Former Wilbar-ger Lady Died at San Antonio Mon.

Mrs. Garriett Taylor After Seige of Bad Health Submits to Death Angel

A message was received here this week stating that Mrs. Garriett Taylor died at her home in San Antonio Monday.

Mrs. Taylor with her husband and children, moved from this country about eight years ago to San Antonio. She had been in bad health for sometime, but it was not known to her sisters here that she was dangerously ill, and the news of her death was received as a shock.

As close relatives of deceased, a husband and two children and seven sisters survive her. The sisters include:

Mrs. W. M. Stalcup of Sinton, Mrs. George Tibbits of Motley county, Mrs. Mary Sumner of Marlow, Oklahoma, Mrs. J. W. Sears of Childers county, Mrs. E. C. Austin, Mrs. Belle Holloway, and Mrs. W. H. Johnson of Odell.

Had Mrs. Taylor lived until coming November, she would have been 38 years of age. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church and will be remembered by her friends in this country as a good christian woman.

Soon after the death message was received here, Mrs. Holloway left for San Antonio to attend the burial of her sister.

The Reporter extends its sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Odell Has Attractive Booth at Wilbarger County Fair

Exhibit Contains Some Fine Agricultural Products For The Year

Visitors who attend the County Fair this week are urged to visit Odell's booth on the ground and view the agricultural products grown in this part of the county that are there on display.

In response to a call for agricultural products made by W. M. Scott, through the Reporter last week, several of the farmers in this section, brought into town some fine samples of maize, kafir corn, corn, cotton and other products which all together well represents the fertility of the soil in this locality.

These exhibits were carried to Vernon Tuesday afternoon, by Messrs. W. M. Scott, W. P. Starr, Roy C. Russell, A. C. Flowers, Oscar Tuttle, S. B. Starr, W. W. Matthews, W. A. Bell and artistically arranged in a booth given over to Odell.

The gentlemen of Odell report that farmers from all over the county were bringing in some fine exhibits from their farms, and to view the nice heads of maize, stalks of cotton, wheat and other products raised in the west, one would almost forget that Wilbarger county had passed through some drought periods this year.

R. W. Rainey attended the Jackson County Fair at Altus, Oklahoma, last week.

Luther Stowe Gives us Tip to Army Life

Explains The Duty of Soldier in a Company as Truck Driver

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 31 1917. M. I. C. Co. 16.

Mr. Charles P. Ross, Dear Sir:

Just received a copy of the Reporter which my friend W. W. Matthews sent me and must say I was proud to receive it too. Any soldier is proud to get any kind of mail from home.

I notice a letter from a L. C. Crutchfield of San Benito, Texas. There are lots of fellows just like him, — wish they were home. But it is going to be a long time before some are at home. I haven't got in but three months of service but have never wished I had not enlisted, because I am satisfied and feel fine in uniform.

There are 53 men in our Company, 6 Sargeants, 52 Privates, first class, 9 Privates, 4 truck masters and one Company Commander. We sure have some fine Company Commander. He is a prince.

We are assigned to trucks, 32 of us. We have three ton trucks. They are F. W. D., four wheel drive. I sure like to drive one, have been out about 14 hours today but would rather be out than lying around camp.

We get up at 5 a. m. and the lights go out at 9:30 every night. We can get a pass every day. Have reveille at 5:30, retreat at 6 p m. All qualified chauffeurs don't have to do any fatigue work. We have our turn at guard. I get a guard about every month. Four men do twenty-four hours guard, 2 off, 2 on, but no one minds that. We have good eating three times a day. We have no drill work. Have truck inspection every Wednesday. We are also inspected ourselves. I have never got a "bawling out," have been under arrest once. Was made Corporal with one month's service.

Well Charles, guess I had better close, will write more some other time. So wishing every one in Odell good luck, I remain, Yours,

Private Luther Stowe.

Move to Floyd County

Odell and community lost three families this week. E. C. Austin and family, S. L. West and family, all loaded their household goods in cars and moved to new homes in Floyd county. These good people will be missed in this part of the county and the Reporter is numbered among those who hated to see them leave. But as they start new homes in the country west of here, the Reporter trusts that happiness and prosperity will be with them.

John Coffey and Sebie Bell left Monday for Decatur to enter the Decatur Baptist College as students.

Rev. Adams Recalled as Pastor of Local Church

Baptists Also Elected Sunday School Supt. And Teachers Sunday

At church conference of the local Baptist Church Sunday, the members voted almost unanimously that they recall Rev. W. W. Adams, as their pastor for another year.

Rev. Adams' ministerial work and his influence with the Odell people has been of untold value in bringing the Baptist church here up to a higher standard. And the Reporter congratulates the members of the denomination in deeming it a wise stand to keep him with them another year at least.

Sunday at the Baptist church here was also the date for the election of their Sunday school superintendent and teachers. A record breaking crowd was in attendance at Sunday school and a number of new members were enrolled.

The superintendent and teachers for the ensuing year follow:

Rev. H. C. Mason, Superintendent; J. M. Gibbins, Assistant Supt.; W. C. Beach teacher of class No. 1; Mrs. W. A. Bell, teacher of class No. 2; Mrs. W. M. Scott, teacher of class No. 3; Mrs. J. W. Tombs, teacher class No. 4; Mrs. Mark Burch, teacher of class No. 5; Mrs. G. M. Still, teacher of class No. 6; R. G. Wynn, teacher of class No. 7.

Since Sunday September 30th, will be generally observed over the state by the different Baptist congregations, as "Go to

Parts of County Soaked by Good Rain This Week

Odell And Part of Territory Favored-Late Feed And Cotton Helped

Since the Reporter was printed and mailed last week, certain portions of Wilbarger County has been drenched by the heaviest rains that have fallen this year. Yet in other localities near here only light showers fell.

Here in Odell and west of here for some distance, a good rain fell Sunday evening. And on Monday morning at an early hour, another heavy shower followed, both putting a good season in the ground.

According to reports made to this office, the rain this week has been light around Doans, but heavy near Fargo, Hinds, Tolbert, and in and around Vernon. J. M. Knapp of near White City, was in town Monday morning and told the Reporter editor that he believed fully three inches of rain fell out at his place Sunday evening.

The rain of this week will be of great benefit to late feed and cotton.

"Sunday School Day" and a day for state missionary work, the Sunday school here is already at work preparing a suitable program to be carried out at the church on that day.

I. D. Crain left Friday for Dallas county on business.

Mrs. J. R. Huie returned the first of the week from a visit with her parents near Vernon.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 A YEAR.

The rains over the country this week will permit many farmers to sow fields of wheat for winter pasturage, whose feed crops are coming up short.

Since the rain the Reporter has no estimate to make as to how many bales of cotton will be ginned at Odell this season. It is a hard matter to determine what a cotton crop will do. It has often been said of Wilbarger county, that it can promise more and make less, and promise less and make more, than any county in the state.

Did you know the postal authorities would much rather than you would have your return address printed on all envelopes that you use in your correspondence. If the public in general would comply with this method it would do away with so much dead letter mail accumulating in post offices. Most business institutions use printed stationery in their correspondence, but the farming class of people are slow in adopting the style. Farming is a business and we believe the day is not far distant when every uptodate tiller of the soil who desires to keep abreast of the times, will keep in his home a supply of nice printed stationery for use.—Ex.

There are only a small number of counties in Texas that are advertising their bumper crops this season. The reason is, because the tender plants that shot from the earth at different times have felt the withering touch of dry weather. Still we are not to question the reason for this, of Him, who directs the rainfall on the just and the unjust. As in his Book of Laws, He distinctly tells us. He worketh out all things for the best for those that love Him. But the Reporter believes if those who live in this immediate locality, will read the newspapers and then compare our condition with portions of Texas where dry weather this year has not permitted anything to grow in the way of crops, they will then be brought to a realization of the fact, that they have much to be thankful for, and will feel proud that they are living in a country where there is always something raised, even though it does fall away short of producing what might be termed bumper harvest sometimes.

As we take our seat at our editorial desk this morning to prepare copy for this issue of the Reporter, we can distinctly hear the occasional exhaust of one of the big steam engines at one of the local gins. A bale of cotton is on the gin yard we are informed and the gin crew are busy preparing to put it through the plant. All this reminds us that it will not be many days before the fleecy staple will be coming into town from all directions and then there will be busy times in Odell. Of course the cotton crop of the country is going to be considerably shorter than that of last year. Shorter by two thousand and bales, some say. But even if we are to accept those figures, we are reminded, that farmers over the country who will have cotton to sell this fall, have a fair assurance that for every bale they sell with the seed, they will get in money away over one hundred round dollars.

Since all hope of high price cotton this fall was shattered lately by a recent embargo on all cotton exports, if we can rely on statements issued by the Agricultural Department at Washington, this embargo will not cut any material figure in lowering the price of the fleecy staple. The message from Washington dated September 9th, reads:

"License restriction recently placed on the shipment of cotton from the United States will not materially diminish the volume of exports and should have no appreciable effect on prices to the grower.

Reports that reduction in shipments to the European neutrals will cut off markets for 4,000,000, are branded as absurd by the department."

The Bible

Our president has asked the American boy in European trenches and on American warships and in American training camps to read the Bible.

What he says to our soldiers well may be read by every other American.

In a message to R. B. Haines, secretary, Woodrow Wilson says: "The Bible is the word of life. I beg that you will read it and find this out for yourself—read, not little snatches here and there, but long passages that will really be the road to the heart of it. You will find it full of real men and women, also of the things you have wondered about and been troubled about all your life, as men have been always; and the more you read, the more it will become plain to you what things make men happy—loyalty, right dealing, speaking the truth, readiness to give everything for what they think their duty, and most of all, the wish that they may have the real approval of the Christ who gave everything for them—and the things that are guaranteed to make men unhappy—selfishness, cowardise, greed and everything that is low and mean. When you have read the Bible you will know that it is the Word of God, because you will have found it the key to your own heart, your own happiness, and your own duty."

The Latest

Those of our fair sex who desire to really reach the topmost summit of sure enough elite society are hereby given a tip secured from one of the most prominent members of some four hundred in some northern or eastern city. It comes direct off the bat and affidavits from some of our best citizens are forth coming if necessary. Now, all those who thought they had mounted the pinnacle by extracating their eyebrows and penciling where the brows went to grow, are informed that they are away behind the times. Listen: Two tourist, man and woman, supposedly husband and wife, but there is no concrete proof for the last statement, drove up in a handsome 7 passenger Packard and stopped in front of the Decatur Drug Co. The man got out while woman and her poodle dog remained in the car, the dog snugly sitting on a cushion of the latest pattern. The man entered the drug store and brought out a glass of sparkling water. He handed the glass of water to the woman. She sipped it, and the poodle whined. The glass was put to the dog's mouth and he lapped out almost half the water. Then the woman, fearing Spido was drinking too much, drank the remaining contents herself. Bob Silghman who was standing near the car, took in the proceedings, and when the woman followed the dog in drinking, remarked, "I'll be d---d."—Wise County Messenger.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just ~~suicided~~ ^{suffered} terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

She writes further: "I am in splendid health. . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.
