Storms Hit Area Cause Hail Loss

Dimmitt Farm Reported Hit By Small Twister

Thunderstorms towering nine miles high rained, hailed, and blew their way through the Hereford area Saturday afternoon, causing some heavy crop damage and spawning a tornado which swooped down just outside Dimmitt to wreck three small farm buildings.

Dropping only light rainfall on Hereford, the storms which circled the city beginning about 2 p.m. brought severe weather in damaging proportions to Summerfield along with more than two inches of rainfall in other portions of the county.

A twister, confirmed by a Deaf Smith County sheriff's deputy at 4:40 p.m., destroyed a barn and two sheds on the Homer Newton farm three miles west of Dimmitt, but caused no other reported damage.

Post Office Slates Move To Temporary Space

Hereford Postmaster Nolan Grady announced Thursday that the Main Street building formerly occupied by J. C. Penney Co. has been leased to serve as the temporary post office during remodeling and extension of the Hereford Post Office.

Grady said tentative plans are to move to the temporary building next weekend.

Work is expected to begin on the $218,132 expansion of the post office on Wednesday, Grady said.

Contractor for the project is Everett Mitchell Construction Co. of Sherman.

The work is due to be completed by May 1967.

ABSENTEE BALLOTING CONTINUES THIS WEEK

Absentee polling for the June 4 Democratic Primary and the June 11 county bond election continues in the county clerk's office this week. Deadline for voting absentee in the second primary is Tuesday, while absentee voting continues through June 7 for the bond election.

No one was injured. The southbound twister, described as "a small one," dipped back into the ominous black clouds shortly thereafter, reports said.

Hereford law enforcement officials launched an all-out weather watch as storms approached, but the funnel at Dimmitt was the only one reported.

HAIL DAMAGE at Summerfield and other areas along the southern Deaf Smith County border was believed to be heavy in some spots, with all crops above ground showing some signs of the marble-sized pelts.

Torrential rainfall and high winds caused additional injuries to fields and crops, although only young cotton and perhaps some vegetables were wiped out in a small area centered by Summerfield, six miles southwest of Hereford.

RAIN in downtown Hereford from showers Saturday afternoon and Friday totaled less than a quarter-inch.

U. S. Weather Bureau officials at Amarillo described the cells in the Hereford area Saturday afternoon as "real dandies" with tops as high as 45,000 feet.

The area had not been under a severe weather alert until storms developed.

ASKED IF the storm which spawned the reported tornado at Dimmitt had given any hint of such a content on the weather bureau radar scopes at Amarillo, a meteorologist replied, "Our radar gave us no warning that the storm had anything in it."

In the city of Dimmitt, only a quarter inch of rain was received and there was no hail or high winds, a resident told the Brand.

Group Favors Bonds

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Governmental Affairs Committee voted Friday to recommend passage by voters of the June 11 county road bond election.

Stamping approval on plans to construct some 30 miles of road in the county through the $450,000 bonds which would be issued by the county, the committee made the recommendation after hearing county commissioner Donald Hicks outline details of the proposal.

IN AN UNRELATED motion, the committee also passed a recommendation that plans be expedited for providing farm truck by-passes around Hereford.

Commissioner Hicks, in outlining the bond issue proposal, said that absolutely no increase in taxes would result from the county's issuance of the $450,000 in bonds for the project.

The committee, in a motion by Melvin Jayroe which was seconded by Andrew Kershen, voted to recommend to the chamber board of directors that the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce endorse and urge an affirmative vote for the Deaf Smith County Road Bond issue to be voted June 11. It passed unanimously.

Hicks told the committee that early collection of funds in the past to retire a 1949 county road bond issue makes it possible to cease taxing for that issue after this year.

THEREFORE, he said, the bonds which would be issued for the currently pending issue would

MARKER DEDICATION SET

Pioneer Day Monday

Annual Mid-Plains Pioneer Day brings an anticipated 500 early Deaf Smith County residents together again Monday in activities designed solely to allow reuniting of past acquaintances.

Headquartered for the first time in the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn, Pioneer Day activities get underway at 9 a. m. with registration.

TWO ACTIVITIES sidelight the Pioneer Day activities, A

Texas Historical Marker commemorating the former Panhandle Christian College will be dedicated at 3 p. m. on the Hereford High campus and the Hereford High School Class of 1919 Reunion will be held later in the day.

Residents of several states will be on hand for Pioneer Day, according to Ezra Norton, president of the Mid-Plains Pioneer Association.

Joining pioneers on the program will be sons of the first teachers at both the first Hereford school and Add-Ran College, as well as the son of one of the first attorneys in Dimmitt.

Dr. Joe Clark, Huntsville, son of Randolph Clark — one of the founders of the college which existed here from 1903 until 1912, will be one of the dedicatory speakers at the marker dedication ceremony.

Hereford Mayor Ray Cowser, son of pioneer Dimmitt lawyer Mark Cowser, will welcome guests to Hereford and Pioneer Day.

Dave Martin, Boomfield, N. M., son of the first teacher at the first Hereford school, will give the response.

MANY EX-STUDENTS of the college will be on hand for Pioneer Day and will attend the marker dedication ceremony, including Mrs. Doug Shirley, whose husband directed the college during its first year of operation.

The historical marker, located at Union and Avenue G, is the fourth official Texas Historical Marker to be erected in Deaf Smith County.

The marker stands on a base constructed from brownstone from the college building.

Paisano Lions Get Charter During Banquet Ceremony

Hereford Paisano Lions Club received its charter in a Friday night banquet as members pledged "work towards the betterment of the community."

More than 70 persons were present for the ceremony, highlighted by the presentation of the charter and an address by the Texas Lions Clubs secretary.

WITH 21 CHARTER members and a total membership of 24, the Paisano Lions were presented their charter by Lions District 77-1 Governor J. W. Robinson Jr.

Joe Soto, Paisano Lions Club President, accepted the charter on behalf of the club, saying, "The men of Lionism are men deeply concerned with the welfare of their country and their community — serious minded men whose goal is to make the community better."

"THE MOTTO of the Paisano Lions shall be 'We Serve,' and it is with deepest gratitude that we accept this charter and the opportunity to lend a helping hand in the betterment of our community," he asserted.

Prior to receiving the charter, the club had already completed one of its first projects — that of contributing $250 scholarship.

FOR DROUGHT AID

Emergency Loans Extended By FHA

Deaf Smith and Oldham counties are among six Texas counties designated Friday as disaster areas and made eligible for Farmers Home Administration loans for an additional year.

The announcement was made by Congressman Walter Rogers and Senator Ralph Yarborough.

THE EXTENSION was granted because of severe drought conditions. Extension will be through June 30, 1967.

Other counties were included in the eastern portion of the state due to recent damage from heavy rains and flooding.

Local farmers and ranchers interested in taking advantage of the loans at three percent interest should contact James Gouley of the local Farmers Home Administration office.

portions of the county near Hereford have recorded slightly above-average rainfall during the period.

Emergency loans had previously been approved last June 30, 1966.

Businesses To Close For Memorial Day

Hereford City Offices, the Post Office and the court house will all be closed all day Memorial Day.

Numerous businesses in Hereford will also be closed for the day.

The board will invite representatives of all clubs in the county to participate in the meeting.

RURAL ELECTRICITY helps America grow...

Placing power lines where they are needed is fun for a child, but it is a big job for the nation's power industry.

Today, consumer-owned electric systems such as ours serve 54% of the rural population, and the demand doubles every seven years.

Meeting the rising power needs and preparing for tomorrow takes the best efforts of the entire power industry. In our area we are proud to be carrying our share of the load.

Rings Reported Stolen From Car

Rings valued at 1,000 were reported stolen from the automobile of Mrs. J. W. Robinson this week.

MRS. ROBINSON told police that the rings were taken from her car sometime between Wednesday morning and Friday.

She said that she took them off and put them on the handle of a small hair brush and put them into a small basket on the dashboard of her car Wednesday morning.

Friday she discovered that the rings and the brush were missing from the basket, but a number of other articles, of value, were not bothered.

The engagement ring has a one-half carat center stone with three small stones on each side of the larger one.

Six diamonds are mounted in the heavy platinum wedding ring.

Total weight of the diamonds is one carat.

"For several years, we had dreamed of organizing some type club," Soto said, "and when we were approached to make it a Lions Club, we were thrilled at the thought of joining the world's greatest service organization," Soto remarked.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Tom Kirkham, state secretary of Lions International, from Austin.

Kirkham challenged the Paisano Lions to follow the example set by Lions clubs throughout the world, pointedly illustrating his address with the description of one of many Lions Club humanitarian gestures.

PAISANO Lions, who meet the second and fourth Mondays, are also sponsoring a recreational program for Labor Camp residents, along with a summer baseball program for older teens and young men from throughout the area.

Officers of the club include Soto vice president Abel Ortiz; second vice president Noe Salinas; third vice president Elov Valdez; secretary-treasurer Paul Abalos; Lion Tamer Bobby Hernandez; and Tail Twister Richard Esquivel.

Among others on hand for the dedication will be Mrs. Charles Woodburn and Mrs. L. E. Dudley of Amarillo, members of the State Historical Survey Committee, which sponsors the historical marker program.

Also being held in conjunction with Pioneer Day is a reunion for the Class of 1919. See story inside this issue.

Some 15 of the 30 members of the class are expected to be present for reunion activities Monday afternoon and evening, according to Mrs. Corinne Neely, reunion chairman.

LISBON (AP) — Portugal's neighbor Spain has more residents living here than any other nation.

The Spaniards, mostly engaged in the tourist and hotel industry, number 8,000. Many of them own fashionable cafes and nightclubs.

The British take second place with 2,100 residents, and accord Lisbon's Diario Popular, "they acquired beautiful houses on the sea, made their own clubs and made their own circles nearly impenetrable. At the same time, appreciating fine beverages they helped the fame of port wine by buying big wineshops in the north."

German residents come third down the list, Popular reports, with its 1,700 residents mostly occupied in industry. Americans are fourth ranked in this country of 9 million persons, mostly depending on U. S. government agencies or being millionaires in the resort of Estoril. They number 1,400.

The French come fifth, with 1,300 residents, "mostly engaged in commerce and returning at least once a year to their own country."

Diario Popular says about 19,000 foreigners have a fixed residence in Portugal.

ONE-MAN GANG CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.

Fast thinking and a loud voice gave Police Capt. Bill Nelson the edge over burglars who were ransacking a house here.

He arrived on the scene alone, raced to the back of the house and yelled, "I'll cover this door." Then he sped to a window at the middle of the house and shouted "I've got this window." Then he made loud noises on the front porch.

"Come out or we'll turn the dogs on you," he shouted after other officers finally arrived. There were no dogs.

The burglars, unaware that it had been a one-man show all along, fled out with their hands up.

Don't Just Sit There! Help!

By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

Mrs. Henry Sears and Mrs. George Turrentine are busy getting the museum plans completed. In fact, they have gone further than plans, they are at the elbow-grease stage. They need some volunteer help, so why not offer your help?

CLOTHING GOAL: Every resident develop poise by being well-dressed. It looks like the Clothing Shortcourse will be fine. Call EM 4-3573 if you want to take this course. It's at 2-4 P. M. on June 7, 9, 13, 14, 16, 21 and 23.

Mrs. Barbara Truitt, Amarillo College and Woodie McDermitt are two resource persons on the program. Orpha Click and Morris Means have cooperated with the committee. People are so nice.

These programs are for everyone. Several have asked if they are just for home demonstration women and 4-H members.

Everyone is invited to participate.

Miss Lucy Givens is retiring from school teaching and moving to Dallas, her former home. She has been a good citizen and neighbor while in Hereford. Much luck and happiness, Lucy.

TO DEBORAH JESKO: There is a very good colored picture of you at the office. You may have it if you come by. This is Deborah's favorite food and makes a lovely display.

MRS. J. M. LANKFORD called to ask about peach tree borers. There is information in MP-685, Peach and Plum Insects and L-245, Texas Guide for Controlling Insects and Diseases on Fruits and Nuts.

In brief, spraying with dieldrin early in June and mid-August: Borers enter the tree from the ground and near the top of the soil, but soil treatment is done in the fall. Keep trees in healthy growing condition and free from wounds, borers appear in over-crowded orchards.

Mrs. Lankford has been a home demonstration club member for more than 40 years. However, since moving here she hasn't been active.

A CALL FROM Mrs. Lee Conaugh asking for treatment for formicidae, red specifically. In our language, red ants. They can be nuisance to people and animals and too, they will eat a lot of grass.

So, dust or spray with chlordane, dieldrin, and heptachlor. Call for L-199, Texas Guide for Controlling Insects and B-203, Home Lawns. Ants can destroy grass seed in the ground and prevent good stands.

GET YOUR SEWING equipment ready for the Shortcourse. This is a first aid idea for the steam iron.

When tap water is used in steam irons, deposits of calcium and other minerals are almost certain to form, say Extension home management specialists at Texas A&M University. These deposits usually lead to spluttering irons, drops of water splattering on clothes and disgruntled housewives.

To correct this problem, follow these simple directions: Dissolve one tablespoon of a easy dissolving packaged water softener in one cup of distilled or demineralized water. Fill the iron with this solution and let it steam for five to ten minutes, shaking it constantly during this time.

Empty this water and fill the iron with a mixture of two tablespoons distilled white vinegar to one cup distilled water. Let the iron steam five to ten minutes, again shaking constantly. Pour off this water and rinse the iron with distilled or demineralized water.

Don't neglect to shake the iron while you're steaming it clean, remind the specialists. This is the secret to success. If this does not completely clean the iron, repeat the procedure.

The Extension specialists suggest cleaning your iron every two months to keep it in proper working order. They advise using only distilled or demineralized water available at most drug or grocery stores, in steam irons.

RIGEST OF IDEAS from Keys to Better Management, a newsletter compiled by Extension Home Management Specialists. The Federal Trade Commission has been investigating the 'cents off' promotional schemes in the sale of some items bought weekly. This investigation came about as the scheme had become practically a permanent thing.

One producer reportedly told the FTC it had a 10-month supply of cans on hand earmarked for cents-off promotion. "Truth-in-packaging" sponsors cite this example as proof of the contentions that cents-off on cans does not necessarily mean cents off anything.

A comment made in the skit for club programs: "7 cents off? 7 cents off of what? Off of yesterday's price? Today's price? Or tomorrow's price?"

The home demonstration clubs are having skits in June on "Will The Real Economy Size Package Please Stand Up?" It's a take-off on packaging.

'NATIVE SON' REVIVAL 'NEW YORK' — One of the major dramas on Broadway a quarter century ago, "Native Son," is slated for revival next fall.

The play was adapted by Paul Green and Richard Wright from the latter's best-selling novel and was originally directed by Orson Wells.

Producer Sidney Bernstein has tabbed John Berry for the new staging. Berry performed in the original presentation and later directed a company for national tour.

in the High School auditorium and again to a capacity crowd.

Apparently there is no building in Hereford large enough to seat the crowd desiring to attend these important events.

Many people, discouraged by the lack of seating at the football field, did not remain for the commencement exercises. Others stood along the ends of the bleachers. Parents were fortunate enough to be seated in the stands, while friends who came early found seats on the "chicken roosts" along each end of the main bleachers. All, we're sure, were somewhat less than comfortable during the program which lasted more than 1 1/2 hours.

Even the remodeled Bull Barn, we're told, is not large enough to handle a crowd of this size, estimated at about 2,000 people.

We suppose that's one of the problems of a growing city — you're always in need of something new. But we believe this would be a good time to start a movement for a municipal auditorium — a big one.

Lion Bill Gentry surprised everyone, including himself, at the Charter Night Banquet of the Paisano Lions Club Friday by making his presentation to the club in Spanish. Those present who spoke the language fluently got a few chuckles out of his mistakes, but everyone appreciated his efforts. Bill learned to communicate in Spanish by talking to his farm hands, many of whom could not speak English.

Paisano's Boss Lion Joe So to also left quite an impression on the audience with his charter acceptance speech — one of the finest we've ever heard. We're predicting that this little Lions Club will go a long ways in Hereford.

And speaking of Lions, a story elsewhere in this paper tells about two current projects of the Easter Lions Club. The Easter Club is also a new club for this area, being organized only last year, but it is emerging as one of the strongest and perhaps the "loudest" in the entire district. It already has over 60 members which would be phenomenal for a new club in a city as large as Hereford.

First of all, the Easter Club is going to hold a light bulb sale Wednesday with proceeds to be used towards their goal to build a community building at Easter. This would be an all purpose structure for meetings of all types, including the meeting of the Easter Lions Club.

The other project — a drive to make Easter, Texas the Purple Martin Capital of the Panhandle, and that has nothing to do with J. F. Martin.

Purple Martins are birds — whose only diet ingredient is flying insects. Somebody came up with the figure one time that an average Purple Martin will eat 2,000 mosquitos or similar flying insects a day.

Now don't throw up your hands and quit at this stage of the game, there's more to come.

The birds migrate from the northern U. S. to Brazil yearly, and fly right over the Hereford area.

What the Easter Lions are trying to do is to get the birds to light around here and stay awhile — and eat all the insects they want.

Getting skeptical? When Bill Waldrep first told us about the Purple Martins, we were ready to call the "little man in the white jacket" to take him away. But take the case of Griggsville, Ill., now called the Purple Martin Capital of the World.

Residents of that town have erected thousands of Purple Martin "Apartment houses" and the birds spent the spring and summer there every year.

The city has done away with its summer insect eradication program — 'cause the Purple Martins have eaten all the insects in those parts for the past several years.

So much so, in fact, that they don't use one whiff of insect spray at their sizeable livestock show there each fall.

The Illinois town attracted the birds by erecting thousands of attractive birdhouses — along practically every street. And in the downtown square stands the "Empire State Building of the Bird World" — where there is room for more than 500 Purple Martin families in a 75-foot tall "high rise apartment building" for the birds.

So, the Easter Lions have followed suit and are conducting a sale of attractive aluminum bird houses especially designed for Purple Martins.

At Easter's "main intersection" stands a 24-apartment structure for the Martins.

Believe it or not, Purple Martins are mighty particular about where they take up residence, and this can be proven scientifically, said Roy Botkin, Boss Lion for the Easter club.

Tests show that the Purple Martin apartment houses on sale by the Easter Lions will end up with Purple Martin occupants 10-to-1 over any other type of birdhouse.

A similar drive is underway in Houston.

Officials at Griggsville, Ill., which has received world-wide publicity for the birds' visits there each year, have said that the birds' riddance of the area insects has created just one problem — it has been so effective that in recent summers it appears the Purple Martins are hunting some place where the flying insect population is more plentiful and someday they may not return to "The Purple Martin Capital of the World."

The Easter Lions have films telling the story of the Purple Martins and Griggsville which they would be happy to present to area clubs interested in learning more about the fascinating birds, Botkin said.

And that's the story of the Purple Martins. It took a long time before we mustered the courage to tell it, but it's the truth to the best of our knowledge. In fact, we'll probably buy a "Purple Martin apartment house" and put out the "for rent" sign soon.

These mosquitos are killing me.

The average husband's trouble we're told, is that he is in the middle-income, upper-out-go group.

Welcome folks, to the big Mid-Plains Pioneer Days celebration.

WIPE OUT KILLER SHARKS
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Killer sharks must be attacked and wiped out, says a South African expert.

Merely taking protective measures against them is a defeatist attitude, according to Professor J. L. B. Smith after years of studying sharks.

The first reaction in South Africa to fierce wild animals, such as lions, had been to build enclosures which they could not penetrate, he said. Long and bitter experience had proved, however, that real security was attained only by ruthlessly wiping out any of these animals that intruded where man lived.

"We must seek some methods by which the shark can be eliminated as a danger. This may at first sight appear an impossible task, but it is no more impossible than that achieved by the Brazilians who succeeded in wiping out the yellow fever mosquito which had spread over the whole of their vast and difficult land."

We're glad you could come our way.

FROM McMURRY COLLEGE

King's Manor Director Gets Honorary Degree

ABILENE — Rev. Donald Davidson of Hereford received the honorary Doctor of Humanities at commencement ceremonies in McMurry College May 24. Dr. Davidson shared the spotlight with two other prominent Methodists, Speaker of the Texas House Ben Barnes and Rev. Richard C. Stone of Carlsbad, N. M.

Barnes, who delivered the commencement address for the 123 graduating seniors of McMurry, received the honorary Doctor of Laws, and Rev. Stone received the honorary Doctor of Divinity.

THE-CITATION recommending Rev. Davidson for the degree was read by Dr. Vernon Henderson of Amarillo. Dr. W. B. McDaniel, vice-president of the college, joined McMurry's president, Dr. Gordon Bennett, in hooding the candidates.

Singled out for special honors during the awarding of degrees to the 1966 graduates were recently named winners of two special awards and three seniors who were graduated with high honors.

Introduced by Dr. Howard L. Ramsey, dean of the faculty, as winner of the Harry Soladay Memorial Award, which goes annually to the outstanding senior, was Jimette McLean of Friona.

Melvin Ronald Hamby of Big Spring was recognized as winner of the John and Beth Hicks Award, given annually to the top pre-theological student.

Recognized as "magna cum laude" graduates were Donna

Officers Picked For New Term In Band Aides

Band Aides, the supporting organization for Hereford High School Band, elected officers this week, naming John Aikin president to succeed Melvin Young. The group will recess during the summer, meeting on call next September.

Other new officers are Mrs. Hicks Roberson, vice president; Mrs. Ted Higgins, secretary; Mrs. Albert Maxwell, treasurer; Mrs. Glenn Walker, reporter.

Mrs. Chester Wiggins has served as vice president the past term, Mrs. Maxwell secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Edgar Vinson reporter.

Moore of Abilene, Betty June Redden of Abilene, and Kathryn Dord Lewis of Deming, N. M.

Dr. Davidson is a 1934 graduate of McMurry College. A member of the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church, he has pastored churches in Westover, Idalou, White Deer, Munday, Hereford, Levelland, Andrews and Asbury Methodist Church in Lubbock.

In 1960 he was assigned full time duties in promotion of homes for the aging. Rev. Davidson was instrumental in organizing a charitable foundation, Ideas Eternal, through Mr. and Mrs. Larry Moore of Wisconsin. Many scholarships for college students have been provided by this foundation and much of the money to building King's Manor has come from this foundation.

Rev. Davidson was named citizen of the year at Hereford's Chamber of Commerce banquet Jan. 20.

Walter F. Johnson of Abilene, vice chairman of the college's Board of Trustees, read Dr. Barnes' qualifications for the honorary degree, and Dr. Stone's citation was read by Dr. Lloyd Hughes of Carlsbad, N. M.

Mission Bus Project Gains In Stamp Total

Officials at St. Joseph's Mission have reported receiving contributions of more than 300 books of savings stamps thus far in their drive to collect 3,200 books for the purchase of a new 66-passenger bus for the mission.

Bro. Chris, who is in charge of the project, said that "if every family interested in the project could contribute two books of stamps, we could make our goal."

He pointed out that the mission will accept all kinds of trading stamps, which will be traded for S&H stamps to purchase the bus.

Stamp contributions may be left at Hi-Plains Savings & Loan First National Bank, and Hereford State Bank. Anyone having stamps for donation to the project may have them picked up by calling the mission at EM 4-0368.

"We think it is wonderful that people are willing to help so we can get a new bus for the kids," Bro. Chris said, "but we are still far short of our goal and would welcome all the help we can get."

ONE MINUTE, PLEASE

THE CHURCH I LOVE ... IS THE IMAGE (LIKENESS) OF CHRIST. (36th. in a series).
"And we all, with unveiled face, beholding (reflecting) the glory of the Lord, as being changed into his likeness (image) from one degree of glory to another;" (2 Corinthians 3:18).

We do not know the physical features of Christ, nor is it important. But we do know the spiritual qualities and characteristics of the Son of God, and it is all important that we take on his spiritual likeness and image.
Christ is the Son of God; and it is important that we become children of God. This we do when we experience the "new birth" of being-born of "water and the Spirit." (John 3:3-5).
Christ was without sin. We may get our past sins removed. The apostle Peter told the multitude on Pentecost, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." (Acts 2:38).
Jesus described himself as "meek and lowly". "He humbled himself becoming obedient." The Lord had compassion for all men. "He went about doing good." He did the will and work of his heavenly Father, not his own. His heart was filled with love. If we are to be Christ-like (this is the meaning of the term Christian), we must take on these characteristics of the Christ. We must be in his likeness, his spiritual likeness, reflecting his true light; then, we also become the "light of the world." (Matthew 5:14-16).

Easter Lions Set Light Bulb Sale

Easter Lions Club members will be in the major Hereford supermarkets Wednesday with an ample supply of household light bulbs for sale.

In one of two current projects being conducted by the Easter Lions, Wednesday's light bulb sale is being staged to raise funds towards a proposed community center at Easter.

PACKAGES of eight bulbs (two 60-watt, two 75-watt, and four 100-watt bulbs) will be sold for $2 each at Coopers', Taylor and Sons, Safeways, Furr's, and Piggly Wiggly supermarkets. The sale will be conducted throughout the day during store hours Wednesday.

In a separate project, with proceeds also earmarked for the Community building, the Easter Lions have available birdhouses designed especially for Purple Martins.

Roy Botkin, president of the club, said that the Lions hope to get out enough of the attractive aluminum Purple Martin houses to attract the birds to the area each summer.

"The Purple Martins are particular about where they live and will not stay in an area unless there are man-made homes for them," he pointed out.

WHY THE Easter Lions would like to see hundreds of Purple Martins live in the area during the summer is illustrated in the case of Griggsville, Ill., "Purple Martin Capitol of the World."

This city has erected hundreds of Purple Martin houses like the ones being sold by the Easter Lions. The birds go there annually.

Purple Martins' only food is flying insects. Eating as many as 2,000 mosquitoes and other insects daily, Purple Martins rid the city of its theretofore sizeable insect problem.

The birds migrate from the northern U. S. to Brazil annually, and are said to fly right over the Hereford area.

The Lions hope to sell enough of the birdhouses prior to next spring to entice the birds to take up residence in the area, Botkin said, explaining that the birds prefer to live in the aluminum houses manufactured in Griggsville and available through the Easter Lions Club.

Cite Statistics Concerning '65 Cycle Mishaps

During 1965 in Texas there were 70 deaths and 25 injuries resulting from motorcycle, motorscooter, and motorbike accidents.

Motorcycle accidents resulted in 54 deaths and 22 injuries. Thirty of these motorcycle deaths were involved in collisions with automobiles, seven with trucks, 13 with driver losing control, two with another motorcycle, one with a train, and one from a falling telephone cable.

MOTORSCOOTER accidents resulted in 14 deaths and 10 injuries. Eight of these motorscooter deaths were involved in collisions with automobiles, four with trucks, and two with driver losing control.

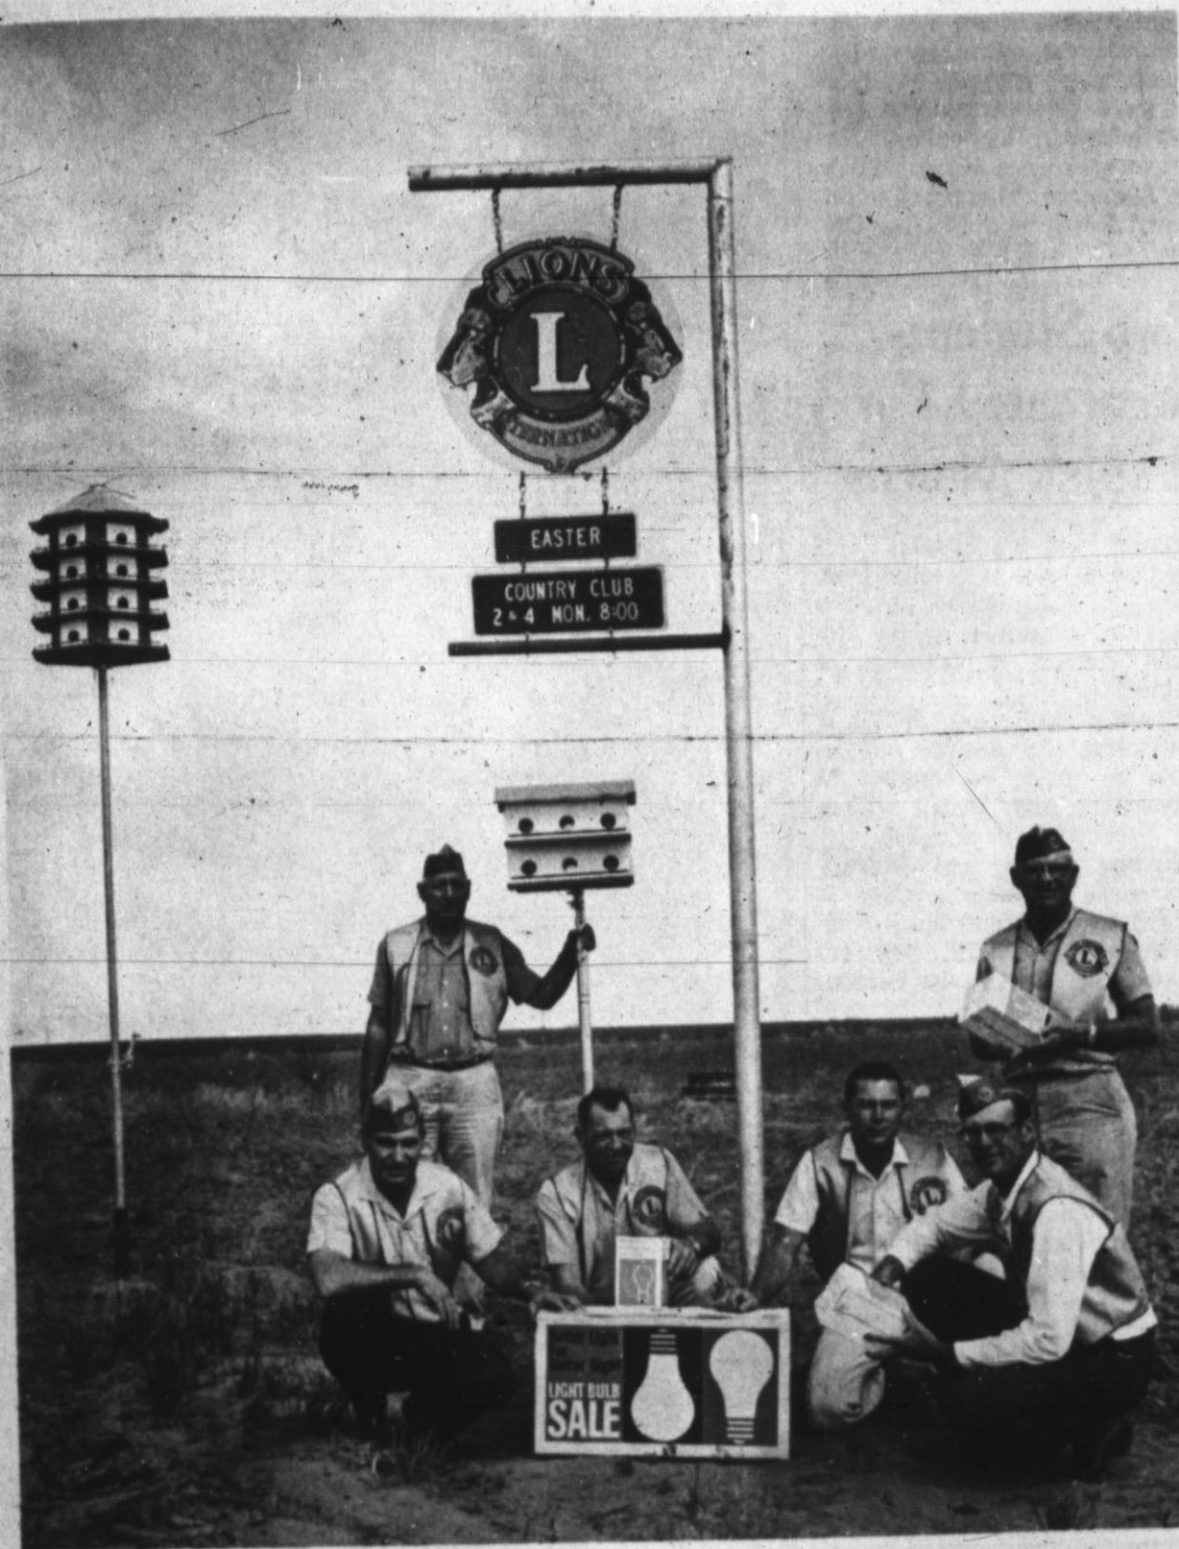

Motorbike accidents resulted in two deaths and one injury. These two deaths were due to the motorscooter colliding with trucks.

The greatest number of these deaths, 13, occurred in Harris County. Dallas County had ten deaths; Tarrant County, nine deaths; Jefferson County, five deaths; Bexar and Gregg Counties, three deaths each; Nueces and Travis Counties, two deaths each; and 23 counties, one death each.

Potter, Randall, and Castro Counties of the Panhandle area had one death each.

LOOKING TOWARD TRIP — Program for the annual convention of Texas Business and Professional Women's Clubs, with a cover typifying the Alamo City where it will be held next weekend, is surveyed by Lucille Edwards and Kathleen Baker, who will be delegates from the Hereford Club. They will leave Thursday, going to San Antonio by chartered bus with B&PW members from other clubs of the Panhandle, and are due to return next Sunday. Mrs. Baker, in whose home the two are pictured, is completing in June her term as president of Hereford B&PW Club and will be succeeded by Ursalee Jacobsen, the current first vice president.

PROPOSED BUILDING SITE — Easter Lions Club members will be selling light bulbs in Hereford supermarkets Wednesday to raise funds for a proposed Easter Community Center, to be built on this tract located at the intersection of two FM highways in the community, located some 13 miles south of Hereford on FM 1055. In a separate project, the club has Purple Martin birdhouses for sale in a movement to encourage the insect-eating birds to take up residence in the area. Hey Gang, Look...!

Jim's Got Another Victim And There's That Photographer Again!

We're really making the news around City Barber Shop. The only trouble is we're having to pay the regular advertising rates for it. But that's okay. After all, we've thrown away the old shaving mugs and we're really stepping out as Hereford's A-1, Modern barber shop. We have vacuum tubes now to keep the clippings off your neck while you're getting clipped, and now ol' Jim Cherry has put in this "hair styling emporium" right in the back of our shine. We'll clip you — Jim will "style" you — and Snow ball will shine what's left. It's the greatest thing since hair oil.

That's Darrell Rose in the chair — fastest dj ever to spin a record over KPAN, FM and AM partner — that FM stands for Fine Music — but anyhow "Rosie" as he is generally known, is about to get the works. Notice the part in his hair? That's "Doc" Cherry standing behind him.

Now ain't that pretty? No part in the hair. And Jim was so gentle in his handling that "Rosie" nearly went to sleep in the chair. Or is that the new sophisticated look? (Had a little trouble with that word). Anyhow, if you want the modern look just call the boys at City Barber Shop and let us "give you the works".

MORE PLAYERS NEEDED

American Legion Ball Tryouts To Be Extended

Tryouts for the American Legion baseball team have been extended an extra day and will be held Tuesday at 6 p. m. at Whiteface field.

DURING THE tryouts last week, only 13 boys tried out for the team.

Manager, Johnnie Haney, said that in the past years that there has been more boys try out than can play, but this year, there seems to be little interest.

If there are not more boys who try out Tuesday, according to Haney, Hereford will not be able to have a team this year.

HEREFORD HAS fielded an American Legion team every year since 1961 and during that time the teams have all won either first or second place in their division in the district.

Haney reminded the boys that the American Legion team is a good place for those boys who would like to get some playing experience for high school ball.

The program is set up for boys aged 15-18 to play on the team.

Members of the team will play 12 games during the season which starts June 4 and concludes July 9.

THERE ARE seven teams in the southern division of the district, they are, Hereford, Canyon, Tulla, Groom, Amarillo Sandies, Amarillo Tascosa and Amarillo Carver. At the end of the season the first and second place winners from the northern and southern divisions of the area district will clash for the district championship.

Teams in the northern division include, Pampa, Borger, Dumas, Perryton, Amarillo Palo Duro and Amarillo Caprock.

The Hereford Redbirds are in the 18th district in the American Legion competition.

HANEY IS the manager for the team, Rocky Lee is coach and Bill Phillips is the score keeper.

All games played in Hereford will be either on Saturday or Sunday afternoons while some of the out-of-town games will be played on week-days during the evenings.

The schedule is as follows:

OVER HOLIDAY WEEKEND

Festival Slated At Lake Meredith

Borger, once billed as the industrial city of the Panhandle of Texas and still serving as the gateway to the newest irrigation field in the nation has taken on a nautical theme.

THE CITY and the entire population of Hutchinson county long known as a part of the so called dry or cold belt in Texas have decked themselves out in full dress as admirals and seamen.

Not so strange when you consider the fact that the city's newest title is Fish Fry Capital of the World, so named by a nationwide fish supply firm.

A year ago the fish fry, scheduled Saturday, June 4, served 10,000 people fish and all the trimmings in a unique aluminum dome coliseum during a seven hour period.

IT APPEARS this year that the 190-man fish fry crew will serve upwards of 20,000 during the same amount of time.

The World's Largest Fish Fry, served in the Panhandle of Texas where water has been scarce since the beginning of time, let alone fish, is the major attraction to the Lake Meredith Festival which opened here Saturday.

A Main street parade, a giant carnival midway, the first Lake Meredith Fishing Rodeo, a dance and increased attendance at Lake Meredith, only last year opened to public recreation under the direction of the National Park Service marked the opening round of the Lake Meredith Festival events.

A golf tournament over the Phillips Country Club course was to end Sunday, a kids dog show, featuring something in excess of 300 entries, continuation of the carnival and again lake-side fun was scheduled for today (Sunday, May 29).

Memorial day activities centered at the Lake where the fishing rodeo was to conclude at midnight. Entrants were required to possess a pre-purchased rodeo entry permit at a booth in the Sanford-Yake recreation area and a Texas fishing license where applicable, to participate.

MONDAY AT 8 p. m. a giant fireworks display and dances by the Boy Scout Indian Dancers from this district were to perform at the Sheriff's Pose arena in Johnson Park, near the coliseum and carnival midway was planned.

About activity is scheduled to resume again on Thursday when the All-Civic Carnival, featuring midway booths from all city civic clubs, church groups and women's clubs as well as rides, entered into the real home stretch.

A huge outdoor all-sports show complete with fishing, hunting, camping, boating and other sports oriented equipment goes on display beginning at 4 p. m. Thursday.

ANOTHER festival highlight is scheduled at 7:30 p. m. when the Miss Minnow pageant, a beauty contest for young ladies 4-5 years of age is unveiled in Borger's high school auditorium.

Friday's activity includes the sports show and carnival along with the Miss Lake Meredith beauty pageant which features a prize list twice the value of the Miss Texas pageant. The local beauty contest is sanctioned by the Miss American and Miss Texas Pageants committees.

Saturday is "the big day" in Borger's festival schedule. The sports show and carnival wind up their runs, the World's Championship Frog Giggling Contest is scheduled for 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. sessions — the 15-year old High School Sophomore girl who won a year ago is already entered — A skeet shoot at Frank Phillips Men's Club Lake opens at 9 a. m., the World's Largest Fish Fry begins serving at 11 a. m.; the Miss Lake Meredith finals will unfold in the Borger High School Auditorium, and a sports fashion show for the ladies is scheduled at 11:30 a. m. and runs through 1:30 p. m. with Miss Texas as hostess.

Sunday, the Borger Boat and Ski Club put the climax to the activities with a water carnival at Sanford-Lake recreation area.

AP SPORTSWRITER SAYS

League Discriminates Against Footballers?

By HAROLD V. RATLIF Associated Press Sports Writer

Two of the three referendums of the Texas Interscholastic League this year rediscriminate against football. It has been this way for a long time and obviously will continue.

Schoolmen have a fear of over-emphasis and since this comes only in football — the paying sport — naturally football is discriminated against. There is no rule prohibiting practicing all sports except football the year round.

ONE OF THE points voted upon was to curtail basketball practice. But it failed. The question was whether the words "before or after school" should be deleted from the rule outlining the basketball plan for both girls and boys basketball.

Had this been voted it would have killed year-around basketball practice because it would have left the rule on basketball to read: "There shall be no organized or formal basketball practice prior to Oct. 1, 1965, or after March 12, 1966." With "before or after school" inserted, it would mean that while before or after school, there could be practice during school.

THAT'S THE WAY with most of the referendums — they couldn't be worded direct like: "Do you favor basketball practice during school hours?" The schoolmen always approach the thing from the other direction and leave the voter to figure for himself what the difference is.

However, the schoolmen did put it on the line in one instance and it was quite refreshing. It also was an instance where football was treated on the same plane as the other sports. This rule — voted for overwhelmingly — bars football, baseball, basketball, volleyball or track on Sunday. It also says there can't be formal practice or teaching plays, formations or skills in these sports on Sunday.

AS USUAL, a loophole was sighted by the football coaches — or they thought it was. When the State executive committee of the League interprets it, this loophole probably will be plugged forthwith. Anyway, it doesn't say a coach can't show films of games to his players on Sunball in for year-around instruction. This might fall under the "teaching plays, formations and skills" clause.

But the referendum of the mo interest just continued the clamp on off-season football practice.

Actually, it wasn't a direct vote on a rule but was to reinterpret what the state committee already had interpreted.

UNTIL A COUPLE of years ago the coaches could use a football in physical education classes to teach the skills of passing and kicking. But the committee interpreted the rule to exclude the teaching of football plays, formations or skills and said no football equipment may be issued, used or worn.

A football was not specified among the equipment but since no skills could be taught anyway it didn't matter.

Some of the coaches asked for a referendum that would allow the teaching of any sport in the P. E. classes but the League took the view that this was aimed specifically at getting football, so its advisory council decided to ask for a reinterpretation, but with no chance of voting in any type of instruction in football. This carried by a 3-to-1 margin. A football is specified among the equipment banned. So everything is covered.

There seems little question but football is discriminated against. Actually, it is a compliment to the game — it's just too popular for its own good and that makes the public want to run it. Schoolmen look with horror on such a prospect.

Annual Pass Available To Federal Play Areas

Operation Golden Eagle, the Nation's new program to maintain and preserve America's heritage, offers all citizens a direct opportunity to contribute substantially to conservation of natural resources through purchases of $7 Golden Passports valid at more than 7,000 Federal recreation areas, including Buffalo Lake.

The program, "Use, Enjoy, and Help Expand Your Great American Outdoorsland," states the purpose and the need for the project. The Golden Eagle theme was selected because the eagle symbolizes the out-of-doors to most people.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS expect Operation Golden Eagle to produce $13 million this year for the Land and Water Conservation Fund. Together with an estimated $100 million from other sources, money from the sale of Golden Passports will provide grants to States and their cities and counties to increase outdoor recreation opportunities.

A portion of money from the Fund goes for authorized Federal recreation purposes, including acquisitions for seashores, recreation areas, National Forests, Parks, and Wildlife Refuges.

While providing a needed and worthwhile contribution to the Nation's recreation requirement the 1966 $7 Golden Passport offers an attractive "bonus" to the purchaser in that it will admit the holder and everyone in his car to 7,000 Federal recreation areas any time during the year ending March 31, 1967.

Individuals purchasing a $7 Golden Passport by mail from the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, Box 7763, Washington, D. C. 20044, will receive a Golden Eagle Family Award Certificate suitable for framing and a handsome Golden Eagle lapel insignia.

GOLDEN EAGLE $7 permits also may be purchased at most Federal areas where they are valid for entrance, at county offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, at local offices of the American Automobile Association, Tennessee Valley Authority, and at field and headquarters offices of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, Forest Service, National Park Service, Bureau of Reclamation, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Bureau of Land Management, at a number of State offices, and through several private conservation organizations.

Locally, Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge has been designated as one of the Federal recreational areas. The yearly permit or a $1 daily permit may be purchased at the refuge office 8:00 a. m. — 4:30 p. m. on Monday through Friday.

For convenience of the public, on Memorial Day weekend permits may be purchased at the Concession building Saturday and Sunday from 1:00 — 5:00 p. m.

Sports

Football and baseball probably are the two biggest spectator sports in the country today — nearly every weekend — millions of people throng to see either one or the other of the two sports.

IN THE FALL it is not uncommon for professional teams to have attendance in the 50,000-100,000 range while colleges have 20,000-75,000 persons watch as the teams clash on the gridiron, as well as the millions who attend high school games.

As spring rolls around people begin to get baseball-minded. They swarm to the major and minor league stadiums as well as to the high school and Little League fields.

But Monday, probably one of the biggest listening audience assembled will have ears tuned to the Indianapolis 500-Mile Classic.

SEATS FOR spectators usually are sold out for this event in the early fall and many people camp out over-night to get good seats for the Memorial Day Classic.

It is probably the most widely publicized racing event in the world.

We feel the owners of the speedway should sell television broadcasting rights to one of the three major networks — after all seats are sold.

Many, like ourselves enjoy the races and would like to see them, although it is out of the question.

SOME SAY there is always the chance someone might have a bad accident in the race and exposing millions of people to sudden death — via television.

But, we feel after being exposed to such programs as Batman, The Adams Family and some of the "soap operas" on television today we could take anything that might happen in the Indy 500.

We would like to point out that in the past five or six years in the speedway history, only one man has died as a result of an accident in the race — another was burned and was in critical condition for weeks, but later recovered.

MANY Hereford residents have been pulling their boats and camping trailers out of the garage — cleaning them up and getting them ready for some summer recreation at the area lakes.

Sunday, both Lake Meredith and Buffalo Lake were buzzing with activity and many boating fans.

Now that school is out many families will take to the highways for camping and boating trips.

In the past few years the Panhandle of Texas has become more of a place for people to "get away from things" for a while. WITH THE addition of Lake Meredith to the facilities and the new Harbor Bay project coming along the possibility of area residents taking a vacation and not getting too far from home are increasing rapidly.

Pala Duro Canyon has some excellent camping grounds which are designed for those who come to spend the night.

Nice rest room facilities have been provided as well as a water supply.

THE Amphitheater provides excellent entertainment without leaving the canyon.

A long weekend provides enough time for local people to see one of the wonders of the world — Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico.

This trip is well worth the time it takes and will provide four hours of wonders one will never forget.

Of course, for those of you who have just an afternoon of relaxation — the local golf course or swimming pool can more than provide enough recreation.

WE HAVE been on a number of golf courses over the area, but can never remember seeing one in as good a shape as the Hereford Golf Course.

The greens are in excellent shape and the fairways are all green, although the lack of rain seems to be drying things up.

Work is now underway to provide better recreation at the golf course with new grass being seeded on the northside of the field.

HEREFORD residents should consider themselves lucky to be provided with such an excellent golfing facility.

We also noticed that a number of pools around the city will be opening Wednesday providing children as well as adults with a great deal of summer recreation.

Red Cross officials will also be providing swimming lessons for children during the summer at the public pool and we cannot emphasize the need for youngsters to learn to swim enough.

ARIZONA IS LOADED

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — When Arizona opened spring football practice in mid-February 22 let-terms turned out, plus nine transfer students who will become eligible to play next fall.

The transfers are ends Jim Greth and Fritz Greenlee, guard Mike Lanagan, center Bill Nemeth and halfback Paul Wargo of the Air Force, end Mike DiBiase of Omaha, linebacker Ed Ragone of Rutgers and halfbacks Bob Young of Southern California and Matt McVane of Miami, Fla.

Golfers

Tee Off

WARM SPRING DAYS bring out the leaves of trees along Tierra Blanca Creek and the grass on golf course greens, also some of the most attractive golfers on those grounds, members of the Women's Golf Association of John Pitman Municipal Course. The feminine golfers play twice monthly when the weather permits, and invite any other women interested in golf to join their association for the games and luncheons at Hereford Country Club. Some of the members reporting for a morning round are pictured here.

ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT, Mrs. Joe Easley, moves a ball into position for a shot on the putting green adjoining the pro shop, top picture. Hereford Country Club building, and swimming pool are in the background.

ON HER WAY to make the next shot, Mrs. S. S. Dodson smiles from a canopied motor cart as she prepares to follow her ball.

Miss Caperton Bride In Evening Ceremony

Miss Carlette Caperton and Jimmy Ray Messer exchanged wedding vows in an early evening ceremony Friday in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church, where a sunburst of greenery backed arrangements of white and yellow flowers and candles at the altar.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Caperton, 120 Juniper, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Messer, Route 1.

The Rev. Bill Burton, pastor of First Baptist Church at Friona, conducted the double ring service in which the bride's father gave her in marriage.

Massed greenery and baskets of yellow gladiolas and white stock flanked the bench where the couple knelt. Candelabra were set among the foliage, holding white tapers which Carl Richard Bell of Lubbock and Ernie Messer of Amarillo lighted before the ceremony.

Mrs. Richard Bell, sister of the bride, attended her as matron of honor and Mrs. LeRoy Fulford as bridesmatron. Both are Lubbock residents.

Wayne Reinart was Messer's best man, Roger Westberry groomsmen, Randy Stubbs of Farwell, Phil Caperton of Lubbock and Sammy Caperton of Odessa were the flower girls; rings were carried by Raymond Bell of Lubbock.

A medley of wedding music was played by Miss Barbara Willis, organist, who also played traditional marches.

Styled with simplicity, the bride's gown of white embossed peau de soie had a long-sleeved fitted bodice and slim skirt belled at the floor-length hemline. A chapel train was attached at the waist by a narrow band fastened with a Dior bow at center front.

A coronet of sequins and seed pearls held the illusion veil, puffed high on the crown, which fell over her shoulders. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums centered with an orchid and wore a necklace set with a single diamond. Her luck-piece was a white silk handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Rebecca Burrell of Erick, Okla.

Yellow dotted Swiss made the attendants' frocks, also floor-length, which they wore with white gloves and slippers. Their headpieces were yellow bows with puffs of white net and each carried a long-stemmed yellow rose.

Before they left on a trip to scenic spots in New Mexico and into Old Mexico, the couple greeted wedding guests at a reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Mrs. Ira Lee Burrell of Odessa was at the registry table; Mrs. Kenny Messer of Amarillo and Mrs. Dorothy Collier served refreshments. A double-tiered wedding cake topped with bride-and-groom figurines was the center of interest on the table, which was covered with white lace over yellow.

For travel Mrs. Messer wore an ensemble, a white textured silk coat lined with yellow polka-dot crepe matching the fabric of the sheath dress. All accessories were white.

After June 1 the couple will be at home at 606-A Ireland Ave.

The bride was graduated from Hereford High School in 1965, after attending Lubbock schools to her senior year. She was a student at West Texas State University the past term and plans to return for sophomore work.

Employed in the construction firm operated by his father, Messer also expects to enroll at WTSU. He completed his education in Hereford schools as a graduate with this year's class.

Out-of-city guests in addition to those in the wedding and reception parties were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gladens of Houston and Ira Lee Burrell of Odessa.

uncles, J. C. (Dick) Vaughn of Amarillo, came over to join the family party.

Mrs. Anthony and Ronald took Col. Vaughn to the airport at Amarillo last Sunday to take a plane to San Francisco. He was due to report Monday at Hamilton AFB.

HAVING A NAME misspelled in the paper is bad enough, but when it is a bride's new name it is worse. Sharon West, formerly of Hereford, is Mrs. Gene Berland, not Buland, since she recently married a Colusa, Calif. resident. (Note to the proof-reader: Check this one twice, please!)

—Small Talk—

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Not long ago a club reporter ended a telephoned account of her organization's meeting with, "That's all we did. Except —" with an apologetic note she continued, "We don't want to brag, but could we give a little report about finishing our welfare project?"

DON'T WANT to brag? Why not, when it's about something worthwhile? Evidently my hope to give adequate publicity to all service projects of women's clubs has not met with success, if a reporter at the end of the season can ask that question.

Of all sorts of club publicity, reports of welfare work, community service and other efforts for the general benefit of humanity rank the very highest in my estimation.

A club which simply reports all year that it met, ate and had a "lovely" program, but fails to let the public know that it did something for someone else, has missed justifying the space it takes up. People like to read about service projects, so newspapers like to write about them.

ONE CLUB HERE which has kept its service project to the front all the past year is L-Allegra, and you'll be hearing more about it through the summer, when clubs are supposed to be resting.

It "adopted" a 14-year-old resident of Giristown at the beginning of the year, and has assisted her through a painful period during which she had spine surgery and lay in bed for weeks recovering. Now able to be up and about, she is expected to be out of her cast next month.

L-Allegra members have not only helped financially, but have visited the pretty girl, become acquainted with her, written to her and taken her gifts. And they become interested enough in the town for girls that they are extending their aid, and will take linens, clothing and food for the general use of the residents when they make their next visit Tuesday.

General chairman of the welfare committee is Betty Pickens, "pushed," she says, "by Naomi Schroeder." Mrs. Schroeder is the club's new president.

MR. AND MRS. Tom Vaughn and Mrs. Ida Clay of Tacoma, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schulz of Concord, Calif. are visiting relatives here and in this area for a few weeks. They have been guests of Mrs. Ronald F. Matthews, who is a sister of Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Clay and Schulz.

Mrs. Clay has spent a good deal of the time in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Irving Willoughby. The Vaughns visited in the home of his nephew, Carlos Vaughn. Mrs. Schulz's sister, Mrs. Lucille Starkey of Amarillo, has been over to visit her.

THIS IS ONLY one chapter of a related story of visits. The other concerns more guests in the Carlos Vaughn home. Col. J. M. P. Vaughn, better known to some Hereford residents as Mutt Vaughn, was here last weekend from Hamilton AFB, Calif.

His trip was prior to a move to Hawaii and other bases in the Pacific. He expects to be in Saigon in July.

His mother, Mrs. Ida May Vaughn, makes her home with Carlos Vaughn. His sister Ruby, Mrs. John Anthony of Elida, N. M., brought her two sons and their families to Hereford to visit him while he was here. The Anthony sons are Ronald and Fred, both of Elida.

HHS Class Of 1919 Will Assemble In Special Event Of Pioneer Day

Concurrent with the annual Mid-Plains Pioneers Day Monday, Hereford High School's class of 1919 will hold a reunion and the local planning committee has received acceptance notes from 30 members, their wives or husbands, and two former teachers.

After registering, attending the morning program and picnic lunch with the other old-timers at the County Bull Barn Monday morning, the 1919 grads will assemble at Community Center for an informal get-together from 2 to 5 p. m., then have dinner at 7:30 at the Cason House.

Serving as co-chairmen of arrangements for the reunion are Corinne Jowell Neely and George B. Stambaugh. Other class members who still reside in Hereford, and who are assisting with plans, include Madge Bradley Roberson, Jeff Roberson, Lena Bodkin Olson, Burcie Bradley Rose and Louie LeGrand.

Those living in other cities, who have been active in promoting the reunion are Frankie Mae Baker Nunn of Tecumseh, Okla., Caldwell Hicks of Garden City, Kan. and Dorothy Boardman Gray of St. Louis.

Teachers who have indicated that they will be present to greet their former pupils are Miss Frances Dameron of Hereford and Mrs. Roberta Wilson Humphries of Clovis, N. M.

This year's reunion is being staged as a "trial run" for a 50th anniversary class reunion three years from now, Mrs. Neely says.

Moore-Hassell Vows Are Spoken Saturday

The marriage of Miss Barbara Moore and Ricky Wayne Hassell was solemnized Saturday evening in St. Anthony's Catholic Church, where the altars were decorated with baskets of yellow gladiolas, yellow and white pom-pom mums. The Rev. Alexander Beaton was officiant.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Bobby Short, 317 Ave. B, and Neil Moore of Pine Ridge, S. D. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stansbury, 413 Ave. J.

Her sister, Miss Carol Moore, was Miss Moore's maid of honor and Floyd Neill acted as best man. Miss Gwynn Albracht was the bridesmaid, Mike Ranspot groomsman and J. Don Poarch usher.

Wedding music was by the Rev. James Salvi, who played organ selections and sang solos.

As her father gave the bride in the double ring ceremony, she was lovely in a gown of lace over white satin, the redingote skirt shaped back to reveal tiers of lace spread widely over taffeta petticoats, the figurine bodice cut with cameo neckline and long sleeves.

A lace mantilla was draped over her dark hair and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

After the ceremony wedding guests were entertained at a reception in the church auditorium. Misses Barbara Rhodes and Randy Hopson served punch and the decorated cake, which was circled with yellow sugar roses.

Flowers like those which decorated the church, formed a centerpiece with candles in the same shade. The white cloth was overlaid with lace.

Miss Denise King presided at the guest registry.

Leaving for a short trip, Mrs. Hassell wore a navy lined dress accessorized in white. The couple will return to a home at 108 Ave. J.

The wedding came only two days after the bride's graduation from Hereford High School. Hassell, graduate of a previous

Hard Times And Good Recalled By Pioneer

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Hard times seem to be recalled most often when talk turns to pioneer days in Deaf Smith County, but Clara Brady Shore prefers to recall the good times, when rain was plentiful, pastures were green and cattle fat, and when she rode across the prairies as a girl on her strawberry roan, Prince.

A MEMBER OF one of the earliest ranching families to settle in the county, Mrs. Shore has happy memories of childhood around the turn of the century, school days that began in a one-room building, social life for a young lady and busy days as a wife and mother, helping her husband build up their own ranch.

She is the daughter of L. R. Brady and Ollie Womble Brady. He had come to the Panhandle to work as a cowboy in 1881, fled on land, bought cattle and started his own ranch and helped organize the county in 1890 before their marriage.

Mrs. Shore laughs as she says she would have been the first white child born in the county except that her birth occurred in Amarillo, but she was certainly among the first children to live here.

HER FATHER and four partners had 21 sections of land under fence east of Hereford at the time of his marriage. He had built a two-room adobe house after living for a time in that customary abode of the plains pioneer, a half-dugout.

Later, additions were built on both sides to the adobe rooms and the whole was stuccoed to make a roomy, attractive ranch home where the family lived many years. Since she began painting as a hobby a few years ago, Mrs. Shore has painted that house as she remembers it from childhood.

With another early-day rancher, Pat Jowell, her father bought 17 head of registered Hereford cattle at Emporia, Kan., and put them in the Brady pasture where Veterans Park is now located.

THE RAILROAD was being constructed through here then; workers and visiting Santa Fe officials stayed at the Brady camp. A railroad official, standing one morning in the doorway and looking at the herd of fine cattle, remarked to the others, "Why don't we just name this town for those beautiful cattle?"

That was the way Hereford got its name, Mrs. Shore says, as a name was being sought after the postoffice department had rejected the suggestion of Blue Water because another Texas town already had that name.

Trips to Amarillo to buy ranch supplies are among Mrs. Shore's happy memories. The family would travel in a buggy; a wagon would go along to bring back the purchases. It was a three-day trip by an old road which cut across the open range land, and "we had the best time!" she says.

BEFORE THERE was a post-office at Hereford, there was one to the east on a ranch, the old Clary place, and whenever anyone went for the mail he would bring back a sackful — for all the residents in his neighborhood. Neighboring assistance of that type was common in the sparsely-settled county.

Clara Brady started school at Dawn. The Jowell girls, who lived a mile west of the Brady place, would come by and take her with them, horseback. After a one-room schoolhouse was built in Hereford she attended classes in it.

Martin as the teacher.

HIS THREE CHILDREN were among the pupils, who included Claude and Ezra Norton, Mamie Inman and her two brothers. Mrs. Shore recalls. Later she went to school in the four-room frame building where Central School is now, when the well-remembered early teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Overstreet, were teaching.

Spelling bees, in which she once proudly "spelled down" her uncle who was a few years older than she, were special events in school, Mrs. Shore says. Another favorite extra-curricular activity was debate, and there were Literary Society programs with recitations, reading of original compositions and dialogues.

But the most fun was on April Fool, when the pupils always planned to "play hooky" and perhaps spend the day at the creek. She tells of one April Fool when only a few pupils reported at school, so the teachers took them all on a picnic.

THERE WAS NO formal graduation exercise, but after Mrs. Shore completed studies in the public school she attended old Hereford Christian College a year, then went to Kidd-Kay College at Sherman.

In 1907 she met L. H. (Lan) Shore, who came here from Kansas City, and the next year they were married. He was just getting established in the cattle business when the blizzards of 1911 dealt them a heavy blow.

Shore went out to check on his stock one morning and found 37 calves which had frozen as they huddled together. He had a small shed for his horses, and the snow blew in and drifted so they had to be dug out of the drifts. He reached the shed by holding to a fence for a guide from the house.

MRS. SHORE SAYS the blizzard struck suddenly. Houses were all heated by coal stoves then, and the Shores had planned to buy coal the next day. With only two lumps of the fuel remaining, they were caught by the blizzard, unable to get to town, and had to revert to the pioneer fuel, dried cow-chips.

Another memorable winter was in 1918, when heavy snows kept the ground covered six weeks. By that time the Shores had moved from the ranch to town, as their children were in school.

Shore brought in a team of horses from the ranch and drove them to a big sled, to take the family to whatever entertainment was available, as well as on necessary trips.

There was frequent entertainment in the little town and over the county, Mrs. Shore said, with picnics, dances and parties of various kinds to which the entire community was invited.

She enjoyed, as a girl, riding Prince, the horse which her father bought for her, accompanying her brother to work cattle as well as to go wherever they wished.

HER HUSBAND successfully built up his ranch operations which he managed until his death in 1951. Mrs. Shore is living now at King's Manor, where she acts as a receptionist and follows her doctor's orders to live a leisurely life.

Her two daughters, Mrs. Florence Rose and Mrs. Zelma Ruth Laird, both live in South Texas. Her family includes a granddaughter, two grandsons and two great-grandchildren. Two of her sisters, Mrs. Doyle Rose and Mrs. Jack Rose, live here, with a number of others of the Brady clan — cousins, nieces, nephews.

Hardships? Oh, yes. There were the years during the 1930's when depression and dust bowl made hard times for all ranchers. Her husband used to get up at 4 a. m. to feed the cattle before the wind began blowing so hard the feed would be blown away.

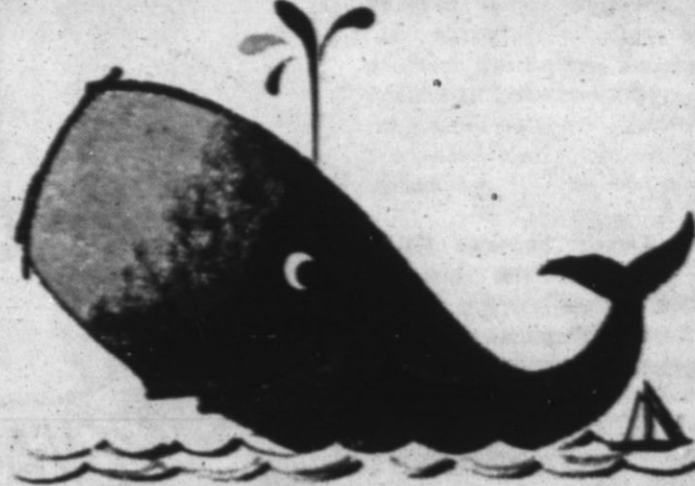

It wasn't pleasant, but there were things to enjoy even in those years, added to all the other pleasant years that make happy memories for one Hereford old-timer.

Snakeroot, or milkwort, was once so well known as a panacea that quacks added it to all their nostrums along with such staples as snake oil and swamp water.

Politics And The Pentagon

In a recent indictment of Defense Secretary McNamara, the House Armed Services Committee charged that the Secretary "knows the price of everything and the value of nothing." The phrase is Oscar Wilde's definition of a cynic, and certainly anyone who tries to manage the Pentagon meets enough obstacles to make him somewhat cynical.

Since the Defense Department was established in 1947, it has exhausted more Secretaries than any other Cabinet-level agency, a fact that cannot be explained solely by the uncertainties of politics. Whatever Mr. McNamara's faults or virtues, his five-year tenure sets a record for durability.

Many of the difficulties were apparent from the start. The Department resulted from a shotgun wedding of two old-line Departments, War and Navy, both of which brought along a lot of long-standing bureaucratic jealousies. The merger, moreover, hardly erased old interservice rivalries; for a good while, in fact, it seemed only to make them more bitter.

Compounding the problem of creating teamwork out of chaos is the Department's massive size. In addition to spending more than half of the Federal budget, the Pentagon employs almost as many people — in uniform and out — as all the rest of the Government.

The Armed Services Committee's objection to Mr. McNamara, however, is not that he has failed to manage his huge and unwieldy agency. On the contrary, the House group's prime complaint appears to be that the Secretary is all too firmly on top of his job.

In the process of running the Department, the Congressmen claim, Mr. McNamara in several instances has overruled "sound" recommendations of military leaders. It's a little unclear how the lawmakers know the military proposals were wise, since they are modest enough to admit that they are not "military experts."

What is clear is that any military man is likely to push the aims of his individual service; in the councils of the Pentagon, Air Force generals presumably do not argue for more submarines or admirals for more anti-tank guns. When arguments arise, someone must set some spending priorities, and Mr. McNamara surely hasn't been hesitant to do so.

That leads to another of the House group's objections: In making decisions, the legislators contend, the Secretary has shown an "almost obsessive" concern about costs. Some taxpayers citizens, we suspect, will not share the committee's distress that a man charged with spending nearly $60 billion in the current year worries a good deal about where all that money goes.

Obviously, the Secretary must provide adequately for the nation's defenses. But if he allows the defense budget to become loaded with waste and unneeded spending he weakens the nation, not only economically but militarily. No country's resources are limitless, and it's not easy to go bankrupt to battle.

What does the Armed Services Committee propose to do about the decisive, cost-conscious Mr. McNamara? Well, it apparently plans to have Congress take the man in hand to prevent him from becoming a "Caesar." According to the lawmakers, "The committee intends to play the tune to which the legitimate power of Congress will march back up Capitol Hill."

If that happens, some of the committee's specific complaints point to the possible results. For one thing, the Navy might get a number of nuclear-powered surface ships, whether they were needed or not. For another, the Defense Secretary would not shut down obsolete military bases quite so blithely; the bases might be useful for defense, but the lawmakers think they mean votes in their home districts.

While Mr. McNamara has made mistakes in the arduous task of managing the Pentagon, it clearly would be no improvement to turn the job over to the politicians. We don't think it's cynical to suggest that the value of that approach is nonexistent and that its price, in terms of the nation's solvency and security, could be exorbitant. —Wall Street Journal

Taxes On Survival

A COMMON thread runs through most of the problems in the nation's big cities, from law enforcement to capital improvements to social services. The common thread is money — or lack of it.

Chicago's pioneering police force has some great ideas to cut the city's crime rate, but the ideas need financing to become reality. Dallas needs a lot of things — rapid transit, a better sports stadium, expanded services — but all of them take money.

The major source of revenue in most cities is the property tax. It works on the theory that if a man owns expensive property, he must be worth a lot of money and can therefore pay more taxes than the owner of less expensive property.

The property tax has come under fire lately with the growing demand for services and facilities. A speaker at a national conference for city finance officers, Virgil Elliott of San Francisco, calls the property tax the easy way out. "It results in fewer complaints from citizens and influence groups."

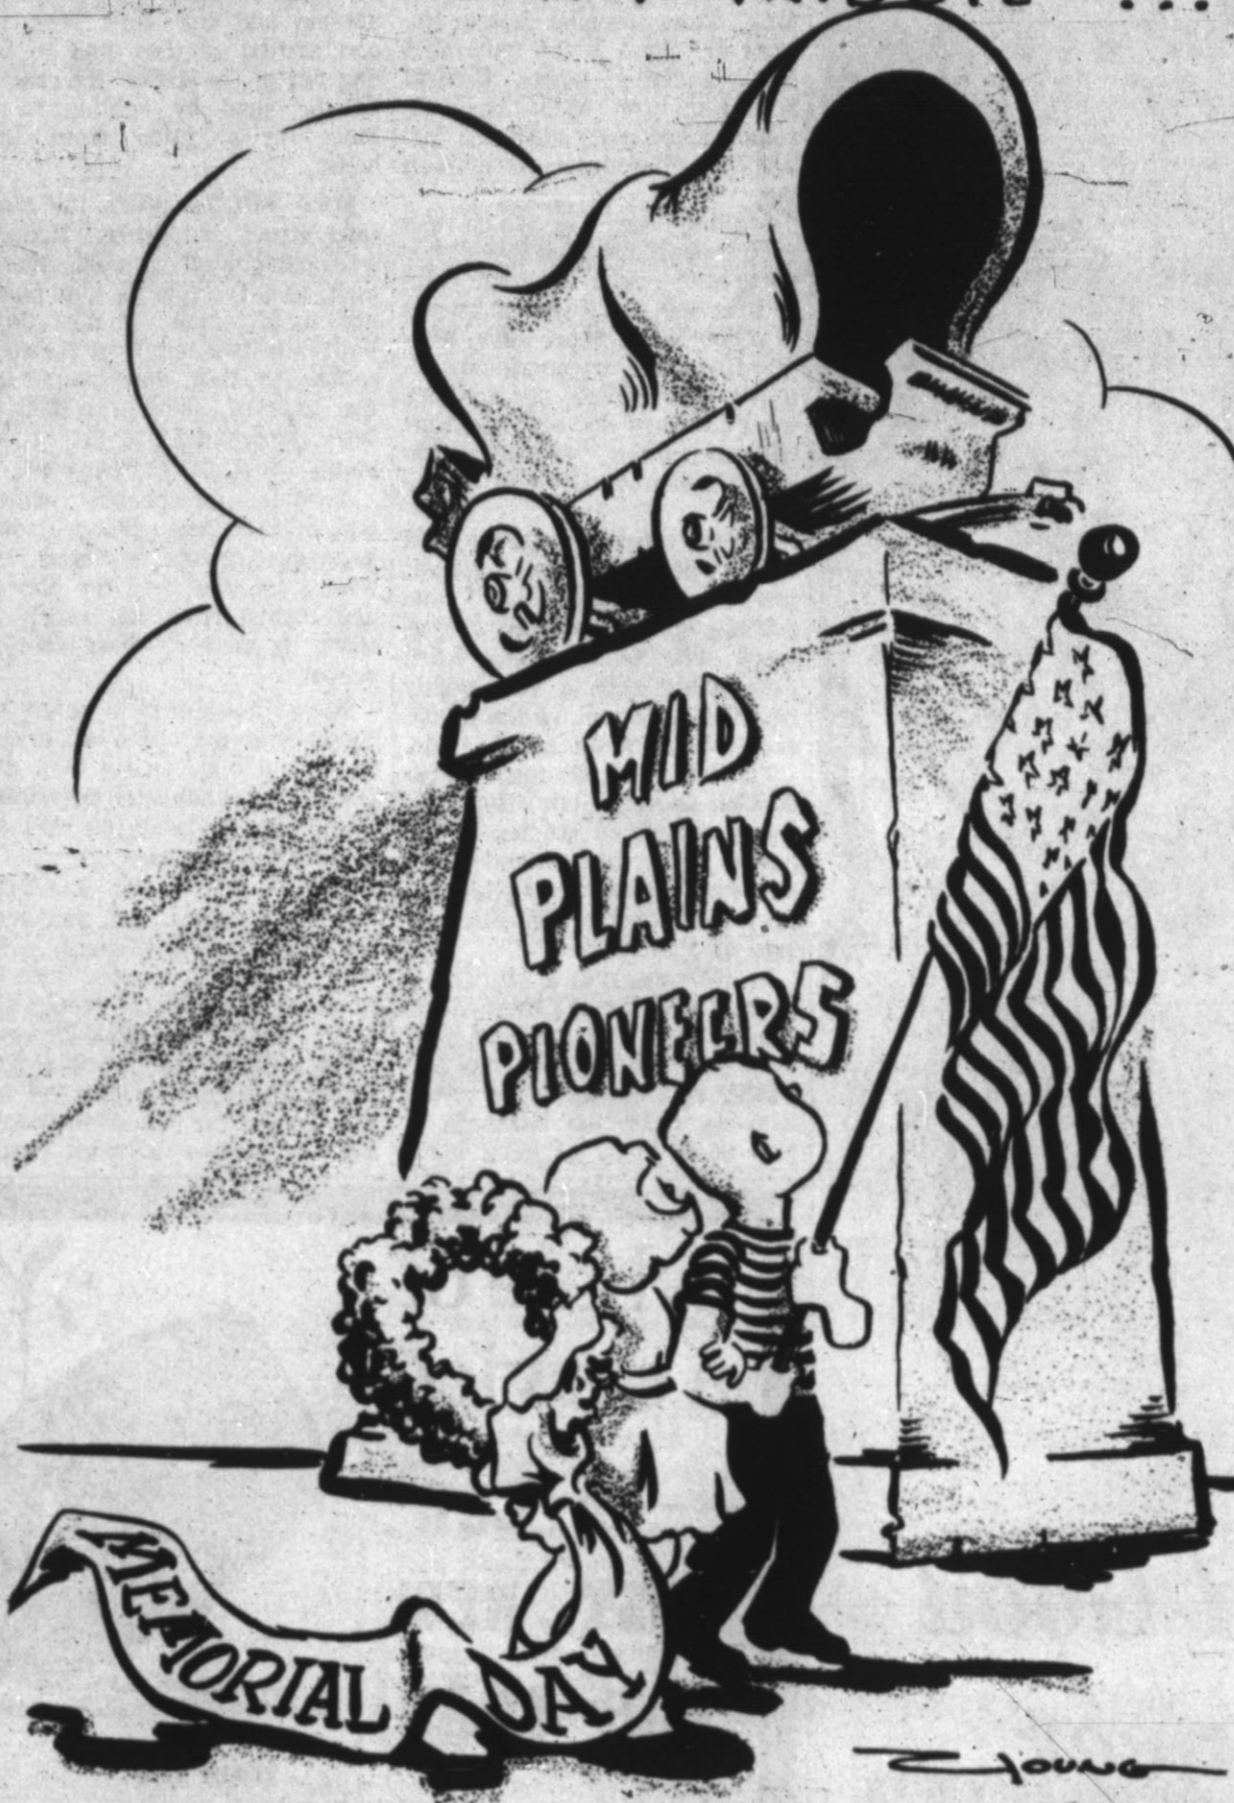

But, Elliott says, it "affords little, if any, consideration of the taxpayer's ability to pay, to equity, to economic conditions of the city or to broadening of the tax base."

In an attempt to broaden the base many cities have gone either to a personal income tax or an earnings tax. One result is that people living outside Kansas City, for example, who make their living there help pay for the streets they drive on, the police protection they enjoy and the water service they use while they're at work.

Experts see property ownership decreasing over the next several decades, with the eventual disappearance of the single-family residence as we know it today. In that event, the forecasters can see gross inequities occurring in the property-tax concept.

Because of this and other factors, many cities are exploring new tax sources — earnings, income, sales and other kinds of revenue-raisers. The reason: They are running out of money. Washington is siphoning off nearly two out of every three tax dollars, which leaves little for states, counties, cities and school districts.

To remain meaningful governmental units, these lower levels will have to maintain financial strength. Thus the debate concerns more than just methods. At stake is survival. —Dallas Morning News

Well, we've all talked about rain, dreamed about rain, and yours truly has tried all the known rain-making devices, from washing the car to painting an outside wall — still no moisture except one teensy-weensy sprinkle a couple of days ago.

At any rate, we though we'd try one last time this week to order a batch of moisture for the thirsty Sherman County farmers.

You could get plenty of arguments on this, but Monday's scorch, which sent Martonites scurrying roof-ward to get air-conditioners in operation, boosted the mercury only to 95 degrees.

That not only wasn't a record high for this time of year, but in fact had been matched only a week prior when the same reading was recorded on May 8.

Cooler temperatures during the past week apparently made local residents suffer more from the hot weather, although a preview of Monday's heat-wave was noted the preceding day when the mercury stood at a high of 91.

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm apparently has tractor trouble, his letter this week indicates.

I was out of newspapers yesterday and nothing to read and nothing else to do so decided to do a little tractor work, as I understand the surplus is being reduced and a man can now plow without feeling guilty.

My intentions were good but tractor wouldn't start, and I got to thinking. That tractor I'll admit is 17 years old but it's still got some good years ahead, I know a neighbor who has a 28-year-old model and it runs all right. Probably what it needs is a cleaner carburetor, new spark plugs, new points, a new battery, a new generator, and possibly the valves need grinding and to tell the truth probably a complete over-haul would help.

But that runs into a lot of money.

Then I got to thinking some more. Why should a tractor, just because it's old, have to be mortgaged to the future to stay off the junk heap?

What's the matter with Congress? Why not a Tractor-Care Program? To shorten it, you could call it Tracta-Care, and any tractor, on reaching the age of say 10, would be eligible.

If the program works, the next step, and this will prove far more popular, would be Auto-Care. Most people spend more buying a car and keeping it going than they do on their health, and the job is getting more burdensome every year. Takes $40 or $50 to take one dent out of one fender, and if you do something serious, like throwing a rod, you've got your future mortgaged.

The way things stand now, the automobile manufacturers take care of breakdowns for the first 25,000 miles, in some cases longer, but it's what happens after that I'm talking about. That's when the government ought to step in.

After we get Tracta-Care and Auto-Care going, with maybe Lega-Care thrown in to take care of damage suits if you run into somebody, other areas may offer possibilities. I noticed last night my television set was flickering, one of the tubes must be getting weak. You reckon something couldn't be worked out on T.V.-Care?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Glasgow Shock Treatment Appeals

You can depend upon the thrifty Scots not to become intoxicated with propositions that require a heavy outlay of cash. Take their anti-alcoholism remedy, for example.

Doctors in Glasgow have devised a $2.50 shocking machine that does the trick. A machine in the home of every alcoholic or potential alcoholic does not seem an unreasonable goal.

The machine is connected to electrodes taped to the alcoholic's arm. Twelve test tubes — nine containing whiskey and the other three holding colored water — are placed before the patient. He sniffs the test tubes. Every time he gets to a whisky tube, he gets a 70-volt shock. A quite natural result is that the alcoholic begins to associate whiskey with something unpleasant. He ends up hating its taste.

Just think. Here we are talking about building several million-dollar rehabilitation centers while the Scots are turning out mobile units for the cost of a few wires and test tubes.

But not only that. There are endless possibilities for such a machine. Think of the man who can't quit smoking. Or the obese fellow who is overly fond of a certain food.

There is one possible complication in the machine's anti-alcohol operation. A particularly difficult patient might be tempted to swallow the contents of the test tube.

What's the point in hitting a fellow with 70-volts when he's feeling no pain? —Charlotte Observer
