JOS. W. JONES DEAD

Prominent Cattleman and Banker Passes On to His Reward

Joseph W. Jones, pioneer Hansford county cattleman, died at St. Joseph hospital, Kansas City, Sunday, April 11, at 2:15 a. m., after a lingering illness. The body was brought to Guymon and laid to rest by his sorrowing Masonic brethren on Tuesday following, at 1:30 p. m. Mr. Jones had been a patient sufferer for several months, never fully recovering from an attack of Spanish influenza suffered early last fall, and went to Kansas City several weeks ago to be treated by specialists. The news of his death, although a great shock to the community, was not altogether a surprise to the relatives and many friends, as they had been advised that his recovery was doubtful. Mrs. Jones and their daughter Gwenfred, were with him when the end came.

Joseph Walter Jones was born in Pontypool, Wales, November 8, 1861, and at the time of his death was 57 years, six months and three days of age. He came to the United States with his parents in 1869, at the age of eight years, and spent his early life in and near Topeka, Kansas. In 1883 he came to Texas, locating first at Mobeetie, and later, in 1890, coming to Hansford county, establishing himself in the cattle business on the Palo Duro, six miles west of Hansford. Several years ago he built a fine home in Guymon and moved the family there for the benefit of the school, but they have always considered the ranch as their home. Mr. Jones was a man of considerable means, which he accumulated by hard and honest toil, and for several years has been president of the First National bank of Guymon. He was married September 12, 1885, to Bena Bowman, of Topeka, Kansas. To this union three children were born: Ozro, who died in infancy; Captain Joseph C. Jones, who is at present in Bordeaux, France, and Gwenfred Annie Jones. Three brothers and two sisters are living: David C. Jones, of Hansford county, Texas, T. S. Jones of Canadian, Texas, Jenkin E. Jones of El Reno, Oklahoma, Mrs. J. R. Wright, of Canadian, Texas, and Mrs. Annie Duffy of Topeka, Kansas. There is one grandchild, Joseph W. Jones Jr., son of Captain and Mrs. Joseph C. Jones.

The deceased was a Master Mason and this order conducted the funeral ceremonies. He also was a member of the higher orders of Masonry, including the Chapter, Knight Templar, a Thirty-second degree member of the Consistory and a member of the Mystic Shrine. The funeral was attended by Masons and other friends from all parts of the country, more people being present than ever before attended a funeral at Guymon.

In the death of Joseph W. Jones Hansford county loses one of her very best citizens. He was a friend to all, rich and poor alike, and news of his death will bring sorrow to the hearts of a host of friends throughout the southwest. The Headlight extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

W. G. Spivey and family and Joe R. Spivey were in from the west end of the county Tuesday, trading and attending to business.

Leo Dacus arrived from Philadelphia last Friday, having received an honorable discharge from the army. Leo served 15 months with a motor transport corps.

IT IS THE OPEN BIBLE

God's Best Gift to Waiting World—Help Send the Light

Sunday, May 18, marked the beginning of the great Centenary drive throughout the church, at home and abroad to raise 35 million dollars for the advancement of the kingdom of Christ. The laymen are back of this great movement and when the laymen of a church get behind her great movements, something is going to be done. Come one and all, that you may be thrilled and inspired for greater things by the actions of the laymen.

The Centenary has one end—making democracy safe, and but one means of reaching that end—giving the gospel of Jesus Christ to the people of every race and tongue.

AFRICA

Africa's need is tragic and terrible. Southern Methodism is responsible for the evangelization of the Batatas, a tribe of 200,000. For this work the Centenary asks for nine men and three women and proposes to reach with the gospel every village within the distance of five days' walk.

CHINA

Old faiths and traditions are passing in China. Christianity, once despised and persecuted, is looked to for guidance and leadership. The centenary calls for the erection of churches, institutional plants and chapels sufficient in number and quality to command the respect of the Chinese. The World Program calls for 25 evangelistic workers. Who will say, "Here am I, send me?"

CUBA

Of the 860,000 Cubans for whose evangelization Southern Methodism is responsible, only 4,000 have been reached. To send out four additional evangelistic missionaries, to train a native leadership, and to foster self-support and self-propagation of the native church is a part of the Centenary task in this field.

MEXICO

If the church does not meet her Centenary opportunity in Mexico 1,750,000 people for whom Southern Methodism is responsible will drift into Free Thought, Spiritualism and Infidelity. This field is now ready and accessible. Thirteen evangelistic missionaries are needed and as many native workers as can be secured.

AMERICA

Leaders are all agreed that the supreme missionary task is to make America Christian. One has said, "He does most to Christianize the world who does most to Christianize America." Of the 50,000,000 unreachd people in our own land, at least four million are potential Southern Methodists.

JAPAN

The Centenary seeks to reach the young life of New Japan and give the gospel message to the dissatisfied multitudes who are turning from the old traditions to test the truths of Christianity. The Centenary asks for 52 new evangelistic missionaries, 12 new evangelistic stations, and three evangelistic and social center halls. An opportunity here for life investment.

KOREA

In Korea the ratio of Christians is only 1 to each 119 of population. The Centenary task is to seek and to save for Christ the untouched, the unsatisfied, to train and satisfy with Christ the untrained and the heart hungry. Thirty-six new missionary evangelists are needed to help in this task. Will you be one?

BRAZIL

The Centenary asks for 31 evangelistic missionaries, 12 deaconesses and Bible Women and 42 native preachers, to aid in the task of giving the open Bible and the Living Christ to the 10,000,000 people for whom Southern Methodism is responsible in Brazil. The country is big, so is the task.

EUROPE

Europe is a ripe missionary field. Her people need all the material help we have to give. But her greatest need is moral and spiritual. No money for which the Centenary is asking can be more wisely and effectively used than that which the church expects to devote to missions in the war ravaged countries of Europe.

It is ordered by the court that a bid of 5 per cent interest be sent in on the common school district No. 11 school house bonds issued by Hansford county upon the faith and credit of said school district No. 11, and if interest bid is accepted, said bonds be purchased with the permanent school fund, received from payment of court house and jail bonds.

Whereas, it appearing to the court that the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Fort Worth, Texas, have requested that the commissioners court of this county appoint and provide for the compensation of a county cattle inspector to assist the state and federal authorities in the eradication of scabies and, whereas, it further appearing to the court that Sid Lackey, of Hansford county, has had several years' experience as an inspector and that he is willing to accept the appointment as an inspector, it is therefore ordered by the court that said Sid Lackey be appointed inspector for

J. R. Collard, the old wheel horse of all the bond selling campaigns in Hansford county, announces that we are again over the top, in the fifth and final loan. The county's quota was $28,000 and the committee sold $27,500 worth of the bonds. Hansford county went over the top with everything that came along and we can now greet the returning soldiers with a good grace. Mr. Collard wishes to thank everyone who helped and especially the non resident land owners, many of whom came across nobly, without any solicitation.

One Dead; Two Injured

George Cosby of Texhoma is dead and Miss Ruby Hitch and Miss Joyce Spitzer are seriously injured as a result of an automobile accident which occurred near Goodwell Wednesday. The trio were enroute from Texhoma to Guymon and it is thought Cosby lost control of the car. Miss Hitch is a sister of Mrs. Luther Cline and the latter is now at Texhoma, where the injured young ladies were taken for medical attention. Their injuries are serious, but it is thought both young ladies will recover.

Need Help?

The commissioners court of Hansford county has made application to the state for a loan of thirty thousand dollars, under the Drouth Relief Act. This money, if granted by the state, will be for loan to our farmers under the rules prescribed by the legislature, for the purchase of seed and feed to enable them to plant and cultivate a crop. Those desiring to take advantage of this opportunity to secure assistance, should make application to the county clerk. It should be known definitely within the next few days whether the state will grant the loan asked by the county, but with the application sent in was also a request that we be advised by wire of the acceptance or rejection of the loan. Since the time is at hand that farmers should know what they can depend upon, it is suggested that they begin filing their applications with the clerk and be in readiness when definite word comes from the state department.

OFFICIAL SUMMARY OF PEACE TREATY TERMS ARE TO SIGN

ALSACE-LORRAINE RESTORED

Saar Valley and Danzig Internationalized—Germany's Military and Naval Power Made Nominal—Total Reparation to Be Determined Later.

The official summary of the peace treaty submitted to the German representatives at Versailles by the peace conference delegates is as follows:

The preamble names as parties to the one part, the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, described as the five allied and associated powers, and Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, China, Cuba, Ecuador, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, the Hedjaz, Honduras, Liberia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Roumania, Serbia, Siam, Czechoslovakia and Uruguay, who with the five above are described as the allied and associated powers; and on the other part, Germany.

Section One—League of Nations.
The covenant of the league of nations constitutes Section I of the peace treaty, which places upon the league many specific in addition to its general duties. It may sanction Germany at any time for a violation of the neutralized zone east of the Rhine as a threat against the world's peace. It will appoint three arbitrators to the former Saar commission, oversee its regime and carry out the plebiscite. It will appoint the high commissioner of Danzig, guarantee the independence of the free city and arrange for treaties between Danzig and Germany and Poland. It will work out the mandatory system to be applied to the former German colonies, and act as a final court in part of the plebiscites of the Belgian-German frontier, and in disputes as to the Kiel canal. It will decide certain of the economic and financial problems. An international conference on labor is to be held in October under its direction, and another on the international control of ports, waterways and railways is foreshadowed.

Section Two—Boundaries of Germany.
Germany cedes to France Alsace-Lorraine, 50 square miles of it in the southwest, and to Belgium two small districts between Luxembourg and Holland, totaling 939 square miles. She also returns to Poland the southeastern tip of Silesia beyond and including Oppeln, most of Posen and West Prussia, 27,886 square miles, East Prussia being isolated from the main body by a part of Poland. Germany loses sovereignty over the northeasternmost tip of East Prussia, 49 square miles north of the city of Danzig, the internationalized areas about Danzig, 729 square miles, and the basin of the Saar, 728 square miles, between the western border of the Eifel and the province of Bavaria and the southeast corner of Luxembourg. The Danzig area consists of the V between the Neigard and Vistula rivers made into a bay by the addition of a similar V on the west including the city of Danzig. The southwestern third of East Prussia and the area between East Prussia and the Vistula north of latitude 53 degrees three minutes is to have its nationality determined by popular vote, 5,785 square miles, as is to be the case in part of Schleswig, 2,787 square miles.

Section Three—European Political Classes.

BELGIUM.—Germany is to consent to the abrogation of the treaties of 1839 by which Belgium was established as a neutral state and to agree in advance to any conditions which the allied and associated powers may determine to replace them. She is to recognize the full sovereignty of Belgium over the contested territory of Moresnet and over the part of Prussian Moresnet, and to renounce in favor of Belgium all rights over the cities of Eupen and Malmedy, the majority of which are to be entitled within six months to protest against this change of sovereignty either in whole or in part, the final decision to be reserved to the league of nations. A commission is to settle the details of the frontier, and various regulations for change of nationality are laid down.

LUXEMBOURG.—Germany renounces her various treaties and conventions with the grand duchy of Luxembourg, recognizes that it ceased to be a part of the German Zollverein from January 1 last, renounces all right of exploitation of the railroads, adheres to the abrogation of its neutrality, and accepts in advance any international agreement as to it, reached by the allied and associated powers.

LEFT BANK OF THE RHINE.—As provided in the military clauses, Germany will not maintain any fortifications or armed forces less than fifty kilometers to the east of the Rhine, hold any maneuvers, nor maintain any works to facilitate mobilization. "In the case of violation," she shall be regarded as committing a hostile act against the powers who sign the present treaty and as intending to disturb the peace of the world. "By virtue of the present treaty Germany shall be bound to respond to any request for an explanation which the council of the league of nations may think it necessary to address to her."

ALSACE-LORRAINE.—After recognition of the moral obligation to repair the wrong done in 1871 by Germany to France and the people of Alsace-Lorraine, the territories ceded to Germany by the treaty of Frankfurt are restored to France with their frontiers as before 1871, to date from the signing of the armistice, and to be free of all public debts.

Citizenship is regulated by detailed provisions distinguishing those who are immediately restored to full French citizenship, those who have to make formal application therefor, and those for whom naturalization is open after three years. The last-named class includes German residents in Alsace-Lorraine, as distinguished from those who acquire the position of Alsace-Lorraine as defined in the treaty. All public property and all private property of German ex-residents passes to France without payment of credit. France is substituted for Germany as regards ownership of the railroads and rights over concessions of tramways. The Rhine bridges pass to France with the obligation for their upkeep.

THE SAAR.—In compensation for the destruction of coal mines in northern France and as payment on account of reparations, Germany cedes to France full ownership of the coal mines of the Saar basin with their subsidiaries, accessories and facilities. Their value will be estimated by the reparations commission and credited against that account. The French rights will be governed by German law in force at the armistice excepting war reparations. France repudiates the present owners whom Germany undertakes to indemnify. France will continue to furnish the present proportion of coal for local needs, and contribute in just proportion to local taxes. The basin extends from the frontier of Lorraine as annexed to France north as far as St. Wendel, including on the west the valley of the Saar as far as Saarhombach and on the east the town of Homburg.

In order to secure the rights and welfare of the population and guarantee to France entire freedom in working the mines, the territory will be governed by a commission appointed by the league of nations and consisting of three members, one French, one native of the Saar, and one representing three different countries other than France and Germany. The league will appoint a member of the commission to act as executive of the commission. The commission will have all powers of government formerly belonging to the German emperor in Alsace and Lorraine, will administer the railroads and other public services and have full power to interpret the treaty clauses. The present laws will continue but subject to the commission.

After fifteen years a plebiscite will be held by communes to ascertain the desires of the population as to continuance of the existing regime under the league of nations, union with France or union with Germany.

Section Four—European Political Classes.

GERMAN AUSTRIA.—Germany recognizes the total independence of German Austria in the boundaries traced.

CZECHO-SLOVAKIA.—Germany recognizes the entire independence of the Czecho-Slovak state including the autonomous territory of the Ruthenians south of the Carpathians, and accepts the frontiers of this state as to be determined in the case of the German frontier shall follow the frontier of Bohemia in 1914. The usual stipulations as to acquisition and change of nationality follow.

POLAND.—Germany cedes to Poland the greatest part up upper Silesia, Posen and the province of West Prussia, on the left bank of the Vistula. A field boundary commission of seven members, representing the allied and associated powers and one each representing Poland and Germany, shall be constituted within 15 days of the signing of this boundary treaty. Such special provisions as are necessary to protect racial, linguistic or religious minorities and to protect freedom of transit and equitable treatment of commerce of other nations shall be laid down in a subsequent treaty between the five allied and associated powers and Poland.

EAST PRUSSIA.—The southern and the eastern frontier of East Prussia is to be fixed by plebiscites, the first in the re-gerency of Allenstein between the southern frontier of East Prussia and the eastern frontier of Regierungsbezirk Allenstein, from where it meets the boundary between East and West Prussia to its junction with the boundary between the circles of Oletzko and Angersburg, thence the northern boundary of Oletzko to its junction with the present frontier, and the second in the area comprising the circles of Stuhm and Rosenburg and the parts of the circles of Marienburg and Marienwerder east of the Vistula.

In each case German troops and authorities will move out within 15 days of the date the territory to be placed under an international commission of five members appointed by the five allied and associated powers, with the particular duty of guaranteeing the free and equal vote. The commission will report the results of the plebiscites to the five powers with a recommendation for the boundary line. The terms of the boundary treaty shall be entered into between Germany and Danzig, to assure suitable railroad communication across German territory on the right bank of the Vistula between Danzig and Berlin, while Berlin shall grant free passage from East Prussia to Germany.

The northeastern corner of East Prussia about Memel is to be placed by Germany under the control of the allied and associated powers, the former agreeing to accept the settlement made, especially as regards the nationality of the inhabitants. The district immediately about it is to be constituted into the "free city of Danzig" under the guaranty of the league of nations. A high commissioner appointed by the league and resident at Danzig shall draw up a constitution in agreement with the duly appointed representatives of the city and shall deal with any instances with all differences arising between the city and Poland. The actual boundaries of the city shall be delimited by a commission appointed within six months from the date of the signing of three representatives chosen by the allied and associated powers and one each by Germany and Poland.

A convention, the terms of which shall be fixed by the five allied and associated powers, shall be concluded between Poland and Danzig, which shall include Danzig within the Polish customs frontier, though a free area in the port, insure to Poland the free use of all the city's waterways, docks and other port facilities, the control and administration of the Vistula and the whole through railway systems within the city, and postal, telegraph and telephonic communication between Poland and Danzig, provide against discrimination against Poles within the city and place its foreign relations and the diplomatic protection of its citizens abroad in charge of Poland.

THE FRONTIER BETWEEN GERMANY AND DENMARK will be fixed by the self-determination of the population. Ten days from the peace German troops and authorities shall evacuate the region north of the line running from the mouth of the Schlei, south of Kappel, Schleswig and Friedrichstadt, along the Elder to the North sea, south of the Telling, and the workmen and soldiers' council shall be dissolved, and the territory administered by an international commission of five, of whom Norway and Sweden shall be invited to name two.

HELGOLAND.—The fortifications, military establishments and harbors of the islands of Helgoland and Dune are to be destroyed under the supervision of the allies by German labor and at Germany's expense. They may not be reconstructed for any similar fortification built in the future.

RUSSIA.—Germany agrees to respect as permanent and inalienable the independence of all territories which were part of the former Russian empire, to accept the abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk and other treaties entered into with the Maximilianist government of Russia, to recognize the full force of all treaties entered into by the allied and associated powers with states which were a part of the former Russian empire and to recognize the frontiers as determined thereon. The allied and associated powers formally reserve the right of Russia to obtain restitution and reparations of the principles of the present treaty.

Section Five—German Rights Outside Europe

Outside Europe Germany renounces all rights, titles and privileges as to her own or her allies' territories to all the allied and associated powers, and undertakes to accept whatever measures are taken by the five allied powers in relation thereto.

COLONIES AND OVERSEAS POSSESSIONS.—Germany renounces in favor of the allied and associated powers her overseas possessions with all rights and titles therein. All movable and immovable property belonging to the German empire or to any German state shall pass to the government exercising authority therein.

These governments may make whatever provisions seem suitable for the repatriation of German nationals and as to the conditions on which German subjects of European origin shall reside, hold property or carry on business. Germany undertakes to pay reparations for damage suffered by French nationals in the Kameruns or its frontier zone through the acts of German civil and military authorities and of individual Germans from January 1, 1900, to August 1, 1914. Germany renounces all rights under the conventions of November 4, 1911, and September 29, 1912, and undertakes to pay to France in accordance with the estimate presented by the reparations commission all deposits, credits, advances, etc. thereby secured. Germany undertakes to accept whatever measures are taken by the allied and associated powers as to the trade in arms and spirits in Africa as well as to the general act of Berlin of 1889, the general act of Brussels of 1890. Diplomatic protection to inhabitants of former German colonies is to be given by the governments exercising authority.

CHINA.—Germany renounces in favor of China all privileges and immunities resulting from the Boxer protocol of 1901, and all buildings, wharves, barracks, forts, munitions of warships, wireless plants and other public property except China will, however, take no measures for disposal of German property in the legation quarter at Peking without the consent of the powers signatory to the Boxer protocol. Germany accepts the abrogation of the concessions at Hankow and Tientsin, China agreeing to open them to international use.

MOROCCO.—Germany renounces all her rights, titles and privileges under the act of Algeiras and the Franco-German agreements of 1890 and 1891 and under all treaties and arrangements with the Moroccan empire. She undertakes not to intervene in any negotiations as to Morocco between France and other powers, accepts all the consequences of the French protectorate and renounces the capitulations.

EGYPT.—Germany recognizes the British protectorate over Egypt declared on December 18, 1914, and renounces as from August 4, 1914, the capitulation and all the treaties, agreements, etc. concluded by her with Egypt. She undertakes not to intervene in any negotiations about Egypt between Great Britain and other powers.

There are provisions for jurisdiction over German nationals and property and for German consent to any changes which may be made in relation to the consolidation of public debt. Germany consents to the transfer to Great Britain of the powers given to the late sultan of Turkey for securing the free navigation of the Suez canal. Arrangements for property belonging to German nationals in Egypt are made similar to those in the case of Morocco and other countries. Anglo-Egyptian goods entering Germany shall enjoy the same treatment as British goods.

Hansford county and that the Live Stock Sanitary Commission be notified of his appointment and asked to confirm said appointment. It is further ordered that said Sid Lackey present statements for the amount of time put in as such inspector and his expenses, to this court from time to time for approval.

It is ordered by the court that the report of the jury of view appointed at the November term of the commissioners court to view and assess damages incidental to the changing from a road of the third class to a road of the first class, the Hansford-Guymon public road, be tabled for further consideration of this court.

On this day came on to be considered the matter of making application for state loan under the "drouth relief act," for the purpose of advancing to the needy resident farmers of the county the necessary seed for planting and feed for their stock, in order to enable such parties to plant and cultivate crops of farm products in this county during the year 1919. It is ordered by the court that there be made an application to the state for $30,000.00 of the relief funds to be used by the county for the purposes provided by law, under the provisions of the act known as the "Drouth Relief Act," passed at the regular session, 36th legislature, 1919. J. G. B. Sparks, A. E. Townsend and H. L. Wilbanks were appointed a committee to pass on the applications for drouth relief fund.

Jesse F. Hays was called to New Orleans last week, where the government will present him with and teach him how to use a hand to take the place of the one he lost in France.

Wheat Not a Necessary Food.
Wheat is not necessary. We are accustomed to regard wheat as a more or less indispensable article of diet. It isn't. It is an article of luxury, and absolutely nothing else. Wheat possesses over oats, corn and rice absolutely no nutritional quality for man or beast. It has no more protein, and no better protein. It has no more fat, and no better fat. It has no mineral salt better or in larger amounts. It has no more fuel or better fuel. It is just one of the cereals, and there isn't the slightest evidence that it is the best one, because so far as comparative tests are concerned in animals, it isn't the best one; it is very far from the best one.—A. E. Taylor, M.D., U. S. Food Administrator.

A HANDY TRACTOR

FOR ANY FARM

HERE is an economical little Kerosene Tractor for small or large farms—it pulls 2 1/2 in. plows anywhere a good team can continuously pull one plow. At the Salina, Kansas, Demonstration in 1918 it proved that it can average 1 1/2 acres per hour on 1.62 gal. of kerosene plowing gumbo under an average draw bar pull of 1015 pounds. It has a four cylinder Case Valve-in-head Motor set cross wise upon a one piece cast main frame. This affords the use of all cut steel spur gears and prevents disalignment of shafts, gears and bearings. All of these important parts are thoroughly enclosed and run in oil. The friction clutch belt pulley is mounted on the crank shaft and conveniently located for belting up to any machine. The Motor has a removable head also big hand hole covers along the side of crank case and a large cover underneath which makes engine bearings and other parts very accessible. The fan and tube, non-clogging Case Radiator

Core is supported by a four piece cast frame. The fan is driven by spiral gears enclosed. The "safety" fan hub prevents damage to these gears when starting. No fan belt or chain to look after. The Siphon Thermostat regulates the cooling system. Water circulation is insured by a centrifugal pump. This controlled cooling device maintains proper temperature of water to keep the motor hot thereby assuring thorough combustion and prevents raw fuel passing by the pistons or diluting the oil in crank case.

The Case Air Washer permits only clean, moist air entering carburetor, consequently no dust can enter the cylinders. This means a long lived motor. This tractor weighs only 3400 lbs. When plowing all wheels travel on unplowed land. The hitch is low and adjustable, eliminating undue side draft. For Discing, Seeding, Haying, Harvesting, Threshing, Silo Filling, Baling, etc., it's a handy tractor.

New Light on Term "O. K." President Wilson has his own way of doing things, and he also has a very good reason for doing them his own way. Not only does that apply to matters of world-wide importance but to trivial things as well.

In signing unofficial documents—on official documents he formally writes "Approved"—the president of the United States precedes his signature with the word "Okeh."

One of his secretaries, suddenly realizing the significance of the word, asked the president why he did not write "O. K."

"Because that's wrong," said Wilson.

"Wrong?" echoed the secretary.

"Isn't it derived from Andrew Jackson's 'Ori Krecht'?"

"No," said Wilson. "'O. K.' is often erroneously used for 'Okeh,' which in the Choctaw language means, 'It is so.'"

FARMER-STOCKMEN HAVE YOU SEEN THE

Fordson Tractor

In developing the FORDSON Tractor the aim has been to produce a small tractor, which will be low in first cost, reliable, and above all—efficient.

Being small, light and economical the FORDSON tractor is adapted for use on small farms as well as on the largest. It will pull all farm implements and do the work generally done by horses on the farm. In addition, by its belt pulley the tractor will drive farm machinery such as a thresher, ensilage cutter, etc., making the FORDSON a truly universal tractor.

Experience has pointed to the small, light tractor as being the one machine which will fill all varying conditions satisfactorily.
