

TODAY and TOMORROW

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

MINISTERS—Their job

I was asked to address a luncheon club composed entirely of ministers not long ago. They wanted me to talk about the world's economic troubles and how to cure them. I told them that I knew of no wholesale method of salvation, either in the spiritual world or the economic world. I am an individualist, and believe that the world gets no better than the men and women in it. I know the way of legislating honesty and morality into the human race.

I suggested to the ministers that the trouble with the world was that we had been worshipping the Golden Calf so long that we had forgotten the Golden Rule, and that it might be more to the purpose if, instead of interesting themselves in social reforms in the mass, they concentrated their attention upon the effort to persuade individuals, one by one, to live honorable, upright and moral lives. If everybody did that there would be no need for most of our laws.

CHILDREN—Place to begin

The way to make the world better is to begin with the children. By the time a child is ten or twelve its character, so far as its social relations are concerned, are pretty well formed. Either it has been so spoiled that it will never be any good or it has learned that there are certain lines of conduct which the world at large will not tolerate, and shapes its actions accordingly.

In an ideal social organization every child would be taught from infancy that it has no rights that are superior to the rights of everybody else. That is what liberty and equality simmer down to. If everybody realized and acted upon that principle, nobody would infringe on any of the rights of anybody else, and we wouldn't need any government at all.

TEACHING—A new system

Hiram College is trying out a new system of teaching, which sounds to me to be so rational that I wonder it has never been adopted before. Instead of skipping from one subject to another, students are given intensive study in a single subject for a long period, then another and so on.

It seems to me that a thorough mastery of one subject can be got in this way better than by a series of scattered hours, interrupted by the need to prepare for work in other courses. And I don't see why it wouldn't work in schools far below college grade.

I welcome every new educational experiment, because I believe none of the systems evolved so far is as good as it ought to be or could be.

FACTS—And facts

Nothing is harder to get hold of in this world than facts. I heard a man say the other day, in a public address, that there are twenty million men out of employment in this country. A few hours later I heard another speaker declare that all the farmers in the United States were starving. I knew neither of the statements were true, but I don't

Bitten By Skunk, Mrs. Moore Takes Rabies Treatment

Mrs. A. M. Moore, residing west of town, was bitten on the hand by a skunk on Tuesday afternoon of last week when she went to investigate a setting hen. When she reached into the nest the skunk buried its teeth into her hand, having already routed the setting hen.

Mr. Moore, who was plowing nearby, was summoned and killed the skunk and carried it to the Knox County Hospital at Knox City for examination, and Dr. Edwards advised that the head be carried to a laboratory at Fort Worth, where an examination revealed positive evidence of rabies.

Mrs. Moore is being treated in the hospital at Knox City and the complete treatment will require three weeks with daily visits to the hospital.—Munday Times know where or how to get at the facts as to the number of unemployed or the number of distressed farmers. My main reaction to such an exaggerated statement is that probably everybody is lying about them.

Nothing is more misleading than bare facts, either. A fact is not enough unless one knows all the other facts that go with it.

Most of us know too many facts that aren't so. By that I mean that we don't understand the relation of the facts we know to other facts we don't know. I have long since stopped trying to draw conclusions from single facts. The conclusions usually turn out wrong, because someone comes along with a fact I didn't know.

Moffett Again To Seek Election As State Representative

GEORGE MOFFETT

The Post is authorized to announce the name of George Moffett, of Chillicothe, as a candidate in the coming Democratic primary, for the office of State Representative, from the 114th District, composed of Hardeman, Foard, Knox and King Counties. Mr. Moffett is the present incumbent in this position, and during his service at Austin has come to be recognized as one of the leaders in the House of Representatives. Newspaper dispatches from Austin have frequently mentioned his activities in connection with legislation beneficial to this part of Texas.

His statement follows: "In announcing for re-election to the office of Representative from the 114th District, I want to express my gratitude for the confidence the people have placed in me in the past. Such confidence would cause any man to work that much harder in the struggle at Austin for the best interests of the people of his home District. The facts are that a man always has to work very hard at Austin to get any appreciable consideration at all for our section of the State. The seat of government and the great centers of population, are a long way from us, and for that reason we are not generally given the recognition that is given the larger centers of population, where there are more votes, or that is given to that part of the State nearest the Capital. In two consecutive sessions of the Legislature I have almost single handedly blocked bills, which were sponsored by members from large cities, that would give these large cities a much larger voice in the making of the laws, under which we all must live, than they now have, and I think the large cities have too much already.

"Among other things I have favored the policy of keeping the State's general expenses down to a reasonable figure. With this in mind, I became joint author of a bill in the 42nd Legislature, which reduced the State's property tax rate from 77c to 69c on the $100.00 valuation. This bill passed and was signed by the Governor. In the 43rd Legislature, I became the author of a bill which would have reduced the State's property tax rate from 77c to 57c on the $100.00 valuation. This bill passed both branches of the Legislature by a substantial majority. In my judgment the tax on property is too high.

"I have always favored a suitable and ample State scholastic apportionment for school purposes, as the various school districts usually need

Cattle Sales Brisk In This Section

Charles Moorhouse reports the following cattle sales made recently by him: Whitsell Cattle Co., Canadian to S. B. Wallace of Baylor county, about 1750 head of stock cattle.

He also resold the same deal to Stribling Inc. at Rotan.

Moorhouse and Dolan to Farr and Dameron at Seymour, 46 steer calves.

P. W. Laird to Pete Wallace of Baylor county, 22 head of steers.

Coleman Moorhouse to the Farmer ranch in Archer county, 42 two year old steers.

Truscott 4-H Club Hold Regular Meeting

The Girl's 4-H Club of Truscott held a meeting in the high school building March 8.

Miss Faulkner gave some useful information on the bedspreads that are to be made this year. Several lovely designs for the spreads were exhibited.

The meeting adjourned and the next meeting will be held March 15 at the same place.

Each girl is to bring her plan for a garden.

the money and the state can usually raise it better than the local districts can. I have several times voted to transfer additional revenue into the school fund and have several times voted against revenue being transferred out of the school fund. During the depression the Texas Legislature has managed to provide better financial assistance for its public school system than the Legislatures of many other States have done."

"In the regular session of the 43rd Legislature, and again in the Special Session just closed, I was the author of a bill to reduce the license fees on cars. Each time the bill passed the House of Representatives by a large majority but failed to pass the Senate. In my judgement license fees are too high. Other states have a cheaper license fee, why not Texas? When I saw there was no chance of getting a general bill through, and being anxious to help the farmers who have been hauling cotton to the gin in old worn out trucks, I next proposed a special bill to reduce license fees on light trucks used by farmers for hauling their own products. I finally got this bill passed and it is now the law and it should give some relief.

"There are 150 members in the Texas House of Representatives, and 31 members in the Senate. A majority vote in each branch is necessary to pass a bill, therefore it is easy to see that nearly all laws are a compromise of various viewpoints.

However, as stated above, is has been my purpose to try to secure legislation favorable to the best interests of the people of this part of Texas.

"I expect to canvass the District before the primary and certainly will be glad to meet and talk with the people of the various communities that make up the District, and I will sincerely appreciate your vote on election day.

GEORGE MOFFETT

OBITUARY

Mary Etta Lyons was born in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, in 1863. Her parents came to Texas when she was quite small and located in Wise county.

In 1878 she was married to James Riley Craig and to this union was born ten children, three of them dying in early childhood and the eldest, Mrs. Lee Coffman, died in 1913. Surviving children are Henry Craig, Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. F. E. Moorhouse, Mrs. Homer Barham, Mrs. Van Browning, and Mrs. Seth E. Wood and one sister Mrs. Duke Rushing of Norman, Okla. Their many friends extend their deepest sympathy to the loved ones that are left behind. Mrs. Craig was united with the Christian Church in 1890.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig were among the early settlers in Knox county coming here in the spring of 1885 before even the county was organized. Mr. Craig contributed liberally to the first school built in Knox county. Their first summer was spent in a camp on China creek two miles west of where Truscott is now located. By fall lumber was freighted from Harrold, Texas which was then the terminus of the Fort Worth and Denver R. R., to build their house on the ranch. There they made their home putting all of themselves into that home, wresting it from the lobo wolf, the panther, and their forms of wild life. It is to such early settlers as Mr. and Mrs. Craig that we owe our gratitude for our present day country which is such a pleasant place in which to live. Those early settlers gave of their young manhood and womanhood to make our country what it is.

When the children were old enough to go to school Mr. and Mrs. Craig lived in Benjamin in winters.

Since Mr. Craig's death six years ago Mrs. Craig has had a gradual decline in health and was in bed constantly since last September. She realized her condition and left many kind and loving messages to her family and friends. One so oft repeated to her daughters was to form a chain unbreakable except by death and let the only added links be ones reaching upward, visit the sick, visit the widows and orphans, in short do all the good you can to all the people you can, such links would lead to heaven where she would be waiting to be with them forever and ever. Every neighbor was remembered in her message given when she barely had strength for a word at a time. Everyone who ministered to her in her last days was remembered and to her family she left the sweet consolation that "All is well, don't grieve for me."

The esteem in which Mrs. Craig was held by her friends and neighbors was lovingly shown not only in wanting to take care of her through her months of suffering but in one of the most beautiful floral tributes the writer has ever seen. The room, her last resting place at her home, was a perfect bank of lovely flowers (which she loved so much during her life) and they formed a complete blanket of loveliness for her and her husband in their last earthly resting place.

Location Made For Oil Tests Northwest Goree

Reports from those who are interested in the oil test to be made here state that drilling is to start within the next twenty to thirty days. The location has been made and the machinery and derrick timber should be on the ground in a few days.

The first location will be on the W. L. Moore land near the northwest corner of the Goree townsite.

A Mr. Christie of Olney will have charge of the test, according to present plans.

Other oil men have been in the territory during the past few weeks and it now appears like this immediate section is facing a drilling boom. While it is too early to make any prediction, the local people are becoming enthusiastic over prospects.—Goree Advocate.

Munday To Have Fast Club With Opening Season

Munday will go into the Wichita Valley league this year with probably the strongest line-up that ever has been put forward at the beginning of a season, and, according to Skipper Lee Haney, who will pilot the Munday aggregation, active training will begin around the last week in March.

Locals who will form the nucleus of the team include James Rayburn, Glenn McGlothlin, Lennie and Shorty Kuehler, Chested Smith, Joe Bailey, King, Lefty Hambright and probably Jake and Aubrey Myers all of whom have performed within the ranks of the Munday line-up in the past and are capable of offering strong competition. Among the new faces that will be found in the line-up this season there will be Fifty Bilbrey, who will be assigned to first, Bill Yates, Bob Couch and Lawrence Wilde, and the pitching staff will likely be strengthened by the addition of Lambeth. Other players who will be in Munday uniforms during the season are Lester Miller and Casey Rankin of Rotan. Of course some of the above named may not be included in the roster, but they are tentative prospects.

H. D. CLUB.

"I am getting the 4-H pantry now so that I can put them on before I place the containers on the shelves of my pantry," said Mrs. L. M. Melton, 4-H pantry demonstrator in the Gillespie Home Demonstration Club.

"My pantry will probably be in the house since it will take so much to improve the cellar just now," she also said.

Mrs. Melton is making a hotbed and plans to lay 200 or 300 feet of concrete tile for sub-irrigation. "I believe I will be able to raise enough tomatoes so that I can standardize tomato juice," said Mrs. Melton. This is one of the goals for all the 4-H pantry demonstrators this year.

4-H GIRLS PLAN GARDENS

"I plan to lay 50 feet of tile and plant tomatoes on it. I want to have plenty of tomatoes so I can can my 50 containers as our goals call for," said Martha Brown, Rhineland 4-H Club. "Other than tomatoes I plan to have 7 other varieties of vegetables in my garden," said Martha.

This is just an example of what the 33 4-H club members in the Rhineland club are planning to do in their garden demonstration this year. More than half of these girls plan to lay at least 25 feet of tile and raise an average of 7 varieties of vegetables in their gardens this year.

ITINERARY OF JEWELL FAULKNER, DEM. AGT., FOR 3rd WEEK IN MARCH

Monday—Office.
 Tuesday—Sunset girls, Hefner 4-H clubs.
 Wednesday—Dixon, Gilliland 4-H clubs.
 Thursday—Expansion, home visits, visit demonstrators.
 Friday—Rhineland girls, Munday women.
 Saturday—Office.

SUNSET 4-H CLUB

Once again the 4-H club girls met with Miss Faulkner, Home Demonstration Agent. There seems to be too many dropping this club work on account of school classes, but if this work isn't more important than one English, Spanish, or arithmetic lesson, we don't know what is. One lesson missed out of two weeks may cause a pupil to miss something out of the class, but if he pays strict attention to the club work, as we all have to do, he learns much more than he missed in some other lesson.

At this particular meeting the previous preparation of the hogs head and the canning of mince meat were discussed by two teams. Jimmie Lois Frasure and Dolly Nix, one team, and Mary Helen Partridge and Maragret Shannon, the other team. As they will soon be judged, the better team will go to the Lubbock Meat Show to represent Knox County. The club girls took notes and gave advice to the speakers which will benefit the girls in their speaking and demonstration.

After this demonstration plans made by the girls on their spring gardens were discussed. One particular girl has at least a good idea. Hazel: "I've arranged so as not to be caught by any drought this summer."

Miss Faulkner: "What have you done?"

Hazel Lain: "Planted onions and potatoes in alternate rows. The onions will make the potatoes eyes water and so irrigate the soil."

The Texas State Department of Health has repeatedly advocated periodic physical examinations for the general public, as it is during these examinations that many incipient diseases may be discovered and treatment begun in time to stop its development to such a degree that treatment will no longer be helpful. Many deaths and much suffering would be eliminated if everyone would have this periodic check. In the case of food handlers, only the diseases that are communicable will withhold the issuance of a certificate. The cost is money well invested and the consuming public should demand that those they buy from have this evidence of good health.

In 1921 making it mandatory for those who handle food to obtain a health certificate from a reputable physician. This law intended to eliminate all persons having any communicable disease from handling any foodstuff. These certificates must be renewed every six months.

Typhoid fever, diphtheria, amoebic dysentery carriers have been found numbers of times working in cafes and other places where food is prepared or offered for sale. It is not too much for the consuming public to demand that those who sell their food shall be free from communicable diseases. If the examinations for food handling are properly carried out much good will be accomplished in protecting the health of the buyer as well as giving the applicant for a certificate information as to his physical condition.
