SELF-SUPPORTING STUDENTS

ONLY a few days remain before the opening of the Brownwood colleges for another year's work...

As a usual rule, the college students who are willing to earn their expenses during the school year are worth while in every respect.

Each of the college offices will be glad to receive and register offers of help to students, and will do everything that is possible to see that students of the right type receive the proffered assistance.

PROMOTION FOR BLANTON

AT BILENE the other day Thos. L. Blanton was given an enthusiastic endorsement as a prospective candidate for United States Senator against Earle B. Mayfield.

The Abilene admirers of Mr. Blanton were probably sincere in their rather vigorous endorsement, but there are those in this congressional district who might not be so whole-hearted in such an expression of admiration and confidence.

Mr. Blanton, of course, will be able to separate the grain from the chaff and to estimate Senatorial endorsements at their true value.

CAUTION IS NECESSARY

COUNTY officials here and elsewhere are endeavoring to enforce the state law prohibiting fraud through the medium of worthless checks by prosecuting offenders wherever evidence is available.

It was feared, when the "hot check" law was first enacted, that it might have the effect of facilitating the cashing of worthless checks, and that appears to have been one result of the statute's operation.

A ONE-ARMED FIDDLER

THE OTHER day we were privileged to see—and hear with much enjoyment—a one-armed man playing a violin.

Not many of us can imagine anything more difficult than to master the violin with but one hand and arm.

Contemporary Thought

AMERICANS AS SPENDERS

St. Paul Pioneer-Press: Americans are dollar chasers when they are on the job. When they are on vacation they are spenders.

What a tremendous amount of money to spend on pleasure! That depends on whether those who spend it can afford to do so.

Go ahead and spend that 70c! Winter is coming and it is a long time between holidays.

WHAT IS A HOME WITHOUT A WOODPILE!

Salem News: The boys of the large cities would be much better off if they had a woodpile to saw up after the old village fashion.

At the old-fashioned woodpile the country boy acquired physical development, the exercise strengthened his mind and made his muscles firm and powerful and taught him persistence.

Clubs for boys and young men also take the place of the woodpile to a large extent, by giving them a chance to cultivate their muscle and build up vigorous physical health.

Today's news in today's newspaper.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES F. STEWART

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Airplanes will be at least as common as motor buses within a couple of years at the outside, they think at the Commerce Department.

Secretary Hoover has a habit of thinking out his plans to the last detail before he says anything about them for public consumption.

It was thus with his plan for commercial aviation development. One day hardly anybody knew there was such a plan.

Establishing an air line is no such lengthy undertaking as building a railroad.

The commerce department must provide considerable ground equipment. Regulations will have to be evolved. But all this can be done rapidly, in comparison with the slow work of surveying a surface road, tearing down hills, building up hollows, constructing culverts, bridging rivers, laying rails and getting rolling stock in motion over them.

Of course, in a sense the government's aviation program will be worked out gradually, but where "gradually" means a matter of years from a railroad standpoint, it means only months from aviation's.

The necessary facilities being in readiness, the commerce department simply will say to private aviation interests:

"There are your landing fields, with all the conveniences and appurtenances that go with them. There are your beacons and sign posts. Here's your radio to communicate with planes in transit.

Well, all this government-provided equipment is, to an extent, a subsidy.

Besides, Secretary Hoover isn't the man to go as far as he has without having satisfied himself that private flying concerns—for he's dead set against governmental commercial aviation—can make money at it, know they can and are ready to go ahead with it.

Experts expect to see the plans cutting in decidedly, before long, on certain classes of railroad business.

Captain James V. Martin, one of the foremost of them, predicts, for instance, that not much more railroad business will be done in the future.

He thinks the present lines will be kept in repair, to handle such freight as coal and grain and pig iron, but he believes most of the passenger traffic and less bulky, weighty commodities will travel by the air before many years are past.

It will be economical, too, he contends, for the very reason suggested previously—a plane may be relatively expensive to operate, but it operates on the freest of all roadbeds.

As for the element of danger—"There'll be accidents, yes," Congressman Fiorello H. La Guardia, a very practical aviator, told me some time ago, "but no more—maybe not so many—as there are here below—railroad and automobile.

THE PARSON'S COLUMN

"A Thing of Shreds and Patches"

THE PARSON had another attack of "Don't-care-itis." He remembers that he tried some time ago to arouse sympathy by describing his symptoms.

So he writes it again. To begin with one is not in pain. If any one asks how one is, one replies, "Very well, thank you." But if one is lying in bed and thinks it is time to arise, it is too much trouble.

The Parson received two wedding cards during the last few days. The first announced the marriage of Mr. William Byron Johnson and the second that of Mr. Edward Lake.

TEXAS AND TEXANS

By WILL H. MAYES

More and Better Hotels The mention of Junction's new hotel in this column recently appears has started something in one way or another my attention has been called to the fact that hotels, and good hotels too, are going up all over Texas as if by magic.

Hillsboro has just formally opened a four story, 52 room hotel that cost $150,000. It is described as admirably located on the line of the interurban railway, and the Colorado-to-the-half, the meridian, and the King of Trails Highways.

San Benito, also in the Rio Grande Valley, has started the construction of a $200,000 hotel, which will have 80 rooms.

Weslaco, in the same section of the State, is to have a $250,000 hotel, a five story, 100 room structure.

Ray City, in Matagorda county, near the coast, a place which many Texans think was finished 50 years or more ago, but which is really a live town, is preparing to build a $125,000 hotel.

Brownsville is Texas' southernmost city. It was once regarded as a sleepy, lifeless burg with a manana spirit from which it could never be aroused.

Olney's Construction Program Olney is in Young county, of which Graham is the county site. Its newspaper is the Enterprise.

Teachers Are Resigning Following the announcement that the scholastic apportionment had been reduced to $11.50, after the tax rate reduction, 35 Travis county rural teachers resigned.

COUNTY'S VOTE LARGER THAN FIRST PRIMARY

The second primary election passed off quietly in Brown county. Out of a possible voting strength of something like 6,000 votes, about 5,300 votes were cast in the primary Saturday.

In the race for governor, Moody carried Brown county over Mrs. Ferguson by about 2 to 1. Pollard carried the county over Allred for attorney general by about 400 votes.

Hatcher carried the county over Ball for state treasurer by about 200 votes. Fred White was elected Sheriff over Carl Adams.

Charles Bynum was re-elected district clerk. J. R. Lewis defeated Riley Gotcher for the office of county treasurer, and thus comes back to the official position he last held about six years ago.

Oscar Swindle defeated Luther Cobb for the office of county superintendent.

Every box in Brown county reported by nine o'clock Saturday night, with the exception of the Hog Valley box. It was impossible to get the report on this box, and at noon Monday it was still out. The tabulation of the county vote by boxes cannot be made until this box comes in.

Leaving out Hog Valley, which cast 48 votes in the first primary, the vote in Brown county was as follows:

Don't Be Afraid of Having Too Many Votes

Rushing through the last few weeks in their final efforts for supremacy, candidates in the Banner-Bulletin's automobile prize campaign are racing swiftly and determinedly toward the goal as the "treasure chest at the end of the rainbow" comes in sight.

Throughout this entire section the news has gone forth that the golden horn is about to be tipped over and candidates, friends of candidates, father, mother, sister and brother are bending every effort so that their "favorite" may be declared the victor.

Present indications points to a hair-breath finish and, while it is certain that the winning votes will run high, it is also just as sure that the grand prizes will be won by a very narrow margin.

As a final warning, before the close of the third vote period, which ends at 9 P. M. September 18—don't be afraid of having too many votes. YOU CAN'T HAVE TOO MANY. It would be better to win the prize most desire by a big lead than to get left a few hundred thousand. IT'S THE FINAL BURST OF SPEED THAT COUNTS.

Program

The program at Amarillo is very fine. The following well known men are to deliver addresses: Col. Alvin Owsley of Dallas, former national commander of the American Legion; Wayne Davis, former department commander of Texas; Hanford McNider, former national commander and at present assistant secretary of war, and perhaps several others, as it is understood the committee on program have left open places for additional speakers.

NEW BUILDING IS NOW NEEDED TO PLACE FAIR ON SPLENDID FOOTING

Is Brown county going to have the best fair this year it has ever had? Will the people of Brownwood and Brown county get square behind the president of the Brown County Fair Association, W. J. Odell, and help him make the fair the best in the history of the organization? These are questions that are now worrying Mr. Odell, and he is anxious that they be answered in the affirmative within the next few days.

Interesting and entertaining nature the fair starts September 30 and runs 3 days, which will carry it in to the first week in October. There is just one way in which the Brown county fair can be made a success and that is for the people to get behind Mr. Odell and help him put it over, and it is as true as gospel that unless he has such co-operation he cannot make the fair the success it so well deserves. A mass meeting of citizens men and women, should be called at once and the matter should have the instant and hearty co-operation of all the people.

CATTLE MARKET NOT AS GOOD AS STOCK MEN WOULD LIKE TO HAVE

Reports are coming in from different and distant parts of the country where Brown county people have herds of cattle grazing and almost ready for the big markets. The reports are practically the same—steers in fine condition but market is unsatisfactory. Walter Taber who has been spending some time with his herd in Kansas is home for a few days. Mr. Taber is looking well, in fact he is getting stout, taking on flesh and if he isn't careful he and Earl Gill are going to be in the same class physically by and by. The news man will be in a pickle for making this remark, for he will now have to dodge Mr. Gill and Mr. Taber. But Mr. Taber is looking better than he has looked in many a year. He says the market for steers and especially for big steers is not at all satisfactory. However the outlook is better now than it was a few weeks ago and may get better as the season advances. Mr. Taber will return to Kansas in a few days.

BROWN COUNTY CONDITIONS

Industrial conditions throughout Brown county are very good. Viewed from different angles there are many reasons why the people of this section of Texas should be glad they are living in Brown county. Crops of all kinds are generally very good. There are exceptions to this rule, in that some localities have needed rain and did not get it, while other localities have been visited by the boll weevil, Mexican fleas, and other pests that harm cotton. The cotton crop in some sections of Brown county has been very high because of the visitation of the weevil and the fleas, while some localities have been in large measure practically free from the ravages of these insects.

Land being broken for sowing wheat when time arrives. Ricker—Very good cotton crop but some damage done by boll weevil and Mexican flea. Rain was also needed at a time when it would have done much good. Indian Creek—Cotton conditions much better than last year. Some damage to cotton by weevil and flea, but will be very good crop in spite of these pests. Thrifty—Very good cotton prospects. Oil excitement has probably interfered to more or less extent with agricultural development. At one period rain was badly needed and would have been of great benefit to the cotton crop as well as other crops. The crop is about as good as it was last year.

attention to raising hogs for market purposes that hog meat would continue to mount higher and higher, and the same is true as to beef. Unless Brown county pastures are well stocked with beef cattle the price of beef will continue to go higher and higher as time passes. Considerable attention is being given to the poultry industry and to all branches. It is said by those who are in position to know that the poultry crop of Brown county this year is much better than it has been in a long time. The outlook for a heavy pecan crop is very flattering. Pecans are about grown and practically every tree is well loaded with fine and well matured nuts. So far very little insect pest damage has been noticed. It seems that this is the year for a good pecan crop and so a crop of this kind will be harvested in due time. Generally speaking the industrial outlook in Brown county is very encouraging. Merchants are placing heavy stocks of goods on their shelves and banks all report excellent financial conditions. There is no reason why the people of Brown county should not be happy and prosperous from every point of view. NOTICE Monday, September 6th, (Labor Day), being a legal holiday, the banks of Brownwood will be closed. Customers will please be governed accordingly. The Citizens National Bank The Coggin National Bank The First National Bank The Brownwood State Bank. J. M. Medcalf, farmer residing near Byrds in north Brown county, was in Brownwood Tuesday and reported considerable losses of turkeys which have been killed by passing tourists. One auto driver Saturday morning accomplished the slaughter of nine turkeys, he said, adding that the driver stopped and pulled the heads off two turkeys that had not been killed outright by the car. Mr. and Mrs. Medcalf are both well advanced in years, and are largely dependent upon their turkey and chicken crop for an income.

Brownwood Building in Larger Volume Than One Year Ago

The building volume in Brownwood is larger than it was one year ago according to information from contractors and carpenters. While many new houses are under construction, there is also a considerable volume of improvement under way, and general repair work is in progress in many places. Lumber yards report very good trade, in fact, much better than it was at this time last year. The outlook is very good from an industrial point of view.

Her Wardrobe for College

Smartly Collegiate in Shop of Youth Fashions

College days! A whirl of teas, picnics and football games. The happiest time a girl can have, and yet, the most miserable if she doesn't have clothes. Clothes make the difference—the difference of being a leader or a recluse and a bookworm.

Her Lingerie
This is one thing she'll want plenty of—the sheer cobwebby kind for evening, and tailored, smart little step-ins and "teddies" for classrooms and every day. For study hours, a comfy, gayly colored quilted robe and pairs and pairs of very specially chosen college girl jayamas.

Her Hats
Here are vagabond felts with unbound, ripply brims for campus wear, modifications of mushroom models, and large brimmed felts and moires for shopping and formal teas. Snug little satin hats and the adorable tams of the hour, all designed for college girls.

Her Accessories
Their importance appals one—these little things that make a costume the center of attraction, gloves, handbags, handkerchiefs and belts.

Wool Jersey inter-pret smart versions in school frocks. Middy fashion, with all-over embroidered blouse — plain skirt. $15 to 39.75

Clever two-piece types in silk and wool, in crepes and novel fabrics, most flattering. College girls are choosing entire from these collections. $25 to $75

Mrs. J. W. Jennings gives special study to the assembling of College Girls' Wardrobe. She has just returned from the Style Centers of America. Her advice is freely given.
