STEERS AND BOYD TO TANGLE FRIDAY NIGHT

Rochester Steers meet the Boyd Yellow Jackets, on the Steers' home field, Friday night, October 23, at 7:30 p.m. The Steers once again ask your support by coming out to their games and helping them on to victory!

Lockett Game

The Steers outscored the Lockett Panthers, 21-0, Friday night, at Lockett.

The Steers' defense staved off the fast clicking of the Lockett Panthers, all four quarters, with each Steer putting forth all his effort.

The unyielding defense of the Panthers held the Steers to a scoreless two quarters, but just seconds before the half, on a fourth down and six to go, a pass from Tommy Holmes to Buford Berryhill, was good for about 40 yards, pass and run complete. The next play was a 35 yd. pass and run from Holmes to Edward Silba, which brought the ball to the one yd. line and also the running out of the clock for halftime.

In the second half, the Steers received the ball on the kickoff, and a march downfield by Berryhill, Steve LeFevre, Holmes and Johnny Wyatt, sent Wyatt over from the one yd. line, to spark the Steers to a 21-0 victory over the Lockett Panthers. An incomplete pass to Berryhill for the extra points, made the score 6 for the Steers, 0 for Lockett.

The Steers got their other two touchdowns as a result of blocked Panther punts, one by Darrell Strickland, and the other by David Hollingsworth. Halfway the 4th quarter, Berryhill went over from the eight yard line, and Holmes stormed across for the two extra points.

With only a minute before the final gun, Steve LeFevre a halfback, bounded 3 yds. for the final touchdown, and John Hudspeth kicked the extra point, bringing the final score to 21 for the Steers and 0 for the Panthers.

Darrell Strickland, Edward Silba and Buford Berryhill running yardage, to help the caught passes and made good Steers on to their second win in the 1964 season.

Playing good defense on covering pass receivers and covering fumbles were Steers, Raymond Greenwood and Olson LeFevre. Top tacklers for the night were: Travis Tibbets, with 26, 4 unassisted; Jerry Hearn, 20; Olson LeFevre, 18, one unassisted; Bill Penman, 18, 4 unassisted; Steve LeFevre, 16; John Ballard, 14, 1 unassisted; Troy Fischer, 10; Darrell Strickland, 6, 1 unassisted; Raymond Greenwood, 4, 2 unassisted; David Hollingsworth, 3; Glen Hollar, 2; Buford Berryhill, 2; Edward Silba, 1; Glen Newsom, 1; Phil Gauntt, 1; and John Hudspeth, 1.

The band and pep leaders did a remarkable job on keeping the school spirit going, and they did a very good field stunt, Friday night. If you don't want to watch the Steers play ball, come out and watch the band and cheerleaders. They all, including the Steers work very hard to give you a show, each time, worth your money and time. Keep that spirit going Band, and We'll march on to Victory!!!

State Sales Tax Now In All But Twelve States

Washington, D. C. — The rise in state and local taxes has left just twelve states without a state sales tax, according to Changing Times, the Kiplinger magazine. Noting that Pennsylvania, with the highest sales tax, is up from 4% to 5%, an article in the current issue sees continued increase ahead in both state and local taxes. Its findings are based on an exclusive survey of all major state taxes showing how the tax burden varies from state to state.

The only states without a state sales tax now are Alaska, Delaware, Idaho, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Oregon and Virginia. A sample increase noted in the report was Alabama's sales, tax up from 3% to 4%.

Highest tax on each package of cigarettes sold is in Mississippi, now 9 cents per pack. Other increases: Alaska and Florida from 5 cents to 8 cents. New York City taxes cigarettes at 4 cents a pack. State levies on each gallon of gasoline are from 5 cents to a Hawaii's top ranging from 8½ cents to 11 cents.

Individual income tax is now imposed by more than thirty states, including West Virginia, where residents did not pay income tax five years ago when the magazine conducted a similar survey. Among states with increased rates are Idaho, Indiana, Minnesota and New Mexico. City income taxes are noted in Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Bass Powell Speaker For Rotary Club

The Rochester Rotary Club met Monday night, Oct. 19 in the school cafeteria for their regular meeting.

One new member, Kenneth Newberry was welcomed into the club.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Bass Powell, owner and manager of the Powell Feed Lot located between Rochester and Rule. Mr. Powell gave general information on the function and operations of feed lots in Texas and other states.

There were ten things which helped Mr. Powell make up his mind to build his feed lot here and the first two were plenty of water and ample amounts of feed grown in the area. He buys most of his feed locally, which helps our community a great deal. Capacity of the feed lots at present near the 2,500 mark. But it is situated in a manner it can be extended to accommodate approximately 3,000 head of cattle.

Everyone enjoyed the talk Mr. Powell made because it concerns the entire community.

Cleaner Air Week Set For Oct. 25-31, By President

You may be able to choose the water you drink and be selective about your choice of food, but whatever air is around you is the air you are going to breathe.

As a matter of fact, you automatically breathe about 80 pounds- or 15,000 quarts of whatever air is available each day, while you only eat about three pounds of food and drink at the most about four quarts of water.

A healthy mind and body requires clean, fresh air. This fact coupled with the growing air pollution problem caused by an ever growing human and industrial population is causing a growing concern about the state of our air.

And because of this concern, President Johnson set aside October 25 through 31 as Cleaner Air Week.

This is an excellent period for all of us to evaluate the air cleanliness of our communities. If it's not all that it should be, then it is time to evaluate the efforts the community is making to control air cleanliness.

It isn't only the big industrial cities that have difficulties. A Texas town that has any kind of industry — chemical plants, petroleum refineries, cotton gins or such — may have air pollution without realizing it. Should there be such a problem, it certainly would be well to take inventory of the efforts your community is making in your behalf, regarding cleaner air.

Already there is much study and effort being done in Texas to evaluate and remedy some of the air pollution problems.

The State Department of Health has completed its part in a national air pollution appraisal.

In addition, the Health Department, through the cooperation of local health units, and the National Air Sampling Network of the Public Health Service, maintains twenty-four air sampling stations in points of highest population around the State.

Air samples collected at these stations are analyzed for degree of pollution loading and radioactivity.

One city and two counties have their own separate programs for studying air pollution. And several have an air pollution committee.

Every cleaner air program needs the individual support of all its citizens. What do you know about the air you breathe?

Those Preschoolers who were not very adept at bow-tying, have been practicing on the ribbon around the neck of the largest cog upstairs. In order to reach the dog, the proper way to go up and down the stairs has been learned. No mistakes or "I forgot's" allowed here, or else Boom!!

Also, the independent personal accomplishment of following home orders of "What to Do When Kindergarten is Over" has been duly stressed and fully discussed. TSTA MEETS

The county unit of Texas State Teachers Association met Tuesday night in Benjamin.

Mr. E. A. Youngblood, Superintendent of the Knox City schools, was speaker for the meeting.

GREYHOUNDS WIN FIRST DISTRICT GAME

The Knox City Greyhounds scored in the last quarter Friday night to win their first district game of the season, 8-0, against the Holiday Eagles. The Greyhounds had one previous loss and one tie in District 11-A play.

Phil Williams scored for the Hounds on a five-yard run. A pass from Brack Shaver to fullback Ronnie Worley added the extra points.

Both teams had touchdowns called back. The Knox City TD was called back for holding after Shaver had completed a pass to Worley. Holiday's was called back for a clipping penalty.

A stiff south wind hampered kicking and passing.

We missed Kay Reeves in the line-up.

GREYPUPS WIN FIRST GAME

Knox City's Greypups beat Munday's Junior High Team Tuesday night 22-14. Munday scored first in the first quarter, then Ronald Curd intercepted a pass and two plays later scored.

The game was 8-8 at half-time.

Melvin Clay carried the ball over for the second score; Curd made the extra points.

In the last quarter both Munday and Knox City scored, with Curd again carrying the ball for the Pups, and the game ended Knox City 22, Munday 14.

The greypups have lost to Crowell and Paducah, and play Paducah again Monday night.

"Oh brother, is this contraption ever a monstrosity! Can you imagine finding space to put one of these, or even actually using it? This old 1901 Peck-Williamson water-heating stove and clothes dryer can't hold a candle to the modern, automatic, flameless electric clothes washers and dryers. Besides being completely automatic and flameless, they save so much time and energy. The electric dryer alone saves 3 hours weekly of the housewife's valuable time which she can spend with her family and clothes come out so soft, fluffy, and easy to iron, there's no telling how much time is saved just on the ironing board.

Sixty-three years sure makes a lot of difference. Visit your electric appliance dealer or the nearest WTU office."

New Apparel Mart Opens October 24 In Dallas

The Apparel Mart, 2300 Stemmons Freeway, Dallas, which opens officially Saturday, October 24th, staggers the imagination with statistics of materials that went into the building. Chances are, however, that the 15,000 buyers who will converge in Dallas from a 12-state area on that date, will not even take note of the fact that 47,982 cubic yards of concrete were required to build this focal point of the Apparel Industry.

Buyers will notice, however, that the Apparel Mart—just the building itself—covers two city blocks—or, technically speaking, is 626 feet long and occupies a 20 acre site. Before market is over, they will also realize that they have covered some 1,021,632 square feet of floor, visiting, 1250 showrooms on the four floors of the building.

To shed light on the subject of fashion, approximately 2.9 miles of light cove have been installed with more than 17,000 fixtures requiring nearly 61,000 bulbs and tubes. Wiring for this, together with other electrical needs, required 95 miles of electrical wiring. This is more than enough to wire 716 homes.

Depending upon the weather, more than 2,600 tons of heating or air conditioning will keep the building comfortable through 30 air-handling units and 750,000 pounds of ductwork.

Superlatives pile up in describing this giant of the Fashion Industry, especially when speaking of Great Hall, the focal center of the building. Great Hall measures 280 feet long, 150 feet wide, and while its ceiling is 60 feet above the floor, the skylights are 72 feet high. Its area is 42,000 square feet, and the 15 different floor levels are surfaced with approximately 200,000 bricks. 85,000 additional bricks were required to add decorative touches in planters, fountain, and walls. The full-sized theatre at one end of the Hall is equipped with complete theatrical lighting and sound, and has private dressing areas backstage for more than 100 models. At the other end of the Hall, 34 pycas circular trees whose trunks are 20 inches in diameter, muffle the sounds of the cafeteria which is equipped to serve 1,500 people in a single hour. Great Hall can seat as many as 8,000 guests at one time.

Carolyn Bean spent the weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bean.

Mrs. Ella Mosely, Mrs. Ecsie Lucas and Mrs. Finley visited relatives in Jayton last week.

Great Hall, California and Florida supplied 20 schefflera trees, 33 red hibiscus trees, 175 podocarpus makiplus yew trees, fatsia, Boston, birdseye and meyeri fern, and creeping grape vines and figs for the planters.

It required 10,000 gallons of paint to ready The Apparel Mart for opening day—or enough to paint a continuous four-inch highway stripe from Stemmons Freeway to the Washington Monument in Washington, D. C. There are also 895,000 floor tiles in the building which would, if stacked, reach the height of an 846-story building, or 17 times as tall as the new First National Bank in Dallas.

And finally, 675,000 square feet of surfaced and landscaped parking area surround The Apparel Mart. This means free parking for 5,000 cars which should be just fine if everyone doesn't come in three cars on that opening market date of October 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Everett, student at ACC, formerly of Kermit, visited his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alvis, Sunday.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

One of the strange phenomena of our times is the way in which anyone who bucks a going trend is portrayed.

Take for example, the impression that has been created in certain areas concerning Rep. Otto Passman of Louisiana stemming out of his long standing fight to prevent the waste of taxpayers' money on foreign give aways.

He has been often made to appear to be a somewhat bucolic, irascible whimsical character who somehow has a personal grudge against what is called foreign aid. When during the recent approval of a few more billions to give away he was outmaneuvered, certain writers seemingly expressed feeling that was the greatest strategic victory since the Normandy landing.

Yet Rep. Passman has developed and released some astounding figures. From December 31, 1952, through 1963, U. S. gold holdings dropped from over $23 billion to slightly more than $15½ billion, a drop of $7,656,000,000.

In the same period the other countries, excluding the Russo-China bloc, almost doubled gold holdings, going from $13 billion to over $24 1/3 billion.

In same period, free world foreign nations increased holdings of U. S. dollars from $10½ billion to almost $26 billion.

On December 31, 1963, he points out, the U. S. national debt totaled $309 billion, while the combined national debts of all the rest of the free world nations totaled $232 billion.

This coupled with his figures that show every year since 1950, with the exception of 1957, there has been a deficit in the U. S. balance of payments position which totaled at the end of 1963 almost $27 billion, causes wonder why such conditions continue.

Of course, the foreign aid give away boys seem somewhat confused as to the objectives of the program. While on one hand they are giving away birth control equipment all over the world, they also hand out to Nationalist China over $13 worth of "Royal Bee" capsules, advertised as a sex rejuvenator. Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio reports. This would seem to be working toward opposite directions.

Rep. Brown is also curious about the $999 worth of bubble gum given to Turkey. He cannot quite ascertain how bubble gum can be used to stop communist aggression.

And of course, perhaps a classic is the shipment made by the foreign aid experts with U. S. tax dollars of Metrecal. Presumably the slogan here is "help starving people get even thinner on Metrecal".

So, it gives pause to wonder over the reports that indicated that in out maneuvering Rep. Passman to get still more money voted for foreign give aways, some sort of a victory was achieved. This seems somewhat akin to people cheering loudly and madly when burglars manage to evade the police.

MR. AND MISS RHS
Mr. RHS
 Troy Fischer was last week's Mr. RHS. Mr. RHS this week is a tall sophomore boy. He has brown hair and green eyes. He is active in all sports and an excellent rattlesnake killer! But his favorite pastime is watching those cartoons on television. See if you can guess the snake-skinning cartoon-watching Mr. RHS.

Miss RHS
 Cecelia Moon was Miss RHS last week. Miss RHS is a senior this week. She has light brown hair with brown eyes. She is well liked by everyone and always full of jokes. She's a pretty smart cookie (so they tell me) and can type up a storm. She may be seen walking the aisle in the next two weeks (so they tell me). I'm sure you'll have no trouble guessing her identity.

SENIOR NEWS
 On October 31, 1964, Rochester, Texas, shall be filled with ghosts and goblins, as the annual Halloween Carnival takes place. Along with the witchcraft, there shall be royalty in the spotlights on the auditorium stage, as the Dukes and Duchesses assemble to crown the new Prince and Princess and the new King and Queen, who shall reign over the carnival in splendor and with beauty and grace. Your presence has been requested by the incoming members of the royal families for all of the fun and excitement that shall take place.

The seniors wish to say congratulations to all the fighting Steers and a big thank you to all the fans that went to Lockett to back them to victory. Let's do the same thing this week!!

JUNIOR NEWS
 Today, October the 19th, everyone is concerned about Senior, Glen Hollar. He was hospitalized Sunday and today he was taken to an eye specialist. "Hurry and come back to school, we miss you!" The Steers tackle on their home field Friday night, the Boyd Yellow Jackets. "Come on Steers! Beat Boyd!" Back the Steers through the rest of the season.

SOPHOMORE NEWS
 The sophomore class has a few stadium cushions we have not sold. If you would like to buy a cushion, contact a member of the sophomore class.

Olson Le Fevre's favorite expression has become Et tu! Brute! That is, it is since he found out what it means.

Some of you, familiar with this expression, know that it comes from Julius Caesar, written by William Shakespeare and means You too,

Brutus! Caesar said these lines when he was confronted with the daggers of his assassins. When he looked up to see his best friend, Brutus, with a dagger, he no longer resisted his approaching death. Even Olson accepts that the play isn't all bad and can even be enjoyable, especially if he has to memorize such lines as these:

Cowards die many times before their deaths; The valiant never taste of death, but once of all the things to me most strange is that men will fear, seeing that death, a necessary end, will come when it will come.

FRESHMAN NEWS
 We've made it through our first six weeks of high school, including all the tests.

In Homemaking I, the girls are making blouses to go with the A-line skirts we made. They are progressing slowly.

Our boys are proud to have been a part of our team Friday night and to have helped them to victory.

FHA NEWS
 Wednesday, October 7, found the Rochester Chapter of FHA meeting in regular session. Mary Lue Alvis, president, called the meeting to order. Marian Homer, corresponding secretary, led the prayer song. After a brief business session and the reading of the minutes by recording secretary, Brenda Dunlap, Mrs. Herring, advisor, brought the entertainment. Each group of girls chose a "model" and outfitted her in one of the latest styles, fashioned from newspaper. With much thought and consideration from the judges, Troveta Posey and Linda Hatfield, first prize was awarded to Brenda Dunlap.

Linda Hatfield, first vice-president, gave the program, "Am I a Good Branch On My Family Tree?" Carolyn Rose, Mary Lue Alvis, Troveta Posey, parliamentarian, Brenda Hollar, Jacquelyne Holmes, Virginia Mullino, Janice Hatfield, Laela Salman, Alana Williams, fifth vice-president, gave parts.

Marsha Shaver, third vice-president, Cheryl Brown, treasurer, and Mary Lue Alvis were hostesses.

FFA NEWS
 In Ag we are starting a new 6 weeks. Most of our classes are starting on new subjects. The Ag I class has finished their stools. They were real surprised at what they looked like — and so was Mr. Chambers.

The Ag II class has started this 6 weeks off with three subjects. They are welding, studying feeds and feeding, and they are studying electricity. The Ag III class has started on small gasoline engines. Mr. Chambers disassembled an engine and reassembled one, expecting the boys to apprehend every little step. We started on lawn mowers. We are hoping they will still run when we finish with them.

SPEECH NEWS

This last week, the Speech Class was working on the sounds of words. Each letter of a word has a different sound. There are about 4 different ways to pronounce the letter "a". Each vowel has sometimes two or more pronunciations. The phonetic alphabet has symbols for each sound of a letter. Mrs. Brown gave us some words to write in phonetic symbols. Everyone did pretty well on them.

Sometimes, though, it is pretty hard to tell which phonetic symbol to use. We hope that as we keep practicing on the symbols, we will finally be able to write words in phonetic symbols without any trouble or help.

STEERETTE GOALS

By Brenda Dunlap

HEALTH & SAFETY TIPS

AUSTIN — Are the "childhood diseases" hereto stay? Is it still necessary to have a smallpox vaccination? Do babies inherit a "natural immunity"?

The "childhood diseases" are a myth. The fact is that these diseases are so contagious among children that most people have had them and thereby developed immunity by adulthood. But adults can and do catch them, and when they do they are sometimes much sicker than children.

Two of the so-called childhood diseases—mumps and German measles — have special dangers for the adult patient. Mumps can be damaging to adults—both men and women. And German measles, when occurring in the early part of pregnancy, can result in damage to the unborn child. So if you are exposed to any "childhood" disease and believe you have never had it, ask your doctor what you can do to protect yourself.

It is extremely important that you and your children keep protection against smallpox up to date. True, the absence of smallpox in this country has led to a lack of public concern about this serious disease and large segments of the adult population are unvaccinated or require boosters. In some parts of the world smallpox continues to be a serious problem. If just one single undetected smallpox case should be introduced into a U. S. community, it could touch off a serious epidemic.

Is it true that a baby is protected by his "natural immunity" acquired from his mother? Some of a mother's natural or acquired immunities, if any, can be passed on to her unborn infant as her blood courses through the placenta that nourishes him, but this inherited immunity remains effective for only a short time.

In the case of whooping cough, a highly contagious disease that is especially dangerous and often fatal for small babies, there is evidence that immunity is only occasionally passed on.

Every parent, medical authorities advise, should plan an immunization program beginning at six weeks of age against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, poliomyelitis and smallpox. Booster shots to maintain complete protection should follow at prescribed intervals throughout childhood and in the case of certain diseases, well into adult life.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

There are many factors that a person about to make a personal loan from a bank or finance company should understand. These are important in deciding whether the loan is on reasonable terms and worthwhile. First, what will the loan cost? Cost includes not only the interest but any "extras" such as closing costs and credit investigations or service charges. Is credit life insurance required? Are such costs added to the loan or paid in advance? Is the interest and— or such charges deducted from the amount borrowed and only the net amount paid over?

Does the lender require collateral or co-signers? If so, what can the borrower do to meet the requirements? Collateral or co-signers may enable one to borrow on more favorable terms.

When does the borrower get his money? Must he apply and then wait?

What about repayment? Is it by installments, or all at once at the end of the loan period? Can there be repayment? What about renewals or extensions of the loan? What penalties if the borrower is late in making payment?

Few borrowers stop to realize that when loans are repaid in installments the quoted interest of 6 per cent, for ex-
