Through the Editor's Specs

BY BAB

A broken latch on the ejector link of the typesetting machine of the Record late Wednesday caused a delay of several hours in printing this week's issue, with the result that the paper missed the Thursday mail and will be a day late in reaching our subscribers. We're sorry, but such things happen where machinery is concerned.

Congratulations to Mrs. Bob Shults whose oil painting won second place in the amateur division of the art show at the West Texas Fair at Abilene this week. Mrs. Shults' entry was a floral, a magnolia study.

Mrs. Shults informs me that the Tri-County Art Club, which has been a very active and influential amateur artist group in this area, will resume regular meetings with the first meeting scheduled for October 7 at the Library building here. There will be two meetings monthly and anyone interested in art is invited to attend.

The Rising Star Lions Club was host to the members of the Wildcat football squad at the club's regular meeting at the Elementary School lunch room last Monday night. The kids and their hosts enjoyed a good barbecue of goat and the trimmings—and if you don't think goat meat can be delicious you should have eaten with the club Monday night—but the youngsters missed the best part of the program when they left before the speech by former State Rep. Bill Chambers, of May, Mr. Chambers is one for the grand old men of this section, a veteran of legislative service, distinguished by his contributions to the public good both as a legislator and a private citizen and it is a privilege to do honor to men like him who redeem the public service from much of the opprobrium that others of lesser caliber have cast upon it. He was presented by Bernal Hickman.

It may not be known generally, but the city has an ordinance governing the feeding of livestock within the city limits. For the information of the citizens the ordinance will be published again in next week's issue of the Record.

Stockholders Of Lone Cedar Club Plan Final Sale

Stockholders of the Lone Cedar County Club met Sunday afternoon at the club and stock selling committees were named for Eastland, Ranger, Cisco, Strawn, Gorman and Rising Star.

Some 100 stockholders attended the meeting. Here is a list of the five committees named:

RISING STAR — W. E. Tyler is chairman of the committee.

Mrs. L. R. Smith went to Bryson last week to attend funeral services for Mrs. J. R. Clayton her sister-in-law, who died on Monday. The services were held Tuesday. Mrs. Smith remained from Monday until Wednesday.

Mrs. Annie Tate of Haskell visited by sister, Mrs. B. M. Carrell, at Mr. Carrell here one day last week.

Wildcats Swamped By Too Much Early, Look For Better Times Here This Week

By J. M. CRUMP

A methodical, calculating machine was turned loose on Wildcat Field last Friday night. It was not composed of robots made by a mad genius, nor was it the minions of a ruler from outer space, but it might just as well have been, so complete was the devastation, so completely were the hopes and aspirations of the Rising Star Wildcats smashed into oblivion.

This unrelenting foe of our gallant but helpless lads bears the name of Early Longhorns. Their chief weapon was one usually employed to get short gains, namely the quick opener. But when the Longhorns used it, it seemed that everything fell into place, in such a fashion that they could ramble over long distances before being brought to a halt. Crisp blocking opened holes in the Wildcat line and even crisp blocking cleared out would-be defenders downfield.

Even so, the much lighter Wildcats managed some good tackles. About the only thrill local fans could garner from the holocaust was seeing lightweight Douglas Walker, Kenneth Ridens, Gary Maynard and 109-pound Johnny Jones tie into the big, fast ball carriers from the Brownwood suburbs.

So complete was the rout that the Wildcats were left scoreless, and without even a first down, while the score-hungry Longhorns ran up 58 points and 15 first downs.

Hardest to stop of the Longhorn speedsters was right half-back Tommy Blackwell who scored four touchdowns on runs of 6, 17, 23 and 44 yards. Three of these runs began as quick openers and one was a cutback.

John Fortner scored two touchdowns, one on a sneak and one on a keeper play around right end. Reserve quarterback Lannie Reed returned a punt 42 yards to pay dirt. J. B. Forrest used the quick opener route for another score.

Extra point attempts were good on five of eight tries, each of them worth two points. Fortner sneaked the first one over and passed to Blackwell for the second. The third extra point failed on a dropped pass. The fourth was stopped shy of the goal. The fifth conversion was made on a pitchout from Reed to David Palmer. Fortner sneaked again for the sixth. The seventh was stopped short, and the eighth was another pitchout, Reed to Palmer.

Only in the third quarter were the Wildcats able to play on nearly even terms with the Longhorns. Three good gains that would have been enough yardage for first downs were blacked out by fumbles which were covered by the Longhorns. Neither side scored in the third frame, but the Longhorns had scored 16 in the first, 12 in the second and then went wild in the final period as they scored 30 more points.

Next Friday night the Wildcats will play another home game against the not too potent Richland Springs. This game will be between two teams of near equal strength, and we rate it a toss-up, in spite of the Wildcats trouncing by Early last week.

Kittens Clobber Cisco Junior 'B's' By Score of 42-0

The Rising Star Kittens found their potential strength Tuesday night as they took the measure of the Cisco Junior High "B" team by a score of 42 to 0 in Lobo Field in Cisco. The second team played the fourth quarter and most of the third.

On the first play from scrimmage Kenneth Nunnally reeled off a 69-yard run around right end to lead the scoring parade and he also scored another touchdown and two extra points. Kenneth Pittman ran an end-around play for a touchdown, and Ted Cawley scored a touchdown and made two extra points.

In their two previous games the Kittens' blocking and tackling had been weak, but in the game against the Cisco boys their fundamentals and their timing were excellent. They were as poised as a young team could be expected to be. It was a team victory. All the boys played their positions to the best of their ability. The Kittens' second team and the Cisco boys played on even terms, neither being able to score. Rising Star scored three touchdowns in each of the first three quarters and kicked the extra points.

The Kittens will play Cross Plains next Tuesday night. The two schools "B" teams will play an eight-minute game, beginning at 6:45. The regular game will begin at 7:30.

Six orchards will be visited on the third annual tour of the Eastland County Pecan Growers Association, Sept. 29, Oscar Schaefer, Cook, president of the group announced this week.

The J. W. Sitton orchard at Scranton, the R. H. Dunning and Lee Lieske orchards at Nimrod and the J. D. Inabnet orchard at Pioneer will be inspected in the morning prior to lunch at the Elite Cafe in Rising Star.

The group will assemble and leave from the Petsick fruit stand on Highway 80 just west of Cisco at 9 o'clock, according to County Agricultural Agent J. M. Cooper, who assisted the committee in planning the tour.

A short program and business session will follow the lunch at Rising Star, Schaefer said. Randolph Terrell, Gold Kist Pecan Cooperative, Seguin, Texas, will be on the program and possibly others. Several committees are to be appointed during this business session to work on plans for the annual pecan show to be held in December.

The Petsick orchard near Rising Star and the Earl Conner orchards near Flatwoods will be visited during the afternoon session of the tour.

The tour planning committee was composed of Hank Sims and Guy Parker, Eastland, and W. D. Thurman, Cisco.

As a general rule the planted orchards on the deep sandy soils over the county have a fair to a good crop of nuts, growers have told Schaefer in recent weeks. A light crop of seedlings on the Leon River has been indicated.

The program at Rising Star following the luncheon will include remarks by representatives of Ranger, Cisco, Eastland, Rising Star, Gorman and other communities; a decision on the method to be followed in selecting the site for the annual pecan show; a discussion of plans for erecting a permanent marker for the mother Burkett tree in Callahan County, and the selection of committees to plan and conduct the pecan show.

BAND NEWS

Last spring we elected some of our band officers; they are as follows: Captain — Jack Smith; 1st Lt. — Gerald Green; and 2nd Lt. — George Cook. Friday morning we elected Barbara Bishop — Band Sweetheart; Linda Koonce — Treasurer; Maria Geye — Librarian; Karen Steel — Secretary; Gerald Green — Corresponding Secretary.

Speaking of Friday, were you at the ballgame? My, the answers I get. Well, to you who weren't there, I'll include the "Yes's" too; draw your chairs up closer, and listen carefully (on second thought I'd rather you wouldn't listen too close.) and I shall tell you about our performance.

We marched on the field in a company front, then saluted Early by forming "HI" and playing "Hello Harch." Still in the "HI" formation we marched to our side of the field then we saluted Mom by spelling "MA" and playing "Tell Me Your Dreams." Of course, we couldn't leave Dad out, so we went into the formation of "PA" and played the most popular song to hit R.S.H.S., our "School Song."

As the curtain closes on this exciting adventure of the R.S.H.S. Band, we want to say one more thing — "Beat those Coyotes, Wildcats!"

THE VIEW FROM A SENIOR'S HEAD

NELDA LEE
I goofed, already! You will recall that in my first futile attempt in reporting the Senior news to you, I stated that Barbara Bishop was selected as one of our class favorites. Well, I must admit, I made a mistake. Actually, Alice Roberts was selected as our Senior girl favorite; so I'd like to take this opportunity to apologize to both Barbara and Alice. I'm sorry for the mix-up girls; please forgive me 'cause I'm only human (and a Senior at that).

Has anyone noticed that gleam in the Seniors' eyes; it isn't exactly a gleam resulting from prosperity; but, nevertheless, you may have noticed the little dollar signs around the pupils of our eyes — resulting from greed, spurred on by the image of our glorious Senior trip. That's the reason we were so persistent in trying to sell our magazine subscriptions. We close our sales Monday; and although we didn't make as much money as we would like to have made; it wasn't your fault — your response was gratifying; so to you a big — THANK YOU! And don't forget to buy your Christmas cards from the Seniors.

Two members of our class, Don Long and Carolyn Hunt, received very high honors last week by being named the Most Popular Boy and Girl in R.S.H.S. We want to say congratulations, kids, we're proud of you.

The Seniors are proud of the fact that some of us were appointed to the 1958 annual staff. We will do everything in our power to make your '59 yearbook a bigger and better one than ever before.

We hope you have been attending the Wildcat games this season; and if you haven't, we want to urge you to do so because your presence at the games means a great deal to the Cats.

From the grapevine — it seems that two certain parties from our class — L.M. and J.B., received a bigger thrill from going to town during study periods and selling magazine subscriptions than the rest of us did. Wonder why? Could it be that they are keeping something from us?

This is your Senior reporter "Naughty Nellie" wishing you the best of everything until we meet again; and shouting WILD-CATS — TRAP — THOSE COYOTES!

N.L.'s humble offering toward making your life a little BITTER: "You're getting old when the gleam in your eyes is from the sun hitting your bifocals."

OUT THE SOPH WAY

The first thing the Soph class did this week was to elect favorites; they are Ollie Winfrey and Rodney Smith. Congratulations to both of you! Ollie is also Vice-President in F.H.A.

One of our mothers, Mrs. Butler, was elected F.H.A. mother this week. The F.H.A. is planning to go to Dallas in October. We are really looking forward to this.

The Soph Class mates have some new nicknames so here they are: Nita Scott — Rinky Dink; Gary Jones — Poopsy; Elsie Cain — Lon Tall Sally; Rita O'Conner — Hon; Charles Carroll — Mutt; Johnnie Harris — Johnnie I.E. That's all for now; will see you all at the game Friday night. Cats, let's beat Richland Springs. — Johnnie I.E.

FISH BOWL

The freshman news is lacking this week; guess I'll have to start hiding in lockers and peeping in keyholes to get the real stories.

We are getting ready to have our pictures made Monday, and we have elected our class favorites; they are Mary Awalt and Butch Butler. Our representatives for the Student Council are Maria Geye and Johnny Jones.

The F.H.A. girls are getting ready to initiate the Freshmen next Monday night. We hope they're not too hard on us; after all, that sitting down the Sophomores and Juniors was all in fun, wasn't it?

That just about wraps it up for this week. So-Long!
Let's go, Wildcats!

"AG NEWS

At our first meeting we elected the following chapter officers for 58-59:

President — Delwin Caudle,
Vice President — Gary Jones,
Reporter — Wayne Burns,
Treasurer — Pat Agnew,
Secretary — Frank Weise,
Sentinel — Dinky Hill, and
Karen Steel was elected Chapter Sweetheart.

The November meeting was set for the initiation of Greenhorns. The Chapter sheep project was discussed and it was voted to buy two ewes from Roland Earp.

EDUCATION — A LIFETIME ENTERPRISE

In evaluating and breaking down the term "happiness," perhaps education would necessarily hold a prominent position. Those of us who are content with only the bare necessities of this life are rarely ever happy, really happy. The poor working man with no actual education probably has the things wanted and needed, but very many of them do not enjoy the work they do. By educating and preparing oneself for a selected mode of occupation, one can be assured of wholeheartedly enjoying that work which he does. It is only common reasoning to assume that if one understands his work and realizes what he is doing and for whom he is doing it, he will enjoy it.

Of course, we can all talk about and support the fact that education is important and needed; but how many of us are willing to sacrifice for it? Looking toward the future with high anticipation is the first step. Naturally, the next is to embark upon the task of education. It takes, for some of us, hard work, much perseverance, and a large sum of money — more than most of us can acquire all at once. That is why we must be willing to sacrifice all our lives for what we hope is to come. Many times there will be pitfalls and numerous disappointments for our constitutions to stand up against; but we must be able to withstand anything that come between us and our goal.

The largest and greatest mistake and the most natural one to make is the wrong choice of vocations. One should never choose a high paying job over one not so high-paying, which he knows he undoubtedly would enjoy. We must remember that happiness is hardly ever spelled M O N E Y. In pursuing happiness, one should first realize what is best for all concerned and then he just creates for himself the situation he desires. Maybe a few of the people in this world don't want and don't think they need an education and perhaps we will never know their true feelings; I know what I am going to do and I hope and trust that it will be the right thing.
