Week Of Oct. 1 - 7 Dedicated To 4-H

How often have we looked progress in the eye and then turned our backs because we were unsure which direction to go or which new method or technique to follow?

Well, 4-H is a venturesome organization of active boys and girls and these youngsters are constantly eyeing progress and taking the necessary steps to move forward and to grow and develop. 4-H is reaching out into new areas, involving youth with new interests and backgrounds, points out Dr. Don Stormer, state 4-H and youth leader for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Thus it's appropriate that this year's theme of National 4-H Week, October 1-7, is "A New Day--A New Way."

"4-H is reaching more and more of our youth across the state," says Stormer. "It's reaching into urban areas and involving youngsters with a multitude of backgrounds, needs and interests. Thus 4-H has expanded its program areas to meet these varied needs and interests."

4-H has actually taken on a new look, according to the state leader. Boys and girls are now encouraged to "do their own things, set their own pace, venture into new areas of interests."

"4-H'ers are limited only by their imagination, and that's what makes 4-H so exciting today," believes Stormer. "4-H is also attuned to such present-day concerns as community development and improving the environment."

Although there now are more than 100,000 boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 19 enrolled in 4-H in Texas, many more are eligible to join. And with the upcoming observance of National 4-H Week, the call goes out to these youngsters to become involved in a real "action-oriented" program--4-H.

"Special programs and activities will be staged in counties throughout the state during 4-H Week to recognize 4-H'ers, their parents, friends and other supporters," notes Stormer. "This is a good time to learn more about 4-H and then to make the decision to invest a little time and energy to become involved in an organization that has something for everyone. Being a 4-H'er can mean the most exciting years of your life."

4-H is a part of the education program conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University. It is directed at the local level by county Extension agents who work with volunteer 4-H adult leaders and other local citizens.

Special Education Program A Success

The Special Education program seems to be going over real good. There are three teachers and three aids giving their time and effort to the program.

Mr. Braden reports a good participation among parents and children. There are 16 students enrolled in elementary.

McGovern To Gain The Polls-Four Issues-Momentum-

Washington, D.C. -- From bottom-low support from less than one in two voters, George McGovern's campaign for the presidency is certain to gain in the final six weeks before the voting.

As he recovers from the all-time low, some Democrats will be encouraged to think he can achieve the impossible, and as he moves higher in the polls his campaign could develop momentum.

Candidates are always most effective when they have momentum, because accompanying it is the automatic hope and often convention that the tide can continue and go on to victory. McGovern created and rode just such a tide to his nomination triumph.

In his current campaign McGovern has at least four issues on which he can be effective among many Democrats. Tax inequalities, which George Wallace stressed, unemployment and inflation, Vietnam and civil rights are the key issues.

McGovern's controversial views on cutting defense spending heavily and on several other issues are also major issues but his potential to win votes seems to lie mainly with the first four.

Tax loopholes bug millions of Americans and McGovern has been making effective references to this abuse in his campaign speaking. The failure of the Nixon Administration to reduce unemployment is a valid issue, as is the rate in inflation for the past four years.

McGovern's promise to pull out of Vietnam in ninety days appeals to a segment of the population up tight on this issue. And the Democrat has the support of many minority leaders in his charge that the President should be doing more in the way of special programs, quotas and aid for blacks and other minorities.

Of course, McGovern has a long way to go; he is in the position of Senator Barry Goldwater, G.O.P. nominee in 1964. But he has the biggest party, in registration, to work with--though thus far short of money.

Much could depend on the tone and effectiveness of the campaign of President Nixon. The President continues to warn against complacency and everyone at Republican headquarters remembers the 1948 story.

There is a chance Mr. Nixon will achieve a cease-fire in Vietnam immediately preceding the voting and if this happens it might kill one of McGovern's top vote-getting issues. That partly explains why the heavy bombing in North Vietnam continues.

The U.S. Future

The trend away from the militancy, aggressive rioting, revolution talk and action, illegal demonstration and mass misbehavior is now unmistakable. Even hippie and yippie leaders, while still in some cases making a good thing out of protest and damnation of the American republic, admit the tide has turned.

In short, the youth rampage of recent years continues to affect some students but to decline; the residue is a marijuana legacy and warped attitudes among many youngsters who in their immaturity concluded they had all the answers and that older citizens and the nation were in the dark.

To varying degrees, every generation has its kicks and its fad movements; the recent and sometimes still-current fad featured communes and group love, stress on peace, opposition to capitalism, material values and the U.S. governing system in general. As a result, of course, some good and some improvement, will result--as always.

But the destructiveness and cost of the latest youth kick was far greater than in most generations. And the job of getting many misguided, disillusioned and downright ignorant and warped youngsters back into the mainstream of common sense, truth and realism is one which will require the best efforts of older, wiser heads and many years.

Writers, professors, those of prominence and public position have an obligation today to recognize this fact and tell it like it is--to our youngsters. Too many spineless and intimidated professors, politicians seeking votes and brainwashed and popularity-seeking writers and speakers, impressed by large, noisy crowds of immature youngsters, have oped for popularity.

Instead of hypocritical, cowardly or befuddled intellectual prostitution, the nation and the nation's best interests and future obligate all who understand reality to help today's lost souls back to a wholesome life. This is the certain future, not the recent youth kick, and history proves this point beyond any question for those who wish to study it.

Honey, Can We Afford an Aspirin?

State Capital NEWS

By: Bill Boykin

Gov. Preston Smith, as had been long reported, summoned legislators back to Austin Monday to consider competitive insurance rates and strengthened budget controls for the governor.

He spelled out his recommendations in a joint session of the House and Senate.

While he has indicated he will battle to put his recommendations across, Smith said he has no plans to call more than one 30-day special session.

On the other hand, he is reluctant to open the session agenda to permit consideration of other matters until the competitive rating bill has been disposed of.

Smith said he considers as the most important step toward insurance reform and consumer protection replacement of the system of rate-setting by the State Board of Insurance with a competitive rate system.

Recent attorney general's opinions, complained Smith, have virtually stripped the governor of authority to insure adequate funding of state services. The opinions held he could not order transfer of funds from one state agency to another and that appropriations bill riders giving him effective power to pass on itemized spending are invalid.

Smith acknowledged that in calling a fourth special session of the 62nd Legislature (the 62nd is the first legislature since 1934 to have to meet so often) he had taken no easy course.

Insurance companies reportedly are pretty well divided on the competitive rate issue. They defeated a similar proposal last year.

MONEY NEWS GOOD AND BAD—Legislative budget writers received some good news and some bad news just before they headed into the new special session:

*Next year's tax bill may not be nearly as large as many had feared, due in part to federal revenue sharing.

*The federal government may force the legislature to make a $50 million emergency appropriation early next year due to sharp limits proposed on new "social services" aid to welfare recipients.

*Legislative Budget Board Director Tom Keel told board members lawmakers likely won't face "a severe tax problem" in 1973 unless spending runs "inordinately high."

Keel and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes at the same time pointed out that Congress is expected to cut back on the welfare assistance which was relied on to balance the current state budget. The loss of federal money may run 40 per cent of the anticipated $124 million over the next five fiscal quarters.

Both Barnes and Keel anticipated passage of a $90 million (for Texas) revenue sharing bill by Congress. Predictions of a small new tax need do not take into account possibility of the state's having to assume the entire cost of public school education.

DEATH SENTENCES COMMUTED

On request of local prosecutors and law enforcement officials, the Board of Pardons and Paroles has commuted death sentences to life imprisonment for 29 Texas prisoners.

The U.S. Supreme Court recently held that the death penalty as it is applied in the U.S. violates the constitutional ban against cruel and unusual punishment. Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin is appealing the case.

At the time of the High Court ruling, 66 Texans were under death penalty convictions, 41 of them on death row near Huntsville and 25 still in county jails awaiting transfer to prison.

AGRICULTURE RECEIPTS $3.25 BILLION--Texas' total cash receipts from sales of crops and livestock during the last year totaled $3.25 billion, Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported.

Only California and Iowa have higher cash receipts.

Hidalgo County in the Lower Rio Grande Valley had the highest returns of all Texas Counties --$117.3 million. Deaf Smith County in the Panhandle west of Amarillo was the only other to top the $100 million mark. Its receipts were $103.36 million. Parmer, Castro, Hale, Swisher, Cameron, Lubbock, Hansford and Lamb counties were in the top 10. Livestock accounted for almost two-thirds of the total cash receipts.

Major agriculture production area is the irrigated High Plains with $668.1 million in receipts. The Blacklands rank second in cash receipts ($347.8 million).

AG OPINIONS--The public has a right to fish in newly-created canals and waterways dredged from state bays into and over private property providing there is access and subject to state regulation, Attorney General Martin held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

*A National Guard sergeant injured in a crowd control demonstration by another Guardsman is entitled to medical expenses.

*When a county tax assessor-collector dies or vacates his office duties fall on the chief deputy when bond is posted and approved.

*The Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz Memorial Naval Museum Commission can contract with a federal agency to finance property purchases for historic renovation

Fire Prevention

It's good to seriously consider fire prevention each year and October 8th-14th is Fire Prevention Week. October being the month furnaces and heating systems are often used for the first time since spring, it's an appropriate month to assess fire danger.

Fires--most of them preventable--claimed over 11,800 Americans last year and caused damage estimated at over two and a half billion dollars. They cost jobs, ruin businesses and natural resources and destroy irreplaceable personal possessions daily.

The National Fire Prevention Association urges all of us to be more careful with cigarettes and matches, to see that electrical cords are in good condition, and to be careful with flammable liquids.

An estimated 233,615 major criminal offenses occurred January-June this year--an overall rate of 4,173 per 100,000 population.

Sen. Wayne Connally of Floresville will be governor for a day October 7.

Texas Tokamak, a device for testing concepts necessary to harness energy-producing mechanism of the hydrogen bomb for controlled light, heat and power, is now in preliminary testing at the University of Texas here.

A total of 754 new lawyers are qualified to take the oath of office September 25 as a result of passing the bar examination.

TV COMMENTARY

THE ARM-CHAIR SPORTS FAN can develop a championship-size tummy as he exercises his appetite while watching television's inventory of athletic fare this TV season.

NBC's coverage of baseball will close the season with the play-offs and World Series. The World Series begins October 14. The All-Star game will be seen in July. Of course, the NBC "Game of the Week" will be back next April.

APPROXIMATELY 190 live telecasts of pro football games will be aired on the three networks. Meantime, ABC begins the first year of its new two-year $27-million NCAA contract. The yule holidays will be supersaturated with bowl games.

THEN COMES basketball, dribbling on. Beginning January 7, the NBA will be covered through play-offs and championship. College basketball will be included in the round ball coverage. NBC will air the NCAA Tournament in March. CBS has coverage of the NIT on March 17, 18, 24 and 25.

SANDWICHED between the major sports, also included this year will be an abundance of golf, tennis, bowling, hockey, horse and auto racing, and I don't know what-all! ABC's "Wide World of Sports" will continue to offer the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat in many sport quests.

MATCHING potato chip with potato chip, peanut with peanut and soda pop with soda pop, the arm-chair athlete will be right there when it all happens, gaining pounds instead of victory and sweet contentment instead of defeat.

Back To Steam?

In California three cities have taken delivery of an experimental steam bus in an effort to test the vehicle in public service, learn whether it's feasible as a replacement for diesel burning buses. The buses were built by several companies.

In other similar experimentation, an electric automobile recently made its appearance. Of course, neither steam automobiles nor electric ones are new. But they have been out of vogue for decades.

If successful, steam and/or electric vehicles might begin to replace gasoline and diesel burning vehicles, which contribute so much to pollution of the air. For city driving electric cars offer advantages--being silent, having no fume emission and operating economically (batteries are recharged each night in garages).

The hope of American drivers is that one or both types will prove practical for today's transportation needs, which would represent a major step forward in the fight to protect the environment in which we live.

 1 t lemon juice
 grated rind from one lemon

Arrange sliced apples in heavy pan. Sprinkle the brown sugar evenly over them. Stir white sugar into melted butter and add unbeaten egg and mix well. Add combined dry ingredients alternately with milk. Then fold in lemon juice and rind. Pour this mixture over apple slices and bake in 350-degree oven 30 minutes, or until batter is done.

Serve warm topped with ice cream or whipped cream.

Sweaters for men are loose and bulky. The tight, ribbed sweater for men is not worn by the style conscious male. They may have crew necks. V necks or turtle necks on the loose comfortable garments.

Short-Cut Shortcake

When back-to-school blues dampen golden autumn days, cheer up your hungry crew with a tasty treat that's a bit of nostalgia for the "summer of '72."

Super scrumptious strawberry shortcake is everybody's favorite. And with luscious strawberries, packaged refrigerated biscuits, whipped cream for topping and the new king-size deluxe Toast-R-Oven toaster by General Electric, shortcake becomes a fabulous short-cut dessert designed to please all year long.

The GE Toast-R-Oven, which can toast four slices of bread or top brown six English muffin halves as well as bake, preheats in just two minutes. What's more, it's the perfect sized mini-oven for a can of Pillsbury's Refrigerated Hungry Jack Buttermilk Biscuits, the perfect biscuit for any shortcake. To prove the point, if you purchase any General Electric Toast-R-Oven between now and the end of October, you get coupons redeemable for a selection of Pillsbury's refrigerated dough products including: Crescent Dinner Rolls, Hungry Jack Buttermilk Biscuits, Orange Danish Rolls with Icing, and Cherry, Peach, Blueberry or Apple Turnover Pies.
