Roofers bid farewell

"Everything went real smooth. We were blessed with great weather and no injuries." Leon Shabott, master slater with All Tile & Slate Co., is very pleased with the finished re-roofing and waterproofing job on Sacred Heart Church. The tile roof will last for decades and although there has been some limestone deterioration, it's stopped now. "It's good that we got to it when we did," Shabott said. Manufacturer's specifications say the waterproofing will last 10 years. The water staining inside the church was due in large part to the failure of built-in gutters. They are sealed now, too. The flashing against the limestone has been redone to keep water from getting under the tiles which was a serious construction flaw.

Shabott says they really enjoyed their work here in Muenster, and hope to return in the future to do some repair on the elementary school building. "The church is now essentially watertight," he said in closing.

The crew finished and left town Wednesday.

City adds to project delay

Mammoth clean-up and beautification efforts two years ago won for Muenster the distinction of being among the cleanest towns in Texas. A year ago that award also brought a $20,000.00 grant of state funds to Muenster for beautification projects along state highway right-of-way. Spending that money hasn't been that easy and we may be recognized by some as the slowest little town in Texas. Designating a suitable project and gathering data has been painfully slow as the one-man project of Gary Fisher. He reported to the City Council Monday night that public opinion had chosen the lantern-type lights and most respondents were willing to cooperate in placing the decorative light posts along Highway 82 and Main Street (Hwy. 373). He said that he felt the project had to be cooperative effort between property owners and the city. He asked the city to assume maintenance responsibilities for the lights and hoped that this cooperation would encourage property owners to provide installation and power. Suggested maintenance includes bulbs, ballasts, painting when needed and replacement of damaged fixtures. Fisher submitted a long, detailed list of information, procedures and specifications to councilmen before the meeting for their study.

After long discussion, the council chose to delay their decision at least until next month. They are unwilling at this time to commit the city to long-term maintenance of the cosmetic lights. Fisher argued that the people want the lights, they would enhance the attractiveness, and income, of Muenster and he was apprehensive about the disposition of the award money if it remained unspent for a long time. He is not willing to approach property owners until the city declares their position. As it stands, no decisions yet, no lights yet.

The council was also greeted by Lone Star Gas Company representative Don Abney of Muenster and Charles Hankins of Gainesville who came to request an 8-percent increase in natural gas rates. Lone Star's last rate increase in Muenster occurred in August 1983. Revenues, they say, have become insufficient to cover costs and still allow a reasonable return on investment. Based on Lone Star's application, a residential customer using an average of ten thousand cubic feet of gas a month in the winter would see a change in the monthly bill from $46.05 to $51.34. Each city in Lone Star's system is dealt with individually and Gainesville, Valley View, Lindsay and Saint Jo have already agreed to increases. The council recognized the request and will consider acceptance at the next meeting.

Mac McCoy of McCoy Funeral Home addressed the council concerning ambulance service. "Seems like Muenster is in the same kind of situation that we are (in Saint Jo), small towns pay the taxes, Bowie gets the service," he said. McCoy described the ambulance service offered by his business and indicated willingness to discuss serving Muenster. The council said they were interested especially in view of the possible establishment of ambulance districts in the Tuesday referendum. That seems to have passed. So, Muenster could unite with Saint Jo and others within or across the county lines to form an ambulance district and establish or contract for the service.

In other action the city council:

-Agreed with zoning board to refuse permit to construct carport as requested in block 28.

-Approved request from Chamber of Commerce to use the city park for Germanfest.

-Approved Jaycee request to decorate in city park for Christmas.

-Voted 4 to 1 to recommend Dale Felderhoff for the Board of Directors of the Cooke County Appraisal District.

-Approved sending James Harrison to school to obtain Class D solid waste disposal license.

Lindsay kicks Valley View 20-0

by Gene Hermes

"Making the most of opportunities" could easily be the motto of Lindsay's tailback Mike Dieter.

Dieter, a 5'11", 159-lb. junior, has been one of the team's leading rushers, rushing for 215 yards against the Valley View Eagles.

The Knights received the opening kickoff and started their drive on the 20-yard line. Eight plays later, Dieter goes the distance of 41 yards and the first TD of the game. John Fangman recovered a fumble on Valley View's 28-yard line. The Knights took advantage by scoring on a 25-yard Bobby Fleitman pass to tight end Quentin Hoeng. Leo Sandmann kicked the extra point to give Lindsay a 13-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter was scoreless. Valley View threatened to score with less than 3 minutes in the first half. Starting from their own 37-yard line, seven plays later they were inside the 10-yard line. On 1st and goal from the 9, Jeff Arendt caused a fumble, recovered by Ashley Fuhrmann on the 5-yard line.

After halftime neither team could get the ball inside the 20-yard line, keeping the third quarter scoreless.

In the fourth quarter, Damian Krahl booted the ball 30 yards to the Knights' 4-yard line. With 11:15 left in the game, the Knights started their third TD drive. Seven plays later, Rick Sandmann crossed the goal line on a 4-yard run. The extra points were kicked by Leo Sandmann to make the final score Lindsay 20, Valley View 0.

One of the key plays on the final TD drive came from Mike Dieter on a 63-yard run. "I just found the hole and broke through the line of scrimmage. I had a little trouble with the linebackers, but I broke them and didn't have any more problems except for the safety Kenny Jackson. I would also like to thank the line for blocking so well - maybe the headlines should read the linemen blocked for 215 yards."

It's hard for a team to score if they don't have the ball and that is exactly what the Lindsay defense did. Allowing the Eagles only 6 first downs and a total of 117 yards, the defense caused 4 fumbles, forced VV to punt 5 times, throw an interception and sacked the QB 3 times, once by Leo Sandmann and twice by John Fangmann.

The leading tacklers were Leo Sandmann and Teddy Cason, each with 12. John Fangmann, Jeff Arendt, Ashley Fuhrmann and Craig Neu had 11 tackles each. The interception was by Phil Metzler, his second of the year.

The offense for the Knights was outstanding. Coach Grady Roller

Muenster voters show big turnout in Nov. 3 election

In a surprisingly high turnout of voters Tuesday, both Muenster boxes followed a statewide unexpected rush to the polls.

Also, according to unofficial election returns, 48 percent of Cooke County's registered voters exercised their duty to cast their ballots.

In Muenster's North box, Precinct 18, Christi Klement, election judge, said the registered voting strength is 1174, and 564 came out to vote, very nearly half. In Precinct 17, Janet Fisher, election judge, said voting strength is 308 and 162 cast their votes, slightly more than half.

"The turnout was so much greater than before," said Mrs. Klement, "that we had to request more tally sheets late Tuesday evening. We turned in our final count and official papers at the Courthouse about 2 a.m. Wednesday morning. Later in the morning, Frank Scoggin, County Clerk, said that one precinct box was still out at 7 a.m. and that he then proceeded to go out to assist and bring it in.

Janet Fisher said her precinct's final count was turned in at the Courthouse at midnight.

Voters were asked to decide on 25 constitutional amendments, the largest number ever submitted in a single election and two referendum proposals.

See a comparison of Muenster's choices to unofficial statewide choices, on page 2.

In the county referendum Cooke County voters cast 4,420 votes for the mandatory transfer of assessment and collection duties to the County Tax Assessor/Collector's office; and away from the Cooke County Tax Appraisal District, and 2,798 voted against the mandatory transfer.

In Precinct 17, Muenster, going against the trend, local voters cast 87 votes against the mandatory transfer of assessment and collection duties to the Cooke County Tax Assessor/Collector and 70 for the mandatory transfer.

In Precinct 18, local voters cast 301 votes against the mandatory transfer of assessment and collection duties to the County Tax Assessor/Collector's office and 234 voted for the mandatory transfer.

Turkeywalk Nov. 14

The annual Turkeywalk, sponsored by the Cooke County Division of the American Heart Association, is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 14, at 9 a.m. The course for the walk, which covers three miles, begins at the Whaley United Methodist Church, 701 Rosedale.

More than 100 Cooke County-area walkers are expected to participate in this year's Turkeywalk.

"So many people are affected by heart disease either personally or within their immediate families," said Phil Newton, chairperson of this year's Turkeywalk. "Events like the Turkeywalk give all of us a chance to get involved and to do something about this Number One Killer in Texas."

Everyone is welcome to participate in the Turkeywalk, either as a walker or as a sponsor, Newton added. Walkers need to show up at 9 a.m., Nov. 14, at Whaley United Methodist Church to register. Pledge sheets can be picked up at area banks.

Outstanding quail season predicted by TPWD

AUSTIN - Texas quail hunters who pine for the "good old days" should perhaps make plans to hunt their favorite game bird during the upcoming hunting season Nov. 7-Feb. 28.

"It looks as though we're going to have one of the best quail seasons in years," said Don Wilson, quail program leader for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. "Quail counts are an all-time high in South Texas and the Rolling Plains, and quail populations statewide have made a dramatic comeback from the low counts of 1984."

The quail picture has improved to the point that the Parks and Wildlife Commission set the quail daily bag limit at 16 birds for the upcoming season. The possession limit is 48.

South Texas, which traditionally has the highest bobwhite quail populations of the state's ecological regions, is enjoying an outstanding year for the first time since 1982, Wilson said. "During 1984, quail populations hit rock bottom in South Texas, as they did in most other parts of the state. In 1985 the birds had good nesting conditions, but the numbers of mature quail were so low that recovery was not possible in one production year," he said.

Another good production year in 1986 set the stage for the 1987 quail boom, as a mild winter and ample rainfall spurred the excellent production, he said.

The Cross-Timbers region, which is roughly between Fort Worth and Abilene in West Texas, benefited from the same favorable weather conditions during the past two years to produce a bumper quail crop this year. Wilson said the average count of 34 birds per route this year was twice the long-term average.

Quail in the Rolling Plains of West Texas have undergone perhaps the most remarkable recovery. Wilson noted that freeze and drought conditions in 1983-84 depressed quail populations to disturbing lows, averaging four birds per route during 1984 census work.

"Landowners in that area were worried that there were no quail left to reproduce," Wilson said. However, improved habitat conditions raised the count to 13 birds per route in 1985. By 1986, counts increased to a mean of 29 birds, which was above the long-term average of 22. This year's count is again around 29 birds per route.

Blue quail populations also are on the rise in the Trans-Pecos region of West Texas, Wilson said. The average of 24 birds is more than double the long-term average and comparable to the all-time record of 34 set in 1977.

"This is another region where quail populations were virtually at rock bottom in 1984," Wilson said. "Most counts that year found no quail at all. By 1985, the mean was four birds, and by 1986 it was eight. Suddenly in 1987 it jumped to 24."

"It's difficult to make predictions about hunting in a state like Texas, because there are so many variations in weather and habitat," Wilson said, "but overall, it appears that the conditions are right for an excellent quail season over most of the state

Mammography is a success at hospital

The mammography and cancer screening programs recently started at Muenster Memorial Hospital have been very well received according to hospital administrator Herman Carroll. "Our cancer screening program on Monday evenings is booked up through November and into December. We're very pleased," he said. Staff radiologist Dr. William Kernek is also very pleased with the quality and acceptance of the service. He said, "I believe it will be a big success as the people find it is available. It's a fine service for the community. I don't know of anyone else offering such a package." Dr. Kernek pointed out the special film with very high resolution being used which was developed specially for mammography. The Lo-dose mammography unit technology has only been available for a few years. "Here we have state-of-the-art as good as anybody can buy," Dr. Kernek praised Radiologic Technologist Kay Bynum for her very capable and personal manner of handling the service. Price also is a factor. The cost of a mammogram is 40 to 50 percent of what it was a year or two ago. Competition, lower cost, increased volume and the view of mammography as a community service have helped to lower prices.

Bynum commented that patients have said they were glad that the service is offered because "they've been wanting to do it." They are proud that our hospital can offer mammography. The mammograms are done in a discreet and professional manner. "I take time with each patient to teach self-examination and talk about health. That means a lot to women," she said.

Muenster Memorial Hospital offers a full, 3-view mammogram, including radiologists' fee, for $65.00. Mammograms are offered on a self-referral basis and are the only hospital test which can be taken without a doctor's order.

Olney Savings announces two new tax-advantage investments

Olney Savings has announced the addition of two new investments: Taxbrake, single premium life insurance, and Base, a single premium deferred annuity, according to Mr. Alan D. Myers, Jr., chairman and chief executive officer.

Endorsed by Olney Savings, "These new investments provide tax advantages by enabling our customers' money to earn and compound interest without current tax liability," said Myers.

Offering tax-deferred growth, both Taxbrake and Base feature one- or three-year guaranteed interest rates; 100 percent principal guarantee, backed by the general assets of Life Insurance Company of the Southwest; no sales charge; a 60-day bailout provision to protect against substantial interest rate declines; and are available through "A-plus"-rated, Life Insurance Company of the Southwest, Dallas, Texas.

(A.M. Best, the recognized authority in analyzing insurance companies, rates Life Insurance Company of the Southwest A-plus "Superior," which is the highest rating given by Best.)

Life Insurance Company of the Southwest, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Halliburton Company, Dallas, Texas, started doing business in 1955 under the laws of the State of Texas as a legal reserve insurance company. The Halliburton Company is one of the world's largest petroleum industry service and engineering construction firms. Life Insurance Company of the Southwest conducts business in 49 states and the District of Columbia. Insurance in force now exceeds $4.9 billion and assets exceed $400 million.

He continued, "Annuities and Single Premium Life Insurance are a highly individualized decision. We suggest consulting with an attorney, accountant or tax advisors to see what is right for each person's particular set of circumstances. Olney Savings has qualified specialists for counseling, also, about these investments."

"With the new tax reforms, careful planning is necessary. What we feel is important...is choice," he replied.

Olney Savings, with assets in excess of $1 billion, has offices in Abilene (2), Albany, Anson, Archer City, Azle, Bowie, Boyd, Bridgeport, Brownwood, Cisco, Clyde, Coleman, Comanche, Cross Plains, Crowell, Decatur, DeLeon, Eastland, Electra, Gainesville, Graham, Haskell, Holliday, Jacksboro, Mineral Wells, Nocona, Olney, Ranger, Seymour, Stephenville, Snyder, Throckmorton, Vernon, Weatherford, and Wichita Falls (3).

MISD elementary teachers write new curriculum guide

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was prepared by Gwen Trubenbach, Principal, Muenster Elementary School.

Muenster I.S.D. elementary teachers have completed writing a new curriculum guide for the language arts program in K-4. The language arts program provides students an opportunity to become efficient senders and receivers of messages.

A well-planned and implemented continuum of learning develops language ideas, listening, speaking, reading and writing skills.

The learner-based program includes the essential elements mandated by the state as well as remedial and enrichment activities.

MISD students, parents, teachers and administrators share the responsibility for students' success in mastery of language arts skills. Carefully directed class work is enriched by the completion of well-planned daily homework assignments, frequent guest speakers, field trips, a well-equipped library and access to the many resource materials available through the Education Service Center, Region XI.

The Muenster I.S.D. reading program has a clearly-defined, research-based instructional design that provides systematic instructional strategies. The reading curriculum is phonics-based, designed to support independence in reading from the earliest levels.

Students are taught to demand meaning from what is read. Decoding strategies and comprehension skills are presented through teacher modeling, guided reading, discussion and independent practice.

Students are shown how to use and apply skills and how to monitor their comprehension by checking their own understanding as they read.

In addition, students are given immediate opportunities to apply skills in reading and responding to selections. Thus, students are taught to see that independence in reading enables them to use reading for their own information and pleasure.

The MISD K-4 spelling curriculum uses a research-based approach consisting of teacher directed and self-guided learning. Students learn to implement phonics, word meaning and word structure to improve their written spelling vocabulary. The spelling curriculum focuses on words students are most likely to use in their own writing.

Students are taught spelling rules that apply to at least 80 percent of the time. Weekly written tests are given as well as opportunities to use newly learned words in their own writings.

The goal of MISD spelling curriculum is to provide students a mental bank of high frequency writing words that can be spelled effortlessly to serve their writing needs; thereby allowing the students to focus on the content of their message.

The spelling curriculum also aims to enhance the students' ability to communicate effectively through use of the written word.

Muenster ISD students begin learning effective use of written language in kindergarten. The writing program is based upon an orderly sequence that begins in kindergarten with the simplest writing experiences and progresses logically to more complex writings and a satisfactory command of the written language that enables students to be effective written communicators.

POWER OFTEN LIES IN THE HANDS OF AN UNKNOWN FEW.

They hold no public office. Yet, their duty is to service and protect us all. They're all part of the team of men and women at your electric company who go to work when the lights go out. The job of finding and fixing a break in a power line isn't an easy one. It takes people to answer your call. Dispatchers to direct the crews to the problem. And, finally, a select group of Troublemakers and Servicemen who must be able to complete their task even in high winds and thunderstorms. Or, on occasion, when wires are brought down by the weight of ice and snow. It takes people who can get the job done, no matter what the time of day. Or night. The team responsible for restoring your power is just part of our commitment to service. And that's something you can count on.

CC Playmakers present...

"Murder By Natural Causes"

"Whodunit" fans should enjoy the Cooke County College Playmakers' production of "Murder By Natural Causes" set to open Thursday, Nov. 5.

Friday and Saturday evening performances of the play also are scheduled, and curtain time for all three is at 7:30 p.m. Playgoers planning to attend either of the first two performances, however, should plan to get to the CCC Little Theater a half hour early.

Beginning at 7 p.m. on both Thursday and Friday, the CCC Pop Singers, under direction of Glenn Wilson, will be giving a special program of popular music. Highlighting the program will be a special medley of big band tunes from the 40s, including "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" and "Tuxedo Junction."

Paul Hutchins, "Murder" director and head of Speech and Drama programs at CCC, reports that this play is tailor-made for mystery fans who like surprises and plot twists.

"The play is written by Tim Kelly," Hutchins says, "and is adapted from a television drama by Richard Levinson and William Link, creators of such super hit shows as 'Columbo' and 'Murder, She Wrote.'"

The plot centers around Arthur Sinclair, played by Alton Kite of the CCC faculty, who is a world famous mentalist. His beautiful wife, played by Tracy Trevino of Denton, plots his murder. A self-admitted "greedy little girl," she enlists the help of a struggling young actor, portrayed by Hal Horn of Marietta, OK.

Her foolproof plan cannot miss. Or can it?

"Once the killing scheme is set in motion, the plot begins to twist and turn," Hutchins says, "and just when the audience thinks it has figured out what will happen next, there is an unexpected shock to complicate matters."

"The mystery builds to an exciting climax you'll have to see to believe."

Other members of the cast include Rich Gum of Era as George Brubaker, Victoria Callahan of Saint Jo as Jessica Prescott, Michael Stringer of Lake Dallas as Eddie Oakman, Cathy Estes of Gainesville as Mrs. Carrington and international student Johanna Morawieckas as Marta.

Price of admission will be $1.00 at the door for the general public. No advance reservations are being taken, but seating is limited. CCC students with I.D. will be admitted free.

The CCC Pop Singers, who'll be performing prior to opening curtain on both Thursday and Friday evenings, is a performance-oriented vocal music group featuring some of the most talented students at CCC. Membership is by audition only, and a majority of members are attending school on scholarship.

The group performs for various organizations, schools and functions throughout the area, and persons wishing to learn more should contact Glenn Wilson at 817/668-7731.

Annual Arts and Crafts Sell-O-Rama Nov. 13

from the ages of 4 to 10. There will be two sessions taught each of the Monday afternoons. The first will be from 3:30-4:30 p.m. and the second from 5:00-6:00 p.m. The first session is open to children from the age of 4 to 6 and historic Christmas stories from Cooke County's past.

The registration fee is $7.50 for members and $10.00 for non-members. Parents can start registering their children immediately. The last day for registering a child will be Friday, Nov. 13. To register simply call or come by the museum and give us the child's name and you can send your check to the museum. Payment must be received before the class begins. Since we can only take a limited number of students we have to go on a first come, first serve basis. For more information, please call the museum at 668-8900.

Head lice simple to control

To parents, it is alarming when a child brings home from the teacher news that the child may have head lice. According to the Texas Department of Health (TDH), though, head lice can be a problem among any gathering, especially of children at school or day care. Teachers are wise to check all their pupils periodically to control the pests.

Bobby L. Davis, director of the TDH General Sanitation Division, said, "People misunderstand what head lice are, who is likely to have them, and what to do to control them.

"A lot of people seem to confuse common head lice with body lice, which are rare in the United States, and pubic lice ("crabs") which usually only move from one host to another during sex or in shared bedding," Davis said.

Davis explained that many people wrongly believe that only dirty, neglectful people may have head lice. For that reason, parents often are outraged or ashamed when told their child may carry the pests. The truth is that anyone can have head lice. Pediculus humanus capitis, the Latin name for the parasite, is a gray insect, about an eighth of an inch long, that lives only on the human scalp. They travel from one host to another when people share hairbrushes, hats, scarves, pillows, etc. They do not transmit disease, but do cause itching and irritation - and embarrassment, according to Davis.

Precautions against head lice outbreaks are simple: avoid sharing brushes, hats and other items which touch the hair, such as coat collars. Parents should periodically check children's scalps for the insects and their eggs ("nits"). The nits are tiny, oblong sacks, usually attached to the base of a hair.

The treatment to rid a child of head lice is careful washing and combing with a special shampoo and a fine toothed comb, usually sold together at pharmacies and grocery stores. Davis said parents should follow all directions on the shampoo, repeating the procedure according to recommendations. They also should wash pillow cases, and wash or air for at least two days any hat, scarf or other head covering which may contain nits.

Head lice die quickly (within 48 hours) in any environment other than on the human scalp. They cannot survive on pets.

Davis said that not only parents, but even school administrators sometimes overreact to outbreaks of head lice among students. "One city made the mistake of contaminating a whole school and library with a pesticide that was not only unnecessary, but dangerous in itself. All they had to do to eliminate the head lice was to advise parents about ridding their kids of lice and to close the buildings for the weekend. We strongly discourage using spray pesticides against head lice."

Girl Scout Troop 495 happenings

On Oct. 15, at their regular meeting, members of Troop 495 welcomed Eric Gray as a guest. Nicole and Karri Endres then served refreshments to those present.

Hospice questions to find answers Nov. 10

Hospice in Cooke County. What is it? How does it affect me and my community? How can I help?

These questions will be answered Tuesday, Nov. 10, 7 p.m. at Muenster Memorial Hospital. Linda Lira, Hospice nurse, will bring the Hospice story and philosophy, answer questions and provide information on how to bring Hospice to Cooke County.

Hospice, a non-profit organization, allows the dying patient the privilege of remaining at home, surrounded by family, friends and familiar surroundings.

If you see the need for this care in Cooke County and want to know more, please attend.

A seminar, "Death Awareness/Life Awareness," will be conducted by Hospice Nov. 7, 14, 21 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Cooke County College. The course is aimed at helping everyone involved in a terminal illness to deal with the physical pain, the emotional grief and the confusing questions that result from such illness. The course is required for Hospice volunteers working directly with patients, but is also invaluable for personal enrichment in learning more about coping with terminal illness.

To enroll, call the Continuing Education office at Cooke County College.

role in the classroom and/or organization, exemplary character and service to school or community. These rigid requirements reflect the high standards of excellence which National Honor Society members have met and are expected to maintain.

Mr. Austin also made special mention of the chapter's annual

Hutsons tour Kansas area

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hutson left Sunday morning, Oct. 25, for Abilene, Kansas on business. They spent the night in Abilene and tended to business.

Then since Abilene is the home of the late president Dwight D. Eisenhower, Wild Bill Hickock and Tom Smith, they did some sightseeing. In Abilene, they saw 2 1/2-story homes and 2-story barns that had been well kept.

It rained on them from Oklahoma City to Abilene. They traveled on I-35.

They saw the route of the Chisholm Trail. Then they drove up to Dodge City, Kansas, where they saw the Boot Hill Museum where the TV story "Gunsmoke" is filmed with Matt Dillon, Miss Kitty and Doc.

They also saw the Longbranch Saloon, drygoods store, the jail, bank, barber shop, blacksmith shop, Doc's office, all fronts to make the TV show, set in the 1870s.

They also saw the one-room school house built in 1917. The school house was moved to the Boot Hill Museum in 1977.

Tigers face Patriots

Sacred Heart travels to Irving to play the Lexington Patriots in a must-win game for the Tigers Friday night. After being off last week when Boles Home forfeited for lack of players, Coach Joe Pasqua's team will be up against a much-improved club. Under a new coaching staff, the Patriots will run out of the slot I behind the talents of John Goode and Bart Malone. Two 210-lb. tackles will anchor the defensive line.

Lexington held district leader Liberty scoreless at halftime last week, before falling 35-14.

The Tigers have only 19 players to suit out this week, making the contest a close, hard-hitting game.

If Sacred Heart is victorious over the Patriots, they will advance to the playoffs as district runner-up behind Liberty. In TAPS, playoff schedules are determined by seeding, in which a committee ranks teams accordingly, preventing best teams from being matched up in early rounds of playoffs.

Directions to game

The game will be played at Cistercian Field in Irving. Take 35E to Loop 12 or the Texas Stadium exit. Travel Loop 12 and exit 114 to Grapevine. Turn right at the stop sign and stay on the service road for approximately 1 mile until you come to Cistercian Road. Turn right. The Tigers need to win to secure a playoff spot. See you there!

Support your Tiger team!

The Sacred Heart cheerleaders invite all Tiger fans to wave something red - like a towel, bandana, etc. - to support our team in their final district game against the Lexington Patriots on Nov. 6 at 7:30 p.m. at Cistercian Field in Irving.

A TOUGH Muenster defense, above, and a swift moving offense, at left, supported the junior high Hornets to a 34-0 victory over Era and clinched the district title.

Little Red clinches share of district title

For the second year in a row, the Little Red junior high football team will win the district championship. With a 34-0 thrashing of Era last Thursday night they clinched at least a tie, and with a victory over the Collinsville Pirates tonight at 6 p.m. in Collinsville, they would win the district outright.

Five different Hornets scored touchdowns in the first half, Doug Hennigan kicked 4 PAT's and the Little Red defense held Era without a first down to put the game away 34-0 at the half. Muenster ran its record to 4-0 in district and 6-1 for the year.

Mike Vogel scored the first TD from 3 yards out. Then Mike Goble returned a punt 70 yards for a score. Hennigan then motored 40 yards on a reverse to score, followed by a Ryan Sicking 4-yard TD run, and a final 35-yard scoring jaunt by Tony Perryman.

Muenster's Little Red ends their season tonight, looking to be the third junior high team in a row to post a 7-1 record.

Cubs rip Panthers

The Sacred Heart Cubs roared to a 44-0 win over the Saint Jo Panthers in their final contest of the season. The Cubs were scheduled to play Lexington this Friday but Lexington was unable to field a junior high squad.

Gary Hess opened the Cub scoring with a 32-yard sweep around right end. Kelly Bell converted for 2. On the Panthers' next possession, Larry Switzer recovered a fumble in the end zone for 6. Kelly Bell again scored on the conversion. In the second period, Kelly Bell raced off tackle for a 25-yard score and Helmuth Koelzer converted the conversion. The half ended with the Cubs in control 24-0.

In the third period, the Cubs blocked a punt and tackled the Saint Jo punter in the end zone for a safety. On the safety kick the Cubs, with a fine return by Steven Fisher, set up a 24-yard run by Kelly Bell for the score. Bell converted the 2. Moving to the fourth period, Helmuth Koelzer optioned left end from 23 yards out. The conversion failed. Steve Nasche took over at the QB spot and picked up where Koelzer left off as he picked up a miscue and scored from 8 yards out. The conversion failed.

Fisher, Helmuth Koelzer, Kelly Bell, Larry Switzer, Werner Becker, Scot Hennigan, Greg Hess, Darrin Klement, Jordan Bayer. Cubs not available for action were Martin McCoy, Jeff Sicking and Barry Hess.

The Cub coaches, Danny Walterscheid and Sylvan Walterscheid, were very pleased with the Cubs' season. A strong eighth grade class will be missed for the 1988 season but the development of this year's seventh grade could again lead to another successful season in 1988. Hats off to the Cubs and their coaches for a fine 6-2 season!

Mavericks soccer team wins 3rd

The Muenster Mavericks of the Cooke County Soccer League won their third game of the season against the Lawyers team of Era, coached by Ed Zielinski. The Mavericks, coached by Chuck Bartush, Jr. and Rhonda Silmon, won 4-0, led by outstanding play of Scott Hermes who scored 3 of the points. Aaron Hess made 1. Bartush said, "Scott is certainly one of the most productive players in the 6-8 year division."

The Mavericks lost their only two games to the Smokehouse II team from Lindsay by scores of 6-2 and 6-4. There are two more games on the fall schedule set for

Muenster toppled 14-6 by Era

In the annual battle of Hornets, the Era Hornets came out and controlled the ball, the clock and the bounce of the ball. The final score read 14-6, Era over Muenster; however, very little went the way of the Big Red. Era's James Rodriguez ran for two touchdowns, threw for a 2-point conversion, gained 99 yards on 31 tough carries, and completed 4 of 7 passes for 56 yards. The loss leaves Muenster with an opportunity to force a three-way tie for second place and create a coin flip for the playoff spot if the Hornets can defeat the Collinsville Pirates Friday night in Muenster. Collinsville, Era and Muenster would then finish deadlocked at 2-2 in zone play.

The opening series of the game saw Era given two opportunities on fourth down plays and they cashed in for the opening score. On fourth and five from midfield, their punter bobbled a low snap and was sacked. A Muenster facemask penalty gave Era a first down. The Big Red defense held again, and on fourth and 10, Era punted only to recover the fumbled punt at the Muenster 16-yard line. Six plays later, the Era quarterback, Rodriguez, scored from 3 yards out. Stuart Hess blocked the extra point attempt but only 3 minutes remained in the first quarter when Muenster finally touched the ball offensively.

After 2 runs from scrimmage, Muenster fumbled the ball back to Era. The Big Red were able to run but 3 offensive plays in the first quarter. Era went to the air in the second quarter and successfully moved the ball to the one, where Rodriguez ran in for the score. He then passed to Brandon Berry for a 14-0 lead. Era threatened to pad the lead but J. Shane Wimmer intercepted his fourth pass of the season to keep the score close for a second half rally.

The Muenster defense stiffened up in the final two periods. But the offense could only get untracked once. The Red uncorked a 65-yard drive led by James Hennigan and Scot Vogel. It culminated with an 11-yard scoring strike from Jerry Brawner to J. Shane Wimmer. The PAT failed. With 9:02 to play, the Hornets would fumble their final hopes away. Four costly fumbles were treats for the Era Hornets this Halloween. Only tricks for Muenster, as Era fumbled five times but lost only one.

Hennigan gained 56 yards on 14 attempts. Vogel rushed for 36 yards on 9 carries. Brian Hess graded high for his blocking, and Stuart Hess, Billy Youngblood and Wimmer made key plays defensively for the Hornets. Muenster is now 2-6 for the year. Era is 2-7.

Kickoff for the Collinsville game will be at 7:30 p.m. at Muenster stadium. Come out and support the Hornets in their regular season finale!

Dairy short course set at five locations

A one-day shortcourse about reducing heat stress in dairy herds will be conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at five locations during the week of Nov. 16.

Dairy specialists and veterinarians from Arizona, Florida and Texas will tell how to deal with the effects of high heat and humidity on dairy reproduction, nutrition, housing and waste management.

The shortcourse for dairy producers in this area will be held at Decatur on Nov. 18.

Program speaker Dr. R.G. Elmore, DVM, sums up heat stress in reproductive management this way:

"High summer temperatures adversely affect reproductive efficiency in dairy cows in the southern states. During most years, conception rates begin to sharply decline in May or June and do not fully recover until November. These decreased conception rates result in extended calving intervals, increased days open, and increased breedings per conception. High environmental temperatures also result in increased days to first service in most southern dairies. Reproduction efficiency in dairy cows results because of infertile services and an absence of expressed estrus or inefficient detection of estrus. These two problems are amplified during hot seasonal periods.

"Recognition of the problems precipitated by high ambient temperatures will enable dairymen to realistically manage their herd for maximum reproductive efficiency."

A list of all locations and times follows:

Nov. 16 - Pallas Inn, Nacogdoches; 9-10 a.m. registration

Nov. 17 - Civic Center, Sulphur Springs; 9-10 a.m. registration

Nov. 18 - City Hall, Decatur; 9-10 a.m. registration

Nov. 19 - Holiday Inn, Stephenville; 9-10 a.m. registration

Nov. 20 - Brenham Community Hall, Brenham; 9-10 a.m. registration

For more information, contact Dr. Michael A. Tomaszewski, Extension Dairy Specialist, (409) 845-5709, Room 218, Kleberg Center, College Station, TX 77843-2471.

Computer training courses set for farmers, ranchers

More and more farmers and ranchers are using microcomputers as a profitable management tool, and a series of short courses over the next year are aimed at helping them become more proficient in that effort.

Three-day short courses are conducted at the Stiles Farm Computer Training Center at Thrall, about 6 miles east of Taylor on U.S. 79. The short courses are a joint effort of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, both agencies of The Texas A&M University System.

"The short courses are designed to provide in-depth subject matter training and hands-on microcomputer use of software available from the private sector and Texas A&M," points out Dr. Jim McGrann, economist with the Extension Service and Experiment Station. "Participants also have an opportunity to see ongoing computer applications in a commercial agricultural environment, so this presents a unique learning situation."

Dates and topics of the upcoming short courses are as follows:

Nov. 3-5, Fish Enterprise Management.

Nov. 17-19, Electronic Spreadsheets and their Use in Agriculture.

Dec. 7-9, Whole Farm/Ranch Planning and Financial Management.

Dec. 15-17, Advanced Electronic Spreadsheets Development and Applications in Agriculture.

Jan. 26-28, Beef Cattle Performance and Health Management Records and Analysis, Nutrition and Economic Decision Aids.

Feb. 9-11, Farm and Ranch Accounting.

Feb. 15-19, Basic Financial Management.

May 3-5, Swine Management.

May 11-13, Special Training for Extension Agents and Specialists.

May 17-19, Whole Farm/Ranch Planning and Financial Management.

June 28-30, Advanced Electronic Spreadsheets Development and Application in Agriculture.

Sept. 27-29, Farm and Ranch Accounting.

Oct. 17-21, Basic Financial Management.

For registration information on the computer short courses, contact Dr. Jim McGrann, Department of Agricultural Economics, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843-2124, telephone 409-845-8792; or Jeff Johnson, Stiles Farm, Box 158, Thrall, TX 76578, telephone 512-898-2214.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Progress against brucellosis is being made across Texas and especially in a 13-county area where infection rates are higher than the rest of the state. Producers should continue to eradicate brucellosis.

Texas moved up to Class B status in April and this means new regulation breeders need to be familiar with.

It is now apparent Texas livestock producers must increase their efforts to control brucellosis.

Seven Class Free and Class A states are now requiring an "F" brand on certain classes of heifers imported from Class B and C states.

In all cases, you should check with the state of destination for complete regulations on entry of cattle.

Coming up soon are two new deadlines that breeders should be aware of. They are:

1. As of Oct. 1, 1988, heifer calves will not be moved from Class B states unless they are "S" branded or spayed.

2. After Oct. 1, 1990, only steers, spayed heifers, "S" branded cattle or certified free herds may be moved from Class B states.

And news from the Beef Promotion and Research Board tell us that one year has passed since Oct. 1, 1987 - the date all beef producers, dairymen, veal growers and importers began investing $1-per-head in an expanded beef promotion and research program.

More than $73.5 million was collected during the program's first 10 1/2 months. The share going to the Beef Board for strictly national programs was approximately $42.3 million. That included $36.7 million from 41 states with beef councils, $386,000 from nine states without councils, and $5.2 million from importers.

Funds retained by the states totaled $31.2 million. Nationally, refund levels are running at approximately 5 percent and administrative costs are below 4 percent.

A November audit is scheduled by the Beef Board and once completed, an annual report highlighting the program areas and a complete financial report will be prepared.
