GEORGE W. FOSTER AN- NOUNCES FOR COUNTY JUDGE

I, the voters of Lubbock County, hereby making my formal announcement as a candidate for County Judge of Lubbock County, subject to Democratic Primary, July 22, 1922. I have resided on the Plains for the past 23 years, eight years in Floyd County, fourteen years in Dawson and seven in Lubbock County. During the time I have taught school, stock-raised, and engaged in the mercantile business. I am at this time operating a garage in Lubbock.

I was elected County Judge and Ex-Superintendent of the Schools of Dawson County, Texas, in 1912, 1916, and 1918, and I cheerfully solicit investigation of my record there, as to my qualifications and the merit of the law.

The voters of the county believe me to be worthy and efficient, I solicit their support and influence only upon my merits and I assure you that if I am elected I will serve you to the best of my ability, without fear or favor to anyone.

Yours respectfully,
GEORGE W. FOSTER.

ES, We Are Proud

"Pride cometh before a fall." But that's false pride. Any institution may justly be proud of providing faithful banking service to a community over a period of 10 years.

For many years this bank has been a part of Slaton, has grown with it and prospered. We are proud of the record and pledge a continuance of the same kind of banking service which has distinguished the First State Bank in the past.

Silver Tea Social

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist Church of Slaton, Texas honored old Erin across the seas by giving an informal Silver tea at the home of Mrs. Proctor on St. Patrick's Day.

This society, on this occasion, gave evidence of the efficiency of their leader, Mrs. Gates, as the complete St. Patrick's Day scheme of decorations, the Shamrock, dear to the heart of every son and daughter of the Emerald Isle, with other historical relics of this traditional custom, were artistically arranged. The kissing of the Blarney Stone was interesting and quite a number of the visitors availed themselves of this opportunity to secure health, wealth, happiness and love.

The visitors were many, whose pretty costumes and smiling faces added a dash of color, as well as the charm of culture and good will.

The tea served by these winsome young ladies was the "best ever."

Nine dollars were left on the plate, indicative of appreciation for the social hour. The favors were very appropriate, Shamrock and bows of green ribbon.

The guessing contest revealed the history of the great love of the Irish people for St. Patrick and the philosophy of deeds of kindness. Here are the names of some of the snakes that St. Patrick drove from Ireland, and today no snakes are found in this now independent country.

Guessing contest.

1. Worn a few years back by women? Boa.
 2. Worn all the year round? Garter snake.
 3. Baby plays with it and never gets hurt? Rattler.
 4. How Fritz would describe a napkin? Viper.
 5. Indian wears it in comfort? Moccasin.
 6. A very fast horse? A racer.
- Wishing many happy returns of March 17 to bless the lives of these young ladies, I am, Admiringly,
—A VISITOR.

BOXING MATCH LAST MONDAY NIGHT WAS A FIZZLE

Large crowds attended the Wilselma Theatre last Monday night to see "The Old Swimmin' Hole," featuring Chas. Ray, and the long-looked-for Denton-Bentley boxing bout. These boys pulled an 8-round draw several months ago; this time were to meet in ten 3-minute rounds, and they naturally expected something, but the fight only lasted the first and part of the second round. Good preliminaries were enjoyed.

Bentley came into the ring in his usual calm manner. Denton came in and tried the ropes, bowing and vowing to his supporters, but when the main event took place he failed to keep up his usual smiles, as Bentley took them all out of him. They met, shook hands, then backed off a few paces, then Denton put out his old long right swing, but couldn't land it, but managed to land a left to Bentley's jaw, but with little force. Then it seemed that Iron-jawed Bentley woke up; he rushed Denton, landed a left on his nose, causing blood to show itself, then landed rights and lefts in quick succession on Denton's body that put him to the ropes. Then Denton clinched Bentley and threw him to the floor. Referee Morgan warned him not to do that again.

Denton, after landing one blow on Bentley's body, clinched him again, and started another wrestling match, throwing Bentley to the floor. The referee gave him another chance. Bentley was punishing Denton with short heavy punches when the gong sounded for the first end. Denton retired to his dressing room and called for his doctor.

In the second round Denton again caught Bentley, picked him up and threw him to the floor. Referee Morgan decided in favor of Bentley, which gives him the championship of the South Plains.

Knight Templar Easter Services.

Arrangements have been made for Lubbock Commandery Knight Templars to hold their Easter service this year in Slaton. This is the first time the Commandery has held an Easter service anywhere else than Lubbock, but owing to the large number of Sir Knights residing in Slaton arrangements have been made to alternate each year the Easter service between this city and Lubbock, thus affording an opportunity for more of the Sir Knights in Slaton to attend.
 Easter service with the Knight Templars is a very important part of the ritual, and every Sir Knight is required to attend in full uniform. The service will be held in the Methodist church at 3 p. m. April 16, and it is open to the public, and all are cordially invited to attend.

What the Brownfield Herald Thinks.

The Dallas Catholic Diocese has posted a reward of $2,500 for the ap-matter over at Slaton will just about come out with a good coat himself and with other gentle reminders to tend his own business. That $2,500 don't look good to us as hard as the times

Lubbock vs. Slaton.

On Friday evening, March 24, the Slaton high school baseball team crossed bats with the Lubbock high school. This being the first game of the season for the Slaton boys considerable interest was manifested in the game. The evening was threatening or there would have doubtless been a large crowd out to witness the game. The game was called about 4:30 and the Slaton boys showed their usual pluck and determination. Homer Johnson went to the pitcher's box with a smile on his face that we all know so well, and one which Lubbock will learn before the season is very well advanced. Ater, Pierce, Dow followed one another in quick succession. They struck with all their power and their efforts should have netted them each a home run but for some unknown reason they could not find the ball that seemed to be so easy to hit. Joe Burton, who so ably held down the job of quarter-back on our football team, was the first Slaton boy to try to find the ball. He placed a safe hit in the left field. He was followed by Miniard Abel who struck out. Thomas Cashion came next. By this time the Lubbock pitcher seemed to realize that he was not going to have an easy victory and accidentally hit Cashion, giving him his base. Harvey Austin followed, knocked a fly ball to the field which was caught by a Lubbock boy. It seemed that the first inning would close without a score being made, but Marion Benton came in for a hit and Joe came in with the first score.

Lubbock scored in the fifth inning and also ran in two in the sixth. Slaton failed to score in the second inning but Joe Burton ran in one in the third. After this the boys all tried their best to show the Lubbock boys how to score. At the close of the sixth inning the score stood 9 for Slaton and 3 for Lubbock. The game was called because of rain.

We try them in Lubbock again next Friday, the 31st. Come out and help us win.

Two Minutes Spell — Paint Certainty

THE two minutes it takes to squeeze the Tinter (tube of coloring) in the can of Liquid Base (body paint) spells certainty of successful results when you use B. & V. Base and Tinter Paint.

Preparing this paint for the job is just as easy and simple as putting sugar into coffee—and you know you are really using fresh paint.

Every housewife prefers fresh eggs to stale eggs, fresh vegetables to stale vegetables, for the excellent reason that the fresh has more goodness than the stale. Anything in common use is better when fresh than when stale because staleness in reality is nothing but deterioration.

Bradley & Vroman Base and Tinter Paint

Is freshly made, freshly mixed and freshly colored when it goes on the job. It costs no more than stale paint, therefore why take chances with inferior materials, particularly when your own common sense and experience tells you FRESH paint is better paint?

Paint Doesn't Cost Money — It Saves It!

Unless your home is protected inside and outside by repainting at least once every four years, you will lose in repairs and lessened value, from five to ten times what the paint and labor would cost.

"Save the surface and you save all" Paint & Vroman

57 Shades of Base and Tinter Paint in stock. The Gold Bond Guarantee positively protects you against any, every and all troubles traceable to the paint. It does more—it warrants that you will secure unusually satisfactory results.
