NUMBER 12

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

By E. M.

Concerning the recent difficulties in the eventful Red River area, the Columbia, S. C., Times observes thusly:

"No Dolly Ann, the bridge war you've been hearing about is not what happened when the governor of Texas trumped the ace of the governor of Oklahoma, but it's been almost as hot as if it were."

The season for watermelon is once more at hand. With long, slender, green melons dotting "patches" near the roadside as one drives by, come temptations to break that commandment about not coveting thy neighbor's possessions, mentally if not actually.

And with the long-awaited season of ripening melons, along comes a watermelon debunker. Just imagine! Things are really coming to a pretty pass when debunkers can't even leave watermelons unscathed from ridicule and belittling.

Anyhow this unsympathetic and soulless observer, declares, in the name of science, that watermelon is no "better than a glass of water sugared and colored with cochineal." or if you please, a tumbler of pink sugar water.

To combat this hearsay, friends, Romans and fellow country men, lend me your ears, and hear ye, the testimony of a true watermelon lover, who declares that watermelon at its best is "no tumbler of pink sugar water but ambrosia, delicately flavored, cool crisp, rosy, and that anybody who doesn't think so is an unfeeling, shortsighted ignoramus!"

There are ways to eat watermelon; there is in fact, one way. Pick a nice sunny slope adjacent to a watermelon patch, keeping a wary eye out for its owner. Choose your fruit; it should be large, deep green, and give forth a gurgling sound when shaken. Run quickly to your slope, the watermelon under your arm. Drop it on a convenient stone. It will burst lusciously, scattering seeds—black seeds—at your feet. Pick up the pieces and eat them as fast as you can, stopping for breath only when absolutely necessary. You will soon learn to shoot the seeds out of one side of your mouth while absorbing melon with the other. When you are filled to repletion, walk slowly to the nearest brook, bathe hands and face in the cool water, lie down to sleep in the sun.

If that testimony doesn't beat all the debunking theories you ever heard about watermelons, then I'm a nigger baby!

"Shoo, Fly Shoo Don't You Bother Me!"

".....I will send swarms of flies upon thee.....and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of flies.....and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh and into his servant's houses and into all the land of Egypt; the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies...."

People in Darrouzett could well sympathize with the Egyptians last week, for, verily, a plague of flies descended upon the land. The houses were full and the land, if not corrupted, at least was troubled by that general nuisance, Mr. Fly.

The following nature essay written by Frances Trenfield, of near Follett, 13-year old Lone Scout associated with the Darrouzett troop, is given below because of its appropriateness:

"The insect most people have much trouble with is the fly. Flies have six feet. On the bottom of these feet are many little hairs; these little hairs carry germs.

"One of the flies I was watching was sitting on a book. He would stand on his four hind feet and, like a woman, in distress, wring his two front feet.

"Flies eat nearly everything that is eatable. The fly's most deadly enemies are the fly swatter, 'daisies,' and fly-tox.

"Flies hatch from eggs that are laid in the spring and summer. In the fall all the flies die."

Sunset Is Asked To Pomona Grange Picnic

Members of the Sunset Grange are urged to attend the annual county picnic sponsored by the Pomona Grange at the A. A. Haskell grove on Saturday, August 22, Grange officials have announced.

W. C. Gillispie, state Master, and A. F. Pickard, state secretary will address the gathering.

A cordial invitation to everyone to bring a lunch basket and enjoy the day visiting with neighbors is extended by the Pomona Grange. Officials promise that plenty of ice-cold lemonade will be on the grounds.

The Haskell grove where the picnic will be held is located 3-4 miles west and 3-4 miles north of the Elmwood postoffice.

Grasshoppers Are Promised Hot Reception In Lipscomb County By Agent W. K. Cottingame

That bane of the farmer's existence, the grasshopper, will find a decidedly hostile reception if he comes to Lipscomb county in the near future. At least a venomous repast will be served him if W. K. Cottingame, county agricultural agent, is on the refreshment committee.

In response to inquiries, Mr. Cottingame has supplied the following formula as furnished by the United States department of agriculture for poisoning grasshoppers.

Ingredients for the mixture include 50 pounds of wheat bran, two pounds of crude arsenic or Paris green, 12 finely chopped fruits, lemons or oranges, one gallon of low grade molasses, and six gallons of water.

Amyl acetate may be substituted for the lemons or oranges at the rate of 1-2 ounces to 50 pounds of bran, and crushed ripe tomatoes, watermelons or limes may be substituted for the chopped fruits, Mr. Cottingame says.

Mix Bran Dry
The bran and arsenical are thoroughly mixed while dry. The fruits are then finely chopped and added. Lastly, the diluted molasses is poured over the mixture and the whole thoroughly kneaded, Mr. Cottingame directs. If the amyl acetate is used instead of the fruits, it may be added to the diluted molasses before the molasses is poured over the bait.

A coarse-flaked bran is desirable, the agent pointed out. Alfalfa meal may be substituted for the bran if the alfalfa is coarsely ground. For a satisfactory bait, a low grade, strong-smelling molasses is necessary, asserts Mr. Cottingame.

Final Program Of Bible School Attended By 50

PLAY IS GIVEN Exhibits Of Work Are On Display In Classrooms

Over fifty visitors attended the closing exercises of the Daily Vacation Bible School held at 10 o'clock Friday morning at the school building, according to Rev. A. Blair Grubb, who was in charge of the school.

Exhibits of the work done in the different departments were on display in the classrooms. Cardboard representations of the garden of Eden, and Moses in the bulrushes were arranged in a sandtable by the children in the primary division taught by Mrs. George Russell. Paper ducks, dolls, swans, scrap books, representing Bible lessons and hot dish mats made by the children were also displayed.

Tabernacle is Made
Mrs. Russell also entertained the children in her class with a party during the morning.

Small Christian flags made by the girls in the Junior division were displayed by Mrs. A. Blair Grubb, instructor. Tiny wooden sailors made by the boys in the class and notebooks containing Bible stories by the entire group were also shown.

A miniature tabernacle made of wood to represent the tabernacle carried by the Israelites for their worship services in their journey through the wilderness was displayed by the intermediates taught by Reverend Grubb.

Juniors Give Play
The structure was draped with white, tan and gray hangings representing the skins of wild animals. It contained representations of a brazen altar, a laver, a holy of holies, etc.

Following the exhibits, a five scene drama, "The Birth of Christ," was

Main Street Culverts Are Repaired Tuesday

Main street was much improved Tuesday when two culverts were repaired by the Chamber of Commerce.

The culvert near the Perry filling station was repaired. A new culvert replaced the old one near the Champlain Service Station.

Lumber for the culverts was supplied by the county while the local Chamber of Commerce furnished the labor.

Darrouzett Invited To Attend Beaver County S. S. Convention

Officials and members of the Darrouzett Sunday school have been extended an invitation to attend the Beaver county Sunday School convention scheduled to be held at the Christian Church at Beaver, on Tuesday, August 25.

The session will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning with a devotional service led by Rev. W. M. Akers of the Bethel church.

Speakers Scheduled
Speakers for the morning will include Rev. R. E. Cook of Beaver, who will talk on "The Need of Week-day Religious Training," Rev. R. E. Hooper of Beaver whose topic is "Objectives in Young People's Division," and "The church of Youth," by Mrs. J. S. Peter of Oklahoma City.

Following a round table discussion led by Mrs. A. D. Taylor of Oklahoma City, the various schools will be enrolled and committees will be appointed.

Quartet To Sing
The afternoon program will be opened at 1:15 by a business committee meeting followed by a song service. Special music will be supplied by a male quartet from the Friends Church at Gate.

Topics of speeches will be "The Children's Division," by Mrs. Peter; "The Worship Program," by Mrs. Taylor.

40 Attend Meeting Of Sunset Grangers

Approximately 40 members of the Sunset Grange attended the meeting held Friday evening at the Sunset school house, according to Mrs. Will Thompson, program chairman.

The meeting was opened and closed by the singing of Grange songs. Other numbers on the program included: "Just Like His Mother Used To Do," read by Connie Flock; "Economize," a select reading given by Agnes Alt Miller; a vocal solo by Bernice Foster, accompanied at the piano by Norma Elfers.

"Agricultural Johnny," read by Roland Flock; a select reading given by Mrs. C. C. Hennigh, "The Home" read by Mrs. Elizabeth Alt Miller; "Brief, Very Brief," a current event reading given by O. C. Elfers; a vocal duet sung by Miss Ruth Cook and Mrs. Della Baker, accompanied at the piano by Miss Lulu Kerns; and a comic reading given by C. C. Hennigh.

W. E. Smith, Grange Master, led discussion on the topic: "Who has the most right to complain, the woman who has to mend clothes or the man whose clothes are worn out?" Much amusement was afforded Grange members by remarks made during the discussion, according to Mrs. Thompson.

The next meeting of the Sunset Grange will be held on Friday evening, August 28, at the Sunset school house.

Girl Scout Troop To Hold Meeting Friday

A meeting of the Girl Scout troop will be held at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage, according to an announcement made by Mrs. A. Blair Grubb and Miss Elsie Montgomery, Scout leaders.

The meeting date has been changed from every Friday to the first and third Fridays of each month. The outdoor trip will be held each month. The girls will work on Scout tests and badges at the other meeting.

New Company Leases Sharon Grain Elevator

REOPENS SATURDAY Plans Are Made For Settlement Of Old Claims

The Sam P. Wallingford Grain Corporation of Wichita, Kas., has taken over the Sharon Grain Company elevators and the local elevator that had been closed since August 7 reopened for business on Saturday, according to L. D. Fiskin, manager.

At a meeting of creditors and other persons interested in the Sharon Grain Company held at Booker on Thursday, August 13, a settlement of the claims of farmers who had grain stored in elevators and other creditors was agreed upon.

Plans were made to pay at least 40 per cent of the claims against the company by September 1 and the balance in various payments between then and September 1 1932.

Over two hundred people attended the meeting held at the Booker school building. Judge W. H. Sewell, attorney for the Sharon Grain Company, presided. James Selman, Woodward banker and rancher, was appointed to serve as trustee of the grain company's property.

Financial difficulties of the Sharon Grain Company came to a head at Woodward, Oklahoma, the headquarters of the grain company, according to Mr. Fiskin. The elevators located at Follett and Darrouzett had had good business during the summer and were both filled with wheat when all the elevators were ordered to be closed, Mr. Fiskin said.

The Sharon Grain Company had operated six elevators in the Texas Panhandle. Two were located at Farnsworth and one each at Perryton, Huntoon, Darrouzett and Follett.

Eleven car-loads of wheat have been shipped from the local elevator since it has re-opened for business and the elevator is filled at the present time, Mr. Fiskin stated. The local manager holds an optimistic outlook toward the future operations of the company and believes that if conditions continue as they have since the re-opening, the trustee may be able to pay off the creditors within six months time.

Mrs. Ralph Campbell Recovers At Hospital

Mrs. Ralph Campbell, wife of Rev. Campbell, pastor of the Methodist Church at Selman, Okla., was to have been dismissed from the Shattuck hospital Wednesday, attendants said Saturday.

Mrs. Campbell entered the hospital two weeks ago Monday for an operation for the removal of tumor. The operation was successful and recovery was rapid.

Reverend Campbell was pastor of the Follett Methodist Church for four years.

Darrouzett visitors of Mrs. Campbell on Saturday were Misses Edith Balch and Elsie Montgomery.

G. A. Jenkins Elected Head Of School Board

G. A. Jenkins became president of the Darrouzett school board at the meeting held Tuesday night at the school building, according to C. H. Powell, secretary.

Mr. Jenkins succeeds I. M. Roper who resigned. Mr. Roper gave as his reasons for resigning that he would be unable to attend meetings regularly this winter.

J. T. Mosley was appointed to serve on the board in the place of Fred Hennigh who resigned.

The school budget for the coming year was discussed at the meeting.

Miss Edna Rizley of Beaver, Okla., was a guest of Mrs. Walter Messner from Saturday until Tuesday. They were former classmates at Goodwell Okla.

R. W. Perry Becomes Member Of Veterans

R. W. Perry became a member of the Perryton post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the meeting held Monday night, August 10 at Perryton.

Perry served eight months in France during the World War.

J. H. Carter and Henry Frass, Jr., also attended the meeting in Perryton. Joe Mitchell is also a member of the order from here.

Canadian Ball Team Defeats Follett 1-0

Canadian Baseball players defeated the Follett team 1-0 in a close game Sunday afternoon on the Follett diamond.

Fourteen innings were required to finish the game. Canadian finally brought the exciting game to a close by scoring on Follett's errors.

News Subscriptions Urged by C. of C.

Another Idea About Food Relief

A new food relief plan for the benefit of those people who will be unable to buy rations this winter has been suggested this week by Samuel R. McKelvie of Lincoln, Neb., a former wheat representative on the Federal Farm Board.

McKelvie advocates that the huge surplus of government owned wheat be made available for food relief by action of Congress.

The Nebraskan believes that the sooner stabilization supplies of wheat are disposed of, the better it will be for the farmers and for destitute people.

Credit Is Due Bible Teachers

A splendid community project has just been completed in the Daily Vacation Bible School that closed last Friday.

Reverend and Mrs. A. Blair Grubb and Mrs. George Russell are deserving of much praise for the tireless energy and unflagging enthusiasm with which they have carried on the school program.

Forty-seven children of this community have attended the school which is probably the first of its kind in the entire county.

The value of the two-weeks of instruction afforded by the school is impossible to estimate in concrete terms. Its influence on the lives of its pupils in creating interest in religious matters and in developing a co-operative attitude toward the church as a vital part of community life is immeasurable.

Lesson for August 23

A GOSPEL FOR ALL MEN

LESSON TEXT—Acts 10:1-11:18.
 GOLDEN TEXT—For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek; for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Gospel for Everybody.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Gospel for Everybody.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—First Steps in World Brotherhood.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Gospel for All Men.

In the lesson for August 2 we saw the missionary program of the church broadened to include the Samaritans. We see in this lesson the program still widening and embracing the Gentiles. The conversion of Cornelius illustrates the breaking down of "the middle wall of partition" (Eph. 2:14).

I. Cornelius (10:1, 2).

1. His official position (v. 1). He was a Roman officer over a company of one hundred soldiers.

2. His character (v. 2). a. A devout, pious man. b. A praying man. c. A charitable man.

II. The Supernatural Preparation for the Transition of the Gospel to the Gentiles (10:3-33).

1. Two visions were given (vv. 3-16). (a). The vision of Cornelius (vv. 3-8). While engaged in prayer an angel of God announced that his prayer and alms had come before God as a memorial and instructed him to send to Joppa for Peter who would tell him what to do. (b). The vision of Peter (vv. 9-16). This took place while Peter was praying (v. 9). He saw a certain vessel containing clean and unclean animals let down from heaven, and heard the command, "Rise Peter, kill and eat." This vision indicated that both Jews and Gentiles were accepted on high.

2. A messenger sent from Cornelius (vv. 17-22). Peter was greatly perplexed over what he had seen, but not for long, for messengers from Cornelius made inquiry at the gate for him. The Spirit informed Peter of the matter and bade him go, nothing doubting.

3. The meeting of Cornelius and Peter (vv. 23-33). (a). Peter took six witnesses along (v. 23). He had the good judgment to know that on a matter of so great importance he must have witnesses. (b). Cornelius waiting for Peter (v. 24). He had such confidence in God's instruction that he called together his kinsmen and friends to be ready on Peter's arrival. (c). Cornelius about to worship Peter (vv. 25, 26). Peter repudiated his act and protested that he himself was but a man. (d). The reciprocal explanation (vv. 27-33). Peter explained to him how God had taken from him his Jewish prejudice and asked why Cornelius had sent for him. Cornelius explained that God had instructed him to send for Peter.

III. Peter's Sermon (vv. 34-43).

1. The Introduction (vv. 34, 35). He showed that God is no respecter of persons but that in every nation those that fear God and work righteousness are accepted of him. This does not mean that Cornelius was already in a state of grace, and therefore saved, but that he was eligible to hear the gospel and accept the terms of salvation.

2. His discourse (vv. 36-43). In the discourse he touches briefly upon the mission of Jesus, showing that by means of his baptism and the anointing of the Holy Spirit he was qualified for his work as mediator. He then exhibited the work of Christ: (a). In his life (vv. 36-38). He went about doing good, even casting out demons as a proof that God was with him. (b). In his death (v. 39). The just suffered for the unjust that he might bring us to God (1 Pet. 3:18). (c). In his resurrection (vv. 40, 41). God raised him up the third day showing openly that Christ was his Son (Rom. 1:4) and that his sacrificial work was satisfactory (Rom. 4:25). In this discourse is set forth (1) The basis of salvation—the crucifixion of Christ. (2) The scope of salvation—whosoever believeth in him. (3) The method of appropriating salvation—believing on him.

IV. The Holy Spirit Poured Out (vv. 44-48).

This was a new Pentecost. As the gospel was entering upon its widest mission, the Spirit came in new power.

V. Peter Vindicates His Ministry to the Gentiles (11:1-18).

Being called to account for having visited and eaten with Gentiles, Peter rehearsed the whole story showing how God had set his seal upon the work by the miraculous gift of the Spirit.

Ingratitude

The saddest example of ingratitude is the poverty of the thankfulness of those who are, in some measure, thankful for God's greatest gift. It is strange and melancholy that Christians should love, and love so little; should be thankful, and so tepid in it. —Alexander MacLaren.

The Heavenly Father's Love

Our heavenly Father is no El! He will not suffer his children to sin without rebuke. His love is too intense for that. —Spurgeon.

Who receives the greatest benefit from tithing?

The titers themselves. The benefits to others are secondary just as they are with all of God's laws. He never established a law of principle that was not primarily for the benefit of those who obeyed it. This is just as true of his law of health, of gravitation, of electricity, in short of all so called natural laws, as it is of all moral laws including the law of tithing. All, like the law of the Sabbath, were in the language of the master, "made for man."

Prohibition Questions Can You Answer Them?

Has anyone recently seen what was once very common, viz: Drunken men reeling home, having spent their wages at the saloon; women and children waiting in terror and dread?

Women working like slaves to support their drunken husbands?

Does anyone want to argue that men and women are better off from drinking intoxicating liquors of any grade?

Does anyone want to make a list of people who ought to be privileged to have what liquor they want?

Try the list: Family Physician? School Teachers? Men running Railroad Trains? Drivers of Automobiles? Fathers? Mothers? Sons? Your son or your daughter?

Will any candidate or other stump speaker say a good word for whiskey or the saloon, or any kind of drinking, or any degree of drunkenness in any campaign speech this fall?

What good program, industrial, economic, domestic, social or political, does drinking fit into with advantage?

Is spending money for liquor a good way to spend it for a man or his family?—from "A Mild Catechism" by Bishop W. F. McDowell.
