

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

By E. M.

"Say that again," and "How in the world do you spell that?" Those two remarks invariably follow the statement that my home is in Darrouzett, Tex. Some people have even gone so far as to inquire where in the world a name like Darrouzett was ever found.

The name of this town really has an interesting history, an investigation revealed. When the town was first established years ago, it was called Longwood. Postal authorities, however, refused to recognize that name since there was another postoffice with the same name in Texas and mail became confused.

Fourteen years ago this December when Opal Lourwood, the first baby in Darrouzett, was born, residents decided to name the town "Lourwood" in honor of the first arrival. When the Santa Fe depot was established several months later and the railroad named the station "Darrouzett" after an official in Austin, the townsname was also given that name to prevent confusion.

The name seems simple enough to residents who are accustomed to hearing it. But to strangers it provides all sorts of complications as to spelling and pronunciation. It seems safe to say that mail has been received at Darrouzett addressed in 20 different ways.

Probably everyone has a pet "phobia." Really this world would be a monotonous place if we weren't all more or less "cracked" along certain lines. Peculiarities add spice to this life we're living.

Webster, characteristically, defines the word "phobia" as a suffix denoting fear and often implying dislike or aversion. To the initiated, it holds a more significant meaning.

It is interesting to note what different forms pet phobias take. Most people have one in common—they get the willies at hearing crayon creak along a blackboard or when some one scratches his nails along a blackboard. And we all remember the good old days of silent pictures when people used to read the titles aloud. A verdict of "justifiable homicide" is supposed to have been rendered in the case of one man who had an especially pet "pet phobia" along this line. He got his man.

A door banging in the draft or the steady drip-drip of a leaking faucet, either one or both, could drive me to looking for a nice cozy cell, with upholstered wall and ceiling. Even Edgar Allan Poe in his most weird tale has no torture invented to match it.

One of my Dad's pet phobias is to hear any one of his three oldest daughters practice on the piano.

Then there was the man who divorced his wife because she always squeezed the tooth paste tube in the middle.

I must not leave out the ancient Boy circuit whose special aversion was women, "I wish," said he, "that Adam had died with all his ribs in his body."

"What's A Rattlesnake Anyhow?" Say Girl Hikers

Hitch-hiker met hitch-hiker Friday. But since the two parties concerned were going different directions and neither were really hopping rides, all was well and everyone went merrily on.

It happened when six Darrouzett girls turned hitch-hikers Friday afternoon and hiked to and from the Fred Hennigh farm four miles west of town.

On the way back they met a small rattlesnake with three rattles—also hitch-hiking—but headed north across country.

The girls, Olive Chappell, Dessie Fisher, Lois Roper, Ola Woods, Thelma Carter and Coeta Terrel, had gone to the Hennigh farm to visit Marguerite. They enjoyed picnic lunching near the creek at noon and ice-cream making in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillips of Boise City, Okla., were visiting in Darrouzett Tuesday. They were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Phillips. They returned to Boise City in the evening.

Faculty Members Of Bible School Are Experienced

Although sure-enough school days will not begin until the first Monday in September, children who attend the Daily Vacation Bible School next week will not be going to amateur teachers. Rev. and Mrs. A. Blair Grubb and Mrs. George Russell, who constitute the faculty, have all had considerable experience.

Mrs. Russell who will instruct the beginners in Bible study has taught six years. Her first term was at a rural school near Mt. Dora, N. M., in 1919. Later she was principal of a two-teacher school near Laverne. For three years she taught the primary while her husband had the older pupils at Sunset. He last term was in 1924 when she taught the intermediate grades at the Darrouzett School.

Preaches In Mountains
Following her graduation from the Asbury Seminary at Wilmore, Ky., Mrs. Grubb taught the 1929-30 term at Booneville, Ky. The mountain school was the only one in the whole county. Mrs. Grubb taught six classes daily. Among the subjects in which she gave instruction, were English, mathematics, economics, sociology, and problems of democracy.

While she was teaching at Booneville, Mrs. Grubb also served as assistant pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church there. She made many trips thru the mountains on horseback to rural charges.

Grubb Teaches Greek
Mrs. Grubb has been teaching Sunday School classes since she was 13 years of age. She also serves as substitute teacher for the Darrouzett school.

Altho he has never instructed in the public schools, Reverend Grubb has taught a class in old Testament history at the Asbury College. He has also instructed in religious education and has served as substitute teacher of Greek at the seminary.

All three teachers seem anxious to begin their work with the Bible school. In explaining her course, Mrs. Russell said that her only regret was that the two-weeks period was too short to put over the course of study she would like to give.

Mrs. Faussett has been at her father's bedside since Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter, and Mr. and Mrs. James Worrell visited at the Roach home Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roach own the house where Mr. and Mrs. Carson Altmiller are now living.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morgan and daughter, Genevieve, and Miss Inez Arnett of Wichita, Kas., and Miss Mary Vivian Bradbury of Shattuck came Tuesday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mosley.

Accompanied by Harold Morgan, the visitors went to Perryton Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morgan.

Roy Scouts Leave On Four-Day Camp Trip

The Darrouzett Boy Scout troop left Wednesday morning to camp until Saturday on the Solander place 15 miles southwest of town. Rev. A. Blair Grubb, Scoutmaster, accompanied the group.

Swimming, fishing and baseball were to be included among the activities at camp. Special work on the tenderfoot and second class tests was to take up first aid, outdoor cooking, signaling, trail blazing and the scout pace.

The 11 boys who were to make the trip are: O. C. Elfers, Bob Cat patrol leader, Marion Carter, R. C. Fisher, Orville Chappell, G. B. Hennigh, Oscar Taylor, Gerald Ludlum, Roy Roper, Roy Phillips, George Allen and Harry Belah.

Sudan Grass Makes Good Pasture, Claims John R. Wassell of Higgins

Sudan grass scores high as a summer pasture crop with John R. Wassell of Higgins who claims that six acres of sudan grass pasture have been worth $40, a month to him.

According to information received from W. K. Cottingham, county agricultural agent, Mr. Wassell seeded his sudan in the latter part of April and began using it for pasture about the second week in June. Since then he has had eight cows, six horses, 14 brood sows and 59 pigs grazing on the six-acre grass tract.

With the charges per month for grazing set at $2 per head for the cows and horses, 50¢ per head for the sows and 25¢ per head for the pigs, a net profit of approximately $40 was cleared by Mr. Wassell.

All three classes of stock are doing well on the pasture. Cows grazed there have increased in milk production 100 percent, Mr. Wassell states.

Much enthusiasm about the growing of sudan for summer pasturage is shown by Mr. Wassell.

"Tick-Tock,"—Says Evans' Clock For Past 51 Years

Watch makers and jewellers may claim that they are as much affected by the economic depression as other businesses but if all clocks run like the one owned by F. E. Evans, they would be forced to close their shops tomorrow.

During the 51 years in which the clock has been in the possession of the Evans family, only $2 has been spent for cleaning, oiling, and regulating the striker. "And it's been run ever since 1880 except for a few days at a time when we've gone visiting," Mr. Evans says.

Cost Is $11
The clock, an eight-day Seth Thomas model, is a walnut stained style about one and one-half feet high with a peaked roof top. It was bought at a cost of $11, from G. J. Willkens, jeweller, in Springfield, Mo.

Mr. Evans remembers very distinctly the time when the clock was purchased. A boy of 15 at the time, he drove to Springfield with a span of mules and a jolt wagon to help his mother, Mrs. Margaret Evans, select a clock. Little dreaming that some day he would own it himself, Mr. Evans chose the Seth Thomas model from a whole shelf of other clocks.

To Run Longer
When Mrs. Evans broke up house-keeping in 1896 she gave the clock to her son. For thirty-five years since then it has ticked away day in and day out.

Four years ago when it was taken to the late D. O. Williams, jeweller at Follett, to be cleaned and oiled, Mr. Evans was told that the clock was better than modern makes of Seth Thomas clocks and that it would probably run for years longer.

Veteran of Civil War Is Buried At Follett

The body of the last known Civil War veteran in the Texas Panhandle, Alexander Larkey, 83, who died Saturday evening at the home of his son, Art Larkey, four miles northeast of Follett, was lowered to rest at the Fairmont cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Episcopal church at Follett with Rev. D. W. Brashear, pastor, officiating. The Drake post of the American Legion from Gage had a part in the service. A gun salute was fired over the grave and taps was sounded.

Mr. Larkey died from heart trouble. He was found dead at the Art Larkey farm on Saturday evening by Ed Ervin. The Larkey family had gone to Follett and Mr. Larkey was alone at the time. He had evidently been dead only a few minutes when he was found.

Mr. Larkey would have been 84 years old on Aug. 16. He came to this section of the country 25 years ago from Cleo Springs, Okla. During the Civil War he enlisted in the Union army, from Iowa.

Surviving relatives include 11 children, all of whom attended the funeral, 53 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Fred Hennigh is a granddaughter.

Children are: Mrs. W. P. Freeman, Mrs. Ed Fiskin, and Charley, Pearl, Art, and Ed Larkey, all of Follett; Mrs. Bessie Otto of Montezuma, Kas., Mrs. John Payne of Kim, Colo., Will and Carl Larkey of Stinnett, Texas.

The six sons served as pall-bearers. Flower girls were Mrs. Fred Hennigh, Misses Gladys Fiskin, Nell and Emma Freeman, Frances and Ilene Larkey, all granddaughters, and Marguerite Hennigh, a great-granddaughter.

Born Truck Damaged By East Bound Train

Eighty bushels of wheat were scattered on the ground and damages estimated at $250, to a Ford truck driven by Henry Born of Follett resulted when the truck was struck by the 11:45 eastbound train Saturday morning at the crossing just east of town.

Born, driving for his father, George Born, claimed he did not see the train until too late to cross the tracks ahead of it. Starting to back up, he killed the engine on the track and barely had time to jump out of the truck to escape injury.

Approximately 50 bushels of wheat were salvaged, according to J. T. Mosley, Santa Fe depot agent. No damage was done to the train or equipment.

There were no obstructions near the track when the accident occurred.

Section Gang Ends Local Repair Work

A group of seven section hands who have been doing repair work on the rail road track and bridges along the Santa Fe line finished their work Thursday, according to J. T. Mosley, depot agent.

The men have been working here for the past week under the direction of J. H. Kemp, bridge foreman.

Miss Violet Phebus went to Follett Sunday night to visit for a week or longer at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Farmer Mills.

Pupils Enrolled In Bible School Number Thirty

OPENING IS AUG. 3

Rev. and Mrs. Grubb, And Mrs. Russell To Teach

Approximately 30 children from the ages of 4 to 16 have enrolled in the Daily Vacation Bible School sponsored by the Methodist Episcopal Church, according to Rev. A. Blair Grubb, pastor.

The school will open at 9 o'clock Monday morning, August 3, at the school building to run for a two-week period. Classes will be held from 9 to 11:30 or 12 o'clock each morning for the first five week-days of each week. Scholars are asked to be at the building promptly at 9 o'clock each morning for the opening exercises.

Instructors Plan Work
Eight beginners from the ages of 4 to 7 have signed up to enter the beginners class taught by Mrs. George Russell. Fifteen children are to attend classes conducted by Mrs. Grubb for juniors from the ages of 7 to 12, while 7 so far have indicated that they will be in the intermediate section directed by Reverend Grubb for those between the ages of 12 and 16.

Outlines for the work in each group have been planned by the instructors. Story-telling, crayon work, handwork, rhythm drills, sewing cards and plays will be included among the activities for the beginners, according to Mrs. Russell. Large pictures will be used to illustrate all stories.

Memory Work Given
Juniors under Mrs. Grubb will study Bible story notebooks, Biblical expressions, handwork, recreational and music periods. The intermediate class conducted by Reverend Grubb will take up worship, Bible proof, Bible study, music, mental expression, recreation, and manual expression.

All the groups will take up Bible memory work. This will be based upon the contest work sponsored by the Sunday School county convention which will be held here on August 30. One winner from each class will probably be selected to take part in the convention contest, according to Mrs. Grubb.

Contest Is Open
Mrs. Grubb also stressed the fact that anyone who wished to enter the contest but would be unable to attend the entire school period could take the class memory work which is the first group scheduled to meet each morning.

On August 16 which is the first Sunday following the close of the school, commencement exercises will be held during the morning Sunday School hour. Diplomas of attendance will be awarded. Each department will also give demonstrations of the work accomplished during the school.

Attendance Urged
Grades will also be given each pupil for the work he does. All children in the community are urged by Reverend Grubb to take advantage of the opportunities in Bible study offered by the school.

In Cool Colorado, Hennighs' Forget Tot Panhandle
Forgetting the stifling heat and burning winds of the Texas Panhandle for a week, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hennigh have been boating and fishing on Bear Lake and Blue Lake and camping near the Spanish peaks 70 miles southwest of Trinidad, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Hennigh left Darrouzett last Tuesday, returning on Tuesday of this week. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Vester Kerns at Trinidad and the Raton Pass in New Mexico.

L. M. Tobin Planning To Make Home Here
L. M. Tobin, former Darrouzett merchant who has been making his home at Garber, Okla., has purchased a 15-acre tract south of the railroad from Mrs. Billie Adams of Shattuck.

Mr. Tobin is having a house erected on his land and plans to live there.

Roy Phebus and H. F. Ludlum went to Woodward on Wednesday morning. Mr. Ludlum was to have his eye dressed at the hospital there.

Payment For The World War

The heads of seven governments that 14 years ago were trying to wipe Germany out of existence have been meeting in London to try to save that nation.

The reason for this right-about-face movement is that they know that if Germany collapses financially they will be ruined too.

When one stops to consider, it is amazing that these same nations could not see in 1918 that every day they prolonged the war they were but digging their own graves. An injury to one country necessarily cripples another. For this reason the World War was the most stupendous of madnesses.

But does the world and America see at last that we are only paying for the war now; that the war is not yet over as far as its economic results are concerned; and that we shall continue to pay?

Cross Crossings
Cautiously

With a noticeable reduction in collisions at railroad-highway crossings in 1930 as compared with 1929, it is evident that the 30,000,000 motorists driving cars today are giving attention to the timely warnings.

In 1930 at railroad crossings, there were 2,020 fatalities, a decrease of 465 or 19 per cent, and 5,517 injuries, a decrease of 19 per cent, compared with 1929.

Upon our streets and highways at other than railroad crossings involving automobiles or motor trucks there were 30,806 fatalities in 1930, an increase of approximately 1,806 or 6 per cent compared with 1929.

Train employees are constantly on the alert and are giving warning crossing signals. At many crossings special signals and other warning devices are employed in addition to the standard signs to warn the traveler of the approach of an oncoming train.

Collision with trains can be avoided. Motorists and others should heed all visible and audible signs and signals and always cross crossings cautiously.

PHILIP'S MISSIONARY LABORS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 8:5-40. GOLDEN TEXT—Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Philip Tells a Stranger About Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC—Philip An Early Missionary.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Pioneering for Jesus. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Gospel Breaks Over the Frontier.

I. Philip Preaching in Samaria (vv. 5-8).

In taking the gospel to the Samaritans we see the broadening of the scope of Christianity. Philip was one of the seven so-called deacons. He went to Samaria and preached Christ showing that God's purpose included these despised people. Christ is the true message of the evangelist. Not Christ as an ethical teacher or as an example, but Christ as the Savior from sin through the offering of himself on the cross as a substitutionary ransom.

II. Philip Preaching to the Ethiopian (Acts 8:26-39).

Following the preaching to the Samaritans, the gospel was preached to the Ethiopian who was in all probability a Gentile. In his conversion we see the gospel in its outreach to the ends of the earth.

1. Philip meeting the Ethiopian (v. 26-30).

a. Leaving work by divine direction (v. 26). The Lord called Philip away from a great work in Samaria and specifically directed him to this man. The Spirit of God directed him to go near and join himself to the chariot. The tactful question put to the treasurer gained him a seat by his side. The mission which at first seemed so unpromising was now clear.

b. An officer of state seeking the way of salvation (vv. 27, 28). The Ethiopian had been to Jerusalem to worship. Despite his high official position he was not ashamed of the worship of God. The journey from that far-off country required hardship and expense, but to one whose soul yearns after God this is all joy.

c. A providential meeting in the desert (vv. 29, 30). The coming together of these two men was clearly the predetermined way of God.

2. Philip preaching to the Ethiopian (vv. 30-35).

a. The Ethiopian's employment on the way (v. 30). He was reading the Word of God. The particular portion was the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah. A most excellent way to spend one's time while traveling is to read God's Word. It is through God's Word that the individual is shown the way of life.

b. The need of an interpreter (v. 31). The Ethiopian was reading one of the clearest testimonies to the Messiah in the Old Testament, yet he was unable to understand it. The Ethiopian, a great statesman, needed an interpreter of the Scriptures. The gospel needs to be experienced before one can be a witness to its saving power. The human mind in its natural state is blind to spiritual things, making the work of an evangelist indispensable. Preaching the Word of God will always be necessary. God has designed that through the foolishness of preaching, men shall be saved. Valuable, indeed, as the Bible is in the hands of men, the touch and influence of the believing man who has experienced the work of God in his own heart is needed.

c. Philip's message (vv. 32-35). He began at the scripture which the Ethiopian was reading and preached unto him Jesus. This shows us that the person presented in the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah as suffering in the stead of others was Jesus Christ, also that the central theme of the preacher's message should be Christ crucified. He did not preach Jesus as a great teacher, but as a Savior who had suffered and died in the stead of sinners. The vicarious atonement is a note which is at the very heart of the message of every evangelist.

3. Philip baptized the Ethiopian (vv. 36-38). As a result of Philip's preaching, the eunuch proposed baptism. When Christ is truly received men will desire to confess him in baptism. Where this desire is lacking the gospel in its fullness is evidently not preached. The Ethiopian might have offered many excuses as to why he should neglect this important ordinance, but like every man who is honest before God, he was willing at any cost to render obedience.

4. The Ethiopian rejoicing (v. 39). Having been baptized, he went on his way rejoicing. Confession of Christ and obedience to his Word always brings joy.

Worry

Oh, if religion can only rid us of this cursed habit of worry, what a blessing it will be! And Paul says it can. He is writing in the shadow of a prison. "Be anxious for nothing!" What a song to sing itself through prison bars!—James I. Vance.

TITHING

Is the law of the tithe legalistic or statutory?

No. It is a fundamental law of God; hence cannot be either. The first definition of "law" in the Century Dictionary is given as a rule of action prescribed by authority; as, a law of God.

"Fundamental" is defined as, "pertaining to the foundation; original as, a fundamental truth; a fundamental principle; a fundamental law."

Tithing is God's fundamental law—or, if you prefer the word, tithing is a fundamental principle, having its origin in the mind and will of God.

What are the relations between Stewardship and Tithing?

About the same as between a house and its foundation. Any other foundation than tithing for stewardship will, too often, when the winds and rain of either adversity or prosperity come, prove to be sand. Prosperity is often a severer and more searching test of character than adversity.

Should Non-Church members tithe?

Yes. Why not? The law, or principle, if you prefer that word, of tithing applies to all. Besides, tithing both with children and adults, is much more likely to lead to church membership than, judging by past experience, church membership is likely to lead to tithing. Everybody believes in the theory of Christian stewardship. Tithing is simply the theory reduced to practice.

WHAT ONE WOMAN SAID ABOUT SYMPHONIE FACE POWDER:

"O where are kings and empires now Of old that went and came? But, Lord, Thy church is praying yet, A thousand years the same. 'Unshaken as the 'eternal hills.' Immovable she stands, And mountains that shall fill the earth, A house not made with hands."

UPBUILDING OF THE DARROUZETT SCHOOL

In addition to the three year classification recently granted the Darrouzett High School, four units toward affiliation were received during the past school year. These units, as previously named, were Algebra I and II, General Science and Modern History.

Altho not as many credits as the school hoped to receive, this is an excellent beginning considering the fact that classification and some credits toward affiliation are seldom given during the same year. It will be of interest to note that it was through a valuable member of our community, Mr. A. H. Montgomery, who helped upbuild the Follett School System, that the idea of classification and affiliation was first proposed. The idea was suggested during the 1929-30 session. During that year the state supervisor visited the school and the work began. Mr. Montgomery was backed by one of the most progressive and loyal school boards in the Panhandle of Texas.

From this beginning, it is hoped that with the co-operation of the board, the community, the faculty and the student body that next year Darrouzett High School will receive full four-year affiliation and full 16-unit affiliation with the colleges and universities of Texas. Affiliation is approached now from a different angle since the new ruling. This new rule will be explained more fully to the students and community at the opening of school in September.

J. E. Speer,
Superintendent of Schools.
