks are available throughout the day.

Live music and stagecoach and trolley rides, along with the gunfighter competition, various contests, and a children's drawing are set for the afternoon. Also, an auction will be held at 4 p.m.

Following a barbecue plate supper, there will be a square dance exhibition and a drawing. Also scheduled for the evening's entertainment is a dance from 8 p.m. to midnight featuring Doug Martin & The Rustlers.

Decision is near on new fire truck

The Muenster Volunteer Fire Department opened bids last week to companies for a new fire truck.

A new fire truck is needed because one of the trucks owned by the Muenster department is a 1959 model, and according to Fire Chief Herbie Knabe, "the state doesn't honor its serviceability after 30 years."

Knabe stated that the department had "sent out specifications, and seven companies replied."

"We're studying those bids this week," he said. "We hope to reach a decision by July 20 and award the bid."

He added that a new truck can take up to 365 days to build.

About half the money to finance the truck is "together now." Knabe also stated that the "city pays for a big part of it."

Good News!

"Speak boastfully no longer, nor let arrogance issue from your mouths.

For an all-knowing God is the Lord, a God who judges deeds." ISAMUEL 2:3

The Muenster Enterprise will be closed July 20-25 to give the entire staff one full week for vacation. Normal business hours will resume on Monday, July 27.

"Celebrate '87" July 18-19

Muenster's teenage population will greatly multiply this weekend as an expected 450 teenagers and adult leaders arrive for "Celebrate '87."

The event is a convention for youth of the Fort Worth Diocese, hosted this year by Sacred Heart Parish on July 18-19. Wayne Romo will serve as Master of Ceremonies.

Muenster youth attending the convention are asked to gather at 9:30 a.m. under the Sacred Heart pavilion. Activities begin later that morning with registration, followed by a sack lunch and many choices of workshops.

Special guests delivering workshops are Bishop Joseph Delaney with "Being a 'Catholic' Youth in Today's 'Christian' World;" Garry Mauro, Commissioner of General Land Office of the State of Texas, with "Christianity in the Marketplace;" and musician Tom Franzak with "My Personal Faith Life."

Saturday evening will conclude with a concert and dance, "new games" and an evening worship service.

A morning worship service, general sessions and a liturgy officiated by Bishop Delaney are slated for Sunday.

Applicants are reminded to bring sleeping bags, towels, toiletries, money for snacks (available throughout the weekend) and a sack lunch for Saturday. Also, dress is casual because much time will be spent outside. Comfortable shoes are recommended.

"I know it'll be a lot of fun. It always is," declared Linda Knabe, Muenster Coordinator. For more information, call her at 759-2592.

Computer camp to begin July 20

Several slots still remain open for youngsters wishing to participate in Cooke County College's special Summer '87 Computer Camp.

The camp, designed for 15- to 18-year-olds, is scheduled for Monday through Thursday, July 20-23.

All participants will stay for the duration of the computer camp in the CCC Residence Hall on campus, and the $190 fee covers room and board as well as all necessary materials.

Instructors for the camp will be Karen Trivitt, an experienced teacher and computer expert who heads up her own business consulting firm in Sanger, and Doug Lillard of CCC's computer science faculty.

Trivitt says the camp will center around non-credit classes in computer technology that have been specially tailored to teenagers. Care has been taken to accommodate beginners as well as those who may already have intermediate level computer backgrounds.

The daily schedule for classes is 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., with an hour break for lunch.

"We'll have entertainment each evening," Trivitt reports, "and on the final afternoon, we'll conclude with a special demonstration of state-of-the-art computer hardware and software."

Lillard stresses that although the students will be exposed to a large amount of material, the coursework has been structured to allow each one to work at his or her own pace.

A computer concepts evaluation will be conducted at the end of the program to determine the effectiveness of the instruction and to rank students according to their level of comprehension. This is for each student's information only and is not to be considered a "grade."

Trivitt explains that specific topics to be covered in the classes include basic computer concepts, keyboarding, computer operating systems, word processing and hard disk management, among others.

Ambulance meeting set for July 27

The fate of the county ambulance station currently located in Muenster will be discussed at a public meeting on Monday, July 27. The meeting will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Muenster, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

County Judge Jim Robertson and the four County Commissioners will be present and ready for discussion and sharing of ideas.

Residents who feel that maintaining a local ambulance service is of prime importance can lend support to that statement by attending the meeting and adding "strength by numbers."

City sales and use tax update

State Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks totaling $53.6 million in sales tax rebates to 1,039 cities that levy the one-percent city tax. July checks represent taxes collected on sales made in May and reported to him by June 20.

Of the $72,965.39 sent to Cooke County this period, $6,087.86 went to Muenster.

To date, payments to Muenster are down 4.09 percent, while Cooke County payments are 9.28 percent less. Lindsay, with payments down 11.75 percent, is the hardest hit city in the county.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
This is a letter of appreciation to the people of Muenster.
I'd like to express my deepest appreciation to all the generous people who supported the recent emergency blood drive in Muenster. First, to the donors who took time away from their jobs, crops and families to give the gift of life. "Thank you." Next, to the volunteers who gave their time and skills to make the operation run smoothly, "Thank you." Finally, to your volunteer Blood Services Chairman, Herman Carroll, who had the responsibility of "pulling it all together" (on very short notice), "Thank you."

Though you'll never know their names, people were able to live because you gave. From all of them to all of you, "Thank you."
Sincerely,
John King, Consultant

To the Editor:
The Texoma Area Agency on Aging has received a few phone calls which lead us to suspect that there may be a con-group working in this area known as the "Senior Citizens Association." This organization presents itself as a non-profit entity, offering assistance and information on probate and estate planning. However, it is a for-profit entity which basically offers a life insurance policy as their "estate planning" information. This organization has been "outlawed" to sell their products and services in several states. Staff from a previous organization known as the National Association of Retired Persons (a name which they assumed as it closely resembled a credible national organization, the American Association of Retired Persons) left when this company became defunct and began this new "Senior Citizens Association," from which to sell their life insurance policies.

Please urge the elderly citizens in your community to carefully question any telephone or door to door solicitation and to contact the Texoma Area Agency on Aging (214) 786-2955 or the American Association of Retired Persons (214) 369-9206 should they have any questions.

To the Editor:
The story goes that a young man walking along the beach at dawn, met an old man picking up starfish from the beach and flinging them into the sea. The youth asked what he was doing. The answer was that the stranded starfish would die if left until the morning sun.
"But the beach goes on for miles and there are millions of starfish," countered the young man. "How can your effort make any difference?"
The old man looked at the starfish in his hand and then threw it to safety in the waves. "It makes a difference to this one," he said.
Making a difference is what the work of the Humanitarians in this world is all about. Cases of animal cruelty are brought to court and tried one at a time but those who work with these lawbreakers keep seeing the same faces again and again. After all, animal cruelty is a misdemeanor in our state ... hardly a slap on the wrist of the individual who beat the puppy to death because it soiled the carpet!

During the past session of the Texas State Legislature, two bills extremely important to the welfare of animals passed the lawmakers and arrived at the governor's desk. H.B. 151 would make a third conviction of cruelty to animals a felony. H.B. 746 outlines minimum standards for riding stables.
Governor Clements vetoed both bills!!
Why would any civilized person be against any bill meant to end the suffering of even one animal much less countless voiceless creatures?
Only Governor Clements knows.
Sincerely,
Animal Advocates, Inc.

Club sees demonstration

The Muenster Kiwanis Club held its weekly meeting at The Center Restaurant on July 15, 1987 at 12 noon. During this meeting, the program chairman, Rev. Steve Pearson, discussed how God built man in three parts: body, mind and spirit. Also God tells us that when any one of these parts are hurting or out of balance, it affects the others.

Students from Choi's Tae Kwon Do Academy in Gainesville were invited to demonstrate the art of Tae Kwon Do, which includes body, mind and spirit training. Students present were Tricia Dilcher, Andy Ladd, Alton Ladd, D.K. Head, C.R. Armstrong, Helmuth Koelzer, Michael Flusche and Mark Flusche.
Additionally, the Kiwanis members were informed of a planned Korean Tae Kwon Do masters demonstration later this year to be held in Denton. This will include masters from across the U.S. and Korea.

All proceeds are to be donated to the Handicapped Childrens Foundation.
In September 1985, masters raised over $40,000 for this cause.

Kiwanis members are pleased with the results so far of their Friday Night Family Swim Night. These Kiwanis-sponsored free swim times will be extended through July. They encourage family participation, including the parents.
The McGruff crime prevention program will be active at both schools, grades K-6, this fall.

End of Session Retrospect

By Richard F. Williamson, State Representative and Gregory D. Watson, Administrative Assistant
AUSTIN - As discussed in the last installment, the Governor has elected to follow the road of lower taxes and a continuation of relying on our traditional resources of minerals, agriculture and unskilled labor. Tough times are nothing new for our state. The people of Texas are a hearty breed. They can and will weather the current economic storm just as they have done in other times of adversity. It is no secret that the State government has a negative cash-flow problem at this time. Although the Regular Session of the 70th Legislature ended on June 1, the Governor has pledged to keep lawmakers in Austin until such time as they adopt a spending plan for the 1988-89 biennium which is why we are now in the Second Called special session. Legislators must come up with some kind of budget by Aug. 31 as that is when the current biennium will end and if a new budget is not passed, signed by the Governor and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, the State government will literally close down.
This third installment will focus on the position of Lieutenant Governor Bill Hobby. The Lieutenant Governor has consistently taken the position that taxes should be increased so as to forestall cuts in any area of the budget - with particular sensitivity toward higher education.
Surprisingly, during the past decade, State spending increases from one fiscal year to the next have not increased above two percent annually. That is not necessarily the same as saying that taxes have been locked with State spending, because they haven't been and that is the key issue - a declining tax base and an increasing spending pattern. State spending patterns increases have ranged from 1.30 percent to 1.00 percent over the 11 fiscal years, 1976 to 1987. The highest annual difference was between fiscal year 1981 and fiscal year 1982. This was, of course, during the period when oil-generated revenue for the State had reached its peak. Back then the Legislature's main "problem" was how to oversee large surpluses.
So, when Lieutenant Governor Hobby advocates a tax increase to maintain current spending levels, his position may very well be a reasonable and defensible one - but only after institutional waste and inefficiency have been eliminated, including the difficult elimination of colleges that are clearly losing student population. Lieutenant Governor Hobby's plan parallels the Senate version of the General Appropriations Bill of the Regular Session of the 70th Legislature which called for $39.9 billion in spending with only minor reductions - and, in a few instances, increases - in specific agency spending plans.

The Lieutenant Governor is a statewide official elected at the same time as Governor Clements, all members of the House and roughly half of the members of the Senate, and there is no reason to assume that he is without claim to a mandate by the electorate. However, we must also bear in mind that the office of Lieutenant Governor is a purely ministerial post. All he is envisioned by the framers of the Texas Constitution as doing is to preside over, and maintain order and decorum in, the Senate and to act ceremonially as Governor if the Governor should be out of the state. He cannot introduce legislation; nor can he veto legislation. Is the Lieutenant Governor a proper officer to advocate a particular spending pattern of his own creation?
Governor Clements convened the Legislature in special session on June 22. The Governor's proclamation contains ten (10) topics for legislative consideration: (1) to consider legislation appropriating money for the support of the Judicial, Executive and Legislative Branches of the State Government, for the period beginning Sept. 1, 1987 and ending Aug. 31, 1989; (2) to consider legislation relating to state budget execution; (3) to consider a constitutional amendment prohibiting the imposition of a personal income tax; (4) to consider a constitutional amendment prohibiting the imposition of a corporate income tax; (5) to consider legislation relating to public notice of financial information of political subdivisions; (6) to consider legislation relating to the consolidation and reporting of State and Federal funds; (7) to consider legislation relating to the creation, powers and duties of a State Personnel Office; (8) to consider legislation relating to creation of a Select Committee on State Government Management Effectiveness; (9) to consider legislation relating to creation of a Select Committee on State and Local Retirement Systems; and (10) to consider legislation relating to creation of a Select Committee on Judicial Reform. Four (4) of these issues will be addressed by new laws that I will author and all ten (10) address the general topic of efficiency and accountability in State government.

The road that the Lieutenant Governor proposes will lead us to a $6 billion tax increase - that is a 29 percent increase in State taxes. Clearly, the Lieutenant Governor advocates spending more money now to take the road of a new economy focused on skilled labor, service delivery and technological growth. This road takes us down a path distinctly different from the path envisioned by the Governor. The next installment will deal with the position of the Speaker of the House Gib Lewis, and the various thought processes among the members of the House of Representatives.

Use of Hand Believed Restored After Mishap Severs All Ligaments
Dr. T. S. Myrick worked far into the night last Thursday in an effort to restore the usefulness of Bink Rainey's left hand following an accident near Hood. A deep gash across the back of his hand had severed all the ligaments.
The accident occurred when Rainey and a companion, both of Rosslett, lost control of the truck in which they were riding and turned over in a ditch beside the road. It is thought that Rainey either was struck by a piece of glass or got his hand into the broken windshield.
Dr. Myrick is confident that the hand, when healed, will be useful again.
Joe Fisher installed a fancy new French model telephone in the store early Thursday morning.

New life was restored to the No. 1 Address well last week by giving it a shot of nitroglycerine. On the pump steadily since the field was first opened, its production had dwindled to a non-paying basis. Its production now is about 25 barrels a day.

Clyde Fisher Ends Jump With Nail Through Foot
Young Clyde Fisher, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher, is reported to be recovering splendidly from the wound inflicted when he pierced his foot with a nail last Sunday.
Clyde and several companions were playing at the oil well near Frank Beyer's home when he jumped on a board with the large protruding nail. He was taken to the Muenster Clinic for treatment and an antitetanus serum. Clyde is said to favor the sore foot considerably but he does not permit it to deprive him of any of his play time.
More than 100 couples were at the K. of C. hall Monday night to join in the fun at Frank Schmitz's wedding dance. Jerry Garner and his band of Gainesville provided rhythm for the event.

A party honoring Jessica Pagel, daughter of Curtis and Janet Pagel, was held at their home on Sunday evening, July 12. The gathering celebrated her second birthday, which was three days later.

Balloons and streamers added to the circus theme of the party. Pictures and movies were made, and Jessica opened her gifts. Also, guests played games and ate birthday cake made by grandmother Charlotte Dangelmayr, and homemade ice cream.

Jessica cut her cake using a special knife, a gift on her first birthday from grandparents Bill and Charlotte Dangelmayr.

Helping Jessica celebrate her birthday were her parents; her sisters Amy and Michelle; grandparents Bill and Charlotte Dangelmayr; grandmother Harriet Scoggins and Harry Scoggins; great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Otto and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schilling; uncles Tom and Shawn Dangelmayr; Darla Bindel; and Craig, Donna and Ashley Walterscheid.

Dollie Kingery will be honored on birthday

News of the birthday party honoring Dollie Kingery has been happily received in the Muenster and Saint Jo areas.

Her daughter, Elaine (Kingery) Price, and her niece, Delia Nell (Burchfiel) Walker are making arrangements for Sunday, July 19, at Katy Lake between 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. at the deck of the Kingery cabin.

Friends recall that Roy and Dollie Kingery lived in Saint Jo from the middle '30s until they moved to Gainesville in the late '50s, for Roy's health problem. They had both been very active in Saint Jo and were also well known in Muenster.

Dollie was Camp Fire sponsor for years; many girls remember their good times under her leadership. Roy and Arthur Kingery gave the land to Camp Fire that became known as Camp Letoli. For all her efforts, Dollie was honored with a rare Camp Fire Award.

Secular Franciscans hold Sunday meeting

Secular Franciscans of Sacred Heart Parish met Sunday afternoon, July 12, in church for their monthly prayer service and followed with a brief business session.

Marie Henscheid, prefect, led the divine office in which nine members participated. She also read the inspiration "The Blessing of St. Francis."

Betty Yosten gave the treasurer's report which included the monthly contributions to the fraternity's two families in India. Ida Mae Herr reviewed minutes of the previous meeting. Following that, Mrs. Henscheid read from The Communicator, which is the monthly newsletter from provincial headquarters in Illinois. Included were questions and answers relating to the life of St. Francis of Assisi and duties of tertiaries in regards to alms giving and attendance at meetings. Members join-

Dollie Kingery has continued her humanitarian work. Few people know about the students she has helped stay in school, and others who have received needed medical help. Her contributions have been generous to many organizations and fundraising drives.

The community has never had the opportunity to properly express its appreciation to her, and, as she always said, it was because of her husband Roy's work and foresight that gave her the funds she shares.

Dollie Kingery especially enjoyed helping with plays and musicals that Saint Jo used to give. She sewed and later preserved many of the costumes. She still owns some and recently provided decorations and costumes for a friend's Hawaiian party.

The hostesses for her party urge friends to send cards and notes of memories, and even an old photo, too, to add to a scrapbook for her to treasure.

Two sisters visit here

The meeting closed with unison recitation of the St. Francis Peace Prayer.

Bobbie Plumlee of Wichita Falls spent a recent 10-day vacation here with her sister, Gladys Lutkenhaus. She accompanied Mrs. Lutkenhaus and nephew, Lambert Walterscheid, to Muenster. Mrs. James Krahl and daughter, Shelly, of Gainesville and Mrs. Lutkenhaus took her home on Monday of last week. Mrs. Plumlee will return later in July for another visit. Mrs. Krahl is Gladys' daughter and Lambert is a son of their late sister, Mrs. Marie Walterscheid.

Muenster couple exchange vows

The wedding of Lou Ann Dyer and Ted Heers, Jr. was held in First Baptist Church of Muenster on Saturday, July 11, at 2 p.m. with the groom's father officiating for the sacred double ring ceremony and exchange of vows.

The bride is the daughter of Edgar and Carol Dyer of Muenster. The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Theodore A. Heers, Sr. of Marshall where he is pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Before an altar enhanced with two tall brass spiral candelabra holding lighted tapers, entwined with grape ivy, and white wicker baskets of pink and white gladioli in pedestal arrangements, the bride was presented by her father.

For her wedding, she chose a designer gown of shimmering white satin. It featured an exquisite sweetheart neckline bordered with lace and pearls. Lace and elaborate beadwork detailed the bodice down to the fitted basque waistline. Sleeves were puffed matching satin to the elbow, with a sheer window of applied lace; and sheer-fitted to the wrist.

The skirt flowed gracefully into an elegant cathedral-length train. Lace appliques matching the sleeves adorned the train which was bordered with delicate Alencon lace.

The finger-tip length, two-tiered illusion veil, sprinkled with pearls, drifted from a silk and satin headpiece accented with pearls and sequins.

To complete her attire, the bride carried a pearlized bouquet accented with rosebuds, gardenias and forget-me-nots in shades of pink.

ATTENDANTS

Tracey Klement of Dallas, a friend of the bride, was her maid of honor. Lt. Jane Treadaway, U.S.N., of Monterey, Calif., cousin of the bride; Margaret Heers of Houston, sister of the groom; Ellen Broom of Gainesville and Amelia Cadena of College Station, friends of the bride, were bridesmaids.

They wore tea-length pastel, water-colored gowns, simply styled with a slightly lowered basque waist, short ruffled sleeves and a deep V back. Each carried a nosegay of pink silk rosebuds, gardenias and forget-me-nots. Raegan Koessler, daughter of Rudy and Martha Koessler of Muenster, was flower girl, wearing a tea-length dress of pink lace and taffeta with pink satin sash and accessories.

Christopher Souquette, son of Felipe and Yolanda Souquette of Bryan, was ring bearer.

Stephen Heers of Tomball was his brother's best man.

Lenzy Dyer of Nocona, brother of the bride, Joe Cavender of Bullard, Texas, Wes Carver of Bryan and Tim Spearman of Pittsburg, Texas, all friends of the groom, were groomsmen.

Jona Fuller of Pittsburg, a lifelong friend, and Joe Pagel, Ryan Klement and Damie Hellman, all of Muenster, were ushers; the latter three were former seniors, with Drue Bynum, on the Hornet basketball team. Bynum, enrolled at West Point, was unable to attend. Joe Pagel and Damie Hellman also served as candlelighters.

Prelude wedding music was presented by organist Mrs. Ann Green of Palmer, a family friend and former MPS teacher; including "Ave Maria," "Joy" and

"O, Perfect Love." Rev. Andy Cherry, pastor of First Baptist Church of Van, Texas and formerly Minister of Youth and Music at First Baptist of Muenster, was vocal soloist. Selections included "How Great Thou Art," "You Are So Beautiful" and "I'll Still Be Loving You."

Guests joined in recitation of The Lord's Prayer preceding the wedding blessing.

RECEPTION

The bride's parents hosted a reception immediately following in the fellowship hall.

Meredith McDaniel and Tracey Walterscheid secured guest signatures in the bride's book.

The bride's table was covered with a floor-length white lace tablecloth and was trimmed with pink flowers and bows. It held the wedding cake and the punch service. The three-tiered white bride's cake was trimmed with pink roses and lattice hearts and held a Precious Moment bridal couple figurine on the top keepsake layer. The chocolate groom's cake was decorated like a basketball court.

Betty Rose Walterscheid served the bride's cake and Juanita Walterscheid served the groom's cake. Reception assistants were Staci Walterscheid, Lisa Robison, Carrie Russell and Stephanie Bynum, all of Muenster.

The reception room was further decorated with white wicker baskets of pink and white gladioli on either side of the bride's and groom's tables.

Satin pink rosebuds filled with birdseed were arranged in several baskets atop the piano, and were distributed by Carrie Gibbs, cousin of the bride, and Courtney, Tiffany and Natalie Enderby, friends, at the close of the reception at the Fellowship Hall.

Special guests were the bride's grandmother, Martha Rigby, of Windom, Texas, and aunts and uncles of the bride from Mountain View, Calif., Dallas, Krum, Dimmitt, Amarillo, Bonham, Friona, Colleyville, Abilene, Oklahoma City and Tempe, Arizona.

Also the groom's sister, Katherine Garrett, and family of Austin; Stephen Heers, groom's brother of Tomball; Margaret Heers, groom's sister of Houston; and aunts and uncles from Midland and Iowa Park.

Before departing to Las Vegas and the West Coast on their wedding trip, the bride and groom celebrated with family and friends in the backyard of their home. When they return they will be at home in Muenster.

The bride is a 1980 honor graduate of Muenster High School; a 1982 honor graduate of Cooke County College; and a Summa Cum Laude graduate in 1983 of Stephen F. Austin State University with a bachelor of science degree. She received her Master of Education degree from Stephen F. Austin in 1986. She previously taught at Ben Milam Elementary of Bryan ISD and will be employed at Muenster Public School this year.

The groom is a 1977 graduate of Pittsburg High School; attended the University of Texas in Austin and in 1983 received his bachelor of science degree from Texas A&M University where he has also done graduate work. He is a teacher and coach at Muenster Public High School.

Choose Carefully When You Shop For Your Next Refrigerator/Freezer

If you're in the market for a refrigerator/freezer, make sure it fits your family's needs, your cooking habits and has the necessary conveniences.

- FOOD TYPES. If you prefer frozen foods rather than canned foods, make sure your new unit has ample space. If you prefer fresh food, buy a model with adequate fresh food storage.
- SHOPPING. If you shop once a week, you'll need a larger model than if you shopped less often.
- NO-FROST. Self-defrosting models are a big convenience to the busy housewife.

MRS. JEFFREY WAYNE DONNELLY
... nee Charlene May Schmidkofer ...

Couple wed June 14

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Wayne Donnelly are at home in Pilot Point since returning from their wedding trip. They were married in St. Peter's Catholic Church in Lindsay on June 14 at 3 p.m. with Father Cletus Post officiating.

The bride is the former Charlene May Schmidkofer, daughter of Herbert and Rachel Schmidkofer of Rt. 2, Gainesville. The groom is the son of Wendell and Dollie Donnelly of Rt. 1, Pilot Point.

The bride is a 1984 graduate of Lindsay High School and attended Cooke County College and is employed at Weber Aircraft in Gainesville. The groom is a 1982 graduate of Callisburg High School and is employed at Peterbilt in Denton.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal organza wedding gown designed with wedding ring collar, bodice of illusion and Chantilly lace accented with pearls and sequins. Long illusion sleeves were applied with Chantilly lace, coming to a point over her wrists. The fitted waist dropped into a flowing skirt of organza, which featured three tiers of ruffles, sweeping into a semi-cathedral train with lace appliques and a ruffled edge. Her illusion veil was sprinkled with pearls and sequins.

She carried a bridal arrangement of gladioli, lilies, baby's breath and greenery, entwined with a crystal rosary from her mother. Flowers and bouquet were made by Martha Camp of Sherman.

ATTENDANTS

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Darlene Williams of Lindsay. Missy Hacker of Lindsay, niece of the bride was flower girl and ring bearer.

The matron of honor and flower girl wore identical teal-length rose dresses, made by the bride's mother and sister, designed with sweetheart neckline, accented with lace. The blouson bodice fell gently from extended shoulders and was gathered into a dropped waistband accented at the side with a bow, and overlaying a gathered skirt.

The matron of honor carried a lace fan accented with burgundy and grey flowers and satin ribbon.

Kinzy Donnelly of Pilot Point, brother of the groom, was best man. Weldon Schmidkofer of Lindsay, brother of the bride, and Kinzy Donnelly, brother of the groom, ushered guests to their seats in church.

The church altar was decorated with lighted candles and large arrangements of flowers in the bride's chosen colors of burgundy and grey. White silk bows marked family pews in the middle aisle.

Pat Hennigan, Jr. was organist, offering traditional wedding music and LeAnn Roberts was vocalist. Included were "The Wedding Song," "We've Only Just Begun," during lighting of the Unity Candle; "Ice Castles" and "You Are The Wind Beneath My Wings."

Participating in the wedding liturgy were Kerrie Alexander, sister of the groom, and Doris Henscheid, friend of the bride, who gave the Readings.

RECEPTION

The bridal party was chauffeured from the church to the reception and dinner at K-Bob's banquet room in a limousine.

The wedding cake was made by Mickey Spaeth of Gainesville and served by Kathy Hacker, sister of the bride.

Assisting in decorating the banquet room for the reception were Doyle and Carla Klement of Muenster and Chuck and Brenda Noggler, friends of the bride and groom. Twirled streamers were hung from corners of the room, meeting in the center, where large white wedding bells were clustered with streamers. White ceramic doves and lighted candles decorated tables where guests were seated for dinner.

MR. and MRS. JAMES FLEITMAN are shown at the front door of the home they are restoring on Elm Street. They have retained the original perforated design cut into the porch gable by the builder in 1916. The design is enhanced at night by interior porch lighting. At right is a detail of a marigold holding attraction for a butterfly, in their garden.

Yard of the Month Award

A home built in 1916 by the late Ben and Mary Luke shortly after their wedding, and now owned by James and Nita Fleitman and family, has been completely refurbished outside, while remodeling and redecorating go on inside.

The house, with its row of stately pecan trees, of the same age, bordering the east lawn, is becoming one of the outstanding restoration projects in the community.

New concrete sidewalks now surround the house. These are outlined with landscape timbers which also line the new gravel driveway on the north.

Beds in front include white geraniums and pink dianthus. Mums are planted in front of nandinas in sunny areas on the north side and nandina outline the south side of the house. A large, beautifully tended vegetable garden is between the driveway and the property-line fence. Okra, sweet corn, tomatoes and squash share space with petunias, pinks, marigolds, begonias, zinnias and impatiens. A spacious lawn to the south has althea and crape myrtle in bloom.

The yard in front has various large trees, including mimosa and the pecan trees actually planted before the house was built. These have been dependable in producing good pecan crops regularly.

James and Nita Fleitman and their four children moved to the home just over a year ago and are making great strides in the restoration of the house and yard.

The Muenster Garden Club has honored their efforts by naming them as winners of the first Yard of the Month Award in 1987. The home is located at 405 North Elm.

Lisa Morris marries John Mitchell

Former residents John and Gayle Morris of Oklahoma City have announced the marriage of their daughter, Lisa Gaye, to John Wesley Mitchell, son of Leslie and Kathryn Mitchell of Midwest City, Okla.

The wedding was held in Our Lord's Community Church in Okla. City on Saturday, July 11, at 7 p.m. officiated by Rev. Dale Assink. Wedding music was provided by organist Eleanor Whitsett and vocalist JoAnn Elliott of Norman, Okla.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin and lace wedding gown with cathedral length train, trimmed with pearls and sequins. Her shimmering illusion veil was attached to a lace headband, all designed and made by the bride.

She carried three long-stem pink roses, one to keep, one to give to her mother upon entering and one to give to the groom's mother following the ceremony.

Lana Renee Morris, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Laura Kaye Morris and Doris Danae Morris, both bride's sisters, and Cindi M. Intfen, a friend, and all of Oklahoma City, were bridesmaids. They were identically dressed in tea-length raspberry moire taffeta gowns, with dyed-to-match slippers. Dresses were designed with V-neck front and back, short puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and modified skirt. Each carried one white long stem rose and wore earrings of handmade ceramic flowers, made by the bride's mother.

Amanda Morris of Fort Worth, bride's cousin, was flower girl. Dustin Morris of Oklahoma City, bride's cousin, was ring bearer.

Rick Strong, a friend of the groom, as best man, Stan Mitchell, groom's brother, John R. Morris, bride's brother, and Van Wright, a friend, were groomsmen. All are of Oklahoma City.

Bub McElreath, a cousin of the bride, assisted as usher. A reception followed at Rain Dance Apartments Club House, where Phillis Morris was in charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests included the bride's grandparents, Lyle and Thelma Berg of Oregon; the groom's grandparents, John and Tiny Mitchell of Kingston, Okla.; relatives and friends from California, Montana, Oregon, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas including Polly and Walter Haverkamp of Whitesboro.

When the couple returns from a wedding trip to Ixtapa, Mexico, they will be at home in Oklahoma City.

Majorettes do well at NTSU Camp July 8-11

While attending the Marching Auxiliaries Camp at NTSU July 8-11, Staci Sicking and Marcia Vogel twirled their way onto a U.S. team of majorettes that will perform at Expo '88 in Australia next year. The girls are the elected majorettes at Muenster High School for the 1987-88 school year.

A veteran twirler, Staci has been performing with the baton since the age of three. As an MHS Junior, she has been a majorette for the Hornet Band for the past two years. She is the daughter of Paul and Bernice Sicking.

Marcia, who has twirled since she was nine, is a Freshman at MHS and is entering her second year as a majorette for the school. Larry and Kathy Vogel are her parents.

The duo brought home a superior trophy for the Grand Champion evaluations. Also, they won several superior ribbons, an excellent rating on their home routine, and they received a Most Improved Team ribbon.

Individually, Staci made the camp's honor roll and was honored by being selected an All-Star on Thursday evening.

In order to qualify for Expo '88, the girls were required to learn an additional routine after hours. They were two of about 85 panel of judges for several spots on the U.S. team. Staci was the first contestant to be chosen by the judges, and Marci later followed as the ninth choice.

They will travel with the rest of the team of majorettes from around the United States to Brisbane, Australia, on April 22-May 1, 1988. There, the team will make several appearances, including parades, and they will be staying with Australian families.

Between now and this spring, the girls will be having money raisers to enable them to represent the United States in Expo '88.

Godparents were an aunt and uncle, Susie and Andy Bezner of Lindsay.

The baby wore baptismal robes treasured by his family. The slip had been worn by Terry's father and was handmade by paternal grandmother Barbara Felderhoff. Terry's baptismal gown was worn by his mother and handmade by maternal grandmother Polly Reiter.

Terry's baptismal keepsakes included a blue Miraculous Medal pin from paternal grandparents, the Thomas Felderhoffs; a baptismal cap made from a lace handkerchief by Polly Reiter, a gift from the maternal grandparents, the Wilfred Reiters; and a baptismal plaque and a video taken during the christening ceremony, both gifts from the godparents.

Following the baptism, all guests were invited to Terry's home for supper. Attending were Terry's parents and his sisters Lydia, Kelly and Rachel; grandparents Thomas and Barbara Felderhoff of Muenster; Andy and Susie Bezner and Jessica of Lindsay; Susan Reiter and Daniel of Houston; Paul and LuAnn Kubis of Houston; and Charlie and Peggy DiStefano and Julie and Michael of Missouri City.

Later that evening, Lydia and Kelly Felderhoff traveled to Houston as week-long guests of aunts and uncles in the Houston area. Terry and Rachel Felderhoff accompanied their parents, Felderhoff grandparents and the Bezners to a Fourth of July fireworks show.

The guests were seated at small tables and enjoyed visiting and getting acquainted with out-of-town family members and wedding guests. Co-hostesses for the party in their home were Martha and Raegan Koesler.

Red River Valley Arts Fest

SHERMAN - The Red River Valley Arts Fest 1987 has announced the date of its fifth annual festival. Co-sponsored by the Sherman Council for the Arts and Humanities and the Sherman Area Chamber of Commerce, the all-day event is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 19, on the grounds of the Municipal Building at Pecan and Rusk Streets.

This year's steering committee is headed by Milly Haring, with Awilda Baker as co-chairperson. Bill Wheeler is in charge of entertainment and the Sherman Service League will be in charge of Children's Activities under the direction of Joyce McGowen and Cathy Bartlett.

"Applications for booths where handcrafted items will be sold have been coming in from all across Texas, and we always get some as far away as Arkansas. Many of these artists have participated in most of the Arts Fests. They always do well and have so much fun that they return," Mrs. Haring said.

The Arts Fest is open to individuals, groups or clubs for the sale of original handcrafted items. These include sculptures, paintings, wood, graphics, fiber, pottery, glass works, batiks, country items and miscellaneous works.

There will be continuous entertainment on the Oliver Dewey Mayor Outdoor Stage, an area of coordinated children's events, the Sherman Art League's annual judged show and many more planned events.

"And lots of interesting food booths," the chairperson said. "We are having a good response from persons or organizations wanting to sell food items."

"The Arts Fest has grown and improved each year," she said. "We plan to include the northside of the Municipal grounds this year for the children's activities because we are hearing from so many people who want to participate. Last year our attendance was more than 5,000. This is always a day that all ages can enjoy."

For further information, call Mrs. Haring at 893-2814 or 892-3113.

Song topics nurture within the child as well as the adult an awareness of, and respect for, all Earth's creatures, including one's own self-worth. Altogether, her songs, pictures, love and respect combine to enchant her audiences.

MRS. BARRY CHRISTIAN
...nee Toni Michelle Johnson...

Grandson of C.H. Christians weds

Toni Michelle Johnson and Barry Christian were married in First Baptist Church of Stephenville on June 20 in a candlelight ceremony performed by Brother Ralph Starling.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Christian and grandson of C.H. and Ruth Christian of Rosston.

White hurricane lamps tied with ivory and Williamsburg blue satin bows lined the walkway to the church. The altar of the church was illuminated by eight brass candelabra holding lighted white tapers. Two 15-candle fans and four 7-candle pyramids were entwined with greenery and draped with ivory tulle. Two double ring candelabras were placed at the foot of the altar area. Banners of the church were swagged with ivory tulle and caught with ivory satin bustle bows.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a gown of ivory matte taffeta, re-embroidered Alencon and Venise lace accented with seed pearls and iridescents. The princess line bodice featured beaded lace medallions and taffeta cording and a Sabrina neckline and yoke and tiny satin covered bridal buttons in back. Renaissance sleeves were of Alencon lace.

Her softly gathered skirt fell from a basque waistline, caught in back with a soft, candy-box bow centered with a self-cabbage rose. Soft pleated folds fell into the cathedral train.

Her three-tiered veil was attached to a half halo. She carried a bridal bouquet of ivory gardenias, and lillies of the valley and stephanotis with accents of mauve and blue rosebuds, with strings of pearls and iridescents entwined. Streamers of ivory picot and wedding lace were tied in love knots.

ribbons and ribbon roses.

The groom's table was covered with an ivory cutwork tablecloth made by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. C.H. Christian of Rosston.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Jose's Restaurant on June 19 for the family and wedding party.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Stephenville High School and are attending Tarleton State University. They are at home in Stephenville since returning from a wedding trip to the Bahamas.

Clergy and students from India visit here

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hermes, Father Cletus Post, Vera Conrady and other members of the Secular Franciscans of the Lindsay fraternity were favored with an unexpected surprise on the evening of July 8.

A phone call to Father Cletus told him Msgr. Varghese Puthen-Purackal of Kerala, India was enroute from Houston to Lindsay. He planned a visit with parishioners who are sponsoring seminarians or Lay Franciscan families. He was to bring expressions of gratitude from Bishop Peter and associates for the prayers and financial support provided by Lindsay Secular Franciscans.

Msgr. Varghese and two young men, Joseph and Chris, arrived about 11 a.m. the next day and were dinner guests at the rectory. They next visited in the home of Tony and Theresa Hermes, joined by Jean Haverkamp and Ollie Kuhn; and Ralph Hermes and children Jennifer and Jason; and Rosemary Dankesreiter and daughters Dana and Amy.

After serving refreshments, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hermes accompanied Msgr. Varghese, Joseph and Chris for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Badgett and sons Raymond and Andy.

They all attended the 7 p.m. Mass in St. Peter's Church, celebrated by Msgr. Varghese. Father Cletus welcomed him to Lindsay with the words, "Holy Mass is celebrated the same all over the world."

After Mass, parishioners visited with him in front of church, in the beautiful twilight. The guests then left for Irving to visit other benefactors and friends.

ATTENDANTS

There were six bridal attendants, all from Stephenville, and all wearing tea-length Williamsburg blue taffeta dresses, edged in ivory petticoat lace. Each wore an ivory lace collar, a gift from the bride. They carried heart shaped grapevine wreaths covered with baby's breath. Miniature roses, carnations, freesia and gardenias, and mauve, blue and ivory picot ribbons adorned the wreath.

RECEPTION

A reception followed in the Legends Country Club. Serving tables were draped in ivory moire taffeta with lace overlays. The four-tiered heart shaped wedding cake was draped with string pearls, picot and satin

Big tiger shark establishes new state record in Galveston

A 1,121 1/4-pound tiger shark caught off Galveston on June 5 has been certified by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department as a new state record.

Larry Simmons Jr. of Katy was fishing at the Heald Bank about 27 miles out of port when he hooked the shark. Simmons said it took two hours to boat the fish with 80-pound-test line and 12/0 reel.

The shark was just over 12 feet long and was 88 inches in girth.

The former state record tiger shark, caught of Port Aransas in 1983, weighed 1,010 pounds.

Beef cattle short course Aug. 10-12

"Beef: Gearing up for the 90's - Meeting the Window of Acceptability" will be the theme for the 1987 Beef Cattle Short Course to be held Aug. 10-12 at Texas A&M University.

The short course is being planned by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, two agencies of The Texas A&M University System, in cooperation with livestock breed associations and other industry groups.

On Monday, Aug. 10, a review of U.S. beef breeds will be conducted in the Pearce Pavilion. Time also will be made available throughout that day for breed association activities and meetings, and various breed associations will set up exhibits in the Pearce Pavilion. At 1 p.m. that day, short course participants will have an opportunity to evaluate five head of live cattle, including four steers and one heifer, which will be placed and then discussed by a panel of experts. Breed reviews also will continue that afternoon. A reception will follow at 8 p.m. in the College Station Hilton.

Morning discussions on Aug. 11 in the Rudder Theatre will include a forum on beef, nutrition and health, and will focus on the concern of where beef fits into the American diet. Experts from the health and medical profession and from consumer activist groups will address these issues. The program that afternoon will center around the issue of meeting consumer demand and how the industry can advance to that point. A banquet that evening will feature several key beef leaders.

Major thrust of the Aug. 12 meeting in A&M's Kleberg Center will be producing cattle that fit consumer demand. More information is available by writing Dr. Dan Hale, Extension Meats Specialist, 114 Kleberg Center, College Station TX 77843, or by calling him at 409/845-2052. Brochures are also available at the County Extension office.

STORM STORIES continue to be told by victims of weather's vagaries during the high winds that struck the Muenster area on Thursday, July 2. Although no personal injuries were endured, or at least reported, property damage was extensive, and repairs will go on for a long time. Demonstrating the force of the wind is this photo, at right, of a heavy five gallon bucket driven into a woven wire fence. The rim on the underside of the bucket is impaled in three places. The bucket remains in this position. At the Rudy Koesler home, a portable shed was lifted intact, passed between a 4-foot fence and the telephone and power lines above, without touching either, blown away about 1/8 mile, then dropped, smashing itself and a 5-ft. fence. Other evidences of the storm's fury at the Bill Bayer home are shown by the damage to this round barn, above, moved 40 foot off its foundation, and then given a sharp quarter turn. A grain trailer loaded with 150 bushels of oats was blown out of the barn and fell between the wrecked barn and the original foundation. A windrower rolled to the east until stopped by a fence. Deceptively, the wind blew from the west, then turned suddenly and blew from the east.

Reagan puts farm subsidies on trade table

Texas farmers and ranchers have a large stake in the Reagan administration proposal made at the General Agreement on Trade and Tariff (GATT) Talks to eliminate world farm subsidies, according to S.M. True, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

The Plainview cotton and grain farmer said the United States has finally put some "muscle" behind its efforts after being "bullied" for several years by other nations that subsidize farm exports.

"We are willing to negotiate now that we are beginning to be on equal terms," True explained. "But, in the meantime, and until we all play by the same rules, Texas Farm Bureau is going to push hard to help maintain producer income."

The United States made a determined effort in the 1980s to help American farmers compete in the world trade of agricultural commodities, True said. Federal farm spending was increased from $3 billion to about $30 billion. U.S. farm production was cut, he added, while other nations increased theirs.

"The 1985 Farm Bill also protected U.S. farmer income and at the same time made U.S. farm products more competitive in world trade," he said. "This has other nations very concerned."

"Now is the right time to see if they are concerned enough to eliminate trade barriers and growing government subsidies," he added.

Techniques such as marketing loan and export enhancement programs will allow this nation to beat the European Economic Community (EEC) and other exporting nations, True said. The U.S. will not, however, eliminate its subsidies unilaterally, he said.

"Farm Bureau does not support such an effort and will not allow it to happen," True said.

U.S. producers can and will compete if an across-the-board agreement by all producing nations can be agreed upon, he said.

"U.S. producers have the edge in productive capacity - the land, the climate, the technology, the know-how and the work ethic," True said. "Meanwhile, other nations had better look hard at our new farm and trade policies because we are not going to continue being patsies for the rest of the world."
