Dr. B. W. Musgraves To Explain JC Individual Taxes

The Steering Committee seeking a public junior college district in four counties, Haskell, Knox, Stonewall and Throckmorton, with Mrs. Luther Burkett of Haskell, as its chairman, met in the courthouse of Stonewall County, in Aspermont, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 20, for a progress report.

Representatives of all four counties were present at this meeting, which was the first in Stonewall County. All members of the committee were in agreement that much more information should be presented to the people before circulation of petitions asking a public referendum.

The next basic move, the committee agreed, is to inform the citizenship in the four counties by sitting in at the public meetings with Dr. B. W. Musgraves of Austin, when he visits the four counties in February. Dr. Musgraves is chairman of the junior college division, Texas Education Agency and a former junior college president himself.

To Explain Taxes

He will explain in "grass roots language," Mrs. Burkett said, the yardstick for individual tax responsibilities a junior college district would bring.

After Dr. Musgraves' visit, the steering committee will hold its next session at the courthouse in Throckmorton, with County Judge Byrd Thorp as host, at 1:30 p.m., Feb. 24.

Mrs. Thelma Smith, Stonewall County school superintendent, was hostess for Wednesday's meeting. Among others present were Merrick McGaughey, Knox County su-

These offices are located in Anson, Haskell, Munday, Spur, Paducah, Matador, Memphis, and Wellington. First Anti-Poverty Loan To Rural Family Is Explained

The first loan to help a Texas low-income rural family raise their income and attain a better standard of living under President Johnson's War on Poverty Program, was explained today by Lester J. Cappelman, State Director for the Farmers Home Administration.

Mr. Cappelman gave details on a loan being made to a family who operates a small farm near Long Branch, Panola County, which Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman today announced as one of eleven such loans being made throughout the country.

The loan was made to a 57 year old farmer and his wife, parents of 8 children, living near Long Branch, Panola County, Texas; $2,500 for 15 years to refinance a mortgage which is overdue against his small 25 - acre farm, purchase a milk cow and a mule, carry out some land development work and pay operating expenses on his 1965 truck crop which will consist of 2½ acres of tomatoes and cucumbers. The family of ten also will raise a large garden and some pigs to meet their family food needs. Improvements made with the loan will enable this family to make a 50 percent increase in their gross income which last year totaled $1,540.

Cappelman said approximately 75 applications for economic opportunity loans have been received.

The loans are authorized by the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, which includes a rural credit service involving $35 million in Federal funds.

In addition, three other loans have been approved in Texas; one to a 51 year old farmer who lives in Harrison

TSTA To Have Dist. Meeting Here, Feb. 1

The Texas State Teachers Association will have its District teachers meeting at Rochester, Monday night, Feb. 1, beginning at 7:00 p.m. It will be held in the school cafeteria.

Guest speaker for this meeting will be Rev. Haterius, pastor of Ericksdahl Lutheran Church.

All teachers and board members, their wives and husbands throughout the county, are invited to attend.

used to enable them to add an additional source of income through the construction and equipping of a small tractor and farm implement repair shop. With this additional source of income, the family will be able to raise their level of living from $1,200 per year to approximately $2,000 per year after the business is in operation. This will amount to a 50 percent increase in their gross income from all sources.

The State Director of the Farmers Home Administration in Texas stated that all personnel are enlisting the assistance of rural agricultural and business leaders, school teachers, ministers, welfare workers, charitable organizations and others to assist this agency in informing low-income rural families of the opportunities available to them in the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

According to Mr. Cappelman, "The 1960 Agricultural Census showed approximately 375,000 rural families, both farm and non-farm, living in the country and in communities of less than 2,500 population, receive a gross income of $3,000 a year or less from all sources. This means we have a real challenge in Texas in providing opportunities for these families to improve their level of living."

All of the loans bear a 4-1-8 percent interest. Economic Opportunity Loans may be made in amounts up to $2,500 to finance small family businesses, trades, services, and farming enterprises.

The rural families eligible for anti-poverty loans are confronted with such problems as limited resources; low incomes; indebtedness beyond their present ability to repay; lack of management skills, and an unsatisfactory level of living. To help overcome these problems and assure success of the new businesses or farming enterprises, borrowers will be provided with intensive and continuing management aid by local county supervisors of the Farmers Home Administration.

To be eligible for the new rural credit program, an individual applicant must:

1. Live in a rural area which includes towns up to 2,500 population.

2. Have an income so low it does not cover basic family necessities.

3. Be unable to obtain credit from other sources, including the regular loan programs of the Farmers Home Administration, and

4. Show a reasonable promise of succeeding in the enterprise to be financed by the loan.

Any inquiries regarding the assistance available through Farmers Home Administration or other provisions of the Economic Opportunity Act, should be directed to any one of the local Farmers Home Administration County Offices.

91% of those reaching age 65 in 1964 were eligible for social security benefits.

Steerette Goals

By BRENDA DUNLAP

Rochester's Steerettes were hostesses to Paint Creek, last Friday night, January 22.

Starting for the Steerettes were: guards, Diana Lynne Harper, Judy Herring and Marsha Shaver; forwards, Cheryl Brown, Linda Tibbets, and Oralia Barrios. Also participating in this game were subs, Jackie Holmes and Penny Helton.

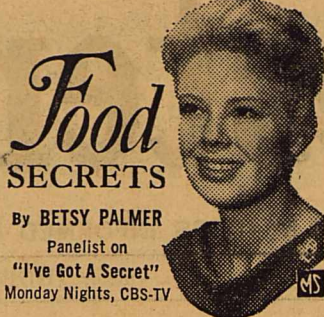

It was a long, hard-fought game, but Paint Creek slipped by the Purple and Gold team, with an eleven point victory.

High point for the Steerettes was Cheryl Brown, with 19 points. Linda Tibbets bagged second place honors, when she sank 14 points. Also scoring was Oralia Barrios, with 5 points.

While the forwards were scoring, the guards did a good job on defense. Judy, Diana and Marsha hustled as they rebounded, dribbled and passed, so Paint Creek's forwards didn't have an easy time scoring.

The Steerettes were leading 13-12 at the end of the first quarter, while Paint Creek took a 30-24 lead at the half. The third period ended 37-36 for the Paint Creek team, while the fourth and final quarter ended 49-33, for the visiting team.

Nevertheless, the Steerettes are working hard and getting ready for Rule this Friday night, Jan. 29. The game starts at 7:00 p.m. and will be played on the Bobcat's court. Everyone is urged to go to Rule and support the Steerettes!

Food SECRETS
Panelist on "I've Got A Secret"
Monday Nights, CBS-TV

I'VE GOT A SECRET FOR THE HOLIDAYS: I like to give homemade candies as gifts—hostess gifts, holiday gifts, or as a small remembrance for shut-ins. Now don't say, "But candy-making is too hard and takes too much time." Candies can be made without much fuss, fuss, or bother. Here's how I do it.

The most versatile candy of all starts with a package (8 squares) semi-sweet chocolate partially melted over hot water. Remove from water and stir rapidly until entirely melted. Stir in 1 1/2 cups of any one of the following: coarsely chopped salted pecans, salted peanuts, or raisins. I have even added 3 cups coarsely crushed peanut brittle—yummy! Stir until all pieces are coated; drop by spoonfuls onto wax paper. Let stand until firm.

Cereals add crunch to no-cook candy in another favorite recipe. Combine 1/2 cup light corn syrup, dash of salt, and 1/4 cup confectioners' sugar in a large bowl. Add 1/2 cups honey-flavored puffed wheat and 1 cup chopped peanuts; stir until coated. Spread in 11x7 inch pan. Chill 2 to 3 hours. Cut into 24 squares. Store in refrigerator.

I like coconut candies—add chocolate and a bit of rum—irresistible! Cream 2 tablespoons softened butter; blend in 1 egg yolk. Gradually blend in 1/4 cup unsifted confectioners' sugar. Then add 1 package (4 oz.) sweet cooking chocolate, grated, 1/2 cup fine-grated coconut, and 1 tablespoon rum. Form into 24 small balls and roll in additional coconut; place on wax paper, chill several hours.

Wrap candies individually in transparent saran, arrange on a gift platter or in a vase of brandy snifter. Wrap and tie with a bow—your gift is ready! What is most important, it shows that you cared enough to give something you took the time to prepare.

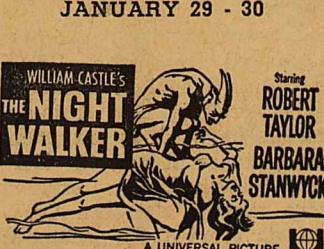

ended 13-21. They tried hard to catch up in the 4th quarter, but too late, as the score ended 22-29 in Munday's favor. Paul Hudspeth and Bill Alvis tied with 6 points each; Sidney Smart, 4; Keith Gauntt, 3; Randy Goode, 2; and Clifford Byrd, 1. Others playing good ball were Larry Wadzeck, Tony Hollingsworth, Mike Newton, Chris Fletcher, Bob Hudspeth and Stewart Roberson.

Don Duke was high for Munday, with 8 points.

KURRENTLY WITH THE KINDERGARTEN ROWD

By MRS. TRUETT ALVIS

We have a new pupil with us now. Debbie Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Peters, decided to cast her "lot" with us for the rest of the year. One of the things her mother wanted her to learn in Kindergarten was how to get around from place to place in our little town, safely. Well, before she crossed the street even before entering Kindergarten House's door for the first time, she was observed standing perfectly still looking first one way and then the other before going any further. How's that for preparing an open mind, ready for LEARNING?

A recent excursion carried us to the High School Gym, where we watched, as well as played the game called Basketball. To be truthful, our participation amounted only partially acquiring the art of dribbling. But it was all FUN.

FRESHMAN NEWS

By Laela Salzman
 Well, we have happily passed the first semester of school and it won't be too long before we are out for the summer.

In English I, we have received our workbooks. They are 232 pages long and I am sure we will have enough to keep us busy for a long while. In basketball, several freshman boys made the "B" team. We are real proud of them.

Virginia Mullino was selected as the highest ranking student in our class, for the first term of school.

SPEECH NEWS

The speech class has worked on making speeches the last two weeks. We started giving the speeches a week from last Friday. Vicki Huds-peth gave a speech on "The Great Coin Shortage". Linda Hatfield gave one on "Stop Pampering Our Gifted Children". Glen Hollar gave one on "The Causes of Accidents". This was interesting for we found out that speed was not the cause of most accidents. He gave us an example of an accident that happened. Carolyn Rose gave one on "The Most Hated Woman in the United States". This is Mad Madeline, who has been trying to get prayer out of the schools and now she is trying to make the churches pay a tax just like everybody

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

Recently the nation's independent business proprietors, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business supported a bill introduced in the recent session of Congress by Rep. William Dorn, South Carolina, by a majority of 96%.

C. W. Harder

What was the purpose of this bill that received almost unanimous support? It is perhaps unbelievable at any place this side of the Iron Curtain, but the purpose of the bill was to prohibit the National Labor Relations Board from forcing a company to stay in business.

There have been many examples of the NLRB taking a position that nobody can close up shop and quit business unless the unions agree to this action. But perhaps the most ridiculous example of this bureaucratic insanity took place in Newark, New Jersey, recently.

A metal working plant located there was notified by the Newark Housing Authority that the plant was in an area to be re-developed. The company was given the choice of having the plant site taken by condemnation proceedings, or selling. Faced with this Hobson's choice, the company elected to sell, negotiating as a part of the deal permission to operate at the site up to a period of six additional months.

Now when there is heavy machinery and equipment to be disposed of, it is not sound business to operate right up to the last day then dispose of these affects.

So the firm as it found buyers started selling off the machinery, and with machinery going out the back door, it limited the orders that could be taken by the front office with the result that the firm also started laying off workers, as there was no work for them to perform.

At the end of three months, the company had been able to dispose of the machinery, and so it forthwith closed its doors and went out of business.

But the metal polishers' union filed a complaint with the NLRB charging the company had refused to bargain on the question of selling and closing the plant.

Overlooking the fact entirely that the company had been given no choice by another governmental authority, but to give up its plant, the NLRB ruled in favor of the union, ordering the company to pay former workers the full wages they would have received if the company had operated the plant right up to the last day.

The NLRB held that if the company had bargained with the union on this matter, the union might have been able to arrive at a way to keep plant operating although in same breath saying this possibility does seem quite remote.

But one shouldn't be hasty in judging NLRB on this statement.

As things go these days, perhaps the union could have abolished the bureau forcing the business to close down.

Six Accidents Recorded In December

There are two tombstones in Haskell County that were erected ahead of schedule in 1964. The stones mark the graves of persons who died in traffic accidents on rural highways in the county during the year.

But the suffering wasn't confined to those who were killed. The Department of Public Safety recorded 61 mishaps on rural highways in the county during 1964. Those accidents injured 30 persons and they spent countless days in the hospitals. Property damage from these accidents amounted to $29,200.00.

During December there were six accidents on rural highways in the county, according to Sergeant Frank Jirick, Highway Patrol supervisor in this area.

These crashes resulted in two persons injured and an estimated property damage loss of $1,850.00.

Texas drivers have killed more people during 1964 than any other year in the state's history. Unofficial figures indicate the Texas death toll may have reached 3,000 during 1964, but the final tabulation will not be completed until March 15.

Meanwhile, officials are hopeful that motorists will heed warnings and drive with greater care during 1965 and give special consideration to the hazards of driving during the winter months ahead.
