Chamber of Commerce holds banquet

The Muenster Chamber of Commerce hosted more than 125 members and their spouses and eight out-of-town guests who attended the annual banquet and awards program held in Sacred Heart Community Center on Friday, Jan. 23.

Themed "Growth Under the Chamber's Umbrella," the evening's program was directed by Dan Hamric, formerly of Muenster, and now superintendent of Montague Public School.

Gary Fisher, chairman of "Operation: Clean Sweep" gave the welcome and Father Denis Soerries led the invocation preceding dinner served by Ginny's Catering.

Ruth and Christy Felderhoff and Wendell Black presented musical selections including "Edelweiss," "Bridges" and "That's What Friends Are For."

She also introduced the board of directors: Gary Endres, Ben Bindel, Gordon Adair, Gary Christian, Dale Felderhoff, Phil Endres and Pat Dennis.

Monica Hess gave a brief review of her first term of office of 1986, citing the Chamber's contributions to the community, and winning of the Governor's Achievement Award through "Operation: Clean Sweep" which was funded and coordinated by the C of C with Gary Fisher as chairman.

She conducted a program of presentations, giving plaques to each of the retiring directors, Wanda Flusche, John Fisher and Johnny Pagel. The "Outstanding Committeeman Award" went to Gary Fisher; the "President's Helper Award" went to Ben Bindel; the "Distinguished Service Award" went to David Fette and The Muenster Enterprise for Extraordinary Support and Encouragement of the C of C. The plaque was accepted by Alvin Hartman in the absence of Fette who was attending a relative's wedding. A surprise award, a Beer-Meister statuette went to Alvin Fuhrman, for his dedication and energy spent toward the success of Germanfest.

David Bright, retired administrator of Muenster Memorial Hospital, introduced the program's featured speaker, Don Brown, assistant director of East Texas Vacation Guide, and a self-employed design and lay-out artist and commercial photographer, and particularly a Texas Tourism enthusiast.

Brown gave a factual description of tourism, telling what tourism can do for a town or an area and especially what tourism has already accomplished for the whole of Texas. He captured the interest of his listeners with statistics revealing that for every dollar spent on advertising by the Texas Highway Dept. and the Texas Tourist Development Agency, there was a return of $74.

He listed a series of "Texas Travel Facts": "Texas tourism is a $16 billion industry; *Texas tourism creates a payroll of $3.2 billion a year; *Texas tourism creates 278,102 jobs; *Texas tourism generates $358-plus million in state taxes a year; and *Texas tourism generates $223-plus million in local taxes a year.

Don Brown encouraged his listeners to attend "Tourism Awareness Day '87" in Austin on Feb. 4 and said those attending will have the opportunity to speak individually to many legislators. He said that Tourism Awareness Day '87 is the focal point of a grassroots movement to gain legislative support and recognition for Texas' tourism industry. Brown also remained after the close of the banquet program and spoke to individuals on tourism. Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown spent Friday night in Muenster and drove to Windthorst Saturday to visit her relatives in the Ostermann relationship.

The banquet program was concluded with distribution of door prizes. John Fisher received the Log Cabin quilt, handmade by Mrs. Elizabeth Krahl; Carl Smith of Gainesville received the landscape painting by Monica Hess; Gary Fisher won the birdhouse made by Tony Hoenig; Susan Martin received the ceramic pitcher and bowl made by Flo Walterscheid; Holly Koch received the photo album cover made by Christi Stelzer; one floral centerpiece was won by Mrs. Don Brown and another floral arrangement was won by Mrs. Terry Dunn.

Father Denis Soerries gave the benediction; and special recognition and praise were given to banquet chairpersons, Pat Dennis and Doris Muller. Many guests remained to enjoy visiting and sharing of ideas.

Residents resist tower at public hearing

The Muenster zoning board heard all the comments they asked for and then some at the public hearing Tuesday night at City Hall. The hearing was called to gather citizen comment concerning the new tower erected by Muenster Cable TV.

Board Chairman Charles Bayer read parts of the zoning ordinance concerning special use permits, described the situation as seen by the board, then opened the meeting for comments from those attending. He asked that each person would speak only once so the meeting wouldn't last too long and a few of those present honored his request.

Cable TV manager Alvin Fuhrman described the tower, antennas to be added and the strength of the tower, stating that it was built to withstand 86-mile-per-hour winds while carrying a 3/4-inch ice coating with no appreciable movement. He said the tower was necessary for his company because of the aging and inefficient tower and underground cable system now in use northeast of town. Fuhrman added that vandalism of the tower and increasing lease costs along with the need to consolidate the system in Muenster were important considerations. "If any progress is to be made in this town, some things will have to be higher than the roof lines as many structures already are. We're doing all we can to improve our telephone and cable service," Fuhrman said.

Agnes Rohmer spoke next, citing a story in the Jan. 22 Nocona News which described the ice which fell from Tempo Cable's tower in Nocona doing serious damage to their control building and satellite dishes. She stated strongly that the tower posed a potential danger and would lower the property value of neighbors. Rohmer's Restaurant adjoins Cable TV property.

First Baptist Church pastor Steve Pearson defended the cable company, Muenster Telephone Corporation and their much-needed service of carrying religious services to shut-ins on Channel 2. He emphasized the need to support those who serve the community.

Ray Wimmer, whose property is within 200 feet of the tower, was very concerned about insurance and liability. His research on the subject revealed that insurance rates shouldn't go up but that even if liability for damages fell first on the cable company, they would fall second on his business.

Dwayne Rohmer, a pilot for Ozark Airlines, asked about the strength and structural integrity of the tower. He reminded those present that weather and wind conditions above the treetops are often much different and faster. Twisting and shearing winds at speeds higher than 86 mph, he felt, could cause metal fatigue and failure. Liability concerns of many present prompted zoning board member Earl Fisher to give his opinion that the chances of a suit resulting from an "act of God" were remote but to remember that anyone can be sued.

Other opponents of the tower thought it was an eyesore and that Cable TV should have just fixed the old tower and lines and been willing to pay increased lease charges. Fuhrman said he tried to negotiate the lease but finally gave up trying to work with the landowner after deteriorating relations and greatly increased cost.

Ken McDougle, Cable TV operations manager, gave further specifications on the tower and its strength. He said, "I cannot dispel your fears. So many structures around town are potential dangers, but just as with this tower, the chances are very remote. I can say that the tower is built to be safe."

This situation started in 1984 when a permit was issued for an improvement project. The permit issued appeared to cover both the small building and a 200-foot tower listed on the voucher check issued by the Cable TV Company. City records do not include the tower and no expiration date is indicated on the permit. City Hall was contacted in October 1986 before the tower contract was released. Cable TV officials say they were assured that it was alright to place the tower. They also say that City Administrator Joe Fenton gave the okay. Fenton, in fact, is not in any way connected with the issuing of permits or the zoning board. He stated that Fuhrman approached him (Fenton) and said that after checking with the city secretary, all was in order and the permit was in effect. Fenton, trusting that Fuhrman had checked and knew what he was doing, and not being connected with the process, said he saw no problem.

At this point in the meeting as arguments erupted, Earl Fisher said, "It's not the function of this board to consider misunderstandings, that may have to go to a court of law."

Board Chairman Bayer stated that the meeting was only to hear Please See TOWER, Page 2

Catholic Schools Week Feb. 1-7

Catholic Schools Week will be nationally observed Feb. 1-7. On the local level, Sacred Heart has a full week's schedule of events.

A special liturgy on Monday opens the school week and celebrates appreciation day of principal, pastors and community services. The theme for the day is "You touch our future; we appreciate you." Each class, in grades one through eight, will be doing something special for Sister Cabrini, Father Denis and Father Victor.

CASEY HOUTCHENS

Honorable mention goes to Houtchens

Sacred Heart High School received word from the Texas Association of Private Schools that senior lineman Casey Houtchens has received honorable mention for the 1986 Division II All-State Football Team.

Houtchens, a 6'3" 220-pound lineman, was the Tigers' best blocker from his center position and also the team's top tackler from the defensive side of the ball. "He was one of the finest players we had in our league," said Coach Joe Pasqua. "He is very deserving of the honor." Houtchens' blocking and tackling skills helped the Tigers to a 5-5 mark and a third place finish in the district.

In addition, each class is working on special gifts of appreciation for both civic and school groups to show that the students value the contributions those groups make to their futures.

Tuesday is Parents' Day. The theme for Tuesday is "Families form the future." Parents are invited to have lunch with their children; and the school will hold open house after lunch for the parents.

Wednesday is Student Day, with the theme "Youth - You are the future!" This will be a non-uniform day, and teachers have their own special treats in store for their students.

The eighth grade students will participate in the Diocesan liturgy at St. Michael's Church in Bedford on Wednesday, with the other eighth grade classes from the Diocese. Bishop Joseph Delaney will be the principal celebrant.

Thursday will honor Teacher Day. "I teach! I touch the future!" is the theme for the day. Student Council is planning special expressions of appreciation for the teachers.

Sacred Heart staff will be honored Friday - Staff Day. The theme for the day is "You help shape the future." Each class, both students and teachers, will display their appreciation for the many services provided to them every day by the staff.

A special liturgy is also planned for Friday, with both teacher and student re-dedication following the homily.

During this week, amid all the other preparations for next week, students in grades one through eight, have been working on poster contest entries. Posters focus on the theme for Catholic Schools Week - Catholic Schools Touch the Future. Posters are due Friday, Jan. 30. Winners are to receive giant monster cookies - a favorite prize among the students.

Also on Thursday, Sister Roberta Hesse will visit the school and share with the students some of her experiences as a missionary sister in Africa.

Serving on the Catholic Schools Week committee locally are Anna Hermes, Debbie Endres, Sister Genevieve, Dorothy Bengfort and Barbara Fuhrmann.

MHS Hornets clinch district championship

Backed by a strong local following, the Muenster Hornets rolled over the host Prairie Valley Bulldogs 48-23 to win the third district championship in school history. Winning their 10th consecutive game, the girls are a perfect 8-0 in district competition with 2 games remaining.

"They are very deserving winners," a proud Coach Heers declared after the game. "Whatever I've asked them to do they have done. You can't go just anywhere and ask time and work from kids and get it, but you can in Muenster. We've had leadership from Staci and Meredith, Melody we had in our league," said Coach Joe Pasqua. "He is very deserving of the honor." Houtchens' blocking and tackling skills helped the Tigers to a 5-5 mark and a third place finish in the district.

Heers also praised the rest of the girls responsible for the success of the championship team. Senior Laura Hess, juniors Michelle Monday, Peachy Switzer; sophomores Jennifer Carroll, Tara Walterscheid, Carrie Russell, Kim Hess, Jeannene Walterscheid, Gaylia Brunson, Stephanie Bynum; freshmen Lisa Robison, Teddi Oakley, Jenny Wimmer, Denise Anderle, Michelle Prigmore and Jan Fleitman.

Muenster jumped out to a 12-2 first quarter advantage and padded the lead to a 44-15 third quarter advantage. Dana Wimmer scored 15 points (7 of 11) and pulled in 8 rebounds. Staci Walterscheid hit 12 points and also had 8 rebounds. Melody Klement added 8 first half points and 7 rebounds; Peachy

Alicia Nicole Leon Walterscheid, infant daughter of Brenda and Franklin Leon, was baptized on Jan. 11, 1987. The ceremony took place at 4 p.m. at St. Thomas Catholic Church in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. The officiating priest said the day was more special because the Church celebrates the baptism of Jesus on Jan. 11.

Godparents for the infant were Carla Klement and Luis Leon, sister and brother of the parents. Proxy for Carla was Grandmother Pat Walterscheid who was spending two weeks in Santo Domingo getting acquainted with her first grandchild. Carl Walterscheid is the first-time grandfather. Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Leon are the paternal grandparents.

Following the ceremony, friends and relatives offered champagne toasts to Alicia in the home of her parents. The infant wore the same baptismal dress and shawl as her mother did at her own baptism. Alicia's mother is the former Brenda Walterscheid of Muenster. It is a custom in the Dominican Republic for the children to also take the mother's name.

MRS. EDDY LANGE
...nee Amy Gosney...

Gosney, Lange united in marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Lange are on a wedding trip to Cabo San Lucas on the Pacific Coast of Mexico and upon their return will be at home in Heidenheimer, Texas.

The bride is the former Amy Denise Gosney, daughter of retired Col. and Mrs. Robert Gosney of Belton. She is also the sister of Mrs. David Fette of Muenster and the granddaughter of Mrs. Clarence Heffner of Fort Worth.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lange of Temple.

The wedding was held in Grace Presbyterian Church in Temple on Saturday, Jan. 24, at 4 p.m. with Rev. Ron Salfen officiating for the double ring ceremony and exchange of vows.

Presented at the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride was wearing a designer gown featuring a high jeweled collar; a sheer yoke and satin basque bodice embroidered with jeweled Venise lace; and puffed sleeves. A chiffon overlay graced the full satin skirt that held intricate lace appliques. Scalloped silk Venise lace encircled the hemline, flowing into a chapel train.

A bandeau of pearl-centered silk, crystal and Venise lace flowers held her two-tiered, English illusion fingertip-length veil, with riple stitched edge.

She carried a bridal bouquet of cascading pure white Dendrobium orchids with English ivy.

ATTENDANTS

Pam Fette of Muenster was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Molly Gosney, sister of the bride of Fort Worth, and friends Roselle Sanchez of Lake Jackson, Dalia Rodriguez of Temple, Maxine Marks and Nancy Panepinto, both of Belton.

They were identically attired in burgundy velvet slipper-length formal gowns and carried long-stemmed hand bouquets of pink tiger lilies and white baby's breath; and wore sprays of baby's breath in their hair.

The ringbearer was the bride's cousin, Scooter Gosney of Temple, and candlelighters were Nifty Gosney and Dandy Gosney, bride's cousins of Temple, all gowned exactly as the bridesmaids, in tea-length dresses. They wore halos of baby's breath in their hair.

The best man was the groom's father, Bill Lange. Groomsmen were Dana Lange, brother of the groom of Lubbock, and friends, Charley Fleming of Holland, Jack Holmes of Temple, Johnny Dokupil and Jerry Bedrick, both of Heidenheimer.

Seating guests were the bride's brother-in-law, David Fette of Muenster, and Tim Vance of Belton.

Wedding music was presented as guests assembled by Sharon Murrah of Belton, pianist. Selections included Debussy's "Clair de Lune" and traditional wedding marches. She also sang "You Are The Wind Beneath My Wings." The bride's sister and brother-in-law, Pam and David Fette, sang a duet "The Wedding Song," and Sharon Murrah presented "Follow Me."

RECEPTION

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. The bride's table held a tall floral arrangement, the three-tiered white wedding cake decorated with a cascade of white roses, and a wedding bells ornament on the keepsake layer; also the crystal punch service. The groom's table held two heart-shaped chocolate cakes, and the coffee service; and a scale-model John Deere tractor pulling a hay baler, as a centerpiece.

Parents of the bride hosted a buffet supper for family members and relatives Saturday night at their home, before departure of the bride and groom. Pam Fette sang "Ode to Amy and Eddie," an original song with guitar accompaniment, to the delight of uncles, aunts and cousins.

The bride attended freshman and sophomore years at Belton

High School and is a graduate of the American Cooperative School in Liberia, Africa. She received a bachelor of science degree in Health Education from Texas A&M University.

The groom is a graduate of Temple Junior College with an associate degree in Applied Science. He is a farmer and the owner of Eddy Lange and Associates Auctioners.

The groom and his parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday night at Papa's Restaurant in Temple.

Among out-of-town guests from this area were Linda and Jack Flusche and Mrs. R.N. Fette of Muenster; also Dan Fette and Bernice and Vickie Fette of Bryan College Station.

Dale Felderhoff heads library board

Election of officers was the principal business of the Muenster Public Library Board at its meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 21. Elected for a one-year term were Dale Felderhoff, president; Melvin Luke, vice president; and Mary Endres, secretary. Re-elected to the treasurer's office was Gary Christian.

The newly elected president appointed the following committees: Finance and Building - Gary Christian and Wayne Tate; Books and Magazines - Mary Endres and Regina Pels; Employees, Public Relations and Programs - Melvin Luke and Tina Bindel. Mary Endres and Tina Bindel are new on the board having been recently appointed by the City Council for three year terms. They replace Tracy Stoffels and Sharon Felderhoff whose terms expired Dec. 31, 1986. Routine business consisted of secretary's minutes, treasurer's yearly report, librarian's and committee reports and discussion of the long-range funding goal for the Statewide Library Development Program.

The February meeting will feature "Multiple Choice," a film showing the various duties and responsibilities of the library trustee at board meetings and in the community in the area of policymaking, finance and public relations. It distinguishes the trustee's roll from the librarian's, who functions in the day-to-day operations of the library.

CCC receives donations to library funds

Cooke County College's Mary Josephine Cox Memorial Library has again received donations from a benefactor who has established three separate library funds at CCC over the past five years.

Patsy Wilson, director of library services, announced that monies were given to increase the principles of each of the funds by Leon M. Liddell of Houston.

Liddell began his support of the CCC library in 1981 with a gift of stocks, the proceeds from which were used to establish the Thomas Leon and Minnie Morris Liddell Fund in memory of his parents who were longtime residents of Cooke County.

Wilson says that, according to the donor's wishes, interest earned by the fund is used to purchase "significant books or materials in history, particularly Texas history, and American and English literature."

Two years later, Liddell gave a cash gift to establish a second library fund in memory of his aunts, Martha Elizabeth and Maude Vencie Liddell.

Liddell established the third library fund at CCC in 1985 as a memorial to his uncle Ira P. Morris who was the son of Capt. and Mrs. E.T. Morris of Gainesville.

Others interested in contributing or establishing separate memorial funds may contact Wilson directly or call Roger Boyce, executive director of the Cooke County College Endowment Foundation, at 817/668-7731.

Tigerettes take sole possession of first place after 47-43 win

In the battle of district unbeaten, the Sacred Heart Tigerettes prevailed over the Tyler Street Christian Lady Crusaders 47-43 in Dallas Tuesday evening. The Tigerettes' victory moves them into sole possession of first place with a 8-0 record while Tyler Street falls to 7-1. "Maybe now we will get some respect," said Coach LeBrasseur. "Tyler Street felt we would be another W for them because of the schedule they play." Their losses have been to Adamson AAAA, Frisco (the number 7 team in the state in AAA), Red Oak AAAA, Bishop Lynch AAAA, and now little ole Sacred Heart. "I keep telling them that the little schools in North Texas play good basketball, I think we made our point."

The Tigerettes did make their point in the hard-fought contest as they fell behind by six in the second period before rallying before the half to cut the margin to three, 25-22. "I think they felt like it was going to be easy after they had us down by 6," said Coach LeBrasseur. "We tightened our belts one more notch and turned up the defense in the second half. Tyler Street's Jennifer Reed collected 16 first-half points but in the second half, the Tigerettes switched to a box-and-one defense with defensive specialist Molly Koelzer on Reed. Koelzer limited the 5'11" guard to 11 second-half points. The box-and-one defense destroyed the rhythm of the Crusaders' offense and at the 4:53 mark of the third period, a field goal by Juline Bartel moved the Tigerettes ahead for good 26-25.

The Tigerettes ended the third period with a four-point advantage and extended that lead to as many as seven but turnovers and mental lapses allowed the Crusaders to stay in the game. A key to the Tigerette victory was the domination of the inside by Sacred Heart's junior post Vicki Walterscheid. "When they throw five starters at you over 5'8" and a front line that is close to 6' you have to play a ball game to dominate the inside," said Coach LeBrasseur. "Vicki was outstanding." Vicki Walterscheid scored 15 points, grabbed a season-high 24 rebounds, and rejected 12 shots.

The fourth period saw both teams exchange baskets and the Tigerettes' turnovers and mental mistakes made for a hard-fought victory in the fourth period. Both teams scored 11 in the final frame for the final score of Sacred Heart 47, and Tyler Street 43. Scorers for the Tigerettes were Vicki Walterscheid 15 points, 24 rebounds, 12 blocked shots and 5 steals; Juline Bartel 12 points and 9 rebounds; Lisa Hamric 7, Danna Hamric 6, Molly Koelzer 5; Michelle Walter 2 points and a fine floor game. Leading Tyler Street was Jennifer Reed with 27.

Next action for the 21-1 Tigerettes will be Friday evening at the Tiger Den against Lexington at 6 p.m. and then on Saturday a return match with Tyler Street at 7 p.m. With two victories this weekend, the Tigerettes could capture the number one Dallas seed for the upcoming playoffs.

Athletic scholarships available

Over 100,000 Collegiate Athletic Scholarships are available each year to male and female high school and junior college student athletes. Contrary to popular belief, students don't have to be All State to qualify. Much of this money goes unused. A new publication with sample letters, forms and tables of factual information is available for student athletes. It takes them step by step through the important process of getting an athletic scholarship and includes college and conference listings. The cost is $11.00. Write the National Sports Foundation, P.O. Box 1232, Kearny, NJ 07032.

Tigers dumped by Tyler Street

Tyler Street Christian Academy of Dallas put on a performance that the Tigers would like to forget. Tyler Street proved why they are one of the top teams in Dallas as they pounded the Tigers 107-40. "They have some athletes," said Coach LeBrasseur. "They intimidated us with their 360 double pump slams in warm-ups." "We must forget about this quickly as we have Lexington coming in on Friday and a must win if we hope to keep our playoff chances alive."

The Tigers were down 4-2 before the Crusaders of Dallas reeled off a 28-2 run to take a commanding 34-6 halftime lead. "We did everything that we were going to try not to do," said Coach LeBrasseur. "We'll get ready for Lexington on Friday and then on Saturday we will get another shot at Tyler Street." Scorers for the Tigers were Darrell Dangelmayr 11, Wayne Becker 10 and a fine all-around game, Casey Houtchens 6, Craig Voth 4, Dale Reiter 3, Todd Thorson 2, Steve Becker 2 and Deano Bayer 2 and a good board game.

Junior High basketball results

The Sacred Heart Junior High School basketball teams are winding down their 1986-87 basketball seasons with a flurry of games.

This past weekend, the Cubs and Cubettes participated in the Lindsay Tournament with the Lady Cubs capturing second place and the Cubs being shut out.

The Cubettes displayed another come-from-behind victory to knock off a tough Muenster club 13-12. Scoring for the Lady Cubs were Robin Greathouse 6, J.J. Dowd 3, Sharon Fuhrmann and Jennifer Walter 2 each. The win over Muenster propelled the Lady Cubs into the championship game against the host school Lindsay.

In the title game, the hosts from Lindsay proved to be too much for the Lady Cubs as they knocked off the Sacred Heart squad 34-11. Both teams were cold in the first period as Lindsay took a 6-0 lead. The second period saw the Lindsay club explode for 16 points while the Lady Cubs could only muster 2. Lindsay continued to roll on to a 34-11 win. Scorers for the Lady Cubs were J.J. Dowd 4, Angela Endres 3, Jenny Yosten and Sharon Fuhrmann 2 each.

In the boys' action, the Cubs opened up with a 45-19 loss to Muenster. The Cubs jumped on their cross-town rivals 10-3 in the first period only to see the Muenster squad win the final three frames for the victory. Scorers for the Cubs were Stevan Nasche 10, Ryan Gehrig 6, Josh McCoy 2, and Greg Hess 1.

In the consolation game, the Cubs and the Lindsay club put on an outstanding show with the Lindsay club nosing out the Cubs 47-36. Scorers for the Cubs were Ryan Gehrig 8, Stevan Nasche 5, Shawn Dangelmayr 8, Josh McCoy 4, Ryan Hess 3, Steve Fisher 3, Mark Flusche and Annie Hess 2 each and Gary Hess with 1.

Returning back to conference action Monday evening at Gold-Burg, the Lady Cubs roared to an impressive 29-10 win over the Lady Bears and the Cubs dropped a 52-14 contest to the jr. boys of Gold-Burg. Scorers for the girls were Sharon Fuhrmann 12, Kim Cler 6, Robin Greathouse 6, Jayna Hofbauer 2, Cher Moster 2. Scorers for the boys were Ryan Gehrig 6, Steven Fisher 3, Jason Endres 2, Gary Hess 2 and Stevan Nasche 1.

Tigers comeback to defeat Warriors 48-46

The Sacred Heart Tigers dug into a 16-4 first period hole against the Lakehill Warriors at the Tiger Den Friday evening, but shoveled their way out to defeat the Warriors 48-46 on a Todd Thorson basket with three seconds remaining in the contest. "The boys never gave up," said Coach LeBrasseur. "The last minute of the game they kept their composure and listened." "It was a big win for us." The Tigers had dropped five ballgames by two or less points before the Friday evening win.

After the early Lakehill lead, the Tigers chipped away and cut the margin to 32-20 at the half as Casey Houtchens scored all of his 7 in the second frame. After the intermission, the Tigers came out of the locker room and hit the first bucket to trim the margin to 10 and then proceeded to cut the Lakehill lead to 36-33 entering the final frame. Craig Voth and Steve Knabe both hit for four in the period. The Tigers did not catch the Warriors until a Wayne Becker follow on a missed free shot with 43 seconds knotted the score at 46. A Warrior miss set the stage for the Tigers with 34 seconds remaining. The Tigers ran the clock down to 9 seconds before calling a time out to set up the final play. In the huddle, the play was set for Wayne Becker to inbound to Darrell Dangelmayr for the last shot. The Tigers executed the play to perfection but Dangelmayr's shot was off the mark and fell into the hands of Todd Thorson. Thorson, the 6'3" senior, snared the ball and, in the same motion, hit the follow shot to give the Tigers the thrilling victory.

Scorers for the Tigers were Steve Knabe 11 points and a fine floor game, Craig Voth 10 points and 12 rebounds, Wayne Becker 7 points and 13 boards, Casey Houtchens 7 points, Todd Thorson 6, Darrell Dangelmayr 5 points and Deano Bayer 2 and some fine play off the bench.

Tigerettes scalp Warriors

The Sacred Heart Tigerettes recorded win number 20 on Friday evening at the Tiger Den with an impressive 90-18 victory over the Warriors of Lakehill. The win marks the fifth consecutive season the Tigerettes have reached the 20-win plateau. "We built a tradition here to achieve 20 wins and it feels good to reach 20 with an outstanding performance," said Coach LeBrasseur. "This team is just like all the rest in their desire to be the best." "Great students and great parents make great programs."

The Tigerettes dominated the contest from the tip as they raced to a 37-2 first-period advantage. Danna Hamric, who scored a game-high 26, opened the period with 16, and received support from little sister Lisa who chipped in with

6. The defensive pressure continued for the Tigerettes as they limited their guests to only 4 points in the second frame and scored 19 more of their own for a 56-6 halftime advantage. "The girls were sharp tonight," said Coach LeBrasseur. "They got their nose on the hardwood and played that defense."

The final half was more of the same for the Tigerettes as they moved to a 74-7 third period advantage and then coasted to win number 20 by the final count of 90-18. Statistical leaders and scorers for the Tigerettes were Danna Hamric 26 points; Vicki Walterscheid 14 points, 10 rebounds and 3 blocked shots; Juline Bartel 9 points and 8 steals; Noelle Hesse 10 points and an outstanding floor game with 7 steals and 3 assists; Lisa Hamric, Michelle Walter and Vicki Schmitt 6 each; Amy Walterscheid and Tina Schilling 4 apiece; Molly Koelzer 2 points and 4 assists; Julie Rohmer 3 points.

Muenster teams remain perfect 8-0 in district

The Muenster Hornets and Hornets recorded loop wins over Era Friday night at Muenster to maintain first place in their district standings. Stuart Hess paced the Hornets with 13 points, 13 rebounds and 8 blocked shots in the 59-34 victory. Brian Hess led the scoring attack with 19 points. Three Hornets hit double figures in their 45-27 win over Era giving the girls their 9th consecutive victory. Staci Walterscheid, Dana Wimmer and Melody Klement scored 13, 12 and 10 points.

"Era is inexperienced and young," said Hornet mentor Coach Heers, "and we have experience in key areas that helped us wear them down. We had excellent second halves in both games. Stuart had his best game of the season, and Brian had another fine game."

The Hornets led 24-16 at the half. They outscored Era in the third quarter 16-7 for a 17-point advantage. Ryan Klement led the second half surge, scoring all 8 of his points. Other Hornets in the scoring column were Kevin Anderle with 8, Keith Klement 4, J. Shane Wimmer 3, Drue Bynum 2 and Mike Pagel 2.

James Rodriguez led Era with 12 points. Kevin Hinzman added 10. The Muenster Hornets cruised to a 18-point win by winning all four quarters. They jumped to a 14-6 first quarter lead behind 8 points from Melody Klement, who shot a perfect 4 of 4 from the field. Other Hornets scorers were Peachy Switzer with 6, and Shonna Reiter with 4. Wimmer had 7 rebounds, Walterscheid 5 rebounds and 5 assists, and Meredith McDaniel contributed 5 assists.

Jr. High wins 2nd, 3rd in Lindsay tournament

The Muenster Junior High boys got close to the championship trophy at the Lindsay Junior High Tournament last week, but settled for second place.

In their opening game against Sacred Heart, the Muenster boys' squad started slow, but scored 16-12 points in the last three quarters for an impressive 45-19 win. Troy Pagel was high scorer with 20 points with Scott Spencer contributing 6, Brad McDaniel 6, Mike Gobble 6, Chris Reylings 4 and Terry Felderhoff 3.

Muenster and Era were tied 8-8 at halftime of the championship game, but the Junior Hornets turned cold the second half, losing 28-12.

In the opening girls' game,

Muenster was defeating Sacred Heart 12-6, but fell apart in the third quarter after Jane Klement sprained her ankle. Sacred Heart moved ahead by 1 point with 30 seconds on the clock.

Muenster missed a 1-1 free throw at 15 seconds, giving Sacred Heart a 13-12 victory.

In the consolation game, the Muenster girls defeated Era 16-14 to win the third place trophy. Scorers were Mindy Graham 6, Kim Anderle 4 and Melissa Bayer 4.

Muenster Junior High's last basketball game of the season will be Monday, Feb. 2, against Era, with the 7th grade girls playing at 5 p.m. followed by the 8th grade girls, then the junior high boys.

Hornets squeeze by Prairie Valley 53-48

The Muenster Hornets traveled to Prairie Valley Tuesday night bearing gifts in the form of 33 turnovers, but managed to keep a grasp on their perfect district slate with a hard-fought 53-48 win over the Bulldogs. Led by Joe Pagel and Brian Hess the Hornets overcame their ballhandling misfortunes to ease closer to a showdown with the Forestburg Longhorns. If Muenster can defeat the Saint Jo Panthers Friday night at 8:30 p.m. (here), then they will travel to Forestburg for an 8:30 p.m. tip-off Tuesday night with the district title on the line.

Hess hit 19 points on 9 of 10 shooting from the field and Pagel hauled in a team-high 13 rebounds, scored 8 points and added 4 assists. Kevin Anderle hit 11 points, Ryan Klement 6, J. Shane Wimmer 4, Mike Pagel 3, and Stuart Hess scored 2 along with 10 rebounds. Overall, the Hornets hit 24 of 45 field goal attempts for 53%.

"As well as we are shooting, it is a shame that we didn't get the ball down the floor for more opportunities," lamented Coach Heers. "I'm chartering a new club today, CATO, Coaches Against Turnovers. If we get rid of them, we will be awfully tough."

Muenster committed a season-high 22 turnovers in the first half as Prairie Valley cut a 7-point deficit down to 30-29. The Hornets fought hard during the third quarter as the Bulldogs caught fire from long range and hung tough for a Muenster 45-43 lead.

The Hornets are now 16-5 for the season and 8-0 for district. They are trying to be the first boys' district champion in Muenster history. Come out and support the Hornet effort!

Meat Week promotes healthy habits

COLLEGE STATION - Industry marketing campaigns designed to sell red meat may also be promoting better eating habits, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist.

"Through National Meat Week and other grocery-store promotions, the industry is trying to show consumers how meat fits into a healthy diet," says Mary Kinney Sweeten.

This year National Meat Week runs from Feb. 1-7.

"The pamphlets, recipe cards and advertisements encourage people to buy lean cuts of meat and use no-fat cooking methods, steps which are recommended by the major health organizations in their dietary guidelines," she adds.

Labels identifying lean cuts of meat in the meat case are helpful to consumers looking for low-fat selections. At industry urging, many grocery stores are also trimming more of the outside fat from meat and packaging certain cuts in 3-ounce servings, Sweeten says.

Since leaner cuts of meat may become dry and tough if cooked with traditional methods, industry promotions also involve recipes for marinating, braising and stir-frying meats.

Sweeten says red meats provide important nutrients and are a major source of heme iron.

"By making use of some of these materials available in the grocery store meat case, consumer can learn more about including red meats in a lower-fat diet," advises the nutritionist.

MYTH ABOUT BEEF

FACTS FROM NATIONAL FOOD & NUTRITION BOARD

MYTH #1: Red meat isn't as healthy as other meat. Red meat is a nutrient-dense food: supplying a high amount of protein, iron, zinc, and B-Vitamins for a relatively low amount of calories.

Pork is the #1 dietary source of thiamin!
Beef and lamb contain 9 times more Vitamin B12 than chicken.

Two most common deficiencies among Americans are iron and zinc; Red Meat has: 4 times more zinc than chicken; 2½ times more iron than chicken; AND 60% of iron in beef and lamb is "heme" iron; 40% of iron in pork is "heme" iron. Heme iron is far more usable in the body than the type of iron found in other foods. Heme iron even makes iron from other sources like vegetables and grains more usable, as long as they are consumed at the same meal as heme iron.

WEATHER HANDICAP DOES NOT PREVENT RECORD HATCH HERE

In spite of being handicapped by a lack of electrical current for more than 51 hours during the hatching period, the first set of baby chicks in the Muenster Hatchery came out with an average of about 88 per cent, Pelly Barker, manager of the hatchery, advised Wednesday.

The chicks were due to come out of their shells Tuesday and at that time almost every one of the first setting was chirping merrily. Mr. Becker said that a few of the early birds were peeping their "come on's" to brood companions last Sunday. At noon Monday about half of the chicks were hatched.

The identical turnout in this first attempt, especially since the weather cooperated so poorly, serves as a proof in doubting Thomases hereabouts that the hatchery can and will give unsurpassed hatching services. The percentage of a normal hatch is said to be between 80 and 85 per cent.

Tomorrow, January 30, is the last day for paying your poll tax. Do it now before you forget. If a trip to the courthouse is inconvenient, pay it at the Muenster State Bank.

Stanny Yosten has been bewailing the lack of speed in his buzzy ever since Rosabell Miller started working in Dallas last week. He feels that he is in real need of a conveyance that can make the trip faster and more frequently.

WHAT ARE WE WAITING FOR?

IT WAS a dark and dreary night when Muenster and Valley View met for the second time in the Round Robin race. Still there were no less than 60 Muenster people there.

If that number is willing to drive 15 miles through fog and mud, what number could we estimate for a game at home? Answer that for yourself by trying to think of the people who would attend if it did not call for additional time and money and trouble for the trip.

Muenster sends to Gainesville almost as large crowds as some of the smaller communities draw to their gyms. Under those circumstances couldn't Muenster support a gym as well as they?

We know that a gym would be good for the town; we know that Muenster's fans can and will support it; we know that a satisfactory plan of financing can be worked out.

Since late last week Joe Wilde has two more satisfied car customers. Ben Haverkamp purchased a '81 Chevrolet 4-door sedan and Ray Klement a '84 Chevrolet Deluxe Coupe.

Some are wondering about the outcome of the big free-for-all intellectual joust in one of the points last Sunday. Quite prominent amongst the problems under discussion were such questions as these: "Has a fire warmer between bricks hold them together or apart? Does a tin of water weigh more after a fish has been added? But here is the real brain teaser: If energy cannot be destroyed what becomes of it when a wound spring, that is not permitted to unwind, is eaten by an acid?"

In order to complete a railroad shipment of cheese to Houston, Local Phenix Cheese Corporation at Dickinson called on the local cheese factory for a 7,000-pound truck load. Joe Horn delivered it Tuesday morning. On the same day the Vernon Meat Co. sent its truck to Muenster for a 7,000-pound load.

FARM AND RANCH NEWS

Rodeo, livestock, fun and games...

Fat Stock show begins

The Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show will make its 91st annual call on Fort Worth Jan. 28 through Feb. 8 at the Will Rogers Memorial Center and will host an expected 730,000 visitors from across the United States and a number of foreign nations.

An international extravaganza, the Stock Show and accompanying 23 performances of the World's Original Indoor Rodeo is by far the largest annual attraction for the City of Fort Worth.

This year, the show will pay out a record of over $500,000 in livestock show premiums, rodeo purse and youth scholarships.

More than 15,000 head of top quality livestock will be exhibited and judged during the show. Classes are scheduled for beef and dairy cattle, horses, sheep, swine, donkeys, mules, poultry, rabbits and pigeons. A number of special cattle exhibits are to be presented by various breed associations.

The Stock Show offers a number of educational exhibits free to visitors. The FFA Children's Barnyard will feature mother farm animals with their young and hatching eggs, giving viewers an opportunity to see the process. Also, the Milking Parlor will operate daily showing an open viewing area where visitors may observe modern milking techniques.

Over six acres on the east side of the show grounds will be the site of the big Stock Show Midway/Carnival, featuring rides, games and entertainment for the entire family. Another favorite stop by visitors will be the Commercial Exhibits section, located in two special buildings and throughout many of the cattle barns. The commercial buildings feature farming and ranching equipment and things for better living.

In addition to touring through the livestock barns, watching the various animals being judged for possible championships, visitors are invited to stop in the Round Up Inn for meals and refreshments.

Sanctioned by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, the Fort Worth Stock Show Rodeo will feature action-packed events of bareback and saddle bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping, steer wrestling and the Invitational Ranch Girls Barrel Race.

A record $271,200 purse will be available for the rodeo and barrel race. Rodeo performances are set at 8 p.m. Jan. 28 and 29, 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Jan. 30 through Feb. 8, plus an additional 10 a.m. performance on Saturday, Jan. 31.

Rodeo entries include all reigning champion cowboys along with many of the top contestants from the Texas Circuit and other challengers. Among the 735 cowboys scheduled to participate are Lewis Field of Elk Ridge, Utah, all-around champion and bronc riding champion; Bud Monroe of Valley Mills, Tex., bareback champ; Tuff Hedeman of Gainesville, Tex., bull riding champ; Chris Lybbert of Argyle, Tex., calf roping champ; and Steve Duhon of Opelousas, La., steer wrestling champ.

Neal Gay of Mesquite, Tex., who is rodeo production manager, has arranged with several of the top production companies in the United States to provide the most outstanding bucking, roping and dogging stock available in the sport. "Fort Worth will see the best rodeo in the country," Gay said.

Special entertainment during the rodeo will feature a tribute to Buffalo Bill's "Wild West," presented by a group of talented professionals. The program will offer glimpses of America's Western past in a pageant presentation.

Rodeo tickets are available at the Will Rogers Coliseum box office daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. Tickets are priced at $6, $8 and $10.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Recently we visited with Kent Harvill, Texas Animal Health Commission Representative for our Cooke County area, about the status of Brucellosis in the county. It was encouraging to see that the infection rate in the county is extremely low with only two herds presently under quarantine. This brings to mind the Brucellosis Vaccination Program. Area veterinarians still have some funding to assist with vaccination of heifers. The vaccination program is the best single management practice available to producers to control this livestock disease. Livestock producers should continue to use the vaccination program even if it means a small additional cost would be absorbed by the cattle producer.

There are many advantages to vaccinated animals which include in some instances a freer movement in marketing and sale channels, an increased demand for replacement heifers that have been vaccinated, and the added incentive of cleaning up the state's herds. The vaccination is not 100 percent effective but it is the best insurance we have to eliminate and reduce this disease problem. Tests have shown that when infection is introduced into fully vaccinated herds, protection usually exceeds 90 percent.

Special effort should be made by cattle owners to vaccinate their heifers between four and twelve months of age and to retest eligible, non-vaccinated female cattle within 45 to 120 days of purchase. Remember, vaccination is a major step in keeping a herd free of Brucellosis.

The telephone information system operates seven days a week on a 24-hour basis.

Home fruit workshops to be held Feb. 4

Winter is the time when conditions are ideal for planting fruit trees. Many of the nurseries have a good supply of fruit trees recommended for our area. It is also the time when we need to think about pruning of fruits in order to open trees for sunlight and growth.

In preparation for these tasks, two Small Orchard Workshops will be held during the day on Wednesday, Feb. 4. Marty Baker, Extension Horticulturist, and Craig Rosenbaum, County Extension Agent, will present the workshops and cover topics of Varieties, Disease and Insect Control, and give a Demonstration on Fruit Tree Pruning.

The first session will be held at 2 p.m. at the LaVern Stewart Home in Gainesville. Persons attending this session should meet at the South parking lot by Tony's Seed and Feed Store on North Dixon Street at 1:30 p.m.

A second session will be held at Lindsay at the Weldon Bezner home at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 4.

If you need additional information, contact the County Extension Office.
